1. TO ENABLE JUSTICES OF PEACE IN GENERAL QUARTER SESSIONS TO REPAIR the shire or county-halls, or other buildings wherein the assizes or grand sessions are usually held, 9 G.3. c.20. the justices of peace in their general or quarter sessions, on presentment of the grand jury at the assizes or great sessions, or general gaol-delivery held for the county at their shire-hall, or other building usually made use of for holding the assizes or great sessions within such county, of the ill state of any such shire-hall, or other building, and the necessity of repairing the same, may order it to be repaired as they think fit; and shall assess all money laid out in repairing the same upon the several hundreds, lathes, wapentakes, rapes, cities, towns, parishes, townships, wards, or other divisions of the county, and may cause the same to be levied and paid in the same manner as other county rates are ordered to be assessed, collected, levied, and paid, as by 12 G.2. c.29. and 13 G.3. c.18. s.7. directed, 9 G.3. c.20. s.1.

2. In cases where any shire hall, or other building usually made use of for the holding the assizes or great sessions, hath for time out of mind been repaired at the expence of any particular person or persons, riding, division, or part of a county, the same shall for ever hereafter be repaired at the expence of the inhabitants of such riding, &c. as they have heretofore been; and the money laid out in such repairs shall be assessed, levied, and paid by such division as in s.1. id. s.2.

3. If there is occasion for any sudden repairs which will not cost more than 50*l.*, two justices, after having viewed the same, and an estimate of able workmen made of the expence thereof, may order the same to be repaired, and the money to be raised on the county, in the same manner as after a presentment of the grand jury, id. s.3.

4. All cities, corporations, rapes, wapentakes, boroughs, towns, ports, parishes, townships, or other places or persons, which are now bound by law and ancient usage to repair any such shire-hall, &c. (as in s.1.) or to furnish the same with benches, tables, rails, or other fixtures, and to keep the same in repair, shall for ever hereafter be bound so to do, id. s.4.

5. In actions, &c., or informations commenced against any person for any thing done in pursuance hereof, defendant may plead the general issue not guilty, giving this act and the special matter in evidence; and if plaintiff is nonsuited, forbears prosecution, or discontinues, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s.5.

BURIAL.

1. FOR PROVIDING SUITABLE INTERMENT IN CHURCH-YARDS OR PAROCHIAL burying grounds in Eng. for such dead human bodies as may be cast on shore from the sea, in cases of wreck or otherwise, 48 G.3. c.75.

2. The churchwardens and overseers of the poor in any parish in Eng. in which any dead human body is cast on shore from the sea, by wreck or otherwise, shall, upon notice thereof given to them, cause such body to be conveyed to some convenient place, and with all speed cause it to be decently interred in the parish church-yard or burial-ground, so that the expences thereof do not exceed the sum allowed by such parish for the burial of persons buried at the expence of the parish; but if such body is cast on shore in any extra-parochial place where there are no churchwardens, &c. such notice shall be given to the constable or headborough thereof, who shall proceed as before directed in case of churchwardens, &c. id. s.1.

3. Every minister, parish clerk, and sexton, shall perform the duties customary in other funerals, and admit the body to be buried in the parish burial-ground, receiving the like fees as in cases of burials at the expence of the parish, id. s.2.

4. Every person who shall find any such body on the shore, and within six hours after give notice thereof to such churchwardens or overseers, or constables or headborough, as the case may be, or shall leave the same at their usual abode, shall be entitled to 5*s.* for his trouble, to be forthwith paid to the person giving the first notice only, but no greater sum shall be given for one notice, though there may be more bodies than one, id. s.3.

5. All persons finding such bodies on the shore, and neglecting, within six hours after, to give or leave such notice, shall forfeit 5*l.*, id. s.4.

6. All charges attending the execution of this act, shall be paid by the churchwardens, overseers, constable, or headborough, for the time being, of such parish or place, 48 G.3. c.75. s.5.

7. One justice for the county or place in which such bodies are buried, shall, by writing under his hand, direct the treasurer of the county to pay to such churchwardens, constable, &c. such sum for his expences about the execution of this act, as he may deem reasonable, after the same have been verified on oath, and such treasurer shall pay the same, and be allowed it in his accounts, id. s.6.

8. Every churchwarden, constable, &c. neglecting to remove such bodies from the sea-shore prior to interment, for 12 hours after notice given or left in writing at his abode, or to perform the other duties hereby required of them, shall forfeit for each offence 5*l.*, id. s.7.

9. All penalties incurred under this act, if not paid on conviction, shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods by warrant under the hand and seal of any justice for the county or place where the offence happens, (which warrant such justice may grant on confession, or on evidence of one witness on oath,) and the surplus money arising by such distress, &c. shall be returned to the owners, after deducting the costs of such distress, &c. and when paid shall go to the informers, and if no sufficient distress shall be found, or if the penalty is not forthwith paid, such justice, by like warrant, may commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction for the county or place, without bail, for not exceeding two calendar months nor less than 14 days, unless the penalty and charges be sooner paid, id. s.8.

10. Conviction for offences against this act shall be in form or to the effect here provided, viz.

Be it remembered, that on this — day of — in the — year of the reign of — A.B. is convicted before — one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the — of having [as the offence shall be,] and I the said — do adjudge him [or them,] to forfeit and pay for the same the sum of — Given under my hand and seal the day and year aforesaid, id. s.9.

11. Any person aggrieved by any thing done under this act, may appeal to the quarter-sessions holden for the county or place one calendar month after the cause of such appeal arose, on giving 10 days' notice of his intention so to do, and the matter thereof to the appellee, and forthwith after notice, entering into recognizance before some justice of the county or place, with sufficient sureties conditioned to try such appeal, and abide the order and award of the court thereon; and such sessions on proof of notice and recognizance given and entered into, shall determine such appeal in a summary way, and award costs to either party or otherwise, and they may mitigate the penalty, and order further reasonable satisfaction to be made to the party injured; and such their determination shall be binding and conclusive, id. s.10.

12. In case of any distress under this act, the same shall not be deemed unlawful, or the parties trespassers, for any defect or want of form in the information, summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceedings thereon, nor trespassers ab initio, from any irregularity that shall be afterwards done by them, but the party injured thereby may recover satisfaction by action on the case, id. s.11.

13. All penalties and expences attendant thereon, incurred under this act, shall be paid by the person incurring the same, and the parish or place wherein such person ought to have acted in his duties under this act, shall be exempted therefrom, id. s.12.

14. The lords of manors throughout Eng. shall pay to the churchwardens, constables, &c. of such parishes or places, such sums as they were accustomed to pay for placing any such bodies into the ground in the state in which found, such sums to go in part discharge of the expences incurred under this act, and credit to be given for the same by such churchwardens, &c. in their accounts with the county, id. s.13.

15. The quarter sessions may cause such sums as may be necessary for the purposes of this act, to be raised as county-rates under 12 G.2. c.29. are directed to be, id. s.14.

BURNING IN THE HAND.

1. TO AMEND THE LAW FOR PUNISHMENT OF CERTAIN OFFENDERS, 19 G.3. c.74. ss.3, 4. [MADE PERF. so far (viz. s.5.) as relates to burning in the hand of certain persons convicted of felony within clergy, 39 G.3. c.45. [and see rest of this title and statute, tit. TRANSPORTATION.]]

2. When any person is convicted before any session of oyer and terminer, or gaol delivery, or any quarter-session of the peace for any county, &c. city or place within Eng., or at any great session in Cheshire or Wa., of any felony within benefit of clergy, for which he is liable by law to be burnt or marked in the brawn of the left thumb, such court, or any other court of like authority, holden for the same place, if it shall think fit, instead of such burning, &c. may impose a moderate pecuniary fine on the offender, or may order him (except in manslaughter,) to be once or not more than three times publicly or privately whipped, such private whipping to be in presence of two persons besides the officer inflicting it, (and if a female, in presence of females only,) [whipping of women R.E.P. 1 G. 4. c. 57. s. 2.] which fine or whipping shall have the like consequences with respect to discharge from the same or other felonies, or any restitution to estates, capacities, and credits, as if such burning, &c. had taken place, 19 G. 3. c. 74. s. 3.

3. Nothing in this act shall deprive such courts of the powers vested in them by law, of detaining in prison for not exceeding one year, or of committing to the house of correction or public workhouse, to be kept to hard labour for not less than six months or exceeding two years, any such offender, but such offender may, if they shall think fit, after such burning, whipping, or fine, be so detained, and with such accumulated punishment in case of escape from such house of correction or workhouse, as if this act had not been made, 19 G. 3. c. 74. s. 4. [The punishments of burning in the hand or whipping may be changed to seven years' transportation, 4 G. 1. c. 11. s. 1.]

BUTCHER.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR BUTCHERS not to keep tanhouses, 22 H. 8. c. 6. [R.E.P. 5 R. c. 8., which act is R.E.P. 1 J. 1. c. 22. s. 58., c. 25. s. 47., but 1 J. 1. c. 22. is R.E.P. by 48 G. 3. c. 60. s. 1.]

2. FLESH SHALL be sold by weight, 21 H. 8. c. 5. [ENF. and AMD. 25 H. 8. c. 1., both acts SUSP. 27 H. 8. c. 9., and R.E.P. 35 H. 8. c. 11.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. THE PUNISHMENT of a butcher selling unwholesome flesh, stat. virt. temp. c. 7. 8vo. ed. p. 588.

2. A butcher who sells swine's flesh mangled, or flesh dead of the murrain, or who buys flesh of Jews, and sells the same to Christians, after being convict, shall, for the first time, be amerced; for the second, set in the pillory; for the third, be imprisoned and fined; and for the fourth, shall forswear the town; and so it shall be done to all who offend in like case, id. ibid.

3. THAT NO BUTCHER SLAY ANY MANNER of beast within the walls of London, 1 & 5 H. 7. c. 3.

4. No butcher, nor his servant, shall slay any manner of beast within the scalding-house, or within the walls of London, upon pain to forfeit for each ox 12*d.*, and each cow or other beast sd., one-half to H.M. and the other to the person suing by action of debt, wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed; and the common process at common law may be made therein, id. s. 1.

5. This act shall be observed in every city, borough, or town walled within Eng., and in Cambridge, except Ber. and Carlisle, id. s. 2.

6. FOR PERMITTING calves to be brought deal to London as formerly, 7 A. c. 6. [This act appears in force merely as declaratory of the free sale of cattle in Smthfield, all restrictions on which, imposed by 5 A. c. 34. s. 2. and s. 4., are taken away by 12 G. 3. c. 71. s. 1. which repeals that act.]

7. One butcher may sell to another any dead calves, sheep, or lambs, in London or elsewhere, id. s. 1.

BUTTER AND CHEESE.

(STATUTES repealed.)

1. FOR BUYING and selling of butter and cheese, 3 & 4 E. 6. c. 21. EXPL. 21 J. 1. c. 22. R.E.P. 12 G. 3. c. 71.

2. FOR REFORMING of the abuses committed in the weight and false packing of butter, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 26. [R.E.P. 36 G. 3. c. 86. s. 19.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. THE WEIGHT of a wey of cheese shall be 52 cloves, at 7 lbs. to the clove, 9 H. 6. c. 8.

2. TO PREVENT abuses committed by the traders in butter and cheese, 4 W. & M. c. 7. (and s. 1.) [AMD. and R.E.P. as to s. 2. by s. 19. of 36 G. 3. c. 86.]

3. The factor or buyer of butter shall set his seal or mark upon the butter, or cask in which it is, or his name at length; and in case the same shall be afterwards exchanged or opened, and such cask is changed, or any bad and decayed butter mixed or packed up with good, or any other fraud committed by the seller, the offender, on conviction on oath before one justice, by a witness or on confession, shall forfeit 20*s.* for every firkin, to be levied by distress and sale of goods, and after charges of distress defrayed, overplus to be restored; and every constable of the parish, or chief constable of the hundred where the offence was committed, shall levy the same accordingly by warrant under the hand and seal of such justice, 4 W. & M. c. 7. s. 3.

4. All warehousekeepers, weighers, searchers, or shippers of butter and cheese, in any port of this kingdom, shall receive into their warehouses all butter and cheese brought them for cheesemongers free of the city of London, or other person making such commodities, and shall take care thereof until shipped, and ship it successively as it came to hand (without undue preference), except the owner shall order to the contrary, and shall be entitled to a fee of 2*s.* 6*d.* per load, and so proportionably; and every such person, or their servants, herein making default, shall, on conviction as aforesaid, forfeit for every firkin of butter 10*s.*, and for every wey of cheese 5*s.*, to be levied as in s. 3. mentioned, id. s. 4.

5. All warehousekeepers, &c. in all such ports, shall keep a book wherein they shall enter all butter and cheese brought to them as it came to hand, and in which entry shall be inserted the time when such goods were received, and the quantity, and name of the owner, and shall make like entry of goods shipped, the time when, the master's and the vessel's names, and to whom consigned, which book all persons may search without fee; and every warehousekeeper, &c. making default herein, or making any undue entry, by preferring one man's goods to another, or who shall refuse, in the day-time, to produce such book to be searched, shall, on conviction as in s. 3., forfeit for every firkin of butter, every wey of cheese, and every other such offence, 2*s.* 6*d.*; and in case the offender has no goods whereon to levy the penalty, such justice may commit him to prison until the penalty is paid, id. s. 5.

6. Every master of any ship, hoy, or vessel, coming into any such port to ship butter and cheese, or his servants, who shall refuse to take on board any such butter and cheese as shall be tendered to them for shipping by such warehousekeepers, &c. (as in s. 4.) shall, on conviction, as in s. 3., forfeit for every firkin of butter 5*s.*, and every wey of cheese 2*s.* 6*d.*, to be levied as aforesaid, id. s. 6.

7. The penalties of this act shall go in moieties to the informer and the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, to be paid to the churchwardens or overseers, to be distributed by the justice who convicted the offender, id. s. 7.

8. This act shall not exclude any cheesemongers free of the city of London, from sending their own vessels for their own goods, but such persons may send their own vessels, and such vessels as they may hire from London to freight by charterparty for their own goods; and such warehousekeeper at such port where such vessels shall be sent, and the masters thereof may receive the same, id. s. 8.

9. This act shall not extend to any warehouse now, or which hereafter may be within the counties of Chester, Lancaster, or the city of Chester, nor to any boat or vessel that shall come into any port of such counties, id. s. 9.

10. Persons aggrieved by judgment of any justice under this act, may appeal to the next general quarter sessions for the county, city, &c. where the offence was committed, and the determination of such sessions shall be final, the appellant first giving to the party accused a bond in the penalty of 20*l.*, with one or more sureties to the liking of the justice from whom such appeal is made, to pay costs allowed by the sessions within one month after appeal determined, in case appellant is not relieved, id. s. 10.

11. TO PREVENT ABUSES AND FRAUDS IN THE PACKING, WEIGHT, AND SALE of butter, and to repeal 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 26., and 4 W. & M. c. 7. s. 2., 36 G. 3. c. 86. [AMD. 38 G. 3. c. 73.] [Not to extend to Scot. 36 G. 3. c. 86. s. 20., 38 G. 3. c. 73. s. 6.]

12. Every cooper or other person making vessels for packing butter, shall make the same of seasoned timber, and tight, and not leaky, and shall grove in the heads and bottoms thereof: and every such vessel shall be a tub, firkin, or half firkin, and no other, and shall, when it comes from the maker's hands, be of the weight avoirdupois, including top and bottom, and proportions, and capable to contain the quantities of butter following, viz.

A tub	{ shall weigh avoirdupois not less than } 11 lbs.	{ or more than } 15 lbs.	{ and be capable to contain, avoirdupois } 84 lbs.	{ and the tops and bottoms shall not be more than of an inch, } *
firkin	{ } 7	{ } 11	{ } 56	{ } *
½ firkin	{ } 4	{ } 6	{ } 28	{ } *

on pain that every person making any such vessels contrary hereto, shall forfeit 10*s.* for each vessel, 36 G. 3. c. 86. s. 1.

13. Every maker of vessels for packing butter shall, before they go out of his hands, on the outside of the bottom thereof, brand his

Christian and surname at length, in legible letters, together with the exact weight or tare thereof, or in default shall forfeit 10s. for each vessel not so marked, 36 G.3. c.86. s.2.

14. Every maker of vessels for packing butter within the regulations of 36 G.3. c.86., shall, before such vessels go out of his hands, on the outside of the bottom thereof, in addition to his names, as such act requires, brand the name of his place of abode as herein directed, (viz.) if he live in a city or market-town, or within the county of such city, or the parish of such town, then the name of such city or town; and if he live in a village, township, liberty, hamlet, or other subdivision of a parish, then the name of such parish wherein such village, &c. shall lie, and if he live in any extra-parochial place, then the name of the next adjoining parish, or in default thereof shall forfeit 10s., 38 G.3. c.73. s.1.

15. Every dairyman, farmer, or seller or packer of butter for sale, shall pack the same in vessels so made and marked, and shall soak and season such vessels before the butter is packed therein; and when seasoned shall, on the bottom, on the inside, and on the top on the outside, brand his christian and surname at length; and also on top on the outside, and on the bouge or body, brand the true weight or tare of such empty vessel when soaked, and his names across two staves at least, and likewise imprint his name at length on top of the butter in such vessel, on pain, in case of default herein, to forfeit 5l., 36 G.3. c.86. s.3.

16. Every dairyman, &c. shall pack in every tub, firkin, or half firkin, (exclusive of the tare of such vessel) the quantities following of good merchantable butter, viz. in a tub 84lbs., in a firkin 56lbs., and in an half firkin 28lbs. avoirdupoise weight net, and not less; and no old or corrupt butter shall be mixed or packed with any new and sound butter, nor shall any whey-butter be mixed or packed with butter made of cream, but they shall be packed severally, and every tub, &c. shall be of one sort of goodness throughout; and no butter shall be salted with great salt, but with small fine salt, nor shall more salt be mixed with it than necessary for its preservation, on pain that any such offender shall forfeit in each such case 5l., id. s.4.

17. If any change, fraud, or deceit, is practised by any farmer, dairyman, seller of butter, or factor for the sale or buying thereof, or other person, either in the vessel wherein such butter is packed, or in the butter therein contained, whether in quality, quantity, weight, or otherwise, or in any brands or marks on such vessels, or in any manner howsoever after the butter is packed for sale, all persons concerned therein shall forfeit 50l., id. s.5.

18. All cheesemongers, dealers in butter, or other persons selling to any persons any tub, &c. of butter, shall deliver in every tub, &c. the full quantity appointed by this act, or in default, shall make satisfaction to the buyer for the quantity wanting at the price the same was sold at, to be recovered by action in the case, together with costs, id. s.6.

19. No cheesemonger, &c. shall repack for sale any butter in any such tub, &c. on pain to forfeit 5l. per each tub, &c. so repacked, id. s.7.

20. This act shall not make any cheesemonger or other person liable to the penalties of this act for using any such tubs, &c. after the British butter packed therein has been taken out and foreign butter repacked in the same, if before such foreign butter is so repacked he shall entirely efface the names of the original dairyman, farmer, &c. thereout, leaving the name and tare of the cooper, and the tare of the original dairyman, farmer, &c. and branding his own christian and surnames at length, and the words foreign butter on the bouge of such vessel across two staves thereof, id. s.8.

21. Every person who shall counterfeit or forge any names or marks of any such owners, farmers, or dairymen, or cause the same to be forged, &c. shall forfeit 40l., id. s.9.

22. All offences against this act, the mode of determining which is not herein before prescribed, and where the penalties for the same do not exceed 5l. shall be heard and determined before one or more justices for the county, city, &c. wherein the offence was committed, and on proof thereof by one witness on oath, such penalties may be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods by warrant under the hand and seal of such justice, restoring the overplus after charges of distress and costs deducted; and such penalties shall go to the informer; but if no sufficient distress, or the penalty is not paid, such justice, by like warrant, may cause the offender to be imprisoned in the common gaol of the county or place, without bail, for any term from 28 days to three calendar months, unless the penalty is sooner paid, id. s.10. (see s.14.)

23. The justice, &c. convicting any person under this act, shall draw up the conviction in the form or to the effect following, viz.

' — } Be it remembered, that on the — day of — A.D. is convicted to wit } before — of H.M.'s justices of the peace for the said county of, — [or for the city, liberty, or town of — as the case may be], for that the said A.B. on [time of committing the offence] at — did [here state the offence against the act according to the fact] contrary to the form of the statute in that case made and provided; and the said — adjudge him or her to pay and forfeit for the said offence the sum of —. Given under my hand and seal [or our hands and seals] the — day and year first above mentioned.]' and such justice shall write such conviction on parchment, and transmit it to the next quarter sessions for the county or place to be filed of record; and if the person so convicted shall appeal from the judgment of such justice to such sessions, then such sessions shall, on receiving such conviction, drawn up in such form, hear and determine the matter of such appeal as in s.12. of this act directed, 36 G.3. c.86. s.11.

24. All persons aggrieved may appeal from the judgment of such justice to the next quarter sessions holden for the county or place, and the justices there may award costs to either party as to them shall seem meet, id. s.12.

25. No such conviction made, or judgment given, shall be set aside by such sessions for want of form, if the material facts alleged therein be proved, nor shall such conviction or judgment, or any order or proceedings of such sessions be removed by certiorari or otherwise into the courts at Westminster, id. s.13.

26. All penalties hereby imposed, exceeding 5l., shall be sued for and recovered by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record at Westminster, and shall go to the party suing with costs, id. s.14. (see s.10.)

27. Persons sued for things done under this act may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and if a verdict shall pass for defendant, or plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinued, or has judgment against him on demurrer or otherwise, the defendant shall have double costs, id. s.15.

28. This act shall not extend to packing of butter in any pot or other vessel not capable of containing more than 14lbs. avoirdupoise of butter, id. s.16.

29. Informations, prosecutions, or suits for any offence against this act, shall be brought within four months after the offence was committed, id. s.17.

30. So much of the butter act, 8 G.1. c.27. (for York), 17 G.2. c.8. (for New Malton), 30 G.3. c.55. (for Hydderston and Pell), as refer severally to 17 & 14 C.2. c.26. and also so much of such three acts as mentions pots of butter, shall be Repealed, id. s.18.

31. Every factor or agent buying or selling butter for others, or who shall buy, sell, or offer to sale, or have in custody for sale, or shall order, consign, forward, or send, or cause to be ordered, &c. any vessel containing butter to any person, which vessel shall not be marked, and made, and have the butter imprinted according to this act and 36 G.3. c.86., shall forfeit 20s., 38 G.3. c.73. s.2.

32. Every person, being a cheesemonger, or otherwise a seller or dealer in butter on his own account, who shall offer for sale, or have in custody for sale, any vessel of butter not marked according to this act, shall forfeit 10s., id. s.3.

33. All penalties by this act imposed shall be sued for, levied, and applied in such manner, and subject to such method and limitation as by 36 G.3. c.86. prescribed; and persons sued for acts done under this, shall have the benefits of the provision contained in that act, id. s.4.

BUTTONS.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TO PREVENT THE MAKING OR SELLING OF BUTTONS MADE OF CLOTH, serge, druggat, or other stuffs, 10 H.7. c.2. [see also 8 A. c.6., 4 G.1. c.7.]

2. No persons within Eng., Wa., or Ber., shall make, sell, or set on any clothes or garments, any buttons made of cloth, serge, druggat, frize, camlet, or other stuffs of which clothes or garments are usually made, or any buttons made of wood only, on forfeiture of 40s. for each dozen so made, &c. and so in proportion for a less quantity, to go in moieties to H.M. and the party suing, by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance, shall be allowed, 10 H.5. c.2.

3. FOR EMPLOYING THE MANUFACTURERS BY ENCOURAGING the consumption of raw silk and mohair yarn, 8 A. c.8. [PUBLIC clause, s.1.] [MADE MORE EFFECTUAL, 4 G.1. c.7.] [PUBLIC clause, s.9.] 7 G.1. st.1. c.12. [PUBLIC clause, s.7.]

4. No taylor or other person in G.B. shall make, sell, set on, use, or bind on any clothes or garments any buttons, or button holes made or bound with [cloth, 4 G.1. c.7. s.1.] serge, druggat, frize, camlet, or other stuff of which clothes or garments are usually made, on forfeiture of 5l. [40s. 4 G.1. c.7. s.1.] for each dozen of such buttons or button holes so made, &c. and so in proportion for a less quantity, [one moiety thereof to H.M., and the other to the party suing by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, or on complaint to any two justices for the county, city, &c. they may summon and examine witnesses on oath, levy the penalty, and return the overplus to the owner; and any person aggrieved by order of such justices may appeal against the same to the general quarter sessions holden for the county, &c. next after notice of such order, and such sessions may summon and examine witnesses on oath, and finally determine the appeal; and if they give judgment against the appellant, they shall award to the appellee such costs as they deem reasonable, to be paid by the appellant, s.A. c.6. [and persons so offending shall, on conviction on oath of one witness, forfeit as aforesaid, to be recovered and distributed as in s.5. pl.9. provided, 4 G.1. c.7. s.1.] s.A. c.6. 4 G.1. c.7. s.1.

5. No person in G.B. shall use or wear on any clothes any buttons or button-holes made of or bound with cloth, or any stuff whereof clothes or garments are usually made, under penalty on conviction, as in c.2. to forfeit for every dozen of such buttons or button-holes so used or worn, 40s. and so in proportion for a less quantity, to be recovered and distributed as in (s.2,3.) mentioned, 7 G.1. st.1. c.12. s.1.

6. This act shall not extend to clothes made of velvet, 4 G.1. c.7. s.2. 7 G.1. st.1. c.12. s.5.

7. Persons within any gaol or house of correction, or within the rules of any gaol, or dwelling within any privileged places, committing offences against this act, shall, on conviction, be subject to the forfeitures herein mentioned, 4 G.1. c.7. s.3.

8. Offences against these acts shall be prosecuted within three months [one month, 7 G.1. st.1. c.12. s.4.] after committed, 4 G.1. c.7. s.4, 7 G.1. st.1. c.12. s.4.

9. All offences against this act shall be determined by one justice for the county, city, or place where the same was discovered, or the offender resides, upon oath of one witness; and the penalties inflicted under this act shall be distributed, after charges of conviction deducted, in moieties to the informer and the poor of the parish where the offence was discovered; and if any offender shall neglect to pay such penalty for 14 days after conviction, such justice shall issue his warrant to the constable of the parish, to levy the same by distress and sale of goods, and where no distress can be found, may commit the offender to common gaol for the county, &c. there to be kept to hard labour for three calendar months, 4 G.1. c.7. s.5.

10. Any party may appeal from such conviction to the quarter sessions for the county, &c. giving sufficient notice of the appeal, and the determination of such sessions shall be final, and they shall allow reasonable costs to the party aggrieved, to be levied and paid in the usual way in cases of appeal to such sessions, id. s.6.

11. Persons sued for things done under this act may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if plaintiff is nonsuited, forbears prosecution, discontinues, or if a verdict or judgment on demurrer is given against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, 4 G.1. c.7. s.7, 7 G.1. st.1. c.12. s.6.

12. All clothes made with buttons and button-holes of the same cloth, &c. of which the clothes are made, and exposed to sale in any market, fair, shop, or warehouse, shall be forfeited, and may be seized and applied to the uses of this act, to be recovered as other penalties may be by this act, 4 G.1. c.7. s.8.

13. If any taylor or other person shall cause his apprentices or servants to make clothes contrary to this act, then such taylor, &c. or he who is entitled to the money for making such clothes, shall be subject to the penalties of this act, to be recovered as in (s.5.) aforesaid, id. s.9.

14. One justice for the county, &c. where offences against this act shall be committed, or the offender resides, shall, on complaint or information on oath of one person, summon the party accused, and on his appearance, or contempt, proceed to the examination of the fact, and on proof by oath of one witness, or by confession, proceed to convict the offender; and such justice shall, by warrant under hand and seal, cause such penalties, on the refusal of the offender to pay the same, to be levied by distress and sale of his goods, rendering him the overplus after the charges thereof deducted; and all penalties under this act shall be distributed and paid in moieties to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, and the person on whose oath party was convicted, 7 G.1. st.1. c.12. s.2.

15. Any party aggrieved by such proceedings may appeal to the quarter sessions holden for the county, &c. on giving eight days' notice at least of such appeal to the prosecutor, which sessions shall determine the same, and their judgment shall be final, id. s.3.

16. TO REGULATE THE MAKING AND VENDING OF METAL BUTTONS, AND TO PREVENT THE PURCHASERS THEREOF FROM BEING DECEIVED IN THE REAL QUALITY OF SUCH BUTTONS, 36 G.3. c.60. [PUBLIC Act, s.22.]

17. No person who shall order any metal buttons from any maker, shall direct the word "gilt" or "plated," or any other word, letter, or mark indicating the quality to be marked or stamped on any part of such buttons, or direct any word, &c. whether the same do or do not indicate the quality to be stamped or marked on the underside of such buttons, unless such person shall order such buttons to be gilt or plated; and no person shall procure or purchase any metal buttons, not being gilt or plated, having the words "gilt" or "plated" or any other words, &c. indicating the quality stamped or marked thereon, or having any word, &c. whether the same do or do not indicate the quality stamped or marked on the underside thereof, knowing the same not to be gilt or plated, on pain to forfeit such buttons, and 5*l.* for any quantity not exceeding 12 dozen, and exceeding 12 dozen after the rate of 1*l.* for every 12 dozen to be levied, recovered and applied as in s.8. mentioned, 36 G.3. c.60. s.1.

18. No person shall stamp or mark, or cause or procure to be stamped or marked, upon any part of any metal button the words "gilt" or "plated," or any other word, &c. indicating the quality, or any word, &c. on the underside thereof, whether the same do or do not indicate the quality thereof, unless the same are really and bona fide plated with silver before marked, or afterwards gilt with gold or destroyed before sold; and no person shall affix or cause to be affixed upon any metal button having the words "gilt" or "plated," or other word, &c. indicating the quality on any part thereof, or any word, &c. on the underside thereof, whether the same do or do not indicate the quality, any ornament, unless those parts of such button not covered by such ornament be really and bona fide gilt or plated, before the ornament is affixed on such button; and no person shall pack, or cause or procure to be packed for sale, in or upon any cards or other substance, or sell or expose to sale, or cause to be sold, &c. any metal buttons, not being gilt or plated, if the words "gilt" or "plated," or any other words, &c. indicating the quality, be stamped or marked on any part of such button, or on such card, &c. not being the pattern-card, or if any word, &c. be stamped or marked on the underside, &c. of such button, whether the same do or do not indicate the quality thereof, knowing the same not to be so gilt or plated, on pain in such cases to forfeit such buttons, and 5*l.* for any quantity exceeding 1 dozen, and not exceeding 12 dozen; and exceeding 12 dozen, after the rate of 1*l.* for every 12 dozen, id. s.2.

19. No person shall mark or cause to be marked on any metal button any word, &c. (as in s.1.) indicating the quality thereof, except the words "gilt" or "plated;" and no person shall pack, or cause or procure to be packed for sale, on any card (except the pattern-card,) or expose to sale, or cause, &c. to be exposed to sale, any metal buttons, having any word, &c. indicating the quality thereof, except the words "gilt" or "plated" marked thereon, on pain to forfeit such buttons, and 5*l.* for any quantity exceeding 1 dozen and not exceeding 12 dozen; and exceeding 12 dozen, at the rate of 1*l.* for every 12 dozen, to be recovered, &c. as in s.8. directed, id. s.3.

20. No penalty or punishment under this act shall be inflicted on persons who stamp or mark the words "double gilt" or the words "treble gilt," on any metal buttons, or who pack or cause to be packed for sale on cards, (except the pattern-cards,) or who expose to sale or cause to be sold or exposed to sale any metal buttons stamped or marked with such words; provided continually from the time of gilding thereof, gold shall remain put, and equally spread upon the upper surface of such buttons, exclusive of the edges, in proportion for double gilt of 10 grains, and for treble gilt in proportion of 15 grains, to such quantity of buttons, the upper surface of which, exclusive of the edges, shall be equal, the superficies of a circle of 12 inches diameter, id. s.4.

21. Every person who shall knowingly make out or deliver in relation to any metal buttons, any bill of parcels or invoice expressing therein other than the real quality thereof, shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s.5.

22. No person shall knowingly place or intermix, or procure to be placed, &c. any metal buttons not gilt with gold or plated with silver, upon any card, (except pattern-cards,) wherein there shall be placed any metal buttons so gilded or plated, on pain to forfeit such buttons so intermixed, and 5*l.* for any quantity so intermixed, exceeding 1 dozen, and not exceeding 12 dozen; and exceeding 12 dozen, at the rate of 1*l.* for every 12 dozen, id. s.6.

23. No metal button shall be deemed gilt unless, from the time of gilding thereof, gold shall remain put, and equally spread on the upper surface thereof, exclusive of the edges, in the proportion of five grains to such quantity of such buttons, the upper surface of which, exclusive of the edges, shall be equal to the area of a circle of 12 inches diameter; and no metal buttons shall be deemed plated, unless the area of the upper surface thereof be made of a plate of silver fixed on copper, or a mixture of copper with other metals, previous to such plate of silver and copper, or mixture of copper with other metals, being rolled into sheets or fillets, id. s.7.

24. Two justices for the county or place where the offenders reside, or the offence done, may determine offences against this act; and on information exhibited, or complaint made, shall summon the accused party, and witnesses on each side, and examine into the matter, and on proof thereof, either by confession, or by oath of one witness, give judgment for the penalty, with costs to be allowed by them, and shall award their warrant to levy such penalty and costs on the goods of offender, and in case they are not redeemed within five days, shall cause sale thereof to be made, rendering surplus to the distrainee; and if no sufficient distress, such justices may commit such offenders to the goal of the county or place where the information is laid, for not exceeding 5 calendar months, unless payment is sooner made, 56 G. 3. c. 60. s. 8.

25. All persons aggrieved thereby may (on giving security, with surety to the amount of such penalties and costs, together with such further costs as may be awarded,) appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county or place where such conviction is had, and such sessions may summon and examine the witnesses on oath, and finally determine such appeal, and award such costs as they think reasonable, to the party in whose favour they determine, id. s. 9.

26. Such two justices or sessions may mitigate such penalties as they deem fit, provided they shall in no case be reduced below one-half, or where less than 40*l.*, below 20*l.*, id. s. 10.

27. No conviction for any offences under this act shall be set aside by any court for want of form, or through the mistake of any fact or other matter, provided the material facts alleged in such conviction be proved, id. s. 11.

28. A conviction, in the form or to the effect following (mutatis mutandis) shall be good, viz.

‘Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — at — in the county — A. B. came before us, C. D. and E. F., two of H. M.’s justices of peace for the said county [city, or place, as the case may be] and informed us that G. H. of — on the — day of — now last past, at — in the county, [city, or place, as the case may be] [here set forth the fact for which the information is laid] whereupon the said G. H., after being duly summoned to answer to such charge, appeared before us on the — day of — in the said county, city, or place], and having heard the charge contained in such information, declared he was not guilty of the said offence [or, as the case is, did not appear before us pursuant to the said summons, or did neglect and refuse to make any defence against such charge,] but the same being fully proved before us on the oath of I K., a credible witness [or, as the case may be, acknowledged and voluntarily confessed the same to be true,] and it manifestly appeared to us that the said G. H. is guilty of the offence charged upon him in the said information: we do therefore hereby convict him of the offence aforesaid, and do declare and adjudge that he, the said G. H., hath forfeited the said buttons, together with the sum of — l. of lawful money of G. B. for the offence aforesaid, to be distributed as the law directs according to the form of the statute in that case made and provided. Given under our hands and seals the — day of —, id. s. 12.

29. Persons summoned as witnesses on either side, touching such matters, neglecting to appear at the time and place appointed, without excuse to be allowed by such justices, or refusing to be examined on oath, shall forfeit 5*l.*, to be levied and paid as in s. 8. pl. 24. directed, id. s. 13.

30. All the penalties aforesaid may be recovered by action in any court of record at Westminster, with full costs, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed; and any justice for the county or place where such offence is committed, or the offender resides, may, by warrant under his hand and seal, cause any such metal buttons as are liable to forfeiture under this act, to be seized, and, when seized, may keep the same to be produced in evidence on any prosecution or action under this act; and when the same are so produced, they shall, by order of such justices, be destroyed, 56 G. 3. c. 60. s. 14.

31. No information or action shall be commenced under this act, unless within three calendar months after the offence done, id. s. 15.

32. All penalties recovered under this act shall be paid, one moiety to the poor of the place where the offence was committed, and the other to the person suing or informing for the same, id. s. 16.

33. In all actions, informations, or other proceedings under this act, any inhabitant of the parish where the offence was committed, shall be admitted to give evidence, and be deemed a competent witness, id. s. 17.

34. If any person, who shall be liable to any penalties under this act for any thing done by the order of another, shall, before information or complaint laid against him, discover to two justices the name of the person by whose order such act was done, so that he may be prosecuted to conviction, such person so discovering shall not be liable to any such penalties, but shall be entitled to a moiety of the penalty, id. s. 18.

35. If any manufacturer of buttons, who has ordered any metal buttons to be gilt with gold, shall, before the same are burnished, appear before two justices for the county, city, or place where the gilder shall reside, or his offence be committed, and prove by one witness that he ordered such buttons to be gilt as in s. 7. pl. 23. required, and delivered gold sufficient for that purpose, or had contracted to pay a proper sum in that behalf, and shall afterwards prosecute such gilder to conviction, then such manufacturer shall not be liable to any penalty hereby inflicted on account of such buttons, not being gilt with gold, id. s. 19.

36. This act shall not extend to any buttons made of gold, silver, tin, pewter, lead, or mixtures of tin and lead, or iron tinned, or of the mixed metals called Bath metal or white metal, or of any of these metals inlaid with steel, or buttons plated on shells, id. s. 20.

37. Actions against persons for things done under this act, shall be commenced within 6 calendar months after the fact committed, and be laid and tried in the county or place where the offence was committed, and the defendant may plead the general issue and give the special matter in evidence; and if any action is brought after the time so limited, or is laid in the wrong county, &c. the jury shall find for the defendants, and upon such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues, or if a verdict, or on demurrer judgment is given against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 21.

CALENDAR.

1. FOR REGULATING THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE YEAR, AND CORRECTING the calendar now in use, 24 G. 2. c. 23. [AMD. 25 G. 2. c. 30., and as to Chester, 26 G. 2. c. 34. s. 1.]

2. [Recital, that the year in Eng. begun on the 25th March, by legal supputation, and its inconvenience in differing from the usage of neighbouring nations, and from that of Scot., and from common usage throughout this kingdom; that the Julian Calendar then in use was erroneous, by which the vernal equinox, which at the council of Nice, in 1325, happened on or about the 21st March, now happens on or about the 9th or 10th March, and that a method of correcting the same, so that such equinoxes may fall nearly on the same nominal days, was received and practised in almost all other nations of Europe, which, if adopted in this country, would prevent mistakes in foreign correspondence, and disputes as to dates of letters, accounts, &c., 24 G. 2. c. 23. s. 1.]

3. Throughout all H. M.’s dominions in Europe, Asia, Africa, and America, the supputation (or style), according to which the year of our Lord begins on 25th March, shall not be used after the last day of Dec. 1751; and the 1st Jan. next following the last mentioned day, shall be deemed 1st Jan. 1752, and so on the 1st Jan. in every year shall be reckoned the first day of the year. After 1st Jan. 1752, the days of each month shall be reckoned in the same order, and the feast of Easter, and other moveable feasts thereon depending, be ascertained according to the same method as they now are, till 2d Sept., 1752, inclusive; and the natural day next immediately following 2d Sept., 1752, shall be called 14th Sept., omitting for that time only the 11 intermediate nominal days of the common calendar; and the natural days following the said 14th Sept. shall be numbered forwards in numerical order, from that day, according to the order used in the present calendar, and all acts, deeds, writings, and other instruments, executed or signed, upon or after 1st Jan. 1752, shall bear date according to the said new method of supputation, and the 2 fixed terms of Saints Hilary and Michael’s Eng. and the courts of great sessions in the counties palatine and Warr. and of the general quarter-sessions and general sessions of the peace, and all other courts, and all meetings of any bodies politic, which by law or usage within this kingdom, or the dominions subject to the crown of G. B., are to be holden on any fixed day of any month, or on any day depending on any certain day of any month, (except courts usually held with fairs or marts,) shall, after 2d Sept., 1752, be holden on the same respective nominal days, whereon or according to which they are now to be holden, but which shall be computed by the new method, 24 G. 2. c. 23. s. 1. [Proviso, that acts of corporations and affairs thereof may be done on same natural days between 2d and 14th Sept., A.D. 1752 only, as before the above enactment, 25 G. 2. c. 30. s. 1. Exp.]

4. The annual meeting of the citizens of Chester, for election of the mayor, and other annual officers of the city, shall not be held on Friday next after the feast of St. Dennis, but in the usual manner on the Friday next after 20th Oct., yearly, and not before, 25 G. 2. c. 31. s. 1.

5. No future 100th years, viz. A.D. 1800, 1900, &c. (except only every 400th year), of which A.D. 2000 is to be the first, shall be taken to be bissextile or leap years, but common years of 365 days; and A.D. 2000, A.D. 2400, &c. and every other 400th year from A.D. 2000, inclusive, and all other years of our Lord, esteemed leap-years by new style, shall be taken to be leap-years, consisting as such of 366 days, in the same manner as is now used with respect to every fourth year, 24 G. 2. c. 23. s. 2.

6. The feast of Easter, or any of the moveable feasts thereon depending, shall be no longer observed in the dominions of the crown of G. B. according to the present method of supputation, or the table prefixed to the common prayer book, which table, and the column of golden numbers, as now prefixed to the respective days of the month, shall be left out in all future editions of the common prayer, and the new calendar table and rules shall be prefixed to the same; and all the fixed feast, holy, and fast days now observed by the church of Eng., and also the several solemn days of thanksgiving, fasting, and humiliation, which by any statute now in force are to be observed, shall be observed on the respective days marked for celebration thereof in the new calendar, i. e. on the same nominal days on which they are now observed, but which, according to the alteration made by this act will happen 11 days sooner than they now do, and the feast of Easter, and all other moveable feasts thereon depending, shall be observed according to the new calendar tables and rules in the above dominions wherein the liturgy of the church of Eng. now is, or hereafter shall be used, and the two moveable terms of Easter and Trinity, and all courts and meetings of bodies politic, and all markets, fairs and marts, and courts thereto belonging, or used to be holden at any moveable times depending on Easter, or any other moveable feasts, shall be holden on the days whereon the same happen, according to the falling of Easter, or such other moveable feasts, to be computed according to the new calendar, 24 G. 2. c. 25. s. 5.

7. The meetings of the court of session and terms fixed for the court of exchequer in Scot. the April meeting of the company of conservators of the great level of the fens, and the holding of all markets, fairs, and marts, being either fixed to certain nominal days of the month, or depending on the beginning or certain day thereof, and all courts incident thereto shall not be continued upon, or according to the nominal days of the month, computed by the new calendar, but according to the same natural days on, or according to which they should have been holden by old style, (viz. 11 days later than those nominal days of the new style, id. s. 4.

8. Nothing in this act shall accelerate the days for opening, inclosing, or shutting up any lands for common of pasture and other purposes, or the days on which any temporary or distinct property therein shall commence, but the same shall be opened, inclosed, or shut up, and such temporary and distinct rights commence on the same natural days on which they would have been opened, &c. if this act had not been made, (viz. 11 days later than the same would otherwise commence, reckoning by new style, id. s. 6.

9. But the times for opening, inclosing, and shutting up such lands, for paying rents, or other payments, and for doing every other thing, if depending on moveable feasts, or days depending thereon, shall be computed and take place according to the new calendar tables and rules; and the temporary and distinct property of all persons, bodies politic, and corporate, &c. in such lands, &c. shall commence, and all payments be due and payable, and all matters transacted accordingly, 25 G. 2. c. 30. s. 2.

10. No title to lands is hereby altered, except as to new computation of time when the enjoyment of such right shall commence, id. s. 3.

11. Nothing in this act shall accelerate the time of payment of any rent, annuity, or sum, or interest thereon, payable by virtue of any custom, deed or agreement, or of any statute made before 24th Sept. 1752, or the time of doing any thing directed by such act, or accelerate the time of delivery of any goods, or other things, or of the commencement or determination of any lease of lands or hereditaments, or of any other agreement, or of accepting or giving up possession of any lands or hereditaments, or the commencement or determination of any annuity or rent, or of any grant for term of years, or the time of attaining the age of 21 years, or any other age requisite by any law, custom, will, or writing for doing any act by any person born before 14th Sept. 1752, or the time of expiration of any apprenticeship or other service, 24 G. 2. c. 27. s. 6. [For the calendar-table and rules annexed to this act, see the Book of Common Prayer, (and s. 3.)]

CALICO.

1. TO PRESERVE AND ENCOURAGE THE WOOLLEN AND SILK MANUFACTURES of this kingdom, and for more effectual employing the poor, by prohibiting the use and wear of all printed, painted, stained or dyed calicoes in apparel or household stuff furniture, or otherwise, (after 25th Dec. 1722), 7 G. 1. s. 1. c. 7. AMB. 9 G. 2. c. 1.

2. It shall not be lawful to use or wear any printed, painted, stained, or dyed calico on penalty of 5*l.* to the informer, on conviction before one justice at least, who, on complaint exhibited in six days after the offence committed, shall summon the accused, and on his appearance or contempt shall proceed to examination of the matter, and on due proof, either by confession or oath of one witness, shall determine the same, and on conviction shall, by warrant, cause the penalty to be levied by distress and sale of goods; but any party grieved may appeal to the next quarter sessions, giving six days' notice to the prosecutor, and their judgment is final, 7 G. 1. s. 1. c. 7. s. 1.

3. Every person convicted of selling or exposing to sale any printed,

&c. calico, or any household stuff made up or mixed therewith, unless for exportation and cleared outwards accordingly, shall, on conviction forfeit 20*l.*; and every officer of a corporation offending herein, shall besides the said penalty, lose his office, and be incapable to hold the same, 7 G. 1. s. 1. c. 7. s. 2.

4. It shall not be lawful to use or wear about any household stuff, or furniture, any printed, &c. calico, (except as in s. 10. excepted), on penalty of 20*l.*, id. s. 3.

5. One moiety of all pecuniary penalties hereby imposed, and exceeding 5*l.* shall go to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish, and those not herein directed to be otherwise recovered, shall be recovered by action of debt or information in any court of record at Westminster, for offences committed in Eng., W.a., or Ber., or in the courts of session, justiciary, or exchequer in Scot., for offences committed in that part of G. B., with costs, by any who shall sue for the same within six calendar months after the offence, and without essoin, &c. allowed, or more than one imparlance, id. s. 4.

6. Every person convicted of any offence against this act who shall reside in any pretended privileged place, may be taken from thence by warrant of any justice or baron of K.B., C.P., or exchequer in Eng. and Ber., or lords of session, judge of justiciary, or barons of exchequer in Scot., and shall by him be committed to the common gaol of the same county or place till payment of all the penalties hereby imposed, with costs, id. s. 5.

7. This act shall not repeal any law for prohibiting calicoes printed, painted, stained, or dyed in foreign parts, or any other goods or manufactures soever, id. s. 7.

8. Persons sued for any thing done in pursuance hereof may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence, and if plaintiff is nonsuit, discontinues, or loses a verdict, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 10.

9. This act shall prohibit wearing or using in apparel or furniture any stuff made of cotton, or mixed therewith, which shall be printed or painted, or any calico chequered or striped, or stitched, or flowered in foreign parts with any colours, or with coloured flowers made there, except muslins, neckcloths, and fustians, id. s. 10.

10. Nothing in this act shall extend to calicoes dyed all close, id. s. 11.

11. Nothing in 7 G. 1. c. 7. shall prohibit the wearing any stuff made of linen yarn and cotton wool manufactured and printed, or painted in G. B., provided the warp be entirely linen yarn, 9 G. 2. c. 4. s. 1.

CAMBRIC.

1. FOR IMPROVING, regulating, and extending the manufacture of cambrics and lawns in Eng., 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 1. ss. 17. 33. (Public clause, s. 33., rest of this act is of a local and personal nature, except s. 16. for which see little LINEN MANUFACTURE, [re-enacted and Ext. to Scot., 7 G. 3. c. 43. ss. 10.—24.]

2. Any person may make, vend, or wear all linen goods called cambrics or lawns, or goods usually known under either denomination made in this kingdom, and stamped as in ss. 17. 18., 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 1.

3. Cambrics, lawns, or goods known under either denomination, woven or fabricated in G. B. shall be marked or sealed at each end of every piece, with such mark, and by such officer as the commissioners of excise in Eng. and Scot. respectively shall direct, 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 17., 7 G. 3. c. 43. s. 10.

4. The commissioners of excise may, from time to time, at the request and expence of the manufacturer, provide proper seals or marks for this purpose, and may appoint a district supervisor or other officer of excise, to seal, mark, or stamp each piece, as in s. 20. directed, and he shall be paid such sum for every piece so marked, before cutting or taking same out of the loom, as the commissioners of excise shall appoint, 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 18., 7 G. 3. c. 43. s. 11.

5. Every person who shall make such cambrics or lawns, shall, before taking them out of the loom, give notice in writing of the finishing of every piece to such supervisor or officer who, before such piece shall be cut out of the loom, shall mark both ends thereof with the proper stamp on penalty of 5*l.* for taking or permitting to be taken any finished piece out of the loom without giving such notice, or without having the ends so stamped, besides incurring forfeiture and seizure thereof by any customs or excise officer, 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 19., 7 G. 3. c. 43. s. 12.

6. Such officer, on reasonable notice given that any piece is finished, shall forthwith, or as soon as convenient with other duty, mark or seal both ends thereof with the proper mark, and fix a distinct number to any piece before taking it out of the loom, and shall make entry in writing in proper books provided for that purpose, at manufacturer's expence, of the number set to each piece, of its number of yards in length, and threads in the warp thereof, on penalty of 10*l.* for neglect in either article hereof, 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 20., 5*l.* by 7 G. 3. c. 43. s. 13.

7. Any supervisor or other officer appointed to mark, or having custody of any mark or seal, who shall therewith mark, &c. any cambric or lawns not made in G. B., or who shall knowingly permit it to be done, or shall mark any piece after taken out of loom, shall forfeit 50*l.* for every piece; to be recovered in any court of record at Westminster, by bill or information, by any person who will inform; and, on conviction, shall lose his office under the excise, and be disabled to hold any under H. M., 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 21., 7 G. 3. c. 43. s. 14.

8. Every person and his abettors who shall by bribes, fraud, or in any way soever, procure any officer (as in last pl.) to set such mark, seal, or stamp to any piece not actually made in G. B., or after taken out of loom, shall, on conviction, forfeit 100*l.*, and stand in pillory for 2 hours; and any person giving or securing, or offering to, &c. to any such officer, a bribe for either of the above purposes, shall forfeit 50*l.* 1 G. 3. c. 37. s. 22., 7 G. 3. c. 55. s. 15.

9. Every such officer so appointed to mark or seal cambrics, &c. under this act, shall yearly (while the seal remains in his custody) in the month of June, transmit to the excise offices in London or Edinburgh respectively, a full account, in writing, of every piece sealed by him in pursuance hereof, and a true copy of every entry made, (as in s. 20.) distinguishing in such accounts the several manufacturers, (if more than one,) within his district, on pain of dismissal, 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 23. 7 G. 3. c. 43. s. 16.

10. Every such officer, or his representatives, or other persons, having the custody of such seal, &c. after his death, or in any other manner, shall, on demand thereof by the excise commissioners, deliver it up to the person appointed to receive it, on penalty of 200*l.*, to be recovered by informer, as in s. 28. pl. 14. &c., 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 23. [same penalty given by 7 G. 3. c. 43. s. 16. to be recovered as in s. 21. pl. 14.]

11. Any cambrics, &c. (as in s. 1.) made in G. B., and found in any house, or place therein, without being marked or sealed at each end of every entire piece, and at one end of every remnant thereof, shall be forfeited and may be seized by any officer of customs or excise, and shall be deposited in the custom-house, warehouse, or nearest excise office, and, after condemnation, publicly sold to the best bidder; and one moiety of the produce arising by the sale, after deducting charges of condemnation and sale, shall go to H. M., and the other to the officer who shall seize or sue for same; and every person selling or having in custody any cambrics, &c. as in s. 1., made in G. B., and not marked at both ends of every entire piece, and at one end of each remnant, shall forfeit 200*l.*, to be recovered and divided, as in s. 28., 1 G. 3. c. 37. s. 24. 7 G. 3. c. 43. s. 17. recoverable as in s. 21. pl. 14.

12. No cambrics, lawns, or goods, &c. seized and condemned under this act, shall be consumed or worn in this kingdom, or sold otherwise than on condition of exportation, and not delivered out of the warehouse where secured, till security by bond, approved by the collector at the port of exportation, in double the value of the goods, is given by the exporter, that every part thereof shall be exported, and not reloaded in G. B., 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 21.

13. Persons forging or counterfeiting any mark or stamp to resemble those provided in pursuance hereof, or forging, &c. the impression thereof on any goods, or importing into G. B. such foreign cambrics, &c. (as in s. 1.) with counterfeit stamp, &c. thereon, or wilfully selling, or exposing to sale such cambrics, &c. with such counterfeit stamp, &c. shall suffer death as a felon, without clergy, 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 26. 7 G. 3. c. 43. s. 18.

14. All goods seized or condemned, and penalties inflicted under these acts, may be recovered in any court at Westminster, or in exchequer in Scot., by action of debt or information, in the name of the attorney-general, or of any such officer of the customs or excise as aforesaid, except where otherwise hereby provided, and one moiety of the clear produce of the sale, and of all penalties inflicted, after deducting charges, shall go to H. M., and the other to the party suing, 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 28., 7 G. 3. c. 43. s. 21.

15. A caapias shall be the first process, and shall specify the sum of the penalty sued for; defendant shall give bail below, by natural-born subjects, persons naturalized or denizens, for his appearance at return thereof; and bail above, on such appearance, to answer all penalties incurred for such offences, if convicted; or shall render his body to prison, 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 29., 7 G. 3. c. 43. s. 22.

16. Any action for [for here seems to mean for an illegal recovery under colour of the act,] the recovery of any of the penalties shall be brought within 12 calendar months after the cause of action arose; the venue is local; the defendant may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence; and if it appear to be so done, the jury shall find for defendant; or if plaintiff is nonsuit, or discontinue after appearance, or has judgment against him, on demurrer or otherwise, defendant shall recover treble costs, 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 30.

17. In actions commenced against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this act, defendant shall plead the general issue, giving this act and special matter in evidence, and that same was done by authority hereof; on proof of which the jury shall find for the defendant; and if plaintiff shall discontinue after appearance, be nonsuited, or have judgment against him on verdict or demurrer; defendant shall have treble costs, 7 G. 3. c. 43. s. 23.

18. Where any such cambrics, &c. (as in s. 1.) are seized under these acts, and the owner thereof shall bring an action against a customs' or excise-officer, for any act done in pursuance thereof, the proof of the place where they were manufactured, shall lie on the owner, and not on the seizer, 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 31., 7 G. 3. c. 43. s. 24.

19. This act shall not extend to prevent or lay any restriction on the sale or use in Eng. of linens really wove or fabricated in Scot. or I. c., 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 32.

CANADA.

1. FOR MAKING MORE EFFECTUAL PROVISION FOR GOVERNMENT OF the province of Quebec, [divided into Upper and Lower Canada, 31 G. 3. c. 31. s. 2.] in North America, 14 G. 3. c. 87. [AMU. 50 G. 3. c. 29. s. 2. 31 G. 3. c. 31., 45 G. 3. c. 158. N. B. Acts to be done by the governor of Canada, may be done by the lieutenant-governor, or person administering the government thereof; see these acts passim.]

2. All the territories, islands, and countries in North America, belonging to the crown of G. B., bounded on the south by a line from the bay of Chaleurs, along the high lands which divide the rivers that empty themselves into the river St. Lawrence from those which fall into the sea, to a point in 15 degrees N. lat. on the eastern bank of the river Connecticut, keeping the same latitude directly west, through the lake Chesplain, until, in the same latitude, it meets the river St. Lawrence; from thence up the eastern bank of the said river to the lake Ontario; thence through the lake Ontario, and the river commonly called Niagara; and thence along by the eastern and south-eastern bank of lake Erie, following the said bank, until intersected by the northern boundary, granted by the charter of the province of Pennsylvania, in case the same shall be so intersected; and from thence along the said northern and western boundaries of the said province, until the said western boundary strike the Ohio; but in case the said bank of the said lake shall not be found to be so intersected, then following the said bank until it shall arrive at that point of the said bank which shall be nearest to the north-western angle of the said province of Pennsylvania, and thence by a right line, to the said north-western angle of the said province; and thence along the western boundary of the said province, until it strike the river Ohio; and along the bank of the said river, westward, to the banks of the Mississippi, and northward to the southern boundary of the territory granted to the merchants adventurers of Eng. trading to Hudson's Bay; and all such territories, &c. which since Feb. 10. 1763. have been made part of the government of Newfoundland, are annexed to the province of Quebec, or created by proclamation of Oct. 7. 1763. 11 G. 3. c. 83. s. 1.

3. Recital of the division of the province of Quebec into the Upper and Lower Canadas, 31 G. 3. c. 31. s. 2., 49 G. 3. c. 27. s. 14.

4. The coast of Labrador, from the river St. John to Hudson's Strait, and the adjacent islands, viz. of Anticosti, &c. except the Madick, &c. are separated from Lower Canada, and re-annexed to the government of Newfoundland, as they were by proclamation of Oct. 7. 1763. and before their annexation to the province of Quebec by 11 G. 3. c. 83. s. 1., 49 G. 3. c. 27. s. 14.

5. Nothing herein shall affect the boundaries of any other colony, (s. 2.) or alter any right, title, or possession, derived under any grant, conveyance, or otherwise, of any lands within the province, or the adjoining provinces, 14 G. 3. c. 83. ss. 2, 3.

6. Provisions for government of Canada, previous to this act, are still, id. s. 4.

7. Roman catholic inhabitants of the Canadas shall have free exercise of their religion, subject to H. M.'s supremacy, as declared by 1 Fl. c. 1., and their clergy shall enjoy their accustomed dues, tithes, &c. with respect to persons of that religion only, id. s. 5. [ENFORCED BY 31 G. 3. c. 31. s. 35., with a similar provision made by H. M. in consequence thereof, by his instructions of Jan. 3. 1775. to Sir Guy Carleton, Sir Ed. Huddiman, and Lord Dorchester, except so far as either are varied or repealed by act of the legislative council and assembly, asserted to be by H. M. (as in s. 42.), 31 G. 3. c. 31. s. 35.]

8. No person, professing the religion of the church of Rome, residing in Canada, shall be obliged to take the oath required by 1 Fl. c. 1. s. 10. (comm. semb.) or any other oaths, by any other act, in place thereof; but shall take and subscribe the following oath before the governor, or such other person in such court of record as H. M. shall appoint, who shall administer the same; viz.

'I A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, that I will be faithful, and bear true allegiance to H. M. king George, and him will defend to the utmost of my power, against all traitorous conspiracies and attempts whatsoever, which shall be made against his person, crown, and dignity; and I will do my utmost endeavour to disclose and make known to H.M., his heirs and successors, all treasons and traitorous conspiracies and attempts, which I shall know to be against him, or any of them; and all this I do swear without any equivocation, mental evasion, or secret reservation, and renouncing all pardons and dispensations from any power or person whomsoever to the contrary.

So help me God.

And for neglect or refusal to take the same, shall be liable to the same penalties as for neglect, &c. to take the oath required by 1 El. c. 1, [but that oath is repealed, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 8. s. 2.] 14 G. 3. c. 83. s. 7.

9. All H.M.'s Canadian subjects within the province of Quebec, the religious orders and communities only excepted, may also enjoy their property and possessions, together with all customs relative thereto, and all other their civil rights, as amply as if the proclamation, commissions, ordinances, and other acts had not been made, and as may consist with their allegiance to H.M., and subjection to the crown and parliament of G.B.; and in all matters of controversy, relative to property and civil rights, resort shall be had to the laws of Canada, as the rule for decision of the same; and all causes that shall hereafter be instituted in any of the courts of justice, to be appointed within and for the said province by H.M., shall, with respect to such property and rights, be determined agreeably to the said laws and customs of Canada, until they shall be varied by any ordinances passed in the province by the governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander-in-chief, with the advice and consent of the legislative council of the same, to be appointed as after-mentioned, [See 31 G. 3. c. 31. s. 41. pl. 17. &c.] id. s. 8.

10. Nothing herein shall extend to grants of land by H.M. in free socage, id. s. 9.

11. H.M. may make provision out of the rest of the accustomed dues (as in s. 5. pl. 7.) for encouragement of the protestant religion, and for maintenance and support of a protestant clergy within Canada, id. s. 6.

12. H.M. may authorize the governor of the Canadas to make out of the crown-lands within the provinces, such allotment and appropriation thereof, for support of a protestant clergy therein, as may bear a due proportion to the amount of lands within the same at any time granted by H.M., and in all future grants under H.M.'s authority shall at the same time be made a proportionable appropriation, and no such grant shall be valid, unless containing a specification of the lands appropriated in respect of those thereby granted; and the former shall, as near as possible, be of the like quality with the latter, equal in value to one-seventh of the lands granted, 31 G. 3. c. 31. s. 26.

13. The rents or profits arising from lands so appropriated shall be applicable solely to the support of a protestant clergy within the province, and to no other purpose, id. s. 27.

14. H.M. may authorize the governor, &c. of each province, with the advice of the executive council appointed therein, from time to time, to erect in every parish, &c. a parsonage or rectory according to the church of Eng. establishment, and by instrument under great seal of the province, to endow same with such allotment of lands, as he with like advice may deem expedient under circumstances of the parish, id. s. 28.

15. H.M. may authorize the governor, &c. to present to every such parsonage, and to vacancies thereof, incumbents of the church of Eng. duly ordained, who shall enjoy the same as in Eng., id. s. 29.

16. Such presentation and enjoyment shall be subject to institution and a spiritual jurisdiction of the bishop of Nova Scotia, according to laws and canons of church of Eng., id. s. 40.

17. These provisions respecting appropriations of lands for support of protestant clergy, the endowment and constitution of parsonages, and presentation of incumbents, may be varied by act of legislative council and assembly, assented to by H.M., id. s. 41.

18. All lands in Upper Canada shall be granted in free and common socage, and also in Lower Canada, where the grantee shall desire that tenure subject to alterations therein established by law made by H.M. with advice and consent of the legislative council and assembly, 31 G. 3. c. 31. s. 43, see pl. 50.

19. If any person holding lands in Upper Canada by certificate of occupation under authority of the governor and council, and having power to alienate same, shall surrender them to H.M. by petition to the governor, setting forth that he is desirous of holding the same by that tenure, the governor shall thereupon make a fresh grant in free socage, id. s. 44.

20. But such surrender and grant shall not bar any right to such lands, which other persons may have, id. s. 45.

21. Every owner of lands, goods, or credits in Canada, having a right to alienate the same in his lifetime by deed of sale, gift, or otherwise, may devise or bequeath the same at his death by will executed according to the laws of Canada or of Eng., id. s. 10.

22. The criminal law of Eng. shall be administered and observed as law in the Canadas, as well in the description of the offence as in the method of prosecution and trial and the punishments and forfeitures thereby inflicted, to the exclusion of every other mode which prevailed before 1761, subject to such alterations and amendments as the governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander-in-chief, with advice and consent of the legislative council, shall cause to be made therein, 14 G. 3. c. 83. s. 11.

23. Nothing herein shall prevent H.M., by letters patent under great seal of G.B., from appointing such courts of criminal, civil, and ecclesiastical jurisdiction within the Canadas, and appointing the judges and officers thereof, as he shall think necessary, id. s. 17.

24. ALL OFFENCES COMMITTED WITHIN ANY OF THE INDIAN TERRITORIES, or parts of America, not within the Canadas, or any civil government of the United States, shall be deemed offences of the same nature, and shall be tried and punished as if committed in the Canadas, 43 G. 5. c. 138. s. 1.

25. The governor of Lower Canada may, by commission under his hand and seal, authorize any persons, whosoever resident, to act as justices of peace for any Indian territory, &c. (as in s. 1.) as well as within Canada, on informations taken or given within the former or latter, for the purpose only of hearing offences, and committing the criminals to safe custody in order to their being conveyed to Lower Canada, to be dealt with according to law; and any person may apprehend, and take before any persons so commissioned, or convey to Lower Canada any such offender, id. s. 2.

26. Such offenders shall be tried in the courts of Lower Canada; or if the governor shall think that justice may more conveniently be administered in Upper Canada, and shall by instrument under the great seal of Lower Canada declare the same, then in those of Upper Canada, and shall be punished according to the law of the province where they are tried; the crime may be laid to have been committed within the jurisdiction of such court, which may proceed to trial, and issue subpoenas and other process accordingly, which subpoenas, &c. shall be executed, as well in the Indian territory, &c. (as in s. 1.) as within the limits of the jurisdiction of such court, id. s. 3.

27. Where it is proved that any crime prosecuted under this act was committed by any person not a subject of H.M., and also within the limits of any colony or territory belonging to any European state, the court shall forthwith acquit him, id. s. 4.

28. But subjects of H.M. shall be tried, though their offence was committed within the limits of any such European colony or territory, id. s. 5.

29. Nothing herein shall repeal within the Canadas any act heretofore made for prohibiting or regulating the trade or commerce of H.M.'s plantations in America, but those and all former statutes concerning the plantations shall be in force in the Canadas, 14 G. 3. c. 83. s. 18.

30. There shall be within each Canada, a Legislative Council and an Assembly constituted as after described; in each of which H.M. may, with their advice and consent, make laws for the peace, welfare, and government thereof, not being repugnant to this act, all which laws so passed and assented in H.M.'s name by the governor or lieutenant-governor shall be binding within the province, 31 G. 3. c. 31. s. 2.

31. In order to constitute such legislative assembly in each province H.M. may, by sign-manual, authorize the governor or lieutenant-governor in each province, in H.M.'s name, and under the great seal of the province, to summon to the legislative council a sufficient number of discreet and proper persons, not fewer than 7 for Upper, and 15 for Lower Canada, and H.M. may, by sign-manual, authorize the governor, &c. to summon to the legislative council, in like manner, such other persons as H.M. shall think fit, who shall then become members thereof, id. s. 3.

32. No person under 21 years of age, or not being a natural-born British subject, or naturalized by act of parliament, or a subject by conquest and cession of Canada, shall be so summoned, id. s. 4.

33. Every member of the legislative councils shall hold his seat for life, subject to this act, id. s. 5.

34. Whenever H.M. shall confer on a British subject by patent, under great seal of either province, any hereditary title of honour of such province, descendible as limited in the patent, he may annex the hereditary right of summons to legislative council of such province descendible therewith; and the person entitled to such title may demand his writ of summons of the governor, &c. after attaining 21, id. s. 6.

35. If any person to whom such hereditary right has descended, shall, without H.M.'s permission, signified to the legislative council by the governor, &c. have been absent from the province for 4 years, between his succeeding to such right, and his application for such summons, (if he was 21 years old on his so succeeding, or at any time between the date of his attaining that age and of such application,) or if any such person shall, before such application, have taken any oath of allegiance or obedience to any foreign power, he shall not be entitled to writ of summons, unless H.M., by sign-manual, direct him to be summoned; and the governor, &c. before granting such summons, shall interrogate him on oath, touching the above particulars, before the executive council of the province, id. s. 7.

36. If any member of the legislative councils of either province shall reside out of the same for 4 years without H.M.'s, or for 2 years without governor's permission, or shall take any oath of allegiance to any foreign power, his seat shall be vacant, 31 G.3. c.31. s.8.

57. Where any such writ of summons is lawfully withheld (as in s.7.) or vacated (as in s.8.) the hereditary right shall remain suspended during life, unless H. M. afterwards direct him to be summoned, but on his death shall go to the persons next entitled by descent, id. s.9.

58. Any member attainted of treason vacates his seat, and the hereditary right is forfeited, id. s.10.

59. Questions arising respecting the right of any person to be summoned or the vacancy of a seat, shall be referred to the legislative council to be determined; and either such person, or the attorney-general of such province, may appeal from their determination to H.M. in parliament, which is final, id. s.11.

60. The governor, &c. may, under great seal of the province, appoint and remove the speakers of the legislative councils, id. s.12.

61. In order to constitute such an assembly [viz. Legislative Assembly] in each province, H.M., by sign-manual, may direct the governor or lieutenant-governor, in H.M.'s name, under great seal of the province, to summon and call together an assembly therein, id. s.13.

62. In order to election of members thereof, H.M. may, by sign-manual, authorize the governor, &c. to issue a proclamation dividing such province into districts, or counties, or circles, or towns, and appointing the limits thereof, and the number of representatives for each district, [and to appoint proper returning officers for 2 years only, s.15.] which division and appointment shall be valid, unless otherwise provided by act of legislative council and assembly assented to by H.M., id. s.14.

63. No person shall be obliged to execute the office of returning officer for more than one year, or oftener than once, unless otherwise provided, (as in s.14.) id. s.16.

64. There shall not be less number of members in Upper Canada than 16, or in Lower Canada than 50, id. s.17.

65. Writs for election of such members shall be issued by the governor, &c. within 14 days after sealing the instrument for summoning the assembly, and shall be directed to the returning officers, returnable within 50 days from then date, unless otherwise provided, (as in s.14.) and in case of vacancy, by death of the person chosen, or by his being summoned to legislative council of province, like writs returnable as above, shall be issued in 6 days after the vacancy is notified to the proper office of issuing such writs, id. s.18.

66. Every returning officer shall execute such writs, id. s.19.

67. Members for the districts, counties, or circles, shall be chosen by a majority of votes of persons severally possessed for their own use and benefit of lands and tenements within such district, &c. held in freehold, fief, or roture, or by certificate of the governor and council of the province, being of 40s. sterling clear yearly value above all charges thereon; and members for the towns or townships shall be chosen by majority of votes of persons so possessed of a dwelling-house, and lot of ground therein, of 5l. clear annual value, or who having been resident thereon for a twelvemonth next, before date of writ of summons, have bonâ fide paid 1 year's rent for their dwelling-house, at 10l. per ann. or more, id. s.20.

68. No person shall be capable of being elected a member, or of sitting or voting in either legislative assembly, who is a member of either legislative council, or who is a minister or teacher of the church of Eng., Rome, or any other faith or worship, id. s.21.

69. No person shall vote or be elected who is not full 21 years old, and a natural born, or naturalized subject, or a subject by the conquest and cession of Canada, id. s.22.

70. No person shall vote or be elected who has been attainted for treason or felony within any of H.M.'s dominions, or who is within any description of persons disqualified by act of legislative council and assembly assented to by H.M., id. s.23.

71. Every voter, before being admitted to vote, shall, if required, take the following oath in English or French, as the case requires:

"I, A. B., do declare and testify, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am, to the best of my knowledge and belief, of the full age of 21 years, and that I have not voted before at this election."

and, if so required, that he is duly possessed of lands, or house and ground, or has been bonâ fide resident, and paid rent as in s.20., id. s.24.

72. H.M. may authorize the governor in each province to fix the time and place of holding such elections, giving not less than 8 days' notice, subject to any provisions hereafter made by acts of legislative council and assembly, with royal assent, id. s.25.

73. And to fix the places and times of holding the sessions of such council and assembly, giving due notice thereof, and to prorogue and dissolve the same, by proclamation or otherwise, whenever expedient, id. s.26.

54. The council and assembly in each province shall be called together once in every 12 calendar months, and shall continue 4 years, from return-day of writs, subject to be sooner prorogued or dissolved by the governor, &c. 31 G.3. c.31. s.27.

55. Questions in the above respective councils or assemblies shall be decided by the majority of voices, and when they are equal, by the speaker's casting voice, id. s.28.

56. No member thereof shall sit or vote till he has taken and subscribed the following oath, either in English or French, as the case requires:

"I, A. B., [as in 14 G.3. c.85. s.7. ante, pl.8.] adding, after king George, 'as lawful sovereign of the kingdom of G.B., and of these provinces dependent on and belonging to the said kingdom.' id. s.29.

57. Whenever any bill passed by council and assembly is presented for H.M.'s assent to such governor, &c. he shall declare that he assents thereto, in H.M.'s name, or that he withholds such assent, or receives such bill for signification of H.M.'s pleasure, id. s.30.

58. The governor shall, by the first opportunity, transmit to a secretary of state authentic copies of bills assented to, and H.M., within 2 years, and by order in council, may disallow the same, which disallowance, with a certificate under hand and seal of such secretary, testifying the day of receiving the bill, being signified by governor to such council and assembly, or by proclamation, shall annul same from date of signification, id. s.31.

59. No bills reserved for H.M.'s pleasure shall have force till royal assent is signified by the governor's speech or message to the council and assembly, or by proclamation; (an entry of which message, &c. shall be made in journals of the council, and an attested duplicate delivered to officer of public records of province;) or unless the royal assent is given in 2 years from the date of presentment to the governor for such assent, id. s.32.

60. All laws in force at the commencement of this act, (viz. 31st Dec. 1791. id. s.48.) shall remain in force, except hereby expressly repealed or varied, or so far as they may hereafter be repealed or varied by H.M., with consent of the legislative councils and assemblies, id. s.33.

61. The governor and executive council of each province shall be a court of civil jurisdiction therein as before this act, subject to any other provisions made by act of council or assembly assented to by H.M., id. s.34.

62. Whenever any act shall be passed by the legislative council and assembly, containing any provisions to vary or repeal the declaration and provision in 14 G.3. c.85. s.5., or H.M.'s instructions in s.35. of this act, [see supra, pl.7.] or any of the above provisions respecting appropriation of lands for support of a protestant clergy, or constituting or endowing parsonages, or presentation of incumbents, or the manner in which they hold the same; or containing any provisions relative to exercise of religious worship, or creating penalties in respect thereof; or affecting the accustomed dues or rights before mentioned, or any otherwise relating to the granting or recovering any other dues soever, to be paid for the use of any minister, priest, ecclesiastic, or teacher, or in any manner relating to the discipline of the church of Eng., or affecting H.M.'s prerogative touching waste lands, every such act, previous to H.M.'s assent, shall be laid before parliament in G.B., and the royal assent shall not be given till 30 days after, or if either house shall within 30 days address H.M. to withhold the same; and no such act shall be valid within either province, unless the legislative council and assembly thereof shall in the same session have presented to the governor of the province an address specifying that such act contains provisions for some of the above purposes, and desiring it to be transmitted to Eng. without delay, for being laid before parliament previous to signifying H.M.'s assent, id. s.42.

63. [Recital of 18 G.3. c.12. s.1. ante, AMERICAN COLONIES, pl.30—31.]

64. Nothing in this act shall prevent or affect the execution of any law made in the parliament of G.B. for establishing regulations or prohibitions, or imposing duties for regulation of navigation, or of the commerce to be carried on between the said provinces, or between either of them, and any other part of H.M.'s dominions, or any foreign country, or for directing payment of drawbacks, id. s.46.

65. All goods, the produce of any countries bordering on the Canadas, and legally brought into them by land or inland navigation, may be imported into G.B. from any ports thereof, with or without payment of duty, according to regulations for goods the produce of the Canadas, (provided it appear by certificate of collector, and officer of comptroller of customs, and naval officer there, that they were legally brought into the Canadas;) and specifying the places from which they were brought into such provinces, and subject to laws of Canadian imports into G.B., 30 G.3. c.29. s.3. [and see 59 G.3. c.52, Table A. inwards, tit. QUEBEC.]

CARRIAGES.

(STATUTES repealed.)

1. TO RESTRAIN all waggons, carriers, and others, from drawing any carriage with more than 5 horses in length, 1 G.1. st.2. c.11. [Rep. 7 G.3. c.42. s.57.]

2. FOR ALLOWING carts to be drawn with four horses, 16 G.2. c.29. [Rep. 7 G.3. c.42. s.57.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR BETTER REGULATING CARTS, DRAYS, AND WAGGONS within the cities of London and Westminster, and the weekly bills of mortality, and for preventing mischiefs occasioned by drivers riding upon such carts, &c. 1 G.1. st.2. c.57. ss.8, 9. [AMU. and EXT. to within 10 miles of London, 24 G.2. c.47. ss.8, 9.]

2. Every person driving any cart, dray, car, or waggon, in or through any street in London, Westminster or Southwark, and other streets within the weekly-bills of mortality, who shall ride upon such cart, &c. not having some person on foot to guide the same, shall, on conviction before the alderman of the ward, or one justice for the place where the offence was committed, by oath of one witness, forfeit 10s., to be levied by distress and sale of his goods by warrant from such alderman or justice, to go in moieties to the poor of such place and the informer, and in default of payment shall be sent to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for 3 days, 1 G.1. st.2. c.57. s.8.

3. Nothing herein contained shall deprive the mayor, commonalty, &c. of London and the governors of Christ's Hospital, of any power they have to punish such offenders not having been before punished for the same offence, id. s.9.

4. Every driver of any cart, dray, car, or waggon, riding on the same, in the city of London, or within 10 miles thereof, not having some person on foot to guide the same, shall forfeit, on conviction, according to 1 G.1. st.2. c.57. s.8. pl. 2. 10s. if not the owner of such carriage, and if the owner any sum not exceeding 20s., to be recovered and applied as by such act (s.8.) is directed concerning the 10s. penalty, 24 G.2. c.47. s.8.

5. Any person may apprehend such offender and carry him before some justice, and any person who shall resist or abuse the person so endeavouring to apprehend him, or who shall endeavour to rescue the offender, shall forfeit 20s. to be recovered and applied as before said, id. s.9.

6. IF THE DRIVER OF ANY CART, CAR, DRAY, OR WAGGON, shall ride on any such carriage, not having some other person on foot or horseback to guide the same, (carts drawn by one horse only or by two abreast, and conducted by some person holding the reins, excepted,) or if the driver of any carriage soever, on any part of any street or highway shall, by negligence or wilful misbehaviour, cause any hurt or damage to any person passing or being therein, he may, under this act, without other warrant, be apprehended by any persons who shall see the offence committed, and shall be immediately delivered to a constable or other peace-officer, to be conveyed before some justice of the same county or place, on conviction before whom, by confession or oath, of one or more credible witnesses, he shall, for every offence, forfeit not exceeding 10s., or shall be committed to the house of correction for not exceeding one month, at discretion of the justice, 27 G.2. c.16. s.7.

7. TO ALLOW CARTS USED WITHIN THE LIMITS OF THE WEEKLY bills of mortality, to be drawn with 3 horses, and to prevent the misbehaviour of the drivers of carts in streets within such limits, 18 G.2. c.33. [EXPL. and AMU. 30 G.2. c.22., which act is Rep. as to its operation out of such limits by 7 G.3. c.42. s.57., 7 G.3. c.44. s.20. 24 G.3. S.2. c.27. s.8.]

8. Any person may use within the bills of mortality any cart, car, or dray, drawn by 3 horses, the (London local act), 2 W. & M. S.2. c.18. s.19. notwithstanding, 18 G.2. c.33. s.2.

9. Provided that every person who shall use any cart, &c. drawn by more than 3 horses, after they are up the hills from the water-side, shall be subject to the penalties, (viz. 40s.) of such act for drawing with more than 2, id. s.3.

10. No person shall use any cart, &c. within London, Westminster, Southwark, or the weekly bills of mortality, unless the master or owner of such cart shall place the name of the owner and the number of such cart thereon, id. s.4.

11. Every owner of such cart, &c. residing within such limits, shall enter his name and place of abode with the commissioners for licensing hackney-coaches, for which entry he shall pay 1s., id. s.5. [See as to entry on change of property, 30 G.2. c.22. s.2. pl. 16., and as to searching the register, 7 G.3. c.44. s.20. pl. 17.]

12. No persons shall drive any cart, dray, car, or other such carriage within the cities of London or Westminster, or the suburbs thereof, or within Southwark, and other places in the bills of mortality, or 5 miles from Temple Bar, except the owner has entered his name and place of abode with the commissioners of hackney-coaches, and unless such cart, &c. has the name of the owner and the number affixed to it; and in case of neglect or refusal so to do, or of driving of such cart, &c. within such limits, the owner, residing out of such limits, and driving such cart, &c. within 5 miles of Temple Bar, shall be liable to the like penalties relative to such owners or drivers within such limits, which shall be recovered and applied in such manner as such penalties may be, from the owners of such carts, &c. driven within such limits, 24 G.3. S.2. c.27. s.8., general issue, treble costs, 18 G.2. c.33. s.10.

13. All persons driving any such cart, &c. within such limits not so marked, numbered, and entered, shall forfeit 40s., and any person may detain such cart, &c. and the horses drawing the same, till the penalty is paid, id. s.6. [See as to the penalty, 30 G.2. c.22. s.1., post, pl. 15.]

14. All persons using any carts, &c. having wheels of the breadth of 6 inches, when worn, may have the same bound with iron tire of the breadth of 6 inches, and made flat, and not set on with rose-headed nail, id. s.7.

15. One moiety of the penalty forfeited by the driver of any cart, car, or dray, under 18 G.2. c.33. s.6., shall go to the party who shall apprehend and prosecute to conviction such offender, and the other to the overseers of the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, and if no such overseers, then to some other officer thereof for the use of the poor there; and if the offender on conviction under such act, before one justice, shall not, within 24 hours after conviction, pay the 40s. forfeited, then same may be raised by sale of the cart, &c. or horse, which shall be seized; and every justice shall issue his warrant directed to the constable or other peace-officer of the parish where such seizure shall be made, to cause sale thereof to be made, rendering overplus to the offender, after deducting the charges of sale, and the expences of seizure thereof by detaining such cart, &c. or keeping such horse until sale made, or the money forfeited be paid, 30 G.2. c.22. s.1.

16. Every time the property of any cart, &c. entered as in 18 G.2. c.33. s.5. pl. 11. directed, shall be changed, the new owner shall, within 7 days after he shall have become owner, cause the name of the former owner to be taken off, and that of the new one painted in some conspicuous place put on, and also enter the same with the commissioners of hackney-coaches; and if any omission is made in doing so, and any person shall drive any such cart, &c. within London, Westminster, Southwark, or the bills of mortality, without such name put on it, and such entry made, he shall forfeit 40s. on conviction, either by confession, or oath of one witness before any justice for the county, &c. where the offence was done, to go in moieties as in (s.1.) aforesaid, and every such cart, &c. and any horse drawing same, may be seized and sold to raise the money forfeited, and the expences of such seizure, together with the reasonable charge of such sale, the housing of such cart, &c. and keeping such horse, id. s.2. [See ss. 3 & 4., tit. CARRIAGE, pl. 6—7.]

17. All persons may inspect the registers of carts, cars, and drays kept by the commissioners of hackney-coaches, and such commissioners, or their clerks, shall produce such register upon request, and shall make and give such persons a true copy of such entry herein as they shall require, on paying 4d. for each entry, and the like sum where only search is made, 7 G.3. c.44. s.20.

18. No person shall wilfully obstruct the passing or repassing, if within any public street in London or Westminster, or the weekly bills of mortality, or put or set any empty pipes, or other vessels therein, or set or place any empty cart, &c. or other carriage in any such street, &c. except only during such time as such cart, &c. shall be plying for hire in places appointed for the standing thereof, and except during the time such cart, &c. shall be waiting in any such street, &c. to load or unload goods, or take up or set down a fire; and all persons so offending herein, and being convicted thereof by confession, or by oath of one witness before any justice for the county, city, &c. where such offence was committed, shall forfeit from 5s. to 20s., or be committed to the house of correction or other prison in the county, &c. to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one calendar month, as any such justice shall think fit, 30 G.2. c.22. s.5.

19. No person shall ply for hire in Bridge-street, Parliament-street, Great George-street, St. Margaret's-street, or Abingdon-street in Westminster, or stop in any of such streets with any coach, cart, or other carriage longer than necessary, to set down or take up a fare, or load or unload goods, on pain on conviction, before one justice for Westminster, by confession or oath of one witness, to forfeit from 5s. to 20s., or be committed to the house of correction in Westminster for 1 calendar month, and to be kept to hard labour, id. s.6.

20. Every driver of any carriage in London or Westminster, or in any public street or highway within the weekly bills of mortality, who shall, by negligence, or wilful misbehaviour, prevent or hinder the free passage of any streets in London, Westminster, or the weekly bills of mortality, such, on conviction as aforesaid, (s.5.) shall forfeit any sum not exceeding 20s., or be committed to prison as in s.5. pl. 18., id. s.7.

21. Every person apprehended for any offence against this act, who shall refuse to give his name, and place of abode to any justice before whom brought, shall be delivered to a peace-officer, to be conveyed to the common goal or house of correction, till he does declare the same to such or another justice, 30 G. 2. c. 22. s. 11.

22. All forfeitures hereby incurred, shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods (restoring the overplus after the charges of distress deducted), by warrant from the justice by whom convicted, and shall go in moieties to the prosecutor and overseers of the poor (if there be any) of any parish where the offence was committed; and if none, to some other officer of such parish, for use of the poor thereof, id. s. 12.

23. All persons seeing any offences against this act committed, may without warrant apprehend the offender, and convey him to some constable or other peace-officer of the place, who shall carry him before some justice of the county, &c., id. s. 13.

24. In all actions and proceedings under this act, the inhabitants of any parish or place in which any offence is committed contrary to this act or 18 G. 2. c. 33., shall be admitted to give evidence, and be deemed a competent witness, id. s. 14.

25. No person punished for any offence by virtue of this act, shall be again punished for it under any other law; and in actions for any thing done under this act, the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it shall so appear, a verdict shall pass for the defendant, and if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues after appearance, or has judgment against him on verdict or demurrer, the defendant shall have double costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 15.

CARRIER.—(See LONDON Portage act, 39 G. 3. c. lviii.)

1. FOR THE BETTER REPAIRING AND AMENDING the highways, and for settling the rates of carriage of goods, 3 W. & M. c. 12. ss. 24—55. [REPEAL as to s. 16., 18 G. 2. c. 33. s. 1., and as to highways, 7 G. 3. c. 42. s. 57., and AMEND. as to s. 24., by 21 G. 2. c. 28. ss. 3—5.]

2. The justices for any county in Eng. and Wa., shall, at the Easter quarter-sessions, yearly assess and date the prices of all land carriage of goods brought within their jurisdiction by any common waggoner or carrier, and shall certify the same to the several mayors and other chief officers of each market town within their jurisdiction; and no carrier shall take above the rates and prices so set, upon pain to forfeit 5*l.* to the use of the party grieved, to be recovered and levied as by 3 W. & M. c. 12. directed, or by distress and sale of his goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of two justices for Middlesex or Surry, London or Westminster, and the clerks of peace for each county and place shall certify yearly to the mayor of London, and the clerks of peace for Middlesex, Surry, and Westminster, the rates so allowed and made, in pursuance of 3 W. & M. c. 12., which certificate, or an attested copy thereof, signed by the proper officer, shall be deemed evidence of such rates, 21 G. 2. c. 28. s. 3.

3. If any common waggoner or carrier shall take any greater price for bringing goods to London, or to any place within the bills of mortality, than allowed by the justices of the place whence such goods are brought, for carrying goods from London to such place, he shall forfeit 5*l.* to the use of the party grieved, to be recovered and levied as by 3 W. & M. c. 12. directed, or by distress and sale of his goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of two justices for Middlesex or Surry, London or Westminster, and the clerks of peace for each county and place shall certify yearly to the mayor of London, and the clerks of peace for Middlesex, Surry, and Westminster, the rates so allowed and made, in pursuance of 3 W. & M. c. 12., which certificate, or an attested copy thereof, signed by the proper officer, shall be deemed evidence of such rates, 21 G. 2. c. 28. s. 3.

4. Every common waggoner or carrier shall place on some conspicuous part of his waggon or cart, before he shall drive the same, his Christian and surname at length, and place of abode, in large capital letters, on pain to forfeit 20*s.*, to be recovered as in s. 3., id. s. 4.

5. In actions for any thing done under this act, defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues, or has a verdict, 3 W. & M. c. 12. s. 25. [or judgment in demurrer, 21 G. 2. c. 28. s. 5.] against him, the defendant shall have [double, 3 W. & M. c. 12. s. 25.] [treble, 21 G. 2. c. 28. s. 5.] costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, 3 W. & M. c. 12. s. 25., 21 G. 2. c. 28. s. 5.

6. THE JUSTICES OF PEACE FOR London SHALL, at the general sessions holden for London, next after 24th June, in each year, assess reasonable prices for the carriage of all goods taken up in London, and carried by carts, &c. licensed as herein-directed (s. 1, 2.), as well in London as from London to Westminster, and other places not exceeding 5 miles from London; and shall frame rules for regulating such carts, &c. and the drivers thereof, and compel payment for carriage of goods by such licensed carts, &c. according to such prices, and annex penalties for breach thereof, not exceeding 5*l.* for one offence, as they deem proper; and at any other such sessions may alter and amend such rules, 30 G. 2. c. 22. s. 3.

7. All rules made, shall, within 30 days after, be printed and affixed to some public place in London, and be otherwise made public, as such justices in sessions seem fit, id. s. 4. [See the rest of this act, CARRIAGES, pl. 15—16.]

2. Importation of cattle is a common nuisance, and any great cattle, sheep, or swine, beef, pork, or bacon, (other than ship's provisions, not exposed to sale) so imported, may be seized by any person soever [32 C. 2. c. 2. s. 3.], and kept for 48 hours in some public place where the seizure is made; during which time, if the owner shall make it appear to some justice of the county, by oath of two credible witnesses, that the same were not imported from parts beyond sea, they shall be re-delivered by his warrant without delay, but in default thereof forfeited, one-half to the use of the poor of the parish, and the other to that of the seizers, 18 C. 2. c. 2. s. 1., as AMEND. by 32 C. 2. c. 2. s. 5.

3. Nothing in these acts shall hinder the import of 600 Manx cattle yearly to be landed at the port of Chester, or some of its members only. 18 C. 2. c. 2. s. 3., 20 C. 2. c. 7. s. 9. [Old regulation included Liverpool, and Wirewater, 15 C. 2. c. 7. s. 21.]

4. Any person may seize cattle so imported, and shall have the benefit of the seizure given by 32 C. 2. c. 2. s. 5. &c., 20 C. 2. c. 7. s. 3., 32 C. 2. c. 2. s. 3.

5. The seizer shall cause them to be killed in 6 days after conviction; and the hides and tallow thereof shall be to his use, and the remainder shall be forthwith distributed among the poor by the churchwardens and overseers, on notice given them by such seizers, 32 C. 2. c. 2. s. 5.

6. Every such seizer or overseer, &c. neglecting their respective duties herein, shall forfeit 40*s.* for every one of the great cattle, and 10*s.* for every sheep or swine which should have been so killed and distributed; one moiety to the poor and the other to the informer; to be levied by distress and sale, with costs, under justice's warrant, on conviction of the offender by confession, view of justice, or oath of any witness, except the informer; and for default, the offender shall be committed to county-gaol for 3 months, 32 C. 2. c. 2. s. 6.

7. Where no such seizure is made in the parish or place where such cattle are first imported, the inhabitants thereof, neglecting to make the same, shall forfeit 100*l.* for the use of the county house of correction; and this and all other penalties inflicted by this act, or by 18 C. 2. c. 2., shall be accounted for to such persons, at such times, and in such manner, as the overseers of the poor are to account by 43 E. c. 2., 20 C. 2. c. 7. s. 4.

8. Every ship, with all her tackle, in which such cattle, &c. (as in 1. 2.) shall be imported, shall be forfeited, seized, and sold within one year; and the proceeds shall go, one-half to the poor of the parish where service is made, and the other to the seizer; and any justice of the county, or chief officer of port town, may issue warrant to apprehend the seamen, and all others landing or taking charge of the cattle, and may imprison them in county-gaol for 3 months, id. s. 5.

9. Where, by connivance of parish officers, such cattle are removed, and found alive in another parish or place after their first seizure, they are liable to seizure there, subject to like proof from the owner, with like benefit to the seizer and poor of the latter parish, as if they had never been seized before, 32 C. 2. c. 2. s. 10., extending 20 C. 2. c. 7. s. 6.

10. Actions or prosecutions commenced against any person for any seizure under this act, shall be laid in the county where the seizure was made; and if, on the trial, plaintiff shall fail in proof that the cause of action arose there, defendant shall be found not guilty, without hearing plaintiff's evidence, 20 C. 2. c. 7. s. 7.

11. Defendant may plead general issue, and give 18 C. 2. c. 2. and this act, with the special matter in evidence, and shall have treble costs, if plaintiff is nonsuited, nonprossed, suffers discontinuance, or loses a verdict, id. s. 8.

12. Confederacy to elude this act, incurs the penalties of a præmunire in 16 R. 2. c. 5. id. s. 10.

13. No mutton or lamb shall be imported [from Ire. scilicet repealed by effect of act of union.] or beyond the seas, and if so imported is liable to the penalties and seizures under 18 C. 2. c. 2. s. 1. pl. 2. incurred by such importation of beef, pork, or bacon, 32 C. 2. c. 2. s. 8. [sed quære.]

14. TO RENDER THE LAWS MORE EFFECTUAL FOR PREVENTING the stealing and destroying of sheep and other cattle, 14 G. 2. c. 6. [Ext. to any bull, cow, ox, steer, bullock, heifer, calf, and lamb as well as sheep, and to no other cattle, 15 G. 2. c. 34.]

15. Every person feloniously driving away, or otherwise feloniously stealing one or more sheep, &c. or other cattle of any other person, or wilfully killing the same with a felonious intent to steal the carcase, or any part thereof, or aiding any person in such offence, shall on conviction be guilty of felony, and suffer death as a felon without clergy, 14 G. 2. c. 6. s. 1., 15 G. 2. c. 34.

16. Every person and persons who shall apprehend and prosecute to conviction any offender herein, shall receive a reward of 10*l.* clear on every conviction, [this reward, and the allowance thereof in the sheriff's accounts, (s. 5.) are repealed by 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 1. but ss. 2, 3, are given at length here as enactments which must still be acted upon, when the court orders a reward to be paid, see 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 5.] payable in one month after by the sheriff of the county, on tendering him a certificate, signed by the judge before whom the offender was convicted, certifying such conviction, and the place where the offence was committed, and that such offender was apprehended and prosecuted by the person claiming the reward, which certificate the judge shall sign before the end of the sessions or assizes where the conviction is, and shall appoint the shares to be paid to each person, where there is more than one claimant; and if such sheriff dies, or is removed before expiration of one month after conviction, and before demand made of the said reward, (the same not being paid,) the next sheriff shall pay the same in one month after demand, and certificate brought as aforesaid, on pain of forfeiting to such claimant double the sum detained, recoverable with treble costs by him, his executors, or administrators, &c. in any court at Westminster, by action of debt, &c. or information, with only one imparlance and no essoin allowed, 14 G. 2. c. 6. s. 2.

17. All sheriffs, their executors and administrators, on producing such certificates, and the receipts for the monies paid, shall be allowed in their accounts all monies, other than double the sum of money and treble costs disbursed as in s. 2.; and if on the account of any sheriff there is not money sufficient in his hands to reimburse him, he shall be repaid by the treasury out of the revenue of the crown, on certificate from the clerk of the pipe, id. s. 3. [But sheriffs are not obliged to advance such rewards from their own funds, 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 4. tit. SHERIFF.]

18. OR PERMITTING THE FREE IMPORTATION of cattle from Ire., 32 G. 2. c. 11. [CON. and AM. 5 G. 3. c. 10., 12 G. 3. c. 56. s. 5. MADE PEAR. 16 G. 3. c. 8.]

19. Importation of cattle from Ire. may be made duty-free, 32 G. 2. c. 11. s. 1., 5 G. 3. c. 10. s. 1.

20. Where action is commenced against any person for thing done in pursuance of these acts, defendant may plead the general issue, and give these acts and the special matter in evidence; and if it is proved that the thing complained of was done in pursuance thereof, the jury shall find for defendant, and if plaintiff discontinues after appearance is nonsuited, or has judgment against him on verdict or demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs, 32 G. 3. c. 11. s. 2., 5 G. 3. c. 10. s. 2.

21. TO PREVENT THE SPREADING OF THE INFECTIOUS DISTEMPER amongst the horned cattle, 22 G. 2. c. 46. [ss. 24, 25. tit. HIDES and SKINS], and ss. 27, 29. [These provisions seem still in force, sed quære, see s. 29.]

22. No person shall dispose of any live cattle till they have been 40 days his property: and in proof of such property, the seller shall produce a certificate from the person of whom he purchased, signifying the time of his purchasing the same; and every person who shall sell any such cattle, without producing such certificate, and is convicted thereof by confession or oath of one or more credible witnesses, before any justice or justices of the same county, city, or place, shall, for every ox, bull, cow, calf, steer, or heifer so sold, forfeit 10*l.*, unless he make oath before such justice, &c. that such ox, &c. has been his property for more than 40 days: the penalty being recoverable as in 19 G. 2. c. 5. [Exp.] one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence is committed, 22 G. 2. c. 46. s. 27.

23. Every person selling any such cattle, and giving a false certificate at their time of sale, and the person accepting the same, knowing it to be such, shall forfeit 10*l.* recoverable and applicable as in s. 27. id. s. 28.

24. When drovers find any of their cattle sicken on the road, so as to be unable to proceed on their journey, they shall give notice to the constable or churchwarden of the place where the beast sickens, that he may be slain and buried, having first slashed his skin, if he is deemed ill of the distemper now raging among the horned cattle, in the opinion of such constable, &c. and two substantial inhabitants of the place, whom he may summon to his assistance by note in writing, on penalty of 10*l.* to the poor of such parish, &c. from such drover for neglect hereof, or concealing or driving out of the way any such sick beast, to be levied on his goods, by distress-warrant of a justice of any place where he is taken; and on non-payment shall be committed to gaol for six calendar months, or until he has paid the penalty, id. s. 29.

25. Actions commenced for things done in pursuance hereof must be brought in six months, and the venue is local; the defendant may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and on proof that the fact was done in pursuance hereof, or that venue is laid in wrong county, or that the six months are elapsed, jury shall find for defendant, who shall have treble costs on such verdict, or if plaintiff discontinues after appearance, or is nonsuited, or have judgment against him on demurrer or otherwise, id. s. 33.

CERTIORARI.

1. FOR PREVENTING ABUSES IN PROCURING WRITS of certiorari out of chancery and K. B. for removing indictments found before justices of peace in their general sessions, 21 J. 1. c. 8. (ss. 6, 7.) [See rest of the statute, tit. PEACE (SURETY OR). AND. virtually by 15 G. 2. c. 18. s. 5.]

2. Writs of certiorari to remove indictments of riot, forcible entry, or assault and battery from quarter sessions into K. B. shall be delivered at some quarter sessions in open court of the former, and the parties indicted shall, before allowance thereof, become bound to the prosecutors in 10*l.* in such sureties as the justices shall think fit, with condition to pay to the prosecutors in one month from conviction such costs as they shall think fit, in default whereof the justices shall proceed to trial, 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 7.

3. No writ of certiorari shall be granted to remove any conviction, judgment, order, or other proceedings had before any justice or justices of any county, city, or place, or the general or quarter-sessions thereof, unless moved for within six months next after such conviction, &c. so had, and unless it be duly proved on oath, that the party suing forth the same hath given 6 days' notice thereof in writing to the justice or justices, or two of them before whom such conviction, &c. was had, to the end that they, or the parties therein concerned, may show cause if they think fit against granting such certiorari, 15 G. 2. c. 18. s. 5.

4. FOR PREVENTING DELAYS OF PROCEEDINGS at quarter sessions of the peace, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 11. (and recital in s. 1.) [MADE PEAR. 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 33. s. 1. AND. id. s. 2.]

5. In term time no certiorari, at the prosecution of any person indicted, shall be granted out of K. B. to remove any indictment or presentment of trespass, or misdemeanor before trial had from before the general or quarter-sessions, but on counsel's motion, and by rule of court for granting the same before the judge or judges of K. B. sitting in open court: and the parties prosecuting the same shall find a manu-raptors before 1 or more justices of the county or place, or [a judge of K. B. s. 4 § 9 W. 3. c. 33. s. 2.] in 20l. with condition at the return thereof to appear and plead in K. B. and at their own charges to procure the issue to be tried at the next assizes for the county, if not in London, Westminster, or Middlesex, and if in those cities or county, then to cause it to be tried the next term, or at the sitting after the same, if the K. B. appoint no other time; and if any other time, then at such other time; and to give due notice of trial to the prosecutor or his clerk in court, [and that the party presenting such certiorari shall appear from day to day in K. B. and not depart till discharged by such court, of which condition mention shall be made at back of the writ under the hand of the judge taking the same, s. 4 § 9 W. 3. c. 33. s. 2.] and such recognizance and certiorari shall be certified into K. B. and there filed, and the prosecutor's name indorsed; and if the party prosecuting the certiorari being the defendant, shall not before allowance thereof procure such manucaptors, the sessions may try the indictment notwithstanding such certiorari, s. 4 § 6 W. & M. c. 11. s. 2. as AMD. by s. 4 § 9 W. 3. c. 33. s. 2.

6. If the defendant prosecuting such certiorari be convicted, K. B. shall give costs to the prosecutor, if he is the party grieved, or any justice, or constable, churchwarden, overseer, or other civil officer, who shall prosecute on account of any fact that concerned him as such, and within 10 days after demand, on oath, and refusal, he shall have an attachment against defendant for a contempt, and the recognizance shall not be discharged till the costs are paid, s. 4 § 6 W. & M. c. 11. s. 3.

7. In vacation, writs of certiorari may be granted by any judge of K. B. whose name shall be indorsed as well as that of the party at whose instance it is granted; and before allowance thereof, the party indicted prosecuting the same, shall find sureties, as in s. 2. id. s. 4.

8. Upon any certiorari granted within Chester, Lancaster, or Durham, to remove indictments, the parties indicted prosecuting the same, shall find sureties, (as in s. 2.) to try them at the next assizes, or general gaol-delivery; and if convicted, shall be liable to like costs, (as in s. 5.) id. s. 5.

9. If any indictment be against any person for not repairing highways, causeways, pavements, or bridges, and the title to repair them comes in question, on such suggestion and affidavit made thereof, a certiorari may be granted to remove the same into K. B., provided that the parties prosecuting such writ shall find 2 manucaptors, to be bound in recognizance with condition, as in s. 2. id. s. 6.

CESSAVIT.

(STATUTE expired.)

1. A CONTRA formam collationis and a cessavit to recover lands given in dms, 15 E. 1. c. 41. [EXR. comm. semb. since 31 H. 8. c. 13. 25 H. 8. c. 10.

(STATUTE in force.)

1. REMEDY by cessavit, against a tenant in fee farm, 6 E. 1. c. 1. St. Gloucester. [EXT. as well to leases made before the statute as after, EXPLANATIONES st. Glouc. c. 4.

2. If a man let his land to farm, [viz. rent,] or to find estovers in meat or cloth, amounting to the 4th part of the very value of the land, and he which holdeth the land so charged lets it lie fresh, so that the party can find no distress there for 2 or 3 years, to compel payment of this rent, or doing what is contained in the lease; after 2 years passed, the lessor shall have action to demand the land in demesne, by a writ out of chancery; and if defendant come before judgment, and renders the arrears and damages, and finds such security as the court think sufficient, to render afterwards what is contained in the lease, he shall keep the land; but if he stay till it is recovered by judgment, shall be barred for ever, id. ibid.

3. IN LIKE MANNER AS IN 6 E. 1. c. 4., if any withhold from his lord the service due and accustomed for 2 years, the lord shall have an action to demand the land by this writ;

Command A. that justly, &c. he render to B. such a tenement, which A. of him held by such service, and which ought to revert to the aforesaid B. for that the aforesaid A., in doing the aforesaid service, has ceased for 2 years, as he says, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 21. s. 1.

4. And not only in this case, but also in that of the statute of Gloucester, writs of entry shall be made for the heir of demandant against the heir of the tenant, and all alienees of the land, id. s. 2.

CHAMPERTY AND MAINTENANCE.

1. CHAMPERTORS ARE THEY THAT MOVE pleas and suits, or cause to be moved, either by their own or others procurement, and sue them at their proper costs, to have part of the land in variance, or of the gains, 33 E. 1. s. 1. Definitio de Conspiratoribus. [See rest of the act, tit. CONSPIRATORS.]

2. NO OFFICER OF H. M., BY HIMSELF OR OTHER, shall maintain pleas or suits in H. M.'s courts, for lands, tenements, or other things, to have part or profit thereof, by covenant made, but shall be punished for the same at H. M.'s pleasure, 5 E. 1. c. 25. (West. prim.)

3. NONE OF H. M.'S OR JUSTICES' CLERKS, shall receive the presentation of any church for which any plea is in H. M.'s court, without H. M.'s special licence, on pain to lose the church and his service; and no clerk of any justice or sheriff shall take part in [maintain] any matters pending in H. M.'s court, nor work any fraud, in delay or disturbance of common-right, under the above or a more grievous penalty, 5 E. 1. c. 28. (West. prim.)

4. REMEDY ON DISTRESSES TAKEN ON malicious suits in courts baron, &c. 13 E. 1. c. 36. (West. sec.)

5. Lords of courts and other that keep courts, and stewards, shall not to grieve those within their jurisdiction, procure others to move matters against them, and to put in surety and offer pledges, or to purchase writs, and at suit of such plaintiffs compel them to follow the county, hundred, wapentake, and other like courts, until they have made fine with them. And if any be attached on such false complaints, he shall replevy his distress, and cause the matter to be brought before the justices, before whom if the sheriff, bailiff, or other lord, will avow the distress lawful, by reason of such complaints made unto them, and it be replied that such plaintiffs were moved maliciously against the party by solicitation or procurement of the sheriff, or other bailiffs or lords, the replication shall be admitted; and if they be convict hereupon, they shall make fine to H. M., and restore treble damages, 17 E. 1. c. 36. (West. sec.)

6. THE CHANCELLOR, TREASURER, JUSTICES, nor any of H. M.'s council, nor clerk of chancery or exchequer, nor of any justice or other officer, nor of any of H. M.'s house, clerk or lay, shall not receive any church, nor advowson, land nor tenement, in fee, by champerty nor otherwise, so long as the thing is in plea before us, nor shall take reward; and he that doth contrary shall be punished at H. M.'s pleasure, as well purchaser as seller, id. c. 49.

7. No officer nor other, to have part of the thing in plea, shall take upon him business that is in suit; and none on any such covenant shall give up his right to another. And if any is attainted thereof, the taker shall forfeit to H. M. so much of his lands and goods as doth amount to the value of the part purchased. And whosoever will shall be received to sue for H. M. before the justices before whom the plea shall have been pending and judgment given; but no person shall be hereby prohibited from having counsel of pleaders or learned men for his fee, or of his relations or neighbours, Artic. sup. chart. 28 E. 1. c. 11. or Stat. in cert. Temp. c. 8. Wood. 398.

8. NO PLEADERS, APPRENTICES, ATTORNEYS, stewards of great men, bailiffs, nor any other, shall take for maintenance, or the like bargain, any suit against other; and all such as shall be attainted of such bargains, and such as consent thereto, shall have imprisonment of three years, and make fine at H. M.'s pleasure, 33 E. 1. s. 5. St. of Champerty.

9. NONE OF H. M.'s counsellors, nor of his house, nor of his ministers, nor no great man of the realm, by sending of letters nor otherwise, nor none other, shall maintain quarrels nor parties in the country, 1 E. 3. s. 2. c. 14. [CONR. 7 R. 2. c. 15.]

10. Where divers have made alliances to maintain parties, whereby divers have been disinherited, ransomed and destroyed, and some for fear to be maimed and beaten, durst not sue for their right, nor jurors give their verdicts; the justices of both benches and of assizes, shall enquire, hear, and determine, as well at H. M.'s suit as at that of the party, of such maintainers, bearers and conspirators, and of them that commit champerty, as justices in eyre should do; and that which cannot be determined at nisi prius, shall be adjourned for determination into the courts whereof they be justices, 4 E. 3. c. 11. and 7 R. 2. c. 15.

11. NONE OF H. M.'S HOUSE NOR OTHER which be near the queen or prince, or the courts, nor prelates, earls, barons, nor others, shall take in hand quarrels [suits] other than their own, nor the same maintain, for gift, promise, favour, nor fear, but every man may sue for, and defend his right according to law, 20 E. 3. c. 4.

12. LORDS AND GREAT MEN SHALL PUT OUT of their services all maintainers of quarrels, by whose maintenance many people are disinherited and delayed of their right, and many not guilty are convict and oppressed, 20 E. 3. c. 5.

13. NO KING'S COUNSELLORS, OFFICERS, nor other, shall take any quarrel by maintainance in the country, nor elsewhere, on a grievous pain, viz. the counsellors and H. M.'s great officers, upon a pain ordained by H. M. himself, by advice of the lords, and other officers and servants of H. M. as well in the exchequer and all his other courts, as of his own meiny, on pain to lose their offices, and be imprisoned and ransomed at H. M.'s will; and all other persons, upon pain of imprisonment, and to be ransomed, 1 R. 2. c. 4. CONF. as above.

14. No livery shall be given to any man for maintenance of suits or other confederacies on pain of imprisonment and grievous forfeiture. And the justices of assize shall enquire of all them that gather together in fraternities by such livery to do maintenance, 1 R. 2. c. 7. [CONF. 20 H. 2. c. 1.]

15. AGAINST maintenance, embracery, and unlawful buying of titles, 32 H. 8. c. 9.

16. All statutes concerning champerty, maintenance, embracery, are confirmed, id. s. 1.

17. No person shall buy, sell or obtain, any pretended rights or titles, or take, promise or covenant, to have any right or title, of any person in or to any lands or hereditaments (except such persons which shall sell, covenant, or promise the same, or they by whom they claim, have been in possession of the same, or of the reversion or remainder thereof, or taken the rents or profits thereof, one year next before the bargain made), on pain that he that shall make any such sale, promise, covenant or grant, shall forfeit the whole value of the lands so bargained, &c. and the buyer knowing the same shall forfeit also the value of the said lands; the one half to H. M., and the other to the party that will sue for the same by action of debt, or information without essoin, id. s. 2.

18. No person shall unlawfully maintain, or procure any unlawful maintenance, in any action in chancery or elsewhere, where any persons have authority by commission, patent, or writ, to hold plea of lands or any matter concerning the title of lands; nor shall unlawfully retain for maintenance of any suit, any person, or embrace any freeholders or jurors, or suborn any witness, by letters, rewards, promises, or other sinister means, to maintain any cause, or to the hindrance of justice, or procurement of perjury by false verdict, or otherwise, upon pain to forfeit 10*l.* [40*l.* 5 El. c. 9. s. 1.; and transportation added, 2 G. 2. c. 25. s. 2. See PERJURY.] the one moiety to H. M. and the other to him that will sue, as in s. 2. id. s. 3.

19. Persons being in lawful possession by taking of the rents or profits of any tenements, may buy the pretended right of any other person thereto, id. s. 4.

20. The justices of assize shall, in every county, twice a year, viz. in their sittings, cause proclamation to be made, as well of this act as of all other statutes against unlawful maintenance, champerty, embracery, or unlawful retainers, id. s. 5.

21. This act shall not charge any person with the penalties, except the offender be sued within one year after the offence committed, by action of debt, &c. or information without essoin, &c. id. s. 6.

CHARITIES.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. TO REFORM deceits and breaches of trust touching lands given to charitable uses, 39 El. c. 6. [REPE. 43 El. c. 9. s. 30.]

2. SEVERAL ACTS to compel production of the accounts of the effects of the "Charitable Corporation for relief of industrious poor, by assisting them with small sums on pledges at legal interest," 5 G. 2. cc. 3. 31. 6 G. 2. cc. 2. 35. (ss. 1—28.) 36. EXP.

3. FOR PROCURING on oath returns of all charitable donations for the benefit of poor persons in the several parishes and places in Eng., 26 G. 3. c. 58. [SEMBL. EXP. see ss. 3. 7. &c.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TO REDRESS THE MISEMPLOYMENT OF LANDS, goods, and stock, of money heretofore given to charitable uses, 45 El. c. 4.

2. [Whereas lands, tenements, rents, annuities, profits, hereditaments, goods, chattels, money, and stocks of money, have been heretofore given, limited, appointed, and assigned, as well by H. M. and her most noble progenitors as by sundry other well-disposed persons, some for relief of aged, impotent, and poor people; some for maintenance of sick and maimed soldiers and mariners, schools of learning, free schools, and scholars in universities; some for repair of bridges, ports, havens, causeways, churches, sea-banks, and highways; some for education and preferment of orphans; some for or towards relief, stock, or maintenance for houses of correction; some for marriages of poor maids; some for support, aid, and help of young tradesmen, handicraftmen, and persons decayed; and others for relief or redemption of prisoners or captives, and for aid or ease of any poor inhabitants concerning payments of fifteenths, setting out soldiers, and other taxes, which lands, &c. nevertheless have not been employed according to the charitable intent of the givers.] The lord chancellor and chancellor of the duchy for lands within the county palatine of Lancaster, may respectively award commissions under their seals, according to their several jurisdictions, to the bishop of every several diocese, and his chancellor, and other persons, authorising them, or any four of them, to enquire, as well by oaths of an inquest of 12 men of the county, as by all other lawful means of all gifts and limitations of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, money or effects to the above charitable uses, and of the abuses, frauds, and mismanagements therein; and the orders of the commissioners for due and faithful application thereof, on calling the parties interested, and on enquiry, by oaths of 12 men, (to whom the parties interested may have their challenges) shall be executed, (if agreeable to the laws of the founders) until reversed, on complaint of party grieved, by order of either such chancellor in his respective jurisdiction, 45 El. c. 4. s. 1.

3. This act does not subject to the commissioners' enquiry, any such donation (as in s. 1.) to any college or hall in Oxford or Cambridge, or to the colleges of Westminster, Eaton or Winchester, or to any cathedral or collegiate church in the realm, id. s. 2. [and see the like and other exceptions in 52 G. 3. c. 109. ss. 10—13., 58 G. 3. c. 91. s. 12., and 59 G. 3. c. 81. s. 7. from the commissions by those acts appointed.]

4. Nor to any city or town corporate, or to any lands or tenements given to such uses within any such city or town corporate, where a special governor is appointed to govern the same, nor to any college, hospital, or free school, which have special visitors, governors, or overseers appointed by their founders, id. s. 3.

5. This act shall not prejudice the jurisdiction of the ordinary, id. s. 4.

6. No person having any such lands, &c. (as in s. 1.) in his possession, or pretending title thereto, shall be named or serve as a juror or commissioner under this act, id. s. 5.

7. Purchases for valuable consideration of any estate or interest in any lands or chattels (as in s. 1.) which are so given to any charitable uses (as in s. 1.), without fraud, having no notice thereof, shall not be impeached by decrees of the commissioners; but they, or any four of them, may decree rescission to be made by any person (or his heirs, executors, or administrators, having assets in law or equity) who being in trust, or having notice of the above charitable uses, shall break the former, or defraud the latter, by any conveyance, gift, or conversion soever, id. s. 6.

8. This act shall not extend to lands, &c. conveyed, &c. to H. 8. E. 6. or M. except such as have been so granted out since the beginning of this reign, id. s. 7.

9. All orders and decrees of the commissioners, or of any four of them, shall be certified under their seals, either into the chancery of Eng. or that of the county palatine of Lancaster, within the time limited in the commissions, id. s. 8.

10. The said chancellors shall, at their discretion, take or order the due execution of such decrees or orders, id. s. 9.

11. Parties aggrieved by any of the commissioners' orders or decrees, after certificates made (as in s. 8.), may complain to the said chancellors, according to their several jurisdictions, for redress therein, who shall proceed to hear and determine the same, and in so doing may annul or alter any such order as appears to them consistent with equity, and with the true intent of the founders; and shall tax costs at their discretions against persons so complaining without just cause, id. s. 10.

12. FOR BETTER COLLECTING CHARITY MONEY ON BRIEFS BY letters patent, and preventing abuses in relation to such charities, 4 & 5 A. c. 14.

13. Upon the issuing of letters patent for collecting of charity money, called briefs, copies to the number required by the petitioners, and no more, shall be printed by H. M.'s printer at the usual rates, and delivered to such persons as by the petitioners are appointed to dispose of the copies, who shall give a receipt expressing the number; which receipt, or an attested copy thereof, the printer shall deliver to be filed in the register's office in chancery. And the persons undertaking the collection shall cause to be indorsed on the printed copies, one or more of the commissioners' names, written with their own hands, and the time of signing thereof; and the same copies to be stamped, as after mentioned; and to be delivered to the church and chapelwardens, and preachers of every separate congregation, and to any person who hath preached in any quakers' meeting in the places comprised in the letters patent; and the churchwardens and preachers, immediately after receipt, shall indorse the time of receiving, with their names thereto. And the churchwardens shall forthwith deliver over the briefs received to the ministers and curates; who shall indorse the time they received the same, with their names thereto. And the ministers, curates, and preachers, shall on some Sunday in 2 months after receipt thereof, immediately before preaching, openly cause to be read such briefs in their respective places of meeting. And the churchwardens and teachers of such separate congregation, and quakers, shall collect the money that shall be given in the assemblies, or by going from house to house, as the briefs shall require: and the sum collected, place and time, shall be indorsed and signed by the minister or curate, and churchwardens, and by the teacher and 2 substantial persons of such separate congregation: and thereupon the persons required to make the collection, on request of persons undertaking to disperse the briefs, shall deliver to such person the brief indorsed, and monies collected, taking a receipt in some book to be kept for that purpose: on pain that every the said ministers, curates, preachers, and churchwardens, neglecting the matters aforesaid, shall forfeit 20*l.* And the persons dispersing the briefs shall in 6 months demand the brief and monies received, and give receipts for the same, on pain of 20*l.*, id. s. 1.

14. The undertakers to disperse briefs shall make entry in a book (to which persons concerned may have recourse) of the number of briefs by them received, when signed and sent away, to what places, when received back, and the monies thereon collected; the said printed copies so received back, to be left with the register of chancery: and if the whole number shall not be returned, the undertaker for every copy not returned, shall forfeit 50*l.*, unless he make proof in chancery of the briefs wanting being lost by inevitable accident, and of what money was collected thereon. And a register shall be kept by the respective teachers of all monies collected, inserting the occasion of the brief, and the time when collected, to which all persons may resort without fee, s. 2.

15. On the back of the printed copy shall be printed the form of indorsement, with blanks for time, place and sum of money, to be filled up; which copy (before it be carried where the collection is to be made) shall be stamped by the register of chancery, who is to see that no greater number be stamped, than is in the receipts given to the printer. And every person who shall forge or counterfeit such stamp, shall be set on the pillory 1 hour, id. s. 3. [Pillory abolished in this case, See that title.]

16. The undertakers, in 2 months after receipt of the monies, and notice to sufferers, shall account before a master in chancery, to be appointed by the lord chancellor; and the master shall report what is found due, which being confirmed as usual, shall be a charge on the undertakers as if decreed in a suit. And the master shall make allowances to, and examine fraud in undertakers and their agents; and the chancellor may fine such offenders; which fine, and all forfeitures of the said undertakers and agents, shall be for the benefit of the sufferers, and be recovered by order of the court of chancery founded on such report, id. s. 4.

17. All penalties inflicted on others than undertakers and their agents shall be recovered by action of debt or information, id. s. 5.

18. All farming and purchasing such charity-money is unlawful and void; and each person agreeing to purchase the benefit of such brief shall forfeit 50*l.* for the benefit of the sufferers, to be recovered as last before mentioned, id. s. 6.

19. FOR EXTENDING SO MUCH OF THE POWERS OF 33 G. 3. c. 54. (see FRIENDLY SOCIETIES) as relates to the forming rules and regulations for the better management of the funds of such societies, and the appointment of treasurers to other institutions of a charitable nature, 35 G. 3. c. 115. s. 2, 3.

20. The governors, directors, managers, or members of any institution for the relief of widows, orphans, and families of the clergy, and others in distressed circumstances, may frame rules for the management of their funds, and may amend and alter the same, and make new ones, and may procure the same to be presented to the justices for their confirmation at any time before the Michaelmas sessions, 1796, and to be registered under and subject to the same conditions as societies established under 33 G. 3. c. 54. are directed to make, alter, &c. and register their rules id. s. 2.

21. The governors, directors, managers, or members of any such institution, whose rules shall be so confirmed and registered, may appoint a treasurer, who shall give security as by 33 G. 3. c. 54. s. 4. directed, and who shall account for their funds, and the same shall be vested in him; and all the powers, rules, conditions, &c. in such act contained, as to appointment of treasurers for taking security, and for protecting, securing, or recovering their funds, shall extend to such institutions, and the same shall be enjoyed and put in execution accordingly, id. s. 3.

22. FOR REGISTERING AND SECURING OF CHARITABLE DONATIONS, 52 G. 3. c. 102.

23. A memorial or statement of the real and personal estate, gross annual income and investment, and the general and particular objects of every charity and charitable donation for benefit of any poor or other person in Eng. or Wa., founded, benefited, increased, or secured, with the names of the founders or benefactors where known; and also of the person in whose custody the deeds, wills, and other instruments whereby such charities have been founded, &c. may be; and also of the then trustees, feoffees, or possessors of such real or personal estate, shall, within 6 months from 9 July, 1812, be registered by the latter, or some or one of them, as in schedule of the act, in the office of the clerk of the peace of the county, or city, or town, if a county of itself, within which such poor or other person is: which memorial, signed by the person registering the same, shall be left in the office of the clerk of the peace, who shall forthwith transmit a copy to the enrolment office of chancery, id. s. 1.

24. A like memorial shall be registered, left, and transmitted within 12 months after the decease of any person who shall found, &c. (as in s. 1.) any charity, &c. by deed or will, id. s. 2.

25. All clerks of the peace in Eng. and Wa., shall, as occasion requires, provide proper books of parchment or vellum for entry of such registers therein, and every such original, memorial, and book so provided, shall be carefully preserved for public use and inspection in the office to which it belongs, with a correct index of such charities, distinguishing each by the name of its founder, or by its most general appellation, id. s. 3.

26. Where the persons to be benefited shall not be wholly within one county, then the clerk of the peace of the county where the charity is registered, shall forthwith notify in the London Gazette, the name and title thereof as entered in such index, the names of the places wherein the objects of the charity are, its particular or general objects, and the name of the county where the memorial is registered, 52 G. 3. c. 102. s. 4.

27. If such donations are not duly registered (as in s. 1.), any two persons interested in the charity, may petition the lord chancellor, master of the rolls, or court of exchequer, who shall summarily hear the same, and on affidavits or other evidence, shall make such order therein, and as to the costs of the application and proceedings, as seems fit, id. s. 5.

28. No proceedings under these provisions shall decide any title as to the property registered, or persons interested therein, id. s. 6.

29. Every clerk of the peace shall, when required, make searches and give copies of the memorials hereby directed to be entered in his office, to any person tendering the proper fee (as in s. 5.), id. s. 7.

30. He shall have 4*l.* for registering such memorial if it does not exceed 400 words; if exceeding that number 1*s.* per 100 words in the entry, and like fees for every copy of any entry given out of such register; and he shall have the costs of every notification in the London Gazette (as in s. 1.), with the further sum of 10*l.* for drawing and inserting the same, and transmitting the copy to the enrolment-office, (as in s. 1.) id. s. 8.

31. Where any difficulty occurs in preparing such statements, the quarter sessions may, on motion to them and examination of the circumstances, grant more time for the purpose, not exceeding six calendar months, id. s. 9.

32. The quarter sessions may allow to the person registering such memorial, the reasonable costs of preparing, registering, notifying, and transmitting the same, with reference to the income of the charity, and the sums so allowed, may be deducted by such persons from the funds in their hands; but, no such costs shall be allowed, unless stated to the quarter sessions on the declaration in writing of the applicant, signed by him, that such statement is true, and contains to the best of his belief a true account of all the property and objects of the charity, the names of its benefactors, and of the persons having the custody of the title-deeds and of the feoffees, trustees, &c. (as in s. 1.) of the charity property, id. s. 10.

33. These provisions do not extend to charitable donations, not secured on lands, or directed to be so secured, or permanently invested in government, or public stocks, or securities, nor to any charitable donation, which, by the donor's direction, or by lawful rules of the institution, may be wholly or in part expended in the charitable purposes for which it is given, at discretion of the governors or trustees of any charitable institution, id. ibid.

34. This act does not extend to any hospital, school, or charitable institution, founded, improved, or regulated by H. M., or any of his predecessors, or of any special act particularly relating thereto; or to any charitable donation under superintendence of any such royal hospital, or to the governors of the corporation for relief of poor widows, and children of clergymen, nor to any friendly society, the rules of which are legally confirmed, nor to either of the English universities, their colleges or halls, nor to charitable gifts or foundations under their control, nor to the Radcliffe infirmary in Oxford, nor to Westminster, Eton, or Winchester colleges, the Charter-house, the cathedrals, or collegiate churches in Eng. and Wa., the Trinity-house of Leypford Strand, nor to funds applicable to charitable purposes for benefit of any Jews, id. s. 11.

35. Nor to charitable institutions of quakers under superintendence of quakers, id. s. 12.

36. Nor to charitable foundations, the accounts of which are directed to be annually passed in the court of chancery, nor to any charity or charitable foundation, not exceeding 40*l.* in annual gross income, and of which the trustees, feoffees, or possessors, shall, in 6 months from this act passed, deposit in the hands of the minister of the parish a statement in writing as in the schedule to be deposited by him in the parish chest, id. s. 13. [See the like and other exceptions in 43 El. c. 4. s. 2., 58 G. 3. c. 91. s. 12., and 59 G. 3. c. 81. s. 7., from the commissions by those acts appointed.]

37. Where any corporation, guild, or fraternity, are entrusted with the distribution of divers charities, or of the rents and profits thereof, they may be stated in one memorial, id. s. 14.

38. Saving to H. M. and all other persons, their powers of superintending and regulating charities, and the property and funds thereof, as before this act, id. s. 15.

39. FOR APPOINTING COMMISSIONERS TO ENQUIRE CONCERNING CHARITIES IN Eng. FOR EDUCATION OF THE POOR, 58 G. 3. c. 91. [Public clause, id. s. 16. AND. AND EXT. to other charities in Eng. and Wa., 58 G. 3. c. 81. Both Exp. at end of the session next after 1st Aug. 1823. (id. s. 16.) AND. by 59 G. 3. c. 91. s. 4.]

40. 58 G.3. c. 91. and 59 G.3. c. 81. shall be construed together as one act so far as they are consistent with each other, 59 G.3. c. 81. s. 10.

41. H.M. may appoint, under the great seal, any number of commissioners, not exceeding 20, [14 only were required by 58 G.3. c. 91. s. 1.] for the purposes of these acts; and they or any 2 of them [3 were required, id. ibid.] shall have power to investigate the amount, nature, and application of all estates and funds soever, and their produce destined or intended to be applied for education of the poor in Eng. and Wa. [or to the support of any charity, or to charitable donations for benefit of poor persons, or held under trusts created for any charitable uses or purposes soever, except as in ss. 7—8. pl. 55—56. excepted 59 G.3. c. 81. s. 5.] and to investigate all breaches of trust, abuses, or misconduct in the management or appropriation of such estates and funds, and they [or any 5 or more of them, 59 G.3. c. 81. s. 1.] shall report and certify their proceedings to H.M. [the report to both houses of parliament required by 58 G.3. c. 91. s. 1., is repealed by 59 G.3. c. 81. s. 2.] half-yearly in writing, under their hands and seals, specifying the amount, management, and appropriation of the estates and funds enquired into by them, the nature thereof respectively, their actual annual produce and value, and who are tenants in possession of the estates; adding observations on the best methods of recovering any part of such estates or funds, which has been misapplied, or omitted to be applied in pursuance of the trusts created in respect thereof, and of securing such estates, &c. and their produce against future misapplication, 58 G.3. c. 91. s. 1., 59 G.3. c. 81. s. 1. and s. 3.

42. Commissioners may employ one secretary, 5 clerks, 5 messengers, and 2 other officers, and appoint their salaries, 59 G.3. c. 81. s. 1. 58 G.3. c. 91. s. 4.

43. If, on such enquiry as in s. 1., it appears that from any cause soever, it has become impossible to apply the estates or funds to the purposes destined, the commissioners shall report the special circumstances, 58 G.3. c. 91. s. 2.

44. The commissioners shall not be obliged to report their proceedings to either house of parliament, 59 G.3. c. 81. s. 2.

45. They shall take an oath of office before chancellor of exchequer, or master of rolls, for faithful exercise of their duty, 58 G.3. c. 91. s. 3.

46. H.M. may fill up all vacancies among the commissioners, id. s. 11. 59 G.3. c. 81. s. 5.

47. The treasury may, from time to time, issue out of the consolidated fund, any sum not exceeding 10,000*l.* in one year, for payment of salaries to any number of commissioners, not exceeding 10, and not members of either house of parliament; out of which sum, a salary of 1000*l.* a-year shall be paid to each of them half-yearly, free and clear from all taxes, on 10th Oct. and 5th April, and in case of resignation or death, the commissioners so resigning, or the executors or administrators of such commissioners so dying, shall be entitled to the proportional part, accrued during the time that such commissioner has executed his office; and the treasury in like manner may issue any further sums not exceeding 8000*l.* in one year, for payment of the travelling expences of any of the commissioners, and of the secretary, clerks, messengers, and officers, and in paying other necessary charges, as appointed in writing by the commissioners, to be accounted for by the persons to whom the money is paid, id. s. 4. 59 G.3. c. 81. s. 4.

48. The commissioners, or any 2 of them by direction of the rest, shall, from time to time, meet and with or without adjournment hold their sittings in Westminster or any other place in Eng. and Wa., most convenient for the purposes of these acts, and may require by precept under their hands and seals, any person acting as a trustee of such estates or funds, or concerned in the management, payment, or receipt of any part thereof, to render a true account of all that relates to the estates or funds under their trust or management, or on account of which they have acted in making or receiving payments, and may by like precept summon any persons to attend them at any place, not more than 10 miles from their place of abode, and to bring with them any deed, &c. or other document in their custody [or true copies of any parts thereof, 59 G.3. c. 91. s. 4.] relating to such funds or their produce, and to the receipt or non- or mis-application thereof, and such persons shall punctually attend on being paid their just and reasonable expences, 58 G.3. c. 91. s. 5. and s. 9., 59 G.3. c. 91. s. 4.

49. Every person summoned to appear before any two or more such commissioners, who shall wilfully omit to appear, or to produce any deed or document in his possession, which he is required by their precept to produce, relating wholly to such estates or funds, or to the receipt, mis- or non-application thereof, or to the state of the schools or charities then the subject of enquiry, or to produce the true copy of any part of any such deed, &c. or who shall refuse to be sworn, or to affirm, or being sworn, or having affirmed, shall refuse to answer, or answer fully, any lawful question concerning such estates or funds, or the state of such schools and charities [except those exempted by 58 G.3. c. 91.] shall pay such fine as the K.B., or exchequer shall impose on application on behalf of the commissioners, payment of which may be enforced by attachment, as in cases of contempt, 59 G.3. c. 91. s. 4.

50. Every 2 (see 59 G.3. c. 81. s. 1.) commissioners, so authorized, shall cause all examinations taken before them, and all papers and documents parts thereof to be from time to time transmitted to the secretary of the commissioners at their office in Westminster, 58 G.3. c. 91. s. 9.

51. Bona fide purchasers of any lands, hereditaments, or estates, without notice that the same were given or limited, &c. to any charitable use, shall not be bound after declaring the same to make further answer to commissioners' interrogatory, nor to produce to them any deed or document relating to his estate therein, id. s. 6.

52. The commissioners may examine on oath or affirmation, all persons summoned before them, touching all things necessary for the execution of the powers vested in them, id. s. 7.

53. No mortgagee, trustee, agent, solicitor, or attorney, shall be compellable to produce any document, of which he has charge as such, or to give evidence as to its contents, without notice first given to the mortgagor, cestuique trust, or principal, and the latter being first examined touching the same before the commissioners; and if such mortgagor, &c. is exempted from producing such document, the mortgagee, &c. shall not be required to produce the same, or give evidence of its contents, and no person shall be compelled to answer any question, or produce any document, where the answer or production shall tend to criminate or expose him to penalties, id. s. 8.

54. Every person wilfully giving false evidence on such oath or affirmation (as in s. 7.), is subject to the penalties of perjury, id. s. 10.

55. No provisions in these acts extend to the universities of Oxford or Cambridge, or to any college or hall therein, or to any schools or endowments of which they are trustees, or to the colleges of Westminster, Eton, or Winchester, or to the Charter House, Harrow, or Rugby schools, or to any cathedral or collegiate church within Eng. or Wa., nor to the Trinity House corporation of Deptford Strand, nor to any college, free school, or other charitable institution, or charity whatever, having special visitors, governors, or overseers appointed by the founders, nor to any funds applicable to the benefit of Jews, Quakers, or of Catholics, and being under the superintendence and control of persons of such persuasions; but the commissioners shall report to H.M. [and both houses, but see pl. 41.] the names of the charities which have such special visitors, 58 G.3. c. 91. s. 12., 59 G.3. c. 81. s. 7., [see the like and other exceptions in 45 El. c. 4. s. 2., 52 G.3. c. 102. s. 10. to s. 15.]

56. Nor to any establishment or society for charitable purposes wholly or principally maintained by voluntary contributions, and under the control of any committee or governors, or other persons appointed out of or by voluntary subscribers thereto; nor to empower the commissioners to interfere with the application of any donation or bequest to the general purposes of such an establishment, in aid of such voluntary contributions; but the management and application of the rents of any lands or hereditaments belonging to such institution for 20 years before passing this act, shall be subject to their examination at their discretion, 59 G.3. c. 81. s. 8.

57. No petition or information presented, filed, or prosecuted under this act, nor any answer thereto, nor any depositions, interrogatories, affidavits, or proceedings, nor any order or decrees on the same, or in relation thereto, nor any copies of any proceedings soever under this act, shall be liable to stamp-duty; nor shall copies of, or extracts from wills, relating to such charities, required by an order signed by two commissioners, for the purposes of these acts, from the office of the prerogative court of the archbishop of Canterbury, in Doctors Commons, or from other offices where the will has been proved, or copies of, or extracts from, any deeds so required, be charged with stamp-duty, id. s. 6.

58. Proviso for the acts of commissioners and their agents, heretofore done in execution of 58 G.3. c. 91. id. s. 9.

59. Actions brought against any such commissioners or their agents, for any thing done by them in pursuance of these acts, shall be commenced in 6 calendar months after the cause of action accrued; defendant may plead the general issue, and give both acts and the special matter in evidence; and if such actions are brought after the time limited, the jury shall find for defendant; and in that case, or if they find a verdict for defendant on the merits, or if plaintiff discontinue after appearance, is nonsuited, or has judgment against him on demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs, 59 G.3. c. 81. s. 11., 58 G.3. c. 91. s. 3.

60. TO PROVIDE A SUMMARY REMEDY IN CASES OF ABUSES OF TRUSTS created for charitable purposes, 59 G.3. c. 101.

61. FOR GIVING ADDITIONAL FACILITIES TO COURTS OF EQUITY regarding the management of estates or funds belonging to charities, 59 G.3. c. 91.

62. When it appears to the commissioners, appointed under 59 G.3. c. 91. and 59 G.3. c. 81., that the directions of a court of equity are requisite for remedying any neglect or abuse in the management of any trust created for charitable purposes, or of the estates or funds thereto belonging, or for regulating the administration thereof, any 5 or more of them may certify the particulars of the case, in writing signed by them, to the attorney-general, who may apply summarily, in the nature of a petition, or commence a suit by information to or in the courts of chancery or exchequer, sitting in equity, setting forth the neglect or abuse, and praying relief; and the decrees of the exchequer, made according to the course of the court, shall be final, except on appeal to the lords within one year; and when such petition is made in chancery, the lord chancellor may direct the master of the rolls or vice-chancellor to hear the same, subject to his reversal of their decrees, which shall not be enrolled till signed by him, 59 G.3. c.91. s.1. See the old regulation, 52 G.3. c.101. s.1.

63. When any appeal is made to the lord chancellor, from any order or decree of the master of the rolls or vice-chancellor in such petition, the decree made thereon by the lord chancellor shall be final, without appeal to the lords, 59 G.3. c.91. s.2., [virtually repealing, as to appeal from the chancellor, 52 G.3. c.101. s.1.]

64. No petition or information presented or prosecuted under this act, nor any answer thereto, nor any depositions, interrogatories, affidavits, or proceedings, nor orders or decrees thereon, nor copies thereof, shall be liable to payment of stamp-duties, 59 G.3. c.91. s.3., 52 G.3. c.101. s.3.

65. Where it appears to the trustees of any free-school, hospital, or other charitable institution or donation within this act, that the statutes or regulations thereof are insufficient for due administration of the funds thereof, such number of them as by their regulations may do any act, may, with consent of any 5 or more commissioners, present a petition to the lord chancellor, or to the court of exchequer sitting in equity, praying relief, and the order given by either court shall be final, unless an appeal to the house of lords is entered in 2 years after the order made, 59 G.3. c.91. s.5.

66. Any 2 or more persons may present such a petition, 52 G.3. c.101. s.1. [Qu. how far superseded by 59 G.3. c.91. pl.62., &c.?

67. Such petition must be signed by the persons preferring the same, in the presence of their solicitor, and attested by him; and an allowance thereof by the attorney or solicitor general must be certified before presenting the same (as in s.1.), 52 G.3. c.101. s.2. [but see note to last placitum.]

68. TO AUTHORIZE THE EXCHANGE OF LANDS, TENEMENTS, OR HEREDITAMENTS, subject to trusts for charitable purposes, for other lands, &c., 1 & 2 G.4. c.92.

69. From and after 10th July, 1821, any person or persons, body politic or corporate, in whom any lands, tenements, or hereditaments are vested, subject to trust for any charitable purpose, may grant and convey to any person, &c., or their heirs, successors, and assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct, any such lands, &c. in exchange for any other lands, subject to the provisions of this act, and not otherwise, id. s.1.

70. Whenever it is thought advisable by the trustees of any lands subject to such a trust, &c. to exchange the same, or part thereof, for any other lands, &c., application shall be made to the bishop of the diocese in which the first-named lands, &c. are situate, stating the objects of the charity, the manner in which such charity-lands, &c. are become vested in such trustees, and for what reasons it may be proper that any such exchange should be made, and what benefit will be derived to the objects of the charity by means thereof, which statement shall be verified on oath before a justice of peace for the county or place where such lands are situate, upon which such bishop may direct such enquiries to be made as he thinks proper, and may require such information to be given him as he thinks necessary, previous to issuing the commission hereinafter mentioned; and in case he is satisfied that reasonable ground has been laid before him to warrant his issuing, he shall issue a commission under his episcopal seal, directed to 4 or more fit persons, 2 of whom, at least, shall be beneficed clergymen, and 1 a barrister at law of at least 5 years' standing, by which commission the commissioners therein named, or any 3 of them, 1 of whom shall be a beneficed clergyman and 1 such barrister as aforesaid, shall inquire whether, and for what reason, such proposed exchange will be beneficial to the objects of the trust, to which the charity-lands, &c. so proposed to be exchanged are subject; and for the purpose of such enquiry shall examine on oath (which oath they may administer) all persons brought before them for that purpose, and shall require the applicants for such exchange to bring before them any other persons to be examined on oath touching any matters they may deem necessary for their information; and shall also require all deeds, papers, and writings so deemed necessary, to be also laid before them, and shall direct such surveys, maps, and plans to be made of the lands proposed to be given and taken in exchange, as they think proper; and shall cause such lands, &c., and the timber and trees thereon respectively, and rights of common, and other rights belonging thereto, to be valued, so as clearly to ascertain whether, and if so, for what reason, the proposed exchange will be permanently beneficial to the charity, and whether it is proposed for the convenience of the charity, or of any other person or body, and whether the terms on which it is proposed to be made are the best which can reasonably be obtained for benefit of the charity; and shall also enquire into the title to the lands, &c. proposed to be given in exchange for benefit of such charity, so as to enable the bishop, on the return of such commission, to judge of the propriety of such exchange taking place; and shall thereupon certify to the bishop the several matters made to appear to them, together with the surveys and other evidence laid before them, closed up, under their hands and seals, to be deposited with the registrar of the diocese, 1 & 2 G.4. c.92. s.2.

71. Before such commissioners proceed to execute such commission, they shall respectively take this oath, administered by one to the other, and certified to the bishop, with the other proceedings under the commission:

'I, A. B. one of the commissioners named in a commission [describing the commission], do swear, that I will faithfully do and execute all the matters by the said commission required to be done by me, and a true report make to the best of my ability, as by such commission required. So help me God.' id. s.3.

72. On the return of such commission the bishop may examine the proceedings under it, and, if he sees fit, shall direct the same to be laid before some counsel for his opinion and advice thereon, and may also direct the title to the lands proposed to be given in exchange to the charity, to be examined in what manner he thinks fit; and if he thinks fit, shall cause the same to be laid before counsel for his opinion thereon; and in case the bishop is not satisfied with the return, he may issue 1 or more new commissions, directed to the same or other commissioners, that he may be fully satisfied of the propriety of such proposed exchange; and such new commission, &c. shall be executed and returned, and the returns thereto deposited with the registrar of the diocese, as in s.2. pl.70. directed with respect to the first commission; and if he is satisfied, on the return of the commission so to be issued by him, or by other and further information obtained as aforesaid, that the proposed exchange is beneficial to the charity, he may signify his approbation thereof, by signing and sealing with his episcopal seal 2 parts of the deed of bargain and sale hereinafter mentioned; and the trustees of the charity-lands, &c. proposed to be exchanged, by deed of bargain and sale, inrolled in the high court of chancery within 6 calendar months after the date thereof, may convey the lands, &c. to be given by them in exchange, to the other exchanging party; and by the same deed the lands, &c. proposed to be given to the charity in exchange, shall also be conveyed to the uses thereof, and such deed shall be acknowledged by the person making the conveyance of such lands, &c. to the uses of such charity, for the purpose of inrolment; and 2 parts thereof shall be prepared and executed, and a memorandum of the inrolment indorsed on each part; and both parts of such deed, after they have been so inrolled, shall be produced to the bishop, and a transcript of such deed, and of the memorandum of inrolment, entered in the registry of the diocese; and the bishop shall thereupon, by writing under his hand indorsed on each part, authorize delivery of possession, according to the terms of such deed, of the lands before belonging to the charity, and so conveyed in exchange; and the delivery of possession to the trustees of the charity, of the lands, &c. so conveyed to them in exchange, and the execution of both parts of such deed by the several parties thereto, and the signing of such authority for delivery of possession, shall be attested by 2 or more credible witnesses, which attestation shall be indorsed on both parts of such deed; and the attestation of the execution of such deed by the trustees of the charity-lands thereby conveyed shall express that both parts of such deed were signed by the bishop before execution thereof by such trustees; and a transcript of such authority, and of such several attestations, shall be entered in the registry of the diocese, and one part thereof shall remain with such trustees for the benefit of the charity, and the other part shall be delivered to the person or body to whose use the charity-lands, &c. are thereby conveyed in exchange, id. s.4.

73. Before any such commission issues, three months notice shall be given of the intention to propose such exchange, by inserting the particulars, extent, situation, and tenure of the lands, &c. respectively proposed to be given and taken in exchange, for 3 successive weeks in some one and the same newspaper generally circulating in that part of the country where the lands, &c. are situate; and also by affixing such notice in writing on a conspicuous part of the door of the church or chapel of each parish or chapelry wherein they or any part thereof are situate, on 3 successive Sundays whereon divine service shall be performed, and shortly before its commencement, id. s.5.

74. Where there were originally two or more trustees of charity lands proposed to be exchanged under this act, which number is reduced by death or otherwise, such vacancies shall be filled up in the usual manner, prior to any application for an exchange pursuant to this act, except where the trustees living and capable of acting are 6 or more, in which cases the majority shall signify their consent to any proposed exchange in writing, by signing the application to the bishop to authorize the same; and when the original trustees have been fewer in number than six, and more than three, then the consent of not less than four of them shall be so signified to the bishop; and if the original trustees have been only three or two, the consent of all shall be signified by all; or if there be originally only one trustee, the consent of the then sole trustee shall be so signified; and if any body politic or corporate is a trustee for any such charity lands, &c. such consent shall be signified under seal of the corporation, whether aggregate or sole, having a corporate seal, which signatures, and affixing of seals respectively, shall be attested by two or more credible witnesses, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 95. s. 6.

75. In all cases where it shall not appear in whom charity lands, &c. are vested, the bishop of the diocese where they are situate, on sufficient proof of the fact, by instrument in writing under his hand and seal, may nominate proper persons to act as trustees for the charity, for the purposes of such exchange, before any other proceedings are had therein, which trust the nominees shall accept, by executing such instrument, before acting in such trust; and the trustees may do all things necessary for the purpose of such exchange, as if the lands, &c. subject to such charitable purposes had been duly vested in them for the same, and may convey the charity lands proposed to be exchanged under this act: provided, that if it at any time afterwards appears in whom such lands, &c. were actually vested at the time of such exchange, the person or body, in whom they are then vested by means of such exchange, may obtain, at their own expence, a confirmation thereof by conveyance from such person; but the defect of title of the trustees so to be nominated by the bishop shall not prejudice the title to the lands, &c. received in exchange in trust for such charitable purposes, but the same shall be held and enjoyed for the same purposes, notwithstanding the lands, &c. originally subject thereto, and so given in exchange, were not vested, except by authority of this act, in the persons who may have conveyed the same in exchange under such authority, id. s. 7.

76. Under the several provisions of this act, but not otherwise, any trustees of any lands, &c. vested in them, either alone or jointly with any other trustees for any charitable purpose, may convey or join in conveying, as the case is, any such trust lands, &c. in lieu of and exchange for any other lands, &c. of which they shall be seised in fee, to their own use and benefit; provided, that in every such case the bishop on application, (as in s. 2. pl. 70.) and before other proceedings had therein, shall nominate and appoint some one or more proper persons, not interested in such exchange, to act as trustees on behalf of the charity, in the matter of such exchange, instead of the trustees so disqualified to act therein; and the concurrence of the persons so to be appointed to act as temporary trustees, shall be necessary in all subsequent proceedings relating to such exchange, id. s. 8.

77. In case the title of any person or body, by whom any lands, &c. are attempted to be conveyed in exchange for any charity lands, &c. shall at any time appear to be in any way defective, so that such lands, &c. shall in all or part be recovered from the trustees, &c. in whom they have been vested in exchange under authority hereof, or shall be in any manner incumbered, then the trustees, &c. in whom such lands, &c. or any part thereof, ought to have been vested indefeasibly for charitable purposes, shall enter on the original charity lands, &c. conveyed in exchange as above, and hold them according to the original right before the exchange, for benefit of the charity, in case the lands, &c. intended to have been vested by way of exchange for the purposes of the charity are wholly or partially evicted, or in any way incumbered, then to hold them for indemnifying the charity against the consequences of any such partial eviction or incumbrance, and till full satisfaction made to the charity for such defect of title, and all costs incurred in consequence, id. s. 9.

78. No part of the expences attending any such exchange shall be paid out of the funds of any charity, unless it is made appear to the bishop on application for such exchange, that it is solely intended for the benefit of such charity, and for no other purpose, and is in respect of such convenience advantageous to the charity, notwithstanding any expence incurred in effecting it; and then so much of such expences only shall be so borne as the bishop shall find reasonable, and shall, by instrument under his hand, declare to be, in his opinion, an expence incurred for benefit of the charity, and such as ought to be discharged out of its funds, id. s. 10.

79. Where charity lands, &c. are within a peculiar jurisdiction, application for exchange under this act shall be made to the bishop, and to no other authority, and the bishop shall proceed in the same manner, as if such charity lands, &c. were within his jurisdiction as diocesan; and if they are within two or more dioceses, application shall be made to the several bishops thereof, to direct before which of them the proceedings touching such exchange shall be had, and they shall accordingly direct the same; and such proceedings shall be thereupon had before such bishop, as if all such charity lands, &c. had been within his diocese, id. s. 11.

CHEATS. (See EMBEZZLEMENT.)

1. CONCERNING COUNTERFEIT LETTERS or privy tokens, to receive money or goods in other men's names, 33 H. 8. c. 1., and recital in s. 1.

2. Every person who shall falsely and deceitfully get into his possession any money, jewels, goods, or other things of any other persons, by colour of any false token or counterfeit letter made in any other man's name, shall, on being convicted by witnesses taken before the lord chancellor, or by examination of witnesses, or confession before the justices of assize, or of peace, in their general sessions, or by action in any courts of record, shall have such punishment by imprisonment, setting in the pillory, or by any corporal pain (except those of death) adjudged by those before whom he shall be convict, id. s. 2.

3. As well the justices of assize as also two justices of peace in every county (one being of quorum,) may call to such assizes or general sessions any persons suspected of any such offence, and commit them to ward, or let them to bail till the next assizes or general sessions, at which they shall be proceeded against (as in s. 1.), id. s. 3.

4. Justices of peace, within every city, town, and franchise in this realm, and other H. M.'s dominions, shall have like jurisdiction as justices of assizes in circuits, or of peace in the counties, for punishment of offenders by this act, saving to the party grieved by such deceit, such remedy as he might have had, id. s. 4.

5. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PUNISHMENT OF PERSONS WHO shall attain, or attempt to attain, possession of goods or money, [bonds and other securities, 52 G. 3. c. 64.] by false pretences, 30 G. 2. c. 24. ss. 1, 2. [see ss. 3—13. in sections R.I.F. and EXP. and ss. 14—25. GAMING, AMD. 52 G. 3. c. 64.]

6. All persons who, knowingly and designedly by any false pretences, shall obtain from any persons money, goods, wares, or merchandizes, with intent to defraud any person of the same, or shall knowingly send or deliver any letter or writing, with or without a name subscribed thereto, or signed with a fictitious name or letter, threatening to accuse any person of any crime punishable by law with death, transportation, pillory, or other infamous punishment, with intent to extort money or goods from the person so threatened to be accused, shall be deemed offenders against law and public peace, and the court before which they are tried shall, on conviction of any such offences, order the offenders to be fined and imprisoned, pillored or publicly whipped, or transported for seven years, as they shall think fit, 30 G. 2. c. 24. s. 1.

7. Any justice or justices of the county, division, city, or place, before whom any person charged on oath by any credible person with having committed any of the offences by this act, intended to be punished, [semble extending to ss. 14—25. GAMING, infra.] shall be brought, shall examine by oath and such other lawful means, as he or they shall think meet, touching the same, and shall deal with the offenders according to law; and if the party charged is committed to prison, or admitted to bail, to answer the charge at the next general or quarter sessions, or sessions of oyer and terminer held for the county, &c. or place, wherein the offence is charged on oath to have been committed, then such justice shall, by recognizance in such reasonable sum as he shall think fit, bind over the prosecutor to appear at such sessions, &c. and to prosecute with effect; and if any money or goods, so fraudulently obtained, appear to such justice to exceed 20*l.* value, the prosecutor's recognizance shall be in not less than double such apparent value, id. s. 2.

8. All persons who knowingly and designedly, by any false pretence, shall obtain from any person, or body politic or corporate, any money, goods, wares, or merchandizes, or any bond, bill of exchange, bank, or promissory-note, or other security for payment of money, or any warrant, or order for payment of money, or delivery or transfer of goods, or other valuable thing, with intent to defraud any person or body &c. of the same, or shall knowingly send or deliver any letter or writing with or without a name or names subscribed thereto, or signed with a fictitious name, &c. letter or letters, threatening to accuse any person of any crime punishable by law with death, transportation, pillory, or other infamous punishment, with intent to extort any bond, bill, &c. (as above,) shall be deemed offenders against law and public peace, and shall be liable to be prosecuted and punished under 30 G. 2. c. 24., 52 G. 3. c. 64.

CHELSEA AND KILMAINHAM HOSPITALS.

1. FOR RELIEF OF OUT-PENSIONERS of the Royal Chelsea Hospital, 28 G. 2. c. 1. [AMD. 55 G. 3. cc. 125, 136., 58 G. 3. c. 74.] For preventing distress of these meritorious persons by the yearly payment only of their pensions, and their consequent assignments thereof to money-lenders on ruinous terms for present subsistence, all such assignments, bargains, sales, orders, contracts, agreements, or securities soever, made by any out-pensioner, for or on account of his out-pension of Chelsea Hospital, are void, 28 G. 2. c. 1. s. 1., [and see 46 G. 3. c. 69. s. 7., as to pensions in general, infra, pl. 8.]

2. Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital may make such regulations as they think fit in relation to payments in advance to out-pensioners, on their first admission on the pension list, being either for payment of a proportion at the time of their admission, and the rest of the current quarter's pension on their arrival at their residences, as appears best calculated to prevent the improvident expenditure thereof, and the consequent distress of the pensioner, and shall make all subsequent payments of such pensions by quarterly payments in advance, 55 G. 3. c. 125. s. 2. [The provisions in this placitum are extended to the commissioners and out-pensioners of Kilmainham Hospital, id. c. 136.]

3. The agent of the crown for payment of out-pensions shall receive in advance, from the treasurer of Chelsea Hospital, the money necessary to discharge, pay, and remit the same, giving the latter a receipt in final discharge thereof, which shall be allowed by the commissioners of public accounts in his accounts; and the treasury shall advance the same, on any warrant signed by any three or more commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, 28 G. 2. c. 1. s. 4.

4. Lists of out-pensioners who have personally appeared, or have been certified by proper affidavits to be living during all or part of the expiring half-year, shall be made up by the commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, or any 3 of them, on the last day of every half-year, id. s. 5. [QU. if not quarter since 55 G. 3. c. 125. s. 22. pl. 2.]

5. Any three such commissioners shall, on such lists being exhibited to them, make out a warrant signed by them, to the treasurer of Chelsea Hospital, authorising him to pay in advance unto the hands of such agent (as in s. 4. pl. 3.) the sums requisite for payment of the out-pension as aforesaid, id. s. 6.

6. The treasurer may deduct 1s. in the pound from all monies applicable to payment of out-pensions, as well as from all monies paid in advance (as in s. 2.), and the same shall be applied as directed by warrant under H. M.'s sign-manual; but the remainder shall be paid without other deduction, and if the agent appointed, as in s. 4., or any other agent or clerk employed in paying the same shall take any fee soever on account of paying such pension, he shall, ipso facto, lose and be for the future disabled to hold his office, and shall forfeit 100l. to any person suing for the same by action of debt, or information, within 12 calendar months; without esoin, &c. or more than one imparlance allowed, id. s. 7.

7. FOR FURTHER REGULATING OF PAYMENTS OF OUT-PENSIONS TO SOLDIERS on the establishments of Chelsea and Kilmainham, 58 G. 3. c. 74.

8. No deduction of 1s. in the pound (as in 28 G. 2. c. 1. s. 7. pl. 6. provided,) shall take place from out-pensions on the Chelsea establishment paid in Ire., but the full amount shall be paid in Irish currency, id. s. 1.

9. The deduction of 1s. in the pound shall be made from all pensions paid in English money to the pensioners of Kilmainham Hospital while such payment is made in G. B., id. s. 2.

10. The commissioners of Chelsea and Kilmainham Hospitals respectively, may make any necessary regulations for making such payments and deductions, id. s. 3.

11. FOR MAKING BETTER PROVISION FOR SOLDIERS, [viz. PENSIONERS of Chelsea and Kilmainham Hospitals], 46 G. 3. c. 69. [AMD. as to Kilmainham Hospital, 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 5.]

12. Payment of all pensions, allowances and relief to disabled, invalid, or discharged soldiers, shall be under management of commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, 46 G. 3. c. 69. s. 1. [But this is repealed as far as gives them any powers over the pensioners of Kilmainham Hospital, 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 5. s. 1.]

13. Any three or more commissioners of Chelsea Hospital may make orders and regulations, and from time to time alter the same in relation to the payment of persons, allowances, or relief to soldiers entitled thereto, and as to the certificates, vouchers, receipts, or orders for regulating and making such payments; and may require the proofs and affidavits requisite for securing payment thereof, whether made at Chelsea Hospital or elsewhere; but such orders may be revoked by warrant under H. M.'s sign-manual, 46 G. 3. c. 69. s. 2. [Same powers are given to the commissioners of Kilmainham Hospital, 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 5. s. 2.]

14. Every soldier entitled to his discharge by the expiration of any fixed period of service, or by being an invalid, disabled, or having been wounded, shall thereupon become legally entitled to receive such pension, &c. (see s. 1.), as shall be fixed in the regulations in any such case made by H. M. at his enlistment, and for payment of which money has been voted by parliament; and may claim to be paid the same under this act, or the regulations made by the commissioners as in s. 2., 46 G. 3. c. 69. s. 3.

15. All orders and regulations of H. M. relating to the discharge of soldiers after the expiration of their periods of service, and to pensions, shall be annually laid before parliament, with the estimates of the amount thereof, and of all expences contingent to their payment and management, 46 G. 3. c. 69. s. 4.

16. Every soldier shall remain entitled to the benefits accruing under the regulations made at the time of enlistment, though afterwards annulled, id. s. 5.

17. The respective treasuries of G. B. and Ire. may order any pensions for payment of which money shall have been voted by parliament, to be paid by any receiver-general of land-tax, or collector of cess in Scot. or by any collector of customs, excise, or taxes, out of any public money in their hands respectively, repayment of which shall be made to the account of the duties from which such pensions have been paid, id. s. 6.

18. All assignments, &c. [as in 28 G. 2. c. 1. s. 1. supra, pl. 1.] of or relating to pensions, are void, id. s. 7.

19. Every person willingly and knowingly personating or falsely assuming the name or character of any person entitled or supposed to be entitled to such pension, or procuring any other person so to do, in order to receive the same or any part thereof, shall suffer death as for felony, without clergy, id. s. 8.

20. Every person wilfully forging or counterfeiting, or causing or procuring to be forged, or wilfully acting or assisting in forging, &c. the name or hand-writing of any person entitled to any such pension, &c. or of any person required by any regulations made under this act, (viz. s. 2.) to sign any certificate, voucher, or receipt in relation to payment thereof, in order to the receiving or obtaining any money on any such pension, &c. (as above), or altering any such, knowing the same to be forged, &c. with intention to defraud any person soever, is guilty of felony, and shall be transported for life, or term of years at discretion of the court, id. s. 9.

21. Any justice of peace, magistrate, receiver-general of land-tax, collector of cess in Scot. or of customs or excise, may enquire into the truth of any certificates required to be produced to him by claimant of pensions, &c. under the same or their agents, by administering an oath or affirmation to them; and on being satisfied of the truth thereof, shall testify the same on the back, and any false oath or affirmation therein, shall, on conviction, be punished as wilful perjury, id. s. 10.

22. All such orders, certificates, vouchers and receipts, shall be free of stamp-duty, id. s. 11.

23. TO EMPOWER THE COMMISSIONERS OF CHELSEA HOSPITAL to commute pensions for a sum of money in certain cases, 52 G. 3. c. 109. [EXT. to Kilmainham Hospital, 55 G. 3. c. 133. s. 3. pl. 26.]

24. The commissioners of Chelsea Hospital may give to any soldier, not a native of U. K., who being discharged, and entitled to an out-pension from Chelsea Hospital for his service, or being invalided or disabled, is desirous of residing out of Eng. and is recommended by any order of H. M., signified to the commissioners by the secretary at war, a sum in gross, in lieu and for the purchase of such annual pension, notwithstanding 28 G. 2. c. 1. s. 1. pl. 1., &c. 52 G. 3. c. 109. s. 1.

25. Such sums shall be paid from any money voted for or applicable to payment of soldiers' pensions under management of Chelsea Hospital, and the soldier's receipt shall be free of stamp-duty, and a full discharge of all claims for the same, id. s. 2.

26. The lord-lieutenant of Ire., or the governors of Kilmainham Hospital, shall apply the provisions of 52 G. 3. c. 119. and of 55 G. 3. c. 133., to the allowing to discharged soldiers, pensioners of that hospital, a like commutation of pensions as is by either act allowed, 55 G. 3. c. 133. s. 3.

27. TO GRANT FURTHER POWERS to the commissioners of Chelsea Hospital with respect to pensions on those establishments, 55 G. 3. c. 133. ss. 1, 2, and 5. [See s. 3., last pl., and s. 4. GREENWICH HOSPITAL.]

28. The agents of the out-pensioners of Chelsea Hospital may pay and discharge by accepting and paying bills of exchange or otherwise, as directed by the commissioners, out of the parliamentary funds for the use of the hospital, in addition to the commutation in lieu of pension allowed by 52 G. 3. c. 109. all the contingent expences of such discharged soldiers, whether for passage-money, ship's provisions, subsistence while detained by competent authority at any station abroad, losses by exchange on bills drawn on such agent for commuted pension, or on any other account if duly incurred, under orders prescribed by the secretary at war, which payments shall be allowed him in his accounts by the commissioners of public accounts, id. s. 1.

29. The commissioners of Chelsea Hospital shall make arrangements to enable out-pensioners resident out of the U. K., but within H. M.'s dominions, to receive their pensions abroad, by bills of exchange or otherwise, id. s. 2.

30. And may apportion pensions for army services, according to their length, allowing for all time of previous service, either as a petty-officer, seaman, or landman in H. M.'s fleet, or as a non-commissioned officer, or private-marine, 55 G. 3. c. 133. s. 5., [as to such apportionment of pensions to sailors who have served in the land-forces, id. s. 4. GREENWICH HOSPITAL.]

CHILD-STEALING.

1. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PREVENTION OF CHILD-STEALING, 54 G. 3. c. 101. [Not to extend to Scot., id. s. 5.]

2. Every person who shall maliciously, either by force or fraud, lead, take, or carry, decoy, or entice away any child under 10 years of age, with intent to deprive its parent, parents, or other person having its lawful care or charge, of the possession of it, by concealing it from either, or with intent to steal any article of apparel, ornament, or other thing of value or use, to whomsoever belonging, on or about the person of such child, or who shall receive and harbour with any such intent any such child, knowing the same to have been so by force, &c. led, &c. away as above, shall, with his counsellors, &c. aiders and abettors, be deemed guilty of felony, and be subject to the punishments of grand larceny, id. s. 1.

3. Nothing herein shall extend to any person who claims to be the father of or to have legal claim to the possession of an illegitimate child, on account of his getting possession of it, or taking it out of the possession of the mother or other person having lawful charge thereof, id. s. 2.

CHIMNEY-SWEEPERS.

1. FOR BETTER REGULATION OF CHIMNEY-SWEEPERS AND THEIR APPRENTICES, 28 G. 3. c. 48. [Public clause, s. 17.]

2. The churchwardens and overseers of the poor, within G. B., with consent of two or more justices specified in writing under their hands, according to the form prescribed by the indenture in the schedule, may bind any boy of 8 years of age or upwards, who is, or whose parents are chargeable to the parish, or who shall beg for alms, or with the parents' consent, to be apprentice to a chimney-sweeper till he attains the age of 16 years, which binding shall be as effectual in the law as if he was of full age, and had bound himself apprentice by indenture, id. s. 1.

3. The age of such apprentice shall be inserted in the indenture, being truly taken from the copy of the entry of his baptism in the register-book, (where the same can be had,) which copy shall be given and attested gratis by the minister, vicar, or curate, and written on paper or parchment without stamp; and where no such copy can be had, the justices shall insert his age from such information as can be got, which when so inserted shall, (in relation to continuance of his service,) be taken to be his time of age without further proof, id. s. 2.

4. The indenture shall be in the form in the schedule, and shall not be charged with higher stamp-duty than the indentures of binding out poor children parish apprentices, [see quære, as no such duty exists, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. Sched. part 1. tit. APPRENTICESHIP.] id. s. 3.

5. All indentures and bargains hereafter made for taking any boys under 8 years old, as apprentices or servants employed as climbing-boys or chimney-sweepers, shall be void, and the person so keeping or employing such boy shall forfeit not exceeding 10*l.* nor less than 5*l.*, id. s. 4.

6. The overseers of every township or village within any large parish of the realm, may execute all the acts hereby ordered to be done by the churchwardens or overseers of a parish, id. s. 5.

7. Any one or more justices may hear and determine all complaints of ill usage by the masters, both of boys so bound, or who have voluntarily bound or put themselves apprentices to a chimney-sweeper, and likewise all complaints of masters against such apprentices, and may make such orders therein as are usual between masters and apprentices, id. s. 6.

8. No chimney-sweeper shall keep more than six apprentices at one time, and his name and place of abode shall be marked on a brass plate affixed on the front of a leather cap, provided for and worn by the apprentice when out on duty; under a penalty of not exceeding 10*l.* nor less than 5*l.* for every apprentice above 6 by him retained, or for neglecting to provide such cap and brass plate so marked as above, id. s. 7.

9. Every master ill treating his apprentice, or breaking any of the covenants in the indenture, shall forfeit not exceeding 10*l.* nor less than 5*l.*, id. s. 8.

10. No chimney-sweeper shall hire out or lend by day, or otherwise, his apprentices to any person for sweeping chimneys, nor cause them to call the streets before 7 a.m. or after 12 at noon, between Michaelmas and Lady-day, or before 5 a.m., nor after 12 at noon, between Lady-day and Michaelmas, on penalty of not less than 5*l.* nor more than 10*l.*, id. s. 9.

11. All convictions for penalties incurred for offences against this act shall be made before one or more justices acting for the county, city, or division, where the offence was committed, either by offender's confession, or on oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, and the justice may summon the offender, id. s. 10.

12. All the penalties by this act imposed shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, with costs thereof, by warrant of such justice, which shall be granted on conviction as above; and shall go one moiety to the informer, and the other to the overseers of the poor of the place where the master shall inhabit; and in default of distress or of payment, the justices may imprison the offender for not exceeding 3 months, unless the penalty and costs be sooner paid, 28 G. 3. c. 48. s. 11.

13. No warrant of distress shall issue for levying any penalty or costs till 6 days after conviction, and order for payment served on the offender, id. s. 12.

14. No distress under this act shall be deemed unlawful, or the parties levying the same trespassers for want of form in the proceedings, nor trespassers ab initio for irregularity afterwards done by them; but the party grieved thereby may recover satisfaction for the special damage in an action on the case, id. s. 13.

15. But shall not recover if tender of sufficient amends is made before such action is brought; and in case no such tender has been made, defendant by leave of the court may pay any money into court before issue joined, id. s. 14.

16. Any justice or justices may administer the oaths by this act required to be taken, id. s. 15.

17. Any person aggrieved by any thing done by a justice under colour hereof, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions, having first entered into a recognizance, with sufficient surety, before such justice, to prosecute and abide by the order made on the appeal, and also giving him notice of appeal, in writing, and of the matter thereof, in 6 days after the cause of complaint has arisen, id. s. 16.

CHURCHES.

(STATUTES expired.)

1. FOR MAKING ORDINANCES AND RULES IN CATHEDRAL CHURCHES AND SCHOOLS, 1 M. (S. 5.) c. 9. [Exp. see preamble to 6 A. c. 21. s. 1.]

2. FOR GIVING AUTHORITY TO H. M. for her life, to make ordinances in collegiate churches and schools, 1 E. c. 22. [Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TREES GROWING IN THE CHURCH-YARD SHALL BE RECKONED among the goods of the church, but shall not be felled by the parsons except the chancel wants repair, neither shall they be converted to any other use, except the body of the church needs like repair, or except bestowed by them in charity; Stat. ne rector proderat arbores in cœmeterio, 35 E. 1. stat. 2., or Stat. Incerl. Temp. No. X. 8vo. ed., stat. 400.

2. FOR UNION of churches not exceeding 6*l.* yearly value, 37 H. 8. c. 21. [Rev. 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 21. Rev. 1 E. c. 4. s. 12. & s. 24.]

3. FOR UNITING churches in cities and towns corporate, 17 C. 2. c. 3.

4. TO MAKE parishioners of the united churches contributors to the repairs and ornaments of the church to which the union is made, 4 W. & M. c. 12.

5. An union of 2 churches, or of a church and chapel in one, the one of them not being above the yearly value of 6*l.* as valued to H. M. in the first-fruits, and not distant from the other above 1 mile, may be had by the assent of the ordinary, incumbents, and of all such as have the patronages, being of full age, to continue for ever as by writing under their seals declared, 37 H. 8. c. 21. s. 3.

6. All unions heretofore made by the like assent, in fee-simple, shall also continue for ever, id. s. 4.

7. Saving unto H. M. all tithes and first-fruits, id. s. 5.

8. But all unions had within any city or town corporate, without assent of the mayor, sheriffs, and commonalty of the city, or of such bodies corporate of other towns, by the names under their common seal, shall be void, id. s. 6.

9. Where the inhabitants of any parish, or a majority of them, in 1 year after the union, shall, by writing, assure the incumbent of the yearly payment of as much money as, with their first-fruits, shall amount to 8*l.*, such unions shall be void, id. s. 7.

10. In every city or town corporate, having a mayor and aldermen, and particular justices of peace, or bailiffs, or other chief officers and assistants, by charter, in which 2 or more churches or chapels and parishes lie convenient to be united; the bishop, with consent of the chief officers, or a majority of them, and of the patrons, may unite the churches, &c. and shall appoint at which church the inhabitants shall meet, which shall be the church or chapel representative thereafter; and shall be resorted to as the proper church, and the parishioners of the united parishes shall pay tythes to the incumbent thereof, 17 C. 2. c. 3. s. 1.

11. Notwithstanding such union, each parish shall continue distinct as to all rates and privileges, and churchwardens shall be elected for each, id. s. 2.

12. Where 1 or more of the churches is full, the union shall take effect upon the 1st avoidance; and the patrons shall present by turns, in order as the bishop, with consent of the mayor, &c. (as in s.1.) and of the patrons, shall determine; saving all tenths and first-fruits, procurations and pensions, 17 C.2. c.3. s.3.

13. No union made under this act shall be effectual, till registered in the register book of the bishop, id. s.4.

14. Nor where the settled maintenance of the incumbent exceeds 100*l.* per ann. unless the majority of parishioners under their hands desire otherwise, id. s.5.

15. Every minister of churches united according to this act, shall be incumbent thereof, so as he be a graduate in an university of this kingdom, id. s.6.

16. Every owner of impropriations or tythes may annex the same to the parsonage or vicarage of the parish church where the same lie, or settle them in trust for the parsonage, &c. or the curates there successively where it is impropriate, and no vicar endowed, without licence of mortmain, id. s.7.

17. If the maintenance of any parsonage or vicarage, with cure, shall not be 100*l.* per ann. the incumbent may purchase to him and his successors, lands, rents, tythes, or other hereditaments, without licence of mortmain, id. s.8.

18. Where any churches are united under 17 C.2. c.3., and one of them is demolished, then, as often as the church presentative is out of repair, or needs decent ornaments for performance of divine service, the parishioners of the parish whose church has been demolished, shall pay towards the charges thereof such proportion as the bishop shall by the union direct; and for want of such direction, one-third part of them shall be rated, and in default thereof, the same may be recovered against them, as if it were for the repair of their own parish church, 43 5 W.3 M. c.12. s.2.

19. AGAINST QUARRELING AND FIGHTING IN CHURCHES AND CHURCH-YARDS, 5 & 6 E.6. c.4.

20. If any person shall, by words only, quarrel, chide, or brawl, in any church or church-yard, the ordinary may suspend him if a layman, ab ingressu ecclesie, and if a clerk, from ministration of his office, id. s.1.

21. Every person smiting or laying violent hands on another therein, shall be ipso facto excommunicate, id. s.2.

22. Every person maliciously striking another with, or drawing any weapon therein with intent to strike another, shall, on conviction by verdict, confession, or two witnesses, before the justices of assize, of oyer and terminer, or of peace, in their sessions, have one of his ears cut off; or, if he have none, shall be burned in the cheek with a hot iron marked F, denoting fraymaker and fighter, and shall be ipso facto excommunicate, id. s.3.

23. FOR AVOIDING ALL DOUBTS AND QUESTIONS TOUCHING THE statutes of divers cathedral and collegiate churches, 6 A. c.21.

24. In all cathedral and collegiate churches founded by H.8. such statutes as have been received and practised since the restoration, and to the observance whereof the deans and prebendaries have used to be sworn, shall be good in law, if not inconsistent with the legal constitution of the church or the laws of the land, id. s.1.

25. TO PROMOTE THE BUILDING, REPAIRING, OR OTHERWISE providing of churches and chapels, houses for residence of ministers, and church-yards in Eng. and Ire., 45 G.3. c.108. [Am. 51 G.3. c.115, 52 G.3. c.161. s.27, and see 58 G.3. c.45. s.35. passim.]

26. Every person having in his own right any estate or interest in possession, reversion, or contingency of or in lands or tenements, or of property in any goods or chattels, may, by deed enrolled in such manner and time in Eng. as by 27 H.8. c.16., and in Ire. as by 10 C.2. c.1., or by will in writing duly executed according to law, such deed or will being duly executed 3 months before death of grantor or testator, give and vest in any person, or body politic or corporate, their heirs and successors respectively, any lands not exceeding 5 acres, or goods and chattels not exceeding 500*l.* towards erecting, rebuilding, repairing, purchasing, or providing any church or chapel where the liturgy and rites of the united church of Eng. and Ire. are observed, or any house for residence of the officiating minister, or any out-buildings, offices, church-yard, or glebe, for the same respectively, and to be for those purposes applied according to the terms of the deed or will, the consent of the ordinary being first obtained; and if no such limitation is made in the deed, the gift shall be applied, as shall be appointed by the patron and ordinary, with consent of the incumbent; and such grantees, their heirs, &c. may take as well from persons charitably disposed to give the same, as from all others willing to sell them, any lands, tenements, or chattels, without licence or writ of ad quod damnum, notwithstanding the statute of mortmain; but these powers shall not extend to persons within age, insane, or fempe-covertes, 43 G.3. c.108. s.1.

27. H.M. by deed [under the great seal, but see now 52 G.3. c.161. s.27. pl. 28. or] under the seal of his duchy of Lancaster, may give all such his estate or interest in any lands or tenements within survey of exchequer, or of that duchy, for the like purposes, with the like consent, (as in 43 G.3. c.108. s.1.) but no one such grant shall extend to more than 5 acres; and such grants may be held notwithstanding the statutes of mortmain, 9 H.3. c.36., and 1 J. st. 1. c.7., 51 G.3. c.115. s.1.

28. H.M. may so grant and vest in any person or body politic or corporate, their heirs and successors, his interest in any land or tenements not exceeding 5 acres, within survey of exchequer, or of duchy of Lancaster, for curtilages, accessions, or other accommodations of any such churches or chapels, viz. the treasury may grant a warrant to any such person or body, &c. which shall be enrolled in the office of auditor of land revenue for the county within which such premises are situate, and also in that of the commissioners of woods, forests, and land revenues, or in that of the surveyor-general of land revenue; which auditor and commissioners, or surveyor-general, having enrolled the same, shall certify such enrolment at the foot or back thereof, under their hands, and return it to the grantees who, after such enrolment, shall be deemed in actual possession, and shall hold the premises specified in the warrant, free of all incumbrances, 52 G.3. c.161. s.27.

29. Every person having the fee-simple of a manor may, by deed under his hand and seal enrolled in chancery (as in s.1.) with or without confirmation as the law requires, grant to the rector, vicar, or other minister of any parish, church, or chapel, consecrated for the service of the church of Eng. and Ire. not exceeding 5 acres, parcel of the waste of the manor, and lying within the parish where such church or chapel shall be erected, or within any extra-parochial district in which such church, &c. shall be erected, for erecting thereon, or enlarging any such church or chapel, or for a church-yard or burying-ground, or enlarging the same, or for glebe on which to erect a residence for the minister, freed from all rights of common, &c. 51 G.3. c.115. s.2. [see as to conveyance, pl. 98.]

30. Only one such gift or demise shall be made by one person, and where either exceeds 5 acres, or 500*l.* value in goods and chattels, the lord chancellor, on petition, may order its reduction to that amount, and make further reasonable order in the premises, 43 G.3. c.108. s.2.

31. No glebe of more than 50 acres shall be augmented by more than 1 acre, and any excess therein shall be reduced by the chancellor as in s.2., id. s.3.

32. Every body politic or corporate, sole or aggregate, by deed enrolled (as in s.1.) with or without confirmation as the law may require, may give and grant for the purposes in s.1., either by way of exchange or benediction, any small plot of land not exceeding 1 acre now held in mortmain, lying convenient for the use of some church, chapel, or minister's house of residence, church-yard, or curtilage thereof, or convenient to be employed as the site of some such church, chapel, or house to be hereafter erected, and for the necessary enjoyment thereof, to any person or body, &c. soever, who, with their heirs, &c. shall have full capacity, with consent of incumbent, patron, and ordinary, to take and hold such small plot of land for such purposes, without licence or writ of ad quod damnum, notwithstanding the statute of mortmain, id. s.4.

33. In every parochial church or chapel hereafter erected, ample provision shall be made for decent and suitable accommodation of all persons soever entitled to resort thither, whose circumstances may render them unable to pay for the same, id. s.5.

34. Any rights of giving or devising already existing in any person, are not affected by this act, id. s.6.

35. FOR ENABLING ECCLESIASTICAL CORPORATE BODIES, UNDER certain circumstances, to alienate lands for enlarging cemeteries or church-yards, 56 G.3. c.141.

36. Any spiritual or ecclesiastical body corporate or spiritual person, being a corporation sole, possessing any land adjacent to any cemetery, church-yard, or burying-ground, may sell by indenture of bargain and sale (enrolled in chancery within 6 calendar months), for the purpose of consecration, any portion thereof, not exceeding 1 acre, for enlarging such church-yard, &c. id. s.1.

37. In case of any spiritual person being a corporation sole, the consent of the bishop or ordinary, and of the patron of the living, shall be testified by their being parties to the alienation of the land; previous to which, the value thereof shall be ascertained, and with a description thereof committed to writing by some competent person, appointed by the ordinary, who shall verify the same on oath before a justice of the county, town or district, where the land is situated: if the value is above 100*l.*, other lands of equal value, estimated and verified as above, shall be conveyed to the same uses as those conveyed by the spiritual person, and as the consideration thereof; and if the value does not amount to 100*l.* but is above 20*l.*, such value shall be paid to the governors of Queen Anne's bounty, to be applied to the benefit of such spiritual person; and if it shall not amount to 20*l.* it shall be paid to such spiritual person, to be used at his discretion, id. s.2.

38. No alienation by virtue of this act shall be questioned after 20 years expired, for want of compliance with the forms hereby prescribed, id. s.3.

39. All ground consecrated as burial-ground shall, after 20 years, be discharged of all adverse titles and claims thereto, and shall absolutely vest in the trustees thereof; or if there be no such trustees, then in the vicar or perpetual curate; or if no such vicar, &c. then in the rector of the parish, 56 G. 3. c. 141. s. 4.

40. H. M. may, by letters patent, appoint commissioners for carrying into execution this act, and may direct any 5 or more of them to act therein, the commission to continue in force for 10 years from the date, unless sooner altered or revoked, id. s. 8.

41. H. M. may fill up the vacancies of and appoint additional commissioners, and they shall form a body corporate by the name of "His majesty's commissioners for building new churches," and shall have a common seal during the continuance of the commission, 59 G. 3. c. 134. s. 5.

42. FOR BUILDING AND PROMOTING THE BUILDING OF ADDITIONAL churches in populous parishes, 58 G. 3. c. 45. [AMD. 59 G. 3. c. 134. See 58 G. 3. c. 13. s. 86. Exp.]

43. H. M. may authorize the treasury of G. B. and I. r. to issue exchequer bills not exceeding the sum of 1,000,000*l.*, subject to the rules of 48 G. 3. c. 1., 58 G. 3. c. 45. s. 1.

44. The regulations of 48 G. 3. c. 1. are extended to the exchequer bills made out in pursuance hereof, id. s. 2.

45. The exchequer bills made out in pursuance of these acts shall bear the rate of interest prescribed by the treasury, not exceeding  $3\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. per annum, and all those so advanced shall be made payable, and paid off, with the interest due thereon, at such periods as in each bill so made out is specified pursuant to the directions of the auditor of exchequer by warrant from the treasury, 59 G. 3. c. 134. s. 1, 58 G. 3. c. 45. s. 3.

46. But all bills so advanced shall be made payable in 3 years from their issue, 58 G. 3. c. 46. s. 5.

47. Such bills shall not be exchanged for ready money by any collectors of customs, excise, or taxes, before the days appointed for their payment, and no action lies against the latter for such refusal to exchange them, but after that time they shall pass current to such collectors and to the exchequer; and those received at the latter place may be locked up as cash, id. s. 4.

48. H. M., by letters patent under the great seal, may appoint such persons as he shall deem fit to be his commissioners for executing this act, and may direct that 5 of them may act in execution thereof; such commission to continue in force for 10 years from the date, unless H. M. shall sooner alter or revoke the same, id. s. 8.

49. Which commissioners, from time to time, as they find it necessary to apply to its purposes any amount of the exchequer bills so to be advanced, shall represent the same to the treasury, who shall thereupon, if satisfied of such necessity, direct such commissioners to issue a certificate, signed by three or more of them, containing the amount of the sum required, which shall be delivered to the auditor of the exchequer, who shall, on receipt thereof, pay to the bearer the amount in exchequer bills, signed by himself, or by any person duly authorised, and bearing date, either the day specified in the certificate, or on that of its receipt by the auditor, and payable at the period specified in the bills, 59 G. 3. c. 134. s. 2, and 58 G. 3. c. 45. s. 5. [comb. Exp.]

50. The officers of exchequer shall, on requisition of the commissioners, deliver to them at their office complete lists of all the exchequer bills so made out and delivered, specifying their dates, sums, and periods of payment, with the names of the persons to whom, and the numbers of the certificates by virtue whereof such bills were delivered, 58 G. 3. c. 45. s. 6.

51. The Bank of Eng. may advance 1,000,000*l.* on credit of the exchequer bills issued, notwithstanding 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 20., id. s. 7.

52. The commissioners shall examine into the present state of the parishes and extra-parochial places in the metropolis, and its vicinity, and in all other parts of Eng. and I. r. for ascertaining the parishes and places in which additional churches or chapels for performing divine service, according to the established church of Eng. and I. r., are most required, and the most effectual means of affording such accommodation, id. s. 9.

53. The commissioners may appoint a secretary and clerk, and employ surveyors with reasonable salary, to make plans and estimates, (and if necessary) surveys and reports for ascertaining the best mode of providing proper accommodation for the largest number of persons at the least expence, id. s. 10.

54. The treasury may issue all necessary sums of money to such persons, in such manner and proportions as the commissioners or any five of them shall by writing under their hands desire, and as shall be approved of by the treasury, and the same shall be applied to paying such salaries, (as in s. 10.) as also the expences of executing this act, and shall be accounted for before the treasury only, which money shall not be subject to any tax; but an account of the said expences, so long as the said commission shall remain in force, shall be laid before parliament on 25 March annually, id. s. 11.

55. The commissioners shall draw up rules for their general proceedings, specifying therein the largest amount of allowances to be granted, for building any church [viz. 20,000*l.* see their printed report], and shall make any other necessary regulations for furthering the purposes of the act, which shall be laid before H. M. in council, who may approve or disallow the same, 58 G. 3. c. 45. s. 12.

56. The commissioners may make, in H. M.'s name, out of the sum appropriated by this act, grants for building, or may cause to be built, churches or chapels in such parishes or extra-parochial places only in which there is a population of not less than 4000 persons, and in which there is not accommodation in the churches or chapels therein for more than one-fourth part of such population to attend divine service, or in which there appears to the commissioners to be 1000 persons resident more than 4 miles from any such church or chapel, and in which they shall be satisfied, from the circumstances of such parish, &c. of the inability of the parishioners and inhabitants thereof to bear any part of the charge of such building in addition to the charge in s. 14. mentioned; and also to make grants or loans to assist in building such churches and chapels in such other parishes or places as may contain a like population, and may equally require further accommodation for divine service, but in which they may deem the parishioners and inhabitants capable of bearing a part of the expence of erecting such churches, &c., or of repaying the same by instalments, if advanced by way of loan, id. s. 13.

57. The commissioners, on any parish or extra-parochial place offering to raise by rates or subscription, or by rates aided by subscription, such proportion of the expence of building any church or chapel required in any such parish or extra-parochial place, as is fixed as a proper proportion by the commissioners, according to any such regulations as in s. 12., or shall be deemed by them a proper proportion, to grant to any such parish, &c. the remaining sum necessary to build any such church or chapel, and to lend to such parish, &c. any part of the proportion so proposed to be raised by rates as aforesaid, id. s. 14.

58. Commissioners may allow the whole of the expences of building any churches or chapels, in all cases where they see fit, either on account of the inhabitants' inability to bear any part of the expence, or for any other cause, which appears in their judgment to be sufficient, 59 G. 3. c. 134. s. 4.

59. The commissioners, in selecting the parishes and extra-parochial places for distributing sums under this act, shall have regard to the amount of population therein, and to its disproportion with the accommodation for attendance on divine service; and in giving the preference of such grants shall have regard to the proportion of the expence, which shall be offered to be contributed in aid thereof, and the pecuniary ability of the inhabitants, and in giving like preference as between parishes &c. not offering to contribute such proportion shall have also regard to the priority in which such parishes &c. shall have given notice to the commissioners of having provided sites for the churches, &c. intended to be built therein, 58 G. 3. c. 45. s. 15.

60. The commissioners may make grants or loans to any townships, hamlets, vills, chapeltries, or other division of parishes, which, in their judgment, require further accommodation for divine service, according to the rites of the united church of Eng. and I. r., though the population of any such division may not amount to 4000, and though, in the whole parish, there may be accommodation for more than one-fourth of the inhabitants, and they may proceed in relation to such divisions under 58 G. 3. c. 45., and this act, as if they were distinct parishes, and all the powers of both acts for making loans to any parishes or extra-parochial places, shall apply to such divisions of parishes, 59 G. 3. c. 134. s. 5.

61. Where the commissioners think it expedient to divide any parish into 2 or more distinct parishes for all ecclesiastical purposes, they may, with consent of the bishop of the diocese signified under his hand and seal, apply to the patron for his consent to such division signified in like manner, and on obtaining it, shall represent the whole matter to H. M. in council, specifying the proposed bounds of each division, with their respective proportions of glebe, &c. tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division be within each division, and the relative proportions of the estimated value of fees, oblations, or other ecclesiastical dues within each, whereupon H. M. may, by order in council, divide the parishes; but no such division shall completely take effect till after the death, or resignation, or other avoidance of the present incumbent, 58 G. 3. c. 45. s. 16.

62. Where any parish, or extra-parochial place is divided by the commissioners into 2 or more separate parishes, they may with the consent in 58 G. 3. c. 45. s. 16. required, apportion the respective proportions of glebe-land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments, which should be assigned to each division, without regard to whether any such proportions are locally situate, or are within the division to which they may be assigned, or within the parish, &c. so proposed to be divided, 59 G. 3. c. 134. s. 8.

63. The commissioners with consent of the bishop, in the division of any parish, and of the relative proportion of glebe, &c. [as in pl. 61, 62.]

may apportion the permanent charges affecting the same or the existing incumbent, to be thereafter borne by each division, or by the spiritual person serving the same, 59 G.3. c. 134. s. 9.

64. Such apportionments of glebes and ecclesiastical profits, and all permanent and other charges made under either 58 G.3. c. 45. or this act, and also the description of boundaries assigned to chapels under this act, in which no marriages are allowed, and all tables of fees under this act, shall be registered in the registry of the diocese, and not enrolled in chancery, id. s. 18.

65. All tithes, or other ecclesiastical dues soever, belonging to the incumbent of any such parish, shall, after its division, belong to, and be recoverable by the incumbents of the churches of each division, 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 17.

66. All fees and emoluments belonging to the parish-clerk or sexton respectively of any such parish, whether by prescription, usage, or otherwise, and arising in any district or division of a parish divided under 58 G.3. c. 45., shall belong to and be recovered by the respective clerks and sextons of each division, and compensation may be made by the commissioners (as in 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 32. and s. 6. of this act) pl. 86, 87., to the original clerk and sexton for the loss sustained by such division, 59 G.3. c. 134. s. 10.

67. The commissioners with consent of vestry, or select vestry and bishop, may fix a table of fees for any parish, extra-parochial place, distinct chapelry, or parochial chapelry, in which any church or chapel shall be built under 58 G.3. c. 45. or this act, and with consent of the bishop, and all fees so fixed may be recovered by the spiritual person, clerk, or sexton to whom they are assigned in the usual manner, id. s. 11.

68. During the incumbency of the existing incumbent, every new church intended as the parish church of any such division, intended to become a distinct parish, shall remain a chapel of ease, and shall be served by a curate, nominated by the incumbent, licensed by the bishop, and paid as in s. 2. pl. 75. directed, 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 18.

69. Every such separate parish, when the division becomes complete by avoidance of the existing incumbent, shall be deemed either a rectory, vicarage, donative, or perpetual curacy, and the spiritual person serving the same either a rector, &c. according to the nature of the original parish, id. s. 19. [not so as to chapels erected under that act, 59 G.3. c. 134. s. 19. pl. 73.]

70. All such donatives and perpetual curacies shall be subject to lapse as benefices, if no appointment of a spiritual person thereto shall be made within 6 calendar months after vacancy therein, provided that no spiritual person appointed to any donative or perpetual curacy shall be removable at pleasure of any patron thereof, id. s. 20.

71. All new churches built or acquired under either act, shall immediately after consecration become distinct benefices and churches for all ecclesiastical purposes; provided that, during the existing incumbency, they shall be served by lawful stipendiary curates, appointed by the existing incumbent, and subject to all the laws in force, respecting them, except as to the assigning them salaries by the bishop, and the incumbent shall hold all the churches of the several divisions of his parish, as if they were one church, except in case of his voluntary resignation of one of them, 59 G.3. c. 134. s. 12.

72. But the right of presentation of spiritual persons to be incumbents, or to serve the churches of the several parishes created by the complete division of any parish under either act, shall belong to the patron of the original church, and the exercise thereof shall commence on the death or other avoidance of the existing incumbent, or where the division has been made, or intended to be made by the commissioners before or during any avoidance, it shall then commence on the consecration of the church of any division, which shall immediately become a benefice, and subject to all the laws of presentation, lapse, &c. incident thereto, provided that, till the incumbents are presented, the cure shall remain in, and the profits shall be received by the original incumbent, id. s. 13.

73. No chapel built under 58 G.3. c. 45., and situate in any district parish, made a parish for ecclesiastical purposes under s. 16. of that act, and which is not the church of the district, shall be deemed a perpetual curacy, or a benefice presentative under that act, id. s. 19.

74. When the commissioners do not think it expedient to divide any populous parish or extra-parochial place into such separate parishes, but into such ecclesiastical districts, as they with consent of the bishop under his hand and seal may deem necessary to afford accommodation for attending divine service to persons resident therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or to be built therein, and as they may deem convenient for enabling the spiritual persons who may serve the same to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached thereto, and for due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the residents, the commissioners shall represent such opinion to H. M. in council, and state in such representation the proposed bounds of such districts, and H. M.'s order in council, if granted, shall be valid for such division, 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 21.

75. When the commissioners do not think it expedient to make such division into ecclesiastical districts, they may build or aid the building of any additional chapels in any parishes or extra-parochial places to be served by curates, respectively appointed by the incumbents of the latter, and licensed by the bishop, and with salaries assigned by the commissioners, id. ibid.

76. The new parishes and ecclesiastical districts of parishes and extra-parochial places shall be marked out by described bounds, the description of which shall be enrolled in chancery and registered in the registry of the diocese, and notice thereof given according to commissioners' direction, id. s. 22.

77. H. M. on representation of the commissioners made by the bishop's consent under his hand and seal, may by order in council alter such boundaries within 5 years after such enrolment, id. s. 25.

78. Such boundaries shall continue boundaries of such parishes or districts, unless so altered, and such districts shall become and be called District Parishes by their names of enrolment, and the churches and chapels assigned to them, shall, when consecrated, become the district parish churches for all ecclesiastical worship and duties, and as to all marriages, christenings, churchings, burials, and registers thereof within the same, and as to all fees, and oblations, and for recovering the same, and for all other purposes except as herein excepted, id. s. 24.

79. Every church and chapel built, or required under this act, and appropriated to any such district-parish, shall be deemed a perpetual curacy, and a benefice presentative, so far only as that the licence thereto shall operate as an institution to a benefice, and as such shall render voidable other livings, and the spiritual person serving same shall be deemed the incumbent thereof, with perpetual succession as a body politic or corporate, or both, and may take any endowments or augmentations granted to him or his successors, and they and their patrons shall be subject to all common statutes and ecclesiastical law, with lapse in case of 6 months' vacancy in presentation, id. s. 25.

80. No such district church or chapel shall be held with the original church, or with the church, &c. of any other such parish or district parish, id. s. 26.

81. All statutes, laws, and customs, relating to publishing banns of marriage, marriages, christenings, churchings, and burials, and the registry thereof, and to all ecclesiastical fees, oblations, or offerings, shall apply to such separate parishes, or district parishes, or chapelries, when they become such after the avoidance of the existing incumbents, [and to all districts, and consolidated or district chapelries, and divisions of parishes, or extra-parochial places, of which the boundaries are enrolled in chancery under either act, and in the churches and chapels of which banns may be published, and marriages, christenings, churchings, and burials solemnized, 59 G.3. c. 134. s. 17.] and to the churches, chapels, and ministers of all the parishes, &c. above enumerated, as if they had been ancient and separate parishes, 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 27., 59 G.3. c. 134. s. 17.

82. No banns shall be published, marriages celebrated, or baptisms, or churchings had within any church or chapel of any such separate parish, or in any private house therein, or within any such district church or chapel, or in any private house within such district, nor shall any burials be performed within any cemetery belonging to any such church or chapel by any person whatever, except by the incumbent of the church of the parish, or extra-parochial place, from which such parish has been separated, or his duly licensed curate, till after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the spiritual person, who is then incumbent of the church of the parish, &c. at the time of consecration of any such church or chapel of any such separated parish or district parish; and after any such avoidance of the incumbent, notified under the bishop's hand and seal, and entered as in s. 29., all such acts shall be as effectual as if published or solemnized in the church of the parish, or extra-parochial place wherein they are situate, 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 28.

83. Such avoidance of the existing incumbent shall be notified by the bishop, under his hand and seal, to the spiritual person then serving the separated church or chapel, and to the churchwardens; and such notifications shall be preserved with, and copies thereof entered in the parish and chapel registers, and shall be authenticated by the churchwardens, and shall be evidence of the period of commencement, under this act, of performing the ceremonies mentioned in s. 28., id. s. 29.

84. The division of any parish into district-parishes only, and not into separate and distinct parishes, shall not affect any land, glebe, tithes, moduses, or endowment, belonging to the original church of the parish or extra-parochial place, but the same shall continue to belong to the incumbent thereof, and the original parish shall continue such as to the same, as if this act had not passed, id. s. 30.

85. No divisions of any parish or extra-parochial place, whether it be divided into separate parishes or into district parishes, shall affect any parish so divided, or the inhabitants thereof, otherwise than is herein provided, or in any manner apply to any poor or other parochial rates, except church-rates as by this act regulated, or to any powers relating to poor-rates, or holding vestries or appointment of parish-officers; but the original parish shall remain a parish to all intents, as if no such division thereof into separate parishes or district parishes had been made, 58 G.3. c.45. s.31.

86. Commissioners may ascertain the average amount in any parish or extra-parochial place of all fees, oblations, or offerings soever, voluntary or not, for the three years preceding the division into district parishes, and for each year subsequent thereto during the existing incumbency, and may summon and examine on oath the incumbent or other persons, and require the production of and examine all necessary books or papers, and shall cause compensation to be made out of the monies hereby granted to the incumbent of any such parish for any loss he may sustain by such division, and by the consequent transfer of such fees, &c. to the clergy of the churches, &c. of the district parishes; but no such compensation or inquiry shall affect any question as to the right to the fees, id. s.32.

87. The commissioners (with the consents required by 58 G.3. c.45. s.16. pl. 61., in the case of district parishes) may consolidate any contiguous parts of populous parishes and extra-parochial places into a separate and distinct district for all ecclesiastical purposes, and may cause the same to be named and ascertained by described bounds, which, when approved by H. M. in council, shall be enrolled in chancery and in the registry of the diocese, and may make grants or loans for building chapels for the use of such district, with or without cemeteries, and constitute the same a consolidated chapelry, which chapelry shall be under superintendence of the minister appointed to serve such chapel, and he shall have cure of souls therein; and the right of presentation to the same shall be settled by the patrons of the churches of the different parishes, &c. with the approbation of the commissioners; banns of marriage may be published, and marriages, christenings, churchings, and burials solemnized in such chapel after its consecration; its pew-rents shall be fixed, and salaries to the minister and clerk assigned therefrom, as in 58 G.3. c.45. pl. 75. and this act directed, concerning pew-rents and salaries in separate or district parishes, and all fees and offerings accruing in the chapelry, according to the table of fees made by the commissioners with the bishop's approbation, may be recovered, &c. by the minister, clerk, and sexton of every such chapelry, as if it were a district parish, 59 G.3. c.151. s.6.

88. The commissioners may make compensation as in 58 G.3. c.45. s.32. pl. 86., for any loss sustained by the incumbent of any contiguous parish, or extra-parochial place, forming part of any such district, by reason of any fees or oblations transferred to the minister of such chapel, and all such chapelries shall be deemed benefices, and subject to the jurisdiction of the bishops and archdeacons, and to all laws in force concerning presentation to and holding of benefice, and lapse, id. ibid.

89. Commissioners may require sites to be provided as in 58 G.3. c.45. s.35. [infra, pl. 94.] and may lend money for building churches or chapels, and purchasing sites, and erecting buildings for church of Eng. worship, without determining beforehand whether the parish or extra-parochial place in which the same shall be built, shall be divided into separate parishes or districts for ecclesiastical purposes, or whether such building shall, after its consecration, be deemed a church or chapel, or whether it shall be appropriated to the accommodation of the parish at large or to any division thereof, id. s.7.

90. The commissioners may accept as a gift any buildings fit to be used for or converted into such additional churches or chapels, and also any lands proper for the sites thereof, not exceeding a sufficient quantity for building such church, &c. and for providing a churchyard with a proper access or approach thereto; and such site on conveyance to the commissioners, and notice to the bishop, shall, with the church, &c. erected thereon, be devoted to ecclesiastical purposes in order to consecration, and they may also accept any house, garden, and appurtenances, not exceeding 10 acres in all, for the residence of the spiritual person serving such church or chapel, or a like quantity of land for the erection of such house, and making such garden, the same to become the house and glebe of such church, &c., 58 G.3. c.45. s.37. [See 43 G.3. c.108. and 51 G.3. c.115. ante, pl. 24, &c.]

91. The commissioners of woods, forests, and land revenues, with consent of treasury in writing, H. M. by any grant signed by the chancellor of the duchy of Lancaster, the duke of Cornwall by grant signed by the duchy chancellor, and any bodies politic, corporate or collegiate, or corporation aggregate or sole, may grant any such building or sites for building such churches, &c. with or without cemeteries, and any house or garden for residence of the clergyman, id. s.34.

92. They may also, in like manner, grant any stone, slate, timber, or other materials from any quarries, forests, or wastes, belonging to them respectively, for building such churches, chapels, or parsonage-houses, 59 G.3. c.134. s.20.

93. The commissioners of customs of U.K., with consent and under regulations of the treasury, may remit or allow the drawback of all or any proportion of the customs or excise duties on stone, slate, bricks, timber, or other materials bona fide procured for and used in building such churches, 59 G.3. c.134. s.21.

94. All parishes or extra-parochial places required so to do by the commissioners, shall furnish sites for any additional churches or chapels to be built under this act; and the latter shall give notice to the churchwardens of such parish, &c. (by leaving the same at their dwellings) of their intention to build such church or chapel, of the extent of ground required for its site and for making a proper approach thereto, and of the part of the parish, &c. in which they must be provided, and the churchwardens shall in 14 days call a vestry, in order to take measures for providing such site; and if such parish, &c. is not able to provide the same without purchase, the vestry shall forthwith treat for purchase of a site, but shall not conclude the bargain without the commissioners' approbation, 58 G.3. c.45. s.35.

95. Where the commissioners deem it expedient from the amount or description of the population of any parish, township, hamlet, vill, chapelry, or other division of any parish, and the amount of the rates paid thereon, or other good cause, they may grant money for the purchase of sites, or may treat for their purchase with or without cemeteries, and without requiring repayment or security for repayment by the parishes of the money so expended, and may purchase or grant money for purchasing cemeteries out of the parish for which they are provided, or for enlarging them or providing additional ones within such parish; all which cemeteries, if not within the parish, shall, after consecration, be deemed part of the parish for the use of which they are purchased, 59 G.3. c.134. s.22.

96. All bodies politic, corporate, or collegiate, corporations aggregate or sole, tenants for life or in tail, husbands, guardians, trustees, and feoffees in trust, committees, executors and administrators, females-covert seized in their own right, and all other persons soever seized of or interested in any lands set out for such sites, may for themselves and their cestuique trusts, as idiots, females-covert, issue unborn, &c. sell and convey, or if copyholds may enfranchise the same to the commissioners for the purposes of this act, 58 G.3. c.45. s.36.

97. The form of conveyance to the commissioner for the purposes of this act shall be made in or as near to the following form as the case will admit, (except in purchases of lands belonging to H. M., or the duchy of Cornwall, which are hereinafter provided for,) viz.

'I, [or we] — of — in consideration of the sum of — to me, [or us] paid, do hereby grant and release to — all [describing the premises to be conveyed], and all my right, title, and interest to and in the same, and every part thereof, to hold to the said — and their successors, and to be devoted when consecrated to ecclesiastical purposes for ever, by virtue and according to the true intent and meaning of an act passed in the 58th year of the reign of H. M. king George the third, intitled, [here set forth the title of this act.] In witness whereof I, [or we] hereunto set my hand and seal this — day of —, in the year of our Lord —.'

And all such conveyances shall be valid in law, and bar all estates tail and other interests and incumbrances, id. s.37.

98. Where any part of a common or waste is granted for the purposes of this act, a conveyance thereof executed by the lord of the manor only shall be sufficient, and any compensation to be paid for any right of common thereon shall be paid to the churchwardens of the respective parishes wherein the common is situate, for such purposes as a vestry shall direct, id. s.38.

99. All the persons mentioned in s.36. may accept satisfaction for the value of such lands or interests, and thereupon the commissioners may enter and use the same; and if the parties cannot agree, the verdict of a jury shall settle the price, id. s.39.

100. If the persons so mentioned in s.36. refuse to receive the purchase-money offered by the commissioners or their agent, and give notice thereof in writing to the secretary to the commissioners, in 7 days next after the offer made, requesting a trial thereof by jury; or if they are dissatisfied or unable from absence or disability, want of title, &c. to treat to the satisfaction of the commissioners, the latter shall issue a warrant, under the common seal, to the sheriff of the county where the land, &c. lies, or if he is interested therein to the senior coroner, or if he is interested to the next senior coroner not interested, to impanel and return not less than 24 or more than 48 persons qualified to serve on special juries, id. s.40.

101. The persons so impanelled, &c. shall appear at some general or quarter sessions of the county, or at some adjournment thereof, as in such warrant appointed, and shall attend from day to day till discharged by the court, out of whom a jury of 12 men shall be drawn by the clerk of the peace of the county, or his deputy, in the usual manner, and a taxes shall be allowed in default of special jurors; all parties may challenge individual jurors, but not the array; and the clerk of the peace may call witnesses, and authorize any 3 or more of the jury to view the place or matter in controversy; and the jury shall assess and give by their verdict the purchase-money of such lands, &c. or interest thereon, to be made conclusive by the judgment of the sessions; whereupon 14 days' notice in writing of the hour and place of the jury's return shall be given to the persons interested, by leaving the same at their dwelling-houses, or at that of the head officer of such bodies politic, &c. or with some tenant or occupier of the premises intended to be valued, 58 G. 5. c. 45. s. 10.

102. If the jury give a verdict for more than is offered by the commissioners, or if no offer has been made, or sufficient legal person found with whom to contract, the expenses shall be settled by the justices and paid by the commissioners; but if a verdict is given for the same, or a less sum, the expenses shall be borne by the parties conveying under this act (except where, from absence or otherwise, any person is prevented from treating), and shall be deducted out of the sum awarded, and payment or tender of the remainder shall be deemed payment of the whole of the latter sum, id. ibid.

103. Every sheriff, or his deputy, or coroner, making default in the premises, shall forfeit any sum not exceeding 20*l.*; and any person so summoned, and returned on such jury, but not appearing, or, after appearance, refusing to be examined or give evidence, without reasonable excuse allowed by the justices, shall forfeit not exceeding 10*l.*; both which penalties may be levied with costs of distress by warrant of the justices, and shall go to the party who shall appear to the justice to be injured by such person's default, id. s. 11.

104. Such judgments and verdicts, after signature by the clerk of the peace, or his deputy being present thereat, shall be kept by the clerk of the peace among the records of the county quarter sessions, as records thereof, and all persons may inspect the same for 1*s.* fee, and may copy the same at 6*d.* for every 100, and so in proportion for any less number of words. Such copies shall be evidence, id. s. 12.

105. On payment or tender of the purchase monies to the parties interested or entitled to receive the same, or if the latter cannot be found, refuse to receive the same, or to execute conveyance of the premises, &c. or cannot make title thereto to the commissioners' satisfaction, then, on payment into the bank of Eng. as in ss. 47, 48, directed, the commissioners may enter thereon, and the inheritance shall be vested in such person, and for such purposes as directed by this act, or by any sentence of consecration under the provisions thereof; and such tender or payment shall bar all dower rights and interests soever; but the commissioners shall not dig for their foundation before such payment, without leave of the respective owners, id. s. 13.

106. Where any sum, amounting to or exceeding 200*l.*, is agreed or awarded to be paid for any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or for any interest purchased for the purposes of this act, which belongs to any corporation, feme-covert, infant, lunatic, or person under disability, &c. (as in s. 36.) the same shall be paid into the bank of Eng. in the name and with the privity of the accountant-general of chancery, to be placed to his account, "ex parte the commissioners for building churches," together with the name of such person as any three of the latter shall, by writing signed by them, appoint, for its application (under the approbation of the court, to be signified by order made on petition of the persons otherwise entitled to the rents and profits of such lands) in the purchase of the land-tax, or discharging incumbrances affecting other lands settled to like uses, or in purchase of other lands, &c. to be settled in like manner; and in the mean time such sums shall be invested by the accountant-general in the 3 per cents consols, or 3 per cents reduced bank annuities, paying the dividends to the persons otherwise entitled to the rents, &c. of such lands for the time being, id. s. 14.

107. Any such sum being less than 200*l.*, and not exceeding 20*l.*, shall, at the option of the person for the time being entitled to the rents and profits of the lands, &c. so purchased, their guardians or committees, if infants or lunatics, signified in writing signed by them, be paid into the bank of Eng. in the name and with the privity of such accountant-general, &c. (as in s. 44.), for application as in that section; or shall be paid at the like option to three trustees nominated by such persons, and approved by 3 or more commissioners, signified in writing under the hands of all parties, for applying such principal and dividends as in s. 44., without direction of the court of chancery, id. s. 15.

108. Any such sum, being less than 20*l.*, shall be applied to the use of the person for the time being entitled to the rents, &c. of the lands, &c. so purchased, for the purposes of this act, as directed by any 3 or more commissioners, or in case of infancy or lunacy, then to the guardian or committee for the use of the party entitled, id. s. 16.

109. In case the person to whom such sums are ordered to be paid shall not make a good title to the satisfaction of the commissioners, or any five of them, or shall refuse to execute such conveyances, or if he cannot be found, or is unknown, any five or more commissioners may order the sums so awarded to be paid into the bank of Eng. in the name and with privity of the accountant-general, to be placed in his account to the credit of the parties interested in such lands, &c. [describing them], subject to the control of chancery, which court may, (on application of any claimant by motion or petition) order the same to be invested in the public funds, or order distribution thereof, or payment of the dividends, according to the respective estate or interest of the claimants, and the cashier of the bank who receives such money shall give a receipt for the same, specifying the uses for which it is received, 59 G. 5. c. 45. s. 17.

110. Where any question shall arise touching the title of any person to any money paid into the bank of Eng. in the name and with the privity of the accountant-general, in pursuance of this act, for purchase of any lands, &c. (as in s. 14.) or of any interest therein, to be purchased in pursuance thereof, or to any bank annuities to be purchased with any such money, or to the dividends and interest thereof, the person who is in possession of the lands, &c. at the time of such purchase, shall be deemed entitled according to such possession, till the contrary be shown to the satisfaction of the court of chancery, and as well the dividends as the capital of such bank annuities shall be paid and disposed of accordingly, unless it appear to the court that such possession was wrongful, and that some other persons were lawfully entitled to such lands, &c. or to some interest therein, id. s. 18.

111. The court may order reasonable expenses of purchase made by reason of any disability of any person or corporation entitled to the lands, &c. purchased, to be paid by the commissioners, and to be applied to such purchases as the court shall direct, id. s. 19.

112. All mortgages not in possession shall, on tender of the principal and interest due to them, with 3 calendar months' interest on the principal by the commissioners or their agent, immediately convey and transfer the mortgage to the commissioners, or if notice in writing is given them by the latter that they will pay off the principal and interest due on such mortgages at the end of two calendar months from the date thereof, they shall transfer their interest in the premises to the commissioners, or their trustee, and on refusal to transfer, all interest thereon shall cease, id. s. 20.

113. If any such mortgagee shall neglect or refuse to convey or assign as above, then on payment of the principal and interest due into the bank of Eng. at the end of 2 calendar months from such notice given for the use of the mortgagee, the cashier of the bank shall give a receipt for the same, as in s. 17; and all interest therein of the mortgagee or their trustees shall vest in the commissioners, who shall be deemed in actual possession of the premises comprised in the mortgage deed; and where such mortgage comprises any other lands than those taken by the commissioners, the mortgagees shall, on payment or tender of the sum so ascertained as the value of the lands, &c. convey and transfer their interest therein to the commissioners or their trustee; and in default thereof, on payment of such money into the bank of Eng. for the use of the mortgagees, the cashier shall give a receipt as in s. 17, and all the mortgagees' and their trustee's interest therein vests in the commissioners, who shall be deemed in actual possession; and such sum shall be deducted from the principal and interest due to such mortgagee by virtue of such mortgage, id. ibid.

114. The commissioners by indenture under hands and seals, or any 5 or more of them, may convey by way of absolute sale for consideration in money, any lands, &c. purchased but not wanted for the purposes of the act, and on payment of the purchase money, their secretary may sign and give receipts for the same, which shall be sufficient discharge for the payment or subsequent misapplication thereof, but the first offer of resale shall be made to the persons of whom the lands were bought, their resale price being settled by a jury, (as in s. 40.) if any dispute arise thereon: after which, if the parties do not agree, or refuse to re-purchase the same, any person not interested in the premises may swear an affidavit before a master extraordinary of chancery, or a justice of the county where the lands are situate, stating the commissioner's offer and party's refusal, which shall be sufficient evidence thereof in all courts, id. s. 21.

115. Where any parish, or extra-parochial place is empowered by statute to build any church or chapel, or to enlarge the existing church, &c. or is desirous of so doing, and defraying the expence without aid of the commissioners, but cannot procure a proper site for the purpose, on account of the inability of any person or body interested therein to convey or make good title thereto, discharged from incumbrances, or are unwilling to treat, or cannot agree for sale thereof, the commissioners may, if they think proper, on application, and a statement of all circumstances, procure such site for them under this act, and charge the expence thereof on such parish, &c. in like manner as in cases of money advanced for sites under this act, id. s. 22.

116. Nothing herein shall empower the commissioners to take any private dwelling-house, or offices, or garden, orchard, yard, park, pleasure-ground, paddock, or planted walk, or avenue thereto appurtenant, without consent of the owners and occupiers thereof, id. s. 23.

117. The commissioners may advance money, on conditions of repayment by instalments within 10 years, to any parish, &c. (as in s. 22.) to purchase any site, in case it appear to them, under the circumstances, to be proper so to do, id. s. 24.

118. If no site is provided in any parish, &c. (as in s. 22.) and duly notified to the commissioners 6 months after notice by the commissioners that a site would be required, the latter may purchase a site, and charge the expence on the rates to be raised, (as in s. 57. and s. 59.) giving notice of the amount, and of the periods of repayment by instalments, 58 G. 3. c. 45. s. 55.

119. The church rates of the parish shall, in all cases, be security for repayment of all money expended by the parish in providing any site, or advanced by the commissioners for that purpose (as in s. 54.) or paid by them in cases of neglect thereof, and all such sums shall be chargeable on such rates, and the churchwardens may make proper rates for repaying the same at the times specified by the commissioners under this act, id. s. 56.

120. Where any money has been expended in purchasing any site, or advanced by the commissioners for any extra-parochial place, where no church rates are raised, the latter may require any justice acting for the division of the county where such place is, to appoint two or more proper persons to make and levy rates for making all such payments and repayments as are hereby required, and they shall have the legal powers of church-wardens, and may make rates sufficient for such purposes, to be deemed church-rates, and to be raised as such under all the powers and regulations of all former statutes or ecclesiastical laws applicable thereto, id. s. 57.

121. The churchwardens of any parish, with consent of vestry, and the persons appointed in an extra-parochial place, with the consent of the majority of persons entitled to vote in vestry, if the same had been a parish assembled at any meeting called for the purpose, with notice given in the church or chapel of or nearest adjoining the same, may borrow any money on the credit of the rates to be made, as in s. 57. and they may from time to time raise by rate a sum sufficient to pay the interest of the money so borrowed, and one-twentieth of the principal out of the produce thereof, till the whole is repaid, id. s. 58.

122. The churchwardens of any parish, with consent of vestry, and of the bishop and incumbent, may borrow on credit of the parish rates any sum necessary for defraying the expences of enlarging the accommodation of the then existing churches or chapels, and may make rates for payment of the interest, and for repaying the principal, by providing a sum of not less than the amount of interest on the whole sum advanced, or as otherwise agreed with the lenders; and one half of the additional accommodation afforded by such expenditure shall be allotted to free seats, id. s. 59.

123. All bodies politic, corporate, or collegiate, corporations aggregate or sole, tenants for life or in tail, husbands, guardians, trustees, and feoffees in trust, committees, executors, and administrators, and all other persons and trustees soever, as well for themselves, their heirs and successors, as also for and on behalf of certainque trusts, whether infants, issue unborn, lunatics, idiots, females covert, or other persons, and for all females covert entitled, &c. in their own right, and for all other persons soever entitled to or interested in any right of patronage or presentation to any ecclesiastical duty soever, may surrender the same, or make any agreement relating thereto with the commissioners or the bishop for regulating the same according to this act; and may endow or agree to the endowment of chapels heretofore built out of the pew-rents thereof, 59 G. 3. c. 134. s. 15.

124. No offer to build or enlarge any church or chapel, either wholly or in part, shall be made, nor shall the same be built, rebuilt, or enlarged, or any new burial-ground be purchased by means of parish rates in any case in which one-third part or more in value, (to be ascertained by an average of the rate for the relief of the poor for the preceding three years) of the proprietors, whether for estates of freehold, or copyhold, or by leases of which no less than 15 years remain unexpired, or determinable on life or lives, shall dissent therefrom; such dissent to be entered in the book containing the proceedings of the vestry, and to be signified in case of any future vestry, within 2 months after any resolution of vestry for the said purposes: and in case of any vestry already holden at which such resolution shall have been passed within 2 months from passing the act, under the hands of such proprietors; and in case of corporations aggregate, under the hand of the chief member, &c.; and in case of females covert, minors, insane persons, and persons absent from the kingdom, under the hands of their respective husbands, guardians, committees, trustees or agents, who shall sign the same; and in case of trustees of charitable institutions, under the hands of the majority, or of any body of trustees authorized under their respective trusts to act in execution thereof, id. s. 24.

125. The inhabitants of any parish assembled in vestry, or a majority of those so assembled, (notice thereof having been given on the 2 Sundays preceding,) or two-thirds of the persons exercising the powers of vestry in such parish assembled, at any meeting of which due notice is so given, may order the making of any rate not exceeding 1*s.* in the pound in one year, or 5*s.* in the pound in the whole, on the annual value of the property in the parish, for building or enlarging any church or chapel, either wholly or in part, by rates without any further number of consents of any inhabitants or proprietors; but no larger rate than the above shall be raised for the above purposes, if any such proportion of dissents are entered, as in s. 24.; and every order so made under this act shall be imperative on the church or chapel-wardens, who shall forthwith raise and collect the same, and as church-rates, 59 G. 3. c. 134. s. 25.

126. The church wardens of the parish or extra-parochial place wherein such church or chapel shall be built, shall, on application of the parishioners or inhabitants thereof, make rates for raising the portion therein stated to be provided by that means, if such building is proposed to take place, partly by subscription, and partly by rates, or for raising the whole sum so required, or to borrow money on the credit of them; and in every such case shall make rates for paying the interest of the sums advanced, and for repayment of the principal, by providing a fund of not less than the amount of the interest of the sum advanced, for repayment of the principal, or for repaying same, at such times and in such proportions as agreed with the persons advancing the same, 58 G. 3. c. 45. s. 61.

127. Any church or chapel warden of any parish, or division thereof, or of any consolidated or district chapelry, in which any rates shall be made under 58 G. 3. c. 45., or this act, may demand and recover all such rates by all legal methods of recovering church-rates; but no such church or chapel wardens shall, in virtue of such office, be deemed overseers of the poor, 59 G. 3. c. 134. s. 23.

128. When any parish is desirous to extend the accommodation in the parish church, for which purpose it is found necessary to take down the existing church, and rebuild it on the same or a more convenient site, the church wardens of the parish, with consent of vestry, ordinary, patron, incumbent, and lay-impropriator, may take down and rebuild it on the same or a new site; and may borrow money for those purposes, on the credit of the church or other rates raised under these acts; and may make rates for paying the interest thereof, and for forming a fund of not less than the amount of the interest, for repaying the principal as agreed on by the lenders; (but no church shall be so taken down and rebuilt by parish rates, if such proportion of dissents as in s. 24. are signified in writing;) such church, when consecrated, shall be the parish church for celebration of divine offices and marriages, half of such new church being laid out in free and open sittings; and all persons enjoying pews and sittings in the old church, by faculty or prescription shall, have the same allotted to them, of like dimensions and situation, in the new church; and all tomb-stones, monuments, and monumental inscriptions taken down, shall be replaced as soon as possible in the same places in the new church, id. s. 40.

129. The commissioners may build churches and chapels under this act, on such plans as they think best for affording the best accommodation at least expence; and shall, with the bishop's consent signified under his hand and seal, arrange a part in pews to be let out under this act, the rest remaining free seats, to be used by the parishioners without any payment whatever, 58 G. 3. c. 45. s. 62.

130. The commissioners may make such orders as they deem expedient, as to the amount of rents of pews, the produce whereof shall form a fund, out of which shall be made provision for the clergyman and clerk serving such church or chapel, id. s. 63.

131. The commissioners may assign from the pew-rents a proper stipend to such clergyman, with the bishop's consent, regard being had to the extent and population of the district assigned thereto, and the sum necessary to procure him a residence therein, and all other circumstances, with salaries to the clerk; and the archbishop of the province shall settle all differences between the commissioners and bishop as to amount of stipends, id. s. 64.

132. Where it appears to the bishop that the accommodation in the existing churches or chapels, or those to be built under this act, is insufficient for attendance on divine service in the church of Eng. worship, he may require the incumbent to present a curate for his licence to perform a third service with a sermon; and if the incumbent shall not nominate the curate in 6 months after such requisition, the bishop shall do so, and shall require the churchwardens to let for such additional service, a proportion of the pews, not held by faculty or prescription, and at such rates as shall afford the curate a competent salary, levying the rents, &c. as herein directed, and saving not less than one-fourth of the seats; but if the parish are willing to provide such a salary by subscription, and the bishop prefer that mode of raising it to that of pew-rents, the curate shall be appointed as above, and shall be liable to all the laws of stipendiary curates, except as relates to the amount and mode of levying his salary, &c., which is herein regulated, id. s. 65.

133. All such subscribers are entitled to the pews so to be let for the time of such third service, according to the amount of the subscriptions, or according to their dates in case of equality thereof, and only whilst they continue them; and if the whole amount do not, in the bishop's opinion, produce the curate a competent salary, (never exceeding 80*l.*

per annum, except when raised entirely by subscription,) he may require the churchwardens to raise the deficiency, by letting a proportion of the pews, 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 66.

134. The appointment of the spiritual person to serve such district-churches and chapels shall be in the patron of the original church, and he shall be subject to same visitation as the incumbent of the parish, id. s. 67.

135. The commissioners, in the same manner, and with the like consents required in 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 21. &c., or this act, may assign a particular district to any chapel of ease, or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built under these acts; which district shall be under the immediate care of the curate of the chapel, subject to the control of the incumbent of the parish church, who shall nominate such curate for the bishop's licence, except where any other person being legally entitled shall so nominate, subject to all the laws in force respecting stipendiary curates, except as to assigning their salaries; but the commissioners, with the bishop's consent, may determine whether any part or proportion of the fees, &c. for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, shall be assigned to such curate, and whether banns shall be published, and marriages, or baptisms, churchings or burials performed in such chapel or not; and where marriages are allowed therein, the commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the chapelry to be enrolled in chancery, and in the registry of the diocese; but no such chapelry shall become a benefice by any augmentation of the curate's maintenance by any bounty under any laws for augmentation of poor livings, 59 G.3. c. 154. s. 16.

136. The commissioners may order the pew-rents of any church or chapel built under this act, to be assigned to the parish, or district, and received by the church or chapel wardens, who shall thereupon be required to pay the stipend by this act assigned to the minister, or clerk; but the parish shall not, in any case, be answerable to such minister or clerk for a greater annual sum than the amount of rent of the pews actually let in the year preceding; and any surplus thereof remaining after payment of the stipend and other expenses shall (except as in next pt.) be invested in government securities, in the name of trustees, to be appointed by the bishop of the diocese, and suffered to accumulate as a fund for building or purchasing a house, with the bishop's consent, for the clergyman's residence, and after the completion thereof, then to the augmentation of his stipend, or to the reduction of the pew-rents, or the increase of accommodation in such church or chapel, as directed by the bishop, id. s. 26.

137. The surplus of such pew-rents, remaining after payment of such stipend and other expenses, shall (if thought expedient by the commissioners) be charged with and applied towards the payment of any money borrowed for building any such church or chapel, or for purchasing any site for the same, and defraying all expenses relative thereto, and in keeping the same in repair; and such church or chapel wardens, with consent of commissioners, may borrow at interest, by annuity or otherwise, any money towards those purposes, on the credit of the pew-rents, and by writing under their hands may charge them with the payment thereof, with interest, or with any such annuity, subject to such stipend and expenses as aforesaid, id. s. 27.

138. Every assignment of stipend to any minister or clerk under these acts shall be registered in the registries of the diocese, id. s. 28.

139. The clerk in every church and chapel built under these acts, shall be annually appointed by the minister, id. s. 29.

140. Where any chapel is built, either wholly or in part, by means of parish-rates, the incumbent of the parish-church shall have the first and subsequent nominations of its ministers, 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 68.

141. Nothing herein shall affect the right of the principal and scholars of Brazen Nose, Oxford, to present fit clerks, to officiate in all churches or chapels built, or to be built, in Stepney, in Middlesex, secured to them by 9 A. and 12 A., id. s. 69.

142. The repairs of district-churches or chapels shall be made by rates on the districts, as in cases of separate parishes, and the repairs of all chapels not made district-churches, shall be made by the parish in which they are built, id. s. 70.

143. But such district shall remain liable to repair the original parish-church for 20 years, from the consecration of district church or chapel, after which it shall be repaired by the district still remaining annexed to it, id. s. 71.

144. In every district, parish, or division of any parish or district, chapel, or consolidated chapelry, in which any church or chapel shall be built under these acts, and in which there is not a distinct vestry belonging to such division, a select vestry, consisting of so many persons as shall be directed by the commissioners, shall be appointed by them with advice of the bishop, out of the substantial inhabitants for management of the concerns of the church, &c.; and such select vestry shall annually elect the church or chapel warden, and shall elect new members of such vestry, as vacancies arise by death, resignation, or ceasing to inhabit the parish, and proper pews shall be provided for the use of the church or chapel warden, 59 G.3. c. 154. s. 70.

145. Every deed, grant, or endowment, for securing a salary to the spiritual person using such church or chapel under this act, shall be enrolled in chancery, and registered in the registry of the diocese, 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 72.

146. Two fit persons shall be appointed to act as churchwardens for every church or chapel, built or appropriated under this act, at the usual yearly period of appointing parish officers, one being chosen by the incumbent, and the other by the inhabitant householders entitled to vote at such election, or who would be entitled, if such extra-parochial place had been a parish; and such churchwardens shall appear, and be admitted, and sworn according to law, shall collect the pew-rents, pay the stipends of the minister and clerk, and do all other lawful acts, as such for repairs, management, good order, and decency of behaviour to be kept in the church or chapel by the congregation, may enter and sell the pew-rents, or sue for and recover them by action, in the names of "The churchwardens of the church or chapel of ————" without specifying their christian or surnames, and without any abatement on account of their death or removal, or going out of office, id. s. 77.

147. Before consecrating any church or chapel under this act, a pew in the ground-floor of the chancel, near to the pulpit, shall be set apart for the minister and his family, with room for at least 6 persons; and other seats for not less than 4 persons for use of his servants, and that the seats to be marked free seats, not being less than 1-5th of the whole, shall be appropriated for the use of the poor for ever, without any rent payable on any of the herein above recited pews or seats, 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 75.

148. Subscribers being parishioners, to any church or chapel, built under this act, shall have choice of pews, at rates fixed by the commissioners, in the order of their amount of subscription, and, as to subscribers of the same amount, in the order of their subscription, id. s. 76.

149. All the pews, not being free seats, shall for ever be charged with the yearly rents set opposite to the figures marked on each pew, as set down in a list signed by the commissioners and annexed to the deed of consecration, which said yearly rents shall be paid by the possessors and occupiers to the churchwardens half-yearly on the Monday after Christmas, and on St. John Baptist's Nativity, in the vestry-room, between 9 a. m. and 4 p. m., id. s. 77. and s. 79.

150. The churchwardens, when ordered by the bishop, with consent in writing of the incumbent and the patron, or in any case in which the pew-rents shall have been assigned to the parish, then with the consent of the parish vestry, may alter such yearly rents, in which case a new list thereof, and of the pews on which they are charged, shall be signed by the incumbent, patron, bishop, and churchwardens, and deposited with the deed of consecration, 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 78., 59 G.3. c. 154. s. 31.

151. If the pew-rents are in arrear for 3 months after due, and notice in writing, demanding payment, shall have been given to the owner or occupier, the churchwardens may either enter on, or let the pew to any other person, till the arrears of rent and all costs of recovery thereof shall be duly paid, or otherwise sell the pew by public auction to the best bidder, and deduct the rent in arrear, and the above costs from the proceeds, rendering the overplus to the occupier, or they may recover the same by action of debt, or in use and occupation (as in s. 75.), and no such action shall abate by death, removal, or going out of office, 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 79.

152. No church or chapel wardens of such additional church or chapel shall let or sell any pews or seats, except to parishioners, during the time the latter continue inhabitants of the parish, and every sale thereof shall be subject to the reserved rent fixed according to these acts, and shall be by private contract and not by public auction, and all pew-rents under the act shall be payable in advance, (i. e.) one year's rent on admission to the pew, if given at Lady-day or Michaelmas, or if at any intermediate period, then the proportion of the half-year to those days, as the case may be, and a half-year's rent in advance besides; and thereafter, half-yearly payments shall be made in advance, from either of those days immediately following the taking such pew, and every such pew shall be forfeited and vacant by the discontinuing such payment in advance for two following half-years, 59 G.3. c. 154. s. 32.

153. The commissioners may discharge any subscribers towards building any church or chapel, wholly, or in part, from the payment of pew-rents therein, for a limited time, or for life, in such proportion to the amount of their respective subscription as the commissioners think fit, and may allow any subscriber, on removal from the parish, to assign the remainder of his time to any other parishioner and inhabitant, id. s. 33.

154. All lands, tenements, and hereditaments, acquired by the commissioners under these acts, by gift or otherwise, and remaining unconsecrated at the end of the term of 10 years, in 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 8. mentioned, or at any other determination of the commission, shall be immediately vested in H.M. for application to the uses for which they were acquired, under the direction of H.M. in council, unless other provision is made by parliament, 59 G.3. c. 134. s. 34.

155. No opening in the pavement or soil beneath the same shall be made within any church or chapel, erected under this act, for the purposes of burial therein, and no grave shall be made in any cemetery or churchyard thereto belonging, at less than 20 feet from the external walls of such church, &c.; (but nothing herein extends to prevent burials of dead bodies in vaults, wholly arched with brick or stone under such church, &c., to which the only entrance is from without the same,) on penalty of 50*l.* on conviction before any two justices of the county, which shall be recoverable by levy by distress and sale of offender's goods under their warrant, to go one moiety to the informer, and the other to the use of the poor of the parish, 58 G.3. c. 15. s. 80.

156. Accounts of the number of churches built or building; the stipends of their incumbents or curates; the money expended, and for what purposes, and all other necessary particulars, shall be annually laid before both houses, id. s. 81.

157. The commissioners of stamps under regulation of the treasury, may allow the full amount of stamp-duties on any instruments relating to the purchase or procuring of sites, building any churches, or providing materials for them, 59 G.3. c. 134. s. 35.

158. All such parishes and extra-parochial places as are required by the commissioners, shall furnish lands for enlarging the existing, or for making such additional church-yards or burial-grounds as they think necessary; and as soon as they have fixed on any parish, &c., they shall give notice to the churchwardens (by leaving it at their respective abodes) of their intentions, and of the extent of ground required for that purpose, and for making a good approach thereto, and of the part of the parish, &c. wherein it is required to be provided; the churchwardens shall, in 14 days, call a vestry to take all measures necessary for providing the same; and in case the parish, &c. cannot provide such land without purchase, the vestry shall forthwith treat for a piece of ground and approach according to notice, but shall not conclude any bargain without the commissioner's consent, id. s. 36.

159. All powers of both acts which relate to the grant, sale, conveyance, purchase and resale of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, for the purpose of building additional churches or chapels, or advancing or borrowing money for that purpose, shall extend to the grant, sale, &c. of any lands, &c. which may be necessary for enlarging any church-yard or burial-ground, or for making any new burial-ground, and approaches thereto under this act, id. s. 37.

160. Any piece of land which shall under this act be added to any existing church-yard or burial-ground, or set apart as a new burial-ground, shall be consecrated for the burial of the dead, and shall for ever thereafter be used for that purpose; the freehold thereof, vesting after consecration in the person in whom that of the ancient church-yard or burial-ground is vested, id. s. 38.

161. The commissioners may, if they think fit, alter, repair, pull down, and rebuild the walls or fences of any existing church-yard or burial-ground of any parish or chapelry, and may fence off with walls, or otherwise, any additional or new burial-ground provided, and may also (with consent of any two justices of the county, or place, where, &c. and on receiving notice, as in 55 G.3. c. 68. s. 7, &c.) stop up, discontinue, alter, or vary, any entrances, gates, paths, footways, or passages into, through, or over the same, 59 G.3. c. 134. s. 39.

162. And may pay or lend money for payment of the parliamentary fees of obtaining acts for carrying this act into execution in parishes where special circumstances require them; and all such acts shall be considered public acts, id. s. 41.

163. Commissioners may receive and send free of postage, all letters and packets directed "To H. M.'s commissioners appointed under the act, for the building and promoting the building of additional churches," and all letters, &c. sent by them shall be dated from their office, and signed on the outside by such person as they shall appoint, with consent and under regulations of the treasury, 58 G.3. c. 45. s. 82.

164. No action shall be commenced against any person for things done in pursuance hereof, till after 14 days' notice in writing, given to the secretary of the commissioners, nor after sufficient arrears made or tendered to party grieved, nor after 6 months from the fact committed; and such action shall be brought in the exchequer in Eng. and laid in Middlesex, and not elsewhere; the general issue may be pleaded, giving in evidence this act and the special matter, and that the thing was done in pursuance hereof; and if that should be proved, or any of the above requisites neglected, the jury shall find for the defendant or if plaintiff shall be non-suited, or discontinue, or have verdict against him, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 83.

165. Nothing herein shall invalidate any law or constitution of the church of Eng., or destroy any of the rights of bishops, archdeacons, chancellors or officials (s. 83.), who may exercise ecclesiastical jurisdiction in all parishes erected or divided in pursuance of this act, id. s. 84, 85.

CLERK OF THE PEACE, AND CUSTOS ROTULORUM.

1. FOR REGULATING THE OFFICES OF custos rotulorum, AND CLERK OF THE PEACE, 37 H.8. c. 1. [CONF. 1 W.&M. (S.1.) c. 21. s. 4.]

2. No person shall be appointed custos rotulorum throughout Eng. and Wa., but by bill signed with H.M.'s own hand, which shall be a warrant to the lord chancellor to make a commission, assigning such person to be custos till another is appointed by another bill so signed, which custos shall exercise the office by himself or deputy learned in the laws, according to the tenor of the commission, 37 H.8. c. 1. s. 2., 3 & 4 E.6. c. 1. s. 4.

3. The appointment of the custos rotulorum shall be as directed by 37 H.8. c. 1., 1 W.&M. S.1. c. 21. s. 4.

4. The rights of the archbishop of York, of the bishops of Durham and Ely, and the chancellor of the duchy of Lancaster, and all who have power, by letters patent or statute, to make any of the said officers of custos rotulorum, [or clerk of the peace, 37 H.8. c. 1. s. 5.] in counties palatine or elsewhere, are saved and confirmed, 37 H.8. c. 1. s. 5., 3 & 4 E.6. c. 1. s. 5.

5. The custos rotulorum, or other person to whom it belongs to appoint the clerk of the peace, shall, in case of vacancy in the office, appoint an able person residing in such county or place, to execute the same by himself or sufficient deputy, [approved by the custos, 37 H.8. c. 1. s. 3.] and to take the fees for so long as such clerk of the peace shall well demean himself in his office, 37 H.8. c. 1. s. 3., 1 W.&M. (S.1.) c. 21. s. 5.

6. If a charge in writing of any misdemeanor committed by clerk of the peace be exhibited against him to the quarter sessions, a majority of the justices, on open examination and proof thereof there, may suspend or discharge him from the office; and, in default of appointment of another sufficient person resident in the county or place by the custos rotulorum, to the office of such clerk of the peace, before the next quarter sessions, the latter may appoint to the office, 1 W.&M. (S.1.) c. 21. s. 6.

7. He shall be liable to the penalties herein expressed, and may be discharged (as in s. 5.), id. s. 7.

8. No custos rotulorum, or other person to whom of right it belongs to nominate any clerk of the peace, shall take fee or bond, or assurance for reward, directly or indirectly, for such appointment, on penalty that both the seller and buyer are respectively disabled to hold their offices, and shall each forfeit double the value so given or taken, to be recovered by such as will sue by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, in any court at Westminster, without essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 8.

9. Every clerk of peace shall take the following oath in open session, before entering on duty:

"I, A. B. do swear, that I have not nor will pay any sum or sums of money, or other reward soever, nor given any bond or other assurance to pay any money, fee or profit, directly or indirectly, to any person or persons soever, for such nomination or appointment. So help me God." id. s. 9.

10. Nothing herein shall extend to the clerk of the peace for the duchy and county palatine of Lancaster, who holds his office for lives, by grant from K.C.2., in right of that duchy, id. s. 10.

11. TO ENABLE JUSTICES OF PEACE TO SETTLE THE FEES OF clerks of peace of counties, and other divisions of Eng. and Wa., 51 G.3. c. 91.

12. The justices of Kent and Lancaster, at their annual general sessions, and the justices in every other county, riding, city, town, division, or liberty soever, in Eng. and Wa. at their general quarter sessions, may settle a table of fees and allowances to be taken by the respective clerks of the peace for such county, &c.; which table, when made, shall be subject to the approbation of the next general annual session of the peace for Lancashire and Kent, and at the then next quarter sessions of every other such county, &c. respectively, or at some adjournment thereof, and when so approved, shall be laid before the judges of assize for their approbation, at the next assizes for such counties, &c. respectively, except in counties where assizes are not regularly holden every year, and then at the assizes to which prisoners are removed for trial from such places, and except the counties of Chester and of Wa., and before the justices of great session for Wa. and Chester; and the fees allowed by the table as approved or altered by the judges, shall be the only fees, but the justices may appoint a new table to be approved, &c. as above, id. s. 1.

13. Every clerk of the peace taking greater fees than are thus allowed, shall, for every offence, forfeit 5*l.* to any person suing for the same, by debt, bill, plaint or information, in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 2.

14. Printed or written copies of such table of fees shall be hung up in some conspicuous part of every room or place wherein any general or quarter-sessions are held, and every clerk of the peace neglecting the same, shall forfeit 5*l.* for every such offence, recoverable as in s. 2, 37 G. 3. c. 91. s. 3.

17. Actions under this act shall be brought within 3 calendar months from the offence, id. s. 1.

CLOCKS AND WATCHES.

1. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY preventing frauds and abuses committed by persons employed in the manufacture of clocks and watches, 27 G. 2. c. 7.

2. Every person employed by any person practising the trade of clock or watch making, or any branch thereof, to make, finish, alter, repair, or clean any clock or watch, or any part of a clock or watch, or entrusted by any person practising the said trade, with any gold, silver, or other metal or material, to be, or that shall be, in the whole or in part, wrought for any part of a clock or watch, or any precious stone set or to be set in or about any clock or watch, who shall purloin, embezzle, secrete, sell, pawn, exchange, or otherwise unlawfully dispose, of any such goods, and is convicted by oath of the owner, or any other witness, or by confession before any justice or justices, shall, for the first offence, forfeit 20*l.*; and in case the forfeiture be not forthwith paid, the justice shall commit the party convicted to the house of correction or other public prison, to be kept to hard labour for 14 days, unless such forfeiture be sooner paid; and if within 2 days before the expiration of the 14 days, such forfeiture be not paid, shall order him to be publicly whipped; and for a subsequent offence the offender shall forfeit 40*l.*, which if not forthwith paid, such justice shall commit him to the house of correction or other public prison, to hard labour, for not exceeding 3 months, nor less than one, unless the forfeiture be sooner paid; and if within 7 days before expiration of the time for which such offender is committed, the forfeiture be not paid, shall order him publicly to be whipped twice or oftener, id. s. 1.

3. Every person who shall buy, receive, or take by way of gift, pawn, or exchange, or in any other manner, any clock or watch, or any part of a clock or watch, or any gold, silver, or any other metal or material as aforesaid, wrought or not wrought, or any precious stone entrusted with any person hired or employed as aforesaid, knowing the same to be so purloined and embezzled, shall, being convicted as in s. 1, for the first offence forfeit 20*l.*; and if not forthwith paid, the justice shall commit the convict to the house of correction or other public prison, to hard labour for 14 days, unless the forfeiture be sooner paid; and if within 2 days before the expiration of the said 14 days, the forfeiture be not paid, shall order him to be publicly whipped once, or oftener, as appears reasonable; and in case of a like subsequent offence, the offender, being convicted, shall forfeit 40*l.*, which, if not forthwith paid, the justice shall commit him to the house of correction or other public prison, to hard labour, for not exceeding 3 months nor less than one, unless the forfeiture be sooner paid; and if within 7 days before expiration of the time for which such offender is committed, the forfeiture is not paid, shall order him to be publicly whipped twice or oftener; which forfeitures, when recovered, after satisfaction thereof to the party injured, with such costs as are adjudged by the justice, shall be applied to the use of the poor of the parish where the person convicted resides, id. s. 2.

4. Every person so convicted of purloining, &c. (as in s. 1.) or of receiving, &c. (as in s. 2.) any of the goods before-mentioned, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions, and the execution of the judgment shall be suspended, on his entering into a recognizance at the time of conviction, with 2 sureties, in double the sum adjudged to be forfeited, on condition to prosecute such appeal with effect, and to be forthcoming to abide the judgment of the sessions; which recognizances the justice before whom conviction had, shall take; and the sessions shall finally determine the appeal, and award costs to be paid by either party; and if the judgment be affirmed, such appellant shall immediately pay the sum adjudged, with costs, or in default shall suffer the pain inflicted upon persons who neglect to pay the forfeitures, id. s. 3.

5. The justice of peace before whom any person shall be convicted shall cause such conviction to be drawn up thus, id. s. 4.

Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the — year of to wit, — H. M.'s reign, A. B. was convicted before me (or us) — of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the said county of — or for the riding (or division) of the said county of — or for the city, liberty, or town of — in the said county of — [as the case shall be], of purloining, embezzling, secreting, selling, pawning, exchanging, or unlawfully disposing of, or of buying, receiving, or taking to pawn, [as the case shall happen to be], — [specifying the respective goods, materials, or effects], the property of C. D. of — in the county of —. Given under my hand and seal [or, our hands and seals] the day and year aforesaid.

which conviction shall not be removeable into K. B. by certiorari; and the convicting justice shall cause the same so drawn up, to be fairly written on parchment, and transmitted to the next general or quarter-session of the peace, for the county, city, or place wherein such conviction was had, to be filed among the records thereof; and in case of an appeal (as in s. 3.), the sessions on recovering the conviction so drawn up shall proceed to determine the matter of such appeal according to s. 3., 27 G. 2. c. 7. s. 4.

6. Any one justice on complaint on oath of any offence committed against this act within his jurisdiction, shall issue his warrant to apprehend and bring the accused before him, or any other like justice, who shall determine the matter of such complaint, and proceed to conviction and judgment thereon, id. s. 5.

COALS.

1. WHEREAS THE KEELS AT Newcastle which ought to be of 20 chalders burden, being made of 22 or 23 chalders, the custom of 2*d* a chalders to the king upon sea-coals sold to people not free there has been taken according to the burden of 20 chalders; such keels shall be measured by H. M.'s commissioners, and marked of what burden they are, on pain of forfeiture, 9 H. 5. s. 1. c. 10.

2. Commissioners shall, from time to time, be appointed by H. M. for measuring and marking keels, boats, carts, and wains, used for carriage of coals in the port of Newcastle, and places to the said port belonging, by the bowl-tub of Newcastle, containing 22 gallons and a pottle Winchester-measure, and being 27 inches diameter upon the top from out to out, and allowing 21 bowls heap-measure to each chalders, 30 C. 2. c. 8. s. 2.

3. THE CONTENT of each wain shall be 7 bowls, and of each cart 5 bowls and 1 bushel heaped measure; and 5 wains and 6 carts shall be a chalders; and the coals made use of in such admeasurement shall be moiety dry and the other moiety wet, as accustomed, id. s. 3.

4. THE MAYOR of Newcastle shall administer an oath to every person employed by the commissioners for the admeasuring or marking of boats and keels on the river Tyne, for faithful discharge of trusts; and the commissioners shall administer the like oath to every person appointed for the measuring or marking of boats, keels, wains, or carts, id. s. 5.

5. COMMISSIONERS shall be appointed by the king for measuring and marking all keels, pan-keels, pan-boats, and other boats, wains and carts used for carriage of coals in all places in the counties of Northumberland and Durham; which admeasurement shall be by a dead weight of lead or iron, or as seems meet to 3 of the commissioners, allowing 53 cwt. to every chalders of coals, 6 & 7 H. 7. c. 10. s. 2.

6. The weight of coals carried by such wains shall be 174 cwt., by every such cart 84 cwt.; and 5 such wains or 6 carts shall be reckoned at 1 chalders, and no other wains shall be admeasured or marked, but such as carry coals to the staiths, id. s. 7.

7. Three days' notice shall be given of the time of the admeasurement, id. s. 4.

8. No keel or boat shall be marked but between 27th March and 29th Sept., nor more marked to carry more than 10 chalders; and keels in the port of Newcastle shall be marked at the New Quay, and in the Wear at Lambton staiths, id. s. 5.

9. All keels, boats, wains or carts, that shall carry coals before admeasured, marked, and nailed, shall be forfeited, with the coals laden upon them, unless by default of commissioners; one moiety to the king, the other to him that shall sue for the same, id. s. 6., and 30 C. 2. s. 1. c. 8. s. 4.

10. If after marking, &c. the mark shall be removed or altered, to frustrate this act, the offender shall, on proof by one witness before one justice, forfeit 10*l.*, to be levied by distress and sale of goods, under 15*l.* warrant; and for want of distress shall be committed for 3 months; one moiety to H. M., the other to the discoverer; and the said keels, boats, &c. to be measured and marked, &c. anew, id. s. 7., and 30 C. 2. s. 1. c. 8. s. 6., but see 31 G. 3. c. 36. s. 4. pl. 41.

11. TO PREVENT COMBINATION OF COAL-OWNERS, lightermen, masters of ships, and others, to advance the price of coals in prejudice of the navigation, trade, and manufactures of this kingdom, and for further encouragement of the coal trade, 9 A. c. 28. [MADE PERF. 1 G. 1. s. 2. c. 26. s. 1. AMD. 28 G. 3. c. 55, which has a Public clause, id. s. 7.]

12. Any number of persons above 5, united in covenants or partnerships for purchasing coals for sale, or for making regulations for carrying on the coal trade, is an unlawful combination to advance the price of coals, punishable by indictment or information in K. B., 28 G. 3. c. 55. s. 2.

13. All contracts between any coal-owners, lightermen, fitters, masters, or owners of ships, crimps, coal-factors, or other persons concerned in the coal-trade, or engrossing coals, or restraining any persons from freely selling, buying, loading, or unloading, navigating, or disposing of coals, are illegal and void; and if any person shall be concerned therein, or shall keep up any office or place for managing thereof, as party to, or as interested in the same, or shall act thereon as clerk, agent, or servant to the persons contracting, &c. he shall forfeit viz. every coal owner, 100*l.*, every fitter, 50*l.*, and every master or owner of a ship, clerk, agent, &c. 20*l.*, 9 A. c. 58. s. 1. [MADE PERF. 1 G. 1. s. 2. c. 26. s. 1.]

14. Every fitter, or other person vending coals, shall give a certificate to every ship-master every voyage, signed by him, containing the day and year of loading, the master's and ship's name, and quantity, and names of the collieries out of which the coals are gotten, and the price paid by the master for every sort of coals; which certificate, on arrival in the port of London, or other delivering port, shall be registered, and if in London, then at the cockpit-office: if at any other port, then at the custom-house with the keeper of the cockets, with 6d. for, to which register any may have recourse without fee; and the person refusing to make such certificate, or making a false one, or any master of a ship knowingly giving a false certificate to be registered, or who shall not within 48 hours after entry of his ship at the custom-house in London, or other delivering port, give in his certificate to be registered; or if the person who ought to register it, shall neglect it 24 hours after delivery of the certificate, or shall make a false entry thereof, or shall refuse to show the certificate and register to any person coming at the usual office-hours, he shall pay 10*l.*, 9*s.* c. 28. s. 2.

15. If any lighterman, master of a ship, crimp, coal-factor, or other person dealing in coals, or otherwise concerned in the coal trade, shall receive any salary or reward from any coal-owner, fitter, master of a ship, &c. (as in s. 1.) or for the dispatch, delivery or disposal of coals before any other, or shall knowingly sell coals for a sort they are not, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 3.

16. If any person guilty of those offences shall, within 3 months after the offence committed, make discovery of any coal-owner, or fitter, their officer or servant, or of any master of a ship, lighterman, crimp, coal-factor, or other person concerned in the coal trade, so as they be convicted of any of the said offences, such discovery shall be discharged of the penalties, and shall have the same benefit for his information as any other person, by virtue of this act, id. s. 4.

17. If more than 50 ships laden with coal shall continue either in the port of Newcastle, or in any other port between that and London, above 7 days, unless unloaden, or prevented by wind or weather, or for want of convoy, repairs, or some other unavoidable cause, every master of every ship shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 5.

18. Any ship-master, whose ship is laden with coals only, and has given bond to deliver them in some port of G. B., may on producing his coast-cocket, and making oath before an officer of customs of the quantity of coals (not being less than expressed in the cocket) pay the over-sea duty, and shall have a certificate of such duty paid; which being given into the custom-house of the port where such coals were laid aboard, shall discharge the coast-bond, id. s. 6.

19. If any crimp, husband, agent, or factor for any shipmaster importing coals in London, shall sell to his own agents, partners, or servants, or to any other in trust for him, the coals, &c. intrusted with him to sell, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 7.

20. Every fitter or other person loading coals on any ship in Newcastle, Sunderland, Scorton-slucce, or Blythe-nook, in any keel, cart, or wain, not gauged or marked, shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 8.

21. No owner of any coal-mine in Northumberland, Durham, or town and county of Newcastle upon Tyne, or his overmen, staitmen, fitter, or agent, shall knowingly set on work any overman, pitman, labourer, &c. or other person, agreed with, hired, or actually employed by another coal-owner in the said coal trade in any coal-mines in the said counties, during such retainer, and his wages paid, or knowingly keep such person, on forfeiture of 5*l.* for every 6 days, id. s. 9.

22. Any person thus retained, whose wages shall not be paid 14 days after due, may be hired by any other person, id. s. 10.

23. The penalties in this act shall be one moiety to the crown, the other to the prosecutor, within 3 months after offence committed, to be recovered in the courts at Westminster, with costs by action of debt or information, with no essoin, and but one imparlance, id. s. 11.

24. THE COAL-BUSHEL shall be round, with a plain bottom, and be 19½ from out to out, and shall contain one Winchester bushel and one quart of water, according to the standard cavities by 15*W. 3. c. 5. s. 28.* [See id. WEIGHTS.] and all sea-coals and culm, chargeable with duties by Winchester measure, shall be chargeable, sold and measured, by the chalden, containing 36 such bushels heaped, under like penalties, 12*A. st. 2. c. 17. s. 11.*

25. The treasury shall cause a bushel to be made of brass, of the dimensions aforesaid, to be sealed and kept in the exchequer, id. s. 12.

26. EVERY PERSON who shall wilfully and maliciously set on fire, or cause to be set on fire, any mine, pit, or delph of coal, or cannel-coal, shall on conviction be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death as in cases of felony, without clergy, 10*G. 2. c. 32. s. 6.* [MADE PERP. 31*G. 2. c. 42. s. 6.*]

27. Every person who shall unlawfully, wilfully, and maliciously divert, or convey, or cause to be diverted, &c. water into any coal-work, mine, or pit soever, or into any subterraneous cavities soever, or make any of the latter with design thereby to destroy or damage any coal-work, &c. or shall wilfully, &c. destroy or obstruct any sough or sewer (used in common for 50 years) made for draining the same, or shall attempt, continue, or aid and assist any such mischievous practice, shall pay treble damages to the party grieved, with full costs, to be sued for and recovered by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in any court of record at Westminster, 13*G. 2. c. 21. s. 1.*

28. Nothing herein shall hinder the owner of any such sough or drain from destroying or otherwise lawfully disposing thereof, id. s. 2.

29. FOR ADMEASURING WAGGONS AND OTHER CARRIAGES used in loading coals on board ships at the several ports of this kingdom, in the same manner as at Newcastle and Sunderland, 15*G. 3. c. 27.*

30. H. M. by commission out of exchequer in Eng. or Scot., may appoint commissioners for admeasuring and marking all keels, boats, waggons, barrows, carts, and coups, and all other vessels or carriages soever, used in the carriage of coals, in order to be laden on board any vessel for exportation, or to be carried coastwise from any port or place of this realm, under 6 & 7*W. 3. c. 3.*, which commissioners, or 3 of them shall cause all such keels, &c. so used at every other port in this kingdom, to be admeasured, weighed, numbered, and marked, at such times and places, and by such persons as they shall direct, viz. all keels, &c. used as aforesaid in the carriage of coals usually sold by the chalden, shall be measured with good middling coals, by the coal bushel, made round, with a plain bottom 19½ from outside to outside, and to contain one Winchester bushel and one quart of water, according to the standard in 15*W. 3. c. 3.*, and see 12*A. st. 2. c. 17. s. 11.* allowing 56 bushels to one chalden; and all keels, &c. used as aforesaid in the carriage of coals usually sold by weight, shall be measured by the ton, containing 20*cwt.* each cwt. containing 112*lbs.* avoirdupois; and every wagon, cart, coup, or other land carriage, so admeasured, shall be numbered, marked, and nailed on the head and each side thereof; and each keel, boat, or other water carriage used in the carriage of coals usually sold by weight, shall be admeasured by a dead weight of lead or iron, at 20*cwt.* per ton; and every keel, &c. used in the carriage of any coals, by water, whether usually sold by the chalden or by weight, so admeasured, shall be numbered, marked, and nailed on each side of the stem and stern and midship thereof, or as the commissioners shall direct, to denote what quantity of coals each carriage will carry up to the mark set thereon; and the duties upon coals shall be paid according to the quantity such keels, &c. shall contain up to the mark set thereon, 15*G. 3. c. 27. s. 1.*

31. The commissioners, or 3 of them, shall give 3 days' notice of the time and place of such admeasurement to the owners of keels, &c. and if, after such notice, any keel, &c. shall be employed as in s. 1. before the same shall be measured, numbered, marked, and nailed as aforesaid, such keel, &c. with the coals laden thereon, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by an officer of customs, id. s. 2.

32. In case after admeasuring, numbering, marking, and nailing of any keel, &c. the number or mark set thereon, or any part thereof, shall be removed or altered, such keel, &c. and the coals (if any) laden thereon, shall be forfeited, and may be seized; and the owner, and every person privy to the offence, and convicted on the evidence of one witness, before one justice, shall forfeit 10*l.*; to be levied upon his goods by distress and sale thereof, by warrant of such justice; and for want of sufficient distress, the owner and person convicted, shall, by like warrant, be committed to the common gaol for 3 months without bail, unless the penalty paid before, id. s. 3.

33. Any officer of customs appointed to take an account of the quantity of any coals, culm or cinders, shipped on board any vessel at any port in this kingdom for exportation, or carrying coastwise to any port in G. B., may enter and remain upon any wharf, &c. from whence such coals, &c. are laden, or intended to be laden; and every person opposing him in the execution of his duty, shall forfeit 100*l.*, id. s. 4.

34. The penalties (after deducting costs of seizure and recovery) shall be divided in moieties to H. M. and officer of the customs who shall seize or sue; and (except where otherwise directed in this act) shall be sued for in the exchequer in Eng. or Scot., id. s. 5.

35. The principal officer of customs, at every port where any keels, &c. shall be measured and marked, shall register in a book, the time and place of so doing, with the dimensions and name of their owners, and the quantity of coals each keel, &c. will hold and carry up to the mark set thereon; and every person appointed to measure, mark, and nail such keels, &c. or to take an account of the quantity of coals laden there from on board any vessel, shall take an oath before such principal officer for faithful discharge of his duty as may be directed by the customs, id. s. 6.

36. Actions for any thing done in pursuance hereof shall be commenced in the exchequer only in Eng., or in the court of session or exchequer in Scot., within 4 months. In Eng. defendant may plead the general issue; and if plaintiff is nonsuit, or discontinues after appearance, or has judgment against him on verdict or demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs; and in Scot. the court of session or exchequer shall allow the defendant to plead this act on his defence, and if judgment is given against the pursuer, &c. defendant shall have full costs of suits, id. s. 7.

37. TO PREVENT KEELS, PAN-KEELS, PAN AND OTHER BOATS, and wains and carts, being used in removal or carriage of coals, after having undergone any alterations or repairs, without being first inspected, re-admeasured, marked and nailed, 51 G.3. c.36.

38. If any keel, pan-keel, or boat, pan or other boat, wain or cart, used in the carriage of coals to any place mentioned in 6 & 7 W.3. c.10. s.2. [ante, pl.5.], shall, after they have been duly admeasured, marked and nailed, according to that act, be repaired or altered to carry any greater or less quantity of coals than before; or if any of the nails are removed, so that the loading cannot be ascertained as usual, the same shall not be again used till inspected and re-admeasured, marked and nailed according to that act, on penalty of forfeiture thereof, with the coals laden thereon, id. s.1.

39. Owners of keels, &c. (as in s.1.) so altered, whether by accident or otherwise, or repaired, so that the true loading cannot be ascertained in the usual way, or where any fresh nails or marks are necessary to denote it, shall, if they intend to use such keels, &c. again, give notice in writing to 3 or more of the commissioners under 6 & 7 W.3. c.10. (of whom two shall be principal officers of customs), of their intention so to use the same; and the latter, within 24 hours after its receipt, shall give 3 days' notice of the time and place for re-admeasuring, &c. the same, id. s.2.

40. If any such marks or nails are removed by accident, and without intention of fraud after such keel, &c. (as in s.1.) is laden, then such keel, &c. may unload notwithstanding this act, id. s.3.

41. Every person removing, defacing or destroying the marks or nails placed on such keels, &c. (as in s.1.) or causing the same to be done, and convicted thereof before any justice on the oath of one witness, shall forfeit from 40s. to 5*l.*, or in default thereof shall be committed to the nearest house of correction for any time from 7 days to one month, id. s.4. [and see the penalty given, 6 & 7 W.3. c.10. s.7. [50 C.2. st.1. c.8. s.6. pl.10.]

42. TO EXTEND THE PROVISIONS of 12 G.1. c.34. (ss. 2. 5.) and 22 G.2. c.27. [s.12. in part] against payment of labourers in goods or by truck, and to secure their payment in the lawful money of this realm, to labourers employed in the collieries, or in the working and getting of coal in the U. K., and for extending the provisions of those acts to Scot. and Ire., 57 G.3. c.122.

43. All the provisions of 12 G.1. c.34. [viz. ss. 2. 5.] to facilitate labourers in the woollen trade recovering their wages, as well as those imposing a penalty on masters paying labourers in goods, shall be extended to persons employed in collieries, and in working and getting coal in U. K., and all the powers and penalties therein for those purposes contained, are extended to parties concerned or connected with coal-works, id. s.2.

44. The provisions of 12 G.1. c.34. and of 22 G.2. c.27. are extended to Scot. and Ire., id. s.3.

32. TO ENABLE treasury to allow out of the coinage duty a certain sum for expenses of prosecuting offenders against the coin laws above the sum yearly allowed for that service, 12 G.3. c.52. [Similar act, 16 G.3. c.46. (EXP.)]

33. FOR APPLYING a certain sum of money for calling in and re-coining the deficient gold coin of this realm, and for regulating the manner of receiving the same at the bank of Eng., and of taking there an account of the deficiency thereof, and making satisfaction for the same, and for authorizing all persons to cut and deface all gold coin not allowed to be current by H. M.'s proclamation, 14 G.3. c.70. [Semb. Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. IT SHALL BE cried through the realm, that no man, on grievous forfeiture, dispend or receive money of other coin than of the king of Eng., of Ire., and of Scot., 20 E.1. Stat. de Monetâ. st. 1. c. 1. s. 1.

2. None shall bring money into this country but for his expences, nor arrive in Eng. but at common ports; and he shall show his money to him that shall be assigned by H. M. without concealment, on pain of forfeiture of body and goods, id. s. 2.

3. On the same forfeiture, no man shall send money in bales or other manner whereof suspicion may be of concealment; and if any such be found, the person shall have 4*d.* of the £., and H. M. the rest, id. s. 3.

4. If any find money of other coin, he shall pierce the same, on pain of grievous forfeiture; and he which findeth the same false shall break the same; the pierced money shall be given to him who owneth it, and the false money broken without restoring; and the body of him in whose hands false or clipped money appeareth, shall be taken until surety found, id. s. 4. [and see 6 & 7 W.3. c.15., &c. post.]

5. He which ought to receive or pay money shall receive and pay the same by weight of 5*s.* by the tumbrel delivered by the warden of the exchange, marked with H. M.'s mark; and any man may pierce money which shall not weigh the tumbrel, and the money of other coin, id. s. 5.

6. The weights shall be as well marked by the warden of the exchange as the tumbrel, id. s. 6.

7. The viewier and warden of money shall weigh it, and if the pound of new money weigheth not 20*s.*, and if money which is much used, in the pound wants but 6*d.*, it shall be delivered to the bringer, and if it want more, shall be done as of the rest, id. s. 7.

8. NONE SHALL BRING POLLARDS, crockards, &c. into the realm, on forfeiture of life and goods; but all people may safely bring to the exchange all money of good silver, of whatsoever foreign coin. And strict guard shall be kept upon the coasts and at the ports, by lawful jurats, who shall arrest those that bring bad money, and send them to whom H. M. shall appoint. And the commonalty of every port shall elect two good men of the same port, for whom they will answer, who, with the bailiffs of the ports, shall arrest and search all that arrive, and shall send the bodies of such as bring false money to the chief prison of the county. And the wardens shall send the money to H. M.'s great exchange, and answer for their other goods at the exchequer. And all that bring sterling into the realm, shall put them under the seals of the wardens of the ports, who shall send them to the next assayers; and if they be found false, the bodies of those that bring them shall be in H. M.'s will. None shall sell or send out of the realm, wool, leather, skins, lead, or tin, but for good sterling, or for silver plate assayed and marked at H. M.'s great exchange, or in exchange of good and lawful merchandize; and if any do otherwise, and be thereof attaint by the said wardens or other H. M.'s ministers, the thing so sold, &c. shall be forfeited. No silver coin or plate shall be carried out of the realm without H. M.'s special leave, under the pain aforesaid. The wardens shall swear before the sheriffs, or before their chief wardens, where they are not answerable to the sheriffs, that they shall, without negligence, do what belongs to their office. If they release any for gift or for favour, or otherwise, and be thereof attaint, they shall forfeit life and all that they have. All who bring money out of the dominion of the king of France, shall carry it to the table at Doer, and receive current money of this realm; and if they be found with it elsewhere, the same shall be forfeited, 27 E.1. st.3. Stat. de Falsâ Monetâ.

9. NO MAN shall carry any sterling out of the realm, nor silver in plate, nor vessel of gold nor silver, on pain of forfeiture of money, plate, or vessel, without licence, 9 E.3. st.2. c.1.

10. NO FALSE money shall be brought into the realm, upon forfeiture thereof, but all people may safely bring to the exchanges, bullion, silver in plate, vessel, and money of silver, 9 E.3. st.2. c.2., 27 E.3. st.2. c.11.

11. BLACK MONEY shall not be current in this realm, 9 E.3. st.2. c.4.

12. EVERY MAN suing for H. M. against offenders against this statute, shall be received, and shall have the 4th penny of the sum recovered, 9 E.3. (st.2.) c.5.

13. THE MAYOR, &c. in every port shall take an oath of the merchants and masters of ships that they commit no fraud against this statute, id. c. 6.

14. SEARCH shall be made, by lawful men thereto sworn, that no man [carry out of our realm gold or silver plate, or money, Rep. 59 G.3. c.49. st.11—12.] bring into our realm any false money, or counterfeit sterling on the above pains, and that the money so forfeited shall be delivered to our exchanges by indenture, whereof one part shall remain with the searchers, and the other shall be delivered at exchequer, whereby the warden of exchanges shall be charged with what he has received, id. c. 9.

15. SEARCHER shall have the 4th penny of all such seizures, and if attainted of making release, or dispensing with any, shall forfeit their goods, id. c. 10.

16. THE INNKEEPERS in every port shall be sworn to search their guests, as in c. 9., and shall have the 4th penny of all seizures by them made, and the searchers may search the inns, and inform themselves of the acts of the innkeepers, who shall, on their default, be subject to the above forfeitures, 9 E.3. st.2. c.11.

17. MONEY SHALL be made of good sterling in Eng. of weight and alloy of ancient sterling, and shall be current in Eng. [It shall not be carried out of the realm, Rep. 59 G.3. c.49. s.11.] Flemings silver money, of such good sterling, shall be current in Eng., 17 E.3. c.1. s.1.

18. NONE SHALL BE so hardy as to import false money, upon pain to forfeit life and member, id. s. 2., 27 E.3. (st.2.) c.14.

19. Searchers shall have the third part of all false money which they find importing [and of good money passing out of the realm, Rep. 59 G.3. c.49. s.11.]; and if negligent in making searches, their lands, &c. shall be seized into H. M.'s hands, and their bodies taken until they make fine to H. M.; and in case they assent to importing false for exporting, good, Rep. 59 G.3. c.49. s.11. money or silver, they shall have judgment of life and member, id. s. 5.]

20. TO COUNTERFEIT H. M.'s money [viz. gold and silver coin only, 1 East. P. C. 159.] is treason, 25 E.3. (st.5.) c.2.

21. TO FORGE or counterfeit gold or silver coin, current in this realm by consent of H. M. is high treason, 4 & 5 H.7. c.18. [semble in force notwithstanding, 1 M. (st.1.) c.1.] and 1 M. (sess.2.) c.6. [and see Treason, infra.]

22. EVERY MAN may exchange gold and silver for each other, but none except H. M.'s exchangers shall take profit by making such exchanges, 25 E.3. st.5. c.12. [H. C. and Exp. 5 & 6 E.6. c.19.]

23. If any person shall exchange any coined gold, silver, or money, receiving or paying any more in value, profit, or advantage for it, than the same is declared by royal proclamation to be current for in this realm, and other H. M.'s dominions, all such coined gold, &c. so exchanged shall be forfeited, and the offenders imprisoned for a year, with fine at H. M.'s pleasure, one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party who shall seize the same, or will sue for it by bill, original action of debt, or information, in any court of record without essoin, &c. allowed, 5 & 6 E.6. c.19. s.2. [and see 51 G.3. c.127. against accepting gold coin of the realm for more than its current value.]

24. PLATE OF gold and silver shall be received into H. M.'s mint by weight, and so shall the money be returned and net by number, 25 E.3. st.5. c.20. [and see 18 C.2. c.5. infra.]

25. Merchants may carry within the realm silver and gold, and money of gold and silver, to our bullion and staples, taking there money of our coin; and if any will take good money of gold and silver of other coin than ours, they may do so, provided that no foreign coin be current in Eng., 27 E.3. st.2. c.14. [rest of the act is against exportation of money, and is Rep. by 59 G.3. c.49. s.11.]

26. FOR PREVENTING the [melting of English, and the] currency of foreign money, 17 R.2. c.1. [Rep. as to melting English money by 59 G.3. c.49. s.11.]

27. No gold or silver money of Scot., nor of lands beyond sea, shall be current in Eng., but shall be brought to the bullion to be changed for English coin, on pain of forfeiture and fine, id. s. 1. [s. 2. against sending English money into Scot. Rep. 59 G.3. c.49. s.11.]

28. IT SHALL BE treason to clip, wash, or file money of the realm. 3 H.5. (st.2.) c.6. [Rep. 1 M. (S.1.) c.1. see 5 El. c.11. s.1. REV. and AND. 5 El. c.11. ENF. 18 El. c.1. s.1. and see 6 & 7 W.3. c.17. infra.]

29. CLIPPING, WASHING, rounding, or filing, for gain's sake, any lawful coins of this realm, or its dominions, or of the monies of any other realm, allowed by proclamation to be current here, is treason, and the offenders shall, on conviction, suffer death, and lose their goods and chattels, and profits of their lands, during their natural lives, 5 El. c.11. s.2. (and see recital in s. 1.)

30. Every person, who for gain's sake, shall, by any means soever, impair, diminish, scale, or lighten the proper coins of this realm, or its dominions, or those of any other realms, allowed by H. M.'s proclamation to be current in Eng., or its dominions, at the time of the offence committed, and the offenders, their counsellors, and aiders, are guilty of treason, and on conviction shall suffer death with forfeitures, (as in 5 El. c.11. s.2.) 18 El. c.1. s.1.

31. All persons having lawful grant of the forfeiture of lands, tenements, goods, or chattels of offenders, and men attainted of high treason, within any manor, lordship, town, parish, hundred, or precinct, within Eng. or Wa., may take, seize, and enjoy the same, where they are incurred by convictions under this act, 5 El. c.11. s.5.

32. No attainer, under either act, shall make corruption of blood to any heirs, or take away dower from the wives of offenders, 5 El. c.11. s.4., 18 El. c.1. s.2.

33. Every lord of parliament, or peer of the realm, indicted for any offence made treason by these acts, shall be tried by their peers, as in high treason, 5 El. c.11. s.5., 18 El. c.1. s.3.

34. WHAT JUSTICES SHALL HAVE AUTHORITY to hear and determine the offences of falsifying of money, 3 H.5. (st.2.) c.7. [AND. virtually, 22 H.8. c.9. s.2.]

35. The justices assigned to take assizes, shall have power to hear and determine, as well of the counterfeiting and bringing false money into the realm, as of clipping, washing, and all other falsity thereof, [and of counterfeiting any foreign coin, suffered to be current in this realm by H. M.'s consent, 22 H. 8. c. 9. s. 2.] and may enquire of such matters, and thereupon make process by capias only against those thereof indicted, 3 H. 5. S. 2. c. 7.

36. Justices of peace in every shire, city, or town corporate, shall have full power in their sessions to enquire, from time to time, [of such traitors and murders, viz. by poisoning, REP. 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 2.] of counterfeiting coin of any outward realm, suffered to go within this realm by H. M.'s assent, and may make process therein by capias only, 22 H. 8. c. 9. s. 2.

37. NONE SHALL RECEIVE GOLD in payment but by H. M.'s weight, 9 H. 5. (S. 1.) c. 11.

38. H. M.'s council may assign money to be coined in as many places as they will, 1 H. 6. c. 1.

39. FOR PUNISHING THE BRINGING IN OF COUNTERFEIT FOREIGN coin, being current within this realm, 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 11.

40. All persons, who shall knowingly bring from parts beyond the sea into this realm, or any of its dominions, any foreign counterfeit coin, being current in this realm, with intent to utter the same therein, by merchandizing or otherwise, shall, with all their counsellors and abettors in that behalf, be deemed offenders in high treason, and on conviction, shall suffer such pains of death and forfeiture of lands, goods, and chattels, as in high treason, 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 11. ss. 1, 2. [and see 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 18. &c. ante, pl. 21.]

41. Offenders shall be indicted, prosecuted, and tried by the like evidence and methods as was used at any time before 1 E. 6. id. s. 3.

42. AGAINST FORGING AND COUNTERFEITING FOREIGN COIN CURRENT within this realm, 14 EL. c. 3.

43. Every person who shall falsely forge or counterfeit any coin of gold and silver, not being the proper coin of, nor permitted to be current within this realm, is guilty of misprision of high treason, and, on conviction, shall be imprisoned, and forfeit his land and goods, as in cases of misprision of treason for concealment of high treason, 14 EL. c. 3. s. 1.

44. TO PREVENT THE BRINGING INTO THIS REALM, OR UTTERING any counterfeit foreign gold or silver coin, 37 G. 3. c. 126. (ss. 2. 9.) [see s. 1. of this statute, infra, pl. 95.]

45. Every person who shall make, coin, or counterfeit any kind of coin, not the proper coin of, or current within this realm, but resembling any gold or silver coin of any foreign prince, state, or country, or to pass as such, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and may be transported for not exceeding 7 years, id. s. 2.

46. Every person who shall bring into this realm any such false or counterfeit coin, resembling, or made with intent to resemble, any gold or silver coin of any foreign prince, state, or country, or to pass as such, is guilty of felony, and may be transported for 7 years, id. s. 3.

47. Every person knowingly uttering, or tendering, giving in exchange, paying, or putting off any such false or counterfeit foreign coin, &c. (as in s. 3.) shall, on conviction, suffer 6 months imprisonment, and find sureties for good behaviour for 6 months more from the end thereof, and on second conviction for like offence, shall suffer 2 years imprisonment, and find like sureties for 2 years from the end of such imprisonment, and on a third offence and conviction, shall be guilty of felony without benefit of clergy, id. s. 4.

48. If any person convicted of uttering or tendering such counterfeit foreign coin, is again guilty of the like offence in any other county, city, or place, the clerks of assize or of peace for the county, &c. where the former conviction was had, shall, at prosecutor's request, certify the same by transcript, in few words, of the tenor and effect thereof, for which a fee of 2s. 6d. only shall be paid, and which certificate shall be good evidence of the former conviction, id. s. 5.

49. Any person having in custody, without lawful excuse, more than five pieces of false or counterfeit foreign coin, &c. (as in s. 3.) shall (on conviction before a justice by oath of one witness) forfeit the same, to be cut in pieces, and destroyed by order of such justice, and shall, for every offence, forfeit from 40s. to 5l. for every such piece of false, &c. coin so found, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence is committed; and in default of payment, the justice may commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for 3 calendar months, or until such penalty is paid, id. s. 6.

50. Any justice, on complaint before him on oath of one person, that there is just cause to suspect that one or more persons have been concerned in counterfeiting such foreign coin, &c. (as in s. 2.) may, by warrant, cause the dwelling and premises of such suspected person, or any other suspected place, to be searched for such false and counterfeit coin, or for the tools or materials for coining the same; and any such coin, tools, or materials, so found on search in the possession of any person not having the same by some lawful authority, shall be seized and carried to a justice of the county, city, or place where seized, who shall secure the same to be produced in evidence against the offender, which coin, tools, &c. after such use made thereof, shall be destroyed by order of the court, or if no trial had, then by order of the justice, 37 G. 3. c. 126. s. 7.

51. No proceedings for conviction of offender against this act before a justice shall be quashed for want of form, or removed by certiorari, or other process into courts at Westminster, id. s. 8.

52. Actions against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced in 3 calendar months from the fact committed, and the same shall be local; and the defendant may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the act complained of was done in pursuance of this act, or if time of limitation is elapsed, or venue is laid in any other county or place than that where the cause of action arose, the jury shall find for defendant; and if defendant has a verdict, or if plaintiff discontinue, is nonsuit, or has judgment against him on demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 8.

53. FOR ENCOURAGING COINAGE, [viz. by coining, gratu, gold and silver bullion brought to the mint,] 18 C. 2. c. 5. ss. 1.—5. [AMD. 8 W. 3. c. 1. s. 3.]

54. Any person who shall bring any foreign coin, plate, or bullion of gold, [or silver, REP. as to silver, 56 G. 3. c. 68. s. 1.] in mass, molten or alloyed, or any sort of gold manufacture into H. M.'s mint, to be there melted and coined into current coin, shall have the same assayed, melted, and coined with all convenient speed, without diminution or charge for the assayer, coinage, or waste therein; so that there shall be delivered out at the rate of 1lb. troy of current standard gold coin for each 1lb. troy of standard gold delivered [and see 56 G. 3. c. 68. s. 13. infra, pl. 124.] 18 C. 2. c. 5. s. 1. [As to the present proportion of silver coin to silver bullion thus delivered to be coined, see 56 G. 3. c. 68. s. 9. infra, pl. 156.]

55. There shall be no preference in point of assay or coinage, but all gold and silver shall be delivered back in order of time as received, [the coinage of gold and silver to be made in distinct accounts, 8 W. 3. c. 1. s. 3. pl. 59.] and if any undue preference be made in entry of bullion or delivering out of coin by any mint-officer, the offender shall be liable by action of debt, or on the case, to pay the value of the gold and silver brought in and not delivered according to this act, with damages and costs to the parties grieved, and shall be forejudged of his office: and if such preference be unduly made by his deputy, without his privity, the latter only shall be liable, and shall be disabled of bearing office in any mint in Eng., 18 C. 2. c. 5. s. 2.

56. It is no undue preference if the mint-officers or their deputies deliver out monies coined to any persons who demand the same on subsequent entries before others who do not demand their monies in their order, so as sufficient money be reserved for the latter, id. s. 3.

57. The master-worker of the mint shall, at the time of the delivery and entry of any gold or silver, give to the bringers a bill under his hand, denoting its weight, fineness, and value, with the day and order of its delivery, id. s. 4.

58. No seizure shall be made in the mint of any gold or silver brought in to be coined, by reason of any embargo, breach of the peace, letters of marque or reprisal, war, or other pretence, but the same shall be delivered out according to this act, id. s. 5.

59. The mint-officer shall set apart one or more mills or presses for coinage of gold, as appointed by 18 C. 2. c. 5. so that the course in coinage of gold and silver be kept in distinct accounts, not interfering with one another; and such coinage and delivery of gold in a distinct course according to the time of its delivery, shall not be accounted an undue preference, though there be silver remaining there uncoined, 8 W. 3. c. 1. s. 3.

60. TO PREVENT COUNTERFEITING AND CLIPPING THE COIN OF THIS kingdom, 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 17. and recital in s. 1. ss. 2—4. 7. 9—12. [AMD. 8 and 9 W. 3. c. 26. s. 8. EXT. to Durham, 14 G. 3. c. 46. s. 1. REP. as to ss. 5, 6. and s. 8. by 1 & 3 G. 4. c. 26. s. 4. infra, pl. 146.]

61. Every person who shall, at one time or payment, exchange, lend, sell, or borrow or buy, receive or pay, any silver money unclipped, for more in tale, &c. or advantage, than the same were coined, and by law ought to go, shall forfeit 10l. for every 20s. so exchanged, &c., and so in proportion for any greater or less sum, to go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the informer, to be recovered with costs, by action of debt, or information, without allowance of privilege, or more than one imparlance, 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 17. s. 2.

62. No person shall cast ingots or bars of silver in imitation of the Spanish bars or ingots of silver, nor stamp the same in likeness of the Spanish marks, on pain of forfeiture of the silver, and 500l., to go one moiety to H. M. and the other to the informer, id. s. 3.

63. Every person who shall buy, sell, or knowingly have in custody, any clippings, or filings of the current coin, shall, for every such offence, forfeit the same, and 500l., one moiety to H. M. and the other to the informer, recoverable (as in s. 1.) with imprisonment till paid, and shall be branded in the right cheek with an hot iron of 'R.' id. s. 4. [This burning in the cheek appears in force; for the like punishment inflicted by 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 25. s. 6. and repealed 5 A. c. 6. s. 1. only applied to persons convicted of theft or larceny; and 19 G. 3. c. 74. s. 3. only gives a power to commute burning in the hand to fine and whipping.]

64. Every broker, not being a trading goldsmith or refiner of silver, who shall buy or sell any bullion, or molten silver, shall suffer 6 months' imprisonment for every such offence, 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 17. s. 7.

65. Whoever shall apprehend any person who has counterfeited, or who, for gain, has clipped, &c. or diminished the current coin, or has brought or caused to be brought into Eng., Wa., or Ber. any clipped or counterfeit coin, and who shall prosecute to conviction, shall receive from the sheriff, without fee, 40*l*.* within one month after conviction, and demand made, by tendering a certificate to the sheriff, under the hands of the judge or justices before whom the offender was convicted; and if any dispute shall arise between the persons apprehending, and those prosecuting such traitors, the judge, &c. shall, in the certificate, appoint the reward to be paid among the parties in what proportions they think fit; and if default of payment is made, the sheriff making default shall forfeit to the person to whom such money is due, double the sum he ought to have paid, to be recovered, with treble costs, by them or their executors, &c. in action of debt or information, with no essoin, and but one imparlance allowed, id. s. 9. [Ext. to Durham, 14 G. 3. c. 46. s. 1.]

66. All sheriffs, on producing such certificates and the receipts for the money, shall be allowed, in their accounts with H. M. all monies (other than the penalties) which they shall so disburse as above without fee, id. s. 10.

67. If on such accounting there is not money sufficient in his hands to reimburse him the sums so paid, he shall have them repaid by the treasury out of the crown revenue, on certificate to that effect from the clerk of the pipe, id. s. 11. [but he is not obliged to pay the money from his own funds, 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 4. tit. SHERIFF.]

68. Any person being out of prison, who is guilty of clipping, coining, counterfeiting, or diminishing the coin, and shall discover two or more like guilty persons, so that they are convicted, shall be pardoned for such previous crimes; and if he be an apprentice, shall be free of his trade, without further service, 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 18. s. 12.

69. Every offence under 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 17. may be determined on indictment or presentment, either in K. B. or before the justices of oyer and terminer, or of assize, or general gaol-delivery, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 26. s. 8.

70. ALL PERSONS MAY FREELY IMPORT INTO THIS KINGDOM GUINEAS and half-guineas, 8 W. 3. c. 1. ss. 1, 2.†

71. FOR BETTER PREVENTING THE COUNTERFEITING THE CURRENT coin of this kingdom, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 26. [CON. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 21. s. 3. 1 A. c. 9. s. 1. MADE PERP. AND AMD. 7 A. c. 25., 15 G. 2. c. 28. s. 1.]

72. No person (except persons employed in H. M.'s mints, for the use of the mints only, or authorized by the treasury) shall knowingly make or mend, or assist in making or mending, any puncheon, counter-puncheon, matrix, stamp, dye, pattern or mould, of steel, or other metal, or of spand, or fine founder's earth, or sand, or other materials, in which there shall be the figure of either side, or flat of any gold or silver coin current; nor shall knowingly make or mend, or assist in the making or mending of any edger or edging-tool, not of common use in any trade, but contrived for marking of money round the edges with letters, grainings, or other marks, resembling those on money; nor any press for coinage, nor any cutting engine, for cutting round blanks by a screw out of flattened bars of gold, silver, or other metal; nor shall knowingly buy, sell, or conceal, or without authority or sufficient excuse, knowingly have in custody any such puncheon, &c., and such offenders, their aiders, and abettors, shall be guilty of high treason, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 26. s. 1.

73. If any person shall, without authority, knowingly convey, or assist in conveying, out of the mint, any puncheon, or other instrument used about the coining monies there, or any useful part of such instruments, the offender, their aiders, or abettors, as also all persons knowingly receiving or concealing the same, shall be guilty of high treason, id. s. 2.

74. If any person (other than the persons employed or authorized, as in s. 1.) shall mark on the edges any current coin or any diminished or counterfeit coin, with letters or grainings like those on the edges of money coined in H. M.'s mint, such offence shall be high treason, and the offenders, their aiders, and abettors, being convicted, shall suffer death as in high treason, id. s. 3.

75. If any person shall colour, gild, or case over with gold or silver, or with any wash or materials producing the colour of gold or silver, any coin resembling the current coin, or any round blanks of base metal, or of coarse gold or silver, of a fit size and figure to be coined into counterfeit milled gold or silver coin of the realm, or shall gild over any silver blanks of a size and figure resembling the current gold coin, such persons, their aiders, &c. shall be guilty of high treason, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 26. s. 4.

76. If any person shall wash, gild, or colour any lawful or counterfeit shilling or sixpence, or add to or alter the impression thereof with intent to make such shilling pass for a guinea, and such sixpence for an half guinea, or shall file or alter, wash or colour any halfpence or farthings, or add to their impression, with intent to make a halfpenny pass for a shilling, or a farthing for a sixpence, he, his aiders and abettors, are guilty of high treason, 15 G. 2. c. 28. s. 1. [Treasons under this section, do not work corruption of blood, or forfeiture of dower, id. s. 4. infra, pl. 89.]

77. If any puncheon (as in s. 1.) or other instrument for coining, &c. gold or silver monies, or any part thereof, shall be hid in any place, or found in the house or possession of any person not employed, as in s. 1. the discoverer shall seize the same, and carry them to some justice to be produced in evidence against any person prosecuted for such offence; and after such production, they shall, by order of court, or in presence of justice, (if there be no trial), be destroyed; and all counterfeit or diminished money produced in evidence shall be cut in pieces and delivered to the owner, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 26. s. 5.

78. Every person who shall blanch copper for sale, or mix it with silver, or knowingly buy, sell, or offer to sale blanch copper alone, or mixed with silver, or any malleable composition of metals, or minerals, which shall be heavier than silver, and look, &c. like standard gold, but be manifestly worse than standard, or who shall receive or pay off any counterfeit or unlawfully diminished milled money at a lower rate than imported by its denomination, is guilty of felony, and on conviction shall suffer death, id. s. 6.

79. Attainder by this act shall not work corruption of blood, or forfeiture of dower; and persons accused of offences made treason, or felony by this act, shall be tried in like manner, and with like evidence, as any offenders for counterfeiting H. M.'s money, id. s. 7.

80. No prosecution shall take place under this act, unless commenced in 3 months after offences committed, (id. s. 9.) but prosecutions for making or mending any coining-tool or instrument, or for marking money round the edges with letters or grainings, may be commenced in 6 months after offence committed, 1 A. S. 1. c. 9. s. 2., 7 A. c. 25. s. 2.

81. TO PREVENT THE FURTHER CURRENCY OF ANY HAMMERED silver coin of the realm, 9 W. 3. c. 2.

82. No hammered silver coin shall be esteemed lawful or current coin in payment at any rate or value soever, either by weight or otherwise, nor shall a tender thereof be good in law, nor a refusal thereof a refusal of so much lawful coin of the kingdom, 9 W. 3. c. 2. s. 1. [rest of statute is Exp.]

83. FOR BETTER PREVENTING THE COUNTERFEITING, CLIPPING, and other diminishing the coin of this kingdom, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 21. [CON. 59 G. 3. c. 49. s. 13.]

84. Every person to whom silver money is tendered, any piece of which is diminished otherwise than by reasonable wearing, or which by the impression, colour, or weight he suspects to be counterfeit, may cut, break, or deface the same, and if it appear counterfeit, the person tendering the same shall bear the loss, but if it be of due weight and lawful money, the person who so cut, &c. it, shall take it at its rate of coinage, and any question whether the piece so cut be counterfeit or not, shall be heard and determined by the chief officer of any city or town corporate where such tender is made, or where made out of such place, by the next justice, and such chief officer, &c. may administer an oath to any person for determining such question, id. s. 1. and see pl. 99.

85. The tellers of exchequer, their deputies and clerks, and the receivers-general of every branch of revenue and taxes, shall cut, break, or deface every piece of counterfeit, or unlawfully diminished silver money tendered in payment to them to the use of H. M. or for any part of his revenue, and shall weigh all silver money by them received, and any such counterfeit, &c. coin shall not be received in exchequer, nor allowed in their accounts, id. s. 2.

86. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING THE UTTERING OR paying of false or counterfeit coin, 15 G. 2. c. 28. ss. 2—5. 7—9. [See s. 1. ante, pl. 76. and s. 6. post, pl. 95. Offences against this act excepted from general pardon, 20 G. 2. c. 52. s. 10.]

87. Every person who shall utter or tender in payment any false or counterfeit money knowing the same to be false, &c. shall, on conviction, suffer 6 months' imprisonment, and find sureties for his good behaviour for 6 months from the expiration of his imprisonment; and for second offence shall suffer 2 years' imprisonment, and find sureties for his good behaviour for 2 years more; for a third offence shall be guilty of felony without clergy, 15 G. 2. c. 28. s. 2.

88. Every person who shall knowingly utter, &c. (as in s. 2.) any false or counterfeit money to any person, and shall on the same day, or

* This reward, and the allowance thereof in the sheriff's accounts, (s. 10.) are Rev. by 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 1. but ss. 2—3. are given at length here, as enactments which must still be acted upon when the court orders a reward to be paid, see 58. G. 3. c. 70. s. 6.

† [Note, by proclamation 22 Dec. 4 G. 1. after stating that guineas had been coined in the mint, at 20*l*. only, they are made current at 21*l*. and so in proportion for any other gold coin.]

in 10 days then next, knowingly utter, &c. any more or other false money, to the same or any other person, or shall at the time of such uttering, &c. have about him in his custody one or more pieces of counterfeit money besides what was so uttered, shall be taken to be a common utterer of false money, and on conviction shall suffer a year's imprisonment, and find sureties for his good behaviour for 2 years more from the end thereof, and for any like subsequent offence shall be guilty of felony without clergy, 15 G. 2. c. 28. s. 3.

89. Persons convicted of any of the herein above-mentioned treasons [See s. 1. ante, pl. 76.] and felonies, shall suffer death as in those cases respectively, but without working corruption of blood, or loss of dower, id. s. 4.

90. The evidence against persons guilty of any of the treasons, [See s. 1. ante, pl. 76.] felonies and crimes aforesaid, shall be the same as now used against offenders for counterfeiting the lawful coin; but all prosecutions for felonies or treasons under this act shall be commenced in 6 months after offence committed, id. s. 5.

91. Whoever shall apprehend any person who has committed any of the above treasons [See s. 1. ante, pl. 76.] or felonies, or who has made or counterfeited any of the copper money aforesaid, and who shall prosecute him to conviction, shall receive (gratis) from the sheriff 40*l.* for every person convicted of any such treason or felony, and 10*l.* for every person convicted of counterfeiting any copper money within 1 month after conviction and demand made, id. s. 7. [The rest of this section is the same as 6 G. 7 W. 3. c. 17. ss. 9, 10. ante, pl. 65—66. and see the note there.]

92. Whoever being out of prison shall commit any of the above offences, and shall afterwards discover two or more persons who shall after the time aforesaid have committed any of the said offences, so that they be thereof convicted, shall be pardoned, id. s. 8.

93. If any person be convicted of uttering, &c. any false, &c. money as aforesaid, and is afterwards guilty of the like offence in any other county or city, the clerk of the assize or of the peace for the county, &c. where such conviction was, shall, at request of prosecutor or of any other on H. M.'s behalf, certify the same by a transcript of the effect and tenor thereof, with a 2*s.* 6*d.* fee, which certificate, when produced in court, shall be sufficient proof of the former conviction, id. s. 9.

94. FOR PREVENTING THE COUNTERFEITING OF THE COPPER COIN of the realm, 15 G. 2. c. 28. ss. 6, 7. [Ext. and Amd. 11 G. 3. c. 40., 37 G. 3. c. 126. s. 1.]

95. Every person, and his procurers, aiders, and abettors, who shall make coin or counterfeit any brass or copper money called a halfpenny or a farthing, [or any other copper coin made current by proclamation, 37 G. 3. c. 126. s. 1.] shall, on conviction, suffer 2 years' imprisonment, and find sureties for good behaviour for two years more, [and shall be guilty of felony, 11 G. 3. c. 40. s. 1.] 15 G. 2. c. 21. s. 6., 37 G. 3. c. 126. s. 1., 11 G. 3. c. 40. s. 1. [The reward for convicting any person guilty of counterfeiting such copper money is 10*l.*, recoverable as in 15 G. 2. c. 28. s. 7. ante, pl. 91. and note there.]

96. Every person who shall buy, sell, take, receive, pay, or put off any counterfeit copper money not melted down or cut in pieces, at a lower rate or value than the same imports by its denomination, or was counterfeited for, is guilty of felony, 11 G. 3. c. 40. s. 2.

97. Any justice, on complaint made before him on oath of one credible person, that there is just cause to suspect that any one or more persons is or hath been concerned in counterfeiting the copper monies of the realm, may by warrant cause the dwelling-house, or other place belonging to such suspected person, to be searched for coining tools, and if such tools are found hid or concealed in any such place, or in the possession of any person not employed in coining in some of H. M.'s mints, or having them by some lawful authority, the discoverer may seize and carry the same to a justice, who shall secure the same, to be produced in evidence against the offender, and after such use thereof, then by order of court, or if no trial, then by order of the justice, they shall be destroyed, id. s. 3.

98. FOR BETTER PREVENTING THE COUNTERFEITING, CLIPPING, and other diminishing the gold coin in this kingdom, 13 G. 3. c. 71.

99. Any person to whom any gold money shall be tendered, any piece whereof is diminished, otherwise than by reasonable wearing, or which by the stamp, colour, or weight thereof, he suspects to be counterfeit, may cut or deface such piece; and if any piece so cut, &c. shall appear to be diminished (otherwise than by reasonable wear), or counterfeit, the person tendering the same shall bear the loss thereof; but if the same is of due weight and appears lawful money, the person that cut, &c. shall receive the same, at the rate of coinage, and if any question shall arise whether the piece be counterfeit or diminished as above, it shall be heard and determined by the mayor, or other chief officer of any city, or town corporate where such tender shall be made; and if made out of any city, &c. then by the next justice of peace, which mayor and justice may administer an oath to any person for determining any questions relating to such piece, id. s. 1.

100. The tellers at the receipt of exchequer, their deputies and clerks, shall cut, break, or deface every piece of counterfeit or unlawfully diminished gold money that shall be tendered in payment to them to the use of H. M., or in respect of any part of the revenue; and shall weigh, in whole sums or otherwise, all gold money by them received, and any piece which shall by weight or otherwise appear counterfeit or unlawfully diminished, shall not be received in the exchequer, nor allowed them in their accounts, 13 G. 3. c. 71. s. 2.

101. TO PROHIBIT THE IMPORTATION OF LIGHT SILVER COIN of this realm from foreign countries into G. B. or Ire., 14 G. 3. c. 42. [Con. 16 G. 3. c. 54. s. 2., 38 G. 3. c. 59. s. 1. Ref. and Amd. PERP. 39 G. 3. c. 75.]

102. No silver coin of the realm, not being of mint standard of weight and fineness may be imported into G. B. or Ire. from foreign countries; and if any coin, being or purporting to be coin of this realm, exceeding 5*l.* in amount, is found by any customs officer on board any vessel, in any port, harbour, haven, or creek, or in any boat or vessel on the water within G. B. or Ire., or in custody of any person coming directly from the waterside, or on the information of searchers, in any house or place, on search made under 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 11. s. 5., or any act in force in Ire. relative to search for uncustomed or prohibited goods there, such officer may stop and place such coin in H. M.'s nearest custom-house warehouse; and if, on examination there, it appear to the principal officer of customs to be of established mint standard in weight and fineness, it shall be delivered to the owner without fee, and no action shall lie against the officer for searching for or detaining the same, 14 G. 3. c. 42. s. 1.

103. FOR REGULATING AND ASCERTAINING THE WEIGHTS TO BE made use of in weighing the gold and silver coin of this kingdom, 41 G. 3. c. 92. [Amd. 15 G. 3. c. 50.]

104. The warden, [office of warden taken away, 57 G. 3. c. 67. s. 1.] master and comptroller of H. M.'s mint, with assistance of assay-master, shall make one-weight of the guinea, and one of the shilling, [Qu. since 56 G. 3. c. 68. s. 4. pl. 131.] according to the established mint standard; and also other weights, parts, and multiples of the guinea and shilling; which weights, together with their report on the accuracy thereof, they shall transmit to the clerk of the council in writing, to be laid before H. M. in council, and when approved of by the latter, they shall be reported the standard weights of the gold and silver coin respectively, and shall be lodged in custody of the warden, master, &c. 14 G. 3. c. 92. s. 1. [and see 57 G. 3. c. 67. tit. Mint.]

105. The officers in s. 1. mentioned, with like assistance, shall make exact duplicates or copies of the said standard weights, and of the parts and multiples thereof; and if any of them shall hereafter by any accident be destroyed, lost, or impaired, they may be replaced in like manner; all which duplicates shall be laid before H. M. in council, (as in s. 1.) and if approved, shall then be lodged by the said officers in custody of an officer to be appointed by H. M. under his sign-manual during pleasure, with a salary not exceeding 250*l.* per annum, out of the comage duties, id. s. 2. [Coinage duties taken away, see 18 C. 2. c. 5. &c. supra, pl. 21., and the salary of 250*l.* is taken away after termination of the existing interest, by 57 G. 3. c. 67. s. 3. tit. Mint.]

106. The officers in s. 1. mentioned may, annually or oftener, by warrant under their hands, require such officer to appear before them and produce such duplicates, and shall examine them with the standard weights in their custody, id. s. 3.

107. All weights to be used for weighing the gold and silver coin shall be regulated by the duplicates of the standard weights lodged in the said officer's hands, and on being found true by comparison therewith, shall in testimony thereof be marked by him with a stamp or mark provided by him, and approved by the master of the mint; and that the impression may be known, the officer shall publish a description thereof, by advertisements in the London Gazette 3 times before 31st Dec. 1774, and shall, without delay, stamp all weights for weighing gold and silver coin offered to him for that purpose at reasonable hours, and found true as above, [at 1*d.* for every 12 weights stamped, 15 G. 3. c. 30., 57 G. 3. c. 67. s. 3.] and no other weights but such as are just according to the weights hereby directed, and marked as above, shall be reputed to be true, or of any effect for determining the weight of the gold or silver coin, 14 G. 3. c. 92. s. 4., 15 G. 3. c. 50., Conf. by 57 G. 3. c. 67. s. 3.

108. Every person who shall counterfeit any stamp to resemble any stamp used in pursuance of this act, or who shall counterfeit the impression thereof on any weight; or who shall utter or sell any such weight with the impression of such counterfeit stamp thereon, knowing the same to be counterfeited; or who shall wilfully increase or diminish such weight after it has been stamped; or who shall make use of any such weight in weighing the gold and silver coin, knowing the same to have been increased or diminished, shall, on conviction before two justices, forfeit not exceeding 50*l.* at discretion of the justices; one moiety to H. M., and the other to him that will inform or sue for same; and on default of payment, the justices may commit him to gaol for not exceeding three months, id. s. 5.

109. Nothing herein shall take away or abridge any rights granted by letters patent, 12 J. 1. to the master, wardens and commonalty of the mystery of foundry in London, and which they may lawfully claim with respect to trying and marking all manner of brass weights made or sold, or kept for sale within London, or 3 miles thereof, 14 G. 3. c. 92. s. 6.

110. The weights in s. 6. which are intended to be used for weighing the gold and silver coin, after having been sized and marked according to the directions of the charter, shall be carried to be ascertained and marked as in s. 4. by the officer therein appointed, id. s. 7.

111. TO PREVENT THE EXPORTATION OF BASE COIN TO H.M.'s colonies in the West Indies and America, 38 G. 3. c. 67.

112. All copper coin soever, not being legal copper coin of this kingdom, and all counterfeit gold or silver coin, made to the resemblance of, or intended to resemble any gold or silver coin, either of this kingdom or of any other country, which shall, under any pretence soever, be exported or put on board any vessel or boat for exportation to the island of Martinique, or any H.M.'s islands or colonies in the West Indies or America, shall be forfeited, and may be seized and recovered in such courts, and by such methods, and the produce thereof applied in like manner as any forfeiture incurred by any law of customs, either in this kingdom, or any of the above colonies, id. s. 1.

113. Every person who shall so export, or put on board any vessel or boat, or shall have in his custody in order to such exportation, any such coin, shall, for every offence, forfeit 200*l.* and double the value of such coin; to be recovered by action or information in any court at Westminster, id. s. 2.

114. FOR PREVENTING THE COUNTERFEITING OF FOREIGN COPPER MONEY, 43 G. 3. c. 139. ss. 3—9. [See rest of this statute, BILLS AND NOTES, pl. 49—51.]

115. Every person who shall, within U.K., make, coin or counterfeit any kind of coin not the proper coin of this realm, nor ordered by royal proclamation to be deemed and taken as current money of this realm, or any part thereof, but resembling, or made with intent to resemble, any copper coin, or other coin made of any metal, or mixed metals of less value than the silver coin of such foreign prince, state or country respectively, or to pass as such, shall be taken to be guilty of a misdemeanor and breach of the peace; and on conviction shall, for the first offence, be imprisoned for not exceeding one year; and for the second, shall be transported for 7 years, id. s. 3.

116. No person against whom any bill of indictment is found at any assizes or sessions, for any offence against this act, shall traverse the same to any subsequent assizes, &c. but the court shall proceed to trial, unless sufficient cause is shown, and allowed by them, why the trial should be postponed, id. s. 4.

117. If any person is convicted of any offence against this act, and is afterwards guilty of the like in any other county, city, town or place, the clerk of assize, or of the peace, or town clerk of the county, &c. where the former conviction was had, shall, at request of the prosecutor, or any other on H.M.'s behalf, certify the same by a transcript in few words, containing the effect and tenor of such conviction; for which certificate 2*s.* 6*d.* only shall be paid, and which being produced in court, and the hand-writing of such clerk of assize, &c. thereto proved, shall be sufficient evidence of such former conviction, id. s. 5.

118. Every person having in his custody, without lawful excuse, any more than five pieces of false or counterfeit coin of any kind resembling, or made with intent to resemble, any such copper or other coin as aforesaid, shall, on conviction by the oath of one or more credible witnesses before a justice of peace, forfeit all such false, &c. coin, (which shall be cut in pieces by order of such justice), and shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay not more than 40*l.* nor less than 10*l.* for every such piece of coin found in his custody: one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed; and if not forthwith paid, the justice may commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for three calendar months, or till such penalty be paid, id. s. 6.

119. Any justice, on complaint before him on the oath of one credible person, that there is just cause to suspect that one or more persons are or have been concerned in making any such counterfeit foreign coin, may by warrant cause houses and premises of such suspected persons to be searched for any such counterfeit coin, or for tools or materials for making the same; and if any such counterfeit coin, or any such tools, implements or materials, are found in any place so searched, or in possession of any person, without lawful authority, the discoverer shall seize and carry the same forthwith to a justice of peace of the same county or place, who shall cause them to be secured, and produced in evidence against any persons prosecuted for any of the said offences in any proper court; and after using the same for such purposes, they shall forthwith be destroyed or disposed of as the court or a justice (if no trial) shall direct, id. s. 7.

120. No proceedings touching the conviction of any offender against this act before any justice, shall be quashed for want of form, or removed by certiorari or other process into any of H.M.'s courts of record at Westminster or Dublin, id. s. 8.

121. Actions brought against for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 3 calendar months after the fact committed, being laid in the county, city, town or place, where the cause of action shall arise; and defendant may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence at any trial thereupon, and that it was done by authority hereof; and if it appear to be so done, or if the action be brought after the time of limitation, or in any other county, &c. the jury shall find for defendant; and if a verdict pass for defendant, or if the plaintiff is nonsuit or discontinues, or has judgment against him on demurrer, defendant shall recover treble costs, 43 G. 3. c. 159. s. 9.

122. FOR MAKING MORE EFFECTUAL PROVISION FOR PREVENTING THE current gold coin of the realm from being paid or accepted for a greater value than the current value of such coin, 51 G. 3. c. 127. s. 1. and ss. 4, 5. [Con. and Ext. to Ire., 52 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1. AMD. id. ss. 2—4. CON. 53 G. 3. c. 5. and (during restrictions on cash payments by the bank, viz. till 1st May, 1823, see 59 G. 3. c. 49. s. 1.) by 54 G. 3. c. 52. AMD. 56 G. 3. c. 68. ss. 13—16. See rest of this act, BANK OF ENGLAND, pl. 104.]

123. No person shall receive or pay for any gold coin lawfully current within the U.K. any more (or less, 56 G. 3. c. 68. s. 13.) in value, benefit, profit or advantage, than the true lawful value thereof as imported by its denomination, whether such value, &c. be paid or taken in lawful money, or, if in G. B., in any note or notes, bill or bills, silver token or tokens of the bank of Eng., or if paid in Ire. in any note, bill or token of the bank of Ire., or by any or all such means, wholly or partly, or by any other means soever, and offenders herein are guilty of misdemeanor, [and being duly convicted thereof shall suffer 6 months imprisonment, and find sureties for good behaviour for one year more from the end of such 6 months; if convicted a second time of the like offence, shall suffer one year's imprisonment, and find like sureties for one year more, computed from the end thereof; and on every subsequent conviction for a like offence shall be imprisoned for 2 years, 52 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1.] 51 G. 3. c. 127. s. 1. as AMD. by 52 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1., and see 56 G. 3. c. 68. s. 13. next pl.

124. No person shall, by any contrivance soever, receive or pay for any gold coin lawfully current within the U.K. any more or less in value or advantage than the true lawful value imported by its denomination, nor shall utter or receive any gold coin of this realm at any higher or lower rate or value than the same are current for by law, according to the legal rates and values set on them, and every person who shall so offend, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished, [same punishment as in last placitum.] 56 G. 3. c. 68. s. 13.

125. If any person is convicted of receiving or paying any such gold coin contrary to 51 G. 3. c. 127., or these acts, who shall be afterwards guilty of the like offence, the clerk of assize, or of the peace for the county, city or place where such conviction had, shall, at request of the prosecutor, or other person on H.M.'s behalf, certify such conviction for 2*s.* 6*d.* fee only, which certificate, being produced in court, shall sufficiently prove the former conviction, 52 G. 3. c. 50. s. 2., 56 G. 3. c. 68. s. 14.

126. No person against whom an bill of indictment is found at any assizes or sessions of the peace for any offence against 51 G. 3. c. 127., or these acts, can traverse the same to any subsequent assizes, &c. but the court at which such indictment is found shall forthwith proceed to try the defendant, unless he show good cause for postponing his trial, 52 G. 3. c. 50. s. 3., 56 G. 3. c. 68. s. 15.

127. On trials for offences against 51 G. 3. c. 127., or this act, it shall not be necessary to prove that the money, notes, bills, tokens, securities, warrants or orders for payment of money, or any of them paid for such gold coin, are respectively lawful money of this realm, or good and valid notes, &c. or of the value they on the face of them import, or that the gold coin purchased was current coin of the realm, but the money, notes, &c. so paid shall be deemed good and valid; and such gold coin shall be deemed current gold coin, if paid or received as such, till the contrary is proved to the satisfaction of the judge or court before whom the offender is tried, 52 G. 3. c. 50. s. 4.

128. On trials for offences against this act, it shall not be necessary to prove that the gold coin received, paid or uttered contrary thereto, is current gold coin of realm, but it shall be deemed such till contrary proved [as in last placitum.] 56 G. 3. c. 68. s. 16.

129. Every person committing in Scot. any offence made a misdemeanor by this act, shall be liable to the same fine and punishment prescribed for the like offence in Eng., 52 G. 3. c. 50. s. 10.

130. TO PROVIDE A NEW SILVER COINAGE, AND TO REGULATE THE currency of the gold and silver coin of this realm, 56 G. 3. c. 68.

131. The master and worker of the mint in London may coin, or cause to be coined, any silver bullion brought to, or delivered, or deposited there, into silver coins of a standard and fineness of 11 oz. 2 dwts. of fine silver, and 18 dwts. of alloy in the ℔ troy, and in weight at the rate of 66*s.* to every ℔ troy, whether coined in crowns, halfcrowns, shillings, sixpences, or pieces of lower denomination, any thing in any statute in force in G. B. or Ire., or in any indenture with such master of the mint [viz. 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 1. s. 2., and see pl. 158.] to the contrary notwithstanding, id. s. 4.

132. Old silver coin of the realm brought to the mint within the time fixed by proclamation shall be exchanged for its full nominal value in new silver coin, 56 G.3. c.68. s.5. Exp. and shall be melted down and coined under provisions hereof, id. ibid.

135. Treasury shall appoint persons to receive the old, and exchange the same for new coin throughout the kingdom, id. s.6. [Exp.]

134. After expiration of the period appointed for receiving old coin of the realm at the mint, all such old silver coin, current before this act and now deficient in value according to its denomination, shall be cut, broken, or defaced by the person to whom it is tendered in payment, and the person tendering it shall bear the loss; but if it appear of the full value of its denomination, the person who shall cut, &c. the same, shall take it at the rate it was coined for, and any dispute as to its real value shall be heard by the chief officer of any city or town corporate where such tender shall be made, or if made elsewhere, by some neighbouring justice of the county or place where it was so tendered, with full power to summon witnesses to appear and give evidence, and to administer oaths for determining questions as to the value and lawful currency of such coin, id. s.7.

135. The treasury may issue not exceeding 500,000*l.* to meet the loss arising from the deficiencies on the recoinage of the old silver coin, [arising as in s.5.] and may grant sums for necessary expenses of the coinage, id. s.8.

136. After a day to be appointed by proclamation, any person may deliver foreign or other coin, or reputed coin, plate or bullion of silver in mass, molten or alloyed, or any sort of silver manufacture at the mint, to be melted down, assayed, and coined into current silver coins, of a fineness and weight as in s.42., of which 6*s.* per lb troy shall be delivered back to the party, and 4*s.* per lb returned for assaying loss and coinage, and so in proportion for any greater or less weight, making in all at the rate of 66*s.* for every lb troy of standard silver, id. s.9.

137. Such sums of 4*s.* per lb shall be applied to the expence of coinage, and the surplus, if any, after payment of the expences of coinage, shall be carried to the consolidated fund, id. s.10.

138. Gold coin is the only legal tender for payments within the U. K., except as in s.12. is excepted, and shall hold such weight and fineness as is prescribed by the present indenture with the master of the mint, [viz. the lb troy of gold, consisting of 22 carats (or 24 parts) fine, and 2 of alloy, is divided into 44 guineas of the present value of 21*s.* See Tonl. Law Dict. tit. Coin, citing Folkes on Coins,] with the master's allowance thereby given, called the 'remedy,' which weight and fineness shall remain the standard of the gold coin of the realm, and shall be held proportionably in any coinage of gold coins of a new denomination, id. s.11. [Thus, under this provision, gold sovereigns were coined to pass for 20*s.* each containing  $\frac{1}{4}$  parts of a guinea; and by proclamation, Feb. 1821, sovereigns not weighing less than 5 dwt.  $\frac{1}{4}$  grs., and  $\frac{1}{4}$  sovereigns not weighing less than 2 dwt.  $\frac{1}{4}$  grs., shall pass as current money; the former allowance for wear according to which sovereigns should weigh not less than 5 dwt.  $\frac{1}{4}$  grs., and  $\frac{1}{4}$  sovereigns not less than 2 dwt.  $\frac{1}{4}$  grs., being found too small for general practice.] So much of 14 G.3. c.42. s.2. and of all other acts continuing the same, as enact that any tender in silver coin of the realm shall be legal to the amount of 2*5*l., or a tender for any greater sum, according to its value, by weight is repealed; and from the day named in proclamation, no tender of payment of money made in silver coin of the realm of any sum exceeding 40*s.* at one time, shall be reputed a tender in law within the U. K., either by tale or weight thereof, or otherwise howsoever, id. s.12.

140. All other acts relating to the coin of this realm, or to the clipping, diminishing, or counterfeiting thereof, not expressly repealed by this act, or contrary hereto, shall continue in force and be applied to the silver coin coined in pursuance thereof, id. s.17.

141. Nothing herein shall affect the acceptance of bank of Eng. notes by revenue officers in payment of any part of the public revenue, if offered to be so paid, except fractional parts of 20*s.* only, id. s.18.

142. The same as to such payments in Ire. in silver bank of Ire. tokens for 30*d.*, 10*d.*, or 5*d.*, respectively issued by that bank during the cash restriction, viz. till 1st May, 1823, id. s.19.

143. TO PERMIT THE EXPORTATION OF GOLD AND SILVER, 59 G.3. c.49. ss. 10—13. [Rep. as to part of s.13. by 1 & 2 G.4. c.26. s.4. See rest of this title and statute, BANK OF ENGLAND, pl. 78. 93—98, &c.]

144. The gold and silver coin of the realm may be exported and melted, and the bullion produced may be manufactured, or exported, or otherwise disposed of, and no person shall be liable to any restriction, forfeiture, penalty, or disability in respect thereof, 59 G.3. c.49. s.10. [For the numerous repeals made by ss.11. 12., see this title, Statutes Rep. Exp., &c.]

145. Nothing in this act shall repeal any acts in force in G. B. or Ire., so far as they relate to preventing the clipping, washing, rounding, filing, impairing, diminishing, falsifying, scaling, or lightening of the lawful coin of the realm, or to inflicting any pain or penalty on persons guilty of such offences, or of buying, selling, or having in custody any clippings or filings of such coin, id. s.13. [Rest of this section is Rep., 1 & 2 G.4. c.26. s.4. see next pl.]

146. After 7th May, 1821. So much of 59 G.3. c.49. (viz. of part of s.13.) whereby it is provided, 'that before any person shall export any molten silver, oath shall be made before the wardens of the company of goldsmiths in London, or one of them by the owner thereof, and likewise by one credible witness, that the same is lawful silver, and that no part thereof was before molten clippings of the current coin, and that before any person shall ship, or cause to be put on board any vessel, any molten silver or bullion, oaths to the like effect shall be made before the court of the lord mayor and aldermen of London, by the owner and 2 credible witnesses;' and whereby it was enacted, 'that the provisions in 6 & 7 W.2. c.17.' [relating to the above purposes, viz. that part of s.7. 8., unrepealed by 59 G.3. c.49. s.12., with s.10., and rest of s.] 'and those in 7 & 8 W.3. c.19.' viz. that part of s.6. unrepealed as above, with ss. 7—9.] 'should continue and be in force in relation to the exportation of any molten silver or bullion soever, which before melting was clippings of the coin,' is hereby repealed, 1 & 2 G.4. c.26. s.4.

M. by land tax, and 49 G.3. c. 1., for duties on pensions and offices in Eng., and for indemnifying persons who have acted as commissioners for executing the said acts, 49 G.3. c. 55. [Exp.]

18. TO EXTEND powers of the commissioners under 45 G.3. c. 47. to public works executed by office of works and others, 51 G.3. c. 19. CONT. to 25 March, 1813, with powers of 45 G.3. c. 47., as far as relates to the object of 51 G.3. c. 19., 52 G.3. c. 41. [All Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. COMMISSIONS of inquiry shall be made to some of the justices of K. B. or C. P., or of assize, or of the peace, with others of the most worthy of the county, as well for H. M.'s profit as the commons, except in the office of escheator, in any thing that concerns that office, 42 E.3. c. 4., [and see 13 E.1. West. Sec. c. 29.]

2. FOR RELIEVING commissioners in certain cases, 7 H.4. c. 11.

3. "Whereas commissioners are assigned by commission, some to hear and determine, some to inquire and certify, and otherwise, whereby they are grievously distrained by exchequer process, and lose great issues thereon, from their ignorance of such commissions, which have never reached them:" The barons of exchequer may receive oath of such commissioners to that effect, in case of commissions ofoyer and terminer, and of inquiry and certifying only; and they, with the justices of both benches, may receive, by dedimus potestatem, such oaths in the country; and such justices shall, from time to time, certify the barons in exchequer thereof, who shall thereupon discharge the commissioners and their heirs, executors, or land-tenants, id. ibid.

COMMON. (See INCLOSURE.)

(STATUTE expired.)

FOR EXTENDING 13 G.3. c. 81. (till 29 Sept. 1801,) and for encouraging the cultivation of potatoes in open and common field lands, 41 G.3. U. K. c. 20. [Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. IN WHAT CASES lords may approve against their tenants, 20 H.3. Stat. Merton. c. 4. [CONF. and AMD. 13 E.1. West. Sec. c. 46., and 3 & 4 E.6. c. 3. s. 3.]

2. Whenever feoffees of tenements within manors bring an assize of novel disseisin for their common of pasture, and it is known before the justices that they have as much pasture as suffices to their tenements, and have free ingress and egress therefrom to the pasture, then let them be contented therewith; and they of whom they have complained shall go quit of as much as they have made their profit of these lands, wastes, woods, and pastures: and if they allege that they have not sufficient pasture, egress or regress, as appertains to their hold, let the truth be inquired by assize; and if it be found by the latter, that the same deforcors have disturbed them of their egress or regress, or that they have no sufficient pasture, then shall they recover their seisin by the view of inquest, so that by their discretion and oath the plaintiffs shall have sufficient pasture, egress and regress, as above; and the disseisors shall be amerced and yield damages as before this act. And if it be found by the assize that the plaintiffs have sufficient pasture, egress and regress, let the other (viz. the lords) make their profit of the residue and go quit, 20 H.3. St. Mert. c. 4. [Trebble damages now given on all judgments for plaintiffs under these acts, 3 & 4 E.6. c. 3. s. 4. infra, pl. 5.]

3. THE STATUTE of Merton, provided between the lord and his tenant, shall hold between lords of waste, woods, and pastures, and neighbours: saving sufficient pasture to their tenants and neighbours, so that the lords may make improvements of the residue and the same, for such as claim pasture as appurtenant to their tenements: but if any claim common of pasture by special feoffment, or grant for a certain number of beasts, or otherwise than of common right, (whereas covenant does abrogate law) he shall have such recovery as he ought, by form of the grant made to him. No man shall be aggrieved by assize of novel disseisin of common of pasture, by occasion of a windmill, sheepcote, dairy, enlargement of a court necessary, or curtelage. And where it happens that some one, having a right to approve to himself, hath made a ditch or hedge, and some by night, or when they hope not to be known, do abate the same, and it cannot be known by verdict of the assize, or jury, who did overthrow the same, and men of the towns near will not indict such as be guilty, the next adjoining townships shall be distrained to levy and make up the ditch or hedge at their proper costs, and to yield damages, 13 E.1. West. Sec. c. 46. s. 1. [EXT. to trees destroyed, 1 G.1. S.2. c. 48., 6 G.1. c. 16., infra, TREES.]

4. Where any person usurps common during the time that heirs are within age, or that a woman is covert, or while the pasture is in the hands of tenants in dower, by the curtesy, or otherwise for term of life or years, or in fee-tail, and has long time used the pasture, then (though many hold opinion that such pastures should be said to belong to the freehold, and that the possessor ought to have action by a writ of novel disseisin if he be deforced thereof), it shall henceforth be holden that such as have entered within the time [viz. 50 years, 32 H.8. c. 2. s. 2.] that a writ of mort d'ancestor runneth, if they had no common before, shall not have recovery by writ of novel disseisin, if they be deforced, id. ibid.

5. ALL PERSONS WHO SHALL BRING ASSIZE UNDER 20 H.3. St. Mert. c. 4. or 13 E.1. West. Sec. c. 46., and have judgment to recover, shall have treble damages, 3 & 4 E.6. c. 3. s. 4.

6. Where there have been built on commons, houses with ground under 3 acres inclosed, and in some places there is inclosed a garden, orchard, or pond, not exceeding 2 acres, out of such wastes, the said acts shall not extend to the same, id. s. 5.

7. If there be above 3 acres inclosed, then the house and 3 acres shall remain as at present, and the overplus may be laid open by the owner of the wastes, id. s. 6.

8. FOR BETTER CULTIVATION, IMPROVEMENT, AND REGULATION of the common arable fields, wastes, and commons of pastures in this kingdom, 13 G.3. c. 81. [EXT. to cultivation of potatoes on common lands till 29 Sept. 1801, 41 G.3. U. K. c. 21. s. 1., which is now Exp., but the former act seems in force.]

9. In every parish or place in this kingdom, where there are open or common field lands, all the arable lands lying in the said fields shall be ordered, fenced, cultivated, and improved, in such manner, by the occupiers thereof, and shall be kept, ordered, and continued, in such course of husbandry, and be cultivated under such rules, as three-fourths in number and value of the occupiers in each parish, cultivating and taking the crops, and having the consent of the owners in manner after mentioned, and likewise the consent of the rector, impropriator, or tithe owner, or the lessee of either of them, first had in writing, shall, at a meeting (in pursuance of notice in writing, under the hands of one third of such occupiers, to be affixed on one of the principal doors of the parish church, chapel, or place, where meetings have been usually held for such parish, 21 days, at least, before such meeting, specifying the time and place of meeting), by writing under their hands appoint; and which notice any of such occupiers are authorised to give, 13 G.3. c. 81. s. 1.

10. The rules so agreed upon, shall not be in force for longer than 6 years, or 2 rounds, according to the ancient course of each parish or place, id. s. 2.

11. At every such meeting, the majority in number and value of the occupiers (then present) of such field lands, in each parish, may elect one or more persons as field-master or field-reeve, to superintend the ordering, fencing, cultivating, and improving, of such fields, and to see that the same are kept, ordered, and continued, in such a course of husbandry, as shall be appointed; and such field-master or field-reeve, shall continue in office until May 21. following, or within 3 days after, and no longer, unless he shall be re-elected, id. s. 3.

12. All expences necessary for carrying such plan of ordering, fencing, cultivating, or improving, into execution, and which shall, at any meeting to be held after 6 days' notice, given in manner before directed, by the major part in number and value of the occupiers then present, be deemed common expences, and, for the general benefit of the occupiers, shall be paid proportionably by all of them, according to the value of the lands each person shall have in such field lands; and for the raising the same assessments upon all occupiers, shall be made and collected by such persons, and allowed in such manner, as such majority of occupiers at such meeting shall direct; and the money thereby raised shall be employed according to the directions of such majority towards the better cultivation of the said common field lands; and the assessments shall, by warrant under the hand and seal of one justice, be levied by distress and sale of the goods of every person assessed and not paying, within 10 days after demand, rendering the overplus (if any) to the owner, after deducting the costs of making such distress and sale, id. s. 4.

13. The occupiers of common field lands, in any parish or place where any rules shall have been agreed upon for the fencing, cultivating, or improving of such lands, in pursuance of this act, are to assemble every year, on May 21. or within 3 days after, in pursuance of 6 days' notice to be given of the time and place of meeting by one-third of the occupiers as aforesaid, then, and there to elect the field-master or field-reeve, for the year ensuing; and such person who shall, by the major part of the occupiers present, be chosen field-master or field-reeve, shall continue in office for one whole year, unless he shall die, or be removed, by the power herein after given, 13 G. 3. c. 81. s. 5.

14. If any field-master or field-reeve, so chosen, shall, within the year in which he shall be chosen, refuse, or neglect to attend the business, or shall die, or remove to an inconvenient distance, or become bankrupt, or have execution against his body or goods, or by sickness or otherwise be incapable of executing his office; then the occupiers of the lands (after 6 days' notice given as aforesaid) are to elect another field-master or field-reeve for the remainder of that year, in the place of the former, id. s. 6.

15. Three-fourths in number and value of the occupiers of common field lands, present at any meeting to be held in pursuance of 14 days' notice, previous to the usual time of opening such field lands, given as aforesaid, may postpone the opening, for such reasonable time as at such meeting shall be thought necessary by such majority, and may determine how long such common fields shall continue open, and settle the number of cattle each occupier shall turn on such common fields, in due proportion to the stint or established usage, id. s. 7.

16. Nothing in this act contained shall exclude any cottager, or other person having right of common, and having no land in any of the said common fields, from enjoying his right of common, as he might have enjoyed the same before this act, unless such cottager, or other person, shall, at any meeting to be held by the occupiers, consent in writing, to a composition for such right, by an annual payment, or other annual advantage or compensation, or to a limitation thereof; in which case, such consent and agreement shall be conclusive upon every person so agreeing, his heirs and assigns, tenants and occupiers, until such time as the rules for the fencing, cultivating, and improving of the said common field lands, existing at the time of consent, shall expire, id. s. 8.

17. If the occupiers shall, at times when the said fields have been usually enjoyed in common, agree not to dis pasture the same in common, and shall allot what shall be deemed, by a majority of such cottagers, who shall not have agreed to compound for or limit their right of common, a sufficient common for such cottagers, &c. to be enjoyed exclusively by them; then such cottagers, &c. shall not exercise or enjoy their right of common, over such part of the said common field lands, as are not used in common by the occupiers, but only over such parts thereof as shall for such time be allotted them, id. s. 9.

18. Nothing herein shall exclude any person seised or possessed of a separate sheep-walk, or pasture of cattle, in the common field lands, from enjoying such right as he might have enjoyed the same before this act, unless such person shall consent in writing at any meeting of occupiers to a composition for the same, or a limitation thereof; in which case, such consent shall be conclusive upon every person so agreeing; and upon every other person coming to the possession of such sheep-walk, or pasture for cattle, by descent, or otherwise, until such time as the rules for the cultivation of the said lands shall expire, id. s. 10.

19. Any person having land in any common fields adjoining to any balks, slides, or meers, being waste, with the consent of the lords or ladies of the manors wherein such balks, slides, or meers do lie, and likewise of the persons who may have a separate sheep walk in the said fields, and with the consent of three-fourths in number and value of the occupiers of such common field-lands, to be signified at any meeting held as aforesaid, may plough up any of the said balks, slides, or meers, and convert the same into tillage, id. s. 11.

20. Provided no bulk or meer, heretofore used as a public or private road, by any person, to or from his house or lands, be so ploughed up, id. s. 12.

21. All persons, who shall have licence to plough up any bulk, slide, or meer, shall, before he begin to plough up the same, lay down, in an husband-like manner, under the direction of the field-master, in a more convenient part of the said field, as much of his own land as shall be equal in value to the land he shall have licence to plough; and such land so laid down shall be common land, and so continue until the regulations for cultivating such lands shall expire, id. s. 13.

22. The persons ploughing any such bulk, &c. shall, by proper bound-stones, distinguish the lands ploughed, and the lands laid down in lieu thereof, so that the property and right may be clearly ascertained, id. s. 14.

23. Lords of manors with the consent of three-fourths of the persons having right of common upon the wastes and commons within their manor, at a meeting to be held after 14 days' notice, to be given as before directed by the lord or his agent, may demise, for not exceeding years, any part of such wastes, &c. not exceeding a 18th thereof, for the most improved yearly rent that can, by public auction, be got for the same; and the clear rents reserved to the lords, &c. by any lease granted as aforesaid, shall be by them, and the major part of their tenants, applied in the draining, fencing, or otherwise improving of the residue of such wastes, &c. 13 G. 3. c. 81. s. 15.

24. In every manor where there are stinted commons, in lieu of demising part thereof, assessments upon the lords of such manor, and the owners or occupiers of such commons, or their agents, shall, at their option, be made and collected by such person, and allowed in such manner as the lords, and the major part in number and value of the owners or occupiers, present at a meeting to be held within the manor, in pursuance of 14 days' notice to be given by the lord or his agent as aforesaid, of the time and place of meeting, shall direct; and the money thereby raised shall be employed according to the orders of the said lords, and such majority of the owners or occupiers, as aforesaid, in the improvement of such commons; and the said assessments shall, by warrant under the hand and seal of one justice, be levied by distress and sale of the goods of every person assessed and not paying within 10 days after being demanded, rendering the overplus (if any) to the owner, the charges of distress and sale being first deducted, id. s. 16.

25. The major part in number and value of the owners and occupiers of stinted common pastures present at a meeting to be held after 6 days' notice given, as before directed, may, with the consent of the lord, or his steward, postpone the opening of the said common pastures for not exceeding 21 days, id. s. 17.

26. Two-thirds in number and value of the commoners, at a meeting to be holden after 14 days' notice given as before directed, may, with the consent of the lord, or his steward or agent fix the time when such common pasture shall be broke or depastured, and when the same shall be shut up and unstocked; such orders to continue in force for one year, and no longer, id. s. 18.

27. Provided a portion of such common pastures shall be set apart for the use of such commoners exclusively as shall not consent to such regulation, and the portion so set apart shall be adjudged by a majority of such commoners, not consenting, an equivalent for their rights of common, id. s. 19.

28. The major part in number and value of persons having right of common in common pastures, at any meeting to be held in pursuance of notice in writing, under the hand of a major part of such owners and occupiers, or persons having right of common therein, affixed on the principal door of the parish-church where such pasture lie, or of the nearest church where such lands shall lie in an extra-parochial place, 10 days previous to such meeting, specifying the time and place, and intent of such meeting, by writing under their hands, may alter the manner of depasturing such common pastures, so far as instead of horses, cows, and other cattle, to allow the same to be fed and depastured with sheep, at the option of each person having right of common; and to limit the number of sheep each person shall feed thereon, in proportion to their stints or rights, id. s. 20.

29. No ram shall be turned upon, or suffered to remain upon, any wastes or common fields, between 25 Aug. and 25 Nov. in every year, id. s. 21.

30. The husbands, guardians, trustees, committees, or known agent or receiver of any owner of wastes, commons, and common field lands, and of any person having a right or interest therein, being under coverture, minors, lunatics, or beyond the seas, and also all tenants in tail, tenants by the courtesy, or tenants for life, may enter into and sign any agreement in pursuance of this act, id. s. 22.

31. No rector or tithe-owner, in right of his rectory, vicarage, or curacy, or the lessee of either, who shall agree for or let his tithes of the common field lands, shall receive any fine, forfeit, or compensation whatever, other than by equal half-yearly or yearly payments, id. s. 23.

32. Every agreement entered into in pursuance of this act shall be valid, notwithstanding want of legal title in the owners, or in the husbands, guardians, trustees, committees, agents, or receivers, or persons acting as such, or tenants in tail, tenants by the courtesy, or tenants for life only, any settlement or will to the contrary notwithstanding, id. s. 24.

33. No consent of any occupier to any first agreement for ordering, fencing, cultivating, and improving any common fields, made in pursuance hereof, shall be good, unless such occupier shall, at the time of entering into such agreement, produce a written authority for that purpose, under the hand of the owner or proprietor, guardian or trustee; or, if such owner is not a minor, but is in parts beyond the seas, of his known agent, id. s. 25.

34. If any owner or occupier of any common field lands, for the better cultivation whereof any rules shall have been agreed on, in pursuance hereof, shall not conform to or shall wilfully deviate therefrom, in any respect, then every owner, &c. damaged by a breach of the regulations, may bring an action in any courts of record, at Westminster, against the offender, who, if a verdict be given for plaintiff, or on judgment by default, shall pay all damages, recovered with double costs, 13 G. 3. c. 8. s. 26.

35. Nothing herein shall prevent any person from inclosing his own land for his own benefit, he having power so to do, id. s. 27.

36. Saving to H. M., his heirs and successors, and to all lords of manors, and persons, bodies politic or corporate, (other than persons subject to regulations of this act when carried into execution), all such estate, interest, and rights, as they had in and over such common fields, &c. before the act, id. s. 28.

37. FOR PREVENTING THE DEPASTURING OF FORESTS, COMMONS, and open fields, with sheep or lambs infected with the scab or mange, in Eng. 38 G. 3. c. 65. [Not to extend to Scot. s. 15. PUBLIC clause, s. 14.

38. Every person who shall turn out, keep, or depasture in or upon any forest, chase, wood, moor, marsh, heath, common, waste land, open field, or other uninclosed lands, any sheep or lambs infected with the scab or mange, or shall wilfully turn out, &c. in or upon any such forest, &c. any sheep or lambs that had been so infected 6 calendar months previous thereto, shall, on conviction by oath of one witness, or confession before a justice for the county or place, forfeit not less than 20s. nor more than 10*l.* with costs, to be ascertained by the convicting justice, and so, toties quoties, as often as such sheep or lambs are so turned out, id. s. 1.

39. The owners of sheep or lambs, of the age of 3 months, turned out into any forest, &c. (as in s. 1.) shall mark such sheep or lambs with the initial letters of their Christian and surnames, or with such marks as such sheep or lambs have been usually marked with for 3 preceding years, such letters or marks being 3 inches in length; and in case of neglect, shall forfeit 2*s.* for each sheep or lamb not so marked, and so, toties quoties, as often as they shall be so turned out, id. s. 2.

40. Any person having sheep or lambs actually depasturing, or entitled to depasture in any forest, &c. and who shall believe that any sheep or lambs are depasturing upon the same contrary to this act, may apply to a justice for the county or place, who, upon complaint on oath made before him, shall issue his warrant under his hand and seal, directed to the keeper of such forest or chase, or his deputy, or the petty constable, bailiff, headborough, or tithingman of any parish, hamlet, or township, within or near such forest, &c. (as in s. 1.) or unto any other person willing to be inserted therein, and command him to drive all such sheep and lambs to the next pound, or other convenient place, to be examined by the person so applying, or his servant; and the party to whom such warrant is directed, 6 hours' notice being first given, by such complainant to the owners of such sheep or lambs, or their servants, or left at their usual place of abode, if they be known, or reside within the parish, &c. where the sheep or lambs are found, describing the place where such sheep, &c. are; and if, after such examination, it is proved that such sheep, &c. were not depasturing contrary to this act, such sheep shall be driven back to the place whence they were driven, and such justice shall award costs and damages to the owner, to be paid by the complainant, and to be recovered in like manner as penalties under (s. 7.) of this act may, id. s. 3.

41. If on such examination it appears that such sheep or lambs have been turned out so infected as in s. 1., then such justice shall direct the same to be impounded, and marked with the letter S., five inches long on each side, to be made with pitch or tar, or other adhesive material, and shall make a slit, not exceeding 1 inch long in the left ear of each such sheep and lamb; and the same, when so marked, shall be delivered on demand to the owner thereof, and the costs of taking, driving, impounding and marking the same, as ascertained by such justice, shall be paid by such owner, together with the penalties hereby imposed; such costs to be recovered in like manner as penalties under s. 7. of this act may be, and any such mark shall be deemed evidence of the fact that such sheep, &c. were so turned out contrary hereto, id. s. 4.

42. If any person within 6 calendar months after such sheep or lambs were so marked as in s. 4. shall cut out or alter the mark made in the ear, or if the owner shall not renew the mark directed to be made on the side of such sheep, &c. when obliterated, they shall forfeit, on conviction, from 2*s.* to 20*s.* for each sheep or lamb, and the convicting justice shall cause such marks to be renewed, and the sheep and lambs detained till the same is done, id. s. 5.

43. If such sheep or lambs so detained, are not demanded and taken away, within 5 days after they have been so marked, such justice, by warrant under hand and seal, may direct the same to be sold, and the money, after costs and charges deducted, paid to the overseer of the poor of the parish, &c. where such sheep, &c. are so detained; and if the money is not claimed within one year, the same shall be applied in aid of the poor's rate for such parish, &c., id. s. 6.

44. All penalties hereby imposed shall be levied by distress and sale of goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of some justice for the county, &c. rendering overplus to the owner, after costs of distress, &c. deducted; such warrant to be granted, on conviction of the offender by confession or on oath of one witness, and such penalties shall go in moieties to the informer and the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, 38 G. 3. c. 65. s. 7.

45. Where any conviction is had for any offence against this act, or against any order of sessions, or any adjudication for the marking of sheep or lambs, the same respectively shall be in the form or to the effect following, viz.

FORM OF CONVICTION.

' ——— } Be it remembered, that on this — day of — in the year of the to wit, } reign of — A. B. is convicted before one of H. M.'s justices of peace for the — of — by virtue of an act of parliament made in the 38th year of the reign of king George the Third, entitled [here set forth the title of this act, and specify the offence, and the time and place when and where the same was committed,] and I [or we] the said — do adjudge him [her or them] to forfeit and pay for the same the sum of — Given under my hand and seal [or our hands and seals] the day and year aforesaid.'

FORM OF ADJUDICATION.

' ——— } Upon the report upon the oath [or oaths] of — the — day of — to wit, } in the year of our Lord — made unto — of H. M.'s justices of peace for the — of — respecting certain sheep [and lambs] detained [or impounded] in a — in the parish of — in the said county, by virtue of a warrant under our hands and seals, [or my hand and seal] — do hereby adjudge that such sheep [and lambs] belonging to A. B. [or the owner or owners thereof being unknown] appearing to me [or us] to be infected with the scab or mange, [or having within the space of — months immediately previous to the date thereof been infected with the scab or mange] be marked forthwith according to the directions of an act made in the 38th year of the reign of king George the Third, entitled [here set forth the title of this act]. Given under our hands and seals [or my hand and seal] the day and year aforesaid, id. s. 8.

46. All persons aggrieved by any thing done under this act, may appeal to the quarter sessions for the county or place where the matter of appeal arose, next after the expiration of 4 calendar months from the time when it arose, and the justices there shall finally determine same in a summary way, and award costs as they think proper, id. s. 9.

47. Where any distress is made for sums to be levied under this act, the distress shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party a trespasser, for any want of form in the summons or other proceedings relating thereto; nor shall the party distraining be deemed a trespasser ab initio for any irregularity afterwards done by him, but the party thereby aggrieved may recover satisfaction for the damage, in an action on the case; but no plaintiff in such action shall recover, if tender of sufficient amends had been made to him or his attorney, on behalf of the defendant before action brought; and if no such tender made, the defendant by leave of the court, after action brought and before issue joined, may pay such money into court, as he deems fit, whereupon such proceedings shall be made as is usual in such cases, id. s. 10.

48. No action for any thing done under this act shall be commenced unless 10 days' notice in writing, signed by the plaintiff's attorney, specifying the cause of action, has been given to the party grieved, or after 6 calendar months after the fact committed; and such action shall be laid in the county where the cause arose, and the defendant therein may, at his election, plead specially or the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that same was done in pursuance thereof; and if it so appears, or if the action is brought before notice given, or after the time limited, or is laid in the wrong county, jury shall find for the defendant; and on such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after appearance, or has judgment against him on demurrer, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 11.

49. No order, verdict, judgment, or other proceedings touching such matters, shall be quashed, or vacated for want of form only, or be recoverable by certiorari or otherwise, id. s. 12.

CONSPIRACY.

(STATUTES repealed.)

TO PREVENT unlawful combinations of workmen, 39 G. 3. c. 81. [REPEALED 40 G. 3. c. 106. s. 1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. IN REGARD to conspirators, false informers, and evil procurers of dozens, assizes, inquests, and juries, H. M. ordains remedy for the plaintiffs by writ of chancery, and willeth that his justices of either bench, and those assigned to take assizes, shall, in every plaint made unto these, award inquests thereon without writ or delay, and shall do right to the plaintiffs, 28 E. 1. c. 10.

2. WHOMSOEVER will complain of conspirators, inventors, and maintainers of false quarrels, and their abettors and supporters having part therein, and brokers of debates, shall come to the chief justices, and shall have a writ under their seals to attach them, viz.

' Rex vobis salutem, precipimus tibi, quod si A. de G. fecerit te securum de clamore suo proseguendo, tunc pone per vadium et salvas plegias G. de C. quod sit coram nobis in octabis Sancti Johannis Baptistae, ubicunque tunc fuerimus in Anglia ad respondendum predicto A., de placito conspirationis et transgressionis secundum ordinationem nostram nuper inde provissam, sicut idem A. rationabiliter monstrare poterit, quod ei inde respondere debeat, et habeas ibi nomina plegiorum, et hoc breve.

which offenders, if convicted, shall be imprisoned till satisfaction be made to the party grieved, and also pay grievous fine to H. M., Stat. incert. temp. No. VIII. suo Stat. 399.

3. CONSPIRATORS be they that bind themselves by oath, covenant, or other alliance, that every of them shall aid the other, maliciously to indict, or falsely to acquit people, or to move and maintain pleas, and such as cause infants to appeal men of felony, whereby they are imprisoned, and such as retain men in the county with liveries or fees to maintain their malicious enterprises, and drown the truth; and this extended as well to the takers as givers; and stewards and bailiffs of great lords, which by their office undertake to maintain quarrels, pleas, and debates, that concern other parties, 33 E. st. 1. definitio de conspiratoribus. [See rest of this statute, CHAMPERTY, &c.]

4. AGAINST FALSE appeals or indictments [in co. Lancaster only, 7 H. 5. c. 1.] generally, 9 H. 5. (st. 1.) c. 1. [MADE PERI., 18 H. 6. c. 12.]

5. "Whereas many persons have caused others to be indicted and appealed of treasons and felonies, pretending that they were committed in a certain place, where of truth no such place is to be found in the county." Every justice having power to hear and determine such treasons and felonies by oath of 12 men, each of whom has 100s. freehold per ann. in the county, before the exigent be awarded, without allegation of the party, as well in his absence as his presence, shall inquire of office, whether any such place be in the county or not, and if it be found that there is no such place, such appeals and indictments shall be void; the appellees and indicted may also have writs of conspiracy against them, and recover their damages, [and if exigent is awarded before such inquisition of office, it is void, 7 H. 5. c. 1.] 9 H. 5. st. 1. c. 1. as Rec. in 18 H. 6. c. 12.

6. TOUCHING VICTUALLERS AND HANDICRAFTSMEN, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 15.

7. If any butchers, brewers, bakers, poulterers, cooks, oystermongers, or fruiterers, shall conspire, covenant, or make oath, that they will not sell their victuals but at certain prices; or if any artificers, workmen, or labourers, shall conspire, &c. that they will not work but at a certain rate or price, or shall not enterprise to finish that which another has begun, or shall do but a certain work in a day, or shall not work but at certain hours and times, each offender shall, on conviction by witness, confession, or otherwise, forfeit for the first offence 10*l.* to H. M., if the same is paid within 6 days, and if not, shall be imprisoned 21 days with bread and water for their sustenance, and for the second offence shall forfeit 20*l.* to H. M., or, in default payment as above, shall be pillored, and for the third offence shall forfeit 40*l.*, or on default payment as above, shall [be pillored, pillory seems abolished in this case, see 56 G. 3. c. 158. s. 1. and] lose one of his ears, and be deemed infamous, and not to be credited on oath in any matters of judgment, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 15. s. 1.

8. If any such conspiracy, &c. (as in s. 1.) is made by any company of victuallers above-mentioned by consent of the majority thereof, then besides the punishment aforesaid, their corporation shall be dissolved, id. s. 2.

9. All justices of assize and of peace, mayors, bailiffs, and stewards of leets, at their sessions and leets, may determine offences against this act, and punish the offenders as above, id. s. 3.

10. TO PREVENT UNLAWFUL COMBINATIONS OF WORKMEN, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 106. [AMD. 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 58.]

11. All contracts, covenants, and agreements soever in writing or not, at any time heretofore (viz. 29th July, 1800.) entered into between any journeymen manufacturers, or other persons within this kingdom, for obtaining an advance of wages, lessening or altering hours of labour, or decreasing the quantity of work, &c. (except contracts between any master and his journeyman,) or for preventing any person from employing whomsoever he shall think proper to employ in his manufacture or business, or for controlling or affecting any person carrying on the same in the management thereof, are declared illegal, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 106. s. 1.

12. No journeyman, workman, or other person, shall be concerned in making or entering into such contract, covenant, or agreement, in writing or not, as is hereinbefore declared to be illegal; and any person on conviction of any such offence within 3 calendar months, on his own confession, or the oath or oaths of one or more credible witnesses before any two justices of the county, city, or place, where the offence was committed, shall, at their discretion, be committed to gaol for not more than 3 calendar months, or to some house of correction within the same jurisdiction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 3 calendar months, id. s. 2.

13. Either of such justices may administer the oaths mentioned in

s. 1., or in any other cases where oaths are to be taken under this act, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 106. s. 2.

14. Every journeyman, workman, or other person, who shall enter into any combination to obtain an advance of wages, or to lessen or alter the hours or duration of working, or to decrease the quantity of work, or for any other purpose contrary to this act, or who shall by giving money, or by persuasion, solicitation, or intimidation, or any other means, wilfully endeavour to prevent any unhired or unemployed journeyman, &c. (as above) or other person wanting employment in any manufacture, trade, or business, from hiring himself to any manufacturer, or tradesman, or person conducting any manufacture, &c. or who shall, for the purpose of obtaining an advance of wages, or for other purpose against this act, wilfully decoy, persuade, solicit, intimidate, influence, or prevail, or attempt to prevail on any journeyman, &c. or other person, to quit his work or employment, or who shall wilfully, &c. hinder any manufacturer, &c. (as above) from employing in his manufacture, &c. such journeyman &c. as he shall think proper; or who, being hired or employed, shall, without just cause, refuse to work with any other journeyman or workman employed to work therein, and who shall be convicted of any of the said offences on his own confession, or the oath of one or more credible witnesses before 2 justices for the county, city, or place, within 3 calendar months after the offence committed, shall, by order of such justices, be committed to the common gaol for not exceeding 3 calendar months, or to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding two like months, id. s. 3.

15. Every person soever, who shall attend any meeting held for the purpose of making any contract, covenant, or agreement, by this act declared illegal, or of entering into, or carrying on any combination for any such illegal purpose, or who shall summons, give notice to, persuade, solicit, or by intimidation or other means endeavour to induce any journeyman, workman, or other person employed in any manufacture, &c. (as in s. 3.) to attend any such meeting, or who shall ask or receive any sum of money from any such journeyman, &c. for the said purposes, or who shall persuade, or by intimidation or other means endeavour to induce any such journeyman, &c. to enter into any such combination, or who shall pay any money, or enter into any subscription towards the support of any such illegal meeting or combination, shall, on like conviction, suffer punishment as in s. 2., id. s. 4.

16. No person soever shall wilfully pay or give any sum of money as a contribution for paying expenses incurred by any person acting contrary to this act, [or, this word appears essential to the sense, but is not in the record,] by payment of money or other means support or contribute to support any journeyman, workman, or other person, in order to induce him to refuse to work or be employed in any manufacture, &c. on penalty of not exceeding 10*l.* from such offender, and 5*l.* from the journeyman, &c. collecting or receiving any money or valuable for any of the above purposes, one moiety to H. M., and the other in equal shares to the informer and poor of the parish; and every such offence may be heard, and conviction made on the oath of one or more credible witnesses, by 2 justices for the county, city, or place, where the offence was committed; and if the penalty is not forthwith paid, they shall issue a warrant to levy the same by distress and sale of the offender's goods, with costs thereof, and if no sufficient distress can be had, shall commit the offender, as in s. 2., id. s. 5.

17. Every person liable to be sued under this act for contributing money for any of the above purposes, (viz. in s. 5.) shall be obliged to answer on oath to any information preferred against him in any court of equity by the attorney-general on behalf of H. M., or at relation of any informer, for discovering the sums so paid, and shall not refuse to answer by reason of any penalty to which he may be liable by his discovery, see s. 8., and the court may make such decree therein as seems to them just, id. s. 7.

18. On payment into such court of all the money paid to any such person for any of the above purposes, and remaining in his hands at the time of the information filed, and on making full discovery of all securities in which the rest has been invested, he shall be acquitted of all penalties incurred by him, and of all actions respecting the same by any persons soever, nor shall any person be liable to any penalty or prosecution soever, in respect of any sum which he shall discover to have been paid or received by any answer made, as in s. 7., id. s. 8.

19. Every offender against this act may equally, with all other persons, be compelled to give evidence as a witness on behalf of H. M., or of the prosecutor or informer on any information exhibited under this act, against any other person not being such witness; and every person having given such evidence, is indemnified against any information for any offence committed by him in the matter, wherein he shall have given evidence, id. s. 9.

20. On information on oath before any one or more justices, of any offence against this act, committed within their jurisdiction, he or they shall summon the offender to appear before any 2 or more justices at a certain time or place; and if he do not appear, then (due service of such summons by personal service, or leaving the same at his abode, 24 hours at least before time fixed for appearance being proved,) they shall issue their warrant for his apprehension, which they may also issue on like information, and without such previous summons; and on the offender's appearance, or on his being brought before them, or on proof on oath of his absconding, so that such warrant cannot be executed, they shall proceed to determine every such complaint, and on confession or proof by one or more credible witnesses on oath, shall convict or acquit the accused, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 106. s. 10.

21. Such justice or justices before whom such information is made shall, at the request in writing of any of the parties, summons any witness to appear and give evidence at the time and place appointed for hearing such complaint, and specified in such summons; and on default of his appearance without offering reasonable excuse, or if on appearance he refuses to be examined and give evidence touching the matter of complaint, the justices shall then (proof of service being made as in s. 10.) by warrant under their hands, commit such witness to some prison in their jurisdiction till he submits to give evidence as above, id. s. 11.

22. The justices shall cause all convictions and orders for commitment to be drawn up as in the schedules annexed to 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 58. [See APPENDIX.] id. s. 12. as AMD. by 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 58. s. 1.

23. And shall cause such conviction to be fairly written on parchment, and transmitted to the next general or quarter sessions of the peace for the county, city, or place where such conviction was had, to be filed among the records of such sessions; and if any person shall appeal (as in s. 27.) from the judgment of such justices to that of the sessions, the latter on receiving such conviction shall proceed to determine the appeal according to this act, id. s. 13.

24. Justices of peace shall continue to use and execute all powers and authorities given them by any statutes in force touching combinations of workmen, or for settling disputes between masters and their workmen, or as to their wages, time of working, and quantity of work to be done, or touching any matter also provided for by this act, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, id. s. 14.

25. This act shall not authorize any person carrying on any manufacture, trade, or business, to employ therein any workman contrary to any statute now in force for directing the manner of carrying on the same, or the work of the persons employed therein, without the previous consent in writing of one justice for the county, city, or place, expressing the cause of granting the same; which licence one justice may grant whenever the qualified workmen usually employed, shall, by refusing to work for any cause soever, or by their misconduct when employed, impede the ordinary course of any such manufacture, &c. or endeavour to injure any person carrying on the same, id. s. 15.

26. No justice of peace, being also a master in the particular manufacture or business concerning which any offence is charged to have been committed, shall act as such justice under this act, id. s. 16. [See 1 J. 1. c. 6. s. 9., now REV.]

27. All contracts, whether in writing or not, made between any masters or other persons for reducing the wages of workmen, or for adding to or altering the usual hours of working, or for increasing the quantity of work, are void, and all masters being thereof convicted by the oath of one or more witnesses before 2 justices within 3 calendar months, shall forfeit 20*l.*, one moiety to H. M. and the other in equal shares to the informer and poor of the parish; and in case payment is not forthwith made, the justices shall cause same to be levied by distress and sale of offender's goods with the costs thereof, and in default of sufficient distress, shall commit him to gaol or house of correction for not more than 3 nor less than 2 calendar months, id. s. 17.

28. In all cases arising in Eng., where the masters and workmen cannot agree respecting the price to be paid for work actually done in any manufacture, or for any injury done by the workmen to the work, or respecting any delay on their part in finishing, or for not finishing the same in a proper manner, or according to any contract, and in all cases of dispute touching any contract for work or wages between masters and workmen in any trade or manufacture, both parties, or either of them, may appoint an arbitrator to determine such matters by writing, subscribed in the presence of and attested by 1 witness, as in sched. 2. (APPENDIX.) and deliver it personally to the other party, or leave the same at his usual abode, and to require him to name an arbitrator in like manner within 2 days after such reference is so demanded; and such arbitrator so appointed, after accepting the arbitration, shall summon before them and examine the parties and their witnesses on oath, [See form, sched. 2. APPENDIX.] and forthwith proceed to hear their complaint, and their award shall be final; but if they shall not agree as to the matter in dispute, and shall not sign their award in 5 days after the submission thereto is signed by the parties, either of the latter may require them to go before a justice for the county, &c. division or place, where such dispute shall happen, and shall be referred, and state to him the points in difference between them, which he shall determine by an examination of the parties and their witnesses on oath, if he think fit, which determination shall be signed within 3 days after expiration of the time allowed the arbitrators to make and sign their award, and shall be final; and if either of the parties or their witnesses, being duly summoned, shall not attend the arbitrators, any 1 or more such justices on proof on oath of service of the summons (as in s. 11.) and of non-attendance in pursuance thereof, (unless reasonable excuse for the same be made to satisfaction of the justice, &c.) may issue warrant to apprehend such person; and if, on being brought before him, he refuse to be examined or to give evidence before such arbitrators, he shall be by such justice committed to the house of correction till he submit to be examined before the arbitrators, or till the time of making the award by the arbitrators shall be expired. [This appears to encourage contumacy on the part of an unwilling witness.] 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 106. s. 18.

29. But if the parties who have signed any submission to arbitration shall be desirous to extend the time limited for making the award or umpirage, they may extend the same accordingly by indorsement on the back of such submission, to be signed by both in the presence of one witness, id. s. 19.

30. The submission and award may be drawn up and written at the foot of such submission on unstamped paper to the effect set forth in sched. 2. [APPENDIX], id. s. 20.

31. Two parts of the submission to arbitration shall be engrossed, one for each party, id. s. 21.

32. Where an arbitration is demanded, and the submission signed, and arbitrator therein named by either party, and the other shall refuse to sign the submission and appoint his arbitrator within the time before limited, the latter party, or if more than one, each of the parties, so refusing, on conviction before 2 or more justices, shall forfeit 10*l.*, one moiety to H. M. and the other to the poor of the parish; and in default of payment thereof forthwith, such justices shall by warrant cause the same to be levied by distress and sale, with costs thereof, and if no sufficient distress can be had, shall commit the party to the common gaol or house of correction for not more than 3, nor less than 2 calendar months, and if either party refuses to perform his part of such award or umpirage, and is convicted thereof before 2 or more such justices, they shall commit him to such gaol, &c. (as above), till he fully perform the same; but nothing herein shall extend to make any person guilty of any offence in not attending at more than 1 arbitration at the same time, or more than 2 in 1 day, and any non-resident master may authorize an agent to sign such submissions, and attend arbitrators or justices, id. s. 22.

33. Every person convicted of any offence punishable by this act, and aggrieved by the judgment of the convicting justice or justices, may appeal from such conviction to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, division, or place where such offence was committed, and the execution of every judgment so appealed from shall be suspended, in case he enter into recognizance before such justices, himself in 10*l.* penalty, with two sufficient sureties in 5*l.* each on condition to prosecute such appeal with effect, and to be forthcoming to abide the judgment of the sessions, and to pay the costs by them awarded, and the sessions shall hear and determine the appeal, and award just costs, which decision shall be final; and if, on hearing the appeal, the judgment of the justice or justices is affirmed, the appellant shall pay the penalty mentioned in the conviction, with costs, and in default of payment thereof, or if the conviction contain a judgment of imprisonment, shall immediately be committed by the court to the common gaol or house of correction according to and for the time mentioned in such conviction, and also until the costs awarded by such court be paid, id. s. 23.

34. Every action brought against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this act, or for any cause, &c. herein contained, shall be commenced within 3 calendar months, and laid in the proper county; defendant may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and if a verdict pass for defendant, or if plaintiff is nonsuit, or discontinues, or if judgment is given against him on demurrer or otherwise, defendant shall have full costs, id. s. 25.

4. Brewers for sale shall not sell beer or ale in any other barrels or vessels, other than such as shall be marked and made by coopers, and which shall contain the quantity in s. 2., set forth, id. s. 4.; one half of the penalties hereby imposed shall go to H. M., and the other to the party suing by action of debt or information, in any court wherein no essoin, &c. shall be admitted, id. s. 5.

5. The wardens of coopers in London, taking an officer of the mayor, shall search and gauge all barrels and other vessels for beer, ale, or soap, for sale within London, and 2 miles thereof, and see that the same are marked and bear their true contents, and mark them with St. Anthony's cross, and shall have a fee of 1 farthing for each vessel so searched, gauged, or marked, and may retain such vessels till such fee is paid; and if they find any of such vessels defective, not bearing their true contents, they may seize the same, and amend or destroy it, id. s. 7.

6. The owner shall forfeit 1s. for every vessel not being of their full content, to be recovered and applied as in s. 5., id. s. 8.

7. In all other towns, cities, or boroughs, where no such wardens be, the mayor, sheriff, or head officer thereof may search, gauge, and view all such like vessels therein made, in like manner as the wardens in London may, id. s. 9.

8. Every beer-brewer may keep in his house 1 or 2 coopers (and an ale-brewer 1 cooper, s. 12.) to hoop and amend his barrels, &c. id. s. 10.

9. Every person who shall minish any barrel by taking out the head thereof, or taking out any staff [or stave] thereof, shall forfeit 3s. 4d., to go in moieties to H. M. and the party suing, as in s. 5.; and such vessel shall be burnt, and such offender shall be further punished in discretion of the person afore whom such offence is presented, id. s. 11.

10. Every cooper who shall make any ale-vessel, shall make the same according to the assize specified in the compositio mensurarum, viz. according to the size in s. 2., under a penalty of 3s. 4d. for each vessel made contrary hereto, such forfeiture to go in moieties, one half to H. M. and the other to the party suing by action of debt, &c. wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 13.

11. Coopers shall mark their vessels with their own marks, under pain of 3s. 4d., to be recovered as in s. 13.; and no persons in searching for the true gauging of any such vessels, shall put the ale thereout, id. s. 14. [See rest of this section, BREN AND ALR. pl. 8.]

12. The prices of barrels, and other vessels to be sold, for ale, beer, or soap to be uttered therein, shall be rated by the head officer of every city and town corporate, where made or sold, 8 Ed. 1. c. 9. s. 4.

13. Where such vessels shall be made or sold out of such city or town, the prices thereof shall be rated by justices at the Easter quarter sessions yearly in their discretions, id. s. 5.

14. Every cooper not selling at such prices, after proclamation thereof made, shall forfeit 3s. 4d. for each vessel, one moiety to H. M. and the other to the informer suing by action of debt, in any court of record, where no essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 6.

COPYHOLD.

1. FOR CONFIRMATION of decrees made in exchequer chamber and duchy court, concerning customary or copyhold lands and tenements, 7 J. 1. c. 21.

2. All lands, tenements, and hereditaments soever, mentioned in any decrees to be made in the said courts, at any time within 3 years next ensuing the 1st day of the present session of parliament, (9th Feb. 1609.) concerning H. M.'s manors, shall be good and perfect copyhold lands, &c. id. s. 1.; and those decrees shall be confirmed by the authority of this present parliament, id. s. 2.

3. TO ENABLE LORDS OF MANORS MORE EASILY TO RECOVER their fines and to exempt infants and feme-coverts from forfeitures of their copyhold estates in particular cases, 9 G. 1. c. 29.

4. Where any person under the age of 21 years, or feme-covert, shall be entitled by descent, or surrender to the use of a last will, for by will, semble since 55 G. 3. c. 192. s. 1. pl. 16.] to be admitted tenants of any copyhold lands, tenements, or hereditaments, such infant or feme-covert, in their proper persons, or such feme-covert by her attorney, or such infant by his guardian, or in case he have no guardian, then by his attorney (for which purpose they are empowered, by writing under hand and seal, to appoint attorneys) shall appear at 1 of the 3 next courts which shall be kept for such manor, whereof such tenements shall be parcel, and shall there tender themselves to be admitted tenants; and in default of such appearance and of acceptance of such admittance, the lord or his steward, after 3 courts holden and proclamations made, may nominate at any subsequent court, any fit person to be guardian or attorney for such infant or feme-covert, for that purpose only; and by such guardian or attorney may admit such infant or feme-covert, and impose such fine as might have been imposed, if such infant had been of full age, or such feme-covert unmarried, 9 G. 1. c. 29. s. 1.

5. The fine set thereon may be demanded by the bailiff of the lord, by a note in writing signed by the lord or his steward, to be left with such infant or feme-covert, or with the guardian of such infant, or husband of such feme-covert, or with the tenant of the tenements to which they were admitted; and if the fine be not paid to the lord or his steward, within 3 months after demand, the lord may enter upon such copyhold estate, and hold the same, and receive the rents (but without liberty to sell any timber) till by such rents he be paid the fine with costs, though such infant or feme-covert happen to die before such costs and fine be raised; of all which rents received, the lord shall yearly on demand render an account, and pay the surplus to such person as shall be entitled to such copyhold estate, id. s. 2.

6. As soon as such fine and costs are satisfied, or if after such seizure and entry they are tendered, then such infant or feme-covert, or other person entitled, may enter and take possession; and if the lord, after the fine and costs satisfied, or tendered, shall refuse to deliver possession, he shall be liable to make satisfaction for all damages and costs, id. s. 3.

7. Where any infant or feme-covert is admitted to any copyhold tenements, if the guardian of such infant, or husband of such feme-covert, shall pay the lord the fine and the costs, then the guardian or the husband, their executors or administrators, may enter into and hold the said copyhold tenements, and receive the rents, till they be satisfied all the money they shall disburse on the account aforesaid, notwithstanding the death of such infant or feme-covert, id. s. 4.

8. No infant or feme-covert shall forfeit any copyhold for neglect or refusal to come to any court, and be admitted; or for the omission or refusal to pay any fine imposed on their admittance, id. s. 5.

9. If the fine imposed in any of these cases before mentioned shall not be warranted by the custom of the manor, such infant or feme-covert shall be at liberty to controvert the legality of such fine, as they might have done if this act had not been made, id. s. 6.

10. IF ANY STEWARD or other officer of any copyhold court shall demand or receive any fee for any surrender, admittance, grant, or lease, or any other copy of any court roll, without at the same time demanding and receiving the stamp-duty, and delivering such surrender or admittance, grant, or lease, or copy, to the person entitled thereto, he shall forfeit 10l., 5 G. 3. c. 46. s. 7.

11. THE INTENTION of the above clause, and the time meant thereby for delivering the copy of such surrender, &c. is as soon as the same could be prepared and made out, after receiving the fee and stamp-duty thereon, and not immediately upon receiving the same, 6 G. 3. c. 49. s. 5.

12. Such steward or other officer of any copyhold court shall be obliged to deliver the copy of such surrender, &c. to the person entitled thereto, or to some person authorized to receive the same, or to the bailiff of the manor, for the use of such person, within 1 year from the holding such court, and shall not incur the said forfeiture till after 1 year from the day of holding the same, id. s. 4.

13. CONCERNING COMMON RECOVERIES SUFFERED IN COPYHOLD OR CUSTOMARY courts by attorney, 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 8.

14. All persons not being under coverture, and every feme-covert (the latter being solely and secretly examined by the lord, lady, steward or his deputy of the manor, whereof the copyhold, of which a common recovery is proposed to be suffered, shall be holden), may appoint any person or persons to be their attorney or attorneys, for surrendering copyhold or customary tenements, common recoveries whereof are proposed to be suffered to the use of any person to make a tenant to the plaintiff; and also may appoint any other person to appear as voucher, and to enter into the usual warranty, and to do all other necessary acts for perfecting such common recoveries respectively, and to direct the demandants therein to surrender the tenements recovered, when such recovery is perfected, to the uses declared in the instrument by which such attorney or attorneys are appointed; and the surrenders and common recoveries had, acknowledged, and suffered by attorneys as above, shall have the like effect, but no other, as they would have had, had the party appeared personally in court for those purposes, 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 8. s. 1.

15. TO REMOVE CERTAIN DIFFICULTIES IN THE DISPOSITION OF copyhold estates by will, 55 G. 3. c. 192.

16. Where by the custom of any manor in Eng. or Ire. any copyhold tenant thereof may by will dispose of, or appoint, his copyhold tenement, the same having been surrendered to such uses as shall be by such will declared, every disposition or charge of any such copyholds, or of any right or title to the same, made by any such will by any person who shall die after passing this act, viz. (12 July, 1815,) shall be as effectual, although no surrender is made to the use of such will, as it would have been, had such surrender been so made, id. s. 1.

17. No person entitled, or claiming to be entitled, to copyhold lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in consequence of any testamentary dispositions, shall be entitled to be admitted thereto under this act, except on payment of all such stamp-duties, fees, and sums of money, as would have been lawfully payable in respect of the surrender thereof to the use of such will, or in respect of presenting, or in respect of the presenting, registering or enrolling such surrender, had the lands, &c. been surrendered to the use of the will of the person so disposing thereof; all which stamp-duties, fees, &c. shall be paid in addition to the stamp-duties, fees, &c. payable on admission to the same, and the stamp-duties shall be affixed to the copy of admission, id. s. 2. [and see the duty, 55 G. 3. c. 184. tit. STAMPS, Sched. Part 1. tit. COPYHOLD ADMISSION.]

18. Nothing herein shall render ineffectual any devise or disposition of any copyhold lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or of any right, title, or interest, in or to the same, which would be valid had this act not been made, or to render effectual any devise, &c. of any copyhold lands, &c. or of any right, &c. to or in the same, which would be ineffectual if a surrender had been made to the use of the will of the person attempting to dispose thereof by will, id. s. 3.

CORN.

1. To PREVENT obstructions to the free passage of grain within this kingdom, 56 G. 3. c. 9.

2. Every person who shall wilfully and maliciously beat, wound, or use other violence to any person, with intent to deter or hinder him from buying corn or grain in any market or other place within this kingdom, or shall unlawfully stop, or seize any wheat, flour, meal, malt, or other grain, in or on the way to, or from any city, market town, or place therein, or shall wilfully and maliciously break, cut, or destroy any wagon, cart, or other carriage wherein any such wheat, &c. shall be loaded, or the harness of any horse drawing or carrying the same, or shall unlawfully take off from any such carriage, or drive away, kill, or wound any such horse, or unlawfully beat or wound the driver of any such wagon, &c. or horse so loaded, with intent to stop such wheat, &c. or shall, by cutting the sacks or otherwise, scatter or throw abroad any such wheat, &c. or shall take or carry away, destroy, spoil, or damage the same, or any part thereof, and being thereof lawfully convicted before any 2 or more justices of the county, city, town, or place corporate, wherein such offence shall be committed, or before the justices in open sessions, who are hereby empowered summarily and finally to hear and determine the same, shall be sent to the common gaol or house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 3 months, or less than one month, id. s. 1.

3. Every person so convicted, who shall commit any such offence a 2d time, and every person who, with intent to hinder any corn, meal, flour, malt, or grain, from being lawfully removed from any place soever, shall wilfully and maliciously pull or throw down, or otherwise destroy any storehouse, granary, or other place in which corn, &c. shall be then kept, or shall unlawfully enter any such storehouse, granary, or other place, and take away any corn, &c. therefrom, or throw abroad, or spoil the same, or any part thereof, or shall unlawfully enter on board any ship, barge, boat, or vessel, and wilfully, &c. take and carry away, cast, or throw out therefrom, or otherwise spoil or damage any corn, &c. therein, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and transported for 7 years, and on return from transportation, before expiration of 7 years, shall suffer death as a felon without clergy; but no attainder for any offence made felony by this act, shall work corruption of blood, loss of dower, or disinheritance, id. s. 2.

4. The inhabitants of every hundred in Eng. wherein any such offence shall be committed, shall make full satisfaction to every person, their executors and administrators for damage sustained by injury done to their property by any offender against this act; and every person so sustaining damages, shall sue for and recover the same (if not exceeding 100*l.*) against the hundred, to be levied as in 27 E. 1. c. 13. and 8 G. 2. c. 16. provided, id. s. 3.

5. No person shall recover damages under this act, unless he give notice thereof by himself or servants, within 2 days after such offence committed, to one of the constables of the hundred, or to the constable, borough, headborough, or tithingman, of the town, parish, village, hamlet, or tithing, in or near which such fact is committed, and shall, within 10 days after such notice, give in his examination on oath, or that of his servants being present at the time of the fact committed, or having the care of such property to which the injury is done, before any justice of the county or division, whether he or they know the offenders, or any of them; if it is confessed that all or any of them are so known, the person confessing shall be bound by recognizance to prosecute the offender under this act, or other laws of this realm, 36 G. 3. c. 9. s. 4.

CORONER.

6. Where any offender is apprehended, and lawfully convicted of any offence against this act, within 12 months after it is committed, no hundred or franchise therein shall be liable to make any satisfaction to the party injured for his damages; and no person sustaining any damage, by reason of any offence against this act, shall be hereby enabled to sue any hundred where such offence is committed, till after expiration of one year, nor unless he commence his action within 2 years next, after the offence committed, id. s. 5.

7. Nothing herein shall abridge any provision already made by law for suppression, or punishment of any offence herein described; but no person punished under this act shall be punished for the same offence under any other statute, id. s. 6.

CORONER.

(STATUTE repealed.)

1. [Recital of 3 H. 7. c. 1. s. 3. (infra, pl. 15.) and that, since that statute, coroners have used not to enquire on view of a body slain by misadventure, except they have fee, which is contrary to common law and to 3 H. 7. c. 1.] No fee shall be paid to a coroner for doing his office on view of any body slain, &c. or dead by misadventure, 1 H. 8. c. 7. [semb. R. 25 G. 2. c. 29.]

1. WHAT SORT of men shall be coroners, 5 E. 1. c. 10. [Am. 28 E. 3. c. 6. R. as to that part which enacts that no fees shall be taken by coroners, 25 G. 2. c. 29.]

2. Sufficient men of the most wise and discreet knights, [most meet and lawful people, 28 E. 3. c. 6.] found in each county, who best know, and will and can attend on such offices, and who shall lawfully attach and present pleas of the crown, shall be chosen, [in full counties by the commons thereof, id. ibid.] to be coroners; and the sheriff shall have counter rolls, with the coroners of inquests' attachments, and other things of their office, [saving all franchises of H. M., and others who ought to appoint such coroners, id. ibid.] 5 E. 1. c. 10. 28 E. 3. c. 6.

3. DE OFFICIO CORONATORIS, 4 E. 1. s. 2.

4. The things to be inquired of by the coroner, if he be certified by H. M.'s bailiff, or other good men of the county, are these,—First, he shall go to the places where any be slain, or suddenly dead, or wounded, or where houses are broken, or treasure said to be found, and shall command those of the 4, or 5 or 6 next townships, to appear before him at a certain place; and when they are come thither, the coroner, on their oath, shall inquire, viz. if they know where the person was slain, whether in field, house, bed, tavern, or company, and who were culpable of the act or force, and who were present, either men or women, of what age soever they be, if they can speak, or have discretion; and those found culpable by the inquest, in any of the above manners, shall be taken and delivered to the sheriff, and committed to gaol; and such as be found, and be not culpable, shall be attached till the coming of the justices, and their names written in the coroner's rolls. If any man be slain, and found in the fields or woods, it must first be inquired whether he were slain in that place or not; and if he were brought and laid there, the steps of those persons, or of any horse or cart, who brought him thither, shall be followed as much as can be. It shall be enquired also, if the deceased is known, or is a stranger, and where he lay the night before; and if any be found culpable of the murder, the coroners shall go into his house and make inquisition of his lands and goods, and shall value the same which shall thereupon be delivered to the whole township, which shall be answerable before the justices for all; and likewise of his freehold, how much it is worth yearly above the service due to the lords of the fee, and the land shall remain in H. M.'s hands till the lords of the fee have made fine for the same; and immediately on these things being inquired, the bodies shall be buried, 4 E. 1. s. 2. s. 1.

5. In like manner it shall be inquired of those drowned, or suddenly dead, and on view of the bodies it may be seen whether they were so drowned, or slain, or strangled, by the sign of a cord tied straight about their necks, or by marks on any of their limbs, or hurts on the bodies so found, and on which proceeding shall be had as above; and if they were not slain, then the coroner ought to attach the finders, and all others in company, id. s. 2.

6. Coroners also ought to inquire of treasure trove, who were the finders, and who is suspected thereof, and that may be well perceived where one liveth as he was wont to do, or haunting taverns, and hath done so of long time, whereupon he may be attached for this suspicion by 46 or more pledges, id. ibid.

7. If any be appealed of rape, he must be attached if the appeal be fresh, and they can see apparent sign of truth, by effusion of blood, or open cry made, and such shall be attached by 4 or 6 pledges; but if it be without cry, or manifest sign, two pledges shall be sufficient, 4 E. 1. s. 2. id.

8. On appeal of wounds and such like, especially if mortal, the parties appealed shall be taken immediately, and kept till it be known perfectly whether he that is hurt shall recover or not, and if he die, the accused shall be kept; but if he recover health, he shall be attached by 4 or 6 pledges, as the wound is great or small; if for a maim, then by 4 pledges; but if for a small wound, without maim, 2 pledges shall suffice: also of wounds, it should be viewed what is their length, breadth, and depth, with what weapons, and in what part of the body inflicted, and if many be culpable, and there be many wounds, who gave each wound; all which things must be inrolled in the coroner's roll, [and see 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 13. s. 5, pl. 19.] id. ibid.

9. Those appealed of the act done [viz. principals] shall be taken, and those appealed of the force [viz. accessories] shall be attached and surely kept in ward until those appealed of the act be attainted or delivered, id. ibid.

10. Concerning horses, boats, carts, &c. whereby any are slain, that properly are called deadlands [or finer], they shall be valued and delivered to the townships, as above, id. ibid.

11. Concerning wreck of the sea [see 3 Ed. 1. c. 4. WILCK, infra.] whosoever found, if any lay hands on it, he shall be attached by sufficient pledges, and the price shall be valued and delivered to the townships, id. ibid.

12. If any be suspected of the death of any man being in danger of life, he shall be convicted as above, and, in like manner, huy shall be levied for all murders, burglaries, and for men slain, or in peril to be slain, as is elsewhere used in Eng., and all shall follow the huy and steps, if it can be done, and he who doth not, and is thereon convict, shall be attached to be before the justices of the gaol, &c., id. ibid.

13. THE JURISDICTION OF CORONERS WITHIN THE VERGE, 28 Ed. 1. c. 3.

14. In cases of the death of men, whereof the coroner's office is to make view and inquest, it shall be commanded to the coroner of the country [de pais] that he, with the coroner of H.M.'s house, shall do his duty, and inrol the same, and what cannot be determined before the steward of H.M.'s house for that the felons cannot be attached, or for other cause, shall remain as at common law, so that the exigents, outlawries, and presentments in eyre, shall be made thereupon by the coroner of the county, as well as of other felonies done out of the verge; and they shall not omit, by reason hereof, to make attachments freshly on the felonies done, id. s. 2.

15. RESPECTING THE DUTY OF CORONERS; 3 H. 7. c. 1. ss. 3—5. [These sections are considered a separate act in printed Rot. Parl. nu. 21. That part of the statute which relates to appeals is R.E. 59 G. 1. c. 46. s. 1.; and see the rest of the statute HOMICIDE.]

16. Every coroner shall do his office according to this statute, viz. the coroner upon view of a body dead, shall inquire of the slayers thereof, their abettors and consenters, and who were present, and shall inrol and certify what is so found; and after the felony found, the coroners shall deliver their inquisitions before the justices of the next gaol delivery in the shire, who shall proceed against such murderers, if they be in the gaol, or else shall put the inquisitions into K.B., id. s. 5.

17. [Recital that at common law coroners had nothing for doing their office, which has often occasioned remissions therein], a coroner shall have for his fee on every inquest, on view of the body slain, 13s. 4d., of the goods and chattels of the murderer, if he has any goods, and if not, then he shall have for his said fee of such amerciaments as shall fortune any township to be amerced for escape of such murderer, id. s. 1. [Re-enacted 25 G. 2. c. 29. s. 3., infra, pl. 25.]

18. If any coroner is remiss, and does not make inquest on view of the body dead, and does not certify (as in s. 3.), he shall forfeit 100l. to H.M., id. s. 5.

19. EVERY CORONER, ON INQUISTION FOUND, whereby any person shall be indicted for murder or manslaughter, or as accessory before the murder, &c. committed, shall put in writing the effect of the evidence, and as well 2 justices, 1 being of the quorum [see s. 1. BAIL, pl. 10.] as the coroner shall have authority to bind all such by recognizance as declare any thing material to prove the murder, manslaughter, offences, or felonies, or to be accessory to the same as above, to appear at the next gaol delivery to give evidence against the party indicted, and shall certify as well the evidence as the bonds, together with the indictment; and if any justice or coroner shall offend contrary hereto, the justices of gaol delivery, on proof thereof by examination, shall set a fine on the justices and coroner, 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 13. s. 5.

20. FOR GIVING PROPER REWARD TO CORONERS FOR DUE EXECUTION of their office, and for removing them, on lawful conviction, for certain misdemeanors, 25 G. 2. c. 29.

21. For every inquisition not taken on the view of a body dying in prison, and duly taken within Eng. by any coroner in any township or place assessed to county-rates under 12 G. 2. c. 29., the sum of 20s., and for every mile he shall travel from the place of his abode, to take such inquisition, 9d. over and above the said 20s., shall be paid to him out of the monies arising from the above rates by order of the justices in general or quarter sessions for the county or liberty where such inquisition is taken, for which order no fee shall be paid to the clerk of the peace or other officer, 25 G. 2. c. 29. s. 1.

22. For every inquisition taken by any county-coroner on view of a body dying in any prison within Eng. so much money, not exceeding 20s., shall be paid to him as the justices in general or quarter sessions for the county or division wherein such prison is situate, shall allow by their order out of the county-rates; for which order no fee shall be paid, id. s. 2.

23. Besides the 20s. mentioned in s. 1. a coroner, who holds an inquest on view of a body slain, shall have also the fee of 13s. 4d. of the goods of the murderer, payable by 3 H. 7. c. 1. [supra, pl. 17.], or out of the amerciaments imposed on the township of the slayer, id. s. 5.

24. No coroner, to whom any benefit is given by this act, shall take for his office doing, in case of the death of any person, any fee other than the 13s. 4d. limited by 3 H. 7. c. 1. and other than the 20s. by this act, on pain of being deemed guilty of extortion, id. s. 4.

25. No coroner of the king's household, and of the verge of his palaces, nor of admiralty, nor of the county palatine of Durham, nor of the city of London and borough of Southwark, nor of any franchises belonging to the said city, nor of any other city, borough, town, liberty or franchise not assessed to county rates under 12 G. 2. c. 29. or within which such rates have not usually been assessed, shall be entitled to fee under this act, but may receive the fees and salaries to which they were entitled before this act, or which are given them by the person appointing them, id. s. 5.

26. If any coroner, not annually appointed, or whose office is not annexed to any other office, be convicted of extortion, or wilful neglect of duty, or other misdemeanor in office, the court before whom he is convicted may adjudge that he be removed from his office; and therefore, if such coroner has been elected by the freeholders of any county, a writ shall issue for his removal, and for electing another in his stead in the usual form of law; and if he has been appointed by the lord of any liberty, or in any other manner than by election of the freeholders as above, the lord of such liberty or person entitled to such nomination shall, on notice of such judgment of removal, nominate another coroner in his stead, id. s. 6.

27. TO REGULATE THE ELECTION OF CORONERS FOR COUNTIES, 58 G. 3. c. 95.

28. On every election of a coroner, or coroners of any county in Eng. and Wa., the sheriff shall hold his county court for such election at the most usual place of elections of coroners within such county for 10 years last past, and shall there proceed to election at the next county court, unless the same fall out to be held within 6 days after receipt of the writ de coronatore eligendo, or on the same day, and then shall adjourn the court to some convenient day, not exceeding 14 days, giving 10 days' notice of the time and place of election; and if the election is not determined on the view with consent of the freeholders there present, and if a poll is demanded, then the sheriff, or, in his absence, the under-sheriff, with his deputies, shall forthwith there proceed to take the same in some public place, commencing on the day when demanded, and proceeding therein from day to day (except Sunday, till finished, but not for more than 10 days at most (except Sunday), keeping the same open 7 hours each day between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., and such sheriff, &c. shall appoint a convenient number of clerks for taking the poll in his presence, who, before they begin to take the poll, shall, by such sheriff, &c. be sworn, truly and indifferently to take the same, and to set down the names of each freeholder, and the place of his abode and freehold, and the name of the occupier thereof, and for whom he shall poll, and to poll no freeholder who is not sworn, if so required by any candidate; and such clerk shall take the poll in presence of such sheriff, &c., and the sheriff, &c. shall appoint for each candidate a person nominated to him by the latter to be inspector of the poll clerks, and every freeholder before polling shall, if required by any candidate, take the following oath, to be administered by the sheriff, his under-sheriff, or such sworn poll clerk, viz.

'You swear [or, being a quaker, solemnly affirm] that you are a freeholder of the county of —, and have a freehold estate consisting of —, lying at — within the said county, and that such freehold estate has not been granted to you fraudulently, on purpose to qualify you to give your vote at this election; and that the place of your abode is at — [specifying street or place] that you are 21 years old as you believe, and that you have not been before polled at this election.'

and every freeholder, or other person taking such oath or affirmation, who shall thereby commit wilful perjury, and be convicted thereof, and every person who shall suborn any freeholder to take such oath, &c. whereby he shall commit such perjury, shall be liable, for their respective offences, to the penalties of 5 Ed. c. 9. and 2 G. 2. c. 25., 58 G. 3. c. 95. s. 1.

29. No trustees or mortgagees shall be allowed any vote at such elections by reason of any trust estate or mortgage, unless they are in actual possession or receipt of the rents and profits of the estate, but the mortgagor and cestuique trust in possession, may vote for the same notwithstanding such mortgage or trust; and all conveyances soever, in order to multiply voices or split the interest in any houses or lands among several persons to enable them to vote at elections for a county coroner, are void, 58 G.3. c.95. s.2.

30. All the reasonable expenses incurred by such sheriff, &c. (as in s.1.) in providing poll books, booths and clerks (the latter to be paid not more than 1*l.* per day) for making the poll at any such election, shall be paid by the candidates in equal proportions, id. s.3.

CORPORATION.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR WELL GOVERNING and regulating of corporations, 13 C.2. s.2. c.1. [ss.2,3, 8,9,11—14,15. Exp.] and s.4—7,10. Rff. 5 G.1. c.6. s.2. (which repeals so much of this act as requires the taking the oath or declaration therein mentioned, and neither of them shall be required for the future), [but see s.12,13,16. pl. 9,11,12., still in force.]

2. TO PREVENT disputes which may arise by officers and members of corporations having neglected to sign the association and take the oaths in due time, 11 & 12 W.3. c.17. [Exp.]

3. TO INDEMNIFY members of cities, corporations and boroughs who have neglected to take oaths and stamp admissions, &c. and for allowing them further time for those purposes, 28 G.2. c.3. Exp.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. AGAINST MAKING private and unlawful statutes by corporations, 19 H.7. c.7.

2. No masters, wardens, and fellowships of crafts or mysteries, nor rulers of guilds or fraternities, shall make or execute any acts or ordinances by them made in diminution of the prerogative of H.M. or other, or against the common profit of the people, unless examined and approved by the chancellor, treasurer, or chief justices of either bench, or three of them, or before both judges of assize in their circuit in that shire where such acts are made on pain of forfeiture of 40*l.* for every offence, id. s.1.

3. No order shall be made by such corporations to restrain any persons from suing to H.M., or in his courts, or to punish them for so doing, on penalty of 40*l.* for every offence, id. s.2.

4. FOR LEASES OF HOSPITALS, COLLEGES, AND OTHER CORPORATIONS, to be good and effectual with consent of the majority, 33 H.8. c.27.

5. Every order and statute made or to be made by any founder of any hospital, college, deanery, or other corporation whereby the grant or election of the governor thereof, with the assent of the majority of those of such hospital, &c. who have a voice of assent to the same, should be hindered or let by any one or more, being the minority of such corporation contrary to common law shall be void, and no persons of such corporations shall henceforth be compelled to take any oath for the observing of any such order, &c. on pain that the party giving such oath shall forfeit 5*l.*, to go one moiety to H.M., and the other to the party that will sue for it by action of debt, or information in any court of record wherein no essoin, &c. or dilatory plea shall be allowed, id. ibid.

6. TOUCHING COMMISSIONS OF THE PEACE AND GAOL DELIVERY, in towns corporate, not being counties of themselves, 2 & 3 P.& M. c.19. [and recital in s.1.]

7. All commissions to be granted to any city or town corporate not being a county of itself, for the keeping of its peace and delivery of its goals, shall be good in law notwithstanding after-dated commissions are granted to any commissioners for like purposes in the shire, id. s.2.

8. FOR WELL GOVERNING CORPORATIONS 13 C.2. S.2. c.1. ss.12—13. 16. [Virtually Abd. 5 G.1. c.6. s.3.]

9. No person shall be placed or chosen in any office of mayor, alderman, recorder, bailiff, town-clerk, common council-man, or other office of magistracy, place, trust, or employment concerning the government of any city, corporation, borough, cinque port, and their members, or other port town, who shall not within 1 year next after such choice, take the sacrament of the Lord's supper, according to the rites of the church of Eng., and every such person shall likewise take the oaths of allegiance and supremacy at the time when the oath for due execution of the office is administered in default of which every such choice is void, 13 C.2. S.2. c.1. s.12.

10. No person placed or elected into any office or member of any corporation that were required by 13 C.2. s.2. c.1. s.12. to take the sacrament within 1 year next before their election, shall be removed by the corporation, or otherwise prosecuted for such omission; nor shall any disability or penalty be incurred thereby unless such person be so removed, or such prosecution commenced within 6 months after such person's election into his office; and in case of a prosecution shall be carried on without wilful delay, 5 G.1. c.6. s.5.

11. Every person placed in any corporation by virtue of this act, shall, on his admission, take the oaths usually taken by its members, 13 C.2. S.2. c.1. s.13.

12. This act shall not extend to or prejudice any person having reversion of any offices in London, by virtue of any grant or nomination of the mayor and aldermen, made, &c. to him before the late wars for aid in respect of such grant, &c. only, id. s.16.

13. FOR PREVENTING THE INCONVENIENCES ARISING FOR WANT OF elections of mayors or other chief magistrates of boroughs or corporations being made on the days appointed by charter or usage for that purpose, and directing in what manner they shall be afterwards made, 11 G.1. c.4.

14. If in any city, borough, or town corporate, in Eng., Wa., and Ber., no election shall be made of the mayor, bailiff, or chief officer, on the day, or within the time, appointed by charter or usage, or if such election being made, shall afterwards become void, the corporation shall not be dissolved; but where no election shall be made, the members of such city &c. who having a right to vote, or be present, or do any necessary act at such election, shall assemble in the town-hall or usual place of meeting, on the day next after the expiration of the time within which such election ought to have been made, unless such day be Sunday, and then on Monday following, between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., and proceed to the election of a mayor, &c. and do every act necessary to completing such election; and if upon such day of meeting hereby appointed, the mayor or other officer, who ought to have held the court, shall be absent, then such other person, having a right to vote, being the nearest then present, shall hold the court, and have the same power as belongs to the mayor, &c., id. s.1.

15. If in any city, &c. no election be made of the mayor, &c. on the day, or within the time appointed by charter or usage, and no election is made pursuant to s.1.; or if such election being made shall afterwards become void; the court of K.B., on motion, may award a mandamus, requiring the members of such city, &c. having a right to vote, to assemble themselves on a day and time prefixed in such writ, and to proceed to election, or to signify to the court good cause to the contrary; and thereupon to cause such proceedings to be made as in other cases of mandamus for election of officers of corporations; and of the day and time appointed by the writ, public notice in writing shall be affixed in the market-place, or some other public place, 6 days before the day appointed; and such officer shall preside in the assembly as ought to have presided at the election of such mayor, &c. in case the election had been made on the day herein prescribed, id. s.2.

16. In boroughs and towns corporate, where the mayor or other chief officer is to be nominated or sworn at a court-leet or some other court, and it happens that no due nomination or swearing of him is made, the court of K.B., on motion, may award a mandamus, requiring the lord, or his steward, or other officer, to hold such court-leet or other court at such time as shall be judged proper by K.B., or to signify to the court good cause to the contrary, and thereupon to cause such proceedings to be made as in other cases of mandamus for holding of any court and of the time appointed by such writ for holding such court; public notice in writing shall be affixed in the market or some other public place, 6 d. before the day appointed; and where a nomination of persons in order to the election of any mayor, &c. is to be made at such court-leet or other court, then after which nomination made, all other acts necessary for such election shall be done at such assembly, as if such election had been made as in s.1., id. s.3.

17. The mayor or other chief officer, elected pursuant to this act, shall take the oaths required at the time of his admission, before the officer presiding at such election; and shall have the same powers as any mayor, &c. of the city, &c. elected on the day fixed by charter or usage, id. s.4.

18. No such election shall be valid, unless as great a number of persons having right to be present and vote therein, shall be present and concur, as would have been necessary in case the same had been made within the time appointed by charter or usage, saving only that the presence of the mayor or other chief officer shall not be necessary, id. s.5.

19. If any mayor, bailiff, or other chief officer of any city, &c. shall voluntarily absent himself from, or knowingly and designedly hinder the election of any mayor, &c. within the time appointed by charter or usage, being lawfully convicted, he shall suffer imprisonment 6 months, and be disabled to hold any office belonging to the same corporation, id. s.6.

20. Nothing herein shall invalidate any charter accepted by any city, &c. nor make good the election of any officer or member against whom judgment of outlaw shall have been given upon any information in nature of a quo warranto, or whose election shall have been avoided on any writ of mandamus, on or before the last day of Michaelmas term, 1724, id. s.8.

21. Where any writ of mandamus shall issue out of K.B. in any of the above cases, the persons to whom the same is directed shall make their return the first writ, 11 G.1. c.4. s.9.

22. FOR REGULATING THE PROCEEDINGS OF CERTAIN PUBLIC COMPANIES AND CORPORATIONS, carrying on trade, or dealings with joint stocks, in respect to the declaring of dividends, and for further regulating the qualifications of members for voting in their respective general courts, 7 G.3. c.48. (PUBLIC clerks, s.4.)

23. No member of any public company or corporation, instituted by act of parliament and royal charter, for carrying on any trade with joint stocks, shall be qualified, or admitted to vote in any general court of such company, in respect of any stock transferred to him, until he has been possessed thereof 6 calendar months, unless it has been acquired by bequest, marriage, succession to intestate's estates, the customs of London, or by any deed of settlement after death of any person, entitled for life to the dividends thereof, 7 G.3. c.48. s.1. [See as to collusive transfers of East India stock to qualify votes, 13 G.3. c.63. s.3.]

24. The several oaths and affirmations, at present, by statute or charter required to be taken by the members intitled to vote, as in s.1., at or before giving their votes, shall be altered, to comprise the further qualification by this act required, in respect of the continuance of possession of such stock, and shall be taken accordingly, id. s.2.

25. No declaration of a dividend shall be made by any general court of any such company, other than one of the half-yearly or quarterly general courts, at the distance of 5 calendar months, at least, from the last preceding declaration of a dividend, nor shall more than one half-yearly dividend be declared by one general court; and no question, on any proposition for increasing the dividend, shall be decided otherwise than by ballot taken at 3 entire days at least from the adjournment or breaking up of the general court where it is proposed, id. s.3.

26. FOR GIVING RELIEF IN PROCEEDINGS ON WRITS OF mandamus for admission of freemen into corporations, and for other purposes, 12 G.3. c.21. [Virtually Am. as to s.2. by 32 G.3. c.58. s.4.]

27. Where any person shall be entitled to be admitted a citizen, burgess, or freeman of any city, town corporate, borough, cinque port, or place, and shall apply for that purpose to the mayor or other officer, therein having authority to admit citizens, &c., and shall give notice, specifying the nature of his claim, to such mayor, &c., that if he shall not so admit such person a citizen, &c. within one month from the time of such notice, the court of K.B. will be applied to for a mandamus to compel such admission; and if such mayor, &c. shall, after such notice, refuse to admit such person, and a mandamus shall afterwards issue to compel such admission, and in obedience thereto, such person is admitted, then he shall (unless the court see cause to the contrary) receive from the said mayor, &c. all the costs of the rule for enforcing the same, which if not obeyed, shall be enforced in like manner as other rules of the court, id. s.1.

28. The mayor, bailiff, town-clerk, or other officer of any city, &c. (as in s.1.) having custody of, or power over the records of the same, shall on demand of any two freemen or burgesses, permit them and their agent or agents, at any time between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. to inspect the entries of admission of freemen, burgesses, or other inferior corporations, and to take copies and extracts therefrom, paying 2s. 6d. for each inspection, and 4d. for every copy or extract not exceeding 72 words, and so in proportion; and if such mayor, &c. refuse the inspection of such entries, or to give copies, &c. as above directed, he shall for every such refusal forfeit 100l. to any person who shall sue, to be recovered with full costs by action of debt, in any court of record at Westminster, commenced within one year, and it is sufficient that plaintiff should allege in his declaration, that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff in 100l. for money had and received to his use, id. s.2.

29. The mayor, &c. or other officer of any corporation, having the custody of or power over the records of the same, shall on demand of any officer or member of the same, and on payment of 1s. permit such person on any day, except Christmas-day, Good-friday and Sunday, between 9 A.M. and 3 P.M., to inspect the books and papers wherein the entries of the admissions or swearing in of the freemen, &c. and other corporation officers are made, and to have copies of such entries on paying 6d. for every 100 words for writing the same, and if such mayor, &c. shall refuse such inspection or the having such copies, he shall for every offence, forfeit 100l. with costs, to the party who shall sue, within one year after the offence, by action of debt, or information in any court of record at Westminster, without essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance allowed, 33 G.3. c.58. s.4. [The enactments in the two last placita appear concurrent, though the object of the statutes of which they form a part is different. See rest of 33 G.3. c.58. tit. Quo Warranto.]

CORRUPTION OF BLOOD.

1. TO TAKE AWAY CORRUPTION OF BLOOD, except in certain cases, 54 G.3. c.145.

2. No attainder for felony, which shall take place after [27th July, 1814.] except in the cases of high or petit-treason, or murder, or of abetting, procuring, or counselling the same, shall extend to disinheriting of any heir, or to the prejudice of the right or title of any person other than that of the offender, during his natural life only; and every person, to whom the right or interest of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, after offender's death should have appertained, if no such attainder had been, may enter thereon, id. s.1.

COSTS AND DAMAGES.

1. AGAINST WHOM DAMAGES AND COSTS shall be recovered in pleas of land, 6 E.1. (st. Glo.) c.1. [EXPLANATIONES 1 Stat. 8vo. ed. 136.]

2. In assize of novel disseisin, if the disseisees aliene the lands, and have not whereof damages may be levied, they to whose hands such tenements come shall be charged with such damages, so that every one answer for his own time. Also the disseiser shall recover damages in a writ of entry upon novel disseisin, against him that is found tenant after the disseiser. Also, damages shall be awarded, where a man recovers by assize of mort d'ancestor, as in assize of novel disseisin, and likewise on writs cosinage, aial, and beaial, 6 E.1. c.1. s.1.

3. The demandant may recover against the tenant the costs of his writ purchased with the damages aforesaid. And every person shall render damages where land is recovered against him, upon his own intrusion or act, id. s.2.

4. A CITIZEN OF LONDON shall recover in an assize damages with the land, 6 E.1. c.14. [EXPLANATIONES 1 Stat. 8vo. ed. 136.]

5. Disseisees being citizens of London shall have their damages by recognizance of the same assize whereby they recovered their land, and the disseisers shall be amerced before two barons of exchequer, which shall resort to the city once a year, so to do, at their rising after Candlemas, and amerciaments by summons of exchequer shall be levied to H. M.'s use, and delivered at the exchequer, 6 E.1. c.14.

6. As to the first article, they who have entry only by disseisin shall be charged with damages which shall run from the time of the statute published: in the samewise, in writs of entry upon disseisin. Of damages in all writs of mort d'ancestor, cosinage, aial, beaial, of intrusion, or by one's own act by any writ, damages, shall run, after writ purchased, albeit their ancestors died seised, EXPL. stat. Glo. 6 E.1. 8vo. ed. p. 156.

7. THE DEFENDANT SHALL RECOVER COSTS against the plaintiff, if the plaintiff be nonsuited, or if the verdict pass against him, 25 H.8. c.16. [Am. as to penal actions, 24 H.8. c.8. 4 J.1. c.3. (and s.1.)]

8. If any person sue in any court any action, bill, or plaint of trespass, on 5 R.2. stat. 1. c.8. for wrongful entry in lands, or any action, &c. on any debt, or covenant on especially made to the plaintiff, or upon any contract supposed to be made between the plaintiffs and any persons, or any action, &c. of detinue of goods, where the plaintiffs shall suppose that the property belongeth to them, or any action, &c. of account in which plaintiffs suppose the defendants to be their bailiffs or receivers of their manor, mesne, money, or goods, or any action, &c. upon the case, or upon any statute for any offence, or wrong personal immediately supposed to be done to the plaintiffs, and the plaintiffs after appearance of the defendants be nonsuited, or any verdict happen to pass against them, the defendants shall have judgment to recover costs against such plaintiffs, to be taxed by discretion of judges of the court where such action, &c. shall be; and every defendant in such action, &c. shall have such process and execution for recovery of his costs, as the plaintiffs might have had against the defendant, in case judgment had been given for the plaintiffs, 25 H.8. c.15. s.1.

9. Provided that every such poor person being plaintiff, which at commencement of their actions be admitted by the judge to have their process and counsel of charity, shall not be compelled to pay costs by this statute, but shall suffer other punishment, by discretion of the judge, id. s.2.

10. WHEN THE DEFENDANT SHALL NOT RECOVER ANY COSTS, 24 H.8. c.8. albeit that plaintiffs be nonsuited in any action, &c. to be sued to the use of H. M., or that it happens that verdict pass against any such plaintiff in such actions, the defendant shall not recover any costs against plaintiffs, 24 H.8. c.8.

11. If any person shall sue in any court, any action, bill, or plaint of trespass, ejectione firmæ, or any other action whatsoever, wherein the plaintiff or demandant might have costs (if judgment be given for him), and such plaintiffs or demandants, after appearance of the defendant, be nonsuited, or verdict pass against them, then the defendants shall have judgment to recover costs against them, to be assessed and taxed as in 23 H.8. c.15. mentioned, 4 J.1. c.3. s.2.

12. FOR PREVENTING THE RECOVERY OF ANY GREATER COSTS than damages in certain actions therein mentioned, when the damages awarded shall be under 40s. [this title is framed; but see as to wilful trespass, 8 & 9 W. 3. c.11. s.4. post, pl. 92.] 45 E.1. c.6. s.2. [Con. 3 C.1. c.4. s.22. and indefinitely, 16 C.1. c.4. EXT. to actions for slander, 21 J.1. c.16.]

s. 6. AND. 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 9. s. 136. EXT. to the counties palatine, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 9. s. 1.]

13. If on any actions personal brought in the courts at Westminster, not being for any title or interest of lands, nor concerning the freehold or inheritance of any lands, nor for any battery, it appears to the judge and [Q. b.] so signified, or set down by the justices before whom tried, that the debt or damages, to be recovered therein, shall not amount to 40s., or more, then such judge before whom such action is pursued, shall not award to the plaintiff any greater costs than damages, but less at discretion, 45 El. c. 6. s. 2.

14. In all actions of trespass, assault, and battery, and other personal actions, wherein the judge, at the trial, shall not find and certify, under his hand on the record, that an assault and battery was proved, or that the freehold or title of the land, mentioned in the declaration, was chiefly in question, the plaintiff if the jury shall find the damages to be under 40s. shall not recover more costs than damages, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 9. s. 136.

15. If any more costs are awarded in any such action, the judgment shall be void, and the defendant acquitted of the same, and may have his action against plaintiff for such vexatious suit, and recover his damages and costs in any court, at Westminster, id. ibid.

16. In all actions on the case for slanderous words sued in the courts of record, at Westminster, or any other courts, if the jury upon the trial of the said actions, or the jury enquiring of the damages, do assess the damages under 40s., then the plaintiff shall recover only so much costs as damages, 21 J. 1. c. 16. s. 6.

17. The 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 9. s. 136., and all other provisions for prevention of frivolous and vexatious suits, commenced in the courts of Westminster, shall extend to all such suits to be commenced in the courts of great sessions for W. a., and for county palatine of Chester, court of C. P. of county palatine of Lancaster, and court of pleas for the county palatine of Durham, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 9. s. 1.

18. FOR BETTER PREVENTING FRIVOLOUS AND VEXATIOUS SUITS, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 11. (ss. 1—5.) See rest of this act, Action, pl. 15—19.

19. Where several persons shall be made defendants to any action, or plaint of trespass, assault, false imprisonment, or ejectione firme, and any one or more shall be acquitted by verdict, every person so acquitted, shall recover costs, as if the verdict had been given against plaintiff and acquitted all the defendants, unless the judge trying the cause shall, after the trial in open court, certify on the record, under his hand, that there was reasonable cause for making such person defendant, id. s. 1.

20. If any person shall commence in any court of record, any action, &c., wherein, on any demurrer, either by the plaintiff or the defendant, demandant, or tenant, judgment shall be given against such plaintiff or demandant; or, if at any time after judgment given for the defendant, in such action, &c., the plaintiff or demandant shall sue out any writ of error to annul such judgment, and such judgment shall be afterwards affirmed, or such writ of error discontinued, or the plaintiff nonsuited, therein the defendant or tenant shall have judgment to recover his costs against such plaintiff or demandant, and have execution for the same, by ca. so., fi. fa., and elegit. &c. s. 2.

21. In all actions of waste, and of debt, on statute for not setting forth tithes, wherein the single value, or damage found by the jury, shall not exceed 20 nobles, and in all suits on any writ of sci. fa., and on prohibitions, the plaintiff obtaining judgment, or any award of execution after plea or demurrer, shall recover his costs; and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or suffers a discontinuance, or a verdict pass against him, the defendant shall recover his costs, and have execution for the same, as in s. 2., id. s. 7.

22. In all actions of trespass, in any court at Westminster, wherein, at the trial, it shall appear, and be certified by the judge, under his hand, on the record, that the trespass, on which the defendant is found guilty, was wilful and malicious, the plaintiff shall not only recover his damages, but his full costs also, id. s. 1. [See 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 9. s. 136. ante, pl. 14—15.]

23. Nothing herein shall affect the laws, as to executors or administrators, in cases where they are not at present liable to costs, id. s. 5.

24. IN ALL actions brought in Eng. and Ire., upon any judgment recovered in any court in Eng. or Ire., the plaintiff shall not recover costs, unless the court shall otherwise order, 43 G. 3. c. 46. s. 4., [and see, as to costs, where the plaintiff shall not recover the amount of the sum, for which he cause any arrest to be made, 43 G. 3. c. 46. s. 3., ARREST, pl. 37.]

COTTAGES.

(STATUTE repealed.)

1. AGAINST erecting cottages, without laying four acres of ground to them, &c., 31 El. c. 7. [Rep. 15 G. 3. c. 58, and see 3 & 4 Ed. 6. c. 3. ss. 5—6, ante, COMMON, pl. 6. and 7.]

COTTON MANUFACTURES.

COTTON MANUFACTURES.

(STATUTE repealed.)

1. FOR SETTLING DISPUTES that may arise between masters and workmen, engaged in the cotton manufacture in Eng., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 90., (PUBLIC clause, id. s. 12.) (Rep. as to settling such disputes by arbitration, and the power of the arbitrators to administer oaths, by 44 G. 3. c. 87. s. 1., which in effect, repeals the whole act, except ss. 7—11. which see infra.)

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR LENGTH, breadth, and weight, of cottons, frizes, and rugs, 8 El. c. 12. s. 2., and ss. 6—9.

2. NO PERSON shall put to sale within the county of Lancaster, or convey out of that county, any cloths, cottons, frizes, or rugs, made therein, to be sold, before the owner or maker shall fix to every such cloth, &c. one seal of lead, having the mark of the clothier engraved on one side, and the length of such cloth, being wet, on the other side; on pain of forfeiture of such cloths, &c.; the one moiety to H. M., and the other to such as will seize or sue for the same, 8 El. c. 12. s. 2.

3. Every of the said cottons, being sufficiently milled or thickened, clean scoured, well wrought, and fully dried, shall weigh 11 pounds, and contain in length 20 goads at least, and in breadth at most three quarters, or within one nail of three quarters of a yard at least. And every of the said frizes or rugs being thickened and fully dried, shall weigh 43 pounds, in length, betwixt 33 and 57 yards, in breadth at most three quarters of the yard, or within one nail of three quarters at the least, and not to be strained upon the tenters above one nail in breadth. And if any of the said cottons, frizes, or rugs, be of greater length, every goad or yard exceeding the said length, shall weigh after such rate, on pain of forfeiture for every goad or yard, not weighing after such rate of 12d., id. s. 6.

4. If any such cottons, &c. are of less weight, then all persons offering any such cotton, frize, or rug, to sale, shall forfeit for every pound lacking under three pounds, 12d.; and for every pound lacking above three pounds, 5s.; the one half to H. M., and the other half to the party suing, id. s. 7.

5. Every clause in any other acts before made, concerning, sealing, and marking, of the said cottons, frizes, and rugs, shall be repealed, id. s. 8.

6. This act shall not be prejudicial unto any liberty of any borough, or town corporate, within the county of Lancaster, id. s. 9.

7. NO PERSON shall incur any penalty for want of length, breadth, or weight, of Welsh cottons, under 1. 2. the yard, or 2s. the goad, if not mixt with hair or other deceitful stuff; nor for any others above that price, except so mixt, or shrinking above half a yard in 12, or weighing less than 14 ounces the yard, or holding not full three quarters of a yard broad, 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 28., 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 5., 5 C. 1. c. 4. s. 26.

8. NO PENALTY shall be incurred for want of seal to such cottons, and they shall not be searched, or tried in the water by any other than the buyer, under 5l. penalty; one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party grieved, recoverable by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, without essoin, &c., 3 J. 1. c. 17.

9. FOR SETTLING DISPUTES BETWEEN MASTERS AND WORKMEN in the cotton manufacture in Eng., 44 G. 3. c. 87. [PUBLIC clause, id. s. 20. This act in effect repeals 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 90., except part of s. 1. and ss. 7—11., which are placed infra; and see acts of a similar nature, 45 G. 3. c. 151. for Scot.; and 55 G. 3. c. 75. for Ire.]

10. So much of 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 90. as relates to settling such disputes by arbitration, repealed, 24 G. 3. c. 87. s. 1.

11. In all cases in Eng. where the masters and workmen cannot agree respecting the prices to be paid for work done, or to be done, in the cotton manufacture, whether the dispute shall arise respecting the reduction or advance of wages, or any damage done by workmen to the work, or respecting any delay on their part in finishing the same, or the not finishing it in a workmanlike manner, or as to the proper compensation to the workmen for new implements to be purchased for working any new pattern, or respecting the length of all pieces of cotton goods, or the wages for making the same of any extraordinary length, or respecting the manufacture of cravats, shawls, polycat, romall, and other handkerchiefs, and the number to be contained in one piece thereof, and the wages to be paid in respect thereof; and in all cases of difference between the masters and workmen in such manufacture, out of or touching the same, which cannot be otherwise mutually settled between them [39 & 40 G. 3. c. 90. s. 1. as Am. by 44 G. 3. c. 87. s. 2.] where both parties shall come before, or by writing under their hands agree to abide by the determination of any justice or magistrate of the county, city, or place where the parties reside, the latter may hear, and finally determine the same in a summary way; but if they shall not so settle or agree, such justice, &c., on complaint before him, and proof by examination of the complainant, that application has been made to the party complained of, or his agent (if such dispute has arisen with the latter) to settle the same; and that it has not been settled on such complaint made, or where the dispute relates to a bad warp, if such cause of complaint shall not be done away within 48 hours after such application, shall summon before him such person or agent, on some day not exceeding 3 days, exclusive of Sunday, before [semble after] making such complaint, giving notice to the complainant of the time and place of the attendance of the party complained of, or his agent; and if at such time and place the person so summoned does not appear, or send some person on his behalf to settle such dispute, or appearing, shall not do away such cause of complaint, then such justice, at request of either party, shall nominate arbitrators or referees for settling the matters in dispute, and shall propose not less than 4, nor more than 6 persons (one-half master manufacturers, or their agents or foremen, and the other half weavers in such manufacture, residing near), out of which master manufacturers, &c. the master or his agent, shall choose one, and out of which weavers so proposed the weaver or his agent shall choose another, who shall have full power to hear and finally determine such dispute; and the justice shall appoint a day and place of meeting according to this act, notice whereof shall be given to the arbitrators, and to any party to the dispute who has not attended the meeting before such justice, which appointment shall be thus certified by such justice, viz.

'I, A. B., one of the justices of the peace acting for —, do hereby certify that C. D. and E. F. are duly nominated referees to settle the matters in difference between G. H. of — master manufacturer, [or agent of —, as the case may be] and I. K., of —, weaver, pursuant to an act passed in the 44th year of the reign of his present Majesty [now any, late M. K. (i. the 3d)], and that the said referees are hereby directed to meet at — on — the — day of — at — of the clock. A. B.'

and such arbitrators shall hear and examine the parties and their witnesses, and determine such dispute within 2 days after nomination, exclusive of Sunday, and their determination shall be final, 44 G. 3. c. 87. s. 2.

12. If any such complainant shall not attend in person, or by agent, at the time and place appointed, (as in s. 2.) for naming such arbitration, he shall not be entitled to the benefit of this act; and if the person complained of shall not attend personally, or by agent, the justice shall nominate an arbitrator for him, out of the persons named, id. s. 3.

13. Where any of the proposed arbitrators shall not accept such arbitration, or act thereon, the justice shall proceed to name another or other persons, of the above description, in his or their place, out of whom the parties shall respectively name the arbitrators; and in case of such 2d nomination, the arbitrators shall meet in 24 hours after application for the same, and at the 1st named place of meeting, id. s. 4.

14. Where the arbitrators cannot agree, they shall forthwith go before the justice by whom they were appointed, or in case of his absence or indisposition, before the nearest justice; and if either of them neglect so to go before such justice, the latter, after summoning them to attend him, may determine the matter in dispute on the statement of either arbitrator who appears, id. s. 5.

15. Where a 2d arbitrator is appointed, as in s. 4., and shall not attend, the other may proceed by himself, and his award shall be final as to all matters in dispute submitted to both of them, id. s. 6.

16. All complaints by the weaver as to bad materials shall be made within 3 weeks after receiving the same, and all those arising from any other cause, within 3 days after the cause of complaint shall arise; and no manufacturer, who by his clerk or foreman, has received into his possession any cotton cloth [semble without objection], shall afterwards make complaint on account thereof, id. s. 7.

17. Complaints respecting bad warps or utensils by workmen, shall be settled near the place of working, and in all other cases near the places where the work has been given out, id. s. 8. [and see s. 2. pl. 11.]

18. The party neglecting to fulfil the award for 48 hours after it is made and reduced into writing, as in the schedule, shall forfeit 10*l.* recoverable as in 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 90. s. 5. [viz. in a summary way, before 1 or more justices of the county, city, division or place, where the offence is committed, and conviction may be had on the oaths of 1 or more witnesses, and the penalty, if not forthwith paid, may be levied by distress and sale, with costs thereof, under warrant of such justice; and if no sufficient distress can be had, such justice, &c. shall, by warrant, commit the offender to gaol or house of correction for not more than 3, nor less than 2, calendar months.] id. s. 9.

19. With every piece of work given out to a workman to be done, there shall, if required by the latter, be delivered a note or ticket, signed by the person delivering out the same, or his agents, stating the quantity of materials delivered out, the nature of the work, and the price for executing the same in a workmanlike manner, which ticket, in case of dispute shall be evidence of all things therein mentioned, id. s. 10.

20. A duplicate of every such ticket shall be kept by the master, or agent, delivering same, and is evidence if the workman do not produce the original ticket delivered with the work, 44 G. 3. c. 87. s. 11.

21. Every master, or agent, not giving a ticket as herein prescribed, when required so to do, shall forfeit not more than 40*s.*, nor less than 20*s.*, to the party suing, recoverable as by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 90. s. 5. [see above, pl. 18.], without appeal against such conviction, id. s. 12.

22. Where any work is delivered to any workman by the agent or servant of any master, to be delivered to such agent when finished; and also where 2 or more persons carry on such manufacture as partners, the like proceedings may be had against such agent, servant, or partner, and shall be as effectual as if had against the principal, or all the partners; and all the said persons shall respectively obey the award made thereon, and all orders made by the justices as to the matters in dispute, and shall be subject to like penalties for refusing to abide by or perform the same, as if the proceedings had been against the principal or all the partners, id. s. 13.

23. Where any proceedings may be had against a master under either act, or where they have been commenced and the master shall become bankrupt, or any assignment of his estate or effects shall have been made under such bankruptcy, or otherwise by deed, or in law, the assignee shall be liable, as such, to proceedings under this act, and shall abide by the award or order of justices made therein, provided that all sums to be paid in pursuance thereof shall be recoverable only out of the estate of such master, and not out of their own, id. s. 14.

24. Where any feme-covert, or infant, has cause of complaint under either act, against any master, his agent, or assignees as aforesaid, such complaint may be lodged, and further proceedings thereupon had, by the husband of such feme, and by the father, or, if he be dead, by the mother, or, if both dead, by any kindred of the infant, or by the surety in his indenture, if he is an apprentice, id. s. 15.

25. All costs, time, and expences attending applications to justices under this act, and of the arbitration pursuant thereon, shall be settled by the arbitrators; or where the dispute is settled by a justice, then by such justice; and where the arbitrators cannot agree as to the costs, &c. to be allowed, they shall be settled by the justice by whom the arbitrators were named, and in his absence, by the nearest justice, id. s. 16.

26. The following, and no higher fees, shall be taken for any proceeding under this act, and a table of fees, signed by the clerk to such justices, shall be hung up in every place where any sessions of the peace shall be held:

[To the clerk of the justice or justices.]		s.	d.
For every summons	- - -	0	6
oath or affirmation	- - -	0	6
For drawing and entering the order	- - -	0	6
For every warrant	- - -	1	0
conviction	- - -	1	0
To the constable or other peace officer		s.	d.
For service of summons or order	- - -	0	6
executing warrant of distress, and sale of goods	- - -	1	6
custody of goods distrained, per diem	- - -	0	4
every mile travelled	- - -	0	4]

27. No proceedings under this act shall be quashed for want of form, id. s. 18.

28. The schedule hereto annexed shall be used instead of that in 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 90., and all provisions of that act, contrary hereto, are repealed, id. s. 19.

[The following sections of 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 90. seem to be still in force, as not falling within the repeal in 44 G. 3. c. 87. s. 1. or s. 19., and 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 7. seems recognized in force by 44 G. 3. c. 87. s. 12., and in the table of fees, id. s. 17.; sed. Qu. for the determination of the arbitrator is final, id. s. 1. and s. 6.]

29. Every person convicted before any 1 or more justices, of any offence against this act, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, division, city or place, wherein such conviction was made, on giving immediate notice of appeal, and finding 2 sufficient sureties in 5*l.* each, and entering into his own recognizance before such convicting justice, in 10*l.*, to appear and prosecute with effect; and the sessions shall finally determine the matter of such appeal, and make order and award costs therein at their discretion, and such order shall be final, and not recoverable by certiorari, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 90. s. 7.

30. No action shall be brought against any arbitrator, justice, constable, officer, or person soever, for any thing soever done in execution of this act [QU. if this applies to 44 G. 3. c. 87.], unless brought within 6 calendar months after the thing done, id. s. 8.

31. In such actions defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act [QU. 44 G. 3. c. 87. also.] and the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues, or forbears further prosecution, or if judgment is given for defendant, the latter shall have full costs, id. s. 9.

32. No justice, being also a master cotton-manufacturer, shall act as justice under this act, id. s. 10.

33. Nothing herein shall alter any of the provisions contained in 1 A. st. 2. c. 18., 15 G. 2. c. 8., 22 G. 2. c. 27., 17 G. 3. c. 56., or in any other act which afford punishments or remedies by the masters against the workmen in the said manufacture, except such remedy relates to wages, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 90. s. 11.

COUNTIES PALATINE.

- I. Generally.
- II. The County palatine and City of Chester.
- III. Durham.
- IV. Lancaster.

I. COUNTIES PALATINE. (Generally.)

1. FOR INROLMENT of indentures of bargain and sale in H. M.'s courts of record at Lancaster, Chester, and Durham, 5 El. c. 26. [and recital of 27 H. 8. c. 16. in ss. 1—2.]

2. All inrolments of such writings indented (as mentioned in 27 H. 8. c. 16.) of any bargain and sale to be made of any manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, in the counties of Lancaster, Chester, and bishopric of Durham, being inrolled within 6 months after date in the court of chancery, or before the justices of assizes at Lancaster, concerning any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments in that county; or in the exchequer, or before the justices of assizes at Chester, concerning any manors, lands, &c. in that county; or in the chancery, or before the justices of assizes at Durham, for any manors, lands, &c. in that bishopric, shall be as good, in law, as if made and inrolled in any of the courts at Westminster, id. s. 3.

3. Nothing herein extends to any manors, lands, &c. (as in s. 3.) within any city, borough, or town corporate in any of those counties wherein the mayors, recorders, or other officers have authority, and have lawfully used to inrol any evidences or deeds within their limits, id. s. 4.

4. FOR MORE FREQUENT RETURN OF WRITS IN THE counties palatine of Chester and Lancaster, 22 G. 2. c. 46. (s. 35.) [See rest of this title and statute under various titles: it has been termed the hodge-podge act.]

5. All writs of capias, and other mesne process, to answer relating to any action to be brought in the courts of session for the county of Chester, and court of C. P. for the county of Lancaster, that bear teste in the preceding session or sessions of assizes respectively, shall be made returnable before H. M.'s justices of such session at Chester, or sessions of assizes for the county of Lancaster, on the first Wednesday of any month in each of the two vacations annually, betwixt such session or sessions of assizes, or at the first day of the next session or sessions of assizes respectively, at the election of plaintiff or his attorney. And on all such writs or process, which shall issue out of such courts, returnable in the vacations as aforesaid, and whereon the defendant shall be arrested or served with a copy, he shall appear and file special bail, or enter a common appearance, as the case requires, on the day of such return, or within eight days after; and in case of neglect in bailable actions, the sheriff or other officer shall, at request and costs of plaintiff or his attorney, assign to such plaintiff the bail-bond, by indorsement and attestation under his hand in presence of two witnesses; and plaintiff, after such assignment, may bring an action on such bail-bond in his own name; and such courts may by rule give such relief to plaintiffs and defendants in the original action, and to the bail so sued upon the bail-bond as is agreeable to justice; and in case of service of the copy of writs or process returnable in vacation time, and if defendant so served therewith shall not appear at return of such process, or within eight days after, the plaintiff on affidavit filed with the prothonotary of such courts respectively, or his deputy, of the personal service of such process, may enter a common appearance for the defendant, and proceed thereon as if such defendant had appeared. And all writs returnable in such courts respectively on such return days as aforesaid, shall (in case the plaintiff declare according to practice of such courts respectively) be proceeded upon as if the same had been made returnable at the preceding session or sessions of assizes for such county palatine respectively, id. ibid.

6. FOR REGULATING PROCEEDINGS IN THE COURT OF GREAT SESSIONS in the county palatine of Chester, in the C. P. at Lancaster, and in the court of pleas at Durham, 33 G. 3. c. 68. s. 1. [See rest of this title, section, and statute, WALES.]

7. Where final judgment is obtained in any of the said courts, any court of record at Westminster, on affidavit made before a judge or commissioner in such court, and filed therein, of such judgment being obtained, and diligent search and enquiry having been made after the person, or his effects, and of execution having issued against either, and that the person or effects are not to be found within the jurisdiction of such court, may cause a transcript of the record of the judgment to be removed into such court at Westminster, and may issue writs of execution thereupon to the sheriff of any county or place against the person or effects, as upon judgments obtained in the courts at Westminster; and the sheriff shall detain the person against whom such execution shall be issued till 40s. be paid to him, or shall levy that sum out of the effects, according to the nature of the execution, for the extraordinary costs in such court, subsequent to the said judgment, and of the execution in the court at Westminster, over and above the money for which it shall be issued, 33 G. 3. c. 68. s. 1.

II. COUNTIES PALATINE. (Chester and City.)

1. The county of Chester made a principality, 21 R. 2. c. 9.
2. The county of Chester shall be the principality of Chester, and holden as such, with all franchises thereof had and used as when it was the county of Chester. And moreover the castle of Lyons, with the seignory of Bromfield and Yale thereto belonging: the castle of Chirke, with the seignory of Chirkesland, and the castle of Oswaldstreet, with the town, hundred, and 11 townships belonging thereto: the castle of Isabel, and its seignory: that of Dallilay, with the appurtenants in Shropshire; and the reversion of the seignory of Cleve, with all the appurtenants, shall be annexed to such principality, and shall not be severed therefrom; and no gift shall be made thereof, or of such castles, but to H. M.'s eldest son, who shall be prince there if he please to make him, id. ibid.

3. FOR REGULATING PROCESS INTO THE county of Chester, and out-lawry, and forfeiture thereon, in case of offences committed in other shires by inhabitants of that county, 1 H. 4. c. 18. [CONF. 9 H. 5. st. 1. c. 2.]

4. If any person of the county of Chester, dwelling therein, shall commit murder or felony out of that county, process shall be made against him by common law, till the exigent in the counties where such murder or felony was done; and if he fly into the county of Chester, and is outlawed or put in exigent for the same, the outlawry, &c. shall be certified to the officers of the county of Chester, who shall take such felon, and his lands and chattels within that county shall be seized as forfeit into the hands of the prince or lord of the county, and H. M. shall have year, day, and waste; and the other lands and goods of such felon out of the county shall be forfeit to H. M., and the other lords having franchise thereof as forfeit; and if any person of the county resident therein, shall commit any battery or other trespass out of that county, process shall be made against him by common law, till exigent into the counties where such battery or trespass was done; and if he flee from thence into the county of Chester, and is outlawed for the same, the outlawry shall be certified to the officers of that county, who shall take him; and his goods within and out of that county shall be forfeit as above, id. ibid.

5. CONCERNING SHIRE DAYS IN THE COUNTY PALATINE OF Chester, 32 H. 8. c. 43. [AMD. 33 H. 8. c. 13. ss. 1, 2.]

6. The administration of justice, and all other things in that county used to be had on shire-days, shall be executed by justices of such county at twice in the year only, viz. at the sessions next after Michaelmas and Easter, in like manner as is now used in Co. Lancaster, and from henceforth the old order of holding shire-days [viz. 8 in 1 year and 9 in another, see the preamble.] shall cease, 32 H. 8. c. 43.

7. THE SHERIFF of Cheshire shall keep his shire-court in the shire-hall of such county every month, for determination of plaints and actions under 40s. and for proclamations, and calling of exigents, and other necessary causes, as is used in other shires of Eng., and 2 head-coronors for the body of the shire shall be elected by virtue of the writ de coronatore eligendo, to be awarded out of exchequer of Chester, and shall be bound to sit with such sheriff at the said courts, to give judgments upon outlawries, and do other things appertaining thereto, 33 H. 8. c. 13. s. 1.

8. The 2 sessions [mentioned in 32 H. 8. c. 43.] to be holden within the said county, shall be had before the said justices of such county, or his deputy, as well before Easter and Michaelmas as at any other time, according as most commonly used in other shires, so always as open proclamation be made thereof by 15 days before the first day of keeping such sessions, id. s. 2.

9. NO WAIT OF COURSE WITHOUT special warrant from H. M. containing any protection, shall be granted out of exchequer in Chester, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 13. s. 2.

10. FOR THE CITY OF CHESTER TOUCHING THE TAKING OF recognizances of statute merchant or Acton Burnel, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 31.

11. Every recognizance of statutes merchant and Acton Burnel, taken, knowledge, enrolled, had and sealed with the seal appointed to the city of Chester, before the mayor thereof, in like manner as mayors and other officers therein have accustomed to take, enroll, and seal, shall be as good in law as if the taking of such recognizance fully agreed with the words of the statute of Acton Burnel and the statute merchant. And on certificates of such mayors, like process and execution shall be awarded out of chancery and C. P. to all sheriffs or other officers in Eng. or Wa., as is used elsewhere, for any recognizance taken upon the statutes aforesaid, id. ibid.

12. FOR LEVYING FINES WITH PROCLAMATION IN THE county palatine of Chester, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 28. in the county of the city of Chester, 43 El. c. 16.

13. Fines levied or knowledge before the high justice of H. M. of his county palatine of Chester, or before the deputy or lieutenant-justice there, of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, within such county, which shall be read and proclaimed three days in open sessions, in presence of either such justice, at the same sessions where engrossed, and also proclaimed in the presence of either at the two next general sessions, at 3 days in either of such 2 sessions, as is used in C. P. at Westminster, shall be of like force as fines with proclamations before the justices of C. P., 24 & 3 E. 6. c. 28.

14. All persons upon any original writ, or writ of covenant, whereupon fines are usually levied, to be purchased out of the court of exchequer of Chester, returnable before the mayor of the city in the portmoot court, may levy fines of any lands, &c. within the county of the city of Chester, before such mayor in such portmoot court, in the usual manner as before the high justice of Chester; which mayor may receive and record such fines; and all fines so levied, and which shall be openly read and proclaimed before him in such portmoot court, once at the same court-day that the fine shall be engrossed, and once at every of the nine next court-days of portmoot, shall be of like force as fines duly levied with proclamations of lands within such county before such high justice, 43 E. 1. c. 15. ss. 1—3.

15. Upon all such original writs for levying fines within the city of Chester, the mayor may award writs, or precepts of decimus potestatem, to two or more persons, authorizing them to take the acknowledgment of persons willing to levy such fines, but who cannot by reasonable impediment come before the mayor to make it in person; and all such fines, as upon such acknowledgment made and certified into the court of portmoot, shall be engrossed, recorded, and proclaimed, in the usual way, shall be of like force as fines personally acknowledged before the mayor, id. ss. 4—5.

16. Fines levied by virtue of this act, may be reversed on writs of error before the high justice of the county palatine of Chester, as other judgments given by the mayor in the portmoot court may be, id. s. 6.

17. THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CITIZENS FOR THE ELECTION of the mayor, sheriffs, treasurers, coroners, and leave-lookers of the city of Chester, shall not hereafter be holden on Friday next after the feast of St. Dennis; but same and all annual meetings for that purpose, shall be holden in the usual manner on the Friday next after the 20th day of October in every year, notwithstanding the calendar act 24 G. 2. c. 23. s. 1., 26 G. 3. c. 34. s. 4.

18. FOR TAKING AND SWEARING AFFIDAVITS FOR USE in the court of session of the county palatine of Chester, and for taking special bail in actions depending therein, 27 G. 3. c. 43.

19. The justices of that court shall, by commission under county seal, empower persons to take affidavits before them in any cause or proceeding pending therein, as justices of K. B., and C. P., the lord treasurer, and chancellor, and barons of exchequer, use to do; these commissions shall be made out by the prothonotary of the said court of session, or his deputy ex officio, as officers of the court on judges' fiat, who shall make entry of commissioners' names and dates of their commissions at the following fees; 2s. for fiat or warrant. 4s. for making out commission besides the king's duty, and value of the parchment, and 4s. for sealing same, and the prothonotary of the said court or his acting deputy may, ex officio and without commission, take all such affidavits, which shall be filed in his office, and may be read in court as other affidavits now are, and persons forswearing themselves therein are equally punishable as if they had been taken in open court, and such commissioner or prothonotary may take 1s. only for swearing each affidavit, but shall not take any within a mile of Chester castle during the time of the session, id. s. 1.

20. The justices of such court, or either of them, may, by commission under seal of the county palatine, empower such persons in the county, other than attorneys or solicitors, to take recognizances of bails in suits pending in such court, by the usual recognizance or bail-piece of special bails, which prothonotary shall make out the commission on a justice's fiat; and all recognizances and bail-pieces so taken, together with affidavit of their due taking, sworn before such commissioner by some credible person present, shall, within 10 days, be transmitted to such prothonotary, to be filed on record, on payment of 5s. 4d., and shall be as valid as if taken in open court; and the following fees shall be paid to such commissioners of bail, viz. 2s. for fiat or warrant; 7s. 6d. for making out commission, besides king's duty and parchment; 4s. for the seal; 5s. for bail-piece, and 1s. for swearing affidavit of due taking thereof, id. s. 2.

21. The said justices shall make such rules for justifying and making absolute such bails as to them seems meet, so that the bail need not appear in court to justify, but the same may be determined by affidavits before any of the said commissioners, or before the prothonotary, or his deputy ex officio, as officer of the court, touching the value of the respective estates, and other qualifications of such bail, and 1s. fee shall be taken for swearing such affidavit; but nothing herein shall prevent the prothonotary or deputy from taking ex officio recognizances of bails, as he and they have done, or by law might do, if this act had not been made, 27 G. 3. c. 43. s. 3.

22. Persons personating bail before the persons empowered under this act to take special bail, whereby the persons personated may be liable to payment of money for debt or damages recovered in the action wherein they are personated, are felons, and shall suffer death, and incur other penalties, as in 4 W. & A. c. 4. id. s. 4.

III. COUNTIES PALATINE, (Durham.)

1. TOUCHING FINES TO BE LEVIED IN THE COUNTY PALATINE of Durham, 5 E. 1. c. 27.

2. All fines levied before the justices of the county palatine of Durham, authorized for that purpose, of tenements within the county, which shall be read and proclaimed two days in the sessions, in presence of the justices of assize at Durham, or one of them, at the same sessions at which they are ingrossed, and at two general sessions next after, shall be of like force as fines levied with proclamations before the justices of C. P. at Westminster, id. ibid.

3. FOR WRITS OF PROCLAMATIONS AND EXIGENTS TO BE CURRENT within the county palatine of Durham, 31 E. 1. c. 9. (s. 1.)

4. Whosoever any writ of exigent shall be awarded at suit of H. M. or any other person in K. B. and C. P. against any person dwelling within the bishopric, the justices before whom such writ shall be sued may award one writ of proclamation, according to 6 H. 8. c. 4., directed to the bishop of Durham, and, during vacation of the bishopric, to the chancellor of the county palatine, and not to the sheriff of any other shire adjoining; which writ of proclamation shall have the same teste and return as the exigent; and such bishop or chancellor shall, by mandate to the sheriff, cause proclamation to be made according to the tenor of the writs, and shall make true returns thereof in such court, and before such justices as the tenor of such writ requires, and all outlawries pronounced on exigents awarded against persons dwelling in Durham, without such proclamation awarded to the bishop as above, shall be void, id. s. 2.

5. Every bishop of Durham, and, in vacation, the chancellor of the county palatine, shall have in the courts of K. B. and C. P. one sufficient deputy at least, to receive such writs of proclamation as shall be directed to every such bishop or chancellor for whom the said deputy shall be appointed, in like manner and on like pains as by law the sheriffs of other shires in Eng. are bound to have in those courts; and all such writs of proclamation shall be delivered unto every such deputy of record in those courts, and like fee [viz. 6d.] paid for making and enrolling the same of record, as in 6 H. 8. c. 4. s. 4. id. s. 5.

6. If any such writ of proclamation is delivered to the bishop or chancellor in vacation, or to their deputies, as in s. 2. and 3., who shall not make true return thereof, such bishop and chancellor shall forfeit 5s.; one half to H. M. and the other half to the person suing for same in an action of debt on this act, in any of H. M.'s courts of record, without essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 4.

7. This act shall not extend to any of the franchises or privileges of the bishop of Durham, touching his see, or to any officers of the bishopric, otherwise than by the true meaning of this act declared, id. s. 5.

8. If any person dwelling within the bishopric or county palatine shall be outlawed as above, all writs of special capias utlagatum, single cap. utl., non molestandum, and other process, shall be directed to the bishop, and, in vacation of the see, to the chancellor there, who shall make like process, sealed with their seal of office, to be directed to the sheriff, id. s. 6.

9. On any writ of proclamation under this act, and the mandate thereupon made to the sheriff, and the execution thereof, one fee only shall be taken by the bishop, chancellor, and sheriff, id. s. 7.

10. FOR REGULATING THE TAKING AND SWEARING AFFIDAVITS used in any court of the county palatine of Durham, 4 G. 3. c. 21.

11. The chancellor of the county palatine of Durham, or any two or more justices of the court of pleas in their session of pleas, may, by commission under the seal of the respective courts, empower persons to take and swear affidavits in any cause or concerning any proceedings pending in either court, as masters extraordinary in chancery use to do, with 2s. fee for each affidavit in chancery, and 1s. in court of pleas; which affidavits shall be filed in the respective offices, and read in evidence, and perjury therein shall be punished as if they were made in open court; which several commissions shall be made out by the curitor of the county palatine, on a fiat from the said chancellor for taking affidavits in the court of chancery of Durham, and on a fiat from any two justices of pleas, in their session of pleas for the said county, for taking affidavits in that court; and the said curitor shall cause an entry to be made, in a book kept for that purpose, of the names of the persons to whom such commissions are granted, and when issued; and the following fees shall be paid for each commission, viz. 2s. for the fiat or warrant; 4s. for the commission, besides H. M.'s duty, and value of the parchment; and 4s. for sealing the same; and every commissioner or person empowered shall take for swearing every affidavit in chancery, 2s., and in the court of pleas, 1s. 4d. 3s. c. 21. s. 1. s. 1.

12. Such officers of the courts of chancery and of pleas in Durham, as have heretofore taken affidavits may continue so to do, id. s. 2.

13. TO ENABLE THE TREASURY TO PAY, OUT OF THE CROWN REVENUE, rewards for apprehending highwaymen, and other offenders, in the county palatine of Durham, 14 G. 3. c. 46. [PUBLIC clause, id. s. 6. and see note to next placitum.]

14. Every person who shall apprehend and prosecute to conviction, in the county palatine of Durham, any person guilty of any offence mentioned in 4 W. & M. c. 8. s. 2. [see ROBBERT.] 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 17. s. 9. [see COIN.] 5 & 6 A. c. 31. s. 1. [see FELONY.] 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 4. [see SHERIFF.] (for paying rewards on convictions of highwaymen, clippers, coiners, or housebreakers, in Eng. and Wa.) within the county palatine of Durham, shall have from the sheriff of that county, within one month from such conviction, the reward payable to such person in other counties of Eng. and Wa., on tendering to the sheriff a certificate of such conviction, under the hand or hands of the judges or justices before whom he is convicted, (which the latter are to grant, certifying the conviction, and in what parish the offence was committed, and also that the offender was apprehended by the person claiming such reward,) id. s. 1. [This section seems in force, notwithstanding the abolition by 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 1. of the rewards given by the recited act; for since that act, (s. 5.) where the court orders a reward to be paid, the old regulations are still adhered to; and though the rewards given by 14 G. 3. c. 46. are not expressly recited in 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 1. as intended to be repealed by that act, yet semble that they are virtually comprehended in the repeal, as the former act only extends to the county palatine of Durham, the rewards recited in and abolished by the latter act; sed quare.]

15. In case of any dispute between the persons who shall have apprehended such offenders, touching their right to such rewards, the judges or justices certifying shall, in their certificate, appoint the same to be paid among the parties in such proportions as seems just, id. s. 2.

16. If such sheriff dies or is removed before the expiration of 1 month after such conviction and demand of reward made, the next sheriff shall pay it within 1 month after such certificate brought and demand made as aforesaid, or on default shall forfeit to the claimant double the sum he ought to have paid, to be recovered in any court of record at Westminster, by action of debt or information, without essoin, &c. and but one imparlance allowed, together with treble costs, id. s. 3.

17. The sheriff, having paid such rewards, shall immediately apply for repayment thereof to the treasury, who on inspecting a due certificate of the conviction of the offender, together with the receipts of the parties entitled to the same, shall forthwith repay out of the crown revenue, without fee, all such monies, other than penalties and costs (as in s. 5.) id. s. 4. [But sheriffs are not obliged to advance such rewards from their own funds, 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 4. id. SHERIFF.]

IV. COUNTIES PALATINE. (Lancaster, and duchy of Lancaster.)

(STATUTES repealed.)

1. CONCERNING forfeitures on outlawries in the county of Lancaster, 9 H. 5. st. 1. c. 2. [CONF. 18 H. 6. c. 13., AND, 20 H. 6. c. 2. MADE PERP. 31 H. 6. c. 6. 20 H. 6. c. 2. is recited, 35 H. 6. c. 1. s. 1. and REV. id. s. 2., as is also 9 H. 5. st. 1. c. 2. comm. semb. and see the title of that statute, next placitum.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR REPEALING former acts, [See last placitum], concerning forfeitures on outlawries in the county of Lancaster, and for regulating the qualifications of jurors on indictments of persons in or belonging to that county, 35 H. 6. c. 2.

2. [Recital of 31 H. 6. c. 6. and 20 H. 6. c. 2. (s. 1.) which are repealed, s. 2.] Every indictment taken before any of H. M.'s justices within the county palatine of Lancaster, or before any sheriff in his tourn therein, whereby any person is supposed to be, or to have been inhabiting or conversant out of that county, and within any other county in Eng., shall be taken by the verdict of 12 men, every of them, or some other person to their use, having lands and tenements within that county of 100s. yearly value; and no process shall be made out of such indictment before it be duly inquired and examined before H. M.'s justices within that county, whether the indictors, [viz. the jurors], and every of them at the time of the indictment taken, had lands within that county to 100s. yearly value above all charges, and if it be found that they had not, the indictment shall be void, id. s. 3.

3. Every indictment to be taken out of the county of Lancaster before any justice or sheriff in his tourn, whereby any person is supposed to have been inhabiting or conversant within the county of Lancaster, shall be taken by verdict of 12 men, and no process shall be made out of any such indictments before due inquiry before the justices having power to award the same, whether the indictors [jurors] and every of them at the time of such indictment taken, (or some other person to their use) had lands to the yearly value of 100s. above charges within the same county where the indictment is taken, and if it be found that they or any of them had not, and that none other to their use had lands, &c. of that value, the indictment, as to any such persons supposed to have been conversant within the county of Lancaster, shall be void, 35 H. 6. c. 2. s. 4.

4. FOR FINES TAKEN IN THE COUNTY PALATINE OF Lancaster, before the justices of Lancaster, to be of like force as fines taken before the justices of C. P., 37 H. 8. c. 19. and recital in s. 1.

5. All fines of lands hereafter levied or knowledgeable before H. M.'s justices of the county palatine of Lancaster, commonly called justices of assize at Lancaster, or before one of them, of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments in such county, which shall be openly read and proclaimed 5 several days in open sessions in presence of such justices, or of one of them at the same session that the same is ingrossed, and at the two next general sessions for such county before such justices, or one of them, at three several days in either of such 2 sessions after the term usual in C. P. at Westminster, shall be of like force as fines levied with proclamations before justices of C. P. id. s. 2.

6. FOR WRITS UPON PROCLAMATIONS AND exigents to be current within the county palatine of Lancaster, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 26. and recital in s. 1.

7. When any writ of exigent is awarded at suit of H. M. or of any plaintiff in any action in K. B. or C. P., against any person dwelling within the county palatine of Lancaster, then, on awarding of such exigent, the justices before whom it is sued shall have power to award the writ of proclamation, according to 6 H. 8. c. 4. lit. OUTLAWRY, to be directed to the sheriff of the county palatine of Lancaster, where the defendant is dwelling, and not to the sheriff of any other county adjoining; which writ of proclamation shall have the same teste and return as the exigent, id. s. 2.

8. Every sheriff of that county to whom such writ of proclamation shall be directed, shall make proclamations of the said writs according to their tenor, and make true returns of the same in such court, and before such justices as the court requires; and all outlawries on any exigent awarded against any person dwelling in such county palatine, and no writ of proclamation awarded to the sheriff, or not returned, shall be void, id. s. 3.

9. Such sheriff shall have one deputy at least in K. B. and C. P., to receive such writs of proclamations directed to such sheriff in like manner, and upon like pains as other sheriffs are bound to have, and such writs of proclamations shall be delivered to such deputies of record in such courts, and like fees shall be paid for making and inrolling the same of record, as is limited in 6 H. 8. c. 4. pl. 7., id. s. 4.

10. Every such sheriff who does not make true return of writs of proclamation delivered to him or his deputy, shall forfeit 5*l.*, the one-half to H. M. and the other half to the party suing for the same by action of debt in any of H. M.'s courts of record, without essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 5.

11. This act shall not prejudice the franchises or officers of such county palatine, otherwise than by the true meaning hereof, id. s. 6.

12. If any person dwelling within such county shall be outlawed in any such action, then all writs of special, or single capias utlagatum, non molestandum, and all other process against the party outlawed, may be directed to the chancellor of the duchy of Lancaster, who shall make like process thereon, directed to the sheriff of the said county as heretofore used, id. s. 7.

13. FOR ENLARGING THE DUCHY OF LANCASTER, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 20. and recital in s. 1.

14. All honours, castles, lordships, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments within Eng. which, since 28th Jan. 1 E. 6., were parcel of the duchy of Lancaster, or which were united to such duchy by authority of parliament, letters patent, or otherwise, and which since 28th Jan. have been granted, sold, or otherwise severed from such duchy, and which have returned again to the hands of their M.s, shall be annexed for ever to such duchy, and shall be in the letting, order, survey, and governance of the chancellor, council, and officers of the duchy, as others of the ancient possessions thereof, id. s. 2.

15. All the said honours, &c. hereby united to such duchy, and all grants and leases thereof, shall pass under such of the seals of the duchy, and with like livery of seisin, &c. as other the ancient possessions of the duchy, id. s. 3.

16. H. M. may, by letters patent under the great seal of Eng., unite and annex any other their honours and lands, &c. unto such duchy, id. s. 4. which annexation shall be as good as if done by statute, id. s. 5.

17. All such honours and lands, &c. lying within such county palatine, and so united to the duchy shall, from the teste of the letters patent, be under governance, &c. of such duchy, as any other possession thereof within such county have used to be, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 20. s. 6.

18. All other honours and lands, &c. lying out of such county, and so united to such duchy, shall, in like manner, be under governance of the duchy, as other possessions of such duchy lying out of such county have used to be; saving to all persons all their rights in any of the premises before this act made, id. s. 7.

19. This act shall not give any liberty to H.M. to unite to such duchy any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, being parcel of the principality of Wa., duchy of Cornwall, or earldom of Chester, or any honours, lands, &c. within the counties of Chester and Flint, or to unite any lands thereto exceeding 2000*l.* yearly value, id. s. 8.

20. The rents, suits, and services of any of such manors and lands belonging to the duchy or county palatine of Lancaster, shall be paid in the court of the duchy-chamber at Westminster, or to receivers-general, and other ministers of that court as heretofore, and all leases hereafter to be made of any manors, lands, &c. belonging to said duchy, shall be made under the seal thereof, as heretofore used, id. s. 9., [this section is not on the roll, see Stat. 4 vol. 8vo ed. 87.]

21. TO EMPOWER THE CHANCELLOR OF THE DUCHY to grant commissions for taking affidavits within the duchy liberty, 16 & 17 C. 2. c. 9.

22. THE CHANCELLOR OF THE DUCHY and county palatine of Lancaster may, by commission, empower persons within such county and duchy liberties, to take affidavits in any cause, &c. depending in the court of duchy-chamber, which shall be filed in office of clerk of the court, and used as other affidavits, [id. s. 1.], and the commissioners' fee for taking such affidavit is 12*d.*, id. s. 2.

23. FOR TAKING AND SWEARING AFFIDAVITS to be used in any of the courts of the county palatine of Lancaster, 17 G. 2. c. 7.

24. The chancellor of the duchy and county palatine, or his vice-chancellor shall, by one or more commissions under the county-seal, empower what and as many persons as are thought fit, to take and swear all such affidavits, which any person shall be desirous to make before any of the persons so empowered concerning any cause pending, or in any-wise concerning any of the proceedings to be in the chancery and courts of session in the said county, as masters-extraordinary in chancery use to do, which affidavits shall be filed in the offices of the said courts, and shall be read and used therein, and shall be of the same force as other affidavits taken therein now are; and every person forswearing himself in such affidavit, shall incur the same penalties as if the same were made in open court, id. s. 1.

25. The above commissions shall be made out by the cursitors of the county palatine, on a fiat or warrant from the said chancellor or vice-chancellor, and the cursitors shall cause entries to be made in a book of the names of the persons to whom and the times when such commissions are issued, with these fees only:

Fiat or warrant	-	2 0
Making out commission (besides king's duty, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. schedule (and value of parchment)	-	4 0
Sealing the same	-	4 0
Swearing affidavit before commissioner	-	1 0

id. ibid.

26. Such officers of the said courts as have heretofore taken affidavits, shall continue to do so, id. s. 2.

27. FOR TAKING SPECIAL BAIL IN ACTIONS depending in the C. P. of the county palatine of Lancaster, 34 G. 3. c. 46.

28. The chancellor of the duchy and county palatine of Lancaster, or his vice-chancellor respectively, shall, by one or more commissions under seal of the county palatine, from time to time, as occasion shall require, empower such and so many persons other than common attorneys or solicitors, as either of them shall think necessary in such county, to take and receive every such recognizance of bail, as any person shall be desirous to make before any person so empowered in any action depending in that court, in such manner and form, and by such recognizance or bail-piece, as special bails usually are, or by law ought to be taken, which commissions shall be made out by the prothonotary of that court, on a fiat or warrant from the said chancellor or vice-chancellor; which recognizance or bail-piece so taken, together with an affidavit on oath of the due taking thereof, made by some credible person then present, or if by a quaker, then by affirmation, administered by the commissioner of bail, shall, within 10 days after taking such bail, be transmitted to the office of the prothonotary of the county, there to be filed of record, on payment of 11*s.* 8*d.*, which bail-piece so taken and transmitted shall be of full force, and the following fees, and no more, shall be paid for each commission, and taking the acknowledgment of bail, and affidavits or affirmations respecting the same, s. 1. viz.

	s.	d.
Fiat or warrant	-	3 0
Making out the commission (besides king's duty and parchment, see 55 G. 3. c. 184. schedule)	-	8 6
Seal	-	5 0
Taking the acknowledgment or bail-piece	-	6 0
Taking the affidavit or affirmation of the due taking thereof	-	1 0

29. H.M.'s justices of such court shall make such rules and order for justifying such bails and making them absolute, as to them seems meet, so that it may not be necessary for the cognisors of such bails to appear in court to justify themselves, but the same may be determined by affidavit or affirmation of quakers, duly taken before any commissioner to be appointed as above, or before the prothonotary, or his officiating deputy ex officio, as officers of that court, and without commission for that purpose, touching the value of the respective estates, and other necessary qualifications of such cognisors; for taking which affidavit or affirmation, 1*s.* fee shall be taken, 34 G. 3. c. 46. s. 2.

30. Nothing herein shall prevent the prothonotary of the court, or his officiating deputy from taking ex officio recognizances of bails in actions commenced therein, as before this act, id. s. 3.

31. Every person making affidavit or affirmation of the due taking of any recognizance of bail, or for justification of any bail, or otherwise in relation thereto, in any action pending in such court, and falsely swearing or affirming therein, shall incur the same penalties as if such affidavit, &c. had been taken in open court in any court at Westminster, id. s. 4.

32. Every person who shall, before any person by this act empowered to take special bails, personate any other person, whereby the latter may be liable to the payment of any sums of money for debt or damages to be recovered in the same action wherein such persons are personated, as if they had really acknowledged the same, shall, on conviction, be deemed a felon within 4 H. & M. c. 4., id. s. 5.

33. TO PREVENT REMOVAL OF SUITS from the inferior courts in the county palatine of Lancaster into the court of C. P. of that county, 34 G. 3. c. 58.

34. No execution shall be stayed by writ of false judgment or superseas thereon, to be sued for reversing any judgment given in any inferior court within the county palatine of Lancaster, where the debt and damages are under 10*l.*, unless the person in whose name such writ is brought, with 2 sufficient sureties, approved by the inferior court, before such stay made or superseas awarded, is bound unto the party from whom such judgment is given by recognizance in the same court, in double the sum adjudged, to prosecute such writ with effect, and also to pay (if the judgment is affirmed or writ not proceeded in,) all and singular the debt, damages, and costs adjudged, and all costs and damages to be awarded for such delay of execution, id. s. 1.

35. No cause where the cause of action does not amount to 10*l.* or upwards, shall be removeable from any inferior court into C. P. at Lancaster by writ of pone, accedas ad curiam, certiorari, &c. unless the defendant, who is desirous of removing it, shall enter into like recognizance for paying the debt or damages and costs, if judgment be against him, id. s. 2.

36. FOR BETTER REGULATING THE PRACTICE, and for preventing delays in the proceedings of the court of common pleas at Lancaster, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 105. [Punitive clause, s. 6.]

37. Any plaintiff or defendant in personal actions, or in trespass and ejectment depending in such court, may declare on, plead, and give in evidence any cause of action, or matter, or thing soever, which has happened prior to the day of actual signing and issuing of the writ of capias ad respondendum, or other first actual process in such personal suit, or prior to the day of the actual service of the declaration in trespass or ejectment, notwithstanding such cause of action, &c. may not have accrued prior to the teste and return of the original writ, or prior to the assizes or time whereof such declaration is filed; and no advantage shall be taken by reason of any such cause of action, &c. having accrued or being stated to have accrued subsequent to the teste and return of such original writs, or subsequent to the assizes, or time whereof the declaration is filed, by or on oyer of the original writ, plea in abatement, demurrer to pleadings, or evidence, bill of exceptions, writ of error, or other process soever, id. s. 1.

38. Any writ of inquiry, scire facias, and any judicial or other process hereafter to be issued out of such court, in any action pending therein, (except process returnable on the 1st Wednesday in a month,) may be issued returnable either on the present return days, or on return days in Easter and Michaelmas terms respectively, as in C. P. at Westminster, and may be proceeded in as if returnable at the preceding session of assizes of such county palatine, id. s. 2.

39. No final judgment shall be entered, or execution issued, in 10 days next after the return of any such writ of inquiry or scire facias under this act, exclusive of the day of return, and of entering such final judgment, or issuing forth execution, id. s. 3.

40. The parties may move in arrest of judgment, or bring writ of error as before this act, id. s. 4.

COUNTY RATES.

1. FOR THE MORE EASY ASSESSING AND COLLECTING OF COUNTY RATES, 12 G. 2. c. 29. [Powers thereof EXT. to justices for franchises, having commissions of the peace within themselves, 13 G. 2. c. 18. s. 7., Amd. 55 G. 3. c. 51. (which is Rep. as to s. 15., by 57 G. 3. c. 94. s. 3.) further Amd. 56 G. 3. c. 49. (which is Rep. as to s. 5. by 57 G. 3. c. 94. s. 1. and further Amd. 57 G. 3. c. 94., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 85. (see as to Middlesex, 37 G. 3. c. 65., and as to Kent, 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. xxxiv.))

2. The justices of peace in Eng., within their respective jurisdictions at their general or quarter sessions, shall make one general rate for such sum as they think sufficient to answer the purposes of 21 H. 8. c. 5., and 1 A. st. 1. c. 18., (relating to bridges) 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 19. 10 A. c. 14., and 6 G. 1. c. 19., (relating to gaols), 7 J. 1. c. 4., (relating to prisons and vagrants), 43 El. c. 2., (relating to K. B. and Marshalsea prisons), 14 El. c. 5., 19 C. 2. c. 4., (relating to poor prisoners and vagrants), and 12 A. st. 2. c. 23., (relating to vagrants), instead of several and distinct rates thereby directed, which shall be assessed in every town, parish, or place, in such proportions as any of the rates heretofore made under such acts, have been usually assessed; and the respective sums so assessed shall be collected by the high constables of the respective hundreds and divisions as herein directed, 12 G. 2. c. 29. s. 1.

3. The churchwardens and overseers of the poor of every parish and place shall, out of the money collected for the relief of the poor of such parish, &c. pay to the high constables of the respective hundreds or divisions the sums so rated upon such parish, &c. within 30 days after demand in writing, to be given to such churchwardens or overseers, or left at their dwelling-houses, or affixed on the church doors of such parish, &c. to which such officer belongs, by such high constables; which demand the high constables shall make at such times as justices by order in sessions direct; the receipts of such high constables shall be a discharge to such churchwardens and overseers, or other person paying same, and shall be allowed in their accounts by the justices before whom such accounts passed; and in case such churchwardens, &c. neglect to pay such sums so assessed, such high constables shall levy same by distress and sale of goods of such churchwardens, &c. by warrant under hands and seals of 2 justices residing in or near such parishes, &c. rendering overplus to owner after charges of distress, &c. deducted, id. s. 2.

4. In case no rate is made for relief of the poor in any parish, township, or place; the justices in their general or quarter sessions, shall direct the money assessed on such parish, &c. for the purposes of this act, to be rated and levied on such parish, &c. by any petty constables or other peace-officer belonging to the same, as money for the relief of poor is by law to be rated or levied; which sum so levied shall be paid by such peace-officer, to the high constable for the hundred or division; and shall be demanded of, paid by, or levied on such peace-officer, as any rates are before directed to be levied on the churchwardens and overseers of the poor, and if such peace-officer pay such sum before the same be so by him rated and levied, he may afterwards rate and levy the same, or may be allowed such sum out of any constable's or other rates made on such parish, &c. which justices in their sessions shall order, id. s. 5.

5. The justices of peace for the respective ridings, divisions or counties of York, Derby, Durham, Lancaster, Chester, Westmorland, Cumberland, and Northumberland, at their general or quarter sessions, may order money directed to be assessed on any town, parish or place, for the purposes of this act, to be paid by and levied on the petty constable of such town, &c. within such counties, as the same is to be levied where no rate is made for the relief of the poor, id. s. 4.

6. This act shall not make any persons or places liable to pay to any rate made under this act, to which such person or place was not liable to contribute before; but justices at general or quarter sessions may order what proportion of any rate to be made by this act, shall be assessed on and paid by several persons and places, who are liable to pay only to one or more of, and not to all the rates hereby intended to be thrown into one general rate, id. s. 5. [See 13 G. 2. c. 18. s. 7. post, pl. 27.]

7. The high constables shall at or before the next general or quarter sessions, after they have received such money, pay same into hands of such person (resident in any such county or place where such rates are made) whom the justices shall at such sessions appoint to be treasurer, such treasurer first giving sufficient security to be approved of by the justices, to be accountable for the several sums paid to him in pursuance of this act, and to pay such sums as shall be ordered to be paid by the justices in such sessions, and for due execution of the trusts reposed in them; and all such money as shall be paid into their hands in pursuance of this act, shall be deemed to be public stock; and such treasurer shall pay so much of the money in his hands, to such persons as such sessions shall direct for the purposes of such acts, and for any other purposes to which the public stock of any county, city, division, or liberty, is applicable by law, id. s. 6.

8. Such treasurer shall keep books of entries of the several sums received and paid by him; and deliver in accounts upon oath, if required, of all money received and paid by him, distinguishing the particular uses to which such money has been applied, to the justices at every general or quarter session; and lay before them the proper vouchers for same, 12 G. 2. c. 29. s. 7.

9. The high constables shall demand and levy such rates in manner before directed, and shall account for same before the general or quarter sessions, if required, in like manner as such treasurer; and in case such high constables neglect so to demand, levy or account, such sessions may commit them to common gaol, until they have caused such rates to be levied, and have rendered a true account; and in case it appear by such account that any money is remaining in their hands which they have received of the churchwardens and overseers, or other persons, which ought to have been paid, to the respective treasurers within the time hereby (s. 6.) limited, or of the respective treasurers in order to be applied to the purposes aforesaid, and if they neglect to pay same over into hands of the treasurers or otherwise, if required by order of such sessions, the justices at such sessions may commit such high constables to the common gaol until they shall have made payment of the money due on such account; and all the accounts and vouchers of such treasurers and high constables shall, after being passed by the justices, be deposited with clerk of the peace of each county, or the town-clerk, high-bailiff, or chief officer of any city, town corporate, or liberty, to be kept among the records of such county, &c. to be inspected by any of the justices without fee, id. s. 8.

10. The receipts of such treasurers shall be sufficient discharges to all high constables; and the discharges of such justices, made by their orders at the general or quarter sessions to such treasurers, shall be sufficient discharges in any court of law or equity, id. s. 9.

11. No new rate shall be made until it appear to the justices at such sessions, by the accounts of the treasurers or otherwise, that three-fourths of the money collected by the preceding rate have been expended for the purposes of resid. id. s. 10.

12. The justices at their general or quarter sessions may continue such treasurers in office so long as they see convenient, and remove them at their pleasure, and appoint any other person in their place; [and may allow every of them insisting on the same any sum of money for their care and pains, not exceeding 20*l.* by the year, which they may direct the payment of, out of the monies arising by the respective rates, Rep. next pl.] id. s. 11.

13. So much of 12 G. 2. c. 29. s. 11. as limits the allowance to county treasurers to 20*l.* shall be Rep., and the major part of justices at general or quarter sessions may allow the county treasurer such reasonable sum as they think fit, and direct the same to be paid out of the county rates, provided no such augmentation shall be made unless applied for by such treasurer or the justices previously at some such sessions, [so in the act,] and unless notice of intention so to do is inserted in some newspaper circulated in such county for successive weeks, 1 month preceding time fixed for considering same, 55 G. 3. c. 51. s. 17.

14. In case churchwardens and overseers of any parish or place believe such parish, &c. is over-rated, they may appeal to justices at next general or quarter sessions against such part of rate only as may affect parishes, &c. in which they serve; which justices may finally determine the same; provided, upon such appeal, such rate be not quashed in regard to any other parishes, &c. 12 G. 2. c. 29. s. 12.

15. No part of the money to be collected in pursuance of this act shall be applied to the repair of any bridges, [but see, as to bridges 43 G. 3. c. 59. s. 2. and 52 G. 3. c. 110. s. 5. Bridges, pl. 31. 48.] prisons or houses of correction, until presentments be made by grand juries at the assize, great sessions, general gaol-delivery, or general or quarter sessions of the peace, of want of reparation, id. s. 13.

16. When any public bridges, ramparts, banks or cops, or other works are to be repaired at the expence of any city, division, liberty or town corporate, the justices at the general or quarter sessions, after presentment [see, as to presentment for bridges, 52 G. 3. c. 110., 55 G. 3. c. 143. Bridges, pl. 49.] made thereof for want of repair, may contract with any person for repairing such bridges, &c. and other works which are to be repaired by assessment on the respective counties, &c. for any term not exceeding 7 years, at a certain annual sum, such contractor giving sufficient security for due performance thereof to the clerk of peace, or town-clerk, high bailiff or chief officer of any city, &c. and such justices at sessions shall give public notice [such notice not necessary as to bridges, 55 G. 3. c. 143. s. 5. id. ibid.] of their intention of contracting with any person for repairing such bridges and other works; such contracts shall be made at the most reasonable prices, and when agreed to, shall, with all orders relating thereto, be entered in a book to be kept by such clerk of the peace, or town-clerk, high bailiff or chief officer, amongst the records of such county, city, &c. to be inspected by any such justices, and by any person employed by any contributor to the purposes of this act, without fee, id. s. 1. &c.

17. There shall be but one rate assessed by the justices for Middlesex in the said county, city and liberty of Westminster, for the purposes of this act, and the repair of the New Prison in Middlesex, id. s. 15.

18. The justices for the city of Westminster, at their general or quarter-sessions, shall appoint a master of the house of correction within such city, who shall have such sum yearly as hath been accustomed towards the maintenance of the prisoners in his custody who shall be sick and unable to work (not exceeding 80l. per ann.), and direct the repairs and management thereof, and the treasurer of the money arising by the rates on the county of Middlesex and city of Westminster shall obey all orders which shall be made by them in such sessions for the payment of any sum allotted to such master of the house of correction, and the repairs thereof, which orders shall be a good discharge to such treasurer, 12 G.2. c.29. s.16.

19. Justices at such sessions shall oblige, by their order, the respective high constables and petty constables, or any persons empowered to levy or receive any money for the purposes aforesaid, and who have any money in their hands, to account with them at their sessions in such manner as high constables are directed to account by this act; and in case they refuse to account or pay over money remaining in their hands, when required by such order, such justices shall have like remedy against them as they have against the high constables by s.8. pl. 9. for not accounting for or paying over money remaining in their hands; and may direct the payment of the respective sums remaining due to the treasurers, which shall be deemed to be part of the stock of such counties or places, and enquire what sums are due for the purposes aforesaid, and then order the payment of such sums as shall appear owing, id. s.17.

20. No action shall be commenced against any person employed in collecting any money in pursuance of such acts, or this act, on any rates quashed on certiorari brought in any court of record at Westminster, or otherwise, for any money collected on any such rates before such certiorari was brought and allowed; but the several sums paid on such rate more than ought to have been paid, shall be repaid or allowed to the persons who paid the same in the next rates, as if the same had been paid on such new rates, id. s.18.

21. All persons so employed shall account for and pay over money by them received, in the same manner, and under like penalties for neglect as are inflicted by this act (s.17.) on any person neglecting to account for, or pay over any money remaining in his hands which he has received in pursuance hereof, id. s.19.

22. The justices of Middlesex, at their general sessions, shall have the same powers to put this act in execution, as are hereby given at their general quarter sessions, id. s.20.

23. No writ of certiorari to remove any rates made in pursuance of this act, or any orders or proceedings of the general or quarter sessions touching such rates shall be granted, but upon a motion to be made in the first week of the next term, after the time allowed by s.12. of this act, for appealing from such rates and orders is expired, and on making it appear, on affidavit, or otherwise, that the merits of the question on such appeal or orders will, by such removal, come properly in the judgment of such court; no such writ of certiorari shall be allowed until sufficient security be given to the respective treasurers in 100*l.* to prosecute it with effect, and to pay costs in case such rates or orders be confirmed; nor shall any such rates, orders or proceedings, be quashed for want of form only; and all charges attending such removal shall be defrayed out of that or any subsequent rate, id. s.21.

24. So much of 14 El. c.5. as relates to taxing parishes for the relief of prisoners, and of 43 El. c.2. as relates to raising money for the K.B. and Marshalsea prisons, hospital and almshouses, and of 19 *C.*2. c.4. as relates to rating parishes for setting prisoners on to work shall be Rev., id. s.22.

25. The annual sums to be paid to the K.B. and Marshalsea prisons under this act, shall be as by 11 G.2. c.20. directed, and the money necessary for the purposes of 14 El. c.5. and 19 *C.*2. c.4. shall be paid out of the money arising under this act, id. s.23.

26. General issue treble costs, id. s.24. [See the sect. at length, 55 G.3. c.51. s.23. post.]

27. Where any liberties or franchises have commissions of the peace within themselves, and are not subject to the jurisdiction of commissions for counties within which such liberties, &c. lie, and did not before the passing of 12 G.2. c.29. contribute to the county rates, the justices for such liberties, &c. may exercise all the powers given by 12 G.2. c.29., and such liberties, &c. shall be subject thereto in like manner as counties at large, 15 G.2. c.18. s.7. [See 55 G.3. c.51. s.24. post.]

28. The justices of the English counties assembled at quarter sessions, or any adjournment thereof, may direct an equal county rate to be made for all purposes to which the county stock is or shall be liable, according to the directions hereinafter mentioned, and may assess and tax every parish, township, or other place whatever, parochial or extra-parochial, equally, according to a certain pound rate (to be fixed and publicly declared by such justices) of the full annual value of the messuages, lands, &c. rateable to the relief of the poor therein; provided this act shall not give jurisdiction to any justices for counties over any places situate within liberties or franchises having a separate jurisdiction, which before the passing of this act were subject to rates in the nature of county rates, imposed and assessed by justices for such liberties, &c. or which were exempt from county rates, either in whole or in part, nor to alter any proportion of county rates payable by any such liberty, &c. as established between the county and such liberty; provided such exemption or proportion are derived from grant, charter, or any special local act of parliament; nor shall compel any such liberty, &c. paying to some one or more of the rates specified in preamble of 12 G.2. c.29. to pay to any other rate there mentioned to which it was not liable before that act, nor shall repeal or alter the provisions of any acts now in force which have fixed the times and places of holding any general or annual general sessions, or adjournment thereof, for assessing county rates, or for raising, levying or collecting the same; but such provisions so fixing such times and places, and of then and there exclusively transacting matters therein mentioned respecting county rates, shall be in full force; and all matters that by this act may be done at quarter sessions, or any adjournment thereof, shall be done exclusively at such general or annual general sessions, or some adjournments thereof, and at no other time or place than that so fixed by any such act, 55 G.3. c.51. s.1.

29. All messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate in any extra-parochial or other place, whether rated to the poor or not, although the same may not be deemed rateable to the poor within such extra-parochial places or other places where no poor-rate is made, shall be subject to be assessed and rated by the order of the justices of peace in the same manner as other messuages, &c. are in parishes or places where a poor-rate is made; and such justices, in all cases where necessary, may appoint persons within such extra-parochial or other places, as directed by 55 G.3. c.51., (s.8.) for the assessing and rating such places, and collecting and paying over such assessments and rates under that act, 55 G.3. c.49. s.1.

30. The justices of peace, in and for any county, riding, or division, shall, in all cases of extra-parochial and other places, not assessable to the relief of the poor, where they deem it necessary, appoint proper persons, as by 55 G.3. c.49. s.1. directed, whether such persons do or do not reside in such places, to assess all such messuages, lands, &c. as are situated within such places, 1 & 2 G.4. c.85. s.2.

31. Such justices, at quarter-sessions or any adjournment thereof, may, as often as they deem it expedient, issue precepts signed by their chairman, or clerk of peace, under the authority of such court, to the high and petty constables, church-wardens, overseers of poor, assessors and collectors of public rates and taxes, of the several parishes, townships, and places, whether parochial or not, or to such and so many of them as they deem fit, requiring them to make returns in writing to the justices of their respective divisions in petty sessions assembled, (which returns shall be verified on oath at time of delivery, before 2 justices,) of the total amount of the full annual value of the several estates and rateable property within the parish, &c. to which they belong, charged or assessed to the poor-rate at the time of making return, or liable so to be, or charged or assessed on any other rate or assessment whether public or parochial, but without regard to the actual sums assessed on the property therein, save in places where assessed to the full annual value, 55 G.3. c.51. s.2.

32. Such justices at such sessions may also make orders for the justices within the limit of their commissions to meet from time to time within the several divisions for which they act, and fix therein the time of such first meeting, and they may adjourn until the purposes of this act are completed; and any 2 of them, at such meeting, shall receive the returns of such constables, &c. (as in s.2.) causing same to be verified on oath, and examine them on oath touching any matters contained in such returns, and shall report their proceedings to the next or any subsequent quarter-sessions, as they have directed, id. s.3.

33. In case any constable, churchwarden, &c. (as in s.2.) shall neglect to make such return to such precept, without sufficient excuse to be allowed by such justices at general or quarter-sessions, he shall forfeit not exceeding 20*l.* as adjudged by such justices to be levied on his goods, id. s.4.

34. In case of default by not making due return of any thing required by such precept (as in s.2. pl. 31.), such justices in petty sessions, or 2 of them, shall issue their precepts to any officer in s.2. described, who has made such default, to make such returns in writing on a day and place therein named; and in case of neglect to make return to the precept issued by such two justices, without sufficient excuse, to be allowed by such 2 justices, such officer shall forfeit any sum not exceeding 20*l.* as adjudged by such 2 justices, to be levied on his goods, id. s.5.

35. If any church-warden, overseer, assessor, or collector, shall neglect to make such returns, or if notwithstanding the incurring of any such penalties on account of such neglect, a return of any parish, &c. shall not be made within the time [in s.2. pl. 31.] limited, then such justices, either at the next or some subsequent general or quarter, or at some petty sessions or adjournment thereof, as case may be, may ascertain the annual value of the property chargeable to the county rate within each parish, &c. of which no return has been made, by is-u-ing fresh precepts, or by other means they deem proper; and such justices so assembled at such general or quarter-sessions, or any adjournment thereof, acting in their own discretion or on the report of any 2 justices acting for any division of such county, shall order such compensation to be made to the persons ascertaining such value and in making such returns as to such justices shall appear reasonable, and such compensation and other expenses thereby incurred shall be charged by such justices on the parish, &c. of which the churchwarden, &c. shall have so neglected to make such return, in addition to the proportion of the county rate to be paid by such parish, &c. and which may be levied and collected as the county rate may be, and be paid therewith, due distinction being made between the sum charged for expenses, and the sum assessed for the county rate, 55 G.3. c. 51. s. 6.

56. In all cases and places where there are no churchwardens or overseers, or no rates made for the relief of the poor, or where the justices of any county or division thereof so assembled for recovering such returns (as in s. 2.) shall think that such returns do not afford a fair account of the annual value of the property rateable, they may summon before them 1 or more substantial inhabitants of such places, or any other person to give evidence as to the fair annual value of such rateable property, and may examine them on oath as to the same, id. s. 7.

57. Where there is no poor-rate, or overseer, or churchwarden, or other officer to execute this act residing within the jurisdiction of the justices requiring such returns, and in which there is property liable to the poor-rate but not rated thereto, such justices of the county so assembled, or justices resident in and acting for any division of the county in which such places are situate, or at any petty sessions or adjournment thereof holden by them within such division, may appoint 1 or more proper persons to act as overseers, or such other officer (as in s. 2. pl. 31.) who shall act within such places to execute this act, and shall have like powers and be liable to like regulations and penalties as if they had been overseers or other officers, id. s. 8.

58. The justices, or 2 of them, assembled in general or quarter-sessions, and justices of the several divisions acting under the order of such justices so assembled, may when necessary, cause any books of assessment of any rates or taxes, parliamentary or parochial, which now or hereafter may be laid on property rateable to the county rate, and the valuation by which such assessments were made, in the hands of any constable, church-warden, &c. to be brought before them, and take extracts therefrom, or may order such extracts to be taken by the party in whose hands same are, without being brought before them, and may call such constables, church-wardens, &c. before them, to give evidence respecting the same, making reasonable compensation to the persons so employed; and every person having custody of any such books neglecting to attend such justices therewith, or refusing to permit extracts to be taken from them, or to give information or evidence on oath as such justices shall require, shall forfeit 10*l.*; and such justices in like cases may cause copies of the total amount assessed in each parish, &c. in respects of any aids or taxes payable to H. M., and the total amount of the valuation of the property on which such assessments were made in any year then elapsed, to be made by the clerk of the commissioners [Qr. of land tax.] in each district within the jurisdiction of such justices, such compensation being made to such clerks as such justices deem reasonable; and clerks refusing to make out such copies on receipt of the order of such justices, shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 9.

59. Churchwardens and overseers, chief constables, and other persons, required to make such returns, may, in cases of doubt, with such other person as they may select, by warrant under the hands and seals of 2 justices at general or quarter-sessions assembled, enter upon and view all lands or other property rateable to the county rate, in order to ascertain the annual value at which the same ought to be charged, provided no such entry shall be made unless 14 days' notice of intention to make same shall be given under the hands and seals of the justices authorizing the same to the churchwardens or overseers, or to the persons appointed to act in default of them, and to the person whose lands are to be entered on, id. s. 10.

60. When justices in general or quarter-sessions have ordered any county rate to be made, which they may do as often as is necessary, and the justices in petty sessions shall have ascertained the fair annual value of all rateable property within their respective divisions, they shall from time to time certify under their hands the true amount thereof to the next general or quarter-sessions, in order that at such or any subsequent sessions, or any adjournment thereof, the justices may proceed to make an equal rate on all such rateable property, or correct any inequalities which on appeal shall be shewn to their satisfaction to exist in any rate, id. s. 11.

61. When the justices, at any general or quarter sessions, or any adjournment thereof, shall make a rate, they may order warrants to be issued, in the usual way, to the several high constables, ordering them to issue their warrants to the overseers of the poor within their respective districts, to levy, collect, and pay to such high constables within a time limited in a warrant to be issued from such sessions, all such rates, which each high constable shall pay, at the time in such warrant specified, to the county-treasurer, to be applied in the manner the county-stock is legally applicable; and if any such overseer, or other person appointed to act as such, (under s. 8. of this act), shall neglect to pay the same within the time so limited to the high constable of his division, any justice for the county, on complaint made by such high constable, may, by warrant under his hand and seal, levy the same by distress, and sale of the offender's goods; and such overseer, or other such person, shall and may levy by an equal rate on all property rateable to the relief of the poor within such parish, &c. such sums as are necessary, in order to raise the money assessed on such parishes, &c. or to reimburse such overseers or person such sums as they have paid on account of the same; such rate to be paid by the occupier, for the time being, of such rateable property, 55 G.3. c. 51. s. 12.

62. In case of any appeal, actions, &c. at law, respecting any thing done in pursuance of this or any other act relating to county rates, the expenses shall be paid by the respective parishes, townships, places, and persons, or such of them, and in such proportions as the court where same is tried shall award, 57 G.3. c. 94. s. 4.

63. The justices at general or quarter sessions, or any adjournment thereof, may order the money directed to be assessed for a county rate on any parish, &c. or place, whether parochial or otherwise, where a county rate cannot conveniently be paid out of a poor rate, which does not apply separately to such parish, &c., to be paid and levied on the churchwardens, overseers, or petty constables, for any such parish, &c. in such manner as the same is (in s. 8.) directed to be paid and levied in cases where no poor rate is made, 55 G.3. c. 51. s. 13.

64. In all cases where there are no high constables, the justices for the county where such places are situate, may issue their warrants for collecting the county rate to one or more of the constables of such parishes, townships, or places, who shall collect and pay the same, in like manner as such high constable may under 56 G.3. c. 49. and be subject to the like penalties, in case of neglect as such high constables are, 57 G.3. c. 94. s. 5.

65. If the churchwardens, overseers of the poor, or other inhabitants of the place, where there is no churchwarden, or overseer, or other person appointed to act as such, shall deem themselves aggrieved by any rate made under this or any other act on any account, they may appeal to any general or quarter sessions against such part of the rate only as affects the parishes, &c. that are unequally rated, over-rated, under-rated, or omitted from the rate; and such sessions may finally determine the same, and either affirm such part of the rate as is appealed against, or correct the inequalities, &c. proved to exist, in such manner as they deem reasonable; but on such appeal no such rate shall be quashed in regard to any other parish, &c. unless such sessions shall deem it necessary to make an entire new rate, and proceed therein, as under this act, s. 1. pl. 28., 55 G.3. c. 51. s. 14.

66. The rates made on any parish, township, or place, (whether extra-parochial or otherwise,) under any act for assessing, collecting, and levying of county rates, shall be paid, levied, and recovered, notwithstanding any appeal to the quarter sessions against such rates, and shall continue to be raised, &c. till the decision of the justices is made on such appeal; but if, on hearing such appeal, such sessions shall order the rate or assessment to be set aside or decreased, and it appears to such court that any parish, &c. hath paid money in consequence of such rates, which ought not to have been paid, then such court may order such proportion of such money so paid by any person, parish, &c. subsequent to notice of appeal, to be repaid out of the general rate of the county, in which the appeal arose; provided that 14 days' notice in writing shall be given by such parties intending to appeal against any rate, to the party against whose rate the appeal is to be made, the clerk of peace for county and the hundred constable, of the intention to try such appeal at next quarter sessions, 57 G.3. c. 94. s. 2.

67. In case of any appeals, actions, suits, or proceedings at law, for any thing done under this or any other acts relating to county rates, the expenses thereof shall be borne and paid by such parishes, &c. and persons, or such of them, and in such proportions as such justices on any appeal in their sessions or as such courts, wherein such actions, &c. are instituted, shall award, and shall not be paid out of county rate, id. s. 15. but see next pl.

68. So much of said recited act as directs expenses of appeals, &c. for any thing done under such act, to be paid by respective parishes, &c. and not out of county rate, is REV. 57 G.3. c. 94. s. 3 [Note. "said recited act" refers to 56 G.3. c. 49. but there is no enactment of the kind in that act, and it seems to apply to 55 G.3. c. 51. s. 15. only, see s. 4. pl. 42.]

69. Such sessions may order such allowance to be made to such churchwardens, overseers, collectors, &c. and other persons employed under this act, not herein before provided for, out of such county rates as they deem proper, 55 G.3. c. 51. s. 16.

70. In case of any appeal, actions, &c. at law for any thing done in pursuance of this or any act, relating to county rate, the expences shall be paid by such respective parishes, &c. or such of them, and in such proportion as the sessions, or court wherein depending, shall award and order, 57 G. 3. c. 94. s. 4.

51. The treasurers of counties or divisions of counties shall, once in each year, publish in a newspaper, circulated in the county or division for which they act, an abstract of an account of their receipts and expenditures under their several heads, for the year preceding, signed by the justices of peace, who credit the same, under penalty of 50*l*. for each omission of such publication, 55 G. 3. c. 51. s. 18.

52. Such justices may demand, and take, when they deem fit, good security, to be approved of by the general or quarter sessions, from high constable employed in collecting and levying such rates; and if such high constable shall neglect on being so called upon to give the same, such sessions may direct the churchwardens and overseers of the poor, and other persons appointed to assess, collect, and levy such rates, to pay it to the county treasurer, and his receipt shall be a discharge for same, id. s. 19.

53. All the powers, clauses, &c. of 12 G. 2. c. 19. and also of 13 G. 2. c. 18. [viz. s. 7. save the parts hereby altered and repealed], shall be good for assessing, levying, collecting, and enforcing payment of rates made under this act, and for executing the same, id. s. 20.

54. Justices of peace may proceed in the assessing, &c. and enforcing payment of the county rate, either under this act, or any other particular acts, affecting their respective counties as they deem fit, in all cases in which the provisions of this act are not inconsistent with the provisions of such particular acts, id. s. 21.

55. All penalties inflicted by this act, if not immediately paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under hand and seal of one justice for the county, not only in the county where offence done, but in any other county, city, or place, such warrant being first properly indorsed by a magistrate for the place where goods are found, returning the overplus after charges of distress, &c. deducted, and if no sufficient distress can be found, then such justices may commit the offender to the common gaol of the county without bail for not exceeding 3 calendar months, unless the forfeitures and charges are sooner paid, and such forfeitures shall be paid to the treasurer of the county, or any division thereof in which incurred, to be applied in aid of the county-rates, and no person shall be deemed an incompetent witness for the purposes of this act, or in any appeal, or other proceeding instituted by virtue hereof, by reason of his liability to pay towards the poor or county-rates within such county, id. s. 22.

56. No actions for any thing done in pursuance hereof shall be brought within 3 [calendar, 55 G. 3. c. 51. s. 23.] months after the fact committed, and shall be laid in county where the cause arose, and the defendant may at his election plead this act specially or the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done under this act, and if it shall so appear, or if such action is brought after the time so limited, or laid in the wrong county, then the party shall find for the defendants, and in all cases where a verdict is found for defendant in such action, or the plaintiff discontinues after appearance, or is nonsuited, or has judgment against him on demurrer, the defendant shall have treble costs with usual remedy to recover the same, 12 G. 2. c. 29. s. 24., 55 G. 3. c. 51. s. 23.

57. Where any ridings or divisions have separate commissioners of the peace, or where any cities, &c. within Eng. have such commissioners within themselves, and are not subject to such commissioners for counties at large, and did not pay rates made for counties at large before this act was passed, the justices of such separate commissions shall exercise the powers hereby given, and such separate commissions are hereby declared subject thereto, 55 G. 3. c. 51. s. 24.

58. The justices for counties, ridings, divisions, and parts of counties, and other places having separate jurisdiction in Eng. at general or quarter sessions, or at any adjournment thereof shall, when questions concerning any boundary between any counties, ridings, &c. or other such places having separate jurisdiction arise, appoint 2 justices of each county, riding, &c. or place between which such boundary is to be ascertained for the purpose of fixing the same, and the clerks of peace, town-clerks, and other proper officer of the sessions at which such justices are appointed, shall give notice to each other, and to such justices of such appointment; and the justices so appointed shall as soon as may be after appointment meet and proceed to ascertain such boundary, upon such evidences as they deem necessary, either by examination of witnesses on oath, or of any maps, plans, surveys, or other records, or in such other manner as they think requisite, and such justices or any persons authorized under the hands of 3 of them, may enter on any land or premises to examine the same, and make all measurement, maps or plans thereof, and such parties may summon any witnesses, and impose any penalty not exceeding 10*l*. upon any witness that shall neglect to attend on such summons without reasonable excuse, to be recovered as other forfeitures under 55 G. 3. c. 51. (s. 22. pl. 55.) may be, and shall ascertain such boundary, and cause the same so fixed to be laid down on 2 maps or plans to be signed by them, which shall be deposited with the clerk of the peace, town-clerk, or other proper officer of counties, &c. and places between which such boundary shall be so fixed, and which shall be kept with the records of the sessions, and be evidence of such boundaries, and such boundaries so fixed shall be deemed the boundaries of such counties, &c. for which they are ascertained for all the purposes of this act, and of 55 G. 3. c. 51., 56 G. 3. c. 49. s. 2.

59. If any of the four justices so appointed, or to be appointed as in s. 2. shall before execution of the powers hereby vested in them die, decline to act, or become incapable of acting, such justices as in s. 2. at general or quarter sessions, or any adjournment thereof, from which such justice so dying, declining to act, &c. was appointed, shall appoint another in his stead, and so from time to time as it becomes necessary, who shall have like power as the justice in whose place he is appointed had, and like notice shall be given to the clerks of peace, &c. as in s. 2., id. s. 3.

60. If the justices so appointed, (as in s. 2.) shall disagree touching the boundary between any county, &c. so referred to them under this act, or 55 G. 3. c. 51. and there shall be an equality of votes, then the major part of such justices shall forthwith appoint under their hands some person to act as a referee, who shall within 21 days from receipt of such appointment fix a time and place to meet such justices, and there to ascertain such boundary about which such disagreement arose, in the same manner as before expressed (s. 2.), and the determination of such justices and referee shall be final; and after the same is so fixed, they shall cause such boundaries to be laid down on two maps or plans, and signed by such justices and referees, and the same shall be so reported and considered as such evidence, and the boundaries so fixed be deemed such boundaries as is in s. 2. expressed, id. s. 4.

61. This act shall not determine any question of boundary for any purpose except that of assessing and collecting such rates, according to 35 G. 3. c. 51. and this act, id. s. 6.

62. All the powers, provisions, &c. contained in 55 G. 3. c. 51. shall be applied to this act, id. s. 7.

63. All the powers, provisions, and penalties, in 12 G. 2. c. 29. 13 G. 2. c. 18. s. 7. 55 G. 3. c. 57., 56 G. 3. c. 49., and 57 G. 3. c. 94., shall extend to all cases and places of parishes, hamlets, and places, extending into two or more counties or divisions, having separate commissioners of the peace, part of such parishes, &c. being in one and part in another of such counties, &c., and the messuages, lands, &c. within which are assessable to the poor therein, and to the county-rate of the respective counties, &c. in which such messuages, &c. are; where there are no separate churchwardens or overseers of the poor, or where no distinct rate is made for the poor, of any such division of any parish, &c., extending into two or more counties, &c. as fully as if here re-enacted; and all constables, churchwardens, and overseers of any such parishes, &c. so extending, shall be subject to the precepts, warrants, orders, and directions of the justices for the respective divisions of such parishes, &c. so far as they relate to making returns required by such acts, and the assessing, &c. of the county-rate, for such divisions of such parishes, &c. or otherwise in execution of the said acts, and of any other acts relating thereto, within such parts of such parishes as are situated within the jurisdiction of the justices issuing such precepts, &c., and shall be subject to the same penalties for neglect or disobedience of such precepts, &c. as such constables, &c. or other officers would have been, had they resided within the jurisdiction of the justices issuing such precepts, &c.; but no justices shall act beyond their jurisdictions, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 85. s. 1.

64. The goods of any person made liable by the said acts to pay any rates thereby authorised for any county, &c., city, borough, town corporate, or place, and refusing to pay, may be levied by distress, not only in the place for which the assessment was made, but, in any other place within the same county or precinct, and if no distress within such county, &c. on oath made thereof, before some justice of any other county or precinct (which oath shall be certified under the hand of such justice on such warrant) such goods may be levied in such other county, &c. and all persons aggrieved by such distress, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions for the county or precinct where such assessment was made, and the justices there shall finally determine the same, id. s. 5.

65. In all cases where any forfeiture or other money under the said acts, may, by warrant of any justice be levied by distress and sale of any goods, if no distress can be found within the jurisdiction of the justice granting such warrant, on oath thereof, by one witness, before any justice of any other county, &c. (which oath he shall certify on such warrant) such forfeiture, or money, or so much thereof as remains unpaid, may be levied by the persons to whom such warrant was originally directed, by distress and sale of the goods of such person in such other county, &c., and the money thereby arising shall be applied accordingly; and if no distress, such offender shall be proceeded against according to law, id. s. 4.

66. No justice who shall endorse any certificate, or authorise the ex-execution of any such warrant, shall be accountable for any irregularity done in the obtaining or granting the same, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 85. s. 5.

COURTS (OF AUGMENTATIONS).

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR ESTABLISHING the court of augmentations, 27 H. 8. c. 27. [R.L.P. by that king's letters patent, see 7 E. 6. c. 2. s. 2.]
2. FOR ESTABLISHING by authority of parliament that court as re-created by letters patent of H. 8. (s. 3.) after its dissolution as in the last placitum, 7 E. 6. c. 2. [R.L.P. virtually, 1 E. 4. s. 24.]
3. FOR UNITING, DISSOLVING, or new-creating of courts, [viz. of first-fruits and tenths of the augmentation of king's revenue, and for annexing them to the exchequer,] 1 M. S. 2. c. 10. [Exp. See the act recited, 1 E. 4. s. 15.]
4. THE STATUTES for erections of the courts of augmentations and of first-fruits and tenths, are expressly excepted from the revivals of statutes effected by 1 E. 4. s. 24., and are therefore virtually repealed.

COURTS (CHANCERY).

(STATUTES expired.)

1. TO INDEMNIFY the masters in chancery upon their discovering what consideration they had paid for their offices, 11 G. 1. c. 2. [Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. THE OATHS of the clerks of chancery, and of those of course, 18 E. 3. (stat. 5.)

Ye shall swear that well and lawfully ye shall serve our lord the king, and his people, in the office of clerk of the chancery, to which ye be attitled: and ye shall not assent nor procure the king's disherison, nor perpetual damage to your power; nor shall you do nor procure to be done, any fraud to any man's wrong, nor thing that toucheth the keeping of the seal; and ye shall lawfully give counsel the things that touch the king, when ye shall be thereto required; and the counsel which you know touching him ye shall conceal. And if you know the king's disherison, or perpetual damage or fraud to be done upon the things which touch the keeping of the seal, ye shall put your lawful power to repress and amend it: and if ye cannot do it, then ye shall certify the chancellor or other, which may do the same to be amended to your intent. [And for the clerks of course shall be added.] And ye shall not bring, nor to your knowledge suffer to be brought, any writs which ye may make out of the court not sealed, thereof to do execution: nor shall record any attorney by writs nor without writs without special licence, if ye have not lawfully examined the party and the attorney in proper person, or at the least him that shall make attorney in proper person; nor shall ye deliver any writ which shall be of commandment to the examiners, nor to the seal, before that the same writ be sent to you by the commander, which thereof hath power, unless it be to the chancellor, or to one of the masters, which commandeth you to make the writs. And all the writs that ye shall make, ye shall deliver to the examiners by your own hand, or by one companion which is sworn to the king, if ye yourself be out of the court because of sickness or other cause necessary, so that ye cannot do it. And no writ written of another man's hand shall be delivered to the examiners, under your name, as yours, nor no name shall ye put under your writs, but your own, as God you help, &c. id. ibid.

2. WHOSOEVER is GRIEVED, contrary to any of the articles [therein] above written, or others contained in divers statutes, and cometh into chancery, or any for him, and thereof makes his plaint, shall have remedy there by force of the said articles and statutes without pursuing elsewhere, 36 E. 3. c. 9.

3. UPON TRUE SUGGESTIONS before the council, or in chancery, damages may be awarded, 17 R. 2. c. 6. [AMD. 15 H. 6. c. 4. s. 4. c. 16. s. 22. and all jurisdiction of H. M. or the privy council over men's estates is taken away, 16 C. 1. c. 10. s. 5.]

4. When the suggestions on which writs are grounded are found untrue, the chancellor may award damages to the person who is so unduly troubled, 17 R. 2. c. 6.

5. NO WRIT OF SUBPENA SHALL BE GRANTED until surety be found to satisfy the party grieved for his damages and expences, if the bill cannot be verified, 15 H. 6. c. 4.

6. No subpoena or other process for appearance shall issue out of any court of equity till after the bill is filed with the proper officer in the respective courts of equity, except in cases of bills for injunctions to stay wastes, or stay suits at law commenced, and a certificate thereof brought to the subpoena office, or to him who usually makes out subpoenas or other process in the several courts of equity, under the hand of the six-clerk or other clerk or officer who usually files bills in equity, for which certificate he shall receive no fee, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 22.

7. The six-clerks in chancery may marry and hold their offices, 14 & 15 H. 8. c. 8. s. 1.

8. The power of the master of the rolls in the giving and disposition of the offices of six-clerks, shall not be altered by this act, and they shall attend him as usual, id. s. 2.

COURTS (CHANCERY).

9. THE AUTHORITY, JURISDICTION, PRECEDENCE, and advantages of the lord keeper of the great seal of Eng., are the same with those of the lord chancellor, 5 E. 1. c. 18. and see next pl.

10. FOR ENABLING LORDS COMMISSIONERS for the great seal to execute the office of lord chancellor, or lord keeper, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 21. (and recital in s. 1.)

11. All authority, jurisdiction, emoluments and advantages of the lord chancellor, or lord keeper of the great seal, may be exercised and had by lords commissioners, who shall have precedence next after the peers of the realm and speaker of the house of commons; but if one of them is a peer, he shall take place according to his peerage, id. s. 2.

12. One commissioner may, in the absence of the rest, hear motions and give orders as to the interlocutory proceedings in a cause, but shall not make decrees, or put the great seal to any thing soever, unless two commissioners are present, id. s. 3.

13. THE DUTY AND FEES OF MASTERS IN CHANCERY, 13 C. 2. s. 1. [The above title is framed to shew the object of this statute, which is taken from the appendix to the 25d vol. of Pickering's edition, and will not be found in Ruffhead's edition.]

14. One public office shall be kept near the rolls, in which the masters, or one of them, shall constantly attend for administering oaths, caption of deeds, and recognizances, and dispatch of all matters incident to their office, (references upon accounts and insufficient answers only excepted,) from 7 a. m. till 12 at noon, and from 2 p. m. to 6 at night; and the said masters may take the following fees, viz. for every oath taken in the office, 12d.; for every bill of costs taxed for plaintiff's not putting in his bill, or not proceeding to reply, or for not appearing, 2s. 6d.; for the acknowledgment of every deed to be enrolled, 2s.; for the caption of every recognizance, 2s.; for every exemplification examined by 2 masters, to each master who shall examine, for each skin 2s.; for every report or certificate, in pursuance of any order, upon hearing, 20s.; for every other certificate or report of any order made on petition or motion, 10s.; and any master who receives any reward otherwise, or for any matter, shall, after conviction, be disabled from execution of the offices, and forfeit to the party grieved so much as he shall take contrary to this act, and 100l.; one moiety to H. M. and the other to the party grieved; tables of which fees shall be set up in the office and chapel of the rolls, id. ibid.

15. FOR BETTER SECURING THE MONIES AND EFFECTS of the suitors of the court of chancery, [viz. by appointment of accountant general,] 12 G. 1. c. 32. ss. 1—9. [AMD. 12 G. 1. c. 33. s. 20. 12 G. 2. c. 24. s. 5. 5 & 6 G. 3. c. 14. and see s. 10. of this statute, tit. FORECLOSURE.]

"Recital, that whereas the lords commissioners did, on 26th May, 1725, make an order for the masters to deliver into the bank the monies and effects under their care, and that the lord chancellor did, by order dated 4th Nov. following, direct the said order of 26th May to be observed, with the additions in the order of 4th Nov. contained, which among other things contains as follows;" [The parts hereof in force follow at length, as confirmed by 12 G. 1. c. 32. s. 2.]

"Ordo curiæ. Whereas the right honourable the late lords commissioners, &c. did on 26th May last, order and direct, among other things, that when any money or tallies, orders or bonds, at or after the hearing of any cause, shall be taken under the care of this court, the master shall direct the payment of such money, &c. into the bank; and the monies so paid, and the orders, tallies and bonds so delivered, shall be entered in the master's accounts kept with the bank; but the masters shall have no power to issue any money entered in their said accounts, or to direct the securities to be delivered out. And when any money shall be paid, &c. into the bank, pursuant to the directions aforesaid, the party paying such money, &c. shall take a certificate from one of the cashiers of the bank, of their being placed to the proper master's account; and shall carry the said certificate to such master, who shall thereupon make his report of the payment of such money, &c. into the bank, and file the same at the report office; and the clerk of the said office shall enter the same in the master's book, cause-wise. And when any money shall be directed to be laid out on government securities, the species of the securities to be mentioned in the order; and in case any of them shall consist of East-India bonds, South-Sea bonds, or exchequer tallies and orders, the same shall be delivered in at the bank; and if any such securities shall consist of stock in any of the companies, such stock is to be transferred to such master, who shall make a declaration of trust in the companies books, and shall take a certificate thereof from the proper officer, and enter the same in his book at the bank, that the bank may receive the dividends thereupon, and shall also make a report of all such securities; which certificate and report shall be filed at the report-office; and the clerk of the report-office is to enter the dates, sums, and numbers of the bonds, tallies and orders, and quantities of stock in such report mentioned, in the proper master's books kept there. And when any securities deposited at the bank shall be directed to be delivered out, the registrar shall certify to the master what security is to be delivered out, and the name of the cause; which certificate the clerk in court or solicitor shall deliver to the master, who shall countersign the same; and such certificate shall be a proper authority for the bank to deliver over such security, and enter the delivery of such securities in the master's accounts, cause-wise; and it is the duty of the master to supervise such entry, and to certify the same into the report-office to be filed. Bonds, tallies, and orders, shall be taken in and delivered out on Wednesdays and Fridays, between ten in the forenoon and one in the afternoon, and the master shall receive from the suitor the usual fees for the report and filing the same, and shall answer the fee for filing to the report-office. And when any stock shall be ordered to be transferred by any of the masters to the suitors, the register shall certify to the master what stock he is to transfer, and to whom; which certificate the clerk in court, &c. shall carry to the master, who shall within one week, or at the next opening of the books, attend in person, and deliver such certificate to the officer of such company, and transfer such stock, or give sufficient authority so to do. And such certificate shall be an authority to the companies, to permit the master, &c. to transfer such stocks, of which transfer the master is to make his report, and procure the same to be filed in the report-office; for the making and filing of which the master shall receive the usual fees, and answer the fee for filing to the report-office; and the transfer of such stock shall be certified by the master to the bank, that such stock may be discharged out of the account of the master there. And when any money belonging to the suitors received by the bank shall be directed to be paid, the clerk in court or solicitor shall carry the order to the master, who shall make a certificate thereof, which certificate such clerk or solicitor shall file in the report-office; and the master shall by note draw on the bank for such money, which note shall be carried to the report-office, and an entry made thereof in the master's book there, and intratur shall be written thereon, and signed by the register; which note so entered and signed shall be sufficient authority to the bank to pay such money, as likewise to write off the same from such master's account; but when any money shall be directed to be paid to any suitor out of money to be received by the bank, for interest or maintenance, the master shall by note, without any certificate, draw on the bank; and such note being signed by the master, and entered in the report-office, and countersigned by the register shall be a proper authority. And every master shall on the first day of every term give an account to the secretary of the lord chancellor, of all monies and securities or stocks, that they have issued or transferred in the respective causes since their last account, together with the dates of such orders, and the masters shall compare such account with their books kept at the report-office and at the bank. And no person shall take any fee for doing anything in pursuance of this order, other than the masters and the clerk of the report-office; and the masters shall only take the same fee for a certificate, as they have been intitled to for a report, and the clerk of the report-office shall only take the same fee for filing the certificate or report, as the clerk of the report-office has been intitled unto for filing the same. And whereas the said order is for the benefit of the suitors; it is ordered by the right honourable the lord high chancellor, that the said order of 26th May last, wherein it is not herein varied, shall be firmly observed, with the additions following. And it is hereby ordered, that the bank is to receive the interest and dividends on all stocks, bonds, tallies, orders, annuities, and other securities, whereof any of the masters shall be possessed in trust for the suitors; and each master shall empower one of the cashiers of the bank to receive the same; and such interests and dividends shall be entered in the respective master's accounts at the bank; and at the end of every term, but oftener if there be occasion, the bank shall certify cause-wise to each master the sums so received, to the end each master may make like entries in the books kept by themselves, and likewise deliver a copy thereof to the clerk of the report-office, who is to cause the same to be entered cause-wise in the master's books at the report-office; and as to all mortgages, the particular trusts shall be inserted in the body of the mortgage-deed; and all interest and principal on such mortgages shall by the party be paid into the bank. And all monies, tallies, orders, bonds, securities, and effects, directed to be brought before, or delivered in, or paid to, any master, shall not be brought before, or paid to such master; but when any security, sum of money, or other effects are ready to be delivered or paid in, in obedience to such order, the master shall, on application of the party, certify the date of such order, and the sum of money, tallies, orders, bonds, deposits, securities, and other effects then to be paid or delivered in, and the name of the cause, to the account of which the same is to be placed; and upon the party's delivering such certificate, and payment of such money, or delivering of such tallies or other effects into the bank, the same shall be entered in the respective master's accounts. When the master is by note to draw on the bank for money, such note shall be limited to be paid within a month after date; and if it be not paid within such time, the note shall be void; and when such note is carried to the report-office, there shall also be carried with it the order whereby such payment was directed to be made, and an entry shall be made in the master's book at the office, not only of the note, but also a memorandum that it was drawn by virtue of such order, and thereupon an intratur is to be made, &c. When the masters certify to the report-office any entry of the delivering out securities, the clerk of the report-office shall make entries according to such certificate in the respective master's books kept in that office, of the delivering out such securities. The bank is to receive the interest and dividends of all stocks, bonds, tallies, orders, annuities, and other securities, whereof the usher shall be possessed in trust for any of the suitors, the usher authorising one of the cashiers of the bank to receive the same; and such entries are to be made thereof, and such rules to be observed, as herein and in the said recited order are set down for the masters; and as to mortgages, which the usher either singly or jointly may have in trust for the suitors, the same rules shall be observed by the usher, as in the like cases are prescribed to the masters. All monies, tallies, orders, bonds, securities, and other effects, directed to be brought into court, or to be taken under the care of the usher, shall not be brought before or paid to the usher, but shall be paid or delivered into the bank, under the regulations, as the masters are required to do; and the usher shall on his part, in all things relating hereto, act in like manner as the masters are in such cases obliged to do. If any money or effects of the suitors shall by the usher be invested in any securities, the same methods shall be observed by the usher and others in relation thereto, as are in like cases prescribed to the masters. When any stock or annuities in the name of the usher shall be transferred, or any deposits, interests, or dividends, or other thing contained in the said usher's account, shall be paid or delivered out of the bank, the same method shall be observed, as the masters are appointed to do; and in general the same rules, which are prescribed to be observed by the masters, shall be in like cases mutatis mutandis observed by the usher. When any money or effects belonging to the suitors, paid into the bank on account of the usher, shall be directed to be paid out, and the usher is to make a certificate thereof to be filed in the report-office, the usher shall have 2s. for signing such certificate; and for every draught that he shall make on the bank, he shall receive 2d. in the pound of all money contained in such draught, draughts for interest or maintenance excepted. And it is further ordered, that in all orders to be hereafter made, relating to the monies or effects of the suitors, the several directions of this order shall be followed, although the same should not be particularly expressed in any such future order.

17. The court of chancery may vary the regulations in the said orders or in s. 2—4. contained, and may make such further regulations in the premises as to them shall seem meet, 12 G. 1. c. 32. s. 6.

18. One officer called THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL OF THE COURT OF CHANCERY shall be appointed by the high court of chancery to do all such things relating to the delivery of the suitors' money and effects into the bank of Eng., and taking them out and keeping the accounts thereof, as in the above recited orders is ordered to be done by the masters and usher of the said court, and shall hold his office at pleasure of the court; an account shall be kept in his name with the bank on behalf of the suitors, according to the directions of the said orders, with respect to the masters, and the same shall be observed by the suitors, the bank, and the accountant-general, except where the court shall otherwise determine, id. s. 3.

19. The accountant-general shall, as to the regulations prescribed in the said orders, stand in the place of the masters with no other fee from the suitors than what is allowed to the masters by the said order of 26th May, id. s. 4.

20. All mortgages, tallies, orders, stocks, annuities, and other transferable securities to be taken by direction of chancery for benefit of any suitors thereof, in the name of any officer of the court, shall be taken in the name of the accountant-general, and in all such assignments the particular trust shall be specified, subject in other respects by the rules appointed by the orders in s. 1. appointed to be observed to the masters, usher, and others, id. s. 5.

21. After the death or removal of any accountant-general, all mortgages, &c. (as in s. 4.) vested in him in trust for the suitor, shall vest in his successor, subject to the same trusts without assignment or transfer, and all monies and effects of the suitors for which he shall have credit in his account with the bank, shall be carried to the account of his successor, id. s. 7.

22. THE PROPERTY VESTED IN THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL of the high court of chancery as such, shall on his death, removal, or resignation ipso facto, vest from time to time in his successor, and may be proceeded, &c. upon in his name, 54 G. 3. c. 14. s. 1. [And see last pl.]

23. All acts done by any accountant-general, under any order or decree of chancery, touching the property vested in him as such are valid; and so though such acts are done in obedience to orders made touching property, the interest in which, at the time of the acts done, might have remained in any former accountant-general, who had resigned or been removed, or in his heirs, executors, or administrators, if deceased, id. s. 5.

24. The accountant-general shall not meddle with the actual receipt of any of the suitors' money or effects, but shall only keep the account with the bank; and while observing the rules hereby or hereafter prescribed by the court, shall not be answerable for any money or effects not actually received by him; and the bank shall be answerable for all such money and effects of the suitors by them actually received, 12 G. 1. c. 32. s. 8.

25. ALL THE MONEY DEPOSITED IN THE BANK on account of the suitors of the court of chancery, and by order of court, shall be one common and general cash, and shall be promiscuously issued as the court shall direct, for answering the demands of any of the suitors, 12 G. 1. c. 33. s. 20.

26. NO FEES SHALL BE TAKEN IN THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL'S office for any thing directed to be done therein by 12 G. 1. c. 32. and if any person belonging to the said office presumes to take any fee, he shall be considered guilty of extortion, and liable to be prosecuted for the same by indictment or information; or on complaint in the court of chancery, shall be punished as for a contempt, 12 G. 2. c. 24. s. 3.

27. To PUT AN END TO CERTAIN DISPUTES touching orders and decrees made in the court of chancery, 3 G. 2. c. 30.

28. All orders and decrees made by the master of the rolls (except such as, according to the course of that court, ought only to be made by the lord chancellor, lord keeper, or lords commissioners of the great seal,) shall be deemed valid orders and decrees of the court of chancery, subject to reversal or alteration by the lord chancellor, so as no such orders or decrees be enrolled till signed by the lord chancellor, id. s. 1. [See vice chancellor's appointment, 53 G. 3. c. 24., infra, pl. 75, &c.]

29. FOR MAKING PROCESS IN COURTS OF EQUITY EFFECTUAL against persons who abscond, and cannot be served therewith, or who refuse to appear, 5 G. 2. c. 25.

30. If in any suit in equity the defendant against whom the subpoena or other process issues, shall not enter his appearance thereon, as, according to the rules of the court it ought to have been entered, if process had been duly served, and affidavit is made to the satisfaction of the court, that the defendant is beyond the seas, or that on inquiry at his usual place of abode, he could not be found so as to be served with such process, and that there is just ground to believe that he is gone out of the realm, or absconds to avoid being served with process, the court may make an order directing such defendant to appear at a certain day named; a copy of which order shall in 14 days be inserted in the London Gazette, and published on some Lord's day immediately after divine service in the parish church of the parish in which the defendant resided within 30 days next before absenting himself; and a copy of every such order made in the court of chancery, exchequer, or duchy chamber of Lancaster at Westminster shall be posted in some public place at the Royal Exchange in London, or if made in any of the courts of equity of the counties palatine of Chester, Lancaster, and Durham, or of great sessions in Wales, a copy shall be posted in some public place in some market-town within the jurisdiction of the court, and nearest to defendant's usual abode, (that being also within jurisdiction of the court); and if defendant do not appear within the time limited by the order, or further time appointed by the court, then, on proof made of such publication of the order as aforesaid, the court being satisfied of the truth thereof, may order plaintiff's bill to be taken pro confesso, and make such decree thereon as is just, and may issue process to compel its performance, either by sequestration of the whole or a part of the defendant's real and personal estate, or by causing possession thereof to be delivered to plaintiff; and may also order the plaintiff to be paid his demands out of the estate sequestered according to the decree, on his giving security in a sum fixed by the court to abide such order touching the restitution of such estate as they shall make on the defendant's appearance to defend such suit, and on paying the costs ordered by the court; but if plaintiff refuses to give such security, the court shall order the effects sequestered to remain under the direction of the court, either by appointing a receiver, or otherwise, until defendant's appearance to defend the suit, and paying costs to plaintiff, or until further order of the court, id. s. 1.

31. Where any defendant is brought up by habeas corpus, or other process of court of equity, and refuses to enter his appearance according to the rules of the court, or to appoint a clerk in court, or attorney thereof to act on his behalf, the court may appoint such clerk, &c. to enter any appearance for such defendant, and proceedings may be had thereon as if he had actually appeared, id. s. 2.

32. If any person against whom a decree is made on his refusal to enter his appearance, or appoint clerk in court or attorney, is in custody or forthcoming, so that he may be served with a copy of the decree, he shall be so served before process is taken out to compel the performance thereof, id. s. 3.

33. Where any decree is made in pursuance of this act against any person out of the realm, or absconding at the time such decree is pronounced, and such person, 7 years after, returns, or becomes publicly visible, he shall likewise be served with a copy of the decree within a reasonable time after his return or public appearance shall be known to plaintiff; but if such defendant die before his return or public appearance, or dies in custody within the 7 years, before his being served with a copy of such decree, then his heir (if he have any real estate sequestered, or whereof possession has been delivered to plaintiff) or the guardian, committee, or husband of such heir, or if his personal property be sequestered or possession thereof is delivered to plaintiff, his executor or administrator, may be served with a copy of such decree, within a reasonable time after it shall be known to the plaintiff that defendant is dead, and who is his heir, executor, or administrator, or where duty may be served, id. s. 4.

34. If any person so served shall not within 6 months appear, and petition for a re-hearing of the cause, such decree shall stand absolutely confirmed against the person so served, his heirs, executors, and administrators, and all persons claiming under him by any act subsequent to the commencement of such suit, id. s. 5.

35. If any person served with a copy of such decree, shall within 6 months after such service, or if any person not so served shall in 7 years after making such decree, appear in court and petition to be heard respecting the matter thereof, and pay down or give security for payment of reasonable costs, the petitioner, and his heirs, executors, and administrators, and all claimants under him or them by any act done before the commencement of the suit, may be admitted to answer the bill, and issue may be joined, witnesses on both sides examined, and such other proceedings had thereon as if the party had originally appeared, 5 G. 2. c. 25. s. 6.

36. But if any person against whom such decree shall be made, or his heirs, executors, or administrators, shall not within 7 years after making such decree, appear and petition for its re-hearing, and pay down or give security for payment of reasonable costs, such decree shall stand absolutely confirmed against the person against whom it shall be made; and against all claiming under them by any act done subsequent to the commencement of suit, id. s. 7.

37. This act shall not make good any proceeding against any person beyond the seas, unless it appear to the satisfaction of the court by affidavit, before making such decree, that such person had been in Eng. within 2 years next before the subpoena issued, id. s. 8.

38. This act shall not make good any proceeding against any person in any court of equity having limited jurisdiction, unless it appear to such court by affidavit before making such decree, that such person had resided within the jurisdiction of such court within one year next before the subpoena issued, id. s. 9.

39. TO IMPOWER THE COURT OF CHANCERY TO LAY OUT, on proper securities, a sum not exceeding 35,000*l.* out of the suitors' general cash in the bank of Eng. for ease of such suitors, by applying the interest thereof to answer the charges of the office of accountant-general, 12 G. 2. c. 24. ss. 1—2. 4. see s. 3. pl. 26. [5000*l.* more, 4 G. 3. c. 32. s. 1., 20,000*l.* more, 9 G. 3. c. 19. s. 1. which amend this act: and salaries of clerks of the accountant-general increased out of the dividends on the suitors' common and general cash, 32 G. 3. c. 42., 46 G. 3. c. 129. s. 1. as well as more clerks appointed 46 G. 3. c. 129., infra, pl. 59.]

40. The above sums of 35,000*l.*, 5000*l.*, and 20,000*l.* of such cash in the bank may be placed out on government or parliamentary securities, which may be changed for like securities by the court at pleasure, and the interest thereof applied as in s. 2. of these acts, 12 G. 2. c. 24. s. 1., 4 G. 3. c. 32. s. 1., 9 G. 3. c. 19. s. 1.

41. The interest and annual profits on all these sums shall be received by the bank, and credited to an account there raised of interest arising from money placed out in pursuance hereof, and out of which interest first on the sum of 35,000*l.*, mentioned in 12 G. 2. c. 24., shall be paid quarterly by the bank by order of the court the annual sum of 1020*l.* viz. 650*l.* to the accountant-general; 50*l.* to his first clerk; 120*l.* to his 3d. clerk; (id. s. 2.) and out of the interest on the 5000*l.* mentioned in 4 G. 3. c. 32. s. 1., 120*l.* per ann. to his 3d. clerk, (id. s. 2.) and out of the interest on the 20,000*l.* mentioned in 9 G. 3. c. 19. s. 1., 250*l.* per ann. to the accountant-general; to his 1st clerk 50*l.*, to his 2d 40*l.*, and to his 4th clerk 120*l.* (id. s. 2.) all such salaries to be free of taxes, and in lieu of all fees of office, payable by the suitors to such office, 12 G. 2. c. 24. s. 2., 4 G. 3. c. 32. s. 2., 9 G. 3. c. 19. s. 2.

42. If at any time the whole or any part of the above sums is wanted to answer any of the demands of the suitors, the court may direct the same to be called in, or the securities on which it is placed to be disposed of, in order that the suitors may at all times be paid their respective demands out of the common and general cash belonging to them, 12 G. 2. c. 24. s. 1., 4 G. 3. c. 32. s. 3., 9 G. 3. c. 19. s. 3., and see pl. 25.

43. The surplus interest arising from the securities purchased under 12 G. 2. c. 24., 4 G. 3. c. 32., 9 G. 3. c. 19., together with the interest produced from the securities to be purchased with such surplus interest shall, from time to time, by order of chancery, be placed out on government securities, and the interest shall be received by the bank of Eng., and placed to the credit of an account to be raised in the books kept at the bank for the suitors of the court "of securities purchased with the surplus money placed to the account of interest arising from monies placed out in pursuance of 12 G. 2. c. 24.," 9 G. 3. c. 19. s. 4. [See that part of this section which relates to surplus interest arising under 5 G. 3. c. 28., infra, pl. 54.]

44. FOR MAKING GOOD A DEFICIENCY IN THE REVENUE of the office of clerk of the hanaper, and for preventing any future deficiency therein, to answer the public services provided for out of the same, and for augmenting the income of the office of Master of the Rolls, 23 G. 2. c. 25.

44. (a) "Recital that the office of clerk of the hanaper is an ancient office in chancery; and that through a deficiency in its yearly income, a debt of 10,590*l.* was incurred for fees and allowances due and payable thereout," it is enacted that the sum of 15,698*l.* remaining as surplus unapplied of the fund created by 12 G. 1. c. 39. ss. 1—4., and 9 G. 2. c. 32. ss. 1—3. [Stamp duties Exp.] shall be applied to pay off the above arrear, (s. 1.) ss. 2—3. are expired, and relate to the payment of the above arrears.]

45. Out of the stamp duties on writs imposed by this act, [now repealed by 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 1.] there shall be paid to the clerk of the hanaper-office, or his deputy, a yearly sum not exceeding 3000*l.* by equal half-yearly payments on 25*th* March, and 29*th* Sept. in every year, (for issuing which no fee shall be taken,) and the receipt of such clerk, or his deputy, shall be a sufficient discharge for the same, 23 G. 2. c. 25. s. 4.

46. The residue of the 13,698*l.* mentioned in s. 1. remaining surplus cash after payment of the debt there also mentioned, shall be placed out at interest on government securities, under direction of the court of chancery, in the name and with the privity of the accountant-general, and placed to the account of the clerk of the hanaper in chancery, to whom the dividends shall be paid in aid of the duties in s. 4. mentioned, to make good the annual sum of 3000*l.* granted to H. M. thereout, and a like receipt for the same shall suffice, id. s. 5.

47. Such yearly sum of 3000*l.* to be paid to the clerk of the hanaper, and the yearly dividends arising from the surplus cash of the 13,698*l.* in the bank of Eng. after paying the debt in s. 1. shall be applied and accounted for as part of the income of that office for the usual purposes thereof, and also for payment of the yearly sum of 1200*l.* to the master of the rolls by equal half-yearly payments on 25 March and 29 Sept. annually, id. s. 6.

48. Where the yearly income of the clerk of the hanaper exceeds what is sufficient to pay such 1200*l.* per ann. to the master of the rolls, and also the fees, salaries, and allowances payable thereout, he shall account for such overplus, which, on certificate thereof [from a commissioner of public accounts, see 25 G. 3. c. 52. s. 8., Accounts, Public, pl. 9. and pl. 104.] which he shall make and transmit to the treasury, shall be carried over to his next year's account, and he shall be charged therewith; and only so much of the said yearly sum of 3000*l.* shall be paid to the said clerk of the hanaper towards the next subsequent payment, as with such over plus, ascertained by such certificate, will answer the said yearly sum of 1200*l.* to the master of the rolls, and the several fees, &c. payable thereout, id. s. 7.

49. If the yearly income of this office falls short of these objects, the treasury may direct any sum, not exceeding the whole sum, saved in former years by applying surpluses to the succeeding year's account, (as in s. 7.) to be issued [from the like stamp duties Re. see s. 4.] and paid to such clerk of the hanaper in aid of such deficiency, as ascertained by a certificate [from a commissioner of the public accounts since 25 G. 3. c. 52. directed to the treasury as in last placitum] and receipts as in s. 5. shall be sufficient, id. s. 8.

50. In case the above duties and interest of the said surplus cash in the bank (s. 1.) shall in any one year produce less, and in another more than 3000*l.* the treasury may order such deficiencies to be made good out of such surpluses, so as the whole money issued to the clerk of the hanaper do not, in one year with another, exceed the yearly sum of 3000*l.* id. s. 9.

51. The surplus remaining after payment of the several yearly and other sums by this act directed to be issued and paid, shall be disposed of by parliament to the public use, id. s. 10.

52. TO PROVIDE FOR MASTERS IN CHANCERY, [Framed to shew the general object of these provisions,] 5 G. 3. c. 28. [AMD. 9 G. 3. c. 19. s. 4., 46 G. 3. c. 128. s. 1.]

53. The court of chancery empowered to order the placing out occasionally on government or parliamentary securities 80,000*l.* out of the general cash in the bank belonging to the suitors of the court, the securities being changeable by order of court for other like securities, the interest to be received and accounted for by the bank, and 200*l.* per ann. free of taxes, to be paid thereout half-yearly to each of the 11 masters in ordinary of the court: any overplus belonging to the general cash of the suitors, and the whole 80,000*l.* to be called in by the court if wanted to pay the latter, 5 G. 3. c. 28. ss. 1—3.

54. The surplus interest arising from the securities purchased in pursuance of 5 G. 3. c. 28., together with the interest produced from the securities to be purchased with such surplus interest, may, by order of chancery, be placed out from time to time on government securities, and the interest thereof shall be received by the bank of Eng., and placed to the credit of 'an account' to be raised in the books of the bank 'of securities purchased with surplus money, placed to the account of interest arising from monies placed out in pursuance of 5 G. 3. c. 28., 9 G. 3. c. 19. s. 4. [See rest of this section relating to the application of surplus interest arising under 12 G. 2. c. 24., 4 G. 3. c. 32., 9 G. 3. c. 19. ante, pl. 45.]

55. OUT OF THE DIVIDENDS of the securities carried to the 'account of monies placed out for the benefit and better security of the suitors of chancery' by 32 G. 3. c. 42. pl. 58. the bank shall pay 400*l.* per ann. by half-yearly payments, to each of the 11 masters in chancery, free from parliamentary taxes, in addition to the 200*l.* per ann. given by 5 G. 3. c. 28., 46 G. 3. c. 128. s. 1.

56. The lord chancellor, lord keeper, or lords commissioners, having custody of great seal, may order an annuity of 1500*l.* out of this fund to be paid to any of the masters of 20 years standing, or who is disabled by permanent infirmity from discharging his duty on resigning his office, 46 G. 3. c. 128. s. 2.

57. The surplus annual produce arising from the money placed out, on securities pursuant to 12 G. 2. c. 24., 4 G. 3. c. 32., 5 G. 3. c. 28., 9 G. 3. c. 19., 14 G. 3. c. 43., 32 G. 3. c. 42., 46 G. 3. c. 128—129, and the interest arising from the securities purchased by such surplus interest beyond what is sufficient to answer the purposes of the recited acts shall be placed out for the benefit of the suitors as in 32 G. 3. c. 42. to the credit of the account therein raised, and intituled 'an account of securities purchased with surplus interest arising from securities, carried to 'an account of monies placed out for the benefit and better security of the court of chancery, [see pl. 60.] being applicable to answer the demands of the suitors, should it become necessary to call in any of their money so placed out, 46 G. 3. c. 128. s. 4. [and all securities purchased pursuant to the above acts may be changed by order of the court of chancery, id. s. 5., and the whole, or any part thereof, may be called in to answer the demands of the suitors, id. s. 6.]

58. TO EMPOWER THE COURT OF CHANCERY TO LAY OUT A FURTHER SUM OF THE SUITORS' MONEY ON PROPER SECURITIES, and for applying the interest towards discharging the expence of the office of accountant-general, and for building offices for masters in chancery, a public office for the suitors, offices for secretaries of bankrupts and lunatics, and repositories for securing the title deeds of the suitors, and the records, &c. of the commissioners of bankrupts and lunatics, 32 G. 3. c. 42. [AMD. 46 G. 3. c. 129.]

59. TO PROVIDE ADDITIONAL SALARIES TO THE PRESENT CLERKS IN THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE OF CHANCERY, and to provide additional clerks for such office with salaries, and to make other payments in respect of the said office, 46 G. 3. c. 129.

60. 300,000*l.* of the suitors' unemployed cash shall be placed out from time to time by order of chancery on government or parliamentary securities, and shall be carried to 'an account of monies placed out for the benefit and better security of the suitors of the high court of chancery,' or application of dividends as hereinafter mentioned, 32 G. 3. c. 42. s. 1.

61. The interest and dividends of such securities shall be received by the bank, and carried to 'an account to be raised of interest arising from monies placed out for the benefit and better security of suitors in chancery,' id. s. 2.

62. Out of which shall be paid the yearly sums of 100*l.* as an additional salary to the accountant-general's 1*st* clerk, of 140*l.* as an additional salary to his 2*d* clerk, and of 80*l.* and 30*l.* as additional salaries to his 3*d* and 4*th* clerks, of 120*l.* each to his 5*th* and 6*th* clerks, and of 100*l.* to his 7*th* clerk, payable as now used, and free of taxes, id. s. 3.

63. Out of the dividends arising (as in pl. 60.), and out of the dividends carried to the account, intituled 'account of securities purchased with surplus interest arising from securities carried to the account of monies placed out for benefit and security of the suitors of chancery,' the accountant-general's clerks shall be paid quarterly, these additional yearly salaries free of taxes; viz. 100*l.* to the 1*st*, 100*l.* to the 2*d*, 200*l.* to the 3*d*, 250*l.* to the 4*th*, 180*l.* to the 5*th*, 180*l.* to the 6*th*, 200*l.* to the 7*th* clerk of the accountant-general, as well as the following from time to time to 4 additional clerks for the time being: viz. to the 8*th* clerk 180*l.*, 9*th* 180*l.*, 10*th* 180*l.*, 11*th* 180*l.*, and 200*l.* per ann. shall be paid quarterly to the accountant-general to provide furniture, books, coals, and other necessary articles for his office, and for paying persons to take care of the same, 46 G. 3. c. 129. s. 1.

64. 30,000*l.* arising from the same dividends in s. 1. of this act mentioned, may be laid out in buying ground for the offices and repositories above directed to be built, and other sums may be granted, either yearly or in gross, for keeping them in repair, with the offices of the registrar and accountant-general, and for insuring them from fire, 32 G. 3. c. 42. s. 3.

65. Offices for masters in chancery, secretaries of bankrupts and lunatics, and for the repositories above mentioned, and a public office shall be built and ground, buildings, &c. purchased for the purpose, and kept in repair and insured by sums of money granted from time to time by order of court for that purpose, id. ss. 4, 5.

66. If the offices or chambers so to be built, are built out of the liberty of the rolls, wherein the masters in ordinary in chancery are now rated to the land-tax, the latter shall only pay land-tax within the rolls liberty, and not elsewhere, which land-tax may be raised as if the new offices, &c. hereby built were situate within the local jurisdiction of the persons authorized to enforce payment of land-tax in that liberty, id. s. 6.

67. As soon as the 21,295*l.* 13*s.* 2*d.* in 17 G. 3. c. 59. is replaced, all the securities purchased pursuant to 12 G. 2. c. 24., 4 G. 3. c. 32., 5 G. 3. c. 28., 9 G. 3. c. 19., 14 G. 3. c. 43., 15 G. 3. c. 22., 15 G. 3. c. 56., 17 G. 3. c. 59. or any of them, or this act, shall be transferred to the 'account of monies placed out for benefit, &c. of suitors of chancery,' (ante, s. 1. pl. 60.) and shall make an AGGREGATE FUND, from which the present salaries of accountant-general, and his 4 clerks under 12 G. 2. c. 24. ss. 1, 2. pl. 40—41. of the masters in chancery under 5 G. 3. c. 28., and the additional salaries to the accountant general's 5th, 6th and 7th clerks by this act (s. 3.) directed shall be paid, 32 G. 3. c. 42. s. 9.

68. All the surplus interest arising from the securities purchased pursuant to the acts in s. 9. recited, and this act; and from the securities purchased with such surplus interest, shall from time to time be placed out on government or parliamentary securities, and placed to the credit of 'account of securities purchased with the surplus interest arising from the securities carried to an 'account of monies placed out for the benefit, &c. [see pl. 60.] of the suitors of chancery, and such fund shall be applicable to answer the demands of the suitors if found necessary to be called in, 32 G. 3. c. 42. s. 10., 46 G. 3. c. 129. s. 2. [similar enactment, 46 G. 3. c. 128. s. 4.]

69. Securities purchased pursuant to the recited acts, or those acts, may be changed by order of chancery, 32 G. 3. c. 42. s. 11., 46 G. 3. c. 129. s. 3.

70. All the money placed out in pursuance of the recited acts, or of these acts, may be called in by the court, if necessary for payment of suitors' demands out of their common and general cash, [see pl. 23.] 32 G. 3. c. 42. s. 12., 46 G. 3. c. 129. s. 4.

71. FOR BETTER ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE WITHIN THE U. K. [viz. in the courts of equity of Eng. and Ire.], 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 90. ss. 5—6 [see rest of this title, and ss. 1—4. of this statute DEBT to and from the KING, ss. 7—8. pl. 38—40. COURTS (Exchequer) pl. 72. and s. 9., STATUTES.]

72. Where, in any suit between party and party, or in any proceeding by petition, in cases of minors, bankrupts, idiots, or lunatics, any decree shall be pronounced, or order made for payment of, or accounting for money by the court of chancery in Eng. the lord chancellor, keeper, or commissioners for great seal of Eng. shall, on application made, cause a copy of such order or decree to be certified to the Irish chancery under the great seal of Eng., and the lord chancellor, &c., having custody of the Irish great seal, shall cause it to be enrolled in the Irish chancery, and that court shall issue process of attachment against the person of the party against whom such order or decree is made, to enforce obedience to the same; and shall from time to time make orders on petition, for payment of the money levied under such process, into the bank of Ire., with privy of accountant-general, for the benefit of the party having obtained the decree; which bank shall hold such monies, subject to the orders of the Irish chancery, and not liable to poundage for the usher when paid out by order of that court, id. s. 5. [and same provisions vice versa where the decree is in the chancery of Ire., id. s. 6.]

73. TO REMOVE DOUBTS TOUCHING APPOINTMENTS to certain offices in the court of chancery, made during the vacancy of the office of register and keeper of the register, and registers in that court, 45 G. 3. c. 75.

74. The chancellor may appoint persons to be sub-registrars and filers of the reports, and certificates of decrees, &c. or to be entering-clerks, or to other places otherwise in the patronage of the registrar during the vacancy of that office, id. s. 1.

75. TO FACILITATE THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE, 53 G. 3. c. 24.

76. H.M. empowered to appoint a fit person, being a barrister at law of 15 years' standing at least, to be an additional judge assistant to the lord chancellor, lord keeper, or lords commissioners, for custody of the great seal for the time being, and to be called Vice Chancellor of Eng., and to hold his office during good behaviour, id. s. 1.

77. The vice-chancellor may hear and determine all causes in the chancery of Eng., either as a court of law or equity, or incident to a ministerial office thereof, or submitted to jurisdiction of the chancellor, &c., as in s. 1., by act of parliament, as the chancellor, &c. shall from time to time direct; and all his decrees thereon shall be valid subject to reversal or alteration by the chancellor, &c., and shall not be enrolled till signed by the latter, id. s. 2. [and see ante, 3 G. 2. c. 30. s. 1. pl. 27.]

78. The vice-chancellor cannot alter any decrees of the chancellor, &c., or of the master of the rolls, 53 G. 3. c. 24. s. 2.

79. He shall sit for the chancellor, &c. (as in s. 1.) whenever required, and shall, at such other times as the latter shall direct, sit in a separate court, whether the latter or the master of the rolls are sitting or not (id. s. 3.), and has precedence next to the master of the rolls, id. s. 4.

80. H.M. may appoint him a secretary, train-bearer, and usher, and the officers appointed to attend the chancellor shall attend him when sitting for him, and otherwise; as the latter shall direct, id. s. 5.; and H.M. shall remove him on address of both houses, id. s. 6.

81. He shall swear faithfully to execute the office to the best of his skill and power, before the chancellor, or master of the rolls, id. s. 7. [the form of oath is annexed to this section.]

82. A sum of money belonging to the suitors in chancery, not exceeding 60,000*l.*, lying unemployed at the bank, may be placed out on government or parliamentary securities, for payment from the dividends thereof of a net salary of 3000*l.* per ann. to the vice-chancellor, a net salary of 300*l.* to his secretary, 100*l.* to his train-bearer, and 80*l.* to his usher, payable quarterly, free of all deductions, on 10 Jan., 10 Apr., 10 Jul., and 15 Oct., and on the same days, together with a proportionable part of any quarterly payment due from the last quarter day preceding their removal from office, 53 G. 3. c. 24. s. 8.

83. The chancellor, &c. may, by order of court, change such securities for other like securities, id. s. 9.; and if the money in s. 1. should be wanted, to answer the demands of the suitors of the court, it may be called in and applied to that purpose, id. s. 10.

84. The costs of all proceedings under this act shall be paid by the bank out of the above-dividends, id. s. 11.

85. The chancellor, &c. (as in s. 1.) shall pay to the bank quarterly the annual sum of 2500*l.* out of the fees of the great seal, to be carried to the account of the interest and dividends hereinbefore mentioned, and to be applicable to all the purposes thereof, id. s. 12.

86. The vice-chancellor and his officers shall receive no fees for business done, but the chancellor (as in s. 1.) or his officers, shall receive the same as if the business had been done by them, 53 G. 3. c. 24. s. 13.

COURTS (COMMON PLEAS).

1. COMMON PLEAS SHALL NOT FOLLOW OUR COURT, but shall be holden in some place certain, 9 H. 3. M. C. c. 11.

2. THE JUSTICES OF C. P. before removal of that court, shall have warning that they may adjourn the parties for such time that they shall not lose their process, 2 E. 3. c. 11.

COURTS (CONSCIENCE).

1. ALL STATUTES FOR ERECTING COURTS OF REQUESTS OF conscience, for recovery of small debts in cities, towns corporate, and other places in this kingdom, shall be deemed public, and shall be judicially noticed as such, without specially pleading the same, 27 G. 2. c. 16. s. 2.

2. FOR REDUCING THE TIME FOR THE IMPRISONMENT of debtors committed to prison on prosecutions in courts of conscience, for abolishing fees paid by those debtors to gaolers, or others, on account of such imprisonment, 23 G. 3. c. 45. [PUBLIC clause, id. s. 8. AND, 26 G. 3. c. 38., which is the same act, except in those words of 25 G. 3. c. 45., which confine it to London, Middlesex, and Southwark, and also except s. 2. of 26 G. 3. c. 38. and s. 8. of 25 G. 3. c. 45.]

3. No debtor or defendant, committed to gaol by order of any court for the recovery of small debts, where the debt does not exceed 20*s.*, shall be kept in custody, on any pretence soever, more than 20 days from his commitment; and where the original debt does not amount to or exceed 40*s.*, more than 40 days; and all gaolers shall discharge such persons accordingly, 25 G. 3. c. 45. s. 1., 26 G. 3. c. 38. s. 1.

4. In case upon summons of any person for debt before such court, information of any fraudulent concealment of money or goods is given, such court shall hear evidence thereon; and in case it is proved to their satisfaction, on oath of 2 witnesses, which, if falsely taken, shall subject them to the penalties of perjury, that such debtor has money or goods fraudulently concealed, the court, &c. may then enlarge the imprisonment for debts under 20*s.* to not exceeding 30 days; and for debts under 40*s.* to not exceeding 60 days, which ground of further detention shall be specified in the commitment; and the depositions of witnesses shall be entered in a book, to be kept by the clerk of the court, 26 G. 3. c. 38. s. 2.

5. At expiration of times of imprisonment, such person shall immediately be discharged, without paying any fees to the gaoler; and every gaoler demanding or receiving any fees, upon discharge of such person, or keeping him prisoner after the times limited, shall forfeit 5*l.*, 25 G. 3. c. 45. s. 2., 26 G. 3. c. 38. s. 3. 1.

6. Two justices of the county or place where the offence is committed, may determine offences against this act, and shall, on information or complaint summon the accused, and also the witnesses on either side, and examine into the matter of fact; and on proof thereof, by confession, or oath of one witness, shall give judgment for the penalty, and issue their warrant for levying such 5*l.* on the offender's goods, and shall cause sale to be made thereof, in case they are not redeemed in 4 days, rendering to the party the overplus; and where goods cannot be found to answer the penalty, may commit such offender to prison for 2 months, unless the same be sooner paid, 25 G. 3. c. 45. s. 3., 26 G. 3. c. 38. s. 4.

7. All forfeitures under this act (the charges of recovery being deducted) shall be divided, and one moiety paid to the overseer, for support and maintenance of the poor of the parish where the offence is committed, and the other to the person who shall sue, 25 G. 3. c. 45. s. 4., 26 G. 3. c. 38. s. 5.

8. But no person shall be committed under these acts unless complaint or information shall be made or exhibited within a calendar month after offence committed, 25 G. 3. c. 45. s. 5., 26 G. 3. c. 38. s. 6.

9. Such court shall not issue any process against the body of any person, where the party entitled to judgment shall at same time have obtained any warrant against the goods of same person, 25 G.3. c. 45. s. 6., 26 G.3. c. 38. s. 7.

10. No person shall be capable of acting as a commissioner in execution of any acts constituting such courts, unless he is a householder within the county or place for which he shall act, and is possessed of a real estate of the annual value of 20*l.*, or of a personal estate of 500*l.* value, and if any person not so qualified shall act as commissioner under such acts, he shall forfeit 20*l.* to any person suing, to be recovered with full costs by action of debt, or on the case, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than 1 imparlance shall be allowed, and persons so prosecuted shall prove that they are qualified, or otherwise shall pay the penalty upon proof given of their having acted as such commissioner, provided such action be commenced within 6 calendar months, and laid within county or place where the offence committed, 25 G.3. c. 45. s. 7., 26 G.3. c. 38. s. 8.

COURTS, (OF CONSTABLE & MARSHAL OF ENGLAND or OF CHIVALRY).

1. No suit which ought to be discussed at common law, shall be drawn before the constable and marshal of Eng., but their court and the common law courts shall have their respective jurisdictions, 8 R.2. c. 5.

2. THE CONSTABLE HATH COGNIZANCE OF CONTRACTS touching deeds of arms and of war out of the realm, which cannot be discussed at common law, the plaintiff shall fully declare his matter in his petition before it be sent for any man to answer thereto; and every person who complains that any plea is commenced before the constable and marshal, which might be tried at common law, shall have a writ of privy seal directed to the constable and marshal, to cease in that plea till it be discussed by H.M.'s council, whether the matter should pertain to that court, or be tried at common law, 13 R.2. s. 1. c. 2.

COURTS (COUNTY).

1. AT WHAT TIME SHALL BE KEPT A COUNTY COURT, sheriffs turn, and a lect, 9 H.3 M.C. c. 35. [AND. as to turns, 31 Ed.3. c. 15. CONF. as to county courts, 2 & 3 Ed.6. c. 25. s. 2.]

2. No county court shall be held but from month to month, [2 & 3 Ed.6. c. 25. s. 2. s. f.] and where a greater term has been used, it shall be greater, nor shall any sheriff or his bailiff, make his turn through the hundred but twice a year, in the accustomed place, viz. once after Easter, and once after Michaelmas, [31 Ed.3. c. 15. s. f., or lose their turn for that time, id. ibid.,] and the view of frank-pledge shall then be made, so that every man have his franchises, and so that the king's peace may be kept, and the tithing kept intire, and the sheriff do not seek pretences, but be content with his usual fees, 9 H.3. M.C. c. 35.

3. ARCHBISHOPS, BISHOPS, EARLS, BARONS, MEN OF RELIGION, OR WOMEN, shall not need to come to the sheriffs turn, unless their presence be specially required for some cause; and if any have tenements in divers hundreds, they shall not need to come to the turn, but in the bailiwicks where they dwell, 52 & 54 H.3. c. 10.

4. No sheriff shall suffer any barretor or maintainer of quarrels in the shires, nor stewards, and those who are not attorneys of their lords, to make suit; nor to pronounce the judgments, unless requested of all the suitors; and if any do it, the king will grievously punish the sheriff and him, 3 Ed.1. c. 35. West.1. No maintainers of quarrels shall be suffered in the county court, 3 Ed.1. West.2. c. 33.

5. TO PREVENT MALICIOUS IMPRISONMENT by sheriffs, 13 Ed.1. West.2. c. 13.

6. The sheriffs in their turns and elsewhere, when they have to enquire of malefactors, by precept of H.M., or of their office, shall make their inquests by lawful men, at least twelve, who shall set their seals to their inquisitions; and the sheriffs shall take and imprison those whom by such inquisitions they shall find guilty, as they have used to do: and if they shall imprison others, such persons imprisoned shall have their action by writ of imprisonment against the sheriff, as against any other person: and so it shall be observed of every bailiff of franchise 13 Ed.1. c. 13.

7. Indictments in sheriff's turn shall be by deed indented, 1 Ed.3. s. 2. c. 17.

8. Sheriffs and bailiffs of franchises, and all others who take indictments in their turns or elsewhere, shall take such indictments by roll indented, whereof one part shall abide with the indictors, and the other with him that takes inquest, so that the indictment is not embazelled, so that one of the inquest may shew one part of the indenture to the justice, when he shall come to make deliverance, 1 Ed.3. c. 17.

COURTS (ECCLESIASTICAL).

1. WHERE PEOPLE OF HOLY CHURCH sue in the spiritual court for tythes, and other things of right pertaining to such court, and the judges of holy church, and other persons, be maliciously for this cause indicted and oppressed, and forced by obligations to doist, against the liberties of holy church, all such obligations made by duress shall be of no force; and as to those who by malice procure such indictments after the inditees be acquitted, such procurers shall incur the penalty of West.2. of those who procure false indictments, and the justices before whom such inditees are acquitted, may enquire of such procurers and punish them, 1 R.2. c. 13.

2. WHEREVER THE COPY OF ANY LITEL in a suit in the spiritual court is grantable by law, it shall be granted and delivered to the party without difficulty, 2 H.5. s. 1. c. 3.

3. THE CLERGY CALLED TO CONVOCATION by H.M.'s writ, and their servants shall enjoy such liberty in coming, tarrying, and returning as the peers and commons of the realm called to parliament ought to enjoy, 8 H.6. c. 1.

4. THAT NO PERSON SHALL BE CITED out of the diocese where they dwell, except in certain cases, 23 H.8. c. 9. (and recital in s. 1.)

5. No person shall be cited to answer before any judge spiritual out of the diocese, or peculiar jurisdiction where he dwells, except for spiritual offence, or cause done or neglected to be done, contrary to right, by the bishop ordinary, or other person having spiritual jurisdiction, or being a spiritual judge, or by other person within the diocese or other jurisdiction, to which he shall be cited, or otherwise lawfully called to appear and answer, id. s. 2.

6. And except it be on matter of appeal, or for other lawful cause, wherein any party shall find himself grieved by the bishop, ordinary, or spiritual judge of the diocese, after the matter there first commenced; or in case the bishop, &c. will not convent the party to be sued before him, or if he is party to the suit, or in case he make request to the archbishop or superior ordinary to take the matter before him, and that only where the civil or canon law affirms execution of such request to be lawful; on pain of forfeiture to the person cited of double damages and costs, to be recovered against such ordinary, &c. by action of debt or information, and on forfeiture for every person so cited of 10*l.*, one-half to H.M., and the other to any person suing for same, id. s. 3.

7. Every archbishop may cite any persons inhabiting within his province for causes of heresy, if the immediate ordinary consent, or do not his duty, id. s. 4.

8. This act shall not extend to the prerogative of the archbishop of Canterbury, of calling persons out of the diocese for probate of testaments, id. s. 5.

9. No archbishop or ordinary shall demand any more money for sale of any citation, except 3*d.*, under the penalties in s. 3., id. s. 6.

10. This act shall not prejudice the archbishop of York concerning probate of testaments within his province, id. s. 7.

11. APPEALS IN SUCH CASES AS HAVE BEEN USED TO BE pursued to the see of Rome, shall not from henceforth be had or used but within this realm, 24 H.8. c. 12, and s. 1. [REPEALED BY 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8. but REV. 1 EL. c. 1. See as to suing to foreign courts, PREMUNIRE.]

12. All causes testamentary, causes of matrimony, and divorces, rights, tithes, oblations, and obventions, the knowledge whereof appertains to the spiritual jurisdiction of this realm, to be commenced within this realm, or any of H.M.'s dominions, whether they concern H.M. or other subjects or resiants, shall be adjudged and determined within H.M.'s jurisdiction in such courts spiritual and temporal as the nature of the causes may require, without respect to any custom to the contrary, any foreign inhibitions, appeals, sentences, excommunications, restraints, judgments, or other process from the see of Rome, or any other foreign potentate, or from or out of this realm, or any of H.M.'s dominions to such see or potentate to the let thereof notwithstanding; and H.M. and all other such subjects and resiants, notwithstanding any excommunication, or other censures or process are fulminated within this realm or elsewhere, for any such causes in contempt of this act, may have the benefit of such processes, sentences, judgments, and determinations done in any such courts spiritual or temporal within H.M.'s dominions, and those only, 24 H.8. c. 12. s. 2.

13. All spiritual prelates, pastors, ministers, and curates within H.M.'s dominions may minister the sacrament, divine service, and other things unto all subjects thereof as Catholic and Christian men ought to do, any former citations, inhibitions, &c. from the see of Rome, or other foreign potentate notwithstanding, and all such spiritual persons, who by reason of such censures, inhibitions, &c. refuse to minister such sacraments, &c. shall be imprisoned for the year, and make fine at H.M.'s pleasure, id. s. 3.

14. Every person within H.M.'s dominions, who for any such cause shall attempt, move, or procure to the see of Rome, or any other foreign court, any foreign process, citations, inhibitions, &c. or shall execute the same, or do any act to the let of any process, sentence, judgment, &c. to be had in any court within H.M.'s dominions for any such cause, contrary hereto, shall, together with his abettors, &c. on conviction incur the penalties provided by the statute of Præmunire, (16 R. 2. c. 5.) 24 H. 8. c. 12. s. 4.

15. In cases where H. M.'s subjects have heretofore used to pursue any appeal to the see of Rome, and in cases of appeal for the causes aforesaid, they may have their appeals within this realm, as follows, (viz.) first from the archdeacon or his official, if the matter be there begun, to the bishop diocesan of the see, id. s. 5.

16. And if it be commenced before the bishop diocesan or his commissary, from them within 15 days following the judgment or sentence thereof given, to the archbishop of Canterbury or York, within whose province it is, and so to other archbishops within H. M.'s dominions to be there definitively adjudged without any other appellation, &c. id. s. 6.

17. And if the matter for any such causes is commenced before the archdeacon of any archbishop, or his commissary, then the party may appeal within such 15 days as in s. 6. to the court of arches of the same archbishop, and from such court within 15 days after sentence there given, to such archbishop, to be definitively determined without further appeal, id. s. 7.

18. All matters for any such causes commenced before any such archbishop, shall be definitively determined before him without any other appeal, or other foreign process, otherwise than as is hereby limited, saving the prerogative of the archbishop and church of Canterbury, in all such cases of appeals to him to be sued within this realm, as he has been accustomed, id. s. 8.

19. In case of any such causes depending in any such courts which may concern H. M., the party grieved may appeal from any of such courts of this realm where the matter in contention touching H. M. is, to the spiritual prelates of the Upper House assembled by H. M.'s writ in the convocation being or next ensuing within the province where the matter is begun, so that such appeal is taken within 15 days after sentence, &c. given, and whatsoever is done by such prelates concerning H. M. in such appeals shall be final, and never after come in question, id. s. 9.

20. If any person pursue any appeal contrary to this act, or refuse to obey all things therein contained, touching such appeals, and other foreign processes sued out of this realm, they and their abettors, &c. shall incur the penalties provided in the statute of præmunire, (16 R. 2. c. 5.) with the like process against such offenders, as in such act appeareth, id. s. 10.

21. FOR THE SUBMISSION OF THE CLERGY TO H. M., 25 H. 8. c. 19. [CON. AS TO ss. 1, 2, and s. 7. by 27 H. 8. c. 15., 35 H. 8. c. 16., REV. 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8., REV. 1 EL. c. 1. s. 10., a similar act, 3 & 4 E. 6. c. 11. EXP.]

22. The clergy shall not claim or put in use any constitutions or canons, or enact or execute any such ordinances in their convocations without H. M.'s assent, on pain of fine and imprisonment, 25 H. 8. c. 19. s. 1.

23. H. M. may assign 32 persons to examine the canon laws, id. s. 2. [see QU. REP. by 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8., or EXP. with the similar enactments in 35 H. 8. c. 16., 3 & 4 E. 6. c. 11., and QU. if REV. by 1 EL. c. 1. s. 10.] no canons shall be made or put in execution within this realm by authority of convocation, which shall be repugnant to H. M.'s prerogative, or the customs or laws of the realm, 25 H. 8. c. 19. s. 2.

24. No appeals shall be made out of H. M.'s dominions, to the bishop or see of Rome, in any causes beginning in any courts within H. M. dominions, but all appeals, what cause soever they concern, shall be made as is limited for appeal in case of matrimony, tithes, &c. by 24 H. 8. c. 12. pl. 12., id. s. 3.

25. APPEALS MAY BE HEARD FROM THE ARCHBISHOP'S COURT to that of chancery, in which case a commission under the great seal shall be directed to persons named by H. M. to hear and determine the same (now called the Court of Delegates), and their sentence is definitive, and no further appeals shall be had, id. s. 4.

26. Every person, his counsellors, aiders, and abettors, who shall sue any appeals to the bishop or see of Rome, or procure or execute any process therefrom to derogation of this act, shall incur the penalties of a præmunire in 16 R. 2. c. 5., id. s. 5.

27. Appeals from places exempt, which before this act were made to Rome, may now be taken immediately to H. M. into the court of chancery and there definitely determined by authority of H. M.'s commission as in ss. 1, 2., id. s. 6.

28. DOCTORS OF CIVIL LAW MADE CHANCELLOR, VICAR-GENERAL, commissary official, scribe or register by H. M. or by any bishop, archdeacon, or other having authority under him, may exercise ecclesiastical jurisdiction whether lay, married or unmarried, 37 H. 8. c. 17. s. 4. [see recitals in ss. 1—3, REV. 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8. s. 22. REV. 1 EL. c. 1. s. 12.]

29. FOR PREVENTING FRIVOLOUS AND VEXATIOUS SUITS in ecclesiastical courts, 27 G. 3. c. 44.

30. Suits in such courts in Eng., Wa., or Ber. for defamatory words, shall be commenced within 6 months from the time when they were uttered, id. s. 1.

31. Like suits for fornication or incontinence, or for striking or brawling in any church or church-yard, shall be commenced in 8 months after offence, but shall not be commenced or carried on for fornication after the intermarriage of the offenders, 27 G. 3. c. 44. s. 2.

32. FOR BETTER REGULATING ECCLESIASTICAL COURTS IN Eng. and Ire.; 53 G. 3. c. 127. ss. 1—3. Eng., 54 G. 3. c. 68. ss. 1—3. Ire. [See rest of these titles and statutes, TITLES, infra.]

33. Excommunication in all cases [except in definitive sentences, or interlocutory decrees, having force of definitive sentences, and pronounced as spiritual censures for offences of ecclesiastical cognizance, s. 2. of both acts,] shall be discontinued in Eng. and Ire.; and instead thereof the judge who issued the citation, or who made the decree which have been disobeyed, or before whom the contempt is committed, shall pronounce such person contumacious, and signify the same in 10 days to H. M. in chancery by significavit, [See the forms thereof in sch. A. in both acts, APPENDIX]. The officers of chancery shall then issue a contumace capiendo [sch. B. of both acts] directed to the persons to whom writs of excommunicato capiendo have been heretofore directed, which shall be returnable in like manner and subject to all the regulations of law, applying to the writ of excommunicato capiendo [particularly the provisions of 5 EL. c. 23. in Eng.]; and all sheriffs, gaolers, and other officers shall execute the same by taking and detaining the body of the person named in the writ, on whose appearance, obedience, or submission (as the case may be) the ecclesiastical court shall pronounce him absolved, and make order [as in sch. C. of both acts] for discharging him from custody, and such sheriff shall so discharge him, on his paying the costs of such custody and contempt, 53 G. 3. c. 127. ss. 1, 2. Eng., and 54 G. 3. c. 68. ss. 1—2. Ire.

34. No person excommunicated (as in s. 2.) shall incur any civil penalty except 6 months imprisonment or less, as directed by the court pronouncing such excommunication, in which case such sentence and term of imprisonment shall be certified into chancery, and thereupon the writ of excommunicato capiendo shall issue, and the usual proceeding shall be had, and the party shall be imprisoned for the term so directed or till his absolution, ss. 3. of both acts.

COURTS (EXCHEQUER).

1. A STATUTE FOR THE EXCHEQUER, 51 H. 3. (st. 5.)

2. All bailiffs, sheriffs, and other ministers shall of their receipts of issues of escheats and of their bailiwicks be answerable in exchequer, and there make account to the treasurer and barons; and all sheriffs, farmers, bailiffs of franchises, and other who ought to come to the proper in exchequer on the morrow of St. Michael and the morrow of the feast of Easter to pay the rents and issues belonging to H. M. shall come at the above terms: and if any make default their bodies shall remain till they have paid or made agreement; and they shall be amerced after custom of exchequer, and the sheriffs and bailiffs at the same terms shall pay the money received by them of the summons of exchequer, and other H. M.'s debts, and shall be ready to make account of the things aforesaid, id. s. 1.

3. All bailiffs of franchises who ought to levy H. M.'s debts, and to answer to the sheriffs according to the estreats of the summons of exchequer, shall come and answer sufficiently, and on default their bodies shall remain in ward of the sheriffs, who shall enter the franchises, and cause the debts to be levied by their own bailiffs as in time past, id. s. 2.

4. The justices at Chester and bailiffs thereof, or one of them, shall come at the proper of St. Michael every year, and bring as much as they owe to H. M., and the same at the utis of Easter; and the justices of Chester shall have day to account from year to year on Quindena Pasche, and the bailiffs thereof the day after the close of Easter, and all sheriffs, except those of Westmorland, Lancaster, Worcester, Rutland, or Cornwall, shall keep all escheats which are not within H. M.'s fees within their shires, and of the issues thereof shall answer in the exchequer at the above terms, and at their terms shall do the offices of such other things as H. M.'s escheators have used to do once or twice in the year to as little grievance of the people as possible, and shall seize the escheats which fall to H. M. in fee, and shall certify H. M. of them without delay, id. s. 3.

5. H. M. shall assign 3 able persons, who shall go throughout the realm, to survey and extend the escheats from year to year, and the sheriffs, by their counsel, shall improve and let to farm such as they think most for H. M.'s advantage, id. s. 4. and s. 5.

6. And such 3 persons shall keep H. M.'s demesnes and improve them, and shall be answerable for the issues, and may let small manors and demesnes, and the farmers shall answer their rents to the principal approver, and they to exchequer the morrow after ascension, id. s. 5.

7. The sheriff of Cumberland shall be escheator for Westmorland and Lancashire; of Nottingham for Rutland; of Gloucester for Worcester; of Devonshire for Cornwall, and shall keep the escheats and answers to H. M. for the issues thereof as in their own shires; sheriffs when they account for their counties shall account for such escheats, and so shall the justices and bailiffs of Chester each for his balliwick, 51 H. 3. st. 5. s. 5.

8. The principal collectors of the custom of wools at the two terms before mentioned shall pay all money received of that custom, and shall make account of all parcels received in any of the ports, so that they shall answer for every ship where it was charged, and how much it carried, and of every loading in the ship whereof custom is due, and for the whole receipt, id. s. 6.

9. The warden of the wardrobe shall account yearly at the feast of St. Margaret; and the treasurer and the barons shall be charged by their oath that they shall not attend to hear the pleas of other men while they have to do with H. M.'s business, if it be not matter that concerneth H. M.'s own debt; and where a sheriff or bailiff hath begun his account none other shall be received to account till he has clearly accounted and his money is received, id. s. 7.

10. And the constable, marshal, chamberlain, and others of fee in exchequer, shall present unto H. M. such as they shall put in their places to do their offices which must be of good fame and sufficient, for whose acts themselves will answer; and H. M. commands the treasurer and barons of exchequer, upon their allegiance and by their oaths to him, that they shall not admit deputies other than those that be received, and that the exchequer be not charged with more persons than necessary; and that none of them who are there sworn to H. M. shall put in his room any other except he be sworn, nor that without the licence of the treasurer; and if any do so he shall be removed from his office and none other received without H. M.'s licence; and if any put in without treasurer's licence, do trespass he shall be punished as well as he who put him in, and if both are insufficient their superior shall be punished whether he be officer of fee or other, and the treasurer shall put no other in his room till he has licence from H. M.; and if he that keepeth the room of another by licence of the treasurer doth any thing he ought not, he shall be punished according to the trespass if he have whereof, and if he have not, he that put him in office shall be charged, and if the latter is not sufficient his superior shall be charged whether he is of fee or otherwise, id. s. 8.

11. All they of the wool staple shall make oath, that if any of them perceive that another doth commit any offence or other thing dishonest in any office in this court, they shall certify it to the treasurer or barons, who shall amend it, or to H. M. if necessary; and about the feast of St. Margaret, before the exchequer be closed, they shall cause a search to be made, whether any sheriff or bailiff that ought to have accounted that year, have not done so, and thereof make a remembrance in a roll; and if it be a sheriff, his account shall be first heard after Michaelmas, before any other be received, and if he be a bailiff he shall be summoned or distrained to come at a certain day to account, so that no account shall be suffered to sleep; and all surveyors of H. M.'s works shall be chosen by the oath of wise men, and shall be of such as can attend best, and are sufficient to answer H. M. and be sworn to bear true witness; and if the treasurer or barons have any suspicion of false allowances for works or other things, the truth shall be enquired, and he that is attainted shall answer to H. M. as much as the allowance amounts to, and shall be imprisoned 1 year and 40 days, and punished at H. M.'s pleasure, and the surveyors shall be punished for their consent; so he, that on his account conceals things whereof he ought to have charged himself, shall be punished in like manner, id. s. 9.

12. The justices, commissioners, and others shall deliver into exchequer at Michaelmas annually the extents of fines and amercements made and taxed before them, and of all things whereof extents are usually delivered there, and they of the exchequer shall make extents of the summons through all shires, except those of pleas in eyre, which shall be delivered immediately after the eyre made, id. s. 10.

13. A NEW STATUTE OF THE EXCHEQUER, otherwise called the statute of Rutland, (Rothlam, Rudhlan, or Rhyddlan, co. Flint, North Wales), 10 E. 1.

14. The bodies of the shires shall not be written in every roll, but in a yearly roll by themselves; and every thing shall be yearly read upon the sheriff's account in every county. The remnants of the same shires shall be written by later dates in the annual rolls, and the sheriffs charged therewith. And of allowances view shall be made in the exchequer, and the treasurer and barons shall certify the chancellor of the allowances to be made, and the writs of allowances shall be made according to the same certificate; moreover shall be written in the annual rolls the farms of sheriffs, the profits of counties, the farms of sergeants and knights, the farms of cities, boroughs, towns, and other farms; whereof answer is made yearly in the exchequer, and in them also shall be written all tithes and gross debts, whereof is hope that somewhat shall be paid, and all debts that seem to be clear; when it is come to account, or to the title of new obligations, nothing shall be written in the annual roll but those debts whereof there is hope of payment, and whereof the sheriff is answerable; and debts that seem clear in the originals, 10 E. 1. (st. Ruthl.) s. 1.

15. Of dead farms and debts desperate one roll shall be made, and shall be read every year upon the accounts of sheriffs; and the debt whereof the sheriff is answerable shall be written in the annual roll, and there shall be acquitted, 10 E. 1. st. Ruthl. s. 2.

16. It shall be proclaimed in every county, that all they that have tallies [receipts since 23 E. 3. c. 82.] of the exchequer for the debts of themselves or their ancestors, paid usually there, and not yet allowed, which shall come out still in the summons of the exchequer, that such tallies be delivered to the sheriffs, to be allowed at the exchequer at their accounts; and the sheriffs shall make to them their writings, witnessing the receipt of those tallies, deputed two knights thereunto, between whom and the sheriffs, indentures shall be made of such receipts, with the seals of them both, id. s. 3.

17. The knights deputed shall send the parts of their indentures at the term appointed unto the exchequer, that by view of them the tallies so received by the sheriffs may be allowed upon their accounts, id. s. 5.

18. It shall be proclaimed, that except those that have such tallies do offer them to the sheriffs and knights to be executed, they shall be distrained for the whole debt, id. s. 6.

19. The debts which yet come into the summons of the exchequer, whereof the debtors do prefer tallies against divers sheriffs, shall be acquitted, id. s. 7.

20. Certain persons shall be sent into every shire, with power to enquire of such debts, and to call afore them the sheriffs, their heirs and assigns, and the tenants of their lands that have received the debts, and to proceed to taking of inquests, whether the parties (against whom the tallies were shewed) do come or not, so that the sheriff return that he hath summoned them; and the truth being discussed, the inquisitors shall make rolls of all that shall be convicted and confessed before them, and the enrolment being made, the tallies of the same shall be broken; and the sheriffs shall have in their custody the transcripts of the rolls under the seals of the inquisitors, and shall surcease in making distresses for the debts contained in the same, until they shall have otherwise in command; and the inquisitors shall send unto the exchequer the fore-said rolls under their seals, id. s. 8.

21. The chamberlains shall not make to the sheriffs or their bailiffs tallies dividendi, unless they first receive of them particulars containing the sums of the debts and the names of them that paid them, into which particulars he would have such dividends parted, which being so received under their seals, it shall not be lawful to number them into other particulars, id. s. 9.

22. All debts, whereunto the sheriffs return that the debtors have nothing, shall be estreated in rolls, and the rolls delivered unto faithful men, which shall make inquiry after such form as shall be provided by the treasurer and barons, id. s. 10.

23. No plea shall be holden in the exchequer, unless it specially concern the king and his ministers aforesaid, id. s. 11.

24. No common pleas shall be holden in the exchequer contrary to the great charter, 28 E. 1. c. 4. Art. sup. chart. [QU. see pl. 28. 53.]

25. THE BARONS OF EXCHEQUER SHALL DO RIGHT TO ALL PERSONS, and shall deliver the people reasonably and without undue delay of their business before them, 20 E. 3. c. 2.

26. [BECAUSE MANY PEOPLE ACQUITTED BY JUDGMENT IN THE exchequer in one place, be grieved in other offices therein,] the clerk of the remembrance shall be titled to sit above the clerk of the pipe, to see the discharges made in the pipe and to abbreviate the same in the remembrance, and to cause process thereupon to cease; and the summons of the pipe shall be withdrawn, according as the parties be discharged; and in whomsoever any default be willingly found, the treasurer by H. M.'s command shall punish the same, 37 E. 3. c. 4.

27. WHENEVER ANY DEBTS BE PAID AND THE TALLIES THEREOF made, rejoined, and allowed in the exchequer, that debt shall never run more in demand; and if after allowance made there, any clerk of exchequer make process to levy the same, which is proved, he shall lose his office, and be imprisoned till he hath made satisfaction to the party, if any will sue, by discretion of the treasurer and barons, 1 R. 2. c. 5.

28. THE BARONS OF EXCHEQUER SHALL HAVE POWER TO HEAR every answer of every demand made in exchequer; so that every person there impeached shall by himself, or any other person, be received to plead, sue, and have his reasonable discharge, without tarrying or suing any writ, 5 R. 1. st. 1. c. 10.

29. THE COVENANTS OF ALL PERSONS RETAINED TO SERVE THE king and countermands of their retainer, shall be enrolled in exchequer, and they shall receive payment by certificate of exchequer without privy seal sued out, 5 R. 2. (st. 1.) c. 11.

30. THE ACCOUNTS IN THE EXCHEQUER SHALL BE MORE shortly heard, made, and engrossed, than they were wont; saving that the parcels of the same accounts be made as plainly as they were wont by ordinance to be made by the barons of the exchequer, 5 R. 2. st. 1. c. 12.

31. TWO CLERKS SHALL BE ASSIGNED TO MAKE PARCELS OF THE accounts in the exchequer to them who demand it, and shall be sworn to do no falsity in their office, and shall take for their labour of them whom they serve, reasonably, according to the ordinance of the barons, 5 R. 2. st. 1. c. 13.

31. (a) THE ACCOUNTS OF NICHIL IN THE EXCHEQUER shall be altogether put away; or if any such ought there to abide, the accountants immediately after their oath made shall be examined by the barons, if they ought to answer H. M. of any thing in that behalf; and if it be found by their oath that they ought not, they shall be discharged to yield other account before any auditor; H. M.'s right saved, 5 R. 2. st. 1. c. 14.

32. THE CLERK OF THE PIPE AND THE REMEMBRANCER SHALL be sworn, that from term to term they shall see all the writs of great seal or privy seal, which shall be sent to the exchequer the same term, for the final discharge of any person of any demand due in the exchequer, and that every of them to whom it pertaineth shall do due execution of the said commandment; and the said two remembrancers shall be sworn, that every term they shall make a schedule of all the persons discharged in their offices by judgments or in other manner in the same term, of any demands in exchequer, containing the manner of the discharges, and deliver the schedule to the clerk of the pipe the same term, that he may thereof discharge the parties in the great roll; he shall be sworn, that he from term to term shall require the same schedules, and discharge the parties as above; and shall cause to be certified in writing to the remembrancers of all such discharges made in his office, so that a man discharged in one place be discharged in all, 5 R. 2. st. 1. c. 15.

33. "THOUGH MANY TIMES PERSONS HAVE HAD LIVERY of their lands out of H. M.'s hands by judgment in K. B. or elsewhere, and have after procured the tenor of the records to be sent by multinus into the exchequer, to discharge them of the accounts for the same tenements; nevertheless the officers would not discharge them before the records and processes were newly entered in the exchequer, and thereupon new judgment again given." After such record, or the tenor of the same, shall come into exchequer, the remembrancer, in whose office such accounts are demanded, shall cause the suit to cease by words to be entered upon the indorsement of the writ, touching the tenor of the record of the judgment, without making new process, 5 R. 2. st. 1. c. 16.

34. NOTHING SHALL BE GIVEN FOR MAKING A COMMISSION in the exchequer, for the fee of the clerk, above 2s., nor for the record of a moi prius with the writ, but 2s. only, 5 R. 2. st. 1. c. 17.

35. NO RECOGNIZANCE OR BOND OF THE DOUBLE shall be taken in exchequer (for H. M.'s debts or farms,) provided H. M. have sufficient surety for his duty, 13 R. 2. st. 1. c. 14.

36. FOR THE CONTINUANCE AND OBSERVATION OF CERTAIN ORDERS for the exchequer, first established by virtue of a privy seal, from 2 Ed. 1. c. 26, and recital in s. 1.

37. All issues lost, which by intent of that Q.'s privy seal, and the orders hereunto annexed, ought to be discharged, shall be discharged, 1 J. 1. c. 26. s. 2.

38. If the lord treasurer's remembrancer, or his clerks, shall award any process, exact any pleading, take any fees, or demean themselves contrary to the said orders, the offender, or in case he be unable, the lord treasurer's remembrancer shall forfeit 20l., the one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party grieved, to be sued for by action of debt, &c., or information, within two years of the offence committed, in any court at Westminster, without escoin, &c., id. s. 3.

"Orders by the right honourable Sir William Cecil, of the honourable order of the garter, knight, baron of Burleigh, lord treasurer of Eng., Sir Walter Mildmay, knight, chancellor, and vice-treasurer of the exchequer, Sir Edward Saunders, knight, lord chief baron of the said court, and other the barons of the same; calling unto them Gilbert Gerrard, esq., her majesty's attorney general, and Thomas Bromley, esq., her highness' solicitor general, and made 15 Junii, anno Dom. 1573.

"1. No process ad faciend. fidelitatem, nor any writ of scire facias, cupias, or distress, from the fines extreated out of the common pleas, shall go out of the treasurer's remembrancer's office, upon any supposal; upon pain by former statutes limited, and by the orders of the said court, but upon just ground; and the same shall be vouched in the processes, according to the book, term, year, roll, and record thereof, that it may be certainly found. And if by any known record remaining in that office, it may appear the same tenure have been traversed, then the processes to be discharged by the traverse without pleading.

3. Where the first tenant in any such writ from the said original, or such inrollment is returned by the sheriff mort or nihil habet, then shall go out according to the ancient course of the court a distring. tenent. against the tenants of the same lands to the sheriff to do their service due to H. M., and to shew their entry into the same, who returning the name of the tenant of the lands in the writ, there shall go process every term against the new tenants to do their service, and also to shew their entry, and they to lose issues thereupon, until they come in and make their fine for respect of fealty, or do their fealty according to the course of exchequer. 4. Where any writ of reversion shall be made upon any record for lands, wherein the prince is in reversion, if it appear by sufficient matter of record within the court, that the grant or record whereupon the writ of reversion is made is determined, the party upon shewing forth of such record shall be discharged without pleading. 8. The issues lost by H. M.'s subjects, which H. M. hath appointed by privy seal to be discharged, be as followeth, viz. All issues lost upon any that are returned tenants of lands which they have not, shall be now discharged, though they have other lands within the shire. All issues lost upon any heir within age shall be discharged. All issues lost upon lands in H. M.'s hands, by extent or otherwise, shall be discharged. All issues lost upon the farmers and tenants of any lands for life, years, or at will, shall be discharged. All issues lost by sundry other vexations, as well by untrue returns and misreturns of sheriffs and under-sheriffs, may be discharged, moderated, or otherwise ordered, as the court shall think meet. All issues lost by any person returned in any jury in the exchequer, or in any attainor or jury in K. B. or C. P., at Westminster, or in any jury before the justices of assize, which at the time of their appearance appointed were beyond sea, in H. M.'s service, or by special licence in writing, or were in prison, or in ordinary of H. M.'s chamber or household, and bound to personal attendance there, shall be discharged. The treasurer's remembrancer shall pay every subject's charges, as by exchequer shall be set, that shall be vexed by any writ upon a supposal, and not upon just ground vouched, as before declared."

39. If it is thought fit, for the knowledge and preservation of the tenures appertaining to the crown, and so ordered in court, that process should issue against any, the treasurer's remembrancer may send out process without incurring the penalties of this act; in which case, on no such tenure appearing, the party shall be dismissed without pleading or paying any fees, 1 J. 1. c. 26. s. 4.

40. FOR THE BETTER OBSERVATION OF THE COURSE ANCIENTLY USED in the receipt of exchequer, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 28.

41. When any money shall be brought into the receipt of the exchequer, the teller, as soon as the officers belonging to the talley-court shall attend, shall receive the same, weighing it; and making entry thereof, shall throw down bills written upon parchment and signed, [into the talley-court,] whereby a talley may be duly levied according to the nature of the payment; [tallies abolished, and receipts given, 23 G. 3. c. 82. s. 2.] and such teller, his clerk, or substitute, shall not for such money give a note importing a depositum or other private note or security, to prevent the due charging thereof in the exchequer, on pain to forfeit his office, and be disabled to serve H. M. in any office, and forfeit double damages to H. M. or party, and costs; and every clerk of such tellers who shall offend against this act, by giving any private note, &c., whereby the due charging the same shall be hindered, shall forfeit double the sum for which such note was given; one moiety to H. M., the other to the informer, and also be removed from the receipt, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 28. s. 1.

42. No teller shall charge himself by bill with the receipt of any monies in the exchequer, but when the officers of the talley-court are there present; nor shall he throw down into the said court any bill, purporting the receiving of any money, unless he have actually received the same; except where tallies are levied by warrant of treasury, or of treasurer of exchequer, or where the person for whom any talley shall be levied, shall on the same day give a discharge according to the course of exchequer, on some order or debenture for the money; on pain of incurring the like forfeiture of office and disability as before-mentioned, and forfeiting double the sum so unduly charged; one moiety to H. M., and the other to the informer, and for clerks or substitutes, the like penalty as aforesaid, id. s. 2.

43. No teller, his clerk, or substitute, after the bills thrown down into the talley-court, shall lend, pay, or depart with, such money out of his office, without an order or debenture for the same, made forth by the auditor, and recorded by the clerk of the pells, and taking a receipt to discharge H. M. according to ancient course, under the like penalties as for unduly charging any money before actually received, id. s. 3.

44. The chamberlains, or deputy chamberlains, taken away 25 G. 3. c. 82. s. 1., and such other officers, clerks, and deputies as belong to the talley-court, shall daily, except Sundays and holydays, constantly attend at least from 8 to 1, from Lady-day to Michaelmas, and from 9 to 1, from Michaelmas to Lady-day yearly, unless they be sick, or have leave from the treasury, or under-treasurer of exchequer, in which case the room shall be sufficiently supplied, as accustomed, on pain to answer to H. M. or party that shall suffer by reason of such absence, double damages and full costs. And the auditors of the receipt, writer of tallies, clerk of the pells, the four tellers, and other officers of the receipt, shall, by themselves or their deputies, attend in their places, under like penalties of double damages and full costs, id. s. 4.

45. The first clerk in the office of the auditor of the receipt, the clerk of the pells, and of the four tellers, shall be sworn, for due performance of all matters to be performed by them in their offices, the oath to be administered by the commissioners of the treasury, or under-treasurer of the exchequer, or by the barons, or any of them, id. s. 5.

46. None of the monies in the receipt of exchequer, shall be thence issued, but in pursuance of some grant under the great or privy seal, or pursuant to some statute, id. s. 6.

47. Tables shall be set up at the door of the auditor of the receipt, shewing how far the officers there have proceeded in repayment of loans on the credit of revenues, and how far the monies paid in by the receivers extend to discharge principal and interest on the taxes, &c., id. s. 7.

48. The auditor of the receipt shall (for his lawful fees) enter all letters patent, and privy seals for issuing H. M.'s treasure, and shall draw orders or make the debentures for issuing thereof, as required by the treasury or treasurer of the exchequer, and shall keep entries thereof, and weekly take the tellers' accounts, and make certificates to the treasury of all receipts, issues and remains of the H. M. money there; and shall half-yearly, at Easter and Michaelmas, transmit to the treasury the declaration of the receipts, issues and remains at exchequer, as antiently accustomed. And the clerk of the pells shall (for his lawful fees) enrol all letters patent and privy seals for issuing H. M.'s treasure, and enter all receipts and issues at the exchequer, and take the tellers' weekly accounts, and certify to the treasury weekly the receipts, issues and remains of H. M.'s money there, and examine the imprest certificates and imprest rolls, and transmit to the treasury half-yearly declarations of the receipts, issues and remains within the half-year, and shall in all matters observe the antient method; which officers, their deputies and clerks, shall be answerable for their demeanors as well to H. M. as to any person who may suffer by any neglect. [Powers of imprest auditors vested in commissioners of public accounts, 25 G. 3. c. 53. s. 8.] 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 28. s. 8.

49. All penalties by this act shall be recovered in any of H. M.'s courts of record, id. s. 9.

50. This act shall not lessen the lawful power which the treasury ought to have in their places, (id. s. 10.), or alter any method of receipts or payments by bills of credit in exchequer, allowed by parliament, id. s. 11.

51. All the money in the receipt shall be kept in chests under three locks and keys, the tellers to keep one, the clerk of the pells one, and the eldest of the two deputy chamberlains the other. And no orders, &c. shall be paid the same day they are sent up from the auditor's office to the clerk of the pells; except for the navy, ordnance, forces, or for monies registered. And the clerk of the pells and deputy chamberlains shall every morning, except Sundays and holy-days, cause the chests to be opened in their presence, and so much money to be taken out and left with the tellers, as will satisfy the orders ready to be satisfied, and the rest to be locked up again; and every day see all the money which was received that day (except what shall be paid away) to be first weighed in the bags, a ticket of the contents put into each bag, and so secured in the chests. And in case monies in the chests be directed to be issued for the navy, ordnance, &c. so that the payment must not be deferred, the clerk of the pells and deputy chamberlains shall go up to the tellers' offices and see the chests opened for that money, and the public service dispatched and the chests secured again; and when the clerk of the pells cannot attend, his eldest clerk shall keep his keys of the chests; if the deputy chamberlain cannot attend, his keys shall be kept by his fellow; and no money shall be taken out of the chests but in presence of the teller, the clerk of the pells and deputy chamberlain, or in case of sickness or absence of their clerks, as afore-mentioned, id. s. 12.

52. The auditor of the receipt, or his chief clerk, shall at least once in 28 days, visit every teller's cash, and by numbering the bags, opening some of them, and (if he thinks fit) by weighing or telling the money, see that the tellers have the remains wherewith he charges them; and at least once in 3 months shall examine the teller's vouchers for the payments which he allows them in his weekly certificate, id. s. 13.

53. TO REGULATE THE FEES IN TRIALS AT NISI PRIUS ON RECORDS from the exchequer, 23 G. 3. c. 26. s. 10.

54. No officer of assize and nisi prius or other person, shall demand or take any greater or other fees, on records, issuing out of the office of pleas of the court of exchequer, at Westminster, between party and party, than are taken on the like records, issuing out of K. B. and C. P., id. ibid.

55. FOR MORE EASY DISCHARGE OF RECOGNIZANCES ESTREATED into exchequer, 4 G. 3. c. 10.

56. The barons may, on affidavit and petition of persons imprisoned, or liable to imprisonment, on forfeiture of any recognizances, [for non-appearance as witnesses, not prosecuting indictments, &c.], discharge them by order, without quidam sued out for that purpose, (for which order, 1*l.* 1*s.* only shall be taken); but no discharge shall be given on such petitions where any debt is due to the crown, other than by the recognizances so prayed to be discharged, nor in any cases of contraband trade, or assaulting officers of customs or excise in the execution of their duty, or their lawful assistants therein, id. s. 1.

57. FOR ESTABLISHING CERTAIN REGULATIONS IN THE RECEIPT OF H. M.'s exchequer, 23 G. 3. c. 82. [Amended 56 G. 3. c. 46. s. 6.]

58. The offices of the chamberlains, tally-cutter, and usher of exchequer, shall, after expiration of existing interests be abolished, 23 G. 3. c. 82. s. 1., and the tally-cutters present fees carried to the fee-fund herein-after reserved, id. s. 7.

59. Indented cheque-receipts shall then be substituted for the tallies of receipt now in use, and shall be made out by the officer of the auditor attending in the tally-court, signed by him, and by the officer of the clerk of the pells; and on passing any account, the receipt shall be produced with the account, examined with counterfoil of cheque in the auditor's office; and the account shall be compared with the entry in that office, and in that of the three clerks of pells, their officers checking the same; and the auditor of exchequer shall have the custody of one of the keys of the tellers' chests, the stand and weights, measures, and pieces of gold and silver, 23 G. 3. c. 82. s. 2.

60. On expiration of the office of usher of exchequer (as in s. 1.) the presiding officer in each respective office of exchequer, shall supply his office with the necessary articles heretofore provided by the usher, being allowed an annual sum for same by treasury, id. s. 3.

61. The office of second clerk to each of the 4 tellers of exchequer shall be also abolished, and the proportion of fees of such office, made part of the monies reserved for the purposes of this act, id. s. 4.

62. All fees or gratuities to the auditor, clerk of the pells, tellers, chamberlains, and other officers of exchequer, hereinafter mentioned, shall cease, on pain of forfeiture of their offices; and in lieu thereof shall be paid, to the auditor, 400*l.* per ann.; to his chief-clerk, 100*l.* per ann.; to clerk of pells, 300*l.* per ann.; to his first-clerk, 80*l.* per ann.; to his first-clerk, as receiver of the money arising from fees directed by this act to be received, 200*l.* per ann.; to each of four tellers, 270*l.* per ann.; to each of their first clerks, 100*l.* per ann.; with power to appoint clerks and officers, &c. with salaries, payable out of such fees so directed, id. s. 5.

63. The salaries of the tellers and chamberlains of exchequer shall be paid out of the fee-fund aforesaid, id. s. 6.

64. Taxes to which the aforesaid officers were then subject shall be paid out of such fee-fund, id. s. 8.

65. All the present fees, &c. shall be paid by the first clerk to the clerk of pells, or the senior clerk in pell-office, on his giving security, approved by treasury, to account for the same, who shall first pay thereout the sums payable by this act, (see s. 5.), [and from any surplus thereof, there shall be applied to the civil list revenues, 48,000*l.* per ann. by equal quarterly payments, and the remainder shall go to the consolidated fund, 56 G. 3. c. 46. s. 5.]; and if the fee-fund prove insufficient to pay the salaries charged thereon, they shall be paid out of unapplied sums belonging to either of those funds, 23 G. 3. c. 82. s. 9., as amended by 56 G. 3. c. 46. s. 5.

66. The houses of officers named in s. 1. are vested in crown, id. s. 10.

67. No office in the receipt of exchequer shall be granted, either in possession or reversion, in any other manner than subject to this act, id. s. 11.

68. TO ASCERTAIN THE FEES TO BE TAKEN BY THE OFFICERS of the receipt of exchequer, on the issues of money made for payment of certain pensions [see 23 G. 3. c. 82. s. 19., and s. 34. tit. KING], at receipt of exchequer, 26 G. 3. c. 99., [PUBLIC CLAUSE, id. s. 4.]

69. The treasury may pay out of the savings accruing from the salaries and fees of the offices supplied under 23 G. 3. c. 82.; or from fees payable on any payments within civil list revenues, which by that act remain for their disposal; or out of any other civil list revenues which they think fit, all such sums to the auditor, clerk of the pells, or any, or either of the 4 tellers, or officers, and clerks of the receipt of exchequer, on any sum issued for payment of pensions, transferred from the treasury and office of paymaster of pensions to H. M.'s receipt of exchequer, as the officers thereof would have been entitled to receive as legal fees, on issues of like sums, under the head of 'Secret or Special Service', or to the paymaster of pensions, id. s. 1.

70. The auditor, clerk of pells, any of the 4 tellers, or of the officers and clerks of the receipt of exchequer, may demand and take on all pensions granted since passing 23 G. 3. c. 82., the fees of 2*½* per cent. only, which are by that act charged on the pensions, id. s. 2.

71. On the death or removal of the auditor, or any of the 4 tellers, the proportion of fees belonging to the officer so removed shall be applied to the uses directed by 23 G. 3. c. 82., id. s. 3.

72. FOR BETTER ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE IN THE U. K. [viz. in the courts of equity of Eng. and Ire.] 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 90. ss. 7, 8. [See rest of this title, and ss. 5, 6. of this statute, COURTS (Chancery), ante, pl. 72. ss. 1—4. DEBT to and from H. M. pl. 38—40., and s. 9. STATUTES.]

73. In all suits between party and party, where any decree shall be pronounced or order made for judgment, or accounting for money by the barons of exchequer in Eng., the lord chief baron, or any baron of that court shall on application cause a copy of such order or decree to be certified to the Irish courts of exchequer, under seal of the Eng. exchequer; and the Irish barons shall cause the same to be enrolled, and shall issue process of attachment against the person against whom such order or decree is made, to enforce obedience to the same; and shall from time to time make orders, on petition, for payment of money levied under such process, into the bank of Ire. in the name of the deputy remembrancer of exchequer, in trust for the party having obtained such order or decree; which bank shall hold such monies, subject to order of the court, but not chargeable with poundage, when paid out by such order, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 90. s. 7. [Same provisions, vice versa, where the decree is in the Irish exchequer, id. s. 8.]

74. TO FACILITATE THE HEARING AND DETERMINING OF SUITS in equity, in the court of exchequer at Westminster, 57 G. 3. c. 18.

75. The chief baron shall have power to hear and determine all causes and matters pending in the exchequer, as a court of equity; and if prevented by sickness or other unavoidable cause, H. M. may, by warrant revocable at pleasure, appoint any other baron of the coil to hear the same, id. s. 1.

76. Such chief baron or baron, so appointed, shall sit at the times they shall respectively appoint whether the other barons sitting or not; all his decrees, orders, and acts shall be deemed decrees, &c. of the court of exchequer, only subject to alteration by appeal to lords, id. s. 2.

77. Such chief baron or baron, so appointed, may, on petition of party concerned, rehear any cause or matter before decided by either of them respectively, and make just order therein, id. s. 3.

78. TO REGULATE CERTAIN OFFICES IN EXCHEQUER in Eng. 57 G. 3. c. 60.

79. The offices of king's remembrancer, clerk of the pleas, clerk and comptroller of the pipe, marshal, foreign apposer, surveyor, and receiver-general of green wax, lord treasurer's remembrancer, clerk of foreign estreats, clerk of nichells, comptroller of the first fruits in exchequer; and in the alienation office, the office of three commissioners, the receiver-general, two entering clerks, master in chancery, and solicitor of exchequer, after existing interests are terminated, shall be discharged in person, and not by deputy, and as they become vacant the treasury shall regulate the duties, emoluments, and establishments thereof, and the number of proper persons necessary to execute duties, with their salaries, id. s. 1.

80. The fees at present charged in such offices shall continue, and shall be applicable to the payment of the salaries granted under this act, in the office where the fees are received, and any balance thereof shall be paid into exchequer to the consolidated fund, id. s. 2.

81. FOR BETTER SECURING MONIES AND EFFECTS paid into exchequer at Westminster, on account of the suitors of the court, and for appointment of an accountant-general, and two masters thereof, and for other purposes, 1 G. 4. c. 35. [This act is fully indexed, tit. EXCHEQUER, but its provisions do not appear so much of a public nature as to require their insertion at length in this place.]

COURTS (FIRST FRUITS AND TENTHS).

1. FOR ERECTING A COURT OF RECORD, called the Court of the First Fruits and Tenths, for levying those granted to H. M. by 26 H. 8. c. 3. 32 H. 8. c. 45. [ABOLISHED by letters patent, 23 Jan. 1553. 1 M. issued pursuant to 1 M. st. 2. c. 10.; and annexed to the exchequer, see 1 EL. c. 4. s. 15. also REP. 1 EL. c. 4. s. 24. being excepted from the revival in that section.]

COURTS (INFERIOR).

1. FOR AVOIDING VEXATIOUS DELAYS, occasioned by removing actions and suits from inferior courts, 21 J. 1. c. 23. [AMD. 12 G. 1. c. 29. s. 5.]

2. No habeas corpus, certiorari, or other process, (other than writs of error or attain), to be sued forth out of the courts at Westminster, great sessions of Wa., or any other court, to stay or remove any cause pending in any court of record, having jurisdiction to hold plea therein, shall be received or allowed, except such writs be delivered to the steward, judge, or officer before issue or demurrer joined, so as they be not joined in 6 weeks next after the arrest or appearance, 21 J. 1. c. 23. s. 2.

3. Any such action once removed or staid by procedendo shall never afterwards be removed or staid before judgment, by any writs soever, id. s. 3.

4. If in any cause not concerning freehold, or inheritance, or title to lands, lease, or rent, it appear or is laid in the declaration that the debt, damages, or things demanded do not amount to 5*l.*, such cause shall not be stayed nor removed into any other courts, by any writs other than writs of error or attain, (id. s. 4.) and so though there are other actions against the same defendant, where the plaintiff's demands exceed 5*l.*, 12 G. 1. c. 29. s. 3.

5. Where writs are sued forth contrary to the meaning of this act, the judges to whom they are directed may disallow the same, and proceed as if none such had been granted, 21 J. 1. c. 23. s. 5.

6. This act shall only extend to such courts of record as in s. 1. and for so long only as an utter barrister of 3 years standing, who is steward, town-clerk, judge, or recorder of such court, or assistant to such judge thereof, as is not a barrister of such standing, is there present and not of counsel in any cause pending therein, id. s. 6.

7. Nothing herein shall extend to causes wherein any foreign plea is pleaded which could not be determined within the jurisdiction of such inferior courts, id. s. 7.

8. TO PREVENT FRIVOLOUS AND VEXATIOUS ACTIONS OF ASSAULT and battery, and for slanderous words in courts, 58 G. 3. c. 30.

9. In all actions of trespass for assault and battery commenced in any court having, or which by writ of justices may have jurisdiction to hold pleas in actions to amount of 40*l.*, (other than H. M.'s court at Westminster, the courts of great sessions for the principality of Wales, or county palatine of Chester, the court of C.P. for that of Lancaster, or of pleas for that of Durham.) if the jury on trial of the issue in such action, or the jury who enquire of the damages, do assess them under 40*l.*, the plaintiff shall recover only as much costs as damages without further increase thereof, 48 G. 3. c. 30. s. 1.

10. In all actions of trespass for assault and battery, or for slanderous words sued in any court soever, not having jurisdiction to hold plea to the amount of 40*l.*, if the jury assess the damages under 30*l.*, the plaintiff shall recover only as much costs as damages without further increase thereof, id. s. 2.

COURTS (KING'S BENCH).

1. FOR GIVING FURTHER FACILITIES TO THE PROCEEDINGS IN courts of K.B., 1 G. 4. c. 55. ss. 3—4. [See ss. 1—2. and other provisions, NISI PRIUS, (Sittings in London and Westminster), s. 4. also in OATHS. ss. 5—6. JUDGES.]

2. ALL PERSONS DIRECTED TO BE BROUGHT BEFORE K.B. by 32 G. 2. c. 28. (the Lords' act), or any other law for relief of insolvent debtors, may hereafter be brought before some single judge of K.B. sitting under 57 G. 3. c. 11. [BAIL, pk. 22—23.], and all orders made by, and proceedings had before him shall be good to all purposes as if made and had in K.B., id. s. 3.

3. All oaths directed by 13 C. 2. (S. 2.) c. 1. [the corporation oaths, but now REP. 5 G. 1. c. 6. §. 2. see CORPORATION.] and 25 C. 2. c. 2. s. 1, 2. (against popish recusants), or by any other statutes now in being, to be taken by persons admitted to offices of trust and profit, and by all barristers and attorneys, may, after passing this act, be administered and taken, and the declaration in the latter act mentioned may be made and subscribed before such single judge sitting, as in s. 3. described, and the proper officer shall, at seasonable times, attend before the latter to administer such oaths and register such subscription, id. s. 4.

4. FOR FURTHER FACILITATING THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS in the court of K.B., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 16.

5. Any 3 or more judges of K.B. are required, unless prevented by illness, public business, or other reasonable cause, to meet at Serjeants' Inn Hall, or at some convenient place in Westminster, according to their discretion, on [Tuesday] fortnight, or some subsequent day before Easter term 1821, EXP.] some day by then appointed before every Easter term, if the time of the circuits permit, and also on 20th Oct. and 10th Jan. for ever hereafter, unless either of those days is on a Sunday, and then on the following day, and to sit on those several days, and so on from day to day (except Sundays) till the commencement of the next term, for dispatch of all matters which now or at the end of any term preceding the said respective days hereafter may be pending in the crown or plea side of K.B., and to hear, decide and pronounce rules, orders and judgments on or all such matters, the same to be drawn up and entered of record, either as of the term last past before pronouncing thereof, or as of the term next ensuing, as the court shall direct, which meetings shall be called 'The Sittings before Term,' id. s. 1.

6. All enlarged rules to shew cause, pronounced or drawn up by or by direction of K.B. for shewing cause in any term next after any such sittings, shall be deemed rules to shew cause, as well at such sittings as in the term next following, and may be heard and decided at such sittings; but nothing herein shall alter the return of any meane or judicial writ, or require return thereof, or appearance thereto, before the day therein mentioned, id. s. 2.

7. If at any time it appears to the judges of K.B. that the matters pending therein as in s. 1. do not for public convenience require the judges to meet or sit on all or any of the days and times in s. 1. directed, they may omit such sittings altogether, or commence them at a later day than those in s. 1., or, having commenced, may adjourn or discontinue the same wholly or in part for that time as public convenience appears to them to require or permit, id. s. 3.

(CROWN OFFICE).

1. FOR REGULATING PROCEEDINGS IN THE CROWN OFFICE OF THE court of K.B. at Westminster, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 22. ss. 1—3. see s. 4. OUTLAWRY. [MADE PERP. 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 36. s. 4.]

2. No corporation, lord of manor, or other having grants by charter, or other good conveyances, enrolled and allowed by the K.B. shall be compelled to plead the same to any inquisition returned by any coroner; and corporations, &c. having such charter or grants from the crown for felons, goods, deodands and other forfeitures, shall bring into the office of the clerk of the crown, and enroll only so much thereof as sets forth the grants of such felons, goods, &c. paying 20*s.* fee only; after which enrolment such grant need not be pleaded to any inquisition, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 22. s. 1.

3. Every clerk of the crown issuing process against any such corporation, &c. grantees, (as in s. 1.) after such enrolment, shall forfeit 5*l.*

recoverable by bill, plaint or information, without essoin, &c. and with but one imparlance, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 22. s. 2.

4. The clerk of the crown shall not incur any penalty for issuing process against any persons who shall not on every purchase of the title of such felons' goods and deadlands, enrol and plead the same purchase in K. B., nor against any devisee of the like estate who shall not likewise enrol or plead such devise, nor against any heir who shall not enroll his right by descent, and until after such pleas have been allowed by the court, nor where by coroner's inquest the goods of any felon or deadlands are not found in the hands of such purchaser, devisee or heir, or of any one in trust for them, id. s. 3.

COURTS LEET AND BARON.

1. NONE THAT IS INFEOFFED BY DEED shall be distrained to do suit to the court of his lord without being specially bound thereto by deed, these only except whose ancestors have used to do such suit before the first voyage of H. 3. into Britanny, A.D. 1230; likewise none that is infeoffed without deed from the time of the conquest, or any other ancient feoffment, shall be distrained to do such suits, unless his ancestors used to do it before the said voyage; and they that are infeoffed by deed to do a certain service, as for service of so many shillings by year, to be acquitted of all service, shall not be bound to such suits contrary to the form of their feoffment; and if any inheritance whereof but one suit is due descend unto many heirs, whoso hath the eldest part shall do suit for himself and his fellows, and the other coheirs shall be contributaries; and if many feoffers be seised of an inheritance, whereof but one suit is due, the lord shall have but that one suit; and if those feoffers have no warrant or mesne (2 Inst. 120.) which ought to acquit them, then all the feoffees, according to their portion, shall be contributaries for doing the suit; and if the lords distrain the tenants for such suits contrary to this act at the complaint of the tenants, the lords shall be attached to appear in the king's court at a short day to make answer thereto, and shall have but one essoin therein, if they be within the realm; and the distresses shall be delivered to the plaintiff until the plea be determined; and if the lords which took distresses come not at the day, the sheriff shall be commanded to cause them to come at another day; at which day, if they come not, he shall be commanded to distrain them by all their goods, so that he shall answer to the king of the issues of the inheritance, and that he have their bodies before the justices at a certain day; so if they come not at that day, the plaintiff shall go without day, and his distresses shall remain delivered until the lords have recovered the suit by award of the king's court; and in the mean time such distresses shall cease, saving to the lords their right to recover those suits when they will sue; and when the lords of the courts come in to answer the plaintiffs of such trespasses, and be convicted thereupon, then by award of H. M.'s court the plaintiffs shall recover damages, 52 H. 3. c. 9. s. 1. Stat. Marlbruge.

2. If the tenants withdraw such suits as they were wont to do, then the lords of the courts shall obtain justice to recover their suits with their damages; and this must be understood of withdrawing from themselves, and not of withdrawing from their ancestors; nevertheless the lords of courts shall not recover seisin of such suits against their tenants by default, as they were wont to do, id. s. 2.

3. FIRST, YOU SHALL TELL US IF ALL SUITORS THAT OWE SUIT TO this court are come and which are not; and if all the chief pledges are come with their deceners, and which are not; and if all the deceners are in the assize of H. M., and which are not, and who received them; of customs and services due to this court, but withdrawn, how and by whom; of purprestures made in lands, woods, and waters, to annoyance of walls, houses, dikes, and hedges set up or beaten down, to annoyance of bounds taken away, of ways opened or stopped, of waters turned or stopped, of breakers of houses and their receivers, of common thieves and their receivers, of petty thieves, as of geese, hens, or sheaves of corn; of thieves that steal cloths out of windows; of such as go in message for thieves; of hue and cry levied, and not pursued; of bloodshed, and of frays; of escapes of thieves or felons; of persons outlawed and returned, not having the king's warrant; of women ravished, not presented before the coroner; of clippers and forgers of money; of treasure found; of the assize of bread and ale broken; of false measures and balances; of such as have a double measure, and buy by the great and sell by the less; of such as haunt taverns, and no one knows whereon they live; of such as sleep by day and watch by night, and fare well and have nothing; of cloth-sellers and curriers of leather dwelling out of market-towns; of persons imprisoned and let go without warrant; of such as take doves in winter, by door-falls, or other engines, 18 Ed. 2. Stat. de Visu Franklegii.

4. TO PREVENT THE OVERCHARGE OF THE PEOPLE BY STEWARDS OF courts-leet and baron, 1 J. 1. c. 5.

5. No steward of any courts-leet or baron, shall take benefit to his own use in money, goods, or other thing, to the value of 12d., by colour of any grant of the profits of such courts, on pain to forfeit 40l., and be disabled to be steward of such court, or of any other; half to H. M., the other to any who shall sue by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, wherein no essoin or dilatory plea shall be allowed, id. s. 1.

COURTS (MARCHES OF WALES).

1. FOR TAKING AWAY THE COURT holden before the president and council of the marches of Wa., 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 27. s. 1. reciting 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 4.

2. The above court, and all jurisdiction belonging unto or exercised in the same, shall be taken away, id. s. 2. [ss. 3 & 4. amend 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. s. 61. & 113., and are annexed thereto. WALES.]

3. No judgments of any court of great sessions before 1 June, 1689, shall hereby be annulled, id. s. 3.

COURTS (MARSHALSEA).

1. THE JURISDICTION OF THE STEWARD AND MARSHAL OF H. M.'s house, 28 Ed. 1. c. 3. Art. Sup. Chart. [See the rest of this statute, CORONER.]

2. The steward and marshal shall not hold plea of freehold nor of debt covenant, or contract between people, but only of trespass done within H. M.'s house, or within the verge, and of contracts, which one of H. M.'s house makes with another of the same house, and within the house; and they shall plead [viz. take consuance of] no plea of trespass, other than that attached by them, before H. M. departed from the verge where it was committed, and shall plead speedily from day to day, that they may be determined before H. M. shall so depart; and if they cannot be determined within the verge, the pleas shall cease before the steward, and be cognizable at common law, and the steward shall not take cognizance of debts or other thing, but such only as are of H. M.'s house, nor shall hold other plea by obligation made on distress of the steward or marshal, and proceedings contrary hereto are void, 28 Ed. 1. c. 5.

3. WHERE INQUESTS ARE TO BE TAKEN BEFORE THE STEWARD and marshal, they shall be taken by men of the country, and by no men of H. M.'s house, except it be of the contracts, covenants, or trespasses made by men of the said house of either part, and that in the same house as in 28 Ed. 1. c. 5.; and error by H. M.'s steward and marshal shall be redressed before H. M. in his place, 5 Ed. 3. c. 2. s. 2. [CONF. 18 E. 3. st. 2. c. 7.]

4. THE LIMITS OF THIS COURT SHALL NOT PASS 12 miles round H. M.'s lodging, 13 R. 2. S. 1. c. 3.

5. CLERGY TAKEN INTO THE MARSHALSEA OF H. M.'s HOUSE shall pay the same fees as laity, 9 R. 2. c. 5.

6. IN SUITS BEFORE THE MARSHAL, DEFENDANT SHALL NOT BE estopped by the record from pleading that plaintiff or himself are not of H. M.'s household, 15 H. 6. c. 1.

7. THE MARSHALL OF THE MARSHALSEA OF THE COURT OF H. M. shall take the fees following, viz.

From persons coming by capias 4d.	Persons committed by judgment of steward - 4d.
If let to mainprize - 2d.	Persons delivered of felony - 4d.
Persons impleaded of trespass and finding 2 mainperners 2d.	Felons let to mainprize by court 4d.

And if he take more, he and his officers shall lose their offices and pay treble damages to party grieved, who shall have his suit before the steward of the court, id. s. 1.

8. No servitor of bills that beareth a staff of such court shall take more than 1d. per mile where he shall do his service, and 2d. for serving a venire facias, on pain of imprisonment and fine to H. M., in discretion of the steward, and of being forejudged of such court; and the steward shall proclaim this article at the coming of the court into every county, and execute the above penalties, 2 H. 4. c. 23. s. 2.

COURTS (STANNARIES).

1. AGAINST INNOVATIONS AND OPPRESSIONS IN STANNARY COURTS, 16 C. 1. c. 15.

2. Liberties of suing and being sued thereon, and being quit from tolls, tollages, aids and customs in ville, ports, fairs, and markets in Devonshire and Cornwall, under the charters and declarations of E. 1., 50 E. 3. and 8 R. 2., belong to working tinnars only, id. st. 1.—5.

3. The words of the charters "in locis ubi operantur," shall be expounded of vill, tithing, or hamlet, where the tin-work in work is situate, and not elsewhere where it is not working; and if any person sued therein swear that they are not tinnars, the suit in such court is discharged, unless plaintiffs swear that they are working tinnars, and that the cause of suit arose within such stannaries, or concerneth tin or tin-works; and where any person not being a bond fide labouring tinner in or about some tin-work set on work within one-half year next before his suit, shall sue or implead in any such court; or before the warden, vice-warden, or steward of the stannaries, any person not being a tinner at the time of commencing the suit, the latter shall, within 2 years after, have his action at common law against such plaintiff, and recover 10*l.* with damages and costs, 16 C.2. c.15. s.4.

4. Costs in the stannary courts shall be awarded as at common law, id. s.5. And tinnars may, if they think fit, sue foreigners at common law, id. s.6.

5. No person shall be troubled as surety for the debt of another arrested by stannary process, by the return of a stannary bailiff, unless the person so returned surety shall, in presence of two witnesses, sign a note in writing to that effect; which shall mention the names of plaintiff and defendant, the sum or damages demanded, and the nature of the action, and shall be subscribed by the witnesses and returned to and filed in court, and such bailiff shall not be admitted to prove same, id. s.8.

6. No defendant shall be condemned on such bailiff's return for not appearing, unless a note signed by the party arrested, and by 2 such witnesses be returned into court, at or before the day of appearance; for which note such bailiff shall take 4*d.* and none shall be bailed on arrest there till he give such note, id. ss.9, 10.

7. If such bailiff returns a rescous, the party may traverse it, id. s.11.

CROWN PROPERTY.

It should also be here noticed, that the powers of the surveyors general north and south of Trent, viz. over all lands within survey of exchequer are, by 50 G.3. c.63. s.1., vested in the commissioners of woods, forests, and land revenues.]

1. CONCERNING PURFESTURES OR USURPATIONS made on H.M. he may clearly resume the land where the usurpers are living, and if any complain of such re-seizures, he shall be heard as of right, 4 E.1. s.5. c.4.

2. FOR RELIEF OF PATENTEES, TENANTS, AND FARMERS, of crown and duchy lands, [or of lands within survey of the court of wards and liveries, Rep. 12 C.2. c.24. s.1. &c.], in cases of forfeiture for non-payment of their rents, or other service or duty, 21 J.1. c.25. and recital in s.1.

3. If any persons having any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, by virtue of any grant or lease made by H.M., whereupon any rent, or other service or duty is reserved, with condition of re-entry, or to be void for default of payment of such rent, or performance of such service, &c. shall make default therein, and yet such rent or other service, &c. is afterwards answered to H.M., into his exchequer or duchy of Lancaster, or to any other having authority to receive the same, before advantage is taken of such forfeiture, and before any commission of inquiry awarded or process issued touching the same, no advantage shall be taken for such forfeiture, id. s.2.

4. No claimant under H.M., after such cause of forfeiture given, shall have any benefit by means of such default; but every such estate so forfeited shall be adjudged to continue, as if no such default had been made, id. s.3.

5. FOR ADVANCING THE SALE OF FEE-FARM, AND OTHER RENTS, 22 C.2. c.56.

6. FOR VESTING the same in trustees, 22 & 23 C.2. c.24. [Both acts repealed as to certain parts of them relating to copyholds in the duchy of Lancaster, 19 G.3. c.45. s.1. & s.9. and 26 G.3. c.87. s.10. which act is Exp.]

7. Letters patent granted before 24th June 1672, under the great seal, the seal of the duchy of the county palatine of Lancaster, of fee-farm rents, and other rents due to H.M. in right of his crown or duchies of Lancaster, or parcel of the duchy of Cornwall, (except quit-rents and copyhold rents standing in charge as belonging to any manor, and all tenths and first-fruits, and rents nomine decime, payable by any ecclesiastical corporation, and all rents incident to reversions, [See post, 22 & 23 C.2. c.24. s.2. infra, pl. 16.] in H.M. and reserved on leases and farms of customs or excise, shall be good in law for vesting the same in trustees for sale, and be construed most beneficially for the patentees, any mis-naming, mis-recital, or non-recital of the honours, lands, tenements, or hereditaments charged, or of any estate tail, or of the reversion thereupon, not true naming of the places where the said lands, &c. do lie, or lack of the true naming of the corporation, or of attornment, or any mis-naming or not naming of the tenants of the lands charged, and other defects notwithstanding, 22 C.2. c.6. s.4.

8. The said trustees shall execute to purchasers, indentures of bargain and sale of the said rents, which shall be inrolled in any of the four courts of Westminster, within 6 months after the date, id. s.6. [How described in deeds and pleadings, 10 A. c.18. s.4. pl. 23.]

9. Persons having such conveyance, and causing it to be inrolled as aforesaid, shall be in actual seisin of the rents so purchased, and shall enjoy the same freed of all demands which may be made by H.M., or any duke of Cornwall; and shall hold and enjoy the rents so purchased as fully as H.M. might have held, &c. the same, id. s.7.

10. All persons who shall purchase any of the said rents, their heirs, successors, and assigns, shall recover the same by such ways as H.M. might; either by distraining in any of the lands of the tenant that shall hold any lands charged with the said rent; or by having power to detain or sell all such distresses after 15 days after such distress taken, in case the rent shall not be paid, returning the overplus; or by having the full benefit of all sums reserved nomine penae; or by using the like action of suit as H.M. might have used, so as the same extend not to process of extent, or other prerogative process out of exchequer, id. s.8.

11. Fee-farm or other rents not usually paid by the owners or occupiers of the tenements charged therewith, by the greater space of 40 years now last past, shall not be inserted in any letters patent to be granted to trustees as aforesaid; and where any persons have held lands subject to the payment of any fee-farm rent, or other rent which hath usually been paid by the owners or occupiers of such lands; and by colour of some patent of concealment, or of commissions for defective titles passed of the same lands, some greater rent hath been put in charge, but hath not been usually paid by such owners, &c. for more than such 40 years, then the tenant of the lands shall hold the same discharged of the said rent reserved by virtue of the patent of concealment or by commission of defective titles, until the same be recovered by course of law. And if any letters patent of any lands have been granted, whereupon any rents have been reserved, which shall be sold to any purchaser, if such letters patent whereupon such rents have been reserved, shall be annulled, whereby the lands shall return to H. M., then the purchaser of such rents shall have out of the same lands the like rent, and for the like estate with that which was purchased, and shall have like remedy for recovery thereof; and certain covenants on H. M.'s part, contained in the original reservation of some of the said fee-farm rents and decrees in the court of augmentation or exchequer made before the 23d Oct. 1642, or since 29th May 1660, whereby divers fee-farmers were to be discharged, and the charge whereof hath been allowed by H. M. out of the said fee-farm rents, on the accounts of receivers, shall not be annulled; saving to all other persons all right, 22 C. 2. c. 6. s. 9.

12. Bodies politic may purchase any the rents aforesaid, and the same retain; any statutes of mortmain notwithstanding, id. s. 10.

13. This act shall not extend to the sale of any fee-farm rents, tenths, chauntry-rents, or other rents payable to H. M. or the prince of Wales, arising within the principality, id. s. 11.

14. Fee-farms of mills formerly belonging to the crown, or parcel of the duchy of Lancaster, shall have the privilege of the exchequer and duchy, and all suits to mill, and aids of the said courts, id. s. 13.

15. Such of the said fee-farm rents and premises, as are payable for maintenance of any grammar-school or scholars, or towards reparation of any church, highway, bridges, schools, almshouses, castles, or other uses, shall continue to be paid as they have been: and the trustees shall set out unto such persons as they shall think fit, in trust for the performance of the uses aforesaid, such of the said fee-farm rents as amount to the sums so charged, for the uses aforesaid; and the purchasers of the residue of the said fee-farm rents shall be discharged, id. s. 14.

16. ALL FEE-FARM RENTS, RENTS-SERVICE, RENTS-SECK, chauntry-rents, guild-rents, castle-guard rents, and other rents, within survey of exchequer or duchy of Lancaster, payable to H. M., (other than rents excepted out of 22 C. 2. c. 6.) shall be vested in Francis lord Hauley, and others, and shall be by them disposed according to that act; which conveyance of the trustees shall be effectual in law, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 24. s. 2.

17. All purchasers of the said rents shall hold and enjoy the same, id. s. 3.

18. Until sale thereof be made, the receivers-general of H. M.'s revenue shall receive them, id. s. 4.

19. All purchasers by this act, shall have all advantages given to purchasers by 22 C. 2. c. 6. And the printed copies of both acts, and the conveyance made by the trustees, and inrolled according to 22 C. 2. c. 6. shall be sufficient evidence to entitle the purchasers, id. s. 5.

20. No tenant in tail of any of the said rents shall be thereby enabled to suffer any recovery, or do any other act, to bar the remainder hereby vested in the trustees, nor have any greater power than he had before, id. s. 6.

21. Every purchaser of rents by this or any former act sold, and all persons claiming under them, may sue, make avowry, justification or consuance for such rents, without setting forth how H. M. became intitled, or setting forth or producing any letters patent, or other matter, whereby such rents had commencement, or the letters patent whereby the premises were granted to the trustees; but it shall be sufficient to declare or allege, that the said trustees were seized in fee of such rent in possession or reversion, as the case requires, and being so seized, granted the same, id. s. 8. [and see 10 A. c. 18. s. 4., infra, pl. 23.]

22. The trustees may convey the said rents, either by the words expressed in the letters patent, or by particulars made out by the auditors, or by the original grants from the crown wherein those rents are reserved, as they shall find most convenient for the satisfaction of the purchasers; saving to H. M. all her rights therein, id. s. 9.

23. WHERE ANY RENTS, INTENDED BY 22 C. 2. c. 6. and 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 24. to be sold, are described in any deed or pleading, as they were described in the indentures of bargain and sale made by the trustees, such descriptions shall be sufficient, 10 A. c. 18. s. 4.

24. This shall not give any advantage in deriving title to any rent not paid within 20 years next before the time of such pleading, id. s. 5.

25. FOR THE BETTER SUPPORT OF H. M.'S HOUSEHOLD, AND OF THE honour and dignity of the crown, 1 A. S. 1. c. 7., [s. 6. is Rev., as far as is contrary to any provisions of 34 G. 3. c. 75. id. s. 1., or of 52 G. 3. c. 161. id. s. 1.]

26. Every grant, lease, or other assurance, granted by H. M., her heirs, or successors, under the great or exchequer seal or seals, of the duchy and county palatine of Lancaster, or by copy of court-roll or otherwise, of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, (advowsons of churches and vicarages only excepted) within Eng. Wa., or Ber., whereby any estate or interest may pass, shall be void; unless such grant be made for some term not exceeding 31 years, [or three lives, or for some term of years determinable upon one, two, or three lives, Rev. 48 G. 3. c. 75. s. 3. pl. 67.] and unless such grant, &c. be made to commence from the date thereof; and if such grant, &c. be made to take effect in reversion or expectancy, then the same, together with the estates in possession, shall not exceed [3 lives, see above]; or 31 years in the whole; and unless such grant, &c. be so made, that the tenant be liable to punishment for waste; and unless there be reserved the ancient or most usual rent, or more, or such rent as hath been reserved and paid for the greater part of 20 years, and where no such rent shall have been reserved, then upon every such grant, &c. there shall be reserved a reasonable rent, not under 1-3d of the clear yearly value; and unless such rents be made payable to H. M., her heirs, or successors, 1 A. S. 1. c. 7. s. 5.

27. Where the greatest part of the yearly value of any tenements or hereditaments belonging to H. M., &c. (as in s. 5.), consist of buildings which may want to be repaired or re-edified, it shall be lawful for H. M., &c. to grant such tenements, &c. for any term, not exceeding 50 years, [or 3 lives, see above], and so as such lease be made to commence from the date thereof; or if such grant be made to take effect in reversion or expectancy, then the same, together with the estates in possession, shall not exceed 50 years, or for building leases, 99 years, 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 1. [or 3 lives, see above], and so as the same be not made dishonourable of waste, and so as there be reserved as much rent as is hereby required in case of a lease not exceeding 31 years, [or 3 lives, see above], id. s. 6.

28. The hereditary duties of excise and post-office revenue, and in the small branches of H. M.'s revenue, viz., the first-fruits and tenths, the fines for writs of covenants and writs of entry, payable in the alienation-office, the post-fines, the revenue of the wine licences, and the revenue arising by sheriffs, proffers, and compositions in the exchequer, and by seizures of uncustomed and prohibited goods, [see 1 G. 4. c. 1. s. 7.] shall not be alienable for longer than the life of such king or queen as shall make such alienation; and all grants and assurances of the said manors, messuages, lands, or of any the said revenues, contrary to this act, shall be void, without any inquisition, or other proceeding to determine the same, id. s. 7., [the duties in italics see Rev.]

29. This act shall not disable H. M. to make any grant or restitution of any estates to be forfeited for treason or felony, or to grant any tenements taken into his hands on any outlawry, at the suit of subjects, as hath been usual, or any estate extended or taken in execution for any debt owing to the crown, or to make grants or admittances, which of right or custom ought to be made, of any copyhold tenements, parcel of any manor of H. M., id. s. 8.

30. FOR SETTLING WHAT PARTS OF THE PRECINCTS of the Savoy in co. Middlesex, shall be under survey of the court of exchequer, and what parts thereof, under survey of the duchy of Lancaster, 12 G. 3. c. 42.

31. TO ENABLE the chancellor and council of the duchy of Lancaster, to sell and dispose of certain fee-farm and other rents, and to infranchise copyhold and customary tenements within their survey, and to encourage the growth of timber on lands held of the duchy, 19 G. 3. c. 45. [Am. 27 G. 3. c. 34.]

32. TO AMEND 19 G. 3. c. 45., and to enable the said chancellor and council to discharge incumbrances, affecting the possessions of the said duchy, 27 G. 3. c. 34. [The titles only of the 3 last acts are given as of a local nature, though connected with the subject of crown lands.]

33. FOR BETTER MANAGEMENT OF THE LAND REVENUE OF THE crown, and for sale of fee-farm and other unimprovable rents, 34 G. 3. c. 75. [Am. 46 G. 3. c. 151., and 48 G. 3. c. 73. ss. 7—8.; 19. 21—26.]

34. Every lease or grant, made under the great seal or seal of exchequer [but see now 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 52. infra] of any tenements or hereditaments, whereof the greatest part of the yearly value shall consist of the buildings thereupon, or of any land set apart for buildings, under this act; and where the lessee, &c. shall covenant to erect buildings thereon, of greater yearly value than the land leased, shall be made in manner by this [or the following] acts directed, or shall be void, 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 1.

35. Where any land belonging to H. M., within the order and survey of exchequer, [see s. 20. infra, pl. 60.], shall by the treasury be deemed fit for the erection of houses or buildings thereon, or for gardens, yards, curtilages and appurtenances, to be used therewith, and shall by their order be set apart for that use; and where the lessee or grantee shall covenant to erect buildings thereon, of greater yearly value than the land to be leased or granted, or where the greatest part of the yearly value of any tenements or hereditaments belonging to H. M., at the making any lease thereof, consists of any buildings thereupon, H. M. may demise or grant such lands, so set apart, or the tenements, &c. last aforesaid respectively, to any persons soever, under the great seal or exchequer seal, for any term or estate, not exceeding 99 years, [or 3 lives, Rev. 48 G. 3. c. 75. s. 3.] computed from the date of such lease, or if such lease, &c. be made to take effect in reversion or expectancy, then the term and estate thereby granted with that in possession of the same land, tenements, &c. respectively, shall not exceed 99 years [or 3 lives, see above], the following rents being reserved, viz.: where the building on the ground demised, is substantial, or not intended to be rebuilt, there shall be reserved to H. M. an annual rent, of not less than 2-3ds of such annual sum, as is deemed by the treasury a reasonable rent for such buildings and ground respectively, for the term and estate intended to be granted therein, and a fine to the amount of the remaining 1-3d (subject to a discount not higher than the legal rate of interest) shall be paid to the use of H. M., and where there are no substantial buildings on the ground de-erected, or the buildings thereon require or are agreed to be rebuilt, or other new buildings to be erected thereon, such a rent shall be reserved as is deemed reasonable by the treasury, without taking fine for the same; and so as in every such lease or grant of land or buildings of the description last aforesaid, there be contained a covenant, by the lessee or grantee, for erecting proper buildings thereon, in a reasonable time therein limited, and for keeping them in repair and other reasonable covenants, and so as all such rents be reserved to be paid, free of taxes, during such part of the term not exceeding 3 years, as the treasury shall allow; and so as the lessee or grantee shall duly execute a counterpart of his lease or grant, which shall not be subject to stamp-duty, 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 3. [This exemption extended to leases or grants made under this act, or under 48 G. 3. c. 75, s. 18. of the latter act, infra, pl. 82.] Subsisting leases valid, id. s. 2.

36. In cases where any rent has been heretofore reserved for the benefit of any charitable institution, or for augmentation of any ecclesiastical benefice or corporation, H. M. may continue to reserve the same rent, on granting new leases of the lands, tenements, or hereditaments, within survey of exchequer, charged therewith, notwithstanding 34 G. 3. c. 75., 46 G. 3. c. 151.

37. Where on the ground demised there is some substantial building, not required or agreed to be rebuilt, and either some other building thereon requiring or agreed to be rebuilt, or some new building is agreed to be erected thereon, the treasury may direct what rent shall be paid annually, and whether any and what fine shall be taken on such demise, regard being had to the value of the building not intended to be rebuilt, and the proportion it bears to the value of the whole property intended to be demised, 48 G. 3. c. 75. s. 23.

38. Where the treasury think that the solidity and value of any old house to be demised, and not required to be rebuilt, is such as to be sufficient security for due payment of the whole annual sum mentioned in s. 23, they may reserve in such lease the rent only, without fine for the same, id. s. 24.

39. The treasury may grant and renew leases of the profits of agistment of woods disafforested, of pra and post fines, arising within W.a. and Chesler, of light-houses, beacons, mooring-chains, tolls, markets, tythes, fisheries, ferries, and other property of uncertain produce, for 31 years at discretion, 48 G. 3. c. 75. s. 21.

40. On every grant, lease, or other assurance, granted by H. M. under either of the seals in s. 1. pl. 34., of any lands, tenements, manors, tithes, woods, or other hereditaments, (advowsons of churches and vicarages, and such tenements and grounds, with buildings erected thereon, as may hereby be granted for not exceeding 99 years, [for three lives, R. & P. 48 G. 3. c. 75. s. 3.] and whereon any fines are payable excepted,) in Eng. and Wa. belonging to H. M., his heirs, or successors, within the order and survey aforesaid, in possession, reversion, remainder, use, or expectancy, to any person, body politic or corporate, whereby any estate or interest, in law or equity, shall pass from H. M., &c. there shall be reserved such clear annual rent as shall by the treasury be deemed reasonable, without fine; which rent shall be made payable to H. M. during the whole term; and no such lease or grant shall be effectual, unless the lessee or grantee execute a counterpart thereof, which is not liable to stamp-duty, (and see s. 3.) 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 4.

41. In respect of any lease or grant under the great or exchequer seal of any houses or other buildings, certified by surveyors not to require rebuilding, and being of greater yearly value than the ground on which built, but which a lessee may wish to pull down to build other houses, &c. of greater value; of houses or buildings damaged or destroyed by fire; of ground on which such buildings have been erected; of houses, &c. only in part rebuilt, or to which new buildings are added; and of ground to be granted as gardens, &c., [as in s. 1. infra, pl. 63.,] the treasury may admit of paying the consideration either in rent only, or in rent and fine, provided such fine does not exceed 1-3d of the net annual value of the premises for which paid, nor the legal rate of interest, 48 G. 3. c. 75. s. 25.

42. In crown leases of mines, collieries, quarries, and other mineral and fossil substances, belonging to the crown, the treasury may reserve a share of the produce in kind, or a duty on the quantity or value thereof, at discretion, id. s. 26.

43. No lease or grant of any H. M.'s lands, tenements, or hereditaments, within the order and survey of exchequer, shall be renewed for any term of years whatever, till within 5 years of its expiration, except such tenements and hereditaments as may, by this act, be granted, for not exceeding 99 years; nor shall any grant or lease of the latter be renewed, till within 20 years of the expiration, except as in s. 6—9. [infra, pl. 45—46. to 49.,] and in 48 G. 3. c. 75. s. 19. [infra pl. 44.] directed, 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 5.

44. Thus where any house or other building requires or is agreed to be rebuilt, or any new house or building to be erected on any land belonging to the crown, within survey of exchequer, held under a crown lease, on which other houses, &c., included therein, are standing, if the lessee shall covenant to build a new house or building, or to rebuild one of such value as to increase the value of the whole property included in such lease, it shall be lawful to grant new leases of all such land, with the houses, &c. thereon, as were included in the former lease, for any term or estate, except for life or lives, not exceeding those authorized by 34 G. 3. c. 75., with the rent required to be reserved by both acts, and with covenants for so erecting or rebuilding such houses, &c. within a reasonable time, and that they be of the requisite value, 48 G. 3. c. 75. s. 19.

45. If it appear to the treasury that any person has entered into any covenant to obtain renewals of leases at earlier periods, in confidence that the same could be so renewed, the lease or grant may be renewed at more than 5 years from its expiration, so as to enable such person to perform such covenants; so if any person is the lessee of tithes or other profits of any lands, and is owner of or interested in such lands, the treasury may order a renewal of leases of such tithes, at the most convenient times for beneficial enjoyment thereof with such lands, 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 6.

46. Where any wastes, commons, or other unclosed lands, within the order and survey aforesaid, in which H. M., his heirs, &c. have any interest, shall, by statute or otherwise, be directed to be divided and inclosed, or where any lands belonging to and held under lease or grant from H. M. &c. under the great or exchequer seals, shall by the treasury be deemed fit to be planted, or any farm-house or substantial building to be erected for the improvement of any lands, or any pits, levels, &c. engines, or other works to be dug, erected, or made for the better working of any H. M.'s mines, quarries, or collieries, and held as aforesaid; and where the term or estate in possession therein respectively shall be deemed insufficient to repay the expences thereof, with reasonable profit to the parties making the same, the treasury may renew such lease, or grant a further lease of any such lands, mines, &c. for any term not exceeding that authorized by 1 A. st. 1. c. 7. (s. 5, pl. 26.) or this act; and where any houses or building shall require or be agreed to be rebuilt, or new houses to be erected, or where any houses, &c. have been (before this act passed) erected on any land belonging to and held under any lease or grant whereof the term or estate in possession, at the time of erecting such houses, &c. respectively, is deemed by the treasury insufficient to repay the costs of erecting the same, with reasonable profit to the parties, any further or other lease of such houses, &c. and land, &c. may be granted for any term not exceeding that hereby authorized to be granted; provided that in every such lease are inserted covenants for the rents by this act (s. 3, pl. 35.) reserved, with covenants by the lessees for erecting such new buildings, and making such works and improvements at their expence, in a reasonable time, where the same have not been previously erected or made, id. s. 7.

47. Whenever such leases of wastes are renewed, as in the last placitum, they may be renewed in like manner, and on the same terms, with respect to any other lands comprised in the same leases, 48 G. 3. c. 75. s. 22.

48. Before making any grant or lease under the great or exchequer seals of any lands, &c., within the survey aforesaid, a survey of the premises where it can be made, and an estimate of their improved annual value, shall be made by able surveyors of land or houses named for that purpose by order of the treasury, or of the surveyor-general of the land revenues of the crown for the time being, who shall certify by reports in writing under their hands what in their judgment is the annual value of the respective estates by them surveyed, clear of all taxes, &c.; and where the greatest part of the value thereof consists of the buildings thereon, or of ground appropriated for building, they shall certify the true annual value of the respective buildings or land clear of all contributions to building or repairing party-walls and of all other repairs, and also of all taxes or repairs soever; and what then appears to be the true state of such buildings in point of repair, and for what term it appears to be most beneficial for the crown to grant such buildings and ground respectively, and to every such survey and estimate shall be annexed the oath of such surveyor taken and subscribed before any justice, that he has faithfully and truly executed his duty, both which shall then be filed in the proper office for depositing the same, 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 8. [The form of oath annexed to this section seems unnecessary to be inserted here.]

49. Where any tenements or hereditaments, of which a lease or grant may be applied for, are of a fixed and unimprovable value, or where the nature or annual value thereof cannot be known by means of such survey, or where the known value is too inconsiderable to incur the expence of surveying the same, a lease thereof may be granted or renewed without causing such survey to be made, if the treasury shall so direct, id. s. 9.

50. The surveyor-general of crown-land revenues may contract for the sale of any fee farm rents, rents-services and seck, chasntry, castle-guard, vicontial, and other dry and unimprovable rents, unimproved of under 20 G. 3. c. 87. s. 12. & 30 G. 3. c. 30. Exp. (except quit and copyhold rents standing in charge as parcel of any manor) due to H. M. in Eng. or Wa. within survey and receipt of exchequer, at the best prices to he obtained and approved by the treasury, not being less than the rates fixed by (26 G. 3. c. 87.) 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 10.

51. The bank of Eng. shall open an account in their books entitled "An Account of the Sale of Fee-farm Rents," and carry to its credit the purchase-money paid in for the same under this act, and when the said surveyor-general [commissioners, pl. 93.] shall have contracted for sale of any rents, he shall grant the purchasers a certificate, specifying the rent so contracted for, and the amount of purchase-money thereof; and the cashiers of the bank shall, on production thereof, receive the money, and (gratis) acknowledge its receipt, at the foot or back of such certificate, which shall then be brought to the office of the respective auditors of land-revenue, and there enrolled in proper and separate books, and attested by such auditor, who shall then return them to the purchaser, who shall then be taken to be in actual and free possession of the rents purchased, with all the powers given to purchasers of rents, (by 22 C. 2. c. 6., 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 24.), id. s. 11.

52. The certificates so to be granted shall be witnessed and attested to the surveyor-general's [commissioners, pl. 93.] signature, by some principal clerk, &c. in his office, and the cashier's receipts, when enrolled as in s. 11., shall discharge the purchasers from all questions soever therein, id. s. 12., [the forms of these certificates and receipts are annexed to this section.]

53. The certificates and receipts hereby directed to be given, shall be made and enrolled at the expence of those requiring them, with such fees, (exclusive of stamps, parchment, and writing,) as the treasury shall establish in proportion to the value of the rents sold, but not exceeding 20s. for any one rent, and if for more rents than one, a further fee shall be taken for each, not exceeding one-fourth of that taken for the highest rent included in such certificate; and the like fees only shall be taken for enrolment of the said certificates and receipts, to be distributed among the clerks, as the surveyor-general shall direct, id. s. 13.

54. Where the consideration money contracted to be paid for any purchase or discharge soever authorised by this act, exceeds 10l., the certificate of the surveyor-general [commissioners, pl. 93.] shall be written on parchment stamped, as by law required for common conveyances of lands, without any stamp for the cashier's receipt; and if less than 10l. may be written on parchment, without other stamp-duty than that by law requisite for cashier's receipt; and so if the purchase money is to be paid by the owners of the lands, &c. to any purchaser of the rents, id. s. 14.

55. If any persons with whom the surveyor-general [commissioners, pl. 93.] shall contract for any of the rents, by this act authorised to be sold or extinguished, shall neglect to procure such certificate; to pay the purchase-money into the bank; or to enrol the certificate and cashier's receipt (as in s. 12., &c.) for 14 days from the date of the contract, the same shall be void, and the consideration money, if paid into the bank, forfeited, unless he order enrolment to be made nunc pro tunc, id. s. 15.

56. The money so paid into the bank on account of the sale of fee-farm rents shall, from time to time, be laid out by order of the surveyor-general [commissioners, pl. 93.] in the purchase of 3 per cent. consols, in the name of the treasury, in which name the bank are required to permit transfers to be made of the annuities or stock purchased, and to be accepted by such surveyor-general, in the name of the treasury, in whom they shall be vested, and shall not be transferable without authority of parliament, but all the interests of the annuities, &c. shall be from time to time paid by the bank into the hands of the appointee of the treasury, and shall, under this act, be taken to be part of the land-revenues of the crown, and applied as such, id. s. 16.

57. The surveyor-general [commissioners, pl. 93.] of crown-lands, with consent of treasury, shall have the same power to compound for arrears of any such rents as the commissioners by 26 G. 3. c. 87. s. 12., and 30 G. 3. c. 80., id. s. 17.

58. In all cases where any such lease or grant may be renewed under either act, H. M., his heirs, &c. on surrender thereof, may grant new leases of the same lands, &c. in parcels for such term, and on the same conditions, as if the same had been renewed under either act, and had not been previously surrendered, 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 19., 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 7., altering in part 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 19.

59. All expences of any new lease made on such surrender as above, shall be paid by the lessees, 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 8.

60. This act shall not extend to any lands, tenements, or hereditaments within the order and survey of the chancellor and council of the duchy of Lancaster, or to any rents thereof, or to any leases under the seals of the duchy and county palatine, or either of them, but all the lands, &c. of the duchy may be granted and demised as before this act, 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 20.

61. The surveyor-general [commissioners, pl. 93.] shall, in 30 days after the commencement of the session of parliament in every third year after 1797, report in writing under his hand and seal to H. M., and both houses, what leases or grants have been made of such land-revenue since his last report, for what terms they are made, and the annual value of the tenements and hereditaments comprized in every such lease as returned on oath of the surveyor, as in s. 12., and the annual value by the last preceding survey, (if the same is in the power of the surveyor-general,) the rents, fines, and other consideration thereof; and (as far as can be) those paid on the last preceding grant thereof, and the amount of all fee-farm and other fixed rents sold under this act within the like period, and of the purchase money, and 3 per cents. purchased, and every thing else which he may think necessary to be set forth therein, 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 21.

62. TO IMPROVE THE LAND REVENUE OF THE CROWN in Eng. and also of H. M.'s duchy of Lancaster, 48 G. 3. c. 73. ss. 1—6. 9—18. 20. 27—30. [AMD. as to s. 1. by 52 G. 3. c. 161. ss. 1—3., as to s. 6. 50 G. 3. c. 65. s. 9., as to ss. 10, 11. by 54 G. 3. c. 70. ss. 11, 12., as to s. 28. by 52 G. 3. c. 161. s. 2., and 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 52. s. 4.]

63. Where any land belonging to H. M. within the order and survey of exchequer, and of the duchy of Lancaster, shall, by the treasury or chancellor and council of that duchy, be deemed proper for gardens, yards, curtilages, and other appurtenances to be enjoyed with any houses, &c. erected, or to be erected on ground belonging either to H. M. or to any other proprietors, [for for any purpose calculated for accommodation to the occupiers of such houses, 52 G. 3. c. 161. s. 3.] H. M., his heirs, &c. may demise or grant the same to any person or body politic or corporate under the great seal, or the seal of exchequer, or that of the duchy and county palatine of Lancaster for not exceeding 99 years, computed from the date of the lease, or if such lease or grant be made to take effect in reversion or expectancy, then the term and estate thereby to be granted, with that in possession of the same lands, shall not exceed such 99 years, 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 1., 52 G. 3. c. 161. s. 3. [But see the present more simple mode of leasing by the crown, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 52. s. 1., infra, pl. 175.]

64. The demise of such land, for the accommodation of lessees of the above houses, shall be made with all the powers thought requisite for effecting the object thereof, always reserving such annual rent as the treasury or chancellor and council of the duchy shall deem proper, without taking fine for the same, 52 G. 3. c. 161. s. 3.

65. Where any land belonging to H. M., his heirs, &c. within the duchy of Lancaster, is fit for erection of houses or other buildings thereon, or for necessary gardens, yards, and appurtenances to be used therewith, and by order of the chancellor, &c. as in pl. 64. is directed to be reserved for that use; or where the lessee or grantee shall covenant to erect buildings of greater yearly value than the land so leased or granted; or where the greatest part of the yearly value of any tenements or hereditaments belonging to H. M. doth at the time of grant consist of buildings thereon, H. M., his heirs, &c. may demise or grant the land so directed to be set apart, or the tenement, &c. above described, to any person or body politic or corporate under the duchy seal, for any term not exceeding 99 years, or 3 lives, to be computed as in 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 1. pl. 63. and subject to the following rents; viz. where there is any substantial building on the ground demised, or if the buildings thereon shall not require or be intended to be rebuilt, there shall be reserved to H. M., &c. an annual rent of not less than 2-3ds of such annual sum as such chancellor, &c. shall deem a reasonable rent for such buildings and ground respectively for the intended term, and a fine to the amount of the remainder of such annual sum shall be paid to H. M., subject to a discount at no higher rate than the highest legal interest at the time of making such lease; and when there shall be no such substantial building on the land demised, or the buildings thereon require or are intended to be rebuilt, or other new buildings to be erected thereon, such annual rents shall be reserved as are deemed by such chancellor, &c. a reasonable consideration for the intended term, without taking any fine; and in every lease of such land or buildings of the last-mentioned sort, shall be contained a covenant by the lessee, for erecting proper and substantial houses or buildings thereon within a reasonable time limited, and such other covenants to repair as shall be so deemed reasonable; and all such rents shall be reserved clear of taxes during the whole term, except such rent or part thereof, for not exceeding 3 years during such part of such term as the chancellor, &c. may think fit to be allowed; and every lessee shall sign a counterpart of his lease; which leases so made shall be valid, notwithstanding 1 A. 3. 1. c. 7. s. 6., which is repealed, as far as it is contrary to this act, 52 G. 3. c. 161. s. 1.

66. No land for such gardens, yards, or appurtenances, to be used with any houses or buildings holden under any lease from H. M. or his predecessors, shall be granted or demised for a longer term than that for which such houses are holden, 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 2.

67. No lease of crown lands within the order and survey of the exchequer in Eng., shall in future be granted for life or lives, id. s. 3.

68. Crown leases of such gardens (as in s. 1.) granted under this act, may be renewed as the leases of houses may, under 34 G. 3. c. 75. ss. 5—6., pl. 43. 45., and where used with any houses under lease from the crown, the leases of both may be renewed for the same term and on like conditions, 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 4.

69. Whenever lands or grounds, or part of any lands, &c. held under any lease or grant from H. M., or his predecessors, are deemed fit for gardens, &c. (as in s. 1.) then at any time during the continuance of the demise, the lease, &c. may be renewed under the conditions in s. 1. &c. id. s. 5.

70. The surveyor-general, [now the commissioners of woods, forests, and land-revenue, 50 G. 3. c. 65. s. 1.] with consent or by direction of treasury, may contract with any persons holding any lands, tenements, or hereditaments belonging to the crown, for the surrender or purchase of any lease, or buying up the remainder of the term of any lease of any crown lands, tenements, or hereditaments, convenient for the public service, and eligible to be purchased, and to pay the purchase-money out of any produce of sales of crown property made and vested in the 3 per cent. consols, id. s. 6.

71. The commissioners may from time to time sell and transfer any of the consolidated bank annuities in 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 6. mentioned, and convert the same into money in order to pay such purchase-money; and the bank shall permit transfers thereof to be from time to time made, under the hand of one or more commissioners, provided a note in writing under the hands of at least two of them, specifying the sum to be raised, and the purpose for which applied, is delivered to the governor and company 3 days before the transfer is made, which note shall be sufficient authority to the bank for the transfer, 50 G. 3. c. 65. s. 9.

72. Where the enrolment of any lease, or assignment, or minute, or docket thereof before the auditor of land revenue, or the auditors of the duchy of Lancaster, or the entry, minute, or docket of any lease or assignment in either of their offices has been omitted beyond the period limited in such lease, the chancellor of the duchy, or the surveyor-general, on reasonable cause shewn, may authorize nunc pro tunc enrolments, entries, or dockets of such leases, 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 9.

73. [In order to effectuate the provisions of 38 G. 3. c. 60. and 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 131., &c. for redemption of land tax on the crown lands of the duchy of Lancaster,] the chancellor and council of the duchy may sell, grant, and assure in the name of H. M. under the duchy seal, such manors or lordships belonging to the crown within survey of the duchy as consist of the manerial rights without any, or with very little land belonging to them, and where the greater part of the land over which they extend is the property of individuals; and such manors or lands of which H. M. is not sole proprietor, but joint owner of an undivided share with other persons, or which are intermixed with the property of individuals, and lying remote from other crown property; and of ground or buildings usually held with any castle, &c. now used for a common gaol, or with any assize, sessions, or other court or gaoler's house, or in which magistrates may claim rights from length of enjoyment for public purposes of any county or district, and such tithes belonging to the crown issuing from lands the property of individuals, and mills, fisheries, ferries, tolls, stalls of markets, &c., and wastes belonging to the crown within the duchy survey encroached on by individuals, for the best prices to be paid to the duchy receiver-general under the recited acts, 46 G. 3. c. 73. s. 10.

74. The treasury shall by warrant ascertain and declare what lands are comprised in the 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 10., and are thereby made saleable under denomination of lands dispersed in small quantities, and intermixed with the property of individuals, and lying remote from other crown property, 54 G. 3. c. 70. s. 11.

75. The surveyor-general [commissioners, pl. 93.] may, from time to time, sell the like property as in pl. 75. (adding mooring-chains and not mentioning tolls, or stalls of markets, &c.) [within the survey of the exchequer in Eng. senble from the recital] for the best price: to be paid into the bank to the account of the treasury as the produce of the sales of land revenue authorised by the acts recited in s. 10., such sales being also made according to the provisions of those acts, 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 11.

76. The monies arising from sale of the crown property described in 48 G. 3. c. 73. ss. 10.—11. [ante, pl. 73. 75.] shall be paid into the bank, and placed to the account of the commissioners of H. M.'s woods, forests, and land revenue, [see 50 G. 3. c. 65. s. 1. pl. 93.] being the "navy timber nursery fund" account, and shall be applied for like purposes with other monies paid into that account, 54 G. 3. c. 70. s. 12.

77. The produce of sales of the duchy and crown lands under the acts mentioned in s. 10. ante, pl. 75. or this act, (except as relating to the sales in s. 12. next pl.) shall be invested in 3 per cent. stock, applicable as stock under the land-tax redemption acts in s. 10., 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 12.

78. The surveyor-general [commissioners, pl. 93.] may contract with any tenants of copyhold or customary tenements, parcel or holden of a crown manor within survey of exchequer in Eng. for the enfranchisement thereof, or with any persons, (not being such tenants) for sale of the manerial rights of the crown therein, at the best prices approved by the treasury; and the tenements so agreed to be enfranchised, or on which the manerial rights are contracted for, and the consideration to be paid, shall be specified in a certificate granted for that purpose, and shall be accepted, and a receipt for the same shall be given, and enrolment thereof made and attested as in 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 11., &c. contained; which certificate and receipt shall be enrolled and attested by the steward of the manor, or his deputy, in the court rolls of the manor, and returned to the purchaser; after which enrolments, the tenements included therein shall be enfranchised, and the tenants thereof hold the same freed from all claims by H. M. or any claimant under him, as lords of the manor; and the purchasers of any such manorial right shall be taken to be in actual possession thereof, free from all such claims, 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 3.; but no such contract shall be made unless by special treasury warrant, id. s. 14.

79. The purchase money for such enfranchisement or purchase of manerial rights shall, from time to time, be paid into the bank of Eng. to the account of the lord high treasurer for enfranchisement of copyholds of crown manors, and shall be invested in 3 per cent. stocks in his name by order of the surveyor-general, (who may make drafts on the bank for that purpose under regulations of 34 G. 3. c. 75. s. 16. pl. 56.) but the accounts shall be distinct from those of the sales made under that act, id. s. 15.

80. A certificate of purchase shall be given by the surveyor-general to purchasers, specifying the premises agreed, to be enfranchised or sold, and the amount of purchase-money, which shall be paid in 30 days from the date of the certificate, on production whereof the bank cashier shall accept the money, and without fee acknowledge such receipt thereon; which certificates and receipts shall be subject to no other stamp duty than that by law required on the latter, and shall be a sufficient conveyance, id. s. 16. [The form of this receipt is annexed to this section.]

81. All provisions contained in 34 G. 3. c. 75. and in force before passing this act, with respect to sales of fee-farm rents, and the certificates and receipts relating thereto authorized by that act, shall extend to this act as far as applicable, and not altered by it, id. s. 17.

82. No contracts for sale or leases made under 26 G. 3. c. 87., 30 G. 3. c. 50., or 34 G. 3. c. 75. shall be void for want of proper stamps, and all future contracts for enfranchisement of copyhold or sale of manerial rights under this act, or of fee-farm rents, or other hereditaments of the crown within the order and survey of exchequer, or leases or grants made under this act, or 34 G. 3. c. 75. shall be exempt from stamp duties, id. s. 18. and see pl. 119.

83. The surveyor-general may sell the rights and interests of the crown in the forest of Brecknock, with approbation of treasury, under the regulations of this act as to crown lands, id. s. 27.

84. Where any new buildings are erected, or agreed to be erected on crown land within survey of the chancellor and council of the duchy, or of the surveyor-general, [commissioners, pl. 93.] or held under any crown lease for enlargement of, and to be united to, and occupied with any house or building held under any other crown lease, new leases may be granted for not exceeding 99 years, as well of the ground on which such edifice is erected, or agreed to be erected, as of all the other tenements and hereditaments contained therein, provided that the greater part of their annual value consists of the buildings thereon, or of ground set apart for building, or for necessary gardens, &c. (as in s. 1.) id. s. 20.

85. When it appears to the chancellor and council of the duchy, or to the surveyor-general [commissioners of woods and forests, pl. 93.] that it would be advantageous to the land revenue of the crown to exchange any crown lands for other lands of equal, or nearly equal value, the surveyor-general of the duchy and the said surveyor-general may cause the value of both lands to be ascertained by some surveyor, who shall annex to his valuation thereof his oath, taken before any justice, for the faithful execution of his duty therein, [and see 59 G. 3. c. 161. s. 6. same oath] which oath, &c. so taken and subscribed, shall be filed with the survey and estimate in the office of the said surveyor-general, or clerk of the council of the duchy; and the said surveyor-general shall report to the treasury, or if surveyor-general of the duchy, to the chancellor and council thereof, the grounds of his recommendation of the exchange, with the valuation; and if they approve thereof, they shall authorise such surveyor-general, &c. to carry it into effect on certain conditions, if assented to by the exchanging party; and the lands exchanged shall be mutually conveyed, and vest in the parties, id. s. 28. and see three next placita.

86. [Doubts having arisen respecting the form of conveyance in cases of exchange under 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 28.]

87. Whenever it appears to the chancellor and council of the duchy that such exchange can be effected with advantage to H. M., his heirs, &c. according to that act, such chancellor, &c. may convey to the other exchanging parties any tenements or hereditaments, parcel of the duchy or county palatine, in the name of H. M., his heirs, and successors, under seal of such duchy, &c.; and such other parties shall at the same time convey to such chancellor, &c. in trust for H. M. in right of such duchy, &c. the parcel of land so to be given in exchange; and the lands exchanged shall accordingly vest in H. M. and such parties respectively subject to the same application to which the lands so mutually conveyed in exchange previously were, 52 G. 3. c. 161. s. 3.

88. "Further doubts having arisen as to the power of exchanging crown property in perpetuity for lands or hereditaments held by the exchanging parties for any partial estate, term of years, or chattel interest," it is enacted, that the commissioners of woods and forests, [appointed in lieu of surveyor-general, 50 G. 3. c. 65. s. 1.] with approbation of any 3 or more commissioners of treasury, may convey any of the crown possessions in Eng. or Wa. within the survey and order of exchequer, in perpetuity or otherwise, in exchange for any messuages, lands, or hereditaments in Eng. or Wa. held by the persons making the same for any partial estate or interest, or for any term of years or chattel interest where the reversion or remainder of such hereditaments expectant on the determination of such partial estate, &c. is immediately or ultimately in the crown: all which exchanges shall be made and carried into effect in the like manner, as near as circumstances admit, as the exchanges authorized by 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 28. pl. 85, and all sums to be paid or received for equality of exchange shall be paid, received, or applied as monies paid, &c. for the like purpose, on any exchanges made under that act; and all deeds, &c. relating to such exchanges shall be exempt from stamp duties: and in making exchanges, the lands or possessions of H.M. so to be given in exchange shall be vested in the person to whom they are conveyed for such estates, uses, trusts, or purposes, as by such deeds, or reference therein to any other deeds expressed concerning the same, and the hereditaments given, or taken in exchange for the same shall vest in H.M. his heirs, or successors, or in the person to whom they are conveyed in trust for H.M. in right of his crown, for all the estate and interest of the person making such exchange, or for so much or such part thereof as are agreed or intended to be conveyed to or in trust for H.M. on the treaty for such exchange: and all such exchanges shall be valid, any law notwithstanding, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 52. s. 4. [As to enrolment in auditor's office of such deeds of exchange see s. 8. infra, pl. 180.]

89. The treasury or chancellor of the duchy may direct the payment or acceptance on behalf of H.M. of such sum of money for equalizing any such exchange, as shall be agreed on between the said chancellor and council, or surveyor-general, and the exchanging parties; such payment to be made out of the land revenue of the crown or revenues of the duchy, and where any sum amounting to 50*l.* shall be paid to H.M. for equalizing such exchange, it shall be vested in the 3 per cents. in the name of the lord high-treasurer, and the dividends applicable as land-revenue; and if not amounting to that sum, shall be appropriated as land-revenue under the direction of the treasury, or if paid to H.M. in right of the duchy, it shall be placed out in the 3 per cents. according to the directions of the act (in s. 10.), 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 29.

90. The chancellor and council of the duchy, or surveyor-general [commissioners, pl. 95.] may act for H.M., as well in making as accepting conveyances of such exchanged lands, [and for the form of conveyance from H.M. to the party, and that to H.M. from the party, see APPENDIX.] neither instrument being liable to stamp duty, id. s. 30.

91. FOR FURTHER IMPROVEMENT OF THE LAND-REVENUE OF THE CROWN, 54 G. 3. c. 70. ss. 1—10. 13—46. and schedules. [This act (except ss. 11, 12, 47, see ante, pl. 74. 76. 119.) appears of too exclusively a personal and local nature to be inserted at length; but the title is here given to afford a reference to its provisions, which are important, though confined in extent.]

92. FOR UNITING THE OFFICES OF SURVEYOR-GENERAL OF THE LAND-REVENUES OF THE CROWN, AND SURVEYOR-GENERAL OF H.M.'S WOODS, FORESTS, PARKS, AND CHASES, 50 G. 3. c. 65. [EXT. 52 G. 3. c. 161. s. 23.]

93. H.M. may appoint not exceeding 3 persons to be commissioners for executing the offices of surveyor-general of land-revenue in Eng. and Wa., and of surveyor-general of woods north and south of Trent, within the survey and government of exchequer, and the business of these offices by whatever names they are or have been denominated in patents statutes, &c. shall be jointly managed by such commissioners, not being less than 2 or more than 3 at any one time, and they shall be called, "The commissioners of H.M.'s woods, forests, and land-revenues," and all acts done by them or two of them, (or where directed by the treasury) by one of them (as in s. 3.) shall be as valid as if done by such surveyors-general, &c. and all sales, conveyances, purchases, [drafts on the bank of Eng. (but see s. 3.)] orders, and directions, which may or ought to be made, performed, or exercised by such surveyors-general, &c. shall be made, &c. by such commissioners, 2 or, if directed as in s. 3., one of them, 50 G. 3. c. 65. s. 1.

94. The commissioners shall observe the directions of the treasury, not being contrary to this act, concerning the execution of their office and the division of its business among them, id. s. 2.

95. The treasury may by warrant direct all or any of the things by this act required to be done by or to all or 2 at least of such commissioners, [drafts on the bank of Eng., and orders for sale of stock standing in their books only excepted,] to be done by or to one only, id. s. 5.

96. The forms of all matters in writing soever made by or to the commissioners, shall be made according to the forms prescribed by statute, substituting the title of the commissioners (as in s. 1.) for that of the surveyor-general, &c. and the seals and signatures, or seal, &c. of any two or one (if directed as in s. 3.) shall be as valid, and the certificates and reports required to be made by such surveyor-general, &c. shall be made by any 2 or one (as in s. 3.) of them, 50 G. 3. c. 65. s. 4.

97. Each commissioner shall, before acting, take an oath before any baron of exchequer for faithful execution of his office, and that he will on no account accept any emolument beyond his salary, id. s. 5. [The form of oath is annexed to this section.]

98. The salary of the first commissioner, being chairman, is 3000*l.* per ann. that of the others 1200*l.* per ann. each, clear of deductions, and in lieu of all emoluments formerly paid to the surveyors-general; one moiety thereof being paid as the salary of each surveyor-general has been formerly paid; and the whole shall commence from the date of their appointment, and be received by quarterly payments; and if any commissioner shall die or be removed after such days of payment, his salary shall be computed by the day, and paid up to the time of the vacancy, id. s. 6.

99. All fees and emoluments soever heretofore received by the surveyors-general (except fees usually paid on assignment of leases, and on searches for, and copies of leases, or other documents in commissioners' custody) shall be abolished, and the fees here excepted shall be accounted for by the commissioners, as was used by the surveyor-general of land-revenue, id. s. 7.

100. The old officers shall be continued, and any 2 or 1 (as in s. 3.) of the commissioners may appoint and remove those heretofore usually appointed by the surveyors-general; which officers shall receive such salaries as are directed by the treasury, payable quarterly on the 4 most usual rent-days, id. s. 8.

101. Every officer appointed to any office under the commissioners shall take an oath faithfully to perform his office without other fee or emolument than his salary; which oath shall be administered by 1 or more of the commissioners, or by a justice of peace or magistrate, if the commissioner desires it, id. s. 10. [The form of oath is annexed to this section.]

102. All surveys, returns, estimates, accounts, and other things soever, which any person is by law required to transmit or deliver to the surveyor-general of land-revenue, or to the surveyor-general of woods and forests, shall be delivered to the said commissioners in the prescribed time and manner, and the commissioners or 1 of them may receive a verification, and take an examination on oath concerning the matters of such surveys, &c. wherein such surveyors-general [reciting their titles] were authorized to do, [viz. take the same] and perjury therein shall be punished as such, id. s. 11.

103. Any 1 commissioner may, in like manner, receive verifications, and take examinations on oath from any officer employed in conducting any surveys, reports, estimates, accounts, or other things concerning the land revenue; and in case of perjury, shall be liable to the punishments thereof, 52 G. 3. c. 161. s. 23. [This appears an unnecessary provision, for both surveyors-general are mentioned in 50 G. 3. c. 65. s. 11.]

104. The balance due from the bank on the account of the surveyor-general of woods and forests, under 49 G. 3. c. 142. s. 7., shall be placed to an account intitled, "the account of the public monies of the commissioners of H.M.'s woods, forests, and land-revenue, being The Woods and Forests' Fund," and shall be at the disposal of the commissioners; and money received on account of revenue formerly under management of surveyor-general of woods, shall, in 2 days after receipt, be paid by the commissioners into the bank, whose cashier's receipt shall be sufficient discharge, and all such monies, &c. so to be paid to the bank shall be placed to the above account, 50 G. 3. c. 65. s. 12.

105. The commissioners may reserve out of the produce of the revenue heretofore under management of the surveyor-general of woods, for casual and ordinary payments, in the hands of any private banker nominated by the treasury, not exceeding 3000*l.*, to be drawn for by any 2 or 1 commissioner, as may be directed by treasury, and if the sum so received is reduced below 3000*l.*, any 2 or more commissioners may make up the same by draft on the bank, id. s. 13.

106. The commissioners shall make all required payments out of the monies deposited in the bank by drafts of any 2 of them thereon, and shall specify in such draft the particular service, salary, or other cause, for which it is given, and every such draft shall have marked on the margin a figure corresponding to the page in a book to be kept by the commissioners, wherein shall be entered the particular service, &c. id. s. 14.

107. All drafts drawn pursuant to this act, shall be sufficient authority to the bank to pay the amount to the payee or bearer, id. s. 15.

108. On the death, resignation, or removal of any one of the commissioners, being 3 in number, the balance of cash, with all unpaid bills and drafts, shall actually rest in the 2 surviving commissioners in trust for H.M.'s service, and forthwith be carried over, and placed to their account, to be applied as in s. 14.; on the death, &c. of one commissioner, there being only 2 in number, the like balance of cash (as 1000 as a new commissioner is appointed, so as to make not less than 2.) shall vest in them, and they shall issue their drafts under the hands of any 2 or more of them for all unsatisfied demands on account of H. M.'s service, though accruing in the time of any former commissioner, 50 G. 3. c. 65. s. 16.

109. The commissioners shall keep account with the bank of all monies issued for H. M.'s service, and whilst observing the regulations of this act, shall not be answerable collectively or individually for any money so paid into the bank, which latter shall be answerable for all the monies actually received by them from the commons, id. s. 17.

110. Every person, who shall knowingly and wilfully forge, or counterfeit, or act, or assist in forging, &c. the name or hand-writing of either of such commissioners to any draft, instrument, or writing soever, in order to receiving any of the money in the hands of the bank on account of the commissioners, or shall forge, &c. (as above) any draft, instrument, or writing in form of a draft, made by the commissioners, or shall utter or publish any such, knowing the same to be forged with intent to defraud the bank or any person soever, is guilty of felony without clergy, id. s. 18.

111. The first named commissioner shall receive and send letters and packets free from postage, subject to 4 G. 3. c. 24. and 42 G. 3. c. 63, id. s. 19. and shall be deemed one of the persons authorized to act in execution of all letters patent, wherein the surveyor-general of woods is appointed to act, and shall so act in lieu of him, id. s. 20.

112. Any such commissioner may be elected, and may sit and vote as a member of the house of commons, but only one of them may so sit, &c. at one time, id. s. 21.

113. TO REGULATE THE MANAGEMENT OF THE FORESTAL RIGHTS of the crown, 52 G. 3. c. 161. (ss. 5—18., 20—22. 24. AND. 54 G. 3. c. 70. s. 47.) [Framed to show the general object of these sections.]

114. All powers given by this act to the commissioners of woods, forests, and land-revenues, may be exercised by any 2 of them, id. s. 24.

115. If it appears to the treasury on report of the said commissioners, or of the surveyor-general of woods and forests for the time being, that any small parcels of land, not exceeding 1000*l.* value, in any of the royal forests, are intermixed with, adjoin, or are convenient to or surrounded by the lands of individuals, and are of little or no value to the crown for growth of timber, either by inclosure and planting, or otherwise, any 3 commissioners of the treasury may authorize the said commissioners, or the surveyor-general of woods and forests, to contract on behalf of H. M., his heirs and successors, with the person whose lands are so intermixed, &c. for sale thereof; and shall make good conveyance thereof, for the prices certified by them to the treasury as just; in no case to be under the value set thereon by the surveyor employed as in s. 6., and to be paid to such commissioners or surveyor-general, and accounted for by them as hereinafter specified, and the conveyance shall be as in schedule (C), id. s. 5.

116. In order to secure a just price to be set on the lands of the crown, and of individuals to be given in exchange, and on the crown lands to be sold under this act, the same shall, in every instance, be valued by an able practical surveyor, appointed by the said commissioners or surveyor-general on behalf of H. M., who shall certify by report in writing under his hand, what is in his judgment the true worth of the lands and premises by him surveyed, clear of all taxes, &c. annexing to such valuation the oath (or affirmation if a Quaker) before any one such commissioner, or surveyor-general, or before a justice of the county, of the faithful execution of his duty, in form as in 48 G. 3. c. 73. s. 28. ante, pl. 85., which being so taken and subscribed, shall be filed with the survey and estimate in the proper office, id. s. 6.

117. Whenever application is made by any person to such commissioners or surveyor-general for leave to make any railway, tram-road, or inclined plane, or to build any fire or steam engine, (in order to raise the produce of mines, quarries, &c. within H. M.'s forests, and to carry off the water therefrom,) and it appears to them, that it would be for public advantage, and not detrimental to the interest of the crown, that such railway, &c. fire or steam engine should be made or erected, the treasury may authorize the said commissioners or surveyor-general to grant a lease [see form Schedule D.] for not exceeding 31 years, of such part of the royal forests as are necessary for making the same with a licence in such lease to make them under such restrictions, for such yearly rent, and on such terms as to them seem expedient, provided that no such lease or licence for such purpose is granted in any case, where its use would interfere or prove inconsistent with the rights vested in either of the railway companies established by 49 G. 3. c. clviii. or cliv. in the forest of Dean, without their previous consent, id. s. 7.

118. In case of any purprestures or encroachments situate in parts of any of the forests fit for the growth of timber, which appear to have been enclosed, or used and occupied by the person then in possession, or by some one, of whom they are then claimed to be held, without effectual interruption by H. M. for not less than 10 years, and where expence appears to have been incurred in improvements by erection of buildings, &c. and the claimant or occupier has relinquished on notice, the said commissioners or surveyor-general, with authority of the treasury, may make such compensation in money for such relinquishment, &c. as is by them deemed reasonable under the circumstances, or may grant a lease of some other part of the forests situate on their borders, not deemed fit for growth of timber, or likely to interfere with plantations to be made for that purpose, for such time not exceeding 31 years, as will afford such reasonable compensation; reserving to H. M. such annual rent, as, under the circumstances, may be deemed reasonable, 52 G. 3. c. 161. s. 8.

119. Where encroachments have been made 20 years before passing this act (and not abated or presented at any forest court), on the borders of any such forests, or parts thereof, not adapted for growth of timber, or likely to interfere with plantation, and the person in possession is desirous to retain possession under a lease, the said commissioners, or surveyor-general, by authority of treasury, may grant such leases for not exceeding 31 years, under such annual rent and covenants as shall by them be deemed reasonable; to be in form as in Sch. (D), without fee or other charge, except the actual expenses for writing and engrossing it; id. s. 9. [Such leases and counterparts thereof shall be free of stamp-duty, 54 G. 3. c. 70. s. 47.]

120. Every agreement, deed, and lease hereby authorized, with a map of the land thereby exchanged, sold, or demised, shall be enrolled in the land-revenue auditor's office, and a minute or docket thereof entered in the woods and forests commissioners' or surveyor-general's office; after which enrolment or entry H. M., his heirs, &c., shall be deemed in actual possession of any lands and premises taken in exchange; and the party with whom the exchange is made, or to whom such land is sold, shall hold and enjoy the lands, &c. so given in exchange, subject to the same tenure, charges, and rights to which that taken in exchange was previously legally subject, but freed from every claim or right of the crown, except any incident to tenure, and from all common rights soever, id. s. 10.

121. All unlawful enclosures, encroachments, and trespasses, wilfully made upon any of the royal forests, or wilfully held by any subsequent occupier thereof (except those demised, or for which any treaty for demise shall be pending between such commissioners and the pretended owner or actual occupier), may be enquired of by the verderors of the forest in the court of attachment thereof, and the persons guilty of making, continuing, and renewing the same, save as above, shall be prosecuted in such court; and on proof thereof on oath of 1 witness, any 2 verderors present at such court may fine any offender not exceeding 20*l.*, to be recovered as in s. 15., and direct such enclosure, &c. to be abated by the regarders, under foresters, keepers, or other officers, who shall abate the same accordingly; but if it is insisted by any person so proceeded against, that the locus in quo was not within the boundaries of the forest, or H. M.'s lands within the same, the verderors shall not proceed to conviction, but shall certify the presentment of such offence to H. M.'s attorney-general, that such proceeding may be had by information of intrusion, or otherwise, as before this act, id. s. 11.

122. Any two verderors, at any forestal court of attachment, may, by warrant under their hands and seals, appoint any person officer of such court or forest, for executing the judgments and orders of the court, who, during the time mentioned in the warrant, or till it is recalled, or their appointment revoked by the verderors, shall have full power to execute the judgments and orders of such forestal court by like means as any peace-officer may execute a justice's warrant; and such verderors may fix the fees to be taken by such officer, id. s. 12.

123. Every regarder, &c. (as in s. 1.) or other forest officer, within 1 calendar month next before holding the first annual court of attachments, and within a reasonable time before holding any other such court, shall carefully survey such part of the forests as are within their regard, cognizance, or walks therein, and shall take account of all unlawful encroachments and trespasses committed therein since, or unnoticed by any preceding survey, and shall at every attachment court, make true return and presentment of the above, and of such, which having been committed before the last survey, have not been abated, and at what time, and particular part of any such forests, and by whom committed, as far as they have ascertained the same; and every such regarder, &c. or other officer shall, at the making such presentment, make oath before the verderors (or one of them) that to the best of his knowledge, no other unlawful enclosure or trespass has been made or committed, or exists within his regard, &c. of the forest, id. s. 13.

124. Any 3 such verderors may, at attachment courts, enquire into the conduct of the regarders, &c. (as in s. 11.), and other forest-officers in their offices; and if they find, by proof on oath, that any such officer has wilfully made any false return or presentment, or hath concealed, or wilfully omitted to insert therein any unlawful enclosure, encroachment, or trespass, or to make the survey directed in s. 13., or hath been guilty of wilful neglect in the care of the timber, or other trees or bushes situate within his walk, in such forests, or in any other respect has wilfully omitted to perform his duty, may impose a fine not exceeding 10*l.*, on such officer, to be recovered and applied as in s. 15: and for the 2d offence he shall forfeit his office, and shall not be restored thereto without an order made by two verderors, at any attachment-court: and for a 3d offence, whereby his office is forfeited, shall be incapable of re-appointment thereto, or of holding any office in any royal forest, 53 G. 3. c. 161. s. 14.

125. All pecuniary penalties imposed, and fees authorised by this act, and not hereinbefore directed to be recovered in attachment-courts, may be recovered in a summary way before any justice for any county or place in which the offender shall be; and if any penalty so recovered before any such justice, verderors, or courts, or imposed by either of the latter, is not paid forthwith, such justice, or verderors, or courts, shall (by warrant under their hands and seals, and directed by such justice to any constable or peace-officer, and by such verderors to the proper officer to be appointed for any such forest as above,) cause the same to be levied by distress and sale of goods, with costs thereof, and for want of sufficient distress, may commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction, within such county or place, for six months, id. s. 15.

126. Nothing herein shall alter any rights enjoyed under any king's grant by letters patent of any office, bailiwick, walk or lodge, in any such forest, id. s. 16.

127. Nothing herein shall prevent H.M. from proceeding by information in exchequer, or from having recourse to any other existing law for punishment of the above offences, where such proceedings are deemed more advisable, id. s. 17.

128. All sums accruing either by penalties recovered under this act, or from sale of, or as rent for, any lands sold or demised by this act, shall be paid to the commissioners of woods, forests, &c. or surveyor-general thereof, to be by him paid into the bank, and applied and accounted for as in 46 G. 3. c. 142, id. s. 18.

129. No surveyor of highways, or other person, shall dig, or cause, &c. any stone, gravel, or other road-making materials from any H.M.'s forests, whereby any plantation or tree may be liable to injury, id. s. 20.

130. Nothing herein shall enable the said commissioners or surveyor-general to grant in exchange, or make sale of, any accustomed marl or gravel pits, or any bogs or lands from which peat has been usually gotten, situate within any such forests; or any lands, by exchange or sale of which the owners of any adjoining estates are deprived of their usual supply, id. s. 21.

131. Or to grant in exchange, or make sale of, any land within any such forest, so as to prevent commoners thereon from having access thereto to enjoy such rights, or prevent any persons from having access from such forests to any adjacent lands belonging to them, as fully as usual, id. s. 22.

132. TO ENABLE THE COMMISSIONERS OF WOODS, FORESTS, AND LAND REVENUES, to contract for the purchase and surrender of crown leases, and to sell H.M.'s interests in [the Thornhill estate, in Stall-bridge, co. Dorset, ss. 8—11. Local] certain small parcels of land belonging to H.M.'s subjects within the royal forests, and to remove doubts as to sales of such estates of H.M. by order of such commissioners being exempted from auction duty, 55 G. 3. c. 51.

133. Such commissioners, with consent of treasury, may contract with any persons or bodies politic holding any houses, buildings, lands, or hereditaments, belonging to the crown, for any term, under letters patent, lease, demise, or grant from the crown, for the purchase or surrender of such term, letters patent, lease, or grant, whether possession of the houses, &c. comprised therein is required for public service, or for other purposes, if the treasury deem them eligible to be bought, and may pay the price agreed on out of any money which may arise by sale of crown property under their control, id. s. 1.

134. All bodies politic or corporate, ecclesiastical or civil, and all executors or trustees; all tenants for life and in tail; guardians, trustees, or committees, or attorneys of such owners of the houses, &c. so proposed to be purchased, as shall be feme covert, infants, lunatics, idiots, or persons beyond seas, or otherwise incapable of acting for themselves, may contract with such commissioners, or other persons authorized on behalf of H.M., for sale of any such houses, &c., and may assign or surrender the same, and the subsisting terms therein, and letters patent, &c. under which the same are held, to such commissioners or persons in trust for H.M.; and such contract, assignment, &c. shall be as valid as if made by the person absolutely entitled to the same, and under no incapacity; and on execution of such assignment (and which shall be free from stamp duty), all the terms thereby assigned, &c. shall be merged and for ever extinguished in the freehold or inheritance of such premises; and all the houses, &c. comprised therein shall be vested in the crown for the residue of the term, freed from all rights of any person therein under any will, deed, settlement, or otherwise, id. s. 2.

135. Where any premises contracted to be sold are held in trust for any person under any such incapacity, or having a limited interest therein, the value thereof, and of the premises therein comprised, shall be ascertained by 2 land surveyors, 1 to be nominated by such commissioners with the approbation of the treasury, and the other by the contracting party; and in case such surveyors do not agree, they shall name a third, and each of them shall annex to his survey or estimate, when completed, an oath or affirmation, to be subscribed by him, and taken before and certified by any justice, of the faithful execution of his duty therein, and which shall be filed with such estimate in the office of such commissioners, and the price to be given for such purchase shall in no case be less than that at which the same is estimated, 55 G. 3. c. 51.

136. Money so agreed to be paid for purchase of any such terms, &c. (as in s. 1.) which shall belong to any corporation, feme covert, &c. (as in s. 3.) or other person under any incapacity or entitled only to particular estates therein, shall, if exceeding 200*l.*, be paid into the bank of Eng. and placed to the account of the accountant-general, ex parte the purchaser, without fee, in order to be applied, under direction of the court of chancery, to be made on petition in a summary way by the persons entitled to the rents and profits of such houses, &c. (as in s. 1.) comprised in any such term, or granted by any such letters patent, lease, &c. (as in s. 1.) to be conveyed and settled to the like uses as the houses, &c. so sold stood limited; and till such purchase is completed, such money shall, by order of the court, be vested in the name of such accountant in the 3 per cents. Red., and the produce thereof, till sold by order of such court, shall be paid to such persons so entitled to such rents, &c. in case the purchase is then made, id. s. 4.

137. But where such money so to be paid is less than 200*l.*, but exceeds 20*l.*, then the same may (at the option of the parties entitled to such rents, or their trustees, &c. signified by writing under their hands,) be paid into the bank in the name and with the privy of such accountant-general, and be placed to his account in order to be so applied, or the same may be paid to trustees (nominated by the party making the option and signified by writing under their hands,) to be approved by such commissioners in order to be applied as in s. 4. without direction of such court, id. s. 5.

138. But where such money is less than 20*l.*, then it may be applied to the use of the person entitled to the rents and profits of such houses, &c. (as in s. 7.) so contracted to be sold, or in case of infancy or lunacy, to their guardians or committees for their use, id. s. 6.

139. Where any question arises touching the title of any person to money so to be paid into the bank pursuant hereto, or to any stock purchased therewith, or the dividends thereof, the persons who were in possession of the houses, &c. (as in s. 1.) comprised in the term so purchased or surrendered, and all claimants under them, shall be deemed lawfully entitled to such premises, or to the receipt of such dividends until the contrary is shewn to the satisfaction of the court of chancery, and the dividends and capital of such stock shall be paid and applied accordingly, unless it appears to the court that such possession or receipt was wrongful, and that some other person was lawfully entitled to such terms, or to the houses, &c. confirmed therein, id. s. 7.

140. [Sections 8—11. are local, relating to the sale of H.M.'s interest in the Thornhill estate.]

141. Nothing in 17 G. 3. c. 50., 19 G. 3. c. 56., 43 G. 3. c. 69., 45 G. 3. c. 30., shall extend to any sale by auction of the estates or chattels belonging to H.M., and made by order of such commissioners, or to charge such sales or auctioneer by whom they are made, in respect thereof, with any duties by such act granted, id. s. 12.

142. FOR BETTER REGULATING THE OFFICES OF RECEIVERS OF CROWN RENTS, 56 G. 5. c. 16.

143. The letters patent of 3d June, 1793, whereby the bishop of Rochester was appointed receiver of crown rents for Essex, Hertford, Norfolk, and Huntingdon, shall cease from the date of any warrants appointing new receivers, and the appointment of all other receivers shall cease from the like time, id. s. 1.

144. A compensation shall be made to such bishop for the loss sustained by reason of his appointment being made void, and of the loss of the fees or emoluments incident thereto, when they shall respectively cease by any warrant or appointment made in pursuance of this act; the quantum of which compensation shall from time to time be referred to and ascertained by such person as the commissioners of woods, forests, and land revenues (with the approbation of treasury) shall appoint on the part of H.M., and by such indifferent person as shall be nominated on the part of the bishop, and in case the referees do not agree, then by such indifferent person as they shall, before they proceed to consideration of the matters, by writing under their hands, appoint to act as umpire, and such referees and umpire may send for persons and papers, and may examine witnesses upon oath if necessary, id. s. 2.

145. Like compensation may be made to other officers if the treasury see fit, id. s. 3.

146. The commissioners or surveyor-general shall, from time to time, when occasion shall require, with consent of treasury, appoint so many surveyors of lands or land stewards, or persons otherwise skilled in the management and cultivation of lands, and competent to superintendance thereof, as they shall think requisite to be receivers of the rents, issues, revenues and profits of the crown in Eng. or Wa., within the ordering of the exchequer; so as every such person so nominated shall be resident within the county, or any one county (if his appointment extends to 2 or more counties), or any district, for which he is so appointed, and not elsewhere, unless the commissioners or surveyor-general, with such consent, think it expedient to dispense with such residence; and every such appointment shall be by warrant (as in sch. A.) and exempt from stamp duty; and shall be enrolled within 1 calendar month after its date, in the office of the auditor or auditors of the land revenues for the county, hundred, or district comprised in such warrant, who shall, within 1 calendar month from the date of the enrolment, deliver to the receiver a perfect rental of the land revenue within the division of receipt of such receiver, 56 G. 3. c. 16. s. 4.

147. Every such receiver shall once in every year survey the estates, issues, rents, revenues, or profits in his collection (except such parts as are chargeable only with payment of a fee-farm, or quit-rent), and inspect the field books if any, kept by the lessees or occupiers, and which book every such lessee, &c. or other person having custody thereof, shall produce to the receiver on demand, and permit him to inspect the same; and he shall, within 2 calendar months after each survey, transmit to the said commissioner, &c. or surveyor-general, a true report in writing of the actual state of the premises, and of the cultivation thereof at the time of such survey, and how far the covenants under which they are then held have been observed, or whether they have been in any respects broken, and all such circumstances as shall come to his knowledge in the course of his survey, together with his opinion thereon; and if any alterations in the mode of managing such estates appear to him to be expedient, he shall state the same in such report, and his reasons, id. s. 5.

148. Every such receiver shall make up annually an account in writing of all sums become due to H. M., and which he shall have collected, and of all such payments, allowances, or deductions, as have been made thereout by him to any persons; the 1st of which shall be made up to 10th Oct. next ensuing the date of the warrant of appointment, and every succeeding account shall begin from the end of the former, and be made up to 10th Oct. in the following year; and every such receiver shall transmit such account within 6 calendar months after expiration of the day to which it ought to be made up, or at or within such other period as he shall be required, by notice in writing from the commissioners or surveyor-general, to transmit the same, id. s. 6.

149. Every such account, when so transmitted, shall be examined, checked, and inspected in the office of the said commissioners, or surveyor-general, and when approved, delivered over to the auditors of the district, who (or the persons to whom the duty of auditing such accounts shall then be transferred) shall, within 3 calendar months after receipt thereof examine, and when so examined, make up the same according to the form in which the accounts of the receivers have been used to be made up by the auditors for declaration; to be verified when so made up by the oath of every such receiver, before a baron of the coif, or cursor baron of exchequer, or any commissioner for taking affidavits in exchequer, or one of the commissioners of woods and land revenues, or the surveyor-general; and such auditors shall afterwards present the same account to the chancellor or under-treasurer, or one of the barons for declaration; and when so declared, and the balance (if any) paid according to the directions herein contained, a quietus from the auditors shall be made out to such receiver in the usual form, id. s. 7.

150. Every such receiver who shall wilfully forswear himself shall be prosecuted, and on conviction shall suffer the punishments of wilful and corrupt perjury, id. s. 8.

151. All balances due on the periodical making up of such accounts by the auditors, and all such sums as prior to ascertaining such balances are required to be paid on account thereof, either by any debentures or instruments in writing from the said auditors, in pursuance of any treasury warrant, or by any order in writing from the said commissioners, or surveyor-general, shall be paid over by such receiver to such persons, at such times or place, and in such manner as he shall be directed by any such debenture, instrument, or order, to pay the same; and in default of such direction, then to such persons, and in such manner, times, and places, as the receivers of land revenue were immediately before this act, by the statutes and usage in that behalf, bound to answer and pay the monies in their hands, id. s. 9.

152. Every such receiver shall be allowed 1-20th of all such monies by him received, for his trouble in collecting the same, and as a full recompence for all services performed, or such other compensation, not exceeding such 1-20th part, as the said commissioners, or surveyor-general, shall with consent of treasury direct, id. s. 10.

153. If any lessee or occupier of any possessions of the crown, the annual rent whereof exceeds 100*l.*, shall be in arrear for 3 calendar months, and after being applied to, either personally, or by letter from the receiver for payment; he shall be charged with interest for such arrear, at 5*l.* per cent. thereon, from the day at which each half-yearly payment became due, up to the day on which the same shall be paid, and such interest shall be added to the rent, and recovered by the same ways, 56 G. 3. c. 16. s. 11.

154. In case any receiver has received exceeding 500*l.*, and shall not within 1 calendar month after give notice in writing to the commissioners, or surveyor-general, he shall be charged with like interest from the day at which it shall have been received, until drawn out of his hands or paid over by him, id. s. 12.

155. Every receiver as aforesaid, by virtue of his appointment alone, may make distresses for rents in his collection, receipt, or management, id. s. 13.

156. Every such receiver shall, before he shall execute the office, or anywise intermeddle with the exercise thereof, enter into a bond in such penalty and with such sureties as the said commissioners or surveyor-general with consent of treasury shall require, for accounting for the rents and profits to be by him received, in the form prescribed by this act, exempt from stamp duty, and to have the effect of a statute staple to H. M., id. s. 14.

157. But during the life of the bishop of Rochester, this act shall not extend to any hereditaments in Middlesex or London, or to vacate the office of receiver of the revenues thereof held by said bishop, id. s. 15. and s. 4.

158. But after his decease, the regulations of this act shall extend to the possessions in Middlesex and London, id. s. 16.

159. Also this act shall not take away or diminish any of the fees which the auditors of land revenues have been used to take before it, id. s. 17.

160. FOR BETTER MANAGEMENT AND IMPROVEMENT OF CROWN land revenue, 57 G. 3. c. 97. ss. 3—9. and 22. 27. [the rest of the act is local, and ratifies an agreement between the commissioners of woods and forests, and lord Gage; settles several other local particulars, and regulates the sale of chief, fee-farm, and other rents belonging to W. H. White, a crown debtor.] The provisions of this act are not affected by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 52. but are subject to that act, without prejudice to leases granted pursuant thereto, id. s. 2. infra, pl. 176.]

161. The commissioners of woods, forests, and land revenues, may from time to time as advantageous purchases occur, with consent of treasury contract and purchase for and on behalf of H. M. his heirs and successors, any estates, lands, tenements, or hereditaments in fee-simple, or any copyholds which can be procured on reasonable terms, situate near to any of the royal forests, or to any extensive estates of the crown, which may be conveniently placed, wholly or principally under the management of the officers or agents, having already the care of such forests, &c. under control of the said commissioners, and in their judgment desirable to be purchased for H. M., which shall become part of the land revenues of the crown, and be placed within the government, and under order and survey of the exchequer, id. s. 3.

162. The like commissioners may contract and agree with any persons soever for the sale of, or may dispose of any part of the possessions or land revenues of the crown within the survey of exchequer, consisting of any royalties, manors, franchises, or rights thereof, or any fines arising therefrom, or any lands, tenements, or hereditaments soever, which in their judgment are desirable to be sold for the best prices in money which they shall under direction of treasury be able to procure; and all sums arising from such sales shall be paid into the bank, and placed to, "the account of the public monies of the commissioners of H. M.'s woods, forests, and land revenues, being the woods and forests fund," and the sums so paid in shall be applied from time to time by order of such commissioners, (who may make drafts on the bank for that purpose,) in the payment of the purchase money and interest due thereon for any purchases to be made for H. M., and in discharge of all expenses of the above sales and purchases, and of any incumbrances affecting any of his estates within survey of exchequer, id. s. 4.

163. No contract for purchase or sale of estates shall be made under this act but by special warrant from the treasury, id. s. 5.

164. Whenever the commissioners have contracted with any persons for sale under this act of any of the possessions or land revenues of the crown by s. 4. authorized to be sold, they shall grant the purchaser a certificate under their hands, describing the premises so agreed to be sold, and the purchase money which shall be paid into the bank within 31 days of the date of the certificate, on which the cashier shall acknowledge the receipt thereof without fee; such certificate and receipt being in the form as in the schedule, and within 2 calendar months after such date, shall be taken to the land revenue auditor's office for the district where the premises are situate, and be there enrolled in the proper books, and the auditor shall attest such enrolment under his hand, and on receiving the usual fees, return the same to the purchasers, after which the latter shall be taken to be in actual seisin of the premises, free from all H. M.'s claims, and such certificate and receipt shall effectually discharge the purchasers from all purchase money expressed therein, 57 G. 3. c. 97. s. 6.

165. If any person to whom such certificate shall be granted shall neglect to pay into the bank the consideration money therein specified, for 31 days after its date, or to inroll such certificate and the cashier's receipt for 2 calendar months after its date, the certificate shall be void, and the consideration money (if paid into the bank) forfeited, unless the like commissioners shall order such certificate and receipt to be inrolled nunc pro tunc, which they may do on reasonable cause shewn for the omission, id. s. 7.

166. Whenever any of such possessions or land revenues of the crown are disposed of according to this act under a treasury warrant, the purchaser shall not be required to make any further inquiry, whether the same were saleable under this act, or into the commissioners' power to make the sale, but having ascertained the same to have been sold under a treasury warrant, and having obtained such certificate as aforesaid, and paid the purchase money therein specified, and procured the receipt of a cashier of the bank for the same, and having inrolled such certificate and receipt with the auditor of the land revenue (as in s. 6.) shall hold the premises so purchased without future disturbance on the above or any other grounds soever; id. s. 8.

167. The commissioners may give any notices, or make any demands and may authorize any person to make any entries requisite to be given or made by or on behalf of H. M., either to compel any tenant or occupier of any of H. M.'s estates within survey of exchequer to quit possession thereof, or to perform any contract relative thereto, or to do any act which ought to be done in regard to the separation or management thereof, or to the payment of any sum which ought to be paid to or for the use of H. M. or any other notice, claim, demand, or entry relating thereto, requisite to be made or given on behalf of H. M., and every such notice, claim, and entry made under authority of the commissioners shall be deemed valid, and to have been given on behalf of H. M., id. s. 9.

168. No minute, memorandum, contract, or agreement, made or entered into by or with the said commissioners for the sale or purchase by them of any other lands, tenements, or hereditaments under this act, nor any certificate, contract, or receipt, deed, covenant, agreement, or indemnity, to be given or granted, entered into or made, to or with any purchaser of any lands, &c., or any of the rents, [ss. 14—21. see title,] to be sold by such commissioners under this act, nor any lease or agreement for lease to be granted under this act, shall be liable to any ad valorem or other stamp duty, unless specially subjected thereto by statute, id. s. 22.

169. All conveyances, deeds, or instruments, whereby any lands, &c., as in s. 22, shall be hereafter purchased by the said commissioners for and on behalf of H. M., shall be conveyed to H. M., or to any person in trust for him, and all leases to be granted by the said commissioners shall be inrolled in the office of the land revenue auditor for the district in which the premises comprised therein shall be situate, (or, where situate within the district of more than one such auditor, then at the office of either,) on payment of the usual inrollment fees; and a minute thereof shall be entered and preserved in the commissioners' office; which inrollment shall be as good in law, as if enrolled in any court at Westminster, or as if a memorial had been entered in the office for registering deeds and other conveyances of lands, &c. in the counties where any of the estates are situate, id. s. 23.

170. The like commissioners, in every report to H. M. and both houses concerning the land revenues of the crown, (for so long as the powers of purchase and sale hereby given shall continue in force,) shall report what lands, &c. (as in s. 22.) have been purchased for H. M. under this act, describing the premises so purchased, and the purchase money paid or to be paid for the same, and the terms of completion of the purchase, and also what part of the land revenue of the crown has been sold under this act, since making their last report, and for what sum, and how applied, id. s. 24.

171. The chancellor and council of the duchy of Lancaster, by any order of the court of revenue in that duchy, may from time to time direct that any part of the 3 per cent. consols, standing in the bank books in the name or to the account of the duchy of Lancaster, shall be disposed of, and the produce applied in payment of any expenses incurred in the division, inclosure, or other improvement of any lands or tenements belonging to H. M., in right of his said duchy, which shall be certified by the surveyor-general of the latter, on oath to be filed in the duchy office, to be necessary and beneficial to H. M.'s possessions; and the bank, on requisition to them for that purpose, by any order of the said chancellor and council, and under the hand of the attorney-general of the duchy shall permit any person, named in such order, to sell or transfer all or any of the above stock which shall be transferable by such sales, id. s. 26.

172. The bank shall be hereby indemnified for all things done in obedience to the orders of the chancellor and council, without question or impeachment at law or equity, 57 G. 3. c. 97. s. 27.

173. TO IMPROVE THE LAND REVENUES OF THE CROWN, AND OF THE DUCHY OF Lancaster, and for making regulations for the better management thereof, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 52. ss. 1—3. 5—13, see s. 4, ante, pl. 88. [s. 3. is private, ss. 9—11. are local.]

174. "Whereas by 1 A. st. 1. c. 7. 24 G. 3. c. 75., & 48 G. 3. c. 73., the several lands, tenements, and other hereditaments belonging to the crown, and within survey of exchequer, are now demisable by lease, under the great seal of Eng., or the exchequer seal, for such terms of years or other interests, and subject to such restrictions, and in such manner as therein respectively mentioned: and whereas special provisions are contained in 53 G. 3. c. 121. [new street act, and 57 G. 3. c. 97. pl. 160.] and the usual mode of granting leases of estates of the crown within survey of exchequer, under those seals, is attended with great delay and expence:"

175. It is enacted, that the said commissioners, with consent in writing of the treasury of U.K. or of any three or more of them, signified by warrant under their hands, from time to time after passing this act, and without other warrant, may demise or lease, or previous to such demise, &c. may enter into any contract for all or any of the manors, messuages, lands, tenements, rents, tithes, woods, mines, minerals, and other hereditaments for the time being belonging to H. M., his heirs or successors, and within the survey of exchequer, to any person soever, for such terms and interests, at such rents to be reserved to H. M., &c., and for such fines, and subject to such covenants and restrictions, as the same may now be demised under the great or exchequer seals under the 3 first recited or any other statute, law, or custom soever, provided that the lessees named in such leases do duly execute counterparts thereof; and leases made pursuant to this act shall be as valid as if they had been passed through the office of the clerk of the pipe in exchequer, and all other offices of crown lands, and had been granted under the above seals, or one of them, id. s. 1.

176. Nothing herein shall affect the powers given to the said commissioners by 53 G. 3. c. 121., and 57 G. 3. c. 97., of leasing or contracting to lease all or any of the houses and hereditaments, purchased, erected, altered, and improved, or to be purchased, &c. under those acts or either of them; but without prejudice to such powers and to any leases now or hereafter granted pursuant thereto, all those houses, &c., shall be subject to the powers of leasing hereby vested in the said commissioners, id. s. 2.

177. The commissioners of woods and forests, on behalf of H. M., his heirs and successors, by any instrument in writing under their hands, or those of any two of them, from time to time shall appoint such persons as they think fit, to be stewards of any hundreds, honors, manors, or lordships belonging to the crown, within survey of exchequer, where such offices vacant are not in the appointment of any grantee of the crown, to hold and execute such offices till some persons are appointed thereto by H. M., his heirs, &c., or by the first lord commissioner of treasury, or chancellor of the exchequer, or till such appointment is revoked by the commissioners of woods and forests, with full power to hold and keep all and singular hundred courts, courts leet, views of frankpledge, courts baron, and customary and other courts within the limits and precincts of such hundreds, &c. respectively, and to do all things incident to such offices; and also to appoint such persons as they shall think fit to execute all usual forestal offices, and to preserve the deer, beasts, and birds of chase, or warren, and other game within any such hundreds, &c., or any royal forests, chases, or warrens, or the limits thereof within survey of exchequer, where such offices are vacant, and are not in the appointment of any grantee of the crown, and also to preserve the fish belonging to H. M., &c. in any of the waters within those limits; and on H. M.'s behalf to grant licences to any persons to hunt, hawk, fish, and fowl, within any of such hundreds, &c. forests, &c. and waters respectively, and the demesnes thereof, and places thereto adjoining; and to take and kill any such deer, beasts, or birds; also to take, seize, and destroy all unlawful dogs, nets, guns, and engines, used for taking or destroying of deer, &c., game, and fish; and the same appointments and licences again at pleasure to revoke; and to allow to any such stewards, game-keepers, &c. such wages or emoluments, as they, with consent of treasury signified by warrant, deem adequate remuneration, all which appointments shall have the like effect, as if they had been made by H. M., his heirs, &c., id. s. 5.

178. Nothing herein-before contained shall abridge or interfere with the right of appointment of master or under-keepers, or other officers of any royal forest, so long as such right is vested in any warden thereof, id. s. 6.

179. No instrument made or executed by the commissioners of woods and forests, under any of the powers hereby granted, nor any contracts, instruments, made, or executed by any other persons, to or with the commissioners, for any purpose of this act, shall be liable to any stamp duty soever, imposed or to be imposed by statute, unless such instrument be specially charged by such future statute, id. s. 7.

180. Every lease or deed of exchange, executed pursuant to this act, shall be enrolled in the office of the auditor of land revenues for the district within which the premises to which it relates are situate, or if they are situate within the district of more than one such auditor, then in his office, on payment of the usual fees for enrolment; and every such lease and deed of exchange, when so enrolled, shall, without other enrolment or registry, be of the like force in all respects, as if it had been enrolled in any court at Westminster, or as if a memorial thereof had been entered or registered in the offices appointed for registering conveyances of lands and tenements in the counties in which those estates, or any of them, are situate; any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 52. s. 8. [ss. 9—11., are local.]

181. The commissioners of woods and forests where such lands are within survey of exchequer, and the chancellor and council of the duchy of Lancaster, where such lands are within its survey, may contract and agree with the owners of the lands over which any rights of forest, chase, or free warren extend, for the sale of such rights, or any of them, in order that they may be abolished, for the best prices in money which the commissioners or chancellor and council can procure for the same; and thereupon shall sell and convey the rights of forest, &c. so contracted for, to the purchasers thereof, for the above purpose; and the purchase money payable for such of those rights as extend over any lands within survey of exchequer, shall be paid into the bank of Eng., and placed to account of "The public monies of the commissioners of woods, forests, and land revenues, being the woods and forests fund," and shall be applied from time to time, by order of the said commissioners in the like manner; and such rights, so sold or contracted to be sold, shall be conveyed by the like instruments, and in such form, as nearly as circumstances will permit; and every such sale shall be made under the like regulations, and be as valid as if made under 57 G. 3. c. 97., and the purchase money to be paid for such of those rights as extend over any lands within survey of the duchy of Lancaster, shall be paid to the receiver general of the duchy, in like manner as monies arising from sale of manors and other property of the duchy authorised to be sold by 48 G. 3. c. 73., or any act thereby referred to, are to be paid; and all sales made under this act by the said chancellor and council, shall be made in the same form, as far as circumstances permit, and shall be as valid as if made under 48 G. 3. c. 73., or any act there referred to; and after payment of such purchase money, and completion of every such sale, the rights so purchased shall cease and be no longer exercised, and the lands over which they extend shall be for ever discharged therefrom, as fully as if they had never existed, id. s. 12.

182. Every person, body politic and corporate, their heirs and successors respectively, to whom sale or disposition of any such forestal or other rights is made as aforesaid under this act, shall, in lieu thereof, at all times thereafter have full power to depute one or more game-keepers to preserve, take, and kill game on all or any of the lands over which such rights so purchased by them did extend, provided such lands are not locally situate within any existing manor; which game-keeper during his deputation shall have the like power and exemption from penalties, in regard to all his acts on any of the lands within the limits of his deputation and by virtue thereof, and shall obtain such certificate, and be subject to such game duty, and shall register his deputation in like manner, and be subject to such rules as game-keepers of any manors in Eng. now have or are subject to by any law or statute now in force; but nothing herein shall authorise the appointment of more than one game-keeper, with power to take or kill game within the same tract of land, id. s. 13.

CROWS.

1. FOR DESTROYING CHOUHES, CROWS, AND ROOKS, 24 H. 8. c. 10. [REV. as to crow nets, and REV. as to the rest by 8 Ed. c. 15., which being Exp. QU. if this act is not revived.]

2. (Recital of the consumption of grain and destruction of thatch by crows, &c.) Every one shall do his best to destroy crows, &c. on pain of amercement; [every town, hamlet, &c. shall provide crow nets for 10 years, during which time the inhabitants shall assemble in order to destroy them, defaults being given in charge at leets, Exp.]; any man with licence of owner of the ground may take crows, &c. The taker of crows, &c. shall have at the rate of 2d. per dozen; none under pretence hereof shall kill pigeons, under penalties of the laws, 24 H. 8. c. 10.

CUTLERY.

1 AGAINST FALSE FORGING OF GADDS OF STEEL, 2 & 3 Ed. 6. c. 27.
2. If any person do make or forge any gadds of any Bilboa iron in form of gadds of steel, or do utter or put to sale the same, he shall forfeit 4d. for each gadd so put to sale, to go in moieties to H.M. and the party suing by action of debt or information in any of H.M.'s courts of record wherein no assize, &c. shall be allowed, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 27.

3 TO EXTEND THE PROVISIONS OF 12 G. 1. c. 34. and of 22 G. 2. c. 27.

against payment of labourers in goods, or by truck, and to secure payment thereof in the lawful money of this realm [in notes of bank of Eng., or of duly licensed bankers, where the labourers consent, 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1.] to labourers employed in manufacture of articles made of steel, or of steel and iron combined, and of plated articles, or of other articles of cutlery, 57 G. 3. c. 115. [Ext. as above 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1.]

4. The provisions of 12 G. 1. c. 34. which prohibit the payment of wages of persons employed in woollen manufacture in goods, and to secure the payment in lawful money of this kingdom [for bank notes, as in last pl., since 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1.], shall be extended to labourers in the manufacture of articles made of steel, or of steel and iron combined, and of plated articles, or other articles of cutlery, 57 G. 3. c. 115. s. 1.

5. The provisions of 22 G. 2. c. 27. to facilitate the recovery of wages by labourers in the woollen trade, as well as those imposing a penalty on masters paying labourers in goods, shall be extended to the manufacture of articles made of steel, or of steel and iron combined, and of plated articles, or of other articles of cutlery, id. s. 2.

6. TO REGULATE THE CUTLERY TRADE IN Eng., 59 G. 3. c. 7.

7. All persons who shall make, forge, form, or manufacture by means of the hammer, any knives, knife blades, forks, razors, razor blades, scissors, shears, and other articles of cutlery, edge tools, and hardware, requiring a cutting edge of wrought steel, or of iron and steel, may mark, strike, stamp, grave or impress, upon any part of every such knives, and other articles of cutlery requiring a cutting edge, so forged and formed by means of the hammer, the figure of a hammer at any time after the forging, and previous to the same being ground or polished, so as to denote that such knives, &c. are so formed by the hammer, and so as to distinguish the same articles from such articles formed in a mould, or otherwise than by the hammer, id. s. 1.

8. But persons who shall on the passing of this act have in their possession any such articles of cutlery manufactured by the hammer of wrought steel, or of iron and steel, at any time within 6 calendar months next after, may mark on any part of such articles so forged and formed by the hammer so in their possession, the figure of a hammer, id. s. 2.

9. No person may cast, mark, strike, stamp, grave or impress in or upon any part of such cutlery articles which shall be cast or formed in a mould, or formed otherwise than by the hammer, either at the time of casting or subsequently thereto, and previous to the bona fide sale thereof to the user, the figure of a hammer, or any device resembling it, nor have in his possession for sale, nor shall sell, expose, or offer to sale any such articles of cutlery requiring a cutting edge, which shall have been formed in a mould, or otherwise than by the hammer, having marked thereon the figure of a hammer, or any device resembling it; and every person who shall offend in either of the above particulars shall forfeit all such articles of cutlery, together with 5*l.* for any quantity not exceeding 1 dozen of such articles; and for any quantity exceeding 1 dozen, 5*l.* for every dozen thereof, id. s. 3.

10. No persons shall cast, &c. (as in s. 3.) upon any part of any knives, or other articles of cutlery requiring a cutting edge, forged and formed with the hammer, of wrought steel, or of iron and steel, or cast in a mould, either at the time of forging or casting such articles, or subsequently thereto, previous to the bona fide sale thereof to the user, any word which may denote the quality to be otherwise than the real quality thereof; or shall have in possession for sale, or sell or expose or offer to sale any such articles of cutlery having marked thereon any word which may denote the quality to be otherwise than the real quality thereof; and every offender herein shall, in all the above cases, forfeit all such articles of cutlery being marked, possessed, sold or exposed to sale contrary to this act, together with 5*l.* for any quantity not exceeding 1 dozen; and for any quantity exceeding 1 dozen, 5*l.* for every dozen thereof, id. s. 4.

11. No person shall cast, &c. (as in s. 3.) upon any part of any such articles of cutlery, and formed with the hammer, or cast in a mould either at the time of forging or casting, or subsequently thereto, previous to the bona fide sale thereof to the user, the words 'London,' 'London made,' or any words having any similitude thereto, unless the articles have been manufactured within London, or twenty miles therefrom; nor shall have in possession for sale, nor shall sell, or expose or offer to sale any such articles of cutlery having marked thereon the above words, on pain to forfeit all such knives and cutlery, together with 10*l.* for any quantity not exceeding 1 dozen of such articles, and for any quantity exceeding 1 dozen, 10*l.* for every dozen thereof, id. s. 5.

12. In case any person shall have in his possession for sale, or shall sell, or offer for sale, any such cutlery articles, having marked thereon any words contrary to this act, and shall on information laid against him prove satisfactorily by oath of himself or any other person, before one justice, that such cutlery articles were purchased or came into his possession, before 23 Mar. 1819, he shall not be liable to the penalties aforesaid, id. s. 6.

13. In case any person [semble, here who] shall have in his possession for sale, or shall sell, or offer for sale, any such cutlery articles, not ma-manufactured before 23d Mar., 1819, having marked thereon the figure of a hammer, or any words contrary to this act; shall, at or before any information laid against him, prove by oath of himself, or themselves, before one justice, that he purchased such articles without knowing at the time that they were marked contrary to this act, and shall discover to any two justices the name of the person of whom he purchased the same, so that he shall be prosecuted to conviction, then he shall not be liable to the penalties aforesaid, but shall be entitled to two-thirds parts of the penalty as other informers, as in s. 18., 59 G.3. c.7. s.7.

14. Two justices may hear and determine any offence against this act; and shall on information summon the accused, and witnesses on each side, and examine into the matter of complaint; and on due proof thereof, either by confession, or the oath of one witness shall give judgment for the penalty, with costs, and shall issue out their warrant for levying such penalty and costs on the goods of the offender, and cause sale to be made thereof in case they are not redeemed within 5 days inclusive of the day of the seizure, rendering the overplus (if any) after defraying the expences of such distress and sale, to the owner of the goods; and for want of a sufficient distress, such justices shall commit the offender to goal for not exceeding 3 calendar months, unless payment is sooner made of the said penalty and costs, id. s.8.

15. Any person aggrieved may, (on giving security with a sufficient surety to the amount of the penalty and costs, with farther costs in case judgment shall be affirmed) appeal to the next general quarter-sessions, which shall summon and examine witnesses, and finally determine the matter of appeal, and award costs to the party in whose favour such appeal shall be determined, id. s.9.

16. The justices before whom any information may be laid, and the quarter-sessions, may mitigate the penalties; but in no case to less than one-half, or where such penalties shall be less than [QU. exceeding? but the act is so.] 50*l.*, to less than 25*l.*, 59 G.3. c.7. s.10.

17. No conviction shall be set aside for want of form, or through the mistake of any fact, circumstance, or other matter, provided the material facts be proved, id. s.11.

18. A summary conviction in the form and to the effect as set forth in this clause, shall be good and effectual, id. s.12. [See Form, APPENDIX.]

19. If any person shall be summoned as a witness, and shall neglect or refuse to appear without any excuse, or appearing shall refuse to give evidence, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, to be levied as other penalties, id. s.13.

20. Any justice by warrant may cause any such cutlery articles liable to be forfeited by this act to be seized for the purpose of producing the same in evidence; after which they shall, by order of such justices, be destroyed or disposed of as the court before whom produced shall direct, id. s.14.

21. No information shall be exhibited for any of the offences aforesaid, unless within 6 calendar months, id. s.15.

22. One-third of the penalties shall be paid to the poor of the parish, and the other two-thirds parts to the person who shall inform, id. s.16.

23. In all informations and other proceedings, any inhabitant of the parish shall be admitted to give evidence, id. s.17.

24. In case any person liable to any of the penalties for any thing done by him under the order, direction or procurement of any other person, shall, before information, discover to two justices the name of the person, so that such person shall be prosecuted to conviction, then such informer shall not be liable to the penalties aforesaid, but shall be entitled to two-thirds of the penalty, id. s.18.

DAYS IN BANK.

1. OF THE LEAP-YEAR, 21 H.3.

2. The day increasing in the leap-year shall be accounted in that year, so that because of that day none shall be prejudiced, that is impleaded, but it shall be reckoned in the same month wherein it groweth, and be contained in the entirety of the year, and that day and the day next going shall be deemed one day, 21 H.3. [see now 24 G.3. c.23., CALENDAR.]

3. CONCERNING DAYS IN BANK IN REAL ACTIONS and writs of dower, 51 H.3. st.2. §3. 8vo ed. i. 41. [SUPERSEDED by 32 H.8. c.21., 16 C.1. c.6. and 24 G.2. c.48.]

4. DAYS GIVEN IN DOWER, ASSIZE OF darrein presentment, and quare impedit, 52 or 54 H.3. c.12. Stat. Marbreyge.

5. In dower under nihil habet, four days shall be given in the year, and more if convenient, so that they shall have 5 or 6 days in the year at least; in darrein presentment and quare impedit, days shall be given from 15 to 15, or from 3 weeks to 3 weeks, as the place shall be near or far; and in a plea of quare impedit, if the disturber come not at the first day, nor cast essoin, he shall be attached for another day, at which day, if he come not, or cast essoin, he shall be distrained by the great distress above given, [QU. c.2. DISTRESS, pl. 6—7.] and if he come not, then by his default a writ shall go to the bishop, that the claim of the disturber for that time shall not be prejudicial to the plaintiff, saving his right at another time, id. s.1.

6. The same law shall be observed in all writs where attachments lie, as to making distresses, so that the second attachment shall be made by better pledges, and afterwards the last distress, id. s.2.

7. FOR ABBREVIATION AND LIMITATION of Trinity term, 32 H.8. c.21.

8. There shall be only 4 common days of return in Trinity term, viz. the 1st shall be called in crastino sanctæ Trinitatis; the 2d, in octabis sanctæ Trinitatis; the 3d, in quindena sanctæ Trinitatis, and the 4th, à die sanct. Trin. in tres septimanas; which same days of return shall be kept in all H.M.'s courts of record, id. s.1.

9. The Trinity term shall yearly begin on the Monday next after Trinity Sunday for keeping essoins, returns, &c. and full term shall begin on Friday next after Corpus Christi day; and the 3d and 3d days of return shall commence as formerly, and the 4th day shall begin from Trinity Sunday into 3 weeks next following, and have its return with the 4th day, as in other like days of return, id. s.2.

10. If any writ in any real action is returnable into any of H.M.'s courts in octabis sancti Hillarii, then day shall be given in crastino sanctæ Trinitatis; if in quindena sancti Hillarii, then in octabis sanctæ Trinitatis; if in crastino purificationis beate Marie, then in quindena sanctæ Trinitatis; if in octabis purificationis beate Marie, then à die sanctæ Trinitatis in tres septimanas; and if in crastino sanctæ Trinitatis, then day shall be given in crastino anniverarii; if in octabis sanctæ Trinitatis, then in crastino sancti Martini; if in quindena sanctæ Trinitatis, then in octabis sancti Martini; if à die sanctæ Trinitatis in tres septimanas, then in quindena sancti Martini, 32 H.8. c.21. s.3.

11. If any writ of dower come into H.M.'s courts, returnable in quindena Pasche, then day shall be given in crastino sanctæ Trinitatis; if à die Pasche in tres septimanas, then in octabis sanctæ Trinitatis; if à die Pasche in unum mensem, then in quindena sanctæ Trinitatis; if à die Pasche in quinque septimanas, or in crastino ascensionis Domini, then to the day of à die sanctæ Trinitatis in tres septimanas; if in crastino sanctæ Trinitatis, then day shall be given in octabis sancti Michaelis; if in octabis sanctæ Trinitatis, then in quindena sancti Michaelis; if in quindena sanctæ Trinitatis, then à die sancti Michaelis in tres septimanas; if à die sanctæ Trinitatis in tres septimanas, then à die sancti Michaelis in unum mensem; or otherwise, as by 52 H.3. c.12. appointed, id. s.4.

12. All common writs and processes, personal or mixt, which shall be returnable in Trinity term, shall have the said returns of crastino sanctæ Trinitatis, octabis sanctæ Trinitatis, quindena sanctæ Trinitatis, and à die sanctæ Trinitatis in tres septimanas, id. s.5.

13. In those cases, and processes where special days have been used to be assigned for returning of writs and processes, the justices of any court of record in all processes by them awarded, may assign special days of return as they think fit, id. s.6.

14. The days in assize of darrein presentment, and in plea of quare impedit limited by 52 H.3. c.12., and also the days given in attaint limited by 5 E.3. c.6., shall be in force, id. s.7.

15. FOR THE [limitation, 16 C.1. c.6. and] abbreviation of Michaelmas term, 24 G.2. c.48. [NOTE, the 16 C.1. c.6. seems to be superseded by the effect of 24 G.2. c.48.]

16. There shall be only 4 common return days in Michaelmas term; (viz.) the 1st thereof, the morrow of All Souls; 2d, the morrow of St. Martin; 3d, in eight days of St. Martin; 4th, in 15 days of St. Martin, 24 G.2. c.48. s.1.

17. The same return days shall be kept in all the high courts of record, and Michaelmas term shall yearly begin on the morrow of All Souls; and if it be on a Sunday, then on the morrow next after, for keeping essoins, returns, &c. as on the old return day, and full Michaelmas term shall yearly begin on 4th day of the morrow of All Souls, or on the morrow after, if it fall on a Sunday, id. s.2.

18. In all writs of dower unde nihil habet, after issue joined, it shall not be needful to have above 15 days between the teste and return of the venire facias, or any other process sued out for the trial of such issue, but such writ or other process, until judgment be given, with such 15 days, shall be good as is used in personal actions, id. s.4.

19. All writs and processes to be made out of the courts at Westminster, and having day from the 4th day of the morrow of the Ascension to the morrow of the Holy Trinity, shall be good, although there be not 15 days between the teste and the return, id. s.5.

20. If any writ of dower unde nihil habet, or writ of entry for common recoveries, or writ of right of advowson, or any other real action, be returnable in C.P. in the morrow of All Souls day, day shall be given in 15 days of St. Martin, if on the morrow of St. Martin, then in 8 days of St. Hilary; if in 8 days of St. Martin, then in 15 days of St. Hilary; if in 15 days of St. Martin, then on the morrow of the Purification; if in 15 days of St. Hilary, then in 15 days of St. Martin; if on the morrow of the Purification, then in 3 weeks from the day of Easter; if in 8 days of the Purification, then in one month from the day of Easter; if in 15 days of Easter, then in five weeks from the day of Easter; if in 3 weeks from the day of Easter, then on the morrow of the Ascension of our Lord; if in 1 month from the day of Easter, then on the morrow of the Holy Trinity; if in 5 weeks from the day of Easter, then in 8 days of the Holy Trinity; if on the morrow of the Ascension of our Lord, then in 15 days of the Holy Trinity; if on the morrow of the Holy Trinity, then in 3 weeks from the day of the Holy Trinity; if in 8 days of the Holy Trinity, then on the morrow of All Souls; if in 15 days of the Holy Trinity, then on the morrow of St. Martin; if in 3 weeks of the Holy Trinity, then in 8 days of St. Martin, 24 G. 2. c. 48. s. 3.

21. All process to be made on the returns following, viz. in 3 weeks of St. Michael, or from the day of St. Michael in 1 month next following, or having days between either of such returns, shall have day unto the morrow of All Souls, and the parties to such process shall then appear and plead, id. s. 6.

22. All common writs, as well personal as mixt, returnable in Michaelmas term, shall have the said returns of the morrow of All Souls, the morrow of St. Martin, in 8 days of St. Martin, and in 15 days of St. Martin, id. s. 7.

23. On common recoveries in writs of entry and writs of right of advowson, all writs of summons to warrant upon the appearance of the tenant to such writ of entry and writ of right advowson, shall be abridged to 4 returns inclusive, id. s. 8.

24. In cases where special days have been used to be given for the return of process, the justices of the courts of record may assign special days of return, id. s. 9.

25. The days in darrcin presentment and in plea of quare impedit appointed by 52 H. 3. c. 12., and the days given in attain, 5 E. 3. c. 6. and 23 H. 8. c. 5. shall stand in force, id. s. 10. [See s. 11. tit. LONDON, s. 12. tit. SHERIFF.]

DEBT TO AND FROM THE KING. (See KING.)

(STATUTES expired.)

Pardon of divers debt, account, arrearages, &c. due to H. M., 14 E. 3. s. 1. c. 3. CONF. 14 E. 3. s. 2. c. 5. Both Exp.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. OF RECOVERING DEBTS TO H. M., 9 H. 3. c. 8. (M.C.)

2. H. M. or his bailiff shall not seize any land or rent for any debt as long as the debtor's chattels suffice to pay the debt, and the debtor is ready to satisfy the same, nor shall the sureties of the debtor be distrained as long as the principal is sufficient; but if he fail in payment they shall answer for the debt, and may have his lands and rents till satisfied of the debt so paid for him, unless he can shew himself acquitted thereof against such sureties, id. ibid.

3. IF H. M.'S TENANT OF A LAY FEE DIE HIS DEBTOR, and the sheriff or bailiff shew letters patent of summons for such debt, he may attach all the goods of the dead in the lay fee to the value of the debt by view of lawful men, so that nothing thereof be taken away till the debt be paid; and the residue shall go to the executors of his will, id. c. 18.

4. WHERE THE TENANT OF A BARONY COMING INTO H. M.'S hands by escheat dies, no other relief or service shall be done to H. M. by the heir than to the baron, if it remained in his hand, id. c. 31. [QU. REP. 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 1.]

5. A SHERIFF HAVING RECEIVED H. M.'S DEBT, SHALL DISCHARGE the debtor, 3 E. 1. c. 19. (Stat. West. 1.)

6. Sheriffs shall lawfully acquit the debtors at the next account after they have received such debts, and then the debt shall be allowed in the exchequer, so that it shall no more come into summons; and if the sheriff otherwise do, and thereof is attained, he shall pay to plaintiff thrice as much as he hath received, and shall make fine at H. M.'s pleasure; and the sheriff shall answer for his receiver; and if any other that is answerable in the exchequer so do, he shall render thrice so much to plaintiff, and make fine in like manner; and the sheriff shall make tallies to such as pay their debt to H. M.; and the summons of exchequer shall be shewed to all debtors that demand a sight thereof without reward, and he that doth otherwise, shall be grievously punished, id. ibid.

7. OF DISTRESSES FOR H. M.'S DEBT, 28 E. 1. c. 12. Art. sup. Chart.

8. Distresses taken for H. M.'s debt shall not be made on beasts of the plough, so long as a man may find other, on the pain ordained by statute, [51 H. 3. s. 4.], and over great distresses shall not be taken for his debt nor driven too far; and if the debtor find surety till a day before that limited to the sheriff, within which a man may purchase remedy, or agree for the demand, the distress shall be released in the meantime, and he that doth otherwise, shall be grievously punished, id. ibid.

9. FOR COMPELLING SHERIFFS AND OTHER OFFICERS to account duly for their receipts, 6 H. 4. c. 3.

10. After every final account made by officers and customers before the barons of exchequer, the tenor thereof shall be sent into the counties with commissions to enquire of, and certify the profits which they have received and concealed, and if the accountants be attained of frauds, they shall forfeit to H. M. treble the value whereof they are convicted, and their bodies to prison till they make fine and ransom, id. ibid.

11. ALL OBLIGATIONS AND SPECIALTIES MADE FOR ANY CAUSE touching H. M., or his heirs, or to their use, shall be made to H. M. by these words, domino regi, and to no other person to his use, [on pain of imprisonment adjudged by H. M. and council, s. 51.], and to be paid to H. M. by these words, solvend' eidem domino regi hered' vel executoribus suis, the rest being in the usual form, and being in the nature of a statute staple; and all such obligations, the debt not being paid, shall remain to H. M.'s heirs and executors at his appointment, 33 H. 8. c. 39 ss. 50, 51. [see ss. 1—49. of this statute, ante, COURTS (OF SURVYORS).]

12. H. M. in all suits on any obligation made to him, or to his use, shall have his debt, costs, and damages, id. s. 54.

13. All suits upon any debt or duties due to H. M. in the offices and courts of exchequer, duchy of Lancaster, surveyors general of his manors, lands, and tenements, [augmentations and first fruits, REP. 1 EL. c. 1. s. 24.], shall be sued in such of the said courts and offices in which the debt did first grow; or the specialty is; and shall be made under the seals of those courts by capias, extendi facias, subpoena, attachments, and proclamations of allegiance, or otherwise, as is expedient, (id. s. 55.); and the court of exchequer, and the said courts, shall have power to hear and determine such suits, and to do execution on body, lands, and goods, (id. s. 56.); and to hear and determine all debts, and other things arising on any matter assigned to the government of the same courts, or upon any thing which may concern the same, wherein H. M. only is party, as well as all estates, terms of years, between party and party, concerning the premises, and to punish, at discretion, all persons convicted before them of any of the premises, and of all treasons, felonies, estates, and interests, as well of inheritance as freehold, except jointures for life, id. s. 57. [The courts, in s. 55. enumerated, were united to exchequer, pursuant to 1 M. S. 2. c. 10. which is Exp.]

14. All the above courts (see above, s. 57.) may set fines on parties, sheriffs, officers, and others, for default or contempt, &c. and may try the above suits by such evidence, and in such other manner as is thought expedient, id. s. 59.

15. On sight of acquittances made for H. M.'s debts, or proof before the head officers of the said courts, or if the condition of the recognizance or bond be performed, every such head officer may cancel at discretion such recognizance or bond, calling to him such of the court as seems convenient, id. s. 62. [see 4 G. 3. c. 10. as to extrants into exchequer.]

16. "Recital of grants by H. M. of lands and tenements under survey of the court of augmentations [REP. 1 EL. c. 1. s. 24.] on payment of one-tenth of the yearly value reserved as rent." If any person to whom H. M. has, by letters patent under his great seal, or that of the above court, granted with reservation of rent, any tenements in the survey of the same courts, for any estate of inheritance, or for term of life, yielding to H. M. 1 yearly rent at 1 certain day in the letters patent expressed, to be paid into the said courts, do not pay to the treasurer or receiver of those courts, at the day limited by the letters patent, or in 3 months after, all money reserved to H. M. by the letters patent, the same persons, for default of payment, shall forfeit to H. M. the 4th part of the rent reserved for 1 year, in the name of a penalty above the rent reserved; and if they do not, within 1 half year after the day in the patent, pay to the use of H. M. as well the said yearly rent, as also the penalty, they shall forfeit to H. M. the moiety of the rent reserved for 1 year, and for every half year after, so much money as a whole year's rent amounts to; till the rent reserved, with the arrears, and also the said penalty, be satisfied, id. s. 63.

17. The treasurer or receiver may distrain, as well for the rent reserved, as for the said sums forfeited in the name of a penalty; and the head officers of the same courts, on certificate of the default, shall award process against the offender for not paying the rent, and also for the sums of money forfeited, id. s. 64.

18. If any persons make payment to any such treasurer or receiver of any money due to H. M. for any rent or tenth, and after such payment, tender to them an acquittance to be signed, such treasurer, &c.

shall sign the same without fee, on pain to forfeit 40s., 1 moiety to H.M., and the other to the party that will sue; and if the parties paying any such money do not bring an acquittance with them to be signed, then if the treasurer, &c., upon request, shall make and deliver a sufficient acquittance testifying the same, he or any of his clerks shall take, not above 4d. for making the same, on pain to forfeit for every acquittance for which they shall take above 4d., 20s., one moiety to H.M., and the other to the party that will sue, id. s. 65.; and such acquittance shall be a sufficient discharge, 33 H. 8. c. 39. s. 66.

19. If any such receiver happens to pay any annuity or rent, then if the person, upon the receipt thereof, deliver to the same receiver a sufficient acquittance, sealed and signed, testifying the same, the receiver shall receive the same without fee for making it; and if the same party do not bring with him any acquittance, by reason whereof the same receiver maketh one acquittance for receipt of such annuity, &c., then the receiver or his clerk shall not take, for making such acquittance, above 4d., on pain to forfeit for every acquittance which he shall refuse, 20s., and for every acquittance which he shall make, and receive above 4d. for making it, 20s.; one moiety to H.M., and the other to the party that will sue: and the same receiver or his deputy, who shall pay any such annuity or rent, shall not take of the party above 4d. fee for every £., upon pain to forfeit 6s. 8d. for every 1d., one moiety to H.M., and the other to the party that will sue, id. s. 67.

20. If any persons tender to the auditors of the same courts any letters patent, decrees, or leases to be inrolled, the auditor shall inrol the same, or as much of them as shall appertain to his office; and if any of the auditors, or their clerks, or any other to their use take for the inrolment, or allowance for the same, above 3s. 4d., the auditor or his clerks so offending shall forfeit 6s. 8d. for every penny which they shall receive contrary to this statute, in moieties to H.M. and the persons suing, id. s. 68.

21. Every auditor of the said courts yearly in every county within their limits, by the space of 20 days or more before their audit, shall proclaim, in 4 several markets or other places, the place and days when they will keep their audits, upon penalty of 5l., one moiety to H.M. and the other to the party suing, id. s. 69.

22. The said auditors and the particular receivers, between the feasts of St. Michael and Christmas, shall direct their precepts, under their seals, to their receivers and officers, accountable before the auditors in H.M.'s name, to appear before them to make account of all such receipts whereof they owe to account, id. s. 70.

23. If the auditors and particular receivers keep their audit according to the proclamations, then if any receiver or officer, being accountable for any hereditaments in the survey of the above courts, be warned to appear, as well by the same proclamation or by precept or warrant in writing sealed, but does not so appear before the auditor and receiver, or will not account before the auditor, or does not pay unto the treasurer of the court, or the receiver of the county, within 3 weeks after the account finished, all sums of money which shall be found in arrear, and the contempt is fully proved before head officers of the above courts, he shall forfeit his office, id. s. 71.

24. Every such officer, who, on declaration of accounts, doth wilfully conceal any rent or casualty for which he ought to account, which is duly proved before the said head officers, shall forfeit his office and 3 times as much as he hath concealed: and the head officers, on certificate of the default, shall award process in nature of attachment against the same officer, as well for the arrears as also for the penalty of his recognizance, and the penalty appointed by this act, id. s. 72.

25. In all suits in any of the above courts for recovery of debts to H.M., by reason of any attainder, outlawry, forfeiture, gift of the party, or by any other collateral means, it shall be sufficient to show generally that the party to whom such debts belong did give the same debt to H.M., or was attainted, outlawed, &c. by reason whereof the said debts accrued to H.M.: and the matter so generally shewn, without declaring the circumstances, shall be good in law, id. s. 73.

26. Any suit commenced or process awarded for recovery of H.M.'s debts, shall be preferred before that of any other person; and H.M. shall have first execution, so always that H.M.'s suit be commenced, or process awarded, before judgment given for the other persons, id. s. 74.

27. All manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, which shall come to the seisin or possession of any person to whom the same shall descend, revert, or remain in fee-simple or in fee-tail, after the death of any ancestor, or by gift of his ancestors, which ancestor was indebted to H.M., or to any person to his use, by judgment or specialty, shall stand charged for the payment of the debt, id. s. 75.

28. H.M. shall not be excluded to demand his debts against any of his subjects, as heir to any person indebted to H.M.; or to his use; albeit this word heir be not comprised in such recognizance or specialty, or that such persons shall say that they have not any lands, &c. or hereditaments to them descended, but only such as be entailed or given to them by their ancestors, id. s. 76.

29. H.M. may, at his liberty, demand his debts of any executors or administrators of any person indebted, if the executors, &c. have assets, 32 H. 8. c. 39. s. 77.

30. If the said hereditaments are evicted out of the possession of such persons by just title without fraud, whose hereditaments shall be chargeable as is above said, then all such hereditaments shall be acquitted of the same debts, id. s. 78.

31. If any person, of whom any such debt shall be demanded, show in any of the said courts sufficient matter in law, reason, or good conscience, why he ought not to be charged with the same, and the matter so showed is sufficiently proved, the said courts shall have power to allow the proof, and acquit all persons so impleaded, id. s. 79.

32. If any hereditaments, chargeable with the debt of H.M., be in the seisin of divers persons, other than the obligors, they shall be entirely, and in no wise severally, liable to the said debts, id. s. 80.

33. This act shall not take away any liberties belonging to the duchy and county palatine of Lancaster, id. s. 81.

34. Processes and executions for debts in exchequer shall be made by such officer as hath been used, as by this act is limited, id. s. 82.

35. CONCERNING SOME MANNER OF ASSIGNMENTS OF DEBTS TO H.M. 7 J. 1. c. 15.

36. No debt shall be assigned to H.M., his heirs or successors, other than such as did before grow due originally to his bonâ fide debtor or accountant, and all other assignments of debts to H.M., his heirs, &c. shall be void, id. s. 1.

37. IF ANY TENANT OF H.M. SHALL, BY NEGLIGENCE or mistake, be returned into exchequer for any rent which has been paid, then, on producing the receipt for the same from the receiver or other proper officer, the treasurer, remembrancer, clerk of pipe, and other proper officers, shall, without fee, discharge such tenant's name from the roll, so that such rent be no more given in charge to any sheriff, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 2. s. 153.

38. FOR MORE SPEEDY AND EFFECTUAL RECOVERY of debts due to H.M., his heirs and successors, in right of the crown of U.K., 41 G. 3. (U.K.) c. 90. ss. 1. & 4. [See rest of this title, and statute, COURTS (Chancery, pl. 71—72.) (Exchequer, pl. 72—73.) STATUTES.]

39. Where, upon any account audited, declared, or recorded, in the exchequer in Eng., or on judgment or decree of that court, any debt shall be due to H.M., a copy of such account, judgment, or decree, shall be exemplified and transmitted to and enrolled in the exchequer in Ire., after which enrolment that court shall issue process against the debtor's body, and real and personal property being within Ire., 41 G. 3. c. 90. s. 1. [and so vice versâ on such account declared, or judgment recorded in the Irish exchequer, id. s. 3.]

40. The sheriff or other officer in Ire., to whom such process is directed, shall account for the due execution thereof, and the chancellor and barons of the Irish exchequer shall take care that the monies levied shall be paid into that court; and the Irish treasury shall, as soon as conveniently may be, cause the same to be transmitted to the exchequer in Eng., id. s. 2. [and vice versâ on process in Eng., id. s. 4.]

DEFENCE OF REALM.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

TO ENABLE H.M. TO PROVIDE FOR THE DEFENCE AND SECURITY of the realm during the present war, and for indemnifying persons who may suffer in their property by such measures as may be necessary for that purpose, 43 G. 3. c. 55. [AMD. 43 G. 3. c. 96., (which is amended by 43 G. 3. c. 120., 43 G. 3. c. 125., and which are REPEALED, the first two expressly and the latter virtually, by 46 G. 3. c. 90. s. 1.) 44 G. 3. c. 95. and 49 G. 3. c. 112.] [NOTE. These acts appear to have expired with the war. See 43 G. 3. c. 55. s. 22.]

(STATUTE in force.)

TO ENABLE H.M. ANNUALLY TO TRAIN AND EXERCISE a proportion of his subjects in Eng. under certain regulations; and more effectually to provide for the defence of the realm, 46 G. 3. c. 90. [This act seems in force, but is not given at length.]

DEPARTING REALM.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. NONE SHALL DEPART THE REALM WITHOUT LICENSE, 5 R. 2. st. 1. c. 2. [REPEALED as to departing realm, 4 J. 1. c. 1. s. 22.] (See rest of this title, GOLD, and SILVER.)

2. AGAINST FUGITIVES OVER THE SEA, 13 EL. c. 3. [REPEALED 14 EL. c. 6. both EXPIRED.]

3. MORE EFFECTUALLY TO PREVENT DURING THE WAR persons being H.M.'s subjects from voluntarily repairing to, or remaining in France, H b 2 or any country or place united to, or occupied by the armies of France, and to prevent correspondence with such persons, or with H. M.'s enemies, 38 G. 3. c. 79. [Exp.]

DISCONTINUANCE.

1. FOR CONTINUANCE OF ACTIONS AFTER THE DEATH OF any king, 1 E. 6. c. 7. [ALT. 1 M. S. 2. c. 8. s. 2. pl. 5., 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 18.]
  2. No action, suit, bill, or plaint depending in any court of record shall be discontinued by demise of H. M., but process and pleadings therein shall stand good and in the same condition as if H. M. had lived; and all judicial process had in the reign of any other king then regnant, shall be made in the name of the king regnant for the time being, and variance in such process between the names of such kings shall not be material, 1 E. 6. c. 7. s. 1.
  3. Assizes of novel discein, mori d'ancestor, juris utrum, and attaint hereafter commenced before judges of assize, shall not be discontinued or abated by the death, new commission, association, or not coming of such judges, id. s. 2.
  4. If any plaintiff shall be created duke, archbishop, marquis, earl, viscount, baron, bishop, knight, justice of either bench, or serjeant at law pending the same action, it shall not abate for that cause, id. s. 3.
  5. If any justice of assize, gaol-delivery, or of the peace, shall be created duke, &c. (as in s. 4.) or sheriff, [REP. as to sheriff, 1 M. S. 2. c. 8. s. 2.] he shall remain such justice notwithstanding, id. s. 4.
  6. Where any persons are found guilty of treason, murder, manslaughter, rape, or other felony for which judgment of death may ensue, and are reprieved to gaol without judgment against them, H. M.'s justices at any time thereafter assigned to deliver such gaol, shall have full power to give judgment of death against them, id. s. 5.
  7. No process or suit made or had before any justices of assize, gaol-delivery, oyer and terminer, or of peace, or other king's commissioners, shall be discontinued by the making any new commission or association, or by altering the names of such commissioners; but the new justices of assize, &c. may proceed in every behalf as if the old commissioners and justices had remained unaltered, id. s. 6.
- [See as to commissioners of the peace and gaol-delivery to cities and towns corporate not counties in themselves, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 18.]

DISORDERLY HOUSES.

2. Unlicensed places of public entertainment deemed disorderly houses, 25 G. 2. c. 36. s. 2. [See the section at length, THEATRES, &c.]
3. If any two inhabitants of any parish or place paying scot and lot therein do give notice in writing to any constable, (or other peace officer of the like nature where there is no constable,) of any person keeping a bawdy-house, gaming-house, or other disorderly house in such place, such constable, &c. shall forthwith go with such inhabitants to any justice of peace for the county or liberty; and upon such inhabitants making oath before such justice that they believe the contents of such notice to be true, and entering into a recognizance in the penal sum of 20*l.* each to produce material evidence against such person for such offence, shall enter into a recognizance in the penal sum of 30*l.* to prosecute such person with effect for such offence at the next quarter sessions or assizes for the county as to such justices shall seem fit; and such constable, &c. shall be allowed all expences of such prosecution, to be ascertained by two justices of the same county, &c. and shall be paid the same by the overseers of the poor of such place; and in case such person is convicted, such overseers shall pay 10*l.* each to such inhabitants; and if they refuse to pay such expences, or such 10*l.*, they shall forfeit to the party grieved double the sum so refused, id. s. 5.
4. A copy of the notice which shall be given to such constable under 25 G. 2. c. 36. s. 5. shall also be served on or left at the places of abode of the overseers of the poor, or one of them; and such overseers shall be summoned or have reasonable notice to attend before the justice before whom such constable shall have notice to attend; and if they shall then and there enter into such recognizance to prosecute as the constable is by such act required to enter into, then such constable shall not be required to enter into such recognizance; but if they neglect to attend or shall attend and decline or refuse to enter into such recognizance, then such constable shall enter into same, and shall prosecute, and be entitled to his expences, to be allowed as by s. 5. directed, 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 7. [See s. 8. FELONY.]
5. Upon such constable, &c. entering into such recognizance, such justice shall make out his warrant, to bring the party accused before him, and bind him over to appear at such sessions or assizes, there to answer to such indictment as shall be found against him for such offence; and may take security for such person's good behaviour in the mean time, 25 G. 2. c. 36. s. 6.

6. In case such constable shall neglect, upon such notice, to go before a justice, or enter into such recognizance, or shall be wilfully negligent in the prosecution, he shall forfeit 20*l.*, to each of such inhabitants, id. s. 7.

7. Any person who shall appear to act as the master or mistress, or person having the management of any such disorderly house, shall be deemed the keeper, and be prosecuted and punished accordingly, though not the real owner, id. s. 8.

8. Any person may give evidence in such prosecution of any disorderly house, on either side, although he may be an inhabitant of such parish, or has entered into such recognizance in 20*l.*, id. s. 9.

9. No indictment preferred against the keeper of any such disorderly house shall be removed by certiorari into any other court, but the same shall be sued and the penalty determined at the quarter sessions or assizes where the indictment is preferred, unless the court, on cause shewn, shall adjourn the same, id. s. 10.

10. All penalties, hereby inflicted, may be sued for by action of debt in any of the courts of record at Westminster, wherein it shall be sufficient to declare, that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of —l., being forfeited by an act, intituled, 'An Act for the better preventing thefts and robberies, and for regulating places of public entertainment, and punishing persons keeping disorderly houses,' and if the plaintiff recovers, he shall have full costs, id. s. 13.

11. No action shall be brought by virtue of this act, unless commenced within 6 calendar months after offence committed, id. s. 14.

DISPENSATION.

1. FOR HAVING LICENCES AND DISPENSATIONS within this realm, without suing further for the same, 25 H. 8. c. 21., ss. 2—29. [REP. 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8.; but REV. 1 EL. c. 1. EXT. to IRE. by 28 H. 8. c. 19. IR. (see the rest of this act, PAPIST, pl. 1.) Persons who obtained dispensations from Rome, released from them, 28 H. 8. c. 16., post, pl. 24.]

2. Neither H. M. nor any of his subjects shall sue to such bishop or see of Rome, or to any person pretending authority by the same, for licences, dispensations, compositions, faculties, grants, rescripts, delegacies, or any other instrument or writing, for any cause for which any licence, &c. hath been accustomed to be had at the see of Rome, or by authority thereof, or of any prelate of this realm, nor for any other licences, &c. that of necessity may be granted without offence to God; but every such licence, &c. necessary for H. M. or his subjects, on due examinations of the persons procuring the same, shall be granted as follows, (viz.) the archbishop of Canterbury may, by his discretion, grant by an instrument under his seal, to H. M., as well all such licences, &c. for causes not contrary to the laws of God, as heretofore have been accustomed to be had of the see of Rome, and all other licences, &c. for causes convenient, so that such archbishop, &c. shall not grant any such licence, &c. for any cause repugnant to the law of God, id. s. 3.

3. Such archbishop, after examination of the causes and qualities of persons procuring licences, &c. may, by himself or his commissary, or deputy, at discretion, grant, by an instrument under the name and seal of such archbishop, to all H. M.'s subjects, all licences, &c. for any cause whereof such licences, &c. have been accustomed to be had at the see of Rome, or by authority thereof, or of any prelate of this realm (s. 4.); and such archbishop or his commissary shall not grant any other licence, &c. in causes unwont to be so had, until H. M. or his counsel is advertised thereof, and do determine whether the same, in such causes unwont, shall commonly pass as other dispensations do or no, upon pain, that the grantors of such licence, &c. in such causes unwont, shall make fine at H. M.'s will; and if it be determined, that dispensations, &c. in such causes unwont, shall pass such archbishop or his commissary, having H. M.'s licence for the same, by his bill assigned, shall dispense with them accordingly, id. ss. 4, 5.

4. Provided, no licences, &c. to be granted under this act by the archbishop or his commissary, being of such importance, that the tax for the expedition thereof at Rome extended to 4*l.*, shall be put in execution till the same be first confirmed by H. M. under the great seal, and enrolled in chancery by a clerk to be appointed for the same, and this act shall be sufficient warranty to the chancellor to confirm such writings passed under such archbishop's seal by letters patent under the great seal, and remitting both instruments to the party; and all such licences, &c. for the expedition of which the tax at Rome was under 4*l.*, which be matters of no great importance, shall pass only by the archbishop's seal, unless the procurers of such licence, &c. desire to have them confirmed under the great seal; in which case they shall pay for the great seal to the use of H. M. 5*ss.*, besides such tax as shall be limited for the making, writing, registering, confirming, and enrolling, of such licence, &c. under such tax of 4*l.*, id. s. 6.

5. Every such licence, &c. for such causes as the tax was wont to be 4*l.* or above, so granted by the archbishop, and confirmed under the great seal, and all other licences, &c. to be granted by the archbishop by virtue of this act, whereunto the great seal is not of necessity to be put, shall be effectual without any revocation, 25 H. 8. c. 21. s. 7.

6. Children procreated after solemnization of marriages by virtue of such licences or dispensations, shall be legitimate, and inherit, and all acts done according to such licences, &c. shall be in force, notwithstanding any foreign decree, &c. id. s. 8.

7. Such archbishop shall make a clerk, who shall write and register every such licence, &c. and shall find parchment, wax, and laces, for the same, taking for the same the sums herein limited; and H. M. shall by letters patent under the great seal, depute 1 clerk learned in chancery, who shall be attendant upon the lord chancellor, and shall make and enrol the confirmation of such licences, &c. and shall also enrol the confirmations of such licences, &c. and shall also enrol of record such other writings as shall be brought under the archbishop's seal not [see pl. 4.] to be confirmed, taking for the same the sums herein limited; and the clerk appointed by such archbishop, and the clerk appointed by H. M., shall subscribe their name to every such licence, &c. that shall come to their hands, id. s. 9.

8. There shall be 2 books made of one tenor, in which shall be contained the taxes of all customable dispensations in such books, &c. wont to be sped at Rome, and both sides of every leaf shall be subscribed by the archbishop of Canterbury, the lord chancellor, the lord treasurer, and the two chief justices, to which books all suitors for dispensations, &c. shall have recourse; and one of such books shall remain in the hands of the register and scribe of such dispensations, &c. under such archbishop, and the other with the clerk of the chancery by H. M. appointed, which clerk of the chancery shall also note in his book the number and quality of the dispensations, &c. which are sealed only with the seal of the archbishop, and also which are sealed with such seal, and confirmed with the great seal, id. ss. 10, 11.

9. No man suing for dispensations, &c. which were wont to be sped at Rome, shall pay any more than shall be taxed in such books; compositions excepted, the tax whereof shall be set by such archbishop and the lord chancellor. And such as shall receive of any suitor more for any dispensation, &c. than shall be contained in such books, shall forfeit 10 times as much as he so received; the 1 half to H. M., and the other to such subjects as will sue for the same by an action in any court, wherein no essoin, &c. id. s. 12.

10. The tax appointed to be paid for every such dispensation, &c. shall be employed as ensueth, viz. if the tax extend to 4*l.* or above, it shall be divided into 3 parts, whereof 2 shall be divided into 3 parts, whereof 2 shall be received by the clerk of the chancery, to the use of H. M. and the lord chancellor, and of the clerk; and the 3d part shall be taken by the clerk of the archbishop, to the use of the archbishop and his commissary, and his said clerk and register; and such 2 parts shall be divided in 4 parts, of which 3 parts shall be taken to the only use of H. M., and the 4th part shall be divided in 3 parts, whereof the chancellor shall have 2 parts, and the clerk of the chancery the 3d part; and the 3d part of the whole tax appointed to the archbishop and his officers shall be divided into 3 parts, whereof the archbishop shall have 2, and his officers shall have the 3d part, of which 3d part to be divided into 2 parts, such clerk who shall find parchment, wax, and silk, and shall write such dispensations, &c. shall have the 1 moiety, and the commissary of the archbishop appointed to seal such dispensations, &c. shall have the other, id. s. 13.

11. If the tax be under 4*l.* and not under 40*s.*, it shall be divided into 3 parts, whereof H. M. shall have 2, abating 3*s.* 4*d.* which shall be to such clerk of the chancery for enrolling, &c. such dispensations, &c.; and the archbishop and his officers shall have the 3d, which 3d shall be divided into 3 parts, whereof the archbishop shall have the one, his scribe and commissary the other. And if the tax be under 40*s.* and not under 26*s.* 8*d.* the same shall be divided into 2 parts, whereof the 1 shall be to H. M., deducting thereof 2*s.* for the clerk of the chancery, and the other shall be to the archbishop and his officers, and be divided into 2 parts, whereof the archbishop shall have the 1, and his commissary and scribe the other; and if the tax be under 26*s.* 8*d.* and not under 20*s.*, the same shall be divided into 2 parts, whereof H. M. shall have the 1, abating 2*s.* to such clerk of the chancery, and the archbishop and his officers shall have the other, and the same shall be divided into 3 parts, whereof the archbishop shall have 1, his commissary the 2d, and his scribe or register the 3d; and in case the tax be under 20*s.*, the same shall be received to the use of the commissary, clerk of such archbishop, and clerk of the chancery, to be equally divided amongst them, id. s. 14.

12. This act shall not be prejudicial to the archbishop of York, or to any bishop of this realm, but that they may dispense in all cases in which they were wont to dispense by the common law, id. s. 15.

13. If the see of the archbishop of Canterbury be void, such licences,

&c. shall be granted under the seal of the guardian of the spiritualities and shall be deemed effectual, 25 H. 8. c. 21. s. 16.

14. If the archbishop of Canterbury, or the guardian of the spiritualities, refuse to grant any licences, &c. which they may do by this act, the chancellor shall direct H. M.'s writ to such archbishop, &c. enjoining him upon pain therein to be limited by such chancellor, that he shall in due form grant such licence, &c. or else signify in the chancery for what cause he refused; and if it appears to the chancellor upon such certificate, that the refusal was just, then on proof the same shall be allowed; and if it appear that the archbishop, &c. without a just cause, refused, H. M. shall send an injunction under the great seal, out of chancery, commanding the archbishop or guardian to make grant thereof by a certain day, and under a certain pain therein limited by H. M.; and if the archbishop or guardian, after receipt of the writ, refuse to grant such licences, &c. and show before H. M. no just cause why they should so do, they shall forfeit to H. M. such pain as is limited in injunction; and H. M. may give power, by commission under his great seal, to 2 spiritual persons to grant such licences, &c. so refused, id. s. 17.

15. Such 2 prelates or persons, to whom in such cases as in s. 17. any such commission is directed, shall grant every such licence, &c. so refused, by an instrument under their seals, taking the like fees as aforesaid, and not above under the pains aforesaid, and every such licence, &c. so granted for any cases whereunto any confirmation under H. M.'s great seal is by s. 6. appointed to be had, shall be had accordingly, and such licences and confirmation shall be had for like fees as before specified, and not above, under the pains aforesaid, and such licence, &c. so granted by persons so assigned, shall be as good and effectual as if granted under the name and seal of such archbishop, id. s. 18.

16. This act shall not be expounded that H. M. and his subjects intended to declare or vary from the congregation of Christ's church in any things concerning the very articles of the catholic faith, or in any other things declared by scripture necessary for their salvation, but only to make an ordinance by policies necessary to repress vice, and for the conservation of this realm in peace from spoil, not seeking for any relief for worldly things but within this realm at the hands of H. M., which has paramount power in the same, id. s. 19.

17. The archbishop of Canterbury shall have no power by this act to visit any colleges, hospitals, or other places religious, which be exempt; but redress, visitation, and confirmation shall be had by H. M. by commission under the great seal; so that no visitation be had by the bishop of Rome, nor by any under his authority or out of H. M.'s dominions, nor that any person resident in H. M.'s dominions depart out of such dominions, to any visitation or assembly for religion, id. s. 20.

18. This act, or any dispensation by virtue thereof, shall not extend to the repeal of the late act 21 H. 8. c. 15. for reformation of pluralities and non-residence; nor shall give licence to any person to have more benefices than is limited in such act, id. s. 21.

19. If any person within H. M.'s dominions sue to the court or see of Rome for any licence, &c. or put in execution any licence, &c. obtained from Rome, or from any claiming authority by the same for any of the above causes, or causes that may be granted by authority of this act, or attempt any thing contrary to this act; or maintain, admit, or obey any censures or other process from Rome, to the derogation of this act: such persons being convict, their aiders, and abettors, shall incur the penalty in the act of provision and præmunire, 16 R. 2. c. 5., id. s. 22.

20. Provided this act shall not be expounded to the derogation of any grants of any houses or places exempt, which before this act have been obtained at Rome, or by authority thereof; provided that the chief rulers and governors of such houses and places exempt shall not pay any pension or other cense to the see of Rome, nor admit any visitation, nor any confirmation from such see, or by authority thereof, of or for any person to be elect, named, or presented, to be heads of such houses exempt; nor shall make any oath to the bishop of Rome, upon the pain limited in this act; but every such visitation and confirmation of such heads elect, shall be made within this realm within such houses exempt by such persons as shall be appointed by H. M.'s commission, and not by the see of Rome, id. s. 23.

21. Provided that in such houses, &c. exempt, where after election, presentation, nomination of heads, no such confirmation hath been used, they shall not be bound to take any confirmation, but use their privileges therein as before this act, id. s. 24.

22. H. M., by advice of his council, shall have such power for the ordering and reformation of all indulgences and privileges thereof within this realm, heretofore obtained at the see of Rome, and of the abuses of such indulgences and privileges as shall seem good; and such order as shall be taken by H. M. in that behalf shall be observed, upon the pains limited in this act, id. s. 27.

23. Commencement of the act shall be Nativity of St. John Baptist, 1534, (s. 28.) and H. M. empowered to annul or ratify this act by letters patent, 25 H.8. c.21. s.29. [This act was so ratified, 7 April, 1534, 25 H.8.]

24. ALL WILLS, BREVES, FACULTIES, AND DISPENSATIONS heretofore obtained of the see of Rome, or by authority of such see, by any of H. M.'s subjects shall be void, and never used or allowed, on pain of præmunire, 28 H.8. c.16. s.1.

25. Those allowable shall be confirmed under the great seal, id. ss.6—7. [rest is Exp.]

DISSEISIN AND REDISSEISIN. (See ENTRY.)

1. ENQUIRY AND PUNISHMENT OF REDISSEISIN, 20 H.3. c.3. [Amended as to punishment, 52 & 54 H.3. c.8., and as to damages; and EXT. to recoveries by default, &c., 13 E.1. West. Sec. c.26.]

2. If any be disseised of his freehold, and before the justices in eyre have recovered seisin by assize of novel disseisin, or confession of the disseisor, and the disseisee hath seisin delivered by the sheriff, if the same disseisors shall again disseise the same plaintiff of the same freehold, and thereof be convict, they shall be committed to prison until the king hath discharged them, by fine or otherwise; and persons so convict, shall be thus punished, viz. when the plaintiff comes into court, he shall have the king's writ directed to the sheriff, in which must be contained the plaint of disseisin on disseisin, and it shall be commanded to the sheriff, that he, taking with him the keepers of the pleas of the crown, and other lawful knights, in his proper person shall go into the land for which plaint is made, and make by lawful proofs inquisition thereof, and if they find him disseised again, then he shall do as aforesaid; but if otherwise, the plaintiff shall be amerced and the other go quit. And the sheriff shall not execute such plaint without special commands of the king. In the same manner shall be done respecting those who have recovered seisin by assize of mort d'ancestor; and so it shall be of all lands and tenements recovered in the king's courts, by inquests, if they be disseised after by the deforceors against whom they have recovered by inquest, 20 H.3. c.3.

3. They which be imprisoned for redisseisin shall not be delivered without the special command of the king, and shall make fine with the king for their trespass; and if it be found that the sheriff delivereth them otherwise, he shall be grievously amerced, and they which are delivered shall be grievously punished, 52 or 54 H.3. c.8.

4. In writs of redisseisin double damages shall be awarded, and the redisseisor shall not be repleviable by the common writ, and the same writ shall hold place for them that shall recover by default, reddition, or otherwise, without recognition of assizes or juries, 13 E.1. West. Sec. c.26.

5. THE REMEDY, IF AN OFFICER OF THE KING do disseise any, 3 E.1. c.24.

6. No escheator, sheriff, or other bailiff of H. M. by colour of his office, shall without special warrant or authority, disseise any of his freehold, nor of any thing belonging thereto; and if any do, it shall be at the election of the disseisee whether the king by his office shall cause it to be amended, or that he will sue by writ of novel disseisin; and he that is attainted thereof, shall pay double damages to the plaintiff and be amerced to the king, id. ibid.

7. IF ANY MAN BE ATTAINED OF DISSEISIN, done in the time of the king that now is, with robbery of goods, the plaintiff shall recover his damages, goods and freehold, and the disseisor shall make fine and be awarded to prison; and so it shall be done of disseisin with force and arms, although there be no robbery, 3 E.1. c.37. [QU. EXP.]

8. IN WHAT CASE NONAGE OF THE HEIR OF the disseisor or disseisee shall not prejudice, 3 E.1. c.47.

9. If any purchase a writ of novel disseisin, and he against whom the writ is brought, as principal disseisor, dies, before assize passed, then the plaintiff shall have his writ of entry upon disseisin, against the heir of the disseisor, their ancestor, or against their heirs of what age soever they be; and in same-wise the heirs of the disseisee shall have writs of entry against the disseisors or their heirs, of what age soever they be, if such disseisee die before writ purchased, so that the nonage of either party shall not abate the writ or delay the plea; and in like manner, this point shall be observed with regard to prelates, men of religion, and others, to whom lands and tenements may descend after others death, whether they be disseisors or disseisees, and if the parties come to an inquest, and it pass against the heir within age, he shall have an attain of the king's grace, id. ibid.

10. THAT WRONGFUL DISSEISIN IS NO DESCENT IN THE LAW, 52 H.8. c.33.

11. The dying seised of any disseisor of any lands wherein he has no title shall not be such descent, as to toll the entry of the persons or their heirs, having good title of entry at the time of such descent, unless disseisor had 5 years peaceable possession next after the disseisin, without entry or continual claim of the persons having title thereunto, id. ibid.

DISTRESS. (See LANDLORD AND TENANT.)

1. NONE SHALL BE DISTRAINED FOR MORE SERVICE THAN IS DUE, 9 H.3. M. Ch. c.10.

2. A STATUTE OF DISTRESSES FOR THE EXCHEQUER, 51 H.3. st. 4.

3. When a sheriff or any other doth take another's beasts, they to whom the beasts belong may give them their feeding, as long as they are impounded, without giving anything for their keeping; and the distress taken for H. M.'s debt, or for any other cause, shall not be sold within 15 days, and if any bring the tally of a payment made in the exchequer the distress shall cease, and if he bring the tally of any sheriff or bailiff, and find pledges to appear in the exchequer upon the next account the distress shall cease. And the sheriff or bailiff shall attach him that ought to have acquitted him that he appear on the same account. No man shall be distrained by his beasts that gain his lands, nor by his sheep for H. M.'s debt or for other cause so long as they can find another sufficient, except impounding of beasts found damage feasant, and such distresses shall be reasonable after the value of the demand and the estimation of neighbours, and not by strangers. Sheriffs or bailiffs that have received H. M.'s debt of summons of the exchequer, and have not acquitted the debtors at the next account, shall punish after the statutes made thereupon, and all debts of summons of the exchequer that the sheriff or bailiff have confessed receipt shall be allowed, whether the whole or part only is received, so that it shall never come more in demand, id. ibid.

4. ALL PERSONS SHALL HAVE AND RECEIVE JUSTICE IN H. M.'s courts, 52 H.3. (st. Marl.) c.4.

5. All persons shall receive justice in H. M.'s court, and none shall take distresses of his own authority, without award of that court, though he have injury done him. And if any take such distresses of his own authority, and be convict thereof, he shall be punished by fine according to the trespass. And if one neighbour take a distress of another, without award of H. M.'s court, whereby he hath damage, he shall be punished in same wise after the quantity of the trespass. And amends shall be made to them that have sustained loss by such distresses, id. ibid.

6. NONE BUT SUITORS SHALL BE DISTRAINED TO COME TO A COURT, 59 H.3. (st. Marl.) c.2.

7. None shall distrain any to come to his court, which is not of his fee, or upon whom he hath no jurisdiction, by reason of hundred or bailiwick; nor shall take distresses out of his fee, or place where he hath no jurisdiction. And he that offendeth shall be punished as in c.1., according to the trespass, id. ibid.

8. DISTRESSES SHALL BE DELIVERED TO H. M.'s OFFICERS, 52 H.3. (st. Marl.) c.3.

9. If any will not suffer such distresses as he hath taken, to be delivered by H. M.'s officers, or will not suffer summons, attachments, or executions of judgments given in H. M.'s court to be done, he shall be punished as in c.1. And if any distrain his tenant for services and customs, or other thing, for which lord of the fee hath right to distrain, and after it is found that services are not due; the lord shall not therefore be punished by fine, as in cases aforesaid, if he suffer the distresses to be delivered, but shall be amerced, and tenant shall recover his damages against him, id. ibid.

10. A DISTRESS SHALL NOT BE DRIVEN OUT OF THE COUNTY. Distresses shall be reasonable, 52 (or 54) H.3. (st. Marl.) c.4. [ENF. And none to distrain out of his fee, 3 E.1. c.16.]

11. None shall cause any distress to be driven out of the county; and if any neighbour do so to another, of his own authority, and without judgment, he shall be punished by fine as in c.1.; nevertheless, if lord do so against his tenant, he shall be punished by amercement. Moreover the distresses shall be reasonable, and not too great; and he that taketh great and unreasonable distresses shall be grievously amerced for the excess, st. Marl. c.4.

12. In regard that some divers persons take the beasts of other, chasing them out of the shire, it is provided that if any do so he shall make a grievous fine, as is in the statute of Marlebrage, [52 H.3. c.4.] And likewise it shall be done to them which take beasts wrongfully and distrain out of their fee, and they shall be more grievously punished, if the manner of their trespass so require, 3 E.1. c.16.

13. IN WHAT PLACES DISTRESSES SHALL NOT BE TAKEN, 52 (or 54) H.3. (st. Marl.) c.15.

14. No man shall take distresses out of his fee, nor in highway, nor in common street, but only H. M. or his officers having special authority, id. ibid.

15. OF REPLEVING DISTRESSES, 52 (or 54) H.3. (st. Marl.) c.21.

16. If the beasts of any man be taken, and wrongfully withholden, the sheriff may deliver them without let of him that took them, if they were taken out of liberties, and if taken within liberties, and the bailiff thereof will not deliver them, then the sheriff shall, id. ibid.

17. NONE SHALL COMPEL HIS FREEHOLDER TO ANSWER FOR HIS freehold, 59 (or 54) H. 3. (st. Marl.) c. 22.

18. None shall distrain his freeholders to answer for their freeholds without H.M.'s writ, nor cause them to swear against their wills, id. ibid.

19. THE REMEDY IF A DISTRESS BE IMPOUNDED IN A CASTLE OR fortress, 5 E. 1. (st. West. Prim.) c. 17.

20. If any take the beasts of another, and drive them into a castle or fortress, and withhold them against gage and pledges, after demand made by sheriff or bailiff of H.M. at suit of the plaintiff, such sheriff or bailiff, taking with him the power of his bailiwick, shall essay to make replevin; and if any deforce him of deliverance, (or if no man be found to make deliverance after the lord of the taker is admonished so to do, by sheriff, &c.) H.M. for the trespass shall cause the castle or fortress to be beaten down without recovery; and all damages sustained by plaintiff in his beasts or otherwise (after the first demand made by the sheriff, &c.) shall be restored to him double by the lord or by him that took the beasts, if he have whereof, and if not he shall have it of the lord when the sheriff, &c. shall come to make deliverance; and where the sheriff ought to return H.M.'s writ to the bailiff of the lord of the castle, &c. or to any other to whom the return belongs, if the bailiff of the franchise do not make deliverance after sheriff hath made his return, then the sheriff shall do his office without delay, and upon the same pain; and in like manner deliverance shall be made by attachment of plaint without writ, and upon the same pain, and this is intended in all places where H.M.'s writ runs; and if it be done in the marches of Wa., or where H.M.'s writ runs not, H.M. shall do right therein, id. ibid.

21. NONE SHALL BE DISTRAINED FOR A DEBT which he oweth not, 3 E. 1. (West. Prim.) c. 23.

22. In no city, borough, market or fair, shall there be any stranger to the city, &c. distrained for debt whereof he is not debtor or pledge. And whosoever doth it shall be punished. And distress shall be without delay delivered by bailiff of place, or by H.M.'s bailiffs, if need be, id. ibid.

23. No distress shall be taken but by bailiffs sworn and known: and if they take distress otherwise, and thereof be convict, if parties grieved purchase a writ of trespass, they shall restore damages to them, and be grievously punished to H.M., 15 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 37.

24. DISTRESSES ON THE CLEMY shall not be taken in the highways, nor in the ancient fees of the church, Articuli Cleri, 9 E. 2. c. 9.

25. H.M.'s officers, as sheriffs and others, do enter spiritual fees to take distresses, and sometime take beasts of clergy in highway, where they have nothing but glebe land. The answer. Such distresses shall neither be taken in highway, nor in fees wherewith churches have been endowed. Nevertheless distresses may be taken in possessions newly purchased by ecclesiastical persons, id. ibid.

26. FOR PREVENTING UNDUE DISTRESSES IN Wa. and Lancashire, 28 H. 6. c. 4.

27. Persons taking other men's goods under colour of distress, where they have no cause, in Wales or Lancashire, shall be deemed guilty of felony, 28 H. 3. c. 4. [Exp.]

28. FOR THE IMPOUNDING OF DISTRESS, 1 & 2 Ph. & M. c. 12.

29. No distress of cattle shall be driven out of the hundred, rape, wapentake, or lath, where taken, except to a pound overt in the same shire, not above 3 miles distant from the place where taken; and no cattle or other goods distrained at one time shall be impounded in several places, whereby the owner shall be constrained to sue several replevies for the delivery thereof, on penalty of 100*s.* and treble damages to the party grieved, id. s. 1.

30. No person shall take for keeping in pound, impounding, or poundage of any distresses, above 4*d.* for any one whole distress so impounded; and where less has been used, there to take less, on penalty of 5*s.* to party grieved, besides the money he shall take above 4*d.*, id. s. 2.

31. Every sheriff of shires, being no cities, or of towns made shires, shall, at his first county day, or in 2 months after receiving his patent, appoint and proclaim in the shire town of his bailiwick, 4 deputies (dwelling not above 12 miles distant from each other, which deputies shall make replevies and deliverance of distresses in the sheriff's name: and as he may do: on pain of 5*s.* forfeiture by the sheriff for every month that he shall lack them; 1 half thereof to H.M., and the other half to the party suing by bill, plaint, information, or action of debt in courts of record, in which no essoin, &c. admitted, id. s. 3.

DOGS.

1. FOR PREVENTING THE STEALING OF DOGS, 10 G. 3. c. 18.

2. Every person who shall steal any dog from the owner, or person entrusted by the owner with such dog, or who shall sell, buy, receive, harbour, detain, or keep any dog, knowing the same to have been stolen, shall, on conviction on oath of 1 or more witnesses, or by confession before 3 justices for any county, division, or place, for the 1st offence forfeit not exceeding 30*s.*, nor less than 20*s.*, as to such justices seems meet, together with the charges of conviction, to be ascertained by such convicting justices; and if not forthwith paid, they shall commit him to the common gaol or house of correction for not exceeding 12, nor less than 6 calendar months, or until the penalty and charges are paid; and every person so convicted, who shall be again convicted of a like offence, shall forfeit not exceeding 50*s.*, nor less than 30*s.*, in discretion of the justices, with the charges of conviction by them ascertained; which penalties shall be paid in moieties to the informer and poor of the parish where the offence committed; and on non-payment such justices shall commit him to the common gaol or house of correction for not more than 18, nor less than 12 months, or until such penalty and charges are paid, and shall order him to be publicly whipped within 3 days after commitment, in the town wherein such gaol, &c. is, between 12 and 1 o'clock, 10 G. 3. c. 18. s. 1.

3. Any one justice for any county, division, or place, may, on information to him for that purpose, grant a warrant to search for any dog so stolen; and if such dog or his skin shall be found, shall restore same to the owner; and the person in whose custody such dog or skin is found (if it appear that he was privy to such dog having been stolen, or to the skin being that of a stolen dog), shall be respectively subject to the penalties in s. 1. id. s. 2.

4. All justices may cause the conviction to be in form following, or to the same effect:

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — A. B. is convicted before us — of H.M.'s justices of peace for the county of — [specify here the offence, and time and place when and where committed.] Given under our hands and seals the day and year aforesaid.' id. s. 3.

5. Any person aggrieved by any thing done in pursuance of this act, may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county or place where the cause of complaint arises, and in 4 days after the same arisen; such appellant giving 14 days' notice of appeal, and of the matter thereof, in writing, to the person whose acts are complained against, and within 2 days after such notice, entering into a recognizance before some justice, with 2 sureties conditioned to try such appeal, and abide the order of, and pay costs awarded by such sessions; which, on due proof of such notice and recognizance having been so given and entered, shall hear and determine the same in a summary way, and award costs to either party at their discretion: their determination shall be final, and no order or other proceedings on such convictions shall be quashed for want of form, or removed by certiorari or otherwise into any court at Westminster, id. s. 4.

DOWER.

1. A WIDOW SHALL HAVE HER MARRIAGE ESTATE, INHERITANCE, and quarantine, 9 H. 3. Mag. Chart. c. 7.

2. A widow, on death of her husband, shall forthwith have her marriage estate and inheritance, and shall give nothing for her dower, or for her marriage estate or for her inheritance, which she and her husband held together at time of his death; and she shall tarry in the chief house of her husband 40 days, within which her dower shall be assigned; unless it were assigned her before, or unless that house be a castle; and if she depart from the castle, a competent house shall be provided in which she may dwell till her dower is assigned her, and in the meanwhile she shall have reasonable stewards of common, and for her dower shall be assigned the 3d part of her husband's lands, which were his in his lifetime, except endowed or less at the church door; no widow shall be distrained to marry, [rest is REP. 12 C. 2. c. 24. ss. 1—2.] id. ibid.

3. A WOMAN shall recover damages in a writ of dower, 20 H. 3. c. 1. Stat. de Merton.

4. Widows deprived of their dowers or quarantine of lands, whereof their husbands died seized, who recover them by plea, those convict of such deprivation shall pay damages to such widow, viz. value of the dower from death of the husband unto the day of judgment of the court whereby the widows recovered their seisin, and the deprivers shall be amerced, id. ibid.

5. TENANT'S PLEA on a writ of dower, 3 E. 1. Stat. West. 1. c. 49.

6. Writs of dower unde nihil habet shall not abate by exception of tenant that she hath received her dower of another before writ purchased; unless he can show that she has recovered part of her dower from himself, and in the same town, id. ibid.

7. ON ALIENATION OF DOWER BY A WOMAN, the heir may have his writ of entry, 6 E. 1. c. 7. stat. Glouc. [EXPL. as to its commencement, EXPLANATIONES stat. Glouc., 6 E. 1., 1 vol. 8vo. edit. p. 136.]

8. If a woman sell, or give in fee or term of life, land holden in dower, the heir, or person to whom the land would revert on her death, shall have present recovery by a writ of entry in chancery, 6 E. 1. c. 7.

9. AGAINST RECOVERIES AND DISCONTINUANCES made by tenants in dower, 11 H. 7. c. 20.

10. If any woman, which shall have any estate in dower or for term of life, or in tail jointly with her husband, or only to herself or to her use, in manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments of the inheritance or purchase of her husband, or given to the husband and wife in tail or for life by any of the ancestors of the husband, or by any other person seized to the use of the husband or of his ancestors, shall, being sole or with any after taken husband, discontinue, alien, release or confirm with warranty, or by covin suffer any recovery of the same, all such recoveries, discontinuances, &c. shall be void; and the reversioner, after the woman's decease, may enter as if no such discontinuance, &c. had been made, 11 H. 7. c. 30. s. 1.

11. If any of such husbands and women, or any seized to their use, shall do, make or suffer any such discontinuance, recoveries, &c. the person so in reversion (as in s. 1.) may enter on and enjoy such manors, lands, &c. as against such husband during his life, according to their respective interests, as if such women had been dead; provided such women, after the decease of their husbands, may re-enter and enjoy the same according to their first estate therein, id. s. 2.

12. If such woman at the time of such discontinuances or recoveries, &c. be sole, then she shall be barred of interest in such lands, &c. and the reversioner (as in s. 1.) may enter and enjoy such lands, &c. according to his title, id. s. 3.

13. This act shall not extend to any such recovery or discontinuance to be had where the heir next inheritable to such woman, or where the reversioner next after the death of such woman is consenting to the same, id. s. 5.

14. Every such woman after the death of her first husband may give, sell or make discontinuance of any such lands for term of her life only, id. s. 6.

15. Any person who shall be attainted, convicted or outlawed of treason, petit-treason, misprision of treason, murder and felony, yet his wife shall be endowable, and shall enjoy her dower in like form as if her husband had not been so attainted, &c.; saving to all persons and corporation (other than the offender) all such right, entry, lease, profit, &c. as any of them had at the time of attainder, 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 17. [*See as to treason, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 11. s. 13. TREASON; and id. CORRUPTION OF BLOOD.*]

16. FOR DISCHARGING THE LANDS OF ANY HUSBAND OF DOWER in cases where the wife shall accept of a jointure in bar of dower, 27 H. 8. c. 10. ss. 6—9. [*See the rest of this act, USES AND TRUSTS; and 10 C. 1. st. 2. c. 1, fre. This title is framed from the following sections.*]

17. Where any estate or purchase of lands, tenements or hereditaments shall be made to any husband and his wife, and to his heirs, or to him and his wife and the heirs of their two bodies begotten, or to the heirs of one of their bodies begotten, or to him and his wife for their lives, or the life of the wife, or to any person and their heirs and assigns to the use of the wife as aforesaid for the jointure of the wife, then every woman married, having such jointure, shall not claim or have any dower of the residue of the lands, &c. that at any time were her husband's, of whom she had such jointure, nor demand the same of those that have the inheritance of her said husband; but if she have no such jointure, then she shall have her dower by writ of dower, according to law, 27 H. 8. c. 10. s. 6.

18. If any such woman be lawfully evicted from her jointure, or from any part thereof, without any fraud or covin, by lawful entry, action or by discontinuance of her husband, she shall be endowed of as much of the residue of her husband's lands whereof she was before endowable as the same lands from which she was evicted shall amount to, id. s. 7. [s. 8. Exp.]

19. Provided that if any wife shall have any manors, lands, &c. given unto her, and assured after marriage for term of her life, or otherwise in jointure, except the assurance be by act of parliament, and she survives her husband in whose time such jointure was made unto her; then she may, after the death of such her husband, refuse to take the lands given unto her during coverture for her life, or otherwise in jointure, and thereupon may take her dower by writ of dower, or otherwise, according to law of all lands of which her husband was seized at any time during the coverture, id. s. 9.

DYER.

(STATUTE repealed.)

FOR PREVENTING FRAUDS AND ABUSES IN THE DYING TRADE, 13 G. 3. c. 24. [REP. 23 G. 3. c. 15. s. 1.]

1. FOR RENDERING THE 13 G. 1. c. 24. MORE EFFECTUAL, 23 G. 3. c. 15. [PUBLIC clause, s. 16.]

2. If any person shall, within Eng. or Wa. and Ber., dye any cloths, hays, or other woollen goods of any kind whatsoever, as for mather blacks, not being dyed throughout in first place with woad and indigo, such person shall forfeit for every piece of long Bocking bays, containing 70 yards, or upwards, 5*l.*; for every piece of Colchester bays, or short bays, containing 35 yards, or upwards, 50*s.*; and for every piece of other woollen goods of any kind whatsoever, 6*d.* per yard; and if any person shall dye any woollen cloth, as or for woaded black, the same not being woaded throughout, such person shall forfeit for every piece of such cloth, 2*s.* per yard, 23 G. 3. c. 15. s. 2.

3. All woollen goods, mathered black according to this act, shall be marked with a red rose and a blue rose; and all woollen cloth woaded black throughout, according to this act, shall be marked with a blue rose only; and if any person shall counterfeit or cause to be counterfeited such marks, or shall dye, or affix any such mark to woollen cloths falsely dyed as for mathered or woaded blacks, he shall forfeit 4*l.* for every piece, upon which such mark shall be so stained or affixed, id. s. 3.

4. If any person shall use any logwood, or logwood liquor, in dyeing blue any woollen goods of any kind whatsoever, he shall forfeit 20*l.* for every piece, id. s. 4.

5. The masters, wardens, and court of assistants of the company of dyers of London, under the common seal of such company, together with certain persons here named, or any 3 of them, shall appoint such number of persons as they think proper to be searchers of all shops, warehouses, workhouses, and tenter grounds or drying places of all persons using the mystery of dying, drying, or packing woollen goods, and also all public warehouses, and other public places where any woollen goods packed for exportation are deposited, situate within the city of London, or 10 miles thereof; and shall from time to time appoint others in room of such as shall die, resign, or be removed, and any searcher so appointed may at all times in day-time, enter into such shop, warehouse, &c. to search for and examine all woollen goods dyed black or blue, whether packed or not, and may take a pattern from either end thereof for the purpose of proving same, on taking to his assistance a peace-officer of the parish wherein such shop, warehouse, &c. is situated, who shall assist when required, id. s. 5.

6. When the persons hereby empowered to appoint searchers shall die, or refuse to act, 3 of the survivors by writing under their hands shall appoint another person (being a dyer of woollen goods within such limits) in room of such person so dying or refusing to act, who shall have like power as the person he succeeds to, id. s. 6.

7. Such company of dyers (as in s. 5.), and such persons so authorized to appoint searchers, shall meet at Dyers' hall, or other place in the city, as often as necessary, to appoint searchers, and may adjourn themselves; but if at any such meeting a sufficient number of persons authorized to act in appointment of searchers shall not attend, or omit to adjourn, any of such persons may adjourn such meeting to such time and place as he thinks proper, id. s. 7.

8. Provided, that if at any such meeting to appoint searchers such company shall not attend, the persons hereby authorised to appoint searchers, or 3 of them, may appoint a searcher, who shall have the same power as if he was appointed by such company, id. s. 8.

9. If such company and persons shall refuse or neglect to appoint searchers, any 2 persons, being dyers of woollen goods, may apply to the quarter-sessions holden within such limits (as in s. 5.), and make complaint thereof, and such sessions may enquire touching the same, and, if deemed necessary, may appoint such searchers within such limits, who shall have like power as if appointed by such company and persons as before directed, id. s. 9.

10. To prevent frauds and abuses in dyeing of woollen goods in such places as are not within the city of London and ten miles thereof, the justices at their general or quarter-sessions, shall appoint searchers within their jurisdictions; and every person so appointed shall be invested with like power to act as a searcher in pursuance of this act, within the limits for which he shall be appointed, as are herein given to any searcher within London, and 10 miles of such city, id. s. 10.

11. No person shall be capable of acting as a searcher, until he shall have taken and subscribed an oath to the effect following, viz.

'I do swear, that I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly execute and perform the trust reposed in me as a searcher, by virtue of an act of parliament, made in the twenty-third year of the reign of his majesty king George the third, for rendering more effectual the provisions contained in an act of the thirteenth year of king George the first, for preventing frauds and abuses in the dying trade.'

Which oath the persons by whom he is appointed, or one of them, shall administer, id. s. 11.

12. If any person shall oppose, obstruct, hinder, or prevent any such searcher in execution of powers hereby vested in him, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 12.

13. All penalties for offences against this act, where exceeding 5*l.*, shall be recovered in the name of any person who shall inform, by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no assize, &c. and all such forfeitures which shall not exceed 5*l.*, shall, upon proof of offence before any justice for county where offence done, either by confession of party, or by oath of one witness, be levied and recovered by distress and sale of goods of the party offending, by warrant under hand and seal of such justice, directed to any constable, or other peace-officer; and overplus, after pe-nalities and charges deducted, shall be returned, upon demand, to the owner; and in case sufficient distress cannot be found, and such penalties shall not be forthwith paid, such justice shall cause the offender to be committed to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 3 months; and one moiety of all penalties recovered from persons residing within London, or 10 miles thereof, shall go to the informer, and the other shall be disposed of in the manner directed by the persons attending any meetings to be holden for appointment of searchers within London, &c. and the whole of all other such penalties shall go to informer, 23 G. 3. c. 15. s. 13.

14. All prosecutions for offences against this act shall be commenced within 40 days after committed or discovered, and shall be prosecuted with effect; and any person aggrieved by order of any justice may appeal to the next general quarter-sessions, first giving reasonable notice of such appeal to the prosecutor; and the judgment of such sessions shall be final; and such sessions upon such appeal shall allow costs to either party, to be levied as is usual in other cases of appeal, 23 G. 3. c. 15. s. 14.

15. All actions for any thing done in pursuance of this act shall be commenced within 3 calendar months after cause of action arose, and shall be laid in the county, city, or place where it arose; defendant may plead general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it shall so appear, or that the action was commenced after time limited, or was laid in the wrong county, &c., then the jury shall find for the defendant; and on such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after appearance, or has judgment against him on demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs with usual remedy to recover same, id. s. 15.

Dividend raised, 53 G.3. c.155. s.57. pl. 30. and infra, pl. 361.]

42. The deficiency of 141,941*l.* appearing in the annual account made up to 1st March 1784, shall be carried forward as a charge in the account of 1784, and if any deficiency appears in the account of any subsequent year during the continuance of the participation between the public and the Co. mentioned in 21 G.3. c.65. s.9., it shall be carried forward to next year's account, id. s.5.

43. TO ENABLE THE E.I.C. TO RAISE MONEY BY A SALE OF ANNUITIES, and by increasing their capital stock, 26 G.3. c.62. [Public clause, s.9. AMP. 31 G.3. c.11.]

44. The Co., with consent of 3 commissioners of treasury, may borrow any sum of money by subscription from any persons, bodies politic or corporate, by sale or mortgage of a fund attended with an annuity of 3 per cent. per ann. not exceeding the annual sum of 36,226*l.* 16*s.*, being an annuity due to the Co. from the public in consideration of 1,207,559*l.* 15*s.*, part of the debt of 4,200,000*l.* due from the public, such sale to be made at such price as the directors, with consent of treasury, shall think fit; after which sale, the said annuities shall be paid and transferred in like manner, and the proprietors shall hold their shares of the said fund to be purchased in like manner, as the present proprietors now hold the respective sums belonging to them in the annuity fund of 2,992,440*l.* 5*s.* borrowed pursuant to the powers of 23 G.2. c.22. s.5. (ante, pl. 36.) and the annuities so sold shall be consolidated with that fund; and the said debt of 4,200,000*l.* due from the public to the Co., and the annuities payable in respect thereof, shall be a collateral security to proprietors of the annuities so sold, &c. in the same manner as those sold under 23 G.2. c.22. pl. 35., 26 G.3. c.62. s.1. [These powers are continued to the Co. for their exercise from time to time, 31 G.3. c.11.]

45. The Co. may, with like consent, receive subscriptions for enlarging their capital stock of 3,200,000*l.* by not exceeding 800,000*l.*, so as to make their whole stock 4,000,000*l.*, to be subscribed for at 160*l.* for every 100*l.* stock, or at such other rate as the directors, with consent of treasury, shall direct, which capital stock so subscribed shall be deemed part of their capital stock, and the subscribers, members of the Co., entitled to all advantages and dividends thereon, (s.3.) and are subject to all its regulations, id. s.2. [The regulations of subscription follow, but are not here inserted, being Exp.]

46. The E.I.C. may borrow money upon, and issue bonds under, their common seal, as their affairs may require, not exceeding 1,200,000*l.* beyond the sum for which they may now by law issue their bonds, 28 G.3. c.29. s.1. [viz. 5,000,000 comm. semb. see 7 G.1. S.1. c.5. s.32. supra, pl. 33.]

47. They may raise 1,000,000*l.* by a further increase of their capital stock, 29 G.3. c.65.

48. FOR PLACING THE STOCK, CALLED EAST INDIA ANNUITIES, under management of bank of Eng., and engraving the same on the 3 per cent. Red. Ann. in redemption of a debt of 4,200,000*l.* owing by the public to the E.I.C., 33 G.3. c.47. [Public clause, s.16.]

49. The annuities sold by the E.I.C. [by virtue of 23 G.2. c.22. ante, pl. 36.] amounting to 2,992,440*l.* 5*s.* capital at 3 per cent. per ann. and called EAST INDIA ANNUITIES, and the annuity of 89,773*l.* 4*s.* payable to the holders of the former, and the like annuities amounting to 1,207,559*l.* 15*s.* capital [residue of the above debt of 4,200,000*l.* see title,] with the annuity of 36,226*l.* 16*s.* payable to E.I.C. in respect thereof, are transferred from the management of the E.I.C. to the bank, and consolidated with the 3 per cent. Red. Ann., the annual interest of both sums, viz. 126,000*l.* per ann. remaining charged on the consolidated fund, [under 27 G.3. c.13. s.33. pl. 23.] and being issued half yearly by the exchequer to the bank as part of the 3 per cent. Red. Ann., by which name, and as such stock only, the above annuities shall be transferred or redeemed, the power of redemption reserved to the E.I.C. by 26 G.3. c.62. (s.1. at end,) or 31 G.3. c.11., and the allowance of 168*l.*

per ann. for management of the above annuities being repealed and discontinued, 33 G.3. c.47. s.1.

50. The holders of such E.I. annuities shall be deemed to have assented to such consolidation, unless they have signified their dissent before 31 Aug. 1793, in a book opened at the bank for entry thereof (s.2.); but the annuities of those that dissent, shall continue to be managed and paid by the Co., and repaid to the Co. by the bank, 33 G.3. c.47. ss.2—3.

51. The above annuities after their consolidation, (as in s.1.) shall continue liable to the same uses, trusts, settlements, and incumbrances, as before, unless by this act otherwise provided, and the Co.'s power under any act in force to sell, mortgage, or dispose of their share of the capital stock (viz. the 1,207,559*l.* 5*s.* in s.1. pl. 49.) remains valid, id. s.4.

52. The treasury shall make a reasonable allowance to the bank for management, &c. of the annuities transferred under s.1., id. s.6.

53. Any share of the said annuities retained by the E.I.C. shall be paid by the public to the Co. at par, antecedent to the determination of their exclusive trade, id. s.7. [CONF. 53 G.3. c.155. s.3. infra.]

54. The E.I.C., with consent of treasury, may receive subscriptions for enlarging their capital stock of 5,000,000*l.* to any sum not exceeding a further sum of 1,000,000, thus making their whole capital stock 6,000,000, to be subscribed at the rate of 200*l.* for every 100*l.* stock, id. s.8. [Regulations for the subscription follow in s.9—15, but are not inserted here, being Exp.]

55. From the money so raised, the Co. shall reduce their bond debt in G. B. to 1,500,000*l.* [2,000,000*l.*, 34 G.3. c.41. next pl.] after which they may apply the rest to paying such of their debts as they think fit, id. s.14.

56. The E.I.C. may continue their bond debt in G. B. at 2,000,000*l.*, and apply the remainder of the money raised under 33 G.3. c.47. for the general purposes of their commerce; and may, with consent of the board of control, at any time hereafter, borrow a further sum of 1,000,000*l.* on bonds under their common seal, 34 G.3. c.41. s.1.

57. TO ENABLE THE E. I. C. TO RAISE MONEY BY FURTHER INCREASING THEIR CAPITAL STOCK, and to extend the existing provisions respecting the present stock of the Co. to such increased stock, 37 G.3. c.31. [Public clause, s.10. AMP. 47 G.3. S.2. c.41. and 51 G.3. c.64.]

58. The Co., with consent of treasury, may, from time to time, receive subscriptions from any person or body of persons, for enlarging their capital stock of 5,000,000*l.* by any sum not exceeding 2,000,000*l.* additional capital stock, which additional capital stock shall, from time to time, be subscribed and paid for at such rate for every 100*l.* thereof, as the court of directors, with consent of treasury, shall direct, and the subscription shall be made and the money paid in like manner as, and it shall be taken to be, part of the Co.'s capital stock, and the subscribers thereof to be members of, and incorporated with the Co., with all the advantages and under all the regulations to which the present members of the Co. and stockholders are subject in respect of their stock by statute, charter, or bye-law, which stock shall be transferable, and the proprietors shall hold their shares thereof, in like manner as the original stockholders do, and the whole shall be consolidated as 1 joint stock, 37 G.3. c.31. s.1.

59. The Co. shall, from time to time, pay the like dividends to the proprietors of the additional as on the original stock, the first of which shall commence from the time specified in the proposals for the subscription, id. s.2.

60. The court of directors, with consent of treasury, may give the preference in subscribing for the additional stock to their stockholders at the time of subscription, not exceeding 50*l.* per cent. on the capital stock then held by each subscriber for all sums subscribed by them, on or before a day fixed by the court of directors, and if the subscriptions made on or before that day, exceed the sum proposed to be sold at that time, a proportionable deduction shall be made from each subscription, and if it falls short of such sum, the deficiency shall be disposed of to other persons, as the court of directors, with consent of treasury, shall think fit, id. s.3.

61. The directors, with the above consent, may agree to sell the whole, or any part of such additional capital stock, to any 1 or more persons, id. s.4.

62. When payments are made for the additional stock subscribed for, the Co.'s treasurer shall, at a reasonable time, give receipts for the same, transferable by indorsement, and when the last payment is made, the holder of such receipts, on delivering them up, shall have his name entered in the Co.'s books, with an account of the capital stock of each proprietor, as now kept in the present form, id. s.5.

63. In case any subscriber, after having subscribed, shall not make his payments at the proper times, the E.I.C. may sell the stock subscribed for by such defaulter to any other person, and all previous payments by him are forfeited to the Co., id. s.6.

64. Any guardian or trustee having the disposition of any infant's money, may subscribe and pay for such additional stock, or any part thereof, on the terms of this act, the infant being entitled to the advantages thereof, and the guardian being discharged in respect of the sums so advanced by him, so as the infant's name is expressed in the receipts for the same, 37 G. 3. c. 31. s. 7.

65. The E. I. C., with consent of the board of control, may borrow on their bonds under their common seal, any sum not exceeding 2,000,000*l.* above such sums, as they can now lawfully [under 34 G. 3. c. 41.] raise on their bonds, applying the same for the purposes to which that raised by 37 G. 3. c. 31. is applicable, 47 G. 3. (S. 2.) c. 41. s. 1. [2,000,000*l.* more in like manner, 51 G. 3. c. 64. s. 1.]

66. When the Co. have raised 4,000,000*l.* under 37 G. 3. c. 31., 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 41. and this act, they shall not raise any further sum on bond; and all money, which shall thenceforth be raised by increase of capital stock under 37 G. 3. c. 31., shall be applied in discharge of the said bond-debt created by 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 41. and this act, until the same, together with the money raised by increase of capital as aforesaid, is reduced to 1,000,000*l.*, 51 G. 3. c. 64. s. 3.

67. All bonds issued under the common seal of the Co. by virtue of any power to borrow money thereon, shall be transferable by delivery, and on every such transfer or assignment, the money secured by the bond transferred, with the property therein, shall be vested in the assignee, who, or whose executors, representatives, may sue thereon, as the present obligee may, and shall recover their debt, damages, and costs of suit; and if plaintiff be nonsuit or has verdict against him, defendant shall recover his costs against plaintiff, and every such plaintiff and defendant respectively recovering, may sue out execution for such debt, damages, and costs, ca. sa., fi. fa., or elegit, id. s. 4.

68. To regulate the bonds issued by the E. I. C. as to the rate of interest payable thereon, 44 G. 3. c. 3. ss. 3—4.

69. The E. I. C., with consent of the board of control, may allow the same interest on money raised by bonds lawfully issued by the E. I. C., as is allowed on exchequer bills issued at the same time; and all bonds and instruments for securing money raised thereon are valid, and no person is liable to any penalty for accepting such interest, id. s. 5.; but this shall not prevent the Co. from allowing legal interest on such bonds, id. s. 4.

70. To authorize the transfer to the E. I. of debts originally contracted there on the part of the E. I. C. payable in Eng., 52 G. 3. c. 121.

71. All agreements for the re-transfer from London to the E. I. of sums of money to be invested by way of loan to the Co. in the E. I., there to bear interest after an Indian rate, and all securities for payment of any such sums of money, or interest thereof, shall be valid in law, 52 G. 3. c. 121. s. 1.

III. General provisions affecting the regulation of the company, and its servants; its trade; and the local government of India.

72. For settling the trade to India, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44. ss. 56, 57. 60—69. 75. 86. [And 6 A. c. 3. s. 2.] All penalties inflicted by 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44. are repealed by 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 146., but the exclusive right of trade, granted by the act, was recognised as never having been put an end to; and its infringement was declared a public wrong, affording a defence to underwriters on policies signed in contravention of its provisions, 6 T. R. 765., 1 B. & P. 272.

75. H. M. may, by patent, incorporate the subscribers of the sum of 2,000,000*l.* [note, pl. 25.] in 100*l.* shares, (s. 48.) to be one body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, a common seal, and power to them and their successors to purchase lands, plead, and be impleaded, and do all other things by the name of their corporation; viz. "The general society entitled to the advantages given by an act of parliament, for advancing a sum not exceeding 2,000,000*l.*, in the service of the crown of Eng." id. s. 56. [But this society seems superseded by 6 A. c. 17., infra, pl. 92. and pl. 78.; and see Tumlin's Law Dict. tit., E. I. C. (1.), where it is shewn, that this general society for trade to India, by individual members thereof, was much neglected, for the superior advantages of being concerned in the joint stock trade, erected by s. 62. of this act; (and it does not appear that the former ever sent out a single ship;) and, at the union of the two companies, (see infra, pl. 92.) out of the whole loan of 2,000,000*l.*, only 7,200*l.* remained the property of the separate traders of the united society, (see 6 A. c. 17. s. 7.) which sum was also soon absorbed in the UNITED COMPANY, making their capital stock, on which dividends were then to be made, 2,000,000*l.*, to which 1,000,000*l.* advanced under 6 A. c. 17. s. 4., was afterwards added, (see supra, pl. 23.)

74. The sum total of all the subscriptions, shall be the principal stock of the said corporation, and all persons shall have a share in proportion to their subscriptions, id. s. 57.

75. The yearly sum of 160,000*l.*, [now diminished to 126,000*l.* on 4,200,000*l.* debt, see ante, pl. 23.] shall be paid to the general society, or their treasurer, in trust, for the members, id. s. 60.

76. No company established in pursuance hereof, shall borrow any sums on credit of the funds hereby granted, nor borrow, owe, or give security for any greater sum than shall be employed in their trade, (which shall be borrowed only on their common seal, and not repayable in less than 6 months,) nor discount any bills or notes, or keep books, or cash for any persons, other than their own corporation, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44. s. 75.

77. The subscribers, and all persons licensed by them in their stead, may trade to the E. I., and the parts beyond the Cape of Good Hope, to the straits of Magellan; but none shall trade by himself, or others, in any one year, for more than the amount of his stock, id. s. 61.

78. All persons entitled to shares in the principal stock may be incorporated into a company, to trade with a joint stock, in proportion to their interests, by such name as H. M. shall think fit, with perpetual succession, common seal, &c., id. s. 62.; [viz. the English company, see 6 A. c. 17. s. 1. infra, pl. 92.]

79. If the present Co., (viz. the London E. I. C.,) or any other person or persons, shall make any dividend of their stock and estates, or of any part, effects, or produce thereof, before full payment of their just debts, then every member who, in his private or personal capacity, shall receive any share of such dividend, shall be liable, as far as his share so by him received on such dividend shall extend, to satisfy the said debts, or such of them as remain due to any others persons, bodies politic or corporate, who may sue for, and recover the same, by virtue hereof, with double costs, by action of debt, or on the case, id. s. 85. [But the double costs here given, seem in nature of a penalty, all of which, by this act inflicted, were REP. 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 146.]

80. Every company erected in pursuance of this act shall take care that the sum total of their debts does not exceed the value of their capital; and, in case they shall, by dividends, so reduce their capital, that it is insufficient to answer their debts, the members shall be liable, as far as their shares received on such dividends extend, to pay the debts, besides costs, id. s. 86.

81. After incorporating such joint stock company, the proportionable parts of the above annuity (see s. 60.) payable to the members thereof shall be paid at the exchequer to the E. I. C., or their treasurer, in trust for the members, by weekly payments, id. s. 63.

82. Every member of the general society, not in the company, shall, before he be permitted to trade, take an oath before two of the trustees, to be faithful to the general society, and not to trade to the E. I. for more than this act allows; and all persons trading by licence shall enter their licences in the books of the general society, and take an oath to the like effect. And no member of any company having power to trade thither, during his continuance in the said company, shall trade otherwise than in the joint stock. And every member of such company shall take an oath before two of the trustees, to be faithful, and not to trade to the E. I. (during his continuance in the company) on any private account. And no person shall be intrusted to trade upon the joint stock, or for a company, before he hath taken an oath, to be faithful to such company, and not to trade thither but for the account thereof, id. s. 64.

83. Quakers may, instead of an oath, make a solemn declaration to the same effect, id. s. 65.

84. All persons trading to the E. I. in pursuance of this act, (except in a company,) shall enter the goods they export, before the lading thereof, with the ship's and master's name; which entries shall be on oath, or solemn affirmation, made before two trustees, till a company be erected, and then before two directors thereof, id. s. 66.

85. The general society and companies may be empowered by charters to make by-laws for the good of the trade, id. s. 67.

86. Persons not making true entries and affirmations, shall forfeit the goods exported, or designed to be exported, and the proceed thereof, and double the value, to be divided as the charters shall appoint, id. s. 68.

87. No company or particular person, shall trade to the E. I. before security given to the commissioners of customs, [as in next placitum,] id. s. 69.

88. Such security shall be at the rate of 2500*l.* for every 100 ton that the ships are let for; and the English Co., for every ship sent out by them, shall give security with the condition following; viz.

"Whereas in pursuance of an act of parliament, made in the ninth year of H. late M.'s reign, intituled, An act for raising a sum not exceeding 2,000,000*l.* upon a fund for payment of annuities, after the rate of 8*l.* per cent. per ann. and for settling the trade to the E. I., the ship — whereof captain — is master, of the burthen of — tons, is, under the regulation of the said act bound out upon a voyage to the E. I., or other parts within the limits prescribed by the said act, with a cargo or loading of goods upon account of the above bound English company trading to the E. I.: the condition of this obligation is such, that if all the goods, wares, merchandises, and commodities, which shall at any time or times hereafter, during the continuance of this present intended voyage, be laden by or for the said company or any of them, or for their or any of their accounts, in the said ship, from the said E. I., or parts aforesaid, shall be, without breaking bulk, brought to

Some port of G. B., and there be unladen and put on land (the danger of the seas, enemies, pirates, constraint of princes and rulers, barratry of seamen, and necessary provisions, stores and merchandises for the people and garrison of St. Helena, only for their own proper consumption excepted) then this obligation shall be void, or else shall remain in full force, effect, and virtue, 6*A. c. 3. s. 1.*"

89. All goods laden in E. I. or other parts within E. I. Co.'s charter, on any ship belonging to H. M.'s subjects, with intent to be transported from the E. I. shall be brought to G. B., and unladen, except stores for St. Helena, and except danger of seas, enemies, pirates, restraint of princes, or barratry, on pain of forfeiting all such goods, or their value, one moiety to H. M., and the other to them that shall sue for same, in any court at Westminster, without any essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 2.

90. FOR ASSIGNING TO THE ENGLISH [United Company of Merchants of Eng. trading to the E. I. s. 13.], on account of the United Stock, a longer term in the fund and trade herein mentioned, and for raising thereby from them 1,200,000*l.* for carrying on the war, and for H. M.'s other occasions, 6*A. c. 17. [PUBLIC clause, s. 14.]*

91. The said Co. shall advance 1,200,000*l.*, as above, (s. 1.)

92. "Recital (s. 1.) inter alia, that by indenture triplicate, bearing date, 22*July*, 1702, between H. M. of the 1*st.*; the London E. I. Co. of the 2*d.*; and the English Co. (created 9 & 10*W. 3. c. 34. s. 62.*, supra, pl. 78.) of the 3*d.* part, it was agreed, that an union of the companies should be effected by a purchase by the London Co. of an equal moiety of the capital stock of the English Co., and that the E. I. trade should be wholly carried on by the United Company, according to the charter of 5*Sept.* 10*W. 3.*" The English Co. may borrow by their common seal on their united stock, so as the principal money owing does not exceed 1,500,000*l.*, above what might lawfully be borrowed thereon, before this act, id. s. 2.

93. In case the general court of the said English Co. shall think fit, they may call in monies from their adventurers, towards raising the said 1,200,000*l.*, or re-paying the money borrowed for that purpose: and in case any member shall neglect to pay his share of the monies called in, or which the said companies in pursuance of 9*W. 3. c. 44.* or their charters, shall call in for carrying on their trade (by notice, fixed on the Royal Exchange, London) the companies may stop the dividends payable to such member, and apply the same towards such payment; and also stop the transfers of the shares of such defaulter, and charge him with interest, at 6*per cent.* for the monies neglected to be paid; and if the principal and interest be not paid in 3 months, may sell so much of the stock of the defaulter as will pay the same, id. s. 3.

94. The said 1,200,000*l.* (s. 1.) shall be deemed an addition to the stock of the English Co., and be tax-free, id. s. 1.

95. The united stock of the said English Co. shall be subject to the debts contracted by them, id. s. 5.

96. Upon importation of goods by such English Co., the officers of customs shall take bonds of them, for the custom of such goods for which bonds have been usually given, id. s. 11.

97. FOR FURTHER PREVENTING H. M.'s SUBJECTS FROM TRADING to the E. I. under foreign commissions, and for encouraging and securing the lawful trade thither, 7*G. 1. S. 1. c. 21.*

98. All contracts made by any of H. M.'s subjects, or in trust for them, on the loan of monies, by way of bottomry on any ship in the service of foreigners, and bound to the E. I., &c.; and all contracts for supplying her with goods or provisions, and all co-partnerships relating to any such voyage, and agreements for the wages of persons serving on board such ship, shall be void, id. s. 8.

99. All the penalties herein appointed, [or in 9*W. 3. c. 44. Rer.* 33*G. 3. c. 52.*] or in 6*A. c. 3.* or in 5*G. 1. c. 21.* relating to the E. I. Co., shall be sued for in any court of record at Westminster, at the suit of the attorney-general, or of the Co., or of any officer of the customs; and one-third of such penalties shall be to the crown, one other third to the company, and the remaining third to such officers of the customs as shall sue as aforesaid, id. s. 6.

100. Before any suit is commenced for the above penalties by any officer of customs, he shall go to the court of directors of the Co., and make known to them the offence, and his intentions to sue for the same; and if the said court shall elect to have the suit brought by bill in the exchequer, with waiver of the penalties, then such bills shall be filed in the name of the attorney-general; and thereupon the Co. shall pay to such officer one quarter part of the monies recovered, and shall bear the charges: but if the said court shall elect to have the suit commenced by information or action of debt, then the officer shall sue for the same at law, and the information, &c. shall not be discontinued, but with the consent of the Co., or their court of directors, id. s. 7. pl. 379. [see a somewhat similar provision, in 33*G. 3. c. 52. s. 143.*]

101. This act shall not subject the Co. of merchants trading into the Lewant seas, or any member thereof, to answer any such bill, or to any other penalties in respect of their trading into those seas, id. s. 8.

102. The Co. shall be allowed to ship out stores for maintaining their garrisons and settlements free of all duties, so as such duties would not have exceeded in one year 500*l.*, 7*G. 1. S. 1. c. 21. s. 13.*

103. FOR ASCERTAINING THE E. I. Co.'s RIGHT OF TRADE TO THE E. I., and the continuance of their corporation for that purpose on the terms therein mentioned 3*G. 2. c. 14.* [AMD. as to s. 7. by 17*G. 2. c. 17. s. 14.*] [See rest of this statute, supra, pl. 23. and 29.]

104. Notwithstanding the redemption of the annuity due from the public, supra, pl. 27. [The condition of redemption in s. 6. of this act here alluded to seems superseded by 17*G. 2. c. 17. s. 9—10. supra*, pl. 29.] the united Co. shall continue a body corporate by the name of the "United Co. of merchants of Eng. trading to the E. I." and enjoying all privileges which by former acts, or charters founded thereon, the Co. might enjoy, id. s. 7.

105. After redemption of the said annuity, or one moiety thereof, the Co. may, by bye-laws to be made in their general courts, declare what share in the remaining stock, &c. shall qualify members to be directors, or to give votes in any general court, id. s. 8.

106. After determination of their sole trade the Co. may carry on a free trade to the E. I. with their joint stock in common with other subjects, id. s. 14., 3*G. 2. c. 14. s. 12.*, 21*G. 3. c. 65. s. 6.*, 53*G. 3. c. 155. s. 4. s. 7.*

107. The Co. shall have all powers by any acts or charters granted to them, not altered by this act, discharged from all provisos of redemption therein contained, for securing to them the sole trade to the E. I. and for securing their effects, and governing their affairs, id. s. 10.

108. The Co. are restrained from purchasing hereditaments in G. B., exceeding in the whole the yearly value of 10,000*l.*, id. s. 14.

109. Nothing in this act shall prejudice such trade or navigation within the said limits as the South Sea Co. are entitled unto, id. s. 15.

110. Nothing herein shall subject the governor and Co. of the merchants of Eng. trading to the Lewant to any penalties in respect of trading into those seas, id. s. 16.

111. FOR REGULATING CERTAIN PROCEEDINGS OF THE GENERAL COURTS OF THE E. I. Co., 7*G. 3. c. 49.*

112. No dividend shall be made by the E. I. Co. other than in pursuance of a vote or resolution passed by ballot in a general court of the Co. summoned for declaring a dividend, and of the meeting of which general court 7 days notice shall have been given in writing fixed on the Royal Exchange in London, 7*G. 3. c. 49. s. 1.*

113. No balloting on any question proposed in any general court relative either to declaring a dividend, or any other matter soever, shall be begun in less than [8, altered 10*G. 3. c. 47. s. 3.* to] 24 hours after the adjournment or breaking up of the general court in which it shall have been determined that such question should be decided by balloting, and in no case shall the balloting be begun later than 12 at noon, nor closed earlier than 6 p. m., 7*G. 3. c. 49. s. 3.*, 10*G. 3. c. 47. s. 3.*

114. FOR BETTER REGULATING PERSONS EMPLOYED in the E. I. Co.'s service, and for further purposes, 10*G. 3. c. 47.* [PUBLIC CLAUSE, id. s. 7.]

115. Officers, mariners, or other persons in the service of the Co. who shall transport to the E. I. or put on board any ship in the Co.'s service trading to the E. I. any artillery, ordnance, muskets, fire-arms, ammunition, or warlike stores of any kind soever, or shall knowingly assist therein, without the licence of the Co., with intention of transporting, selling, trafficking, bartering, exchanging, or otherwise disposing of the same in the E. I., or within the limits of the company's trade, shall be deemed guilty of a high crime and misdemeanor, and may be prosecuted for the same in K. B. at Westminster; and shall be liable to such corporal punishment or fine as the court shall think fit, 10*G. 3. c. 47. s. 2.*

116. When any half-yearly or other dividend of the said Co. shall be voted and declared by a general court of proprietors, not varying from the dividend for the preceding half year, it shall not be necessary for the said general court to ballot respecting such dividends; but a declaration from the chairman of the voting and agreeing to such dividend, shall be a sufficient notice and authority for declaring and making such dividend, id. s. 5.

117. If any person in the service of the Co. in any civil or military station, office, or capacity whatsoever in the E. I. or deriving any power, authority, or jurisdiction by or from the Co. shall be guilty of oppressing any of H. M.'s subjects beyond the seas within their jurisdictions; or in the exercise of any authority under the said Co., or shall be guilty of any other crime or offence, such oppressions, crimes, or offences shall be enquired of, and determined in the K. B. in Eng., and such punishments inflicted as are usually inflicted for offences of the like nature committed in Eng.; and the same and all other offences if committed against this act, may be alleged to be committed, and may be tried in Middlesex, id. s. 4., [and see 24*G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 64. &c. infra*.]

118. In actions against the company, their agents, or servants, or any person deriving authority under the Co. for any thing by them done in such capacity, the defendants may plead the general issue, id. s. 5.

119. The defendant, or his attorney, shall deliver to the plaintiff, in every such action, or his attorney, a notice in writing, signed by the defendant or his attorney, of the substance of the defence which he intends to rely upon, six days before the trial, in case the same is to be tried in London or Middlesex, and eight days in any other county; and defendant shall not give evidence of any matters not contained in such notice, 10 G. 3. c. 47. s. 7.

120. FOR ESTABLISHING CERTAIN REGULATIONS FOR BETTER MANAGEMENT OF THE AFFAIRS OF THE E. I. C. as well in India as in Europe, 15 G. 3. c. 63. [PUBLIC clause, id. s. 47. AMP. 17 G. 3. c. 8., 21 G. 3. c. 65., 35 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. ss. 18—19., 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 89. commencement, pl. 396.]

121. At the next ensuing general election of directors of the Co., instead of an election of 24 directors to serve for one year only, there shall be chosen six directors for one year, six for two years, six for three years, and six for four years, and not otherwise; and from thenceforth yearly at the expiration of each of the said terms respectively, six new directors shall be chosen in the place of such directors whose term has expired, and who are hereby declared incapable of being then rechosen; and at every subsequent election during the continuance of the charter of the company, six new directors shall be chosen, and shall continue directors for four years, to be accounted from the day of election; and in case the office of any such director becomes void by death, removal, or otherwise, another shall be chosen in his place, to serve during the remainder of such term for which the person whose office shall have become void, was chosen, 15 G. 3. c. 63. s. 1.

122. All future annual elections of directors shall be made on the 2d Wednesday in April, 17 G. 3. c. 8. s. 1.

123. All future directors elected for 4 years shall continue such till the 2d Wednesday in that April in which the term of 4 years shall end, and during all that day, id. s. 2.

124. No person in any civil or military capacity in the E. I. shall be chosen director, until he shall have returned to, and been resident in Eng. for 2 years, 15 G. 3. c. 63. s. 2.

125. All transfers of stock made to any person, on purpose to qualify him to vote at any election of directors, or in any general court of the Co. (subject to conditions, either verbal or in writing, to defeat such transfers, or to re-transfer the same) shall be taken against the persons who transferred the same, as absolute, and to be holden by such persons absolutely discharged of all trusts, powers of revocation, or redemption, &c. and all bonds, covenants, notes, collateral or other securities, contracts, or agreements between the said parties, or any other person in trust for them, or any of them, for retransferring, redeeming, or defeating such transfer to any person who made such transfer, or in trust for them, shall be void; and every person to whom such transfer shall have been made, and who shall have voted by virtue thereof, at any election of directors, or in any general court, and who shall afterwards retransfer the same, in consequence of any trust, &c. shall forfeit 1000*l.* one moiety to any person who shall sue for the same, and the other to H. M., to be recovered with costs by action of debt, in any court of record at Westminster; and no member of E. I. C. shall be qualified or admitted to vote in respect of less than 1000*l.* stock, nor in respect of any stock transferred to him until possessed thereof for 12 months, in his own right, and not in trust for any other person, discharged of all incumbrances; unless the same is acquired by bequest, marriage, or succession to any intestate's estates; by the custom of London, or by any deed of settlement after the death of any person who shall have been entitled for life to the dividends, id. s. 3.

126. Every proprietor possessed in his own right of 5000*l.* stock, shall be entitled to give two votes at any election of directors, or at any ballot of the said Co.; and if possessed of 6000*l.* 3 votes; and if of 10,000*l.* or more, 4 votes; and the oath and affirmation hereinafter prescribed shall, as occasion shall require, be altered in such manner as is necessary to comprise such right of voting, id. s. 4.

127. Upon every election of directors, and upon every ballot to be taken at any general court, every proprietor shall, before admitted to vote, first take the oath hereafter mentioned before 2 directors.

'I, A. B. do swear [or, being one of the people called Quakers, do solemnly affirm], that the sum of 1000*l.* or more of the capital stock of the united Co. of merchants of Eng. trading to the E. I. standing in my name, doth at this time belong, and hath for the space of 12 calendar months actually belonged to me, in my own right, and not in trust for any person or persons whatsoever; and that I have been in the actual receipt of the dividends and profits thereof for my own use, freed and discharged of all incumbrances which can or may affect the same, for the said space of 12 calendar months; or that the same came to me within the time aforesaid by bequest, [or by marriage, or by succession to an intestate's estate, or by the custom of the city of London, or by settlement] and that such stock has not been transferred or made to me fraudulently or collusively on purpose to qualify me to give my vote; and that I have not before given my vote on this ballot. So help me God.'

And in case any person taking the oath or affirmation shall thereby commit, and be convicted of wilful perjury, or if any person suborns any other to take such oath or affirmation, in order to vote, whereby he shall commit such perjury, and shall be thereof convicted, he shall incur such pains and penalties as are inflicted for offences committed contrary to 5 Ed. c. 9., and 2 G. 2. c. 25., id. s. 6.

129. For government of the presidency of Fort William in Bengal there shall be appointed a governor-general, [and by 24 G. 3. s. 2. c. 25. s. 18. three superior counsellors,] and the whole civil and military government of the said presidency, and also the management and government of all the territorial acquisitions and revenues in the kingdoms of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, shall, during such time as they remain in the possession of the company, be vested in the said governor-general and council of Fort William in Bengal, in like manner, as the same now are, or heretofore might have been exercised by the president and council, or select committee, in the said kingdoms, 13 G. 3. c. 63. s. 7.

130. In all cases wherein any difference of opinion shall arise upon any question proposed in any consultation, the said gov.-gen. and council shall be concluded by the opinion of the major part of those present; and if it shall happen to be equally divided, then, the gov.-gen., or, in his absence, the eldest counsellor present, shall have a casting voice, and his opinion shall be decisive, id. s. 8.

131. The said gov.-gen. and council shall have power of superintending and controlling the government and management of the presidencies of Madras, Bombay, and Bencoolen, so far as that it shall not be lawful for any president and council of Madras, Bombay or Bencoolen, to make orders for commencing hostilities, or making war against any Indian powers, or for negotiating or concluding any treaty of peace, or other treaty with any such powers, without the consent of the said gov.-gen. and council, except in cases of imminent necessity, as would render it dangerous to postpone such hostilities or treaties until the orders might arrive; and except where the presidents and councils have received special orders from the Co., [see 55 G. 3. c. 52. s. 41.] and any president and council of Madras, Bombay, or Bencoolen, who shall offend in any of the cases aforesaid, shall be liable to be suspended from his office by order of the said gov.-gen. and council; and every president and council of Madras, Bombay and Bencoolen, shall pay obedience to such orders as they shall receive, touching the premises, from the said gov.-gen. and council, and transmit to them advice of all transactions and matters whatsoever that shall come to their knowledge, relating to the government, revenues, or interest of the Co.; and the said gov.-gen. and council shall obey all such orders as they shall receive from the court of directors, and correspond with and transmit to the said court an exact particular of all advices, and of all transactions and matters whatsoever, that shall come to their knowledge, relating to the govt., commerce, revenues, or interest, of the Co.; [the provisions for the delivery of copies of all dispatches, &c. to the treasury by the directors, seem altered by 53 G. 3. c. 52. (s. 11.), appointing the Board of Control,] all which copies shall be fairly written and signed by two directors, id. s. 9., [see 33 G. 3. c. 50. s. 41—44.]

132. The power of nominating and removing the gov.-gen. and council at Fort William and Bengal, shall be vested in the directors of the Co., id. s. 10., [and see 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 25.]

133. Nothing in this act shall restrain the Co. from appointing officers, factors, or agents, for managing, conducting, and transacting the trade and commerce of the Co. at Fort William and Bengal, id. s. 12.

134. H. M. by charter or letters patent under the great seal of G. B., may erect a supreme court of judicature at Fort William, [so in Madras, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79.] to consist of a chief justice and [three, altered to 37 G. 3. c. 142. s. 1.] two other judges, being barristers in Eng. or Ire., of not less than five years standing, to be named by H. M., which said court shall have power to exercise all civil, criminal, admiralty, and ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and to appoint such clerks, and other ministerial officers of the said court, with such salaries as shall be approved of by the gov.-gen. and council; and to establish such rules of practice and of process of the court, and to do all other things necessary for the administration of justice, and due execution of the powers, which by the said charter shall be granted to the same, and also shall be a court of record, and shall be a court ofoyer and terminer and gaol delivery for the town of Calcutta, and factory of Fort William in Bengal aforesaid, and the limits thereof, and the factories subordinate thereto, id. s. 13. [and see 57 G. 3. c. 142. s. 1. & s. 5.]

135. The said charter shall extend to all British subjects who shall reside in the kingdoms or provinces of Bengal, Bahar and Orissa, under protection of the company; and the supreme court thereby established shall have full power to hear and determine all complaints against any of H. M.'s subjects for any crimes, misdemeanors, or oppressions, and also to determine any suits against any of H. M.'s subjects in Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, and any suit against any person who shall, when such cause of action shall have arisen, have been employed by, or been directly or indirectly in the service of the Co., or of any of H. M.'s subjects, id. s. 14.

136. The said court shall not be competent to hear, try, or determine any indictment or information against the gov.-gen., or any of the council, for any offence (not treason or felony) which such gov.-gen. or council shall be charged with having committed, id. s. 15. [and see 21 G. 3. c. 70. ss. 8, 9.]

137. The said court shall determine any suits of any of H.M.'s subjects, against any inhabitant of India, upon any contract or agreement in writing, where the cause of action shall exceed 500 current rupees; and where the said inhabitant shall have agreed in the said contract, that, in case of dispute, the matter shall be determined in the supreme court; and all such suits may be brought, in the first instance, before the said court, or by appeal from the sentence of any courts established in the said provinces, 13 G. 3. c. 63. s. 16.

138. Nothing in this act shall subject the person of the gov.-gen. or any of the council, or chief justice and judges, to be arrested or imprisoned upon any action in the said court, id. s. 17.

139. It shall be directed, in the said charter, that in case any person shall think himself aggrieved by any judgment of the said court, he may from such judgment to H.M. in council, in such manner as in the said charter is appointed, id. s. 18.

140. So much of the charter granted 8 Jan. 26 G. 2. as relates to the establishment of the mayor's court at Calcutta in Bengal, or to the jurisdiction thereof, (in case a new charter shall be granted in pursuance of this act, and shall be openly published at Fort William,) after such publication shall cease; but the said charter shall, in all other respects, remain in force, id. s. 19.

141. All records belonging to the mayor's court at Calcutta, or to the courts of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery at Fort William, established by such charter, shall, after such court shall be established at Fort William, be delivered over and deposited for safe custody, in the new court of judicature, to which all parties concerned may have recourse, upon application to the said court, id. s. 20.

142. During such time as the territorial acquisitions shall remain in possession of the Co., the directors shall cause to be paid to the gov.-gen. of Fort William 25,000*l.* per ann.; and to each of the council 10,000*l.* per ann.; and to the chief justices 8000*l.* per ann.; and to each of the judges of the supreme court 6000*l.* per ann. which salaries shall be paid out of the said territorial acquisitions in the kingdoms of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, id. s. 21.

143. The salaries of the gov.-gen. and council of Bengal, and govrs. and councils of Madras and Bombay, of the chief justices and judges of Bengal and Madras, of the recorder of Bombay, and the governor of Prince of Wales Island, shall commence from the time of entering on the execution of their offices, and shall be in lieu of all fees of office, perquisites and emoluments soever; and no fees, &c. shall be taken by such gov., council, chief justice, or judges in any manner, or on any account soever, other than such salaries, id. s. 22., 37 G. 3. c. 142. s. 20., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 7., and 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 89.

144. The court of directors shall pay and advance to all the persons herein after-mentioned, who shall be resident in G. B. at the time of their appointments, for the purpose of defraying the expense of their equipments and voyage the following sums, viz.

To the governor-general of Fort William in Bengal	-	-	£5000
To each of the members of council there	-	-	1200

53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 89.

145. No gov.-gen. or any of the council at Fort William, or any chief justice or judge of the supreme courts, shall directly or indirectly, by themselves or by any other person for their use, take from any person, in any manner or on any account whatsoever, any present, gift, donation, gratuity, or reward pecuniary or otherwise, or any promise or engagement for any present, &c. [and no gov.-gen., or any of the council, or any chief justice or judge, shall carry on, be concerned in, or have any dealing or transactions, by way of traffick or commerce of any kind whatsoever, either for his use or benefit, profit or advantage, or for the benefit of any other person, (the trade of the company only excepted,) REP. 23 G. 3. c. 52. s. 146., 13 G. 3. c. 63. s. 23.

146. Nothing herein shall restrain any person whatsoever (except such as are by this act prohibited from being concerned in trade) from exercising any trade within Fort William and Calcutta, id. s. 28.

147. No subject of H. M. in the E. I. shall upon any contract take, directly or indirectly, for loan of any monies, wares, merchandizes, or other commodities whatsoever, above 12*l.* for the forbearance of 100*l.* for a year; and all bonds, contracts, and assurances soever, whereby there shall be reserved or taken above 12*l.* in the 100*l.* as aforesaid, shall be void: and all persons who shall upon any contract take for giving day of payment, above 12*l.* for the forbearing of 100*l.* shall forfeit treble the value of the monies, &c. lent, &c. with costs; 1 moiety to the Co. and the other to him who will sue in the supreme court of judicature at Fort William in Calcutta, or in the mayor's court in any other of the Co.'s settlements where such offence shall have been committed, by action of debt, &c. or information, and in case no such action, &c. has been brought and prosecuted with effect within 3 years, then the party grieved may sue for recovery of all sums paid over such rate of interest, 13 G. 3. c. 63. s. 30.

148. No informer or plaintiff shall compound with any person that shall offend, before answer made in the said supreme court, nor after, but by order of such court, on pain, being thereof convicted, to be fined and imprisoned at discretion of the said court, id. s. 31.

149. If any subject in India, in the service of the Co. shall be charged with, and prosecuted for any breach of public trust, or for embezzlement of public money, or stores, or for defrauding the Co., such offender being convicted thereof, in the supreme court, or in any court of judicature in any other settlement in India, may be fined and imprisoned, and adjudged incapable of serving the Co., at the discretion of the court; and after sentence executed shall be sent over to Eng. unless he shall remove himself within 12 months, and in the mean time give sufficient security so to do, id. s. 33.

150. All offences tried in the supreme court, shall be tried by a jury of British subjects resident at Calcutta, id. s. 34.

151. After any judgment of the said court, against any of the Co.'s servants, civil or military, for any debt or penalty due to the Co. is made known to the directors, it shall not be lawful to release or compound such judgment, or to release any prosecution for carrying on any illicit trade, or for any debt or penalty due to the Co. or to restore any servant, who shall have been dismissed for misbehaviour, without the consent of 3 parts in four of the directors, and 5 parts in four in number of the proprietors who shall be present, and give their votes by ballot at a general court to be specially called for that purpose, and of which 14 days public notice shall be given before holding the same, and of the occasion for which such court shall be called, id. s. 35.

152. The gov.-gen. and council at Fort William in Bengal, may make and issue rules, ordinances, and regulations for the good order and civil government of the settlement at Fort William, and other factories and places subordinate thereto, not being repugnant to the laws of the realm, and may impose and levy fines for the breach or non-observance of such rules, &c. but the same shall not be valid, until registered in the supreme court, with consent of the said court, which registry shall not be made until 20 days after the same shall be openly published, and a copy thereof affixed in some conspicuous part of the court-house, where the said court shall be held; and after such registry, the same shall be valid; but any person in India may appeal therefrom to H. M. in council, who may set aside such rules, &c. so as such appeal, or notice thereof, be lodged in the said court, within 60 days after registering; and any person in Eng. may appeal therefrom in like manner, within 60 days after publishing the same in Eng. and a copy of all such rules, &c. as the same shall be so received, shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in the India House, there to remain and be resorted to; yet such appeal shall not obstruct the execution of any rule, &c. until repealed, 13 G. 3. c. 63. s. 36.

153. The gov.-gen. and council, in addition to or instead of such fines and forfeitures may order such reasonable corporal punishment by public or private whipping or otherwise as to them shall seem fit for the breach or non-observance of the rules made as above subject to the registry, publication, approbation, power of appeal, and regulations of 13 G. 3. c. 63. ss. 36—37., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 18.

154. No such corporal punishment shall in any case be ordered, except on due conviction before two justices acting for the settlement, presidency, and places subordinate thereto; which offence they are hereby empowered to hear and determine, and punish on conviction as above; but no such conviction, judgment, or order shall be brought into any superior court by certiorari or appeal or other process soever, id. s. 19.

155. The gov.-gen. and council shall transmit copies of all such rules, &c. to one of the secretaries of state, and H. M. may signify to the said Co. under his sign manual, his disapprobation of such rules, &c. and after the same is registered and published in the supreme court at Fort William, all such rules shall be void; but in case H. M. shall not within 2 years from making of such rules signify his disapprobation, they shall be valid, 13 G. 3. c. 63. s. 37.

156. The gov.-general and council at Fort William, and the chief justice and other judges of the supreme court may act as justices of the peace, for the said settlement, and the settlements and factories subordinate thereto, in all matters which to the office of a justice do belong; and for that purpose hold quarter-sessions within the settlement of Fort William, 4 times a year, which shall be a court of record, 13 G. 3. c. 63. s. 38.

157. If any of the Co.'s presidents or council at their respective principal settlements, for Fort Marlborough, or any other principal settlement wherein they are empowered to hold courts of judicature, 1 G. 3. c. 14. s. 2.] shall be guilty of oppressing any H.M.'s subjects beyond the seas within their respective jurisdictions or commands, or of any other offence against the laws of Eng. or in force within their several jurisdictions or commands, such oppression and offences may be heard and determined in K.B. in Eng., or before such commissioners and in such county there as shall be assigned by H.M.'s commission, by good and lawful men of the county, and punished in the same manner as the like offences in Eng. 27 G. 2. c. 9. s. 13., 1 G. 3. c. 14. s. 2.

158. If any gov.-gen., president, or gov., or council of any of the Co.'s principal or other settlements in India, or the chief justice, or any of the judges of the supreme or any other court, or any other person in the service of the Co., in any civil or military station, or who have any power from the said Co., or any subjects residing in India, shall commit any offence against this act, or shall be guilty of any crime, misdemeanor, or offence, committed against any subjects, or any of the inhabitants of India, all such crimes may be tried and determined in K.B., and all such persons so offending, and not having been before tried for the same offence in India, shall, on conviction, be liable to such fines or corporal punishments as the court shall think fit; and moreover shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to be adjudged incapable of serving the Co.; and such crimes may be alleged to be committed, and may be tried in the co. of Middlesex, 13 G. 3. c. 63. s. 39. [See 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 64. &c. for the special court of judicature.]

159. In case the chief justice or judges of the supreme court, shall commit any offence against this act, or be guilty of any corrupt practice, or other crime, in execution of their offices, the K.B. in Eng., upon information or indictment for such crime, upon motion made in the said court, may award a mandamus as aforesaid, requiring the gov.-gen. and council at Fort William, to assemble and to cause all such proceedings to be had as are in s. 40. directed concerning the examination of witnesses; and such examination so taken, shall be returned and proceeded upon in the same manner, id. s. 41. [See s. 40. post.]

160. In all cases of proceedings in parliament, touching any offences against this act, or any other offences committed in India, the lord high chancellor, or speaker of the house of lords, and also the speaker of the house of commons, may issue his warrant to the gov.-gen. and council of Fort William, and the chief justice and judges of the supreme court, or the judges of the mayor's court [supreme court since 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. ss. 4, 5., at Madras.] Bombay or Bencoolen, for the examination of witnesses; and such examination shall be returned to the chancellor or speaker of the house of lords, or to the speaker of the house of commons, and proceeded upon in the same manner; and shall then be deemed good evidence, id. s. 42.

161. No proceedings in parliament touching any offence committed in India, wherein such warrant as aforesaid shall have been issued, shall be discontinued by any prorogation or dissolution of parliament, but may be resumed and proceeded upon in a subsequent session or parliament, id. s. 43.

162. When the Co. or any person soever, shall commence any action or suit in law or equity, for cause arisen in India, against any other person, in any court at Westminster, such court on motion there made, may award such writ, in the nature of a mandamus, or commission to the chief justice and judges of the supreme court at Madras [since 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. ss. 4, 5.] or the judges of the mayor's court at Bombay or Bencoolen, for the examination of witnesses; and such examination being duly returned, shall be deemed good evidence, id. s. 44.

163. No such depositions shall be given in evidence in any capital cases, other than such as shall be proceeded against in parliament, id. s. 45.

164. The rights, interests, privileges, and authorities now vested in the united Co., not hereby expressly taken away, or varied, shall continue, id. s. 46. [21 G. 3. c. 65. s. 25. S. P.]

165. 400,000*l.* shall, by the Co. be paid into the exchequer for the use of the public, in full discharge of all claims of the public upon the said Co., from the time the bond-debt of the Co. was reduced to 1,500,000*l.*, until 1st March, 1781, 21 G. 3. c. 65. s. 1. [PUBLIC clause, id. s. 40.]

166. The directors shall cause copies of the annual parliamentary accounts to be laid before the general court of proprietors holden next after they are made up, id. s. 16.

167. No bill, promissory note, or other obligation for money, issued by any of the E. I. Co.'s presidents and councils, or servants in the E. I. or in China, and made payable in the E. I. or in China, shall be payable in Eng., without the consent of 18 of the directors; nor shall the Co. be liable to the payment of any bill, issued as aforesaid, and made payable in Eng., unless accepted by, or by order of a court of directors, id. s. 27.

168. The directors are empowered to nominate, with consent of H.M., signified in writing under his sign manual [altered by 26 G. 3. c. 26., but re-enacted by 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 80.], and countersigned by the president of the board of control, any person to succeed to the place of gov.-gen. of Fort William, and to revoke the said appointment; and the person so appointed shall succeed to the said office when the same shall become vacant by the death, resignation, or removal of the gov.-gen. for the time being, and shall have all the powers of gov.-gen.; but the person so appointed shall not be entitled to any salary, &c. as gov.-gen., until he take upon himself the said office [see 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 89. pl. 143.], and in case he shall not happen to be at Fort William at the time the vacancy shall happen, then the office shall be supplied, till his arrival at Fort William, by the senior councillor of the presidency, 21 G. 3. c. 65. s. 36.

169. The directors are empowered to appoint (with consent of H.M., signified under his sign manual), 1 or 2 persons to succeed to the office of a councillor of the presidency of Fort William [the royal assent not necessary on councillor's appointment, 26 G. 3. c. 25. s. 1.], whenever a vacancy shall happen, and to declare which of the said 2 persons shall first succeed to the said office of a councillor; and on the 1st vacancy in that office the said persons shall succeed thereto accordingly, and have all powers of a councillor; and H.M., on representation of the court of directors, may revoke the appointment of such persons, (see above) as a councillor of the said presidency may be removed from such office under 13 G. 3. c. 63. [but the person so appointed shall not be entitled as a councillor to any salary, &c. until he shall take on himself the office, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 9.] id. s. 37.

170. The commander in chief of all the Co.'s forces in the E. I., provided he shall be appointed one of the councillors of the said presidency of Fort William, shall rank as second in council at the presidency, but shall in no case succeed to the government of the presidency without a special appointment for that purpose; but in case of the vacancy of gov.-gen. of the presidency, at a time when no person shall be appointed to succeed to his office, the councillor next in rank to such commander in chief shall succeed to the office of gov.-gen. until some other person shall be appointed thereto, id. s. 38.

171. Nothing herein shall affect the rights or claims of the public, or the company, respecting the territorial acquisitions and revenues, id. s. 39.

172. TO EXPLAIN AND AMEND SO MUCH OF 13 G. 3. c. 63. AS RELATES to the administration of justice in Bengal, and for other purposes, 21 G. 3. c. 70.

173. The gov.-gen. and council of Bengal shall not be subject, jointly or severally, to the jurisdiction of the supreme court of Fort William, for any act done in their public capacity only, id. s. 1.

174. Any person impleaded in the said supreme court, for any act done by order of the gov.-gen. and council in writing, may plead the general issue, and give the order in evidence, which said order, with proof that the act was done according to the same, shall be a justification, and the defendant shall be discharged from every suit, civil or criminal, in the said court, id. s. 2.

175. With respect to such order of the said gov.-gen. and council as shall extend to any British subject, the said court shall have as full jurisdiction as if this act had never been made, id. s. 3.

176. Nothing herein shall discharge the gov.-gen. and council, or any other acting under their order, from any complaint, suit, or process, before any court in this kingdom, or give any other authority whatsoever to their acts, than acts of the same nature had, by the laws of this kingdom, before this act, id. s. 4.

177. In case any person, by himself, or his attorney or counsel, shall make a complaint to the supreme court, and enter the same in writing, and on oath, of any oppression or injury, charging the same to be committed by the gov.-gen., or any member of the council, or any other person by virtue of any order given by the latter, and shall execute a bond, with some other person whom the court shall deem responsible, jointly and severally to the Co., in such penalty as the court shall appoint, effectually to prosecute the said complaint, in some competent court in G. B., within 2 years of the making of the same, or of the return into G. B. of the party against whom the same is made; then the party complaining shall be enabled to compel, by order of the court, the production in the said supreme court of true copies of the orders of council complained of, and to have the same authenticated by the court, and to examine witnesses upon the matter of the complaint, and also on the part of the person complained of; and the parties complaining and complained of, shall have all advantages relative to proof of the complaint or defence, and also relative to any mandamus or commission to be issued by any court in Westminster-hall, in case the court upon motion shall think fit to issue the same, as are provided by 13 G. 3. c. 63. s. 40. see infra, and the supreme court shall have the same powers for compelling witnesses to appear and be examined, and the same rules shall be observed for transmitting the depositions and papers to this kingdom, as are provided by the said act, id. s. 5.

178. All copies of orders so authenticated as in 13 G. 3. c. 63. s. 40, ibid., p. 241, and also the depositions taken in manner aforesaid before the supreme court, shall be received in evidence in any court of law or equity at Westminster, 21 G. 3. c. 70. s. 6.

179. No prosecution shall be carried on against the said gov.-gen. or any of the council, before any court in G. B. (parliament only excepted), unless commenced within 5 years after the offence, or his arrival in Eng.; ibid. s. 7.

180. The supreme court shall not exercise any jurisdiction in any matter concerning the revenue, or any act done in the collection thereof, according to the usage of the country, or the regulations of the gov.-gen. and council, id. s. 8.

181. No person shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the supreme court, by reason of being a land-owner, land-holder, or farmer of land, or of land-rent, or for receiving a payment or pension in lieu of any title to, or ancient possession of, land or land-rent, or for receiving any compensation or share of profits for collecting of rents payable to the public out of such lands as are farmed by himself, or his under-tenants in virtue of his farm, or for exercising within the said lands and farms any ordinary or local authority commonly annexed to the possession of farm thereof, within Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, or for becoming security for the payment of the rents, id. s. 9.

182. No person, for being employed by the Co., or the gov.-gen. and council, or by any person deriving authority under them, or for being employed by a native or descendant of a native of G. B. shall become subject to the jurisdiction of the supreme court in any matter of inheritance or succession to lands or goods, or in any matter of dealing or contract between parties, except in actions for wrongs or trespasses, and also except in any civil suit by agreement of parties in writing to submit the same to the decision of the court, id. s. 10.

183. The gov.-gen. and council shall cause the name, description, and place of usual abode, of every native employed in the service of the Co. in any judicial office, or as principal native officer of any district in the collection of revenue, or in any commercial concerns of the Co. (except as before) to be entered in a book alphabetically disposed, distinguishing the district in which the said officers are employed; of which book two copies shall be made, one of which shall remain in the provincial office, and the other shall be registered in the supreme court; and the gov.-gen. and council shall register the name of every person who shall afterwards be appointed to succeed to any office vacant or new created, within 3 months of the appointment or creation, id. s. 11.

184. Whenever any person shall die, or be removed from any judicial office, his name shall be entered in a book, id. s. 12.

185. Every British subject shall cause to be entered in the provincial office of the district in which they reside, the name, description and abode of his native steward, agent, or partner, in any concern of revenue or merchandize (if such he hath), and shall enter within 3 months from the time of succession or new appointment, or new partnership, the names of them who are dismissed, dead, or new appointed in the said provincial office; and the president of the said council shall transmit, within 3 months, to Calcutta the name of every person who shall succeed to the said employment or partnership, for which one sicca rupee for every entry shall be paid to the officer keeping the register, id. s. 13.

186. Any British subject convicted before the supreme court, of employing any native agent, or engaging with any native partner, not registered, or who shall be bond fide such agent or partner, (although by collusion the same may be concealed,) shall, if in the Co.'s service, forfeit 500*l.*, and if not, 100*l.* to any person suing, id. s. 14.

187. No native shall be entitled to any salary except from the date of his registry, id. s. 15.

188. If any British European subject shall engage in any concern of trade with a native partner not registered, he shall not be entitled to recover any money by reason of such joint concern, or to compel an account thereof, by any suit in law or equity, in any court within the provinces; and any person, prosecuting to conviction in the supreme court, a British subject, having a native partner or agent not registered, shall be entitled to, and shall recover the whole of the salary engaged for, and shall also be entitled to an account and receipt of the said British subject's share of profit of any partnership entered into with any person not conforming to this act, id. s. 16.

189. The supreme court shall have power to determine, as provided in the charter, all actions against the inhabitants of Calcutta; in the case of Mahomedans, by the laws and usages of Mahomedans, and in the case of Gentoo by the laws and usages of Gentoo, and where only one of the parties is a Mahomedan or Gentoo, by the laws and usages of the defendant, id. s. 17.

190. The rights of fathers of families, and masters of families, according to the Gentoo or Mahomedan law, shall be preserved to them within their families; nor shall any act done in consequence of the rule and law of cast, respecting the members of the said families only, be adjudged a crime, though not justifiable by the laws of Eng., 21 G. 3. c. 70. s. 18.

191. The supreme court may frame such process, and make such rules for the execution thereof, in suits civil or criminal against the natives of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, as may accommodate the same to the religion and manners of such natives, so far as the same consist with the execution of the laws and attainment of justice, id. s. 19.

192. Such new forms of process, and rules, shall be transmitted to one of the secretaries of state, to be laid before H. M. for approbation, correction, or refusal; and such process shall be used, and such rules observed, until repealed or varied, id. s. 20.

193. The gov.-gen. and council, or some committee thereof, may hold all pleas and appeals, from the country or provincial courts, in civil causes as hitherto, and shall be a court of record; and the judgments therein given shall be final, except upon appeal to H. M., in civil suits only, the value of which shall be 5000*l.*, id. s. 21.

194. The court aforesaid shall be a court to determine on all offences committed in the collection of revenue, or of severities used beyond what shall appear customary or necessary, and to punish the same, provided such punishment does not extend to death, maiming, or perpetual imprisonment, id. s. 22.

195. The gov.-gen. and council shall have power to frame regulations for the provincial courts and councils; and shall, within 6 months after making the said regulations, transmit copies thereof to the court of directors, and to one of the secretaries of state; which regulations H. M. in council may disallow or amend; and the said regulations, if not disallowed within 2 years, shall direct the said provincial courts, according to the amendment, provided the same do not produce any new expence to the suitors, id. s. 23.

196. No action for wrong or injury shall lie in the supreme court, against any person exercising a judicial office in the country courts, for any judgment of the said court, nor against any person for any act done by the order of the said court, id. s. 24.

197. In case of an information intended to be brought or moved for against any such officer or magistrate, for any corrupt act, no rule or other process shall be made or issued thereon until notice be given to the said officer, or left at his usual place of abode, in writing, signed by the party or his attorney, 1 month, if the person exercising such office shall reside within 50 miles of Calcutta; 2 months if beyond 50 miles; and 3 months if beyond 100 miles, before suing out or serving the same, in which notice the cause of complaint shall be fully contained; nor shall any verdict be given against a magistrate till proved on trial, that such notice has been given; in default whereof defendant shall have verdict with costs, id. s. 25.

198. No magistrate shall in such case be liable to personal caption or arrest, nor obliged to put in bail till he shall have declined to appear to answer after notice given, and service of the process directing his appearance by himself or his attorney, id. s. 26.

199. IF THE E. I. CO. SHALL AT ANY TIME NEGLECT TO KEEP THE market supplied with a sufficient quantity of tea, at reasonable prices, to answer its consumption in G. B., the treasury may grant licenses to import it into G. B. from any parts of Europe, in like manner, subject to such duties, restrictions, and limitations, and with such notices and licences as are by any act in force directed, with respect to tea to be imported by the Co. from any parts of Europe, 14 G. 3. c. 34. s. 3, and 16 G. 3. c. 51. s. 5. S. P.

200. FOR ESTABLISHING A COURT OF JUDICATURE FOR TRIAL OF persons accused of offences committed in the E. I., 24 G. 3. s. 2. c. 25, [Public clause, id. s. 85. AND 26 G. 3. c. 16. s. 3. 5. and c. 57.]

201. All such powers vested in the proprietors and directors of the E. I. Co., or in any general or special court thereof respectively by any act or charter as are repugnant to this act, are repealed, 24 G. 3. s. 2. c. 25. s. 30. [in force, see 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 146.]

202. The court of directors shall take into consideration the origin and justice of demands of the British subjects on the nabob of Arcot; and give orders to their presidencies and servants abroad for completing the investigation thereof, and for establishing, in concert with the said nabob, a fund for the discharge of those debts which shall appear to be justly due, according to priority, id. s. 37.; and also the indeterminate rights and pretensions of the nabob of Arcot, and rajah of Tanjore, and pursue measures to ascertain and settle the same, according to the treaty of 1762, id. s. 38.

203. They shall take the complaints of rajahs, zemindars, poligars, talookdars, and other native landholders in India, into serious consideration; and adopt methods for enquiring into the causes and truth of the said complaints, and for obtaining a knowledge of the same, and thereupon, according to the circumstances of the cases, shall give orders to the governments and presidencies for redressing all injuries and wrongs which the said rajahs and others may have sustained justly, and for establishing, upon principles of moderation and justice, according to the laws of India, the rules by which their tributes, rents, and services shall be paid to the Co., 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 39.

204. The coroner and attorney of H. M. in K. B. [or master of the crown office, 4 Bl. Comm. 308. and 26 G. 3. c. 57. s. 15. pl. 222.] by rule of court obtained on motion, at the instance of any person, or the attorney-general, or court of directors or of proprietors, in the name of the Co. may exhibit in K. B. an information against any person, for any extortion or misdemeanor, whereupon the said court shall, at the instance of the prosecutor, cause the party against whom such information shall have been exhibited to be attached, and may order him to stand committed to the Marshalsea, the tower of London, or Newgate, until delivered by law, or until he, with two sureties, shall have entered into a recognizance unto the king for his appearance, and for satisfying the judgment; and when the defendant shall have appeared and pleaded to the information, the chief justice, or some of the justices of K. B. shall, within 10 days, (unless any mandamus is granted for examination of witnesses, as hereinafter provided,) deliver the record of the said information and plea to the lord chancellor, or lord keeper, or lords commissioners for custody of the great seal, who shall thereupon issue a commission under the great seal, as after provided, id. s. 64.

205. If any person shall neglect or refuse to appear and plead Not Guilty to such information, within the time by the rules or discretion of K. B. allowed, the attorney-general, or other prosecutor, may cause an appearance, and the plea of Not Guilty, to be entered for such person; and the said information shall thereupon proceed, as if the party had appeared and pleaded, id. s. 65.

206. Within 30 days from the commencement of every session of parliament, the lords shall nominate 26 or more members of their house; and the commons, 40 or more, to be chosen by ballot, [as hereafter provided by 26 G. 3. c. 57. ss. 1—2. infra, pl. 209—210.] and the speaker of each house respectively shall cause the list of the said names, so chosen, to be transmitted, under their respective hands and seals, to the clerk of the crown in chancery. And whenever a commission is to be issued under the great seal, by virtue of this act, the lists so returned shall be delivered over to such three judges of the courts of K. B., C. P., or exchequer, as those courts shall for that purpose appoint, one judge being nominated from each of them; and if the lists contain more than 26 members of the house of lords, or 40 of the commons, the said judges shall, within 3 days from the receipt thereof, cause the names contained therein to be put into a box, and 26 names of the peers, and 40 names of the commons, to be publicly drawn by lot, in presence of the judges; who are to give notice to all members, whose names shall have been so returned, or drawn by lot, and also to the attorney-general, or other prosecutor, and also to the accused, of the time and place to be appointed by them, (not exceeding 20 days from such lists being delivered to them as aforesaid,) for proceeding in the execution of this act; and the names of all such members of either house as shall not attend in consequence of such notice, shall be transmitted to the speaker, within 3 days, if parliament be then sitting, or if not, within 3 days after its next meeting; and such persons as shall have made default, shall forfeit to H. M. 50*l.* each, unless they offer such excuses as shall appear to each house to be sufficient, id. s. 66.

207. If any member drawn by lot shall die, [or hold any civil office of profit under the crown during pleasure, or shall be, or have been, a member of the board for the affairs of India, or shall be, or shall have been, a director of the Co., or shall hold, or have held, any office in the service of the Co. in India, 26 G. 3. c. 57. s. 3.] then another name shall be drawn out of the same box, instead of the name of such person, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 66. [and his name shall be struck out of the list by order of the house, 26 G. 3. c. 57. s. 3.] upon such list being read over at the table, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 70.

208. FOR FURTHER REGULATION OF THE TRIAL OF PERSONS accused of certain offences committed in E. I., for rendering the laws more effectual against persons unlawfully resorting thither; and for more easy proof, in certain cases, of deeds and writings executed there, or in G. B., 26 G. 3. c. 57. [PUBLIC clause, s. 39.]

209. Within the first 30 sitting days of the house of lords, in every session of parliament, the members of the said house, or any of them, may deliver in at the table, lists inclosed in covers, sealed up, and having the words East India Judicature, and their names or titles, indorsed on the outside thereof, in their proper hand writing; every such list containing the names of 26 peers; and on the first sitting day after the expiration of the said 30 days, the clerk of the parliament, or his deputy, or such other person as the house shall direct, shall prepare and lay upon the table a list of the names of the lords who shall, within the said 30 days, have delivered such lists; and on the next sitting day of the said house, the said covers shall be opened by the clerk or his deputy, or such other person as the said house shall direct, by the order of the said house, during the sitting of the said house, and all the lists shall be taken out of the said covers and put into a box; and shall be referred by the said house to a committee, who shall examine the same, and within such time as the house shall direct, report to the house the name of every lord whose name shall appear in 10 or more of such lists; and if the names of the members so returned shall not amount to 26 members, exclusively of such as shall be struck out of the lists according to this act, (pl. 207.) the members of the said house may, on any of the next 7 sitting days of the house, deliver in fresh lists in manner before directed, each containing a number of names, equal to that number which the list returned by the committee shall fall short of 26, and the covers shall be opened, and the lists proceeded upon after the end of the said 7 days, as the said former lists, 26 G. 3. c. 57. s. 1.

210. Within the first 30 sitting days of the house of commons in every session of parliament, the members of the said house, or any of them, may deliver in at the table lists, inclosed in covers, sealed up, and having the words East India Judicature, and their names indorsed on the outside thereof, in their proper hand writing, each of which lists shall contain the names of 40 members of the said house; and on the first sitting day after the expiration of the said 30 days, the clerk of the said house, or his deputy, or such other person as the house shall direct, shall prepare and lay upon the table the names of all the members who shall have delivered such lists; and on the next sitting day of the house shall, at the table, [see s. 4.] during the sitting of the said house, by order of the speaker, take the lists out of the said covers, and put them together into a box; and they shall be immediately referred by the said house to a committee, who shall examine the same, and within such time as the house shall direct, report to the house the name of every member whose name shall appear in 20 or more of the said lists; and if the names so returned shall not amount to 40, exclusively of those struck out according to the directions of this act, (pl. 207.) the members may, on any of the next 7 sitting days of the said house, deliver in at the table fresh lists, in covers, each containing a number of names of members equal to that number which the list returned shall fall short of 40, and the said lists shall be proceeded upon, after the end of the said 7 days, as before directed in respect to former lists; and the like order as aforesaid shall be taken in each house of parliament, until 26 members of the house of lords, and 40 members of the house of commons, shall have been returned to the said houses, by the committees to whom the said lists shall be referred, exclusive of the members struck out of the lists, (as in pl. 207.) id. s. 2.

211. If the delivery of the said lists at the tables of the respective houses of parliament, as directed by this act, shall occasion any interruption of other business, or be found inconvenient, either of the said houses, by order, may substitute such other mode for the delivery of such lists as they think fit, id. s. 4.

212. The names of the 26 peers and 40 members of the house of commons, so chosen, or which (in case the lists contain a greater number of members than aforesaid) have been drawn by lot, according to 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 66. (ante, pl. 206.) or of such of them as shall personally appear at the time and place appointed, in the manner by that act directed, shall be put into a box, to be drawn by lot, in the presence of the judges, to be appointed according to that act, and of the parties to the information to be tried, or their counsel or agents; and the persons against whom the said information shall have been exhibited shall have liberty, as the said names are drawn out, to make peremptory challenges to 13 peers, and 20 members of the house of commons, whose names shall have been put into the said box; and the attorney-general, or prosecutor, and also the party against whom such information shall have been exhibited, may make challenges to any of the names drawn out, and assign for cause of challenge any such matter, as in the opinion of the 3 judges, or the majority of them, shall appear sufficient to set aside the persons so challenged; and the 1st 5 peers, and the 1st 7 members of the house of commons, which being drawn out shall not be so challenged, or against whom no challenge shall have been allowed, shall be returned by the said judges to the lord chancellor, who shall cause them together with the 3 judges, to be inserted in the special commission, and the persons so named therein shall appear within 10 days, at the time and place to be appointed by the said 3 judges, and shall then and there take the following oath before the lord chancellor, id. s. 5. and 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 71.

"I A.B. do swear, that, as a commissioner appointed by H. M.'s commission for the trial of the information now at issue against C.D., I will diligently stand such trial, and that I will hear and determine the same to the best of my judgment, according to the evidence which shall be given."

"So help me God."

213. If, by reason of the challenges, the number of names drawn out shall be reduced to less than 5 peers and 7 members of the house of commons, then the 3 judges shall certify the same to the speakers of the respective houses of parliament, who shall lay the same before the said houses, who shall appoint, within any of the next 7 days on which the same shall sit, to appoint 26 members of the house of lords, and 40 members of the house of commons, after the manner aforesaid, the lists of which said members, so appointed, shall be transmitted to the clerk of the crown in the court of chancery, or his deputy, and be inserted in a new commission, to be issued as in 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 56. ante, p. 206; but no day on which the house of commons shall have adjourned, for want of the presence of a sufficient number of members to execute the provisions of 10 G. 3. c. 16. and 11 G. 3. c. 42. to regulate the trials of controverted elections, &c. shall be accounted 1 of the sitting days, 26 G. 3. c. 57. s. 6.

214. The said special commissioners shall have power to hear and determine every information, and to pronounce judgment thereon according to the effect of the common law, on convictions had according to the course thereof, for extortion or other misdemeanor, and also to declare the party convicted incapable of serving H. M. or E. I. C. in any capacity; which judgment shall be good and conclusive, and no certiorari shall be granted for removing their proceedings, into any court whatever; and the proceedings shall not be impeached, or their validity questioned in any court of law or equity, id. s. 7.

215. The powers given to the said commissioners may be executed by 10 (of whom 1 of the 3 judges shall always be 1), and no act executed by them shall be valid, unless 10 (of whom 1 of the 3 judges shall be 1) shall be present (except as in s. 12.), id. s. 8., altering 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 72.

216. Whenever the commissioners shall not concur in opinion upon any question before them, such question shall be determined by the greater number of them present, so that it be not less than 10; and if they are equally divided in opinion, the judge then sitting as president shall have the casting vote, id. s. 9.

217. If any of the commissioners shall depart this life, or be excused as in s. 12. from attending, before the commission has been executed, so that there are not a sufficient number to proceed, according to this act; or if all the 3 judges shall die, or be excused from attending, whilst the commission is depending, then the same shall cease, and a new commission be awarded, and the trial of such information shall begin de novo; save only with respect to the examinations or depositions of any witnesses taken in writing under the former commission, which shall be admitted as evidence under such new commission, id. s. 10.

218. The said special commissioners shall severally attend in court during the whole trial for which they are appointed, and none shall in any wise absent himself therefrom, (except as in s. 12.) and the said court shall at no time proceed in the said trial, till all the commissioners, not having obtained leave of absence, or been excused, shall be assembled; and if they shall not all assemble within 1 hour after the time to which they adjourned, such of them as shall be present, or the majority, shall make an order for further adjournment of the trial, in which order the cause of such adjournment shall be expressed, and a copy of such order, signed by the register to the commissioners, shall be served upon, or left at the abode of the absent commissioners; and at such further adjourned meeting, the cause of their absence shall be enquired into by the commissioners present, before they proceed to any other business; and if it is not made appear to the satisfaction of the commissioners, by facts specially stated, and verified before them upon oath (or, if by a peer of the realm, upon his honour) that such absent commissioners were, by sudden accident, or by necessity, prevented from attending at the former sitting, the special commissioners then present may pass a censure upon such commissioners who shall have been absent; and also impose on them for such neglect of duty, or on any commissioner who shall depart from the said court during the sitting, and before an adjournment thereof, such fines as they think fit, so that no such fine exceed 500*l.*; which fine shall be estreated by 1 of the 3 judges, into the court of exchequer, and the like process shall be awarded by that court, for levying the said fine, as is usual for levying other fines; and the said commissioners may declare any commissioner censured, or on whom any fine shall be imposed, disabled from acting in further execution of such commission, id. s. 11.

219. The commissioners may grant leave of absence to any of the commissioners, on proof of sickness or other urgent occasion; and such who shall obtain leave of absence, and shall accordingly be absent during any part of such trial, shall be no longer capable of acting under such commission, id. s. 12.

220. After the trial of any information has commenced and been begun before the commissioners, they shall sit every day, Sunday, Christmas-day, and Good Friday only excepted, and shall never adjourn for longer than 24 hours, unless a Sunday, &c. intervene, in which case their adjournment shall not exceed 24 hours, exclusive of such days; but if the number of the commissioners shall, by death or otherwise, be reduced to 10, who are prevented by sudden accident or necessity from attending such trial, the other commissioners may adjourn and suspend the proceedings from time to time, so that such adjournment shall not exceed 5 days; and the number of such successive adjournments shall not, in the whole, exceed 10, id. s. 13.

221. The commissioners may appoint clerks, stipendiaries, messengers and other officers, to attend on them in the execution of their commission; who shall be obedient to them, and may be suspended, removed, or discharged, or punished by fine to be imposed by them, for neglect of duty or disobedience; which fines shall be estreated into exchequer, by 1 of the 3 judges, and may be levied by the process of that court; and all clerks and other officers shall be paid by the informant and defendant named in such information, the like fees as the officers of the K. B., on trials of informations for misdemeanors, 26 G. 3. c. 57. s. 14.

222. Whenever an information shall be exhibited in K. B. against any person for extortion, or other misdemeanor in E. I., upon a certificate from the clerk of the crown in K. B., or the master of the crown office, or either of his sworn clerks in the said office, that such information hath been filed (which, if filed when the court shall not be sitting, shall be considered as filed on the last day of the preceding term), the lord chief justice, or any of the other judges of the said court, at the instance of such prosecutor, may issue his warrant, under his hand and seal, directed to all sheriffs, mayors, bailiffs, constables, and other peace officers, and to such other persons as shall be named for that purpose by such prosecutor, for apprehending the defendant to such information; and if such party shall escape or go into Scot., the sheriff or steward depute or substitute, or any justice of the county into which such party shall escape, may indorse his name on the said warrant; which warrant so indorsed shall be a sufficient authority to all persons to whom such warrant was originally directed, and also to all sheriffs' and stewards' officers, constables, and other peace officers, to execute the same, by apprehending the party, and to convey him before K. B., or before the lord chief justice or any of the judges, id. s. 15.

223. The party against whom such information shall be exhibited (not being attached) may surrender himself in the court of K. B. during its sitting, to be dealt with according to 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. and this act; or if the court is not sitting, unto the lord chief justice, or any other of the judges, and when such party shall surrender himself out of court, or shall, during any vacation, or when the said court shall not be sitting, be attached and brought before the chief justice or other judge, under any warrant issued by virtue of either act, the said chief justice or judge shall order such party to stand committed to the Marshalsea, or Tower, or Newgate, there to be detained till delivered by due course of law, or till he, with 2 sureties, has entered into a recognizance to the king, in such sum, and with such condition for his appearance, and for submitting to the judgment upon such information as the chief justice or other judge shall direct; but the commissioners may order any person in custody, under this act, to be from time to time brought up and remanded, as to them seems meet, id. s. 16.

224. When any party, against whom such information shall be exhibited, shall not be attached, or shall not have surrendered, and proof shall be made, by any affidavit, to the satisfaction of the court of K. B., that such party is beyond sea, or that, on enquiry at his abode, or last place of residence in G. B., he could not be found, and that there is just ground to believe that he is gone out of the realm, to avoid being attached; then that court may make a rule, directing such party to surrender at a certain day in such rule limited; a copy of which shall, within 20 days after making thereof, be inserted 3 times in the London Gazette, and another copy fixed in some conspicuous place in the India House; and if the party shall not surrender according to such rule within the time limited, or within such further time as the court shall appoint, (which they may do, on application on the behalf of such party,) then proof being made of the publication of such rule, the attorney-general, or other prosecutor, by rule and leave of the court, shall cause an appearance, and plea of not guilty to be entered for such party; and the said information shall thereupon proceed as if the party had appeared and pleaded, id. s. 17.

225. Where the plea of not guilty is entered for defendant, by prosecutor, it shall be sufficient, in order to the hearing of such information, for such prosecutor to give fourteen days' notice of trial by advertisement in the London Gazette, id. s. 18.

226. If any party charged by such information shall make default in his personal appearance, at the pronouncing of judgment, in the matter of such information, before the special commissioners; it nevertheless shall be lawful for the commissioners to pronounce judgment upon such information, as if the said party was present, and such judgment shall be valid, id. s. 19.

227. Whenever the party charged by such information shall personally appear before the special commissioners, on the trial, the said commissioners, during such trial, may order him to stand committed to the Marshalsea, Tower, or Newgate, there to be detained until judgment is pronounced, unless he shall be previously discharged by rule of the commissioners, id. s. 20.

228. If any person shall be guilty of any contempt or disobedience in the court of the said commissioners, during its sitting, they may order him to be taken into custody, and to stand committed to the Marshalsea or Newgate for such time as they shall direct, 26 G. 3. c. 57. s. 12.

229. The judgments pronounced by the special commissioners shall, when delivered over by the register to the clerk of the crown in the court of K. B., be enforced by the authority of the court of K. B., and such proceedings to outlawry, and other proceedings against the defendants may be had thereon, in like manner as according to the practice of the said court may be had upon judgments pronounced by the same, and the judgments of the said commissioners shall be conclusive, and shall not be avoided for error in any such judgment, or in the information, the award of process, or in the record of the issue, id. s. 22.

230. Nothing in the 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. or this act shall deprive the prosecutor or defendant of any right, liberty, benefit or advantage to which, by the law of the land, or practice of K. B. either of them is entitled upon any other information of a like nature depending in K. B., before issue in fact joined therein; nor shall prevent K. B. from exercising any such power as they might have exercised in such information, before issue joined, if neither act had been made, id. s. 23.

231. If the party charged by such information shall enter a demurrer to the same, which shall be over-ruled by K. B., such party shall, within eight days after judgment on such demurrer, unless a writ of error shall be brought thereon, and then within eight days after such judgment shall be affirmed, or such writ of error nonprossed, enter the plea of not guilty to such information, or, in default thereof, the said plea shall be entered for such party by H. M.'s attorney-general, or other prosecutor; and the said information shall proceed as if no demurrer had been entered thereto, id. s. 24.

232. If the attorney-general, or other prosecutor of such information is desirous of having the same determined in K. B., and shall move the court for that purpose, then that court shall grant a rule for retaining such information, and the said information shall be accordingly retained by K. B. and determined as an information of the like nature might, id. s. 25.

233. Whenever the party against whom such information has been exhibited shall be adjudged to pay a fine to H. M., and also whenever any recognizance entered into under 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 64. pl. 304. or this act, shall become forfeited, the court of K. B., or in case it is not then sitting, the lord chief justice shall, at the instance of the attorney-general, or other prosecutor, deliver to the lord chief baron, or other baron of exchequer, an estreat of the fine or recognizance forfeited, who shall thereupon direct the officer of the court to award, and such officer shall accordingly award, under the seal of the same court, special writs of extendi facias and capias, or other special process, against the said party adjudged to pay such fine, or the principal and sureties in such recognizance, and their lands, goods and effects, directed into such county, cities or liberties, to the proper officers for the execution thereof, as the said attorney-general or prosecutor shall desire; and if such party or principal and sureties have any lands or goods within Scot., or are resident therein, then the exchequer in Scot., or when the court is not sitting, the lord chief baron, or other baron, on a copy of the estreat being sent into the same court, or delivered to him under seal of the exchequer in Eng., or under hand and seal of the lord chief baron, &c. as above, shall carry on such proceedings and award such process as is competent by the law of Scot. for recovery of debts due to the crown, id. s. 26.

234. If it is made appear to the court of exchequer in Eng., at the instance of the attorney-general or other prosecutor by motion in court, that such party, principals or sureties have no lands or other estate in G. B., or that the same are not sufficient to answer the sums forfeited and that such party are seised or possessed of any lands or effects within any of the British possessions in the E. I., (the sums or fines not being paid), then the said court shall, by rule of court, cause transcripts of the estreats to be sealed with their seal, or to be otherwise attested, as they shall direct, and the same so sealed or attested shall be closed up under the seals of two of the barons directed to the supreme courts in Bengal and Madras, since 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5. to the mayor's court at Bombay, or to any of them, and the same shall be delivered by the said barons, or one of them, to such agent as the prosecutor shall appoint; which agent (or in case of his death the person into whose hand the same shall come) shall deliver such transcript to one of the judges of the supreme court, or mayor's courts, and make oath that he did receive the same from the hands of one of the barons, (or how the same came into his hands) and that the same hath not been opened or altered since he received the same (which oath the judges in India are to administer); and thereupon such transcript shall be filed and recorded in such of the said courts in India to which the same shall be directed; and upon motion made in such courts on the behalf of such prosecutor, the like process shall be awarded against the lands and effects of the said party, principals and sureties, within the limits of the jurisdictions of such courts, as might have been awarded in the court of exchequer in Eng. against the lands and effects in Eng. id. s. 27.

235. The session of the meetings of the said special commissioners; and all determinations before the commissioners shall be by a majority of voices, which, if equal, the then president shall have a second or casting voice, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 67.

236. The commissioners shall appoint a person to act as their register in execution of the commission, and when fully executed, the said commission, information and plea, and the judgment thereupon, and all the depositions and other proceedings in the premises, shall be delivered over by such register unto the clerk of the crown in K. B. to be recorded, id. s. 73.

237. Subpœnas requiring the attendance before the commissioners of any witness may be issued out of the crown office of K. B.; and in case any witness, having due notice of such subpœna, shall not attend, his non-attendance shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and subject him to be indicted; and in case he attends, but refuses to be examined, the commissioners may punish him by fine or imprisonment, id. s. 74.

238. The commissioners may send for persons, papers and records, and examine witnesses upon oath, and cause their examinations to be reduced into writing, and to be signed by them; and if any person shall prevaricate in his evidence, or otherwise misbehave himself before them, they may commit such person to the Fleet or Newgate for such time as they shall appoint (with power of releasing him at any time), and if any witness shall wilfully give false evidence he shall be guilty of perjury, and punished for the same, id. s. 75.

239. The recognizance to be entered into (as in pl. 204.), shall bind the property of all the goods of the principal party at the time of entering into the same, or which he shall acquire at any time afterwards, and before he shall be discharged therefrom; and shall also bind all estate and interest in lands, &c. whereof the principal, or any person in trust for the party so entering into such recognizance (at the time of entering into the same, or at any time afterwards) shall be seised, id. s. 76.

240. Where the party against whom such information has been exhibited shall be adjudged guilty of the crime charged therein, and to pay a fine unto H. M., the attorney-general, E. I. C. or other prosecutor, may exhibit interrogatories before the exchequer for examination of the party as to his estate; and if he shall not appear, or refuse to answer to such interrogatories, or wilfully conceals any part of his estate bound by such recognizance, he shall forfeit to H. M. all his goods, lands, tenements and hereditaments whatsoever, and shall be liable to be imprisoned in Newgate or the Tower for such time as exchequer shall direct, id. s. 77.

241. In all informations [or indictments, 15 G. 3. c. 63. s. 40.] in K. B. for offences committed in India, the court, on motion of the attorney-general, or other prosecutor, or of the defendant, may award a mandamus requiring the chief justice and judges of the supreme court at Fort William, or the judges of the mayor's court of any of the British settlements in India [or the chief justice and judges of the supreme court at Madras since 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5.] who are accordingly to hold a court for the examination of witnesses, and receiving other proofs concerning the matters charged in such informations; and in the mean time to cause public notice to be given of the holding the said court, and to issue process for the attendance of witnesses, and of the agents or counsel of the parties, and to adjourn from time to time; and such examination shall be publicly taken, vivâ voce, in the said court, upon oath of witnesses, and the oaths of skilful interpreters administered according to the forms of their religions, and shall by some sworn officer of such court, be reduced into writing on parchment, in case any duplicate should be required by the parties interested, and shall be sent to K. B. closed up, and under the seals of two of the judges of such courts; and one of the judges thereof [or of the said mayor's courts, 26 G. 3. c. 57. s. 28., or of the supreme court at Madras, comm. sens. See above.] shall deliver the same to the agent of the party requiring the same; which agent (or in case of his death the person into whose hands the same shall come) shall deliver the same to one of the clerks in the court of K. B. in the public office, and make oath that he received the same from the hands of one of the judges of such court in India (or how the same came into his hands) and that the same has not been opened or altered since he received it, (which oath such clerk in court shall administer); and such depositions shall be read before the special commissioners only, (id. s. 78. only) and shall be deemed good evidence in all other cases, 15 G. 3. c. 63. s. 40.; and all parties concerned may take copies thereof at their own costs; [and the chief justice of K. B. or one of the judges shall, after such depositions are received, together with the information and plea, cause the same to be delivered over to the lord chancellor, who shall thereupon issue the commission under the great seal, as by this act directed, id. s. 79.] 26 G. 3. c. 57. s. 28., 15 G. 3. c. 63. s. 40. same provision.

242. No information, plea or deposition shall be so delivered over at any other time than during Hilary, Easter or Michaelmas term, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 79.

243. In all proceedings on such information, as well the depositions taken under such commission after publication thereof, as also all writings transmitted from E. I. to the court of directors by their officers resident in the E. I. in the usual course of correspondence, and copies of all writings transmitted by the said directors, or any committee thereof, to the officers in the E. I., and which relate to the subject matter of the charge, or to the defence, may be admitted by the commissioners to be offered in evidence, and shall not be deemed inadmissible, unless on objections arising from the nature of the contents thereof; subject nevertheless to be impeached in point of credibility by such observations as the nature of such evidence or other circumstances may suggest, id. s. 80.

244. K. B., at the prayer of the attorney-general, or other prosecutor, or of the defendant, may order an examination de bene esse of witnesses upon interrogatories to be taken before an examiner appointed for that purpose, or by commission, and may cause the depositions so taken to be published when proper; which depositions shall be afterwards admitted to be read before the commissioners, and shall be deemed good evidence; saving all exceptions thereto when offered to be read, id. s. 81.

245. No prosecution shall be commenced, unless within three years after the return of the party prosecuted into G. B., id. s. 82.

246. Nothing herein shall affect the rights or claims of the public, or the Co. respecting the territorial acquisitions and revenues, s. 83.

247. As well the servants of the Co. as all other subjects resident in India, shall be amenable to the courts of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery, and of general or quarter sessions in any of the British settlements in India for all murders, felonies, homicides, manslaughters, burglaries, rapes of women, perjuries, confederacies, riots, routs, retainings, oppressions, trespasses, wrongs and other misdemeanors, offences and injuries whatsoever by them committed in any of the parts of Asia, Africa or America, beyond the Cape of Good Hope to the Streights of Magellan, within the limits of the exclusive trade of the Co., whether committed against subjects, or any other person whatsoever, 26 G. 3. c. 57. s. 29.

248. The governor or president and council of Fort Saint George, in their courts of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery, and quarter or general sessions, as also the mayor's court [semble the supreme court since 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5.] at Madras, according to their several jurisdictions, shall have cognizance, as well civil as criminal, over all British subjects residing within any of the territories in possession of the Co. on the coast of Coromandel, or in any other part of the Carnatic, or in the five northern circars, including those parts of the said circars which lie within Orissa, or any of the territories of the soubah of the Deccan, the nabob of Arcoi, or the rajah of Tanjore, id. s. 30.

249. When any ship, vessel, goods, merchandize or other effects, shall be seized in the E. I., or other parts within the limits of the exclusive trade, for any forfeiture incurred under any of the laws, the said supreme courts, or either of the said mayor's courts [Qu. us to Madras, see last pl.] may determine the cause of such seizure, or complaint concerning the same, and proceed to condemnation or restoration of the property seized, and give judgment thereon, and carry such judgment into execution, as the Exchequer could, if such seizure had been made in Eng., id. s. 33.

250. Whenever any bond or other deed or writing executed in the E. I. and attested by any persons resident there, shall be offered in evidence in any of the courts of justice in G. B., it shall be sufficient to prove, by one witness, that the names subscribed to such bond, &c. and of the witnesses attesting the execution of the same, are of the proper hand-writing of the parties, and that their witnesses are resident in the E. I.; and in like manner all courts of justice in the E. I. shall admit the like proof of the execution of bonds and other deeds executed in G. B. and witnessed by any persons resident in G. B.; and such proofs shall be sufficient evidence of the execution of such bonds and deeds, as if the witnesses were dead, id. s. 38.

251. FOR ORIGINATING DOUBTS AS TO THE EXCLUSIVE POWER OF THE court of directors to appoint the [Gov. Gen. and] council of the presidency of Fort-William in Bengal, 26 G. 3. c. 25.

252. It is declared that H. M.'s approbation of the Gov. Gen. [Semb. altered by 33 G. 3. c. 155. s. 80.] and council [Semb. confirmed, id. s. 81.] of Fort-William is unnecessary, 26 G. 3. c. 25. s. 1.

253. [FOR CONTINUING IN THE E. I. Co. for a further term, the possession of the British territories in India, together with their exclusive trade, under certain limitations, partly Exp., see 33 G. 3. c. 155. post.] FOR ESTABLISHING FURTHER REGULATIONS FOR GOVERNMENT OF THE SAID TERRITORIES, AND THE BETTER ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE IN THE SAME; FOR APPROPRIATING TO CERTAIN USES, THE REVENUES AND PROFITS OF THE Co.; and for making provision for the good order and government of the towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, 33 G. 3. c. 32. [Am.

254. The territorial acquisitions, mentioned in 21 G. 3. c. 65., and 7 G. 3. c. 37., and those since acquired in the E. I. with their revenues, shall continue in possession of the E. I. Co. for a term of 20 years, from (1st Mar. 1794.) determinable on 3 years' notice by parliament, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 73—75. [Exp.] their exclusive trade secured, id. s. 71. [Exp. see the existing provision, 33 G. 3. c. 155. s. 1. pl. 263.]

255. All the profits, advantages, privileges, franchises, capacities, remedies, penalties, provisions, and things soever, granted to the E. I. Co. by any other acts or charters, are freed from all conditions of redemption and determination in any former act contained, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 72.

256. H. M. by letters patent or commission under great seal may, from time to time, appoint during his pleasure such members of the privy council (of whom the 2 principal secretaries of state and chancellor of exchequer shall always be 3) and such other 2 persons as he shall think fit, who shall be styled "Commissioners for the affairs of India," 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 2. [usually termed the "Board of Control."]

257. Any 3 or more such commissioners shall form a board for executing the powers by this or any other act vested in them; and the first-named commissioner, being the president of the board, and when any board is formed in his absence, the commissioner whose name stands next in order of nomination in the commission of those present, shall in turn preside at the same, id. s. 3. [see note to last pl.]

258. If the commissioners present at any board are equally divided in opinion, the president, or commissioner acting as such, shall have 2 voices or the casting vote, id. s. 4.

259. The board may appoint the secretaries and officers necessary to attend them, with power to dismiss them at pleasure: their proceedings shall be entered in proper books, and such of the commissioners as H. M. shall think fit, as likewise their secretaries and other officers, shall be paid such fixed salaries, as H. M. by warrant under his sign manual, countersigned by chancellor of exchequer, shall direct; all which salaries, with the other contingent expences of the board, shall be paid quarterly by the E. I. Co., the quarterly amount being first settled by the board and certified to the court of directors by the president for the time being, id. s. 5.

260. The whole of the sum to be paid by the E. I. Co. on account of the board, shall not exceed 26,000*l.* in any one year, and shall be taken as part of their political charges, 33 G. 3. c. 155. s. 90. [Repealing 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 5. in part, and 51 G. 3. c. 75. s. 2.]

261. H. M. by warrant under the sign manual, countersigned by the chancellor of exchequer, may allow to any of the secretaries or officers of the board such allowances or superannuations as he shall think proper, subject to the conditions, and in the like proportions as may now be made to public officers under 50 G. 3. c. 117. (s. 2.), to be paid quarterly by the Co., and taken as part of their political charges, id. s. 91.

262. Previous services to the Co. by such officer before his employment by the board, shall be taken into account, in computing his length of service under the latter, id. s. 92.

263. The provisions of 50 G. 3. c. 117. (s. 1.) [SERVICES, PUBLIC] extended to the office of the board of control, 51 G. 3. c. 75. s. 6.

264. The commissioners, before acting as such, except in administering such oath, shall severally take an oath faithfully to execute their duty, before any two such commissioners, and such oath shall be entered by their chief secretary among the acts of the board, and be duly attested by such commissioners, at the time of their taking and administering the same to each other respectively, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 6. [The form of oath is annexed to this section.]

265. The several secretaries and other officers of the board shall also take and subscribe before the board such oath of secrecy, and for execution of their duties, as the board shall direct, id. s. 7.

266. The respective appointments of commissioner or chief secretary of the board, shall not be deemed within 6 A. c. 7., whereby to disqualify them from being elected M. P., nor shall the appointment of any such commissioner, without a special salary annexed, or of the said chief secretary, if members of the H. of C. vacate their seats therein, id. s. 8.

267. The board shall, by virtue of this act, be fully authorized to direct, superintend, and controul, all acts, operations, and concerns, in any way relating to or concerning the civil or military government, or revenues of the E. I. territories, subject to the regulations, restrictions, and appropriations of revenue hereby provided, id. s. 9.

268. The said commissioners or chief secretary, or any other officer of the board, by the authority thereof, shall have free access to the books, papers, correspondences, evidences, and other records of the Co., and shall be assisted by their officers in their searches for the same, and shall be furnished at their expence with the copies or extracts of such parts thereof as the board shall require, [33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 10. only], and may direct to be prepared such accounts and statements as they think fit; and the court of directors shall cause the same to be transmitted, id. ibid., and 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 78.

269. The court of directors shall deliver to the said board, copies of all minutes, orders, resolutions, and proceedings of all courts of proprietors, general or special, and of all courts of directors, within 8 days after holding the same respectively; and also of all letters, advices, and dispatches received by the court, or any committee of directors, from the E. I., or any other settlement or factory within the limits of their [exclusive, see alteration, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 6.] trade as in statute 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44. s. 61., and charter, 5th Sept. 10 W. 3. described [CONF. 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 2.], or from any of the Co.'s servants stationed at St. Helena, Bussora, Suez, Aleppo, or other parts beyond the seas, in anywise relating to the civil or military government, or territorial revenues in India, immediately after the arrival and receipt thereof, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 11.

270. No orders or instructions whatever relating to the said civil or military government, or territorial revenues, shall be at any time given to any of the governments in India by the court or committee of directors, until submitted to the consideration of and approved by the board; for which purpose copies of all orders proposed to be sent to India shall be by them previously laid before the board, and within 2 months, [53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 71.] shall either be returned by them to the said court or committee, with their approbation certified under the hand of the chief [or assistant, id. s. 72.] secretary to the board, or if any part of such proposed orders, &c. is disapproved or varied in substance by the board, they shall give to the directors in writing under the hand of their chief [or assistant, comm. sens. above.] secretary by order of the board, their reasons at large in respect thereof, with their instructions to them in relation thereto, and the directors shall forthwith dispatch the same, in the form so approved of by the board, to the proper governments or officers in India, or their other limits without further delay; unless on representation made to them by the directors, the board shall order any alterations therein, and the directors of the Co. shall obey and be bound by the instructions of the board concerning the civil and military government of the above territories and their revenues according to this act, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 12., and 53 G. 3. c. 155. ss. 71, 72.

271. Nothing herein shall restrict the directors from expressing by representation in writing to the board such remarks or explanations as occur, or are thought fit, concerning any orders, &c. disapproved or varied in substance by the board, which latter shall take the same into consideration, and give such further orders thereon as may be expedient, which shall be final, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 13.

273. Nothing herein shall give the board power to nominate any of the Co.'s servants, id. s. 14.

272(a). Whenever the court of directors shall neglect to frame and transmit to the board, dispatches on any subject connected with the government or revenues as aforesaid, beyond 14 days after requisition, by order of the board, the latter may prepare and send to the directors (without waiting for the receipt of their intended dispatches) any orders for any of the Indian governments concerning the government or revenues above mentioned, and the directors shall transmit dispatches according to the tenor of such instructions, to the respective governments in India, unless, on representation made to the board, the latter shall direct an alteration therein, in which case the directors shall be bound to conform to the same, id. s. 15.

273. Nothing herein shall authorize the board to issue any orders or instructions not relating to points connected with the civil or military government or revenues of the British possessions in India, or to expunge and alter any dispatches proposed by the court of directors, and not relating thereto; and if the board shall send any orders to such court, to be by them transmitted, which, in the opinion of the latter, relate to points not connected with the said government or revenues, such court may petition H. M. in council, who shall finally decide how far the same is or is not connected with such government or revenues, id. s. 16.

274. The board shall not give any directions authorizing, by dispatches to be sent to India, the increase of the established salaries or emoluments of any gov.-gen., gov., president, or member of council, or of any other officer in the Co.'s service beyond the present amount, unless such increase be contained in some dispatch proposed to be sent to India, and transmitted to the board for their approbation, and unless an account of the actual salaries and emoluments of such officer, and of the proposed increase therein, with the reason of the same, shall have been laid before both houses, 30 days before such dispatch sent, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 17., and 28 G. 3. c. 85. s. 3. s. 1.

275. The board shall not give direction for the payment of any gratuity from such revenues to any person on account of services in India, or on any other account to any greater amount, or to any other person than is specified in some dispatch proposed to be sent to India, and transmitted to the said board for their approbation; and where such directions are given, a distinct account of such gratuities shall be added to the next list of establishments laid before parliament by the court of directors, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 18., and 28 G. 3. c. 85. s. 4. s. 1.

276. If the board are of opinion that the subject of any of their deliberations concerning levying war, making peace, or negotiating with any native princes or states in India, intended to be communicated in orders to any of the Indian governments shall require secrecy, they may send their orders and instructions to the secret committee of the court of directors for transmission to India by the latter, and all the Indian governments shall obey the same as if transmitted by the court of directors, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 19.

277. The court of directors shall from time to time appoint a secret committee, to consist of any number not exceeding 3 directors, for the particular purposes herein specified, each of whom shall take an oath faithfully to discharge his duty therein, which oath shall be administered by the respective members of the committee to each other, and, being so taken and subscribed, shall be recorded by the secretary of the court of directors among the acts of the court, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 20., 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 74. [The present form of oath is that given by the latter act, viz.:

'I A.B. do swear, that I will, according to the best of my skill and judgment, faithfully execute the several trusts and powers reposed in me as a member of the secret committee appointed by the court of directors of the united Co. of merchants of Eng. trading to the E. I., I will not disclose or make known any of the secret orders or instructions which shall be given, communicated, or transmitted to the said committee by the commissioners for the affairs of India, nor any dispatches communicated or transmitted to the said committee by any of the governments or presidencies in India which relate to the levying of war, or the making of peace, or treaties, or negotiating with any of the native princes or states of the E. I., or other parts within the limits of the said Co.'s charter, save only to the other members of the said secret committee, or to the person or persons who shall be duly nominated and employed in transcribing or preparing the same respectively, unless I shall be authorised by the said commissioners to disclose and make known the same.—So help me God.'

278. The secretary of the court of directors, or examiner of Indian correspondence, or any other person employed by the secret committee in preparing or transcribing any secret dispatches, orders, or instructions required to be transmitted by them to India, under the directions of 53 G. 3. c. 52., or any secret dispatches received from the governments in the E. I., shall, before they enter on that duty, take and subscribe before any other members of the secret committee an oath of secrecy as near to the tenor of the above oath as the case will admit, [53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 75.] and the members of the said committee, or any 2 of them, [53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 21.] shall frame and administer and attest the taking, &c. the said oath by the persons above required so to do, and shall cause the same to be recorded among the acts of the court of directors, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 21., as AMD. by 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 75.

279. When any of the governments or presidencies in the E. I. are of opinion that any of their dispatches to G. B. concerning the government of their territories, or making war or peace, negotiations or treaties with any of the native princes or states, shall require secrecy, they may address such dispatches under cover, sealed with their seals, to the said secret committee for their inspection, who shall deliver the same, or copies thereof, to the board immediately on their arrival, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 22.

280. The secret committee shall not disclose the contents of such dispatches till authorized by the board of control, 53 G. 3. c. 158. s. 73.

281. No order of the court of directors concerning the civil or military government or territorial revenues of the acquisitions in India, after having received the approbation of the board of control, shall be liable to alteration by any general court of proprietors of the Co., 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 23.

282. The whole civil and military government of the presidency of Fort William in Bengal, and the ordering and management of the territorial acquisitions and revenues in Bengal, Bihar, and Orissa, shall be vested in a gov.-gen. and 3 counsellors for the presidency, subject to all the statute regulations in force; and the whole civil and military government of the presidency of Fort St. George, and the management of the territorial acquisitions and revenues on the coast of Coromandel and of Orissa, now being under the administration of Fort St. George, are vested in a governor and 3 counsellors for the presidency, subject as aforesaid; and the whole government, civil and military, of the presidency and island of Bombay, and the management of the territorial acquisitions and revenues on the coast of Malabar are vested in a governor and 3 counsellors for that presidency and island, subject as aforesaid; such governor and counsellors respectively being also subject to the control of the gov.-gen. in council, as in this act provided, id. s. 24.

283. The court of directors may declare and appoint what parts of the said territorial acquisitions, or of any other now in the possession of the government of Fort St. George or Bombay, with their respective revenues and establishments of civil servants, shall be hereafter subject to the government of either and which of the said pres.

dencies, or of that of Fort William in Bengal; and may from time to time revoke or alter such appointment, making such new distribution as they think fit, subject to the direction, &c. of the board of control, and all such territories, revenues, and civil servants shall be annexed and made subject to such presidency and courts of judicature therein accordingly, 33 G. 3. c. 79. s. 1.

284. All vacancies in the office of governor-general of Fort William in Bengal, or of any of the members of council there, or of governor or member of council of either Fort St. George or Bombay, or of governor of the forts and garrisons at Fort William or St. George, or Bombay, or of commander-in-chief of all the forces in India, or of any provincial commander-in-chief of the forces there, shall be supplied by the court of directors, the vacancies of any of the members in council being always supplied from among the list of senior merchants of the Co. who have been resident 12 years in India in their service, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 23.

285. When the court of directors shall neglect for 2 months from the day whereon the notification of the vacancy of any employment in India in their appointment has been received by such court to supply such vacancy, H. M. may, by writing under his sign manual, appoint (subject to the restrictions in s. 25. with respect to appointments by the court of directors) a person to supply such vacancy, who shall be invested with the same powers and authorities as if appointed by the court of directors, subject to recall only by H. M., id. s. 26.

286. The court of directors may appoint any persons provisionally to succeed to any of the above offices, for supplying vacancies therein, when they happen by the death or resignation of the person holding the same, or on his departure from India, or on any event expressed in any such provisional appointment to the same, and may revoke such appointments; but no persons so appointed to succeed provisionally shall be entitled to any authority or emolument appertaining thereto, till in actual possession of the office, id. s. 27.

287. If any vacancy shall happen in the office of gov.-gen. or gov. of Fort St. George or Bombay respectively, when no provisional or other successor is on the spot to supply the same, then the counsellor of the presidency next in rank to the gov.-gen. or gov. shall execute the office till a successor shall arrive, or some other person on the spot is duly appointed thereto; and if the council board shall, during that interval be reduced to one only member, besides the acting gov.-gen. or gov., the person acting as such may call to the council board any one of the senior merchants of the Co. at such presidency, where the vacancy shall occur, to be a temporary member of the board, who shall sit and act as such with all powers of such member of council, till the arrival of a successor, or other appointment made to the office of gov.-gen. or gov. respectively; every such acting gov.-gen., gov., and occasional counsellor enjoying the salaries of those offices, during the time of acting as such, the two former foregoing their salary and allowances of counsellor for the same period, id. s. 29.

288. If at the time of any vacancy in the office of gov.-gen. or gov. of any of the presidencies no provisional successor as by this act shall be on the spot, no commander-in-chief, though a member of council, shall succeed to the temporary government, unless provisionally appointed to supply it, but the vacancy shall be filled by the counsellor next to him in rank at the council board, id. s. 30., and see ante, pl. 291. and pl. 292.

289. Any vacancy which shall happen in the office of a counsellor, at either of the said presidencies, when no person provisionally or otherwise appointed to succeed thereto is resident on the spot, shall be supplied by the appointment of the gov.-gen. in council of Fort William, or the gov. in council of Fort St. George or Bombay, from among the senior merchants in the Co.'s service in India, who shall execute the office with all its powers, till a successor shall arrive duly appointed by the court of directors, with the salary and other emoluments appertaining to that office during his continuance therein, id. s. 31.

290. When the offices of gov.-gen., and commander-in-chief of all the forces in India, and those of gov. of Fort St. George, and commander-in-chief of all the forces there, are vested in different persons, such commanders-in-chief shall, if specially authorised thereto by the court of directors and not otherwise, be members of the councils at Fort William and Fort St. George respectively, and when so appointed shall have precedence at the council board, next to the gov.-gen. or gov. of the presidency, but without emolument as such member, unless specially granted by the court of directors of the Co. id. s. 32.

291. The court of directors may specially appoint the commander of the military forces of the Co. on the Bengal establishment, to be a member of the supreme council of Fort William, notwithstanding the office of gov.-gen. and commander-in-chief are vested in the same person, 45 G. 3. c. 36. s. 1.

292. Such commander shall have rank at the council board next to the gov.-gen., but shall not succeed to the government of the presidency on a vacancy in the office, unless provisionally appointed to supply the same, but it shall be supplied by the counsellor next in rank to such commander, 45 G. 3. c. 36. s. 2., see pl. 288.

293. Such commander, so appointed a member of the supreme council, shall be subject to recall; and shall have all the powers of a member of council, as if appointed thereto as commander-in-chief of all the forces in India, id. s. 3.

294. When the commander-in-chief of all the forces in India (not being likewise gov.-gen.) shall be resident at either of the presidencies of Fort St. George or Bombay, he shall, from the time of his arrival, and during his continuance at such presidency, be a member of the council thereof; and during that period the provincial commander-in-chief of the forces of the presidency (if a member of the council thereof) shall sit and deliberate, but not vote at the council board, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 33.

295. If any of the members of the council of either of the said presidencies shall, by any infirmity or otherwise, be rendered incapable of acting or attending to act as such, or shall be absent from the presidency, and the gov.-gen. or either of the said governors are desirous of the advice of a full council on any urgent business, they shall, by virtue of this act, have respectively full power to call any provisional successor appointed then on the spot, or if none such is on the spot, then any senior merchant there to assist at the council board, pro hac vice, without any emolument or loss of other office, on account of his acting as such, id. s. 34.

296. H. M., by instrument under his sign manual, countersigned by the president of the board of control, may remove or recall any person holding civil or military employment or commission under the Co. in India, and may vacate and make void every appointment or commission of any person there, and their powers shall cease from the time specified in such instrument; provided that a duplicate thereof, under such sign manual, attested by the said president, shall, within 8 days after signature, by H. M., be delivered to the chairman or deputy chairman of the E. I. C., in order to apprise the court of directors thereof, id. s. 35.

297. The court of directors may remove, recall, or dismiss their officers and servants at their will and pleasure, except any gov.-gen. gov. or commander-in-chief appointed by H. M. through default of appointment by the directors (as in s. 26.), id. s. 36.

298. The departure from India of any gov.-gen. or gov., member of council, or commander-in-chief, with intent to return to Europe, shall be deemed in law a resignation of his office, and his arrival in any part of Europe a sufficient indication thereof; and no act or declaration of any gov.-gen. or gov., or member of council, during his continuance in the presidency, whereof he was so gov.-gen. &c. except by some deed or instrument in writing under his hand and seal, delivered to the secretary for the public department of the presidency to be recorded, shall be deemed a resignation of his office, and the salary and allowances of such gov.-gen. or other officers respectively shall cease from the day of his departure or resignation, and if any such gov.-gen. or other officer in the Co.'s service shall quit the presidency to which he belongs, other than in the known actual service of the Co., his salary, &c. shall not be payable during his absence to any person for his use; and in the event of his not returning to such presidency, or of his coming to Europe, shall be deemed to have ceased from the day of his quitting the presidency, id. s. 37.

299. The gov.-gen. and counsellors of Fort William, and the several governors and counsellors of Fort St. George, and Bombay, shall at their respective council boards proceed first to the consideration of such matters as are proposed by the gov.-gen. or governors respectively; and when any matter is propounded by any counsellor, the gov.-gen. or governor may postpone or adjourn the discussion to a future day, but for not longer than 48 hours, nor more than twice without consent of the counsellor who proposed the same, id. s. 38.

300. All orders and proceedings of the gov.-gen. and council at Fort William shall be expressed to be made by the gov.-gen. in council; and those of Fort St. George and Bombay, by the respective governors in council and not otherwise; and the several orders, &c. of all the presidencies shall, previous to being published or put in execution be signed either by the chief secretary to the government of the presidency, or in his absence, by the principal secretary of the department to which they relate by the authority of the gov.-gen. or governors in council respectively, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 39., 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 79.

301. The gov.-gen. in council at Fort William, shall have full power to superintend, controul, and direct the several governments and presidencies of Fort St. George, and Bombay, and all other governments erected by the company within limits of their [exclusive, but see 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 6.] trade, in all points relating to any transactions with the country powers or states, or levying war, or making peace, or the collection or application of the territorial revenues in India, or to the forces employed at such governments, or to their civil or military government, 33 G. 3. c. 53. s. 40.

302. Notwithstanding any doubt entertained by the said president, &c. to whom such orders are given respectively, of the power of the gov.-gen. in council to give the same, they shall be bound to obey them in all cases, except where they have received positive orders from the court, or secret committee of directors, by authority of the board of controul, repugnant to the orders of the gov-gen. in council, and not known to the latter, at the time of dispatching the same, who shall at the time of transmitting all secret orders transmit therewith the dates and times of receiving their last dispatches, orders, or instructions from the court of directors, or secret committee as above, on any points contained therein; and the said presidencies, governments, and settlements, in all cases where they have received orders from either of the latter, which they deem repugnant to those of the gov-gen. and council at Fort William, and which were not known to them at the time of dispatching their orders as aforesaid, shall forthwith transmit copies thereof, with an account of all orders made by them in consequence thereof to the gov-gen. in council, who shall dispatch such further orders as he shall judge necessary thereupon, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 41.

305. It shall not be lawful for the gov-gen. in council, without the express command of the board of directors, or of the secret committee, by authority of the board of controul in any case, (except where hostilities are actually commenced, or preparations for them actually made against the British nation in India, or against some of the princes or states dependent thereon whose territories the Co. are engaged by treaty to defend or guarantee,) either to declare war or commence hostilities, or enter into any treaty for making war against any other prince or state, (except as aforesaid,) or to make such treaty for guaranteeing the possession of any prince or state, but on consideration of the latter actually engaging to assist the Co. against such hostilities commenced, or preparations made; and where such hostilities are commenced, or such treaty made, the gov-gen. and council shall as expeditiously as possible communicate the same to the court of directors, or secret committee, with a full state of the intelligence, and reasons of their commencing such hostilities or making such treaty, id. s. 42.

304. It shall not be lawful for the governors and counsellors of Fort St. George, and Bombay, or of any other subordinate settlement, to make any order for commencing hostilities, or levying war, or to negotiate or conclude any treaty of peace or other treaty with any Indian prince or state, (except in case of imminent danger or emergency,) unless in pursuance of express orders from the gov-gen. in council, or from the court of directors, or from the said secret committee, by authority of the board of controul; and every such treaty shall, if possible contain a clause for subjecting it to the ratification or rejection of the gov-gen. in council; and the governors and counsellors aforesaid shall yield obedience to the orders of the latter in the matters aforesaid, and they and all other officers neglecting the same shall be liable to removal, dismission, or suspension by order of the gov-gen. in council, and to be sent to Eng. and shall be subject to the further penalties of law, id. s. 43.

303. The governors and counsellors of the presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, and the chief officers of every other British settlement in India, shall constantly transmit to the gov-gen. in council true copies of all acts in council of their respective governments, &c. and also advice of all matters which shall come to their knowledge, material to be communicated to them, or which the latter shall require, id. s. 44.

306. The gov-gen. may issue warrant under his hand and seal to such peace officers and other persons as he shall think fit for securing any person suspected of carrying on any illicit correspondence dangerous to the safety of any of the British possessions in India, with any of the princes, rajahs, zemindars, or persons having authority in India, or with the governors of any European factories there, or any correspondence contrary to the rules and orders of the Co. or of the gov-gen. in council; and if on examination taken on oath in writing of any credible witness or witnesses before the latter there appear reasonable grounds for the charge, the gov-gen. shall commit the accused to safe custody, and within 5 days shall deliver him a copy of the charge on which he is committed; he shall be permitted to deliver in his defence in writing with a list of his witnesses; the witnesses on both sides shall be examined and cross-examined on oath in his presence, and their examinations taken down in writing; and if it appear reasonable to the gov-gen. to continue his confinement, notwithstanding his defence, he shall remain in custody till brought to trial in India, or sent to Eng. for that purpose; and all such proceedings, or attested copies thereof under the seal of the supreme court of judicature at Fort William, or of one of the mayor's courts, (semble of the supreme court at Madras, since 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5.) shall be transmitted to Eng. by the first dispatches; in order to their production in evidence on trial of the parties in G. B. subject to exceptions to competency of the witnesses only; and such persons as are intended to be so sent shall be sent by the first opportunity of which their health will admit, id. s. 45.

307. The several governor or governors in council of Fort St. George and Bombay, shall have like powers with regard to such suspected persons, id. s. 46.

308. When any measure or question shall be agitated in the supreme council of Fort William, or in either of the councils of Fort St. George, or Bombay, whereby the interest of the Co. or the safety of the British possessions in India, or any part thereof, may in the judgment of the gov-gen. or governors respectively be essentially affected, and the latter are of opinion that the measures so agitated ought to be carried, suspended, or rejected, and the several other members of council shall dissent from such opinion, the gov-gen. or governor and other members shall mutually exchange with and communicate in council to each other in writing, under their hands, (to be recorded at large on their secret consultations,) the reasons of their different opinions, and if after considering the same, they severally retain their opinions, such gov-gen. or governor may make or declare any order which he shall think fit for suspending, rejecting, or carrying such measure into execution: which shall be signed by himself, and also by all the members of council present, and shall be as valid as if they concurred therein; and all persons shall be obedient thereto, and shall carry the same into execution in their respective stations, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 47.

309. The gov-gen. or governor who shall command such order and resolution to be made and recorded without concurrence of any of the other members of council shall alone be held responsible for the same, and for its consequences, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 48.

310. Nothing herein shall give power to either the gov-gen. or governors aforesaid to make or execute any order or resolution which could not have been lawfully executed with the concurrence of their respective councils, (id. s. 49.) or shall give any discretionary power of acting or forbearing to act without concurrence of other members of council to any person on whom the office of gov-gen. or governor respectively shall devolve by the death or resignation of those officers, or to any deputy gov-gen. unless provisionally appointed by the court of directors, or unless and until he be confirmed in the office, and in the mean time all orders and acts soever in the presidency shall be determined by a majority of voices of the councils, the gov-gen. or gov. having a casting vote on any equality of voices, and not otherwise, id. s. 50.

311. Nothing herein shall empower the gov-gen. or governors aforesaid to make or execute any order or resolution against the opinion of their councils, in any matter which comes before them in council in their judicial capacity, or to make, repeal, or suspend any general resolution for the civil government of the Co.'s settlements, or to impose any tax within their governments, id. s. 51.

312. When the gov-gen. shall visit either of the presidencies of Fort St. George or Bombay, or any province or place in India, the powers of the governor or chief officer thereof shall be suspended from the time of proclamation of his arrival (except as to judicial proceedings) and shall so continue till proclamation to the contrary is made by the gov-gen., or till his departure; and all the powers of the governor &c. shall be vested in the gov-gen. together with his own powers under this act, (with liberty to the former to sit and act as a member of council of the presidency,) id. s. 52.

313. When the gov-gen. is absent from his own government, in his absence such one of the members of the council as he shall nominate for the purpose, shall be styled and act as vice-president and deputy-governor of Fort William, and the government of the presidency shall be exercised by him and the other members of council in like manner and no otherwise than as that of Fort St. George or Bombay may be exercised by the governors in council there, subject to the restrictions in this act contained, id. s. 53.

314. If the gov-gen. of Fort William, or the governors of Fort St. George or Bombay, happen to be absent from any council of those presidencies, and shall signify their intended absence to such council, the senior member present shall preside at the same with all their powers; but no act of any council so held shall be valid, unless signed by such gov-gen. or governors respectively, if then resident at the presidency, and not prevented by indisposition from signing the same; provided that if such gov-gen. or governor not being so prevented, shall decline to sign such act of council, he and the members who have signed the same, shall mutually communicate in writing to each other the grounds of their respective opinions, subject to such regulations and ultimate responsibility of such gov-gen. or governor respectively as by 33 G. 3. c. 52. (s. 47.) directed; but nothing in this act shall prevent such gov-gen. if absent from his own government of Bengal, from nominating a vice-president and deputy governor according to 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 53., last pl., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 19.

315. If the gov-gen. during such his absence shall judge it necessary to issue orders to any of the governments or presidencies in India, or to any officers or servants of the Co. acting under their authority without previously communicating them to the said respective governments, he may so issue them, and the above governments, their officers and servants shall obey the same; and such orders shall be of the same, but of no greater validity than if made by him in council at Fort William; and if made by him of his own sole authority, and without concurrence of the other members of the councils of either Fort St. George, or Bombay respect-lively, he shall be alone responsible for the same (as in s. 48.) and shall transmit by the first opportunity to the governors and councils of the respective presidencies to which the above mentioned officers and servants belong, and also to the court of directors, copies of such orders respectively, with his reasons for issuing the same, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 54.

316. The court of directors may, with approbation of the board of control, suspend all or any of the powers hereby given to the governor-general to act on his own sole authority at such times as they judge expedient, and the same shall be suspended from the arrival in India of their orders to that effect, and may be revived in like manner, id. s. 55.

317. All the civil servants of the Co. in India under the rank of members of the council shall have precedence in the service at their respective stations according to seniority of appointment, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 56.; [but the governor-general, or any governor in council of the Co. may, on application in writing by any civil servant of the Co., by special order direct that such servant on being appointed to office in any court, board, or official establishment, shall take precedence thereat according to his seniority of appointment as a member thereof, though not according to his seniority in the Co.'s service; and he shall take precedence at such court, &c. accordingly, 33 G. 3. c. 155. s. 86., altering 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 56.]

318. All vacancies in the offices of governor-general, or of governors of the Co.'s settlements of Madras or Bombay, or of the forts and garrisons thereof, or of the commander in chief of all the forces in India, or of any provincial commander in chief, shall be filled up by the court of directors, subject to H.M.'s approbation, signified in writing under his royal sign-manual, countersigned by the president of the board of control; but the court of directors may remove or dismiss such governor-general, &c. as before this act, 33 G. 3. c. 155. s. 80.

319. The court of directors shall not either absolutely or provisionally appoint any person to succeed to any civil or military employment in their service in E.I. without approbation of the board of control, except as above; and nothing herein shall prevent their appointment of members of council, general-officers on the staff, advocate and attorney-general, attorney at law of the Co., or chaplain at the several presidencies or settlements, or to any officers in their civil or marine establishments, usually supplied by persons not having been covenanted servants of the Co. previous to their appointments, or shall prevent them from appointing writers, cadets, or assistant-surgeons, as before the act, id. s. 81.

320. All vacancies in any of the offices or employments in the Co.'s civil service (under the degree of counsellor) shall be from time to time filled up from among their civil servants belonging to the presidency wherein such vacancies happen, subject to the following restriction, viz. no office the emoluments whereof exceed 500*l.* per ann. shall be granted to any such servants who have not actually resided in India in the Co.'s service for 3 years at least previous to such vacancy, [33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 57.] but all time not exceeding 2 years bonâ fide spent in Hertford college in the regular course of education for the said civil service in India by any persons either after or before 17 years of age, [Q<sup>uod</sup> but see 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 60. pl. 323.] who shall afterwards go to India in such civil service, shall be accounted, with regard to their appointments to such offices, as so much time actually spent in India, [47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 68. s. 7.] [and any such office the emoluments whereof exceed 1500*l.* may be granted to the Co.'s servants actually resident in India in their service for 4 years at least: if exceeding 3000*l.* per ann. to any such actual resident for 7 years at least: if exceeding 4000*l.* such office, including that of the council, may be granted to any such actual resident for 10 years in the whole antecedent to such vacancies respectively, 33 G. 3. c. 155. s. 82.,] 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 57., as altered by 33 G. 3. c. 155. s. 82., and 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 68. s. 7.

321. No person shall for the future be capable of taking two or more offices, the joint amount of the emoluments of which shall exceed in the whole the annual salary and emoluments in s. 57., 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 58.

322. The court of directors shall not appoint or send out to India a greater number of persons as cadets, or writers, or in any other capacity, than necessary, in addition to those already there to supply the proper complement of officers and servants on the lists of the establishments, according to the returns transmitted by the Indian governments to the said court, id. s. 59.

323. No person shall be capable of acting, or of being appointed or sent to India as writer or cadet whose age shall be under 15, or exceed 22 years; nor until the person proposed to be appointed shall have delivered to the court of directors a certificate of his age, under the hand of the minister or keeper of the registry of baptism of the parish in which he was baptized; and if no such registry can be found, affidavit thereof shall be made by the party himself that his age is not under 15, nor above 22 years: but this shall not prevent the court of directors from appointing any person to be a cadet of not above 25 years of age, and who has been for one year at least a commissioned officer in H.M.'s service, or in the militia or fencibles when embodied and called into actual service, or from the cadets in the royal regiment of artillery, id. s. 60.

324. Every British born subject appointed to collect, manage, control, or receive the rents, duties, or revenues payable to the Co. in India, shall, before he enter on the collection and receipt thereof, take the following oath, which may be administered by any C.J. or p<sup>ri</sup>ncipal judge of the supreme court of judicature at Bengal, [semble, the like at Madras since 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79.] or by the mayor or other magistrate in any other presidency or settlement; or by any other person deputed by any order in council of any presidency in that behalf; and shall be recorded in the supreme court at Calcutta, [semble also in that at Madras, as above] or in one of the said provincial or mayor courts, viz.

I, A. B. do promise and swear that I will, to the utmost of my endeavours well and faithfully execute and discharge the duties of an officer of revenue reposed in and committed to me by the united Co. of merchants of Eng trading to the E. I., and that I will not demand, take, or accept, directly or indirectly, by myself or by any other person, for my use, or on my behalf, or for any rajah, zeminder, talookdar, polygar, farmer, renter, or ryot, or from any person paying, or liable to pay any tribute, rent, or tax to or for the use of the said U. C. any sum of money, or other valuable thing by way of gift, present, or otherwise, over and above, or besides and except the actual tribute, rent, or tax authorized to be taken by and for the use of the said U. C. and that I will justly and truly account for, answer, and pay all the rents, duties, and other revenues and sums of money which shall come to my hands, or to the hands of any person or persons in trust for, or employed by me as an officer of the revenues of the said Co., unto the said united Co. So help me God.' 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 61.

325. The demanding or receiving any sum of money or other valuable thing as a gift, or under colour thereof, whether for the use of the receiver or of the E.I.C., or any other person soever by any British subject in office under H.M. or the Co. in the E. I. shall be deemed extortion and a misdemeanor at law, and shall be proceeded against and punished as such under this act; and the offender shall also forfeit the whole gift so received, or its full value, id. s. 62., 21 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 45., s. 1.

326. The court before whom such offence shall be tried may at discretion order such gift, or any part thereof, to be restored to the giver, or may order the whole or any part thereof, or of any fine set by the court on the offender, to be paid to the prosecutor or informer, id. s. 63., 21 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 46. s. 1.

327. But nothing herein shall prevent any counsellor at law, physician or surgeon, or any chaplain, from taking fees bonâ fide professionally only, id. s. 48.

328. The wilful disobeying or neglecting to execute the orders or instructions of the court of directors by any gov.-gen., gov., president, counsellor, commander-in-chief, or any other officers or servants of E.I.C. in E. I. (unless in cases of necessity, the burthen of the proof whereof shall lie on the party disobeying or forbearing to execute such orders, &c.) and every wilful breach of official duty by any such gov.-gen., &c. shall be deemed a misdemeanor at law, and may be proceeded against and punished as such under this act, id. s. 49.

329. The making or being a party to any corrupt contract for giving up, or obtaining, or in any other manner concerning the duty of any employment under the crown, or the Co., in the E. I. by any British subject there resident, shall be deemed a misdemeanor at law, and prosecuted as such under this act, id. s. 50.

330. All H.M.'s subjects, as well servants of the Co. as others, are amenable to all courts of justice, both in E. I. and G. R., of competent jurisdiction to try offences committed in India, for all crimes, misdemeanors, trespasses, and offences soever committed in any of the lands or territories of any native prince or state, or against their persons or properties, or those of any of their subjects, as if so committed within the British territories in India, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 67.

331. Neither the Co. nor any of their officers or servants, or their court of directors, shall discontinue, stay, compound, or settle any suits at law or equity before final decree or judgment given therein, unless with approbation of the board of control first obtained in writing, id. s. 65.

332. After sentence or judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction, whether in G. B. or India, against any gov.-gen., gov., president, counsellor, or commander-in-chief, or against any of the Co.'s servants, civil or military, for any debts or penalty due to the Co., or for any extortion or other misdemeanor, the Co. shall not release or compound such judgment, id. s. 69., and 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 25. s. 51.

333. The court of directors may restore to the Co.'s service any military officer dismissed or suspended therefrom by sentence of court martial (s. 4.) but not without consent of the board of control, 31 G. 3. c. 75. s. 5.

334. No restoration by the court of directors of any servant of the Co., civil or military, suspended or removed by authority of any of the Co.'s governments in E. I. to his employment in the Co.'s service, shall be valid without like consent, 33 G. 3. c. 155. s. 83.

335. No person having held any civil or military station whatever in E. I. in the Co.'s service under the rank of member of council, or commander-in-chief of the forces, and who having departed from E. I. by leave of the gov.-gen. in council, or gov., shall not return in 5 years next after such departure, shall be entitled to any rank or restoration of office, or be capable of again serving in E. I. either in the European or native troops, or in the civil service, unless, in case of any civil servant, it be proved to the satisfaction of the directors that his absence was occasioned by sickness; or unless he be permitted to return with his rank to E. I. by a vote, by way of ballot, by 3 parts in 4 of the general court of proprietors specially convened for the purpose, whereof 8 days previous notice shall be given in the London Gazette; or unless, in the case of a military officer, it be proved to the satisfaction of the court of directors and board of control, that his absence was occasioned by sickness or inevitable accident, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 70.

576. But the court of directors, with approbation of the board of control, may permit any military officer of the rank of a general officer, col., or lieutenant-col., commanding a regiment, who having departed from India with such leave as afore-said, shall not have returned thither within 5 years of his departure, to have his rank, and be capable of again serving in India, though his absence was not occasioned by sickness or other accident, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 71.

577. When any civil servant of the Co. in India, having departed from thence by leave of the gov.-gen. or governor in council, is restored to the Co.'s service after 5 years absence, he shall take precedence only according to his time of service at the period of his departure; and on his return thither, if any other civil servant of the Co. at the settlement shall have then passed a greater or like length of time in the service, as he had passed when he left India, he shall take rank immediately below him, id. s. 85.

578. If any cession of territory shall be obtained from the Chinese government, and a new settlement made by the Co. thereon, distinct from the continent of China, and wholly free from Chinese authority, in that case it shall be lawful for H. M.'s subjects, under regulations approved by the board of control, to export British and Irish manufactures in the Co.'s ships, at a moderate rate of freight, being consigned to the Co.'s supercargoes, or persons licensed by the Co. with consent of the board to reside there for that purpose only; provided that the latter be prohibited from intercourse with the continent of China, and from carrying on any trade, except the sale of the above manufactures, and from all interference with the Co.'s affairs; and all such persons shall enter into the same covenants as merchants licensed by the Co. [Qu. since free trade given by 57 G. 3. c. 155.] or any other covenants reasonably required by the directors, and also with a special engagement (if required) for paying the net proceeds of the sales into the Co.'s treasury at such new settlement, for the Co.'s bills payable in G. B. to be drawn at the actual exchange at the time; and no person not being a servant of or licensed by E. I. C. to act as above, shall be permitted to reside in any place so ceded, or to trade with any place in China, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 76.

579. The court of directors of the company shall forthwith frame and lay before the board of control, for their approbation, regulations for licensing ships fitted out for the north-west coast of America and the adjacent islands, to proceed from thence direct to the isles of Japan, and coasts of Korea, and Canton, there to dispose of their cargoes, and to return from thence direct to the same north-west coast, &c. to dispose of their returns of trade, under the limitations of the convention with the king of Spain, of 28 Oct. 1790; and shall also frame the forms of such deeds of covenant or other securities, as they shall judge necessary to be given for their due observance by the owners and commanders of ships so licensed, for revision by the board, and the owners, &c. so conforming themselves, shall be entitled to such license, which the court of directors shall grant, unless on their representation of specific objections to the board, the latter shall order the same to be withheld, id. s. 78.

580. The regulations to be so made for the aforesaid purposes, or any securities given for their observance, shall not extend to vest in any council of supercargoes, or other officers of the Co., a greater power over any ships so licensed, or the officers or crew thereof, in the eastern seas, or on the coasts of Japan, Korea, and China, than those exercised by the said council of supercargoes, or other officers over the ships in the Co.'s service, and the officers and men belonging thereto, id. s. 79.

581. The disposing of any goods or merchandize at any other place than those mentioned in the license, or any wilful breach of any of the said regulations, shall be held a misdemeanor at law, and may be punished as such, and the offender shall be deemed to have traded unlawfully within the limits of the Co.'s exclusive trade, and shall incur the penalties by this act imposed for illicit trading within the said limits, and shall besides pay to the said Co. the pecuniary penalties incurred by wilful breach or nonobservance of the stipulations in the deeds of covenants or securities given to the E. I. C. under this act, id. s. 80.

582. Any of H. M.'s subjects in G. B., or any other part of his European dominions, may export, on their own proper risk, in the Co.'s ships, [see 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 6. giving a free trade,] or in ships freighted by them from the port of London, to any of the ports or places usually visited by the Co.'s ships on the coasts of Malabar and Coromandel, or in the Bay of Bengal, or in Sumatra, any goods, &c. of the growth produce or manufacture of the said dominions, except as in (s. 82.) provided; and any such subjects being in the Co.'s civil service in India, or being merchants resident in India, under their licence or protection, may consign and put on board the Co.'s ships, or those freighted by them, bound to G. B. any goods, &c. except as in s. 82. provided, in order to be imported on the risk of the owners at the port of London, under the regulations of this act, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 81.

583. During the E. I. Co.'s further term in their exclusive trade, [but see now 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 6.] no persons, except the E. I. C., or persons specially licensed for that purpose, shall export, ship, or carry out from G. B. to the E. I. or other parts within their limits, any military stores, [see 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 9. pl. 478.] ammunition, masts, spars, cordage, anchors, pitch, tar, or copper; nor ship, carry, or put on board any of the Co.'s ships in E. I. or within the said limits, bound to London, or import to G. B. any India calicoes, dimities, muslins, or other piece goods, made with silk, or cotton, or with silk and cotton mixed, or with other mixed materials, id. s. 82.

584. If the said Co. shall not, on or before 31st Aug. in every year during the continuance of their exclusive trade, [but see 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 6.] contract for and purchase, on their own account, 1500 tons of British copper, for exportation to some place within their limits, the proprietors of British copper in G. B. may, in every such year, export that quantity in ships provided by the Co. to any port, &c. in E. I. at the same rates of freight, and subject to the same regulations, as to the amount thereof per ton, as herein expressed, with respect to the freight of other British manufactures or produce on private account; and if the Co. shall not purchase or contract for so much as 1500 tons, the proprietors may annually export the residue as above, on giving notice in writing to the chief secretary of the Co. between 31st Aug. and 1st Oct., and shall be at liberty to obtain their returns with like Indian commodities, in the manner and proportions herein provided, for the other proprietors of British manufactures or produce exported to India by virtue hereof; and the tonnage for the copper so sent out to India as above, shall not be considered as part of that allowed for private trade, id. s. 84.

585. Nothing in this act shall extend to permit any person to export or import in private trade any goods, &c. contrary to statutes now in force, and not hereby repealed, nor to vary or affect any acts now in force for prohibiting the consumption or use of any foreign manufacture within this kingdom, all of which shall remain in full force as if this act had not been made, id. s. 86.

586. Any persons residing in India, in the Co.'s civil service, or by their licence, not being restricted by covenant with the Co., or otherwise specially prohibited by them or their government in India from so doing, and not being in any judicial or military capacity, may act as commercial agents, managers, or consignees, on behalf of their employers, as well in the disposal of export goods not hereby (s. 82.) prohibited to be exported by individuals, as in providing such other goods as may by law be imported by individuals into G. B. on their private account, without incurring any forfeiture on account thereof, id. s. 95.

587. If on representation to the court of directors by the private traders, of the want of a sufficient number of persons in the E. I. to act for them in the disposal of their cargoes, and the purchase and investments of goods in return for the same, the court shall fail to licence a further number of persons to reside in India, as free merchants, to the satisfaction of the private traders, the latter may represent the same to the board of control, and the court shall thereon license a proper number with approbation of the board, id. s. 96.

588. The Co.'s officers and servants, and all other British subjects resident in India, notwithstanding their being employed to act as agents, factors, or managers for private traders, shall continue amenable to the powers of the Co. and their governments in India, id. s. 97.

589. During the time that the E. I. C. shall be entitled to their exclusive trade, [but see now 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 6. pl. 468.] no British subject in their service, or licensed by them to go to or to live or continue in India, shall reside in any other place there than in one of the E. I. Co.'s principal settlements, or within 10 miles thereof, without special licence of E. I. C. or of the gov.-gen. or governors of such principal settlement, in writing first obtained; nor shall go to or continue beyond the aforesaid limits for any longer or other times than specified in his licence, on pain of dismissal and forfeiture of all salary and allowances due to him by the Co. and of his licence to reside in India, id. s. 98.

590. The duty of 5 per cent. granted by 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44. s. 76. to the E. I. C. on imports of the produce of the E. I. brought into this kingdom by private trade, as well as that of 2 per cent. usually charged by E. I. C. for unshipping, &c. the like goods, are taken away; and in lieu thereof shall be paid to E. I. C. a duty of 3 per cent. on the gross sale of all goods imported from E. I. in private trade, including in such value all duties payable in respect thereof, the same to be paid by the owners or otherwise detained by the Co. out of the proceeds of such goods, in satisfaction of the expenses in unshipping, tonnage, cartage, warehouse-room, sorting, lotting, and selling, above the freight; and no other charge shall be made by E. I. C. in respect of the expenses of the private trade; [this duty is also repealed, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 26, but see the exception to such repeal, id. s. 27. infra, which adopts s. 100 of this act.] 53 G. 3. s. 155. s. 99.

351. The court of directors shall frame such regulations for the future sales of raw-silk, sugar, cotton-yarn, wool, and other wool, skins, dyeing-woods, and drugs, and other articles of raw material, imported either in private trade or on the Co.'s own account, and lay the same before the board for their approbation, which shall then be deemed a bye-law of the Co., subject to alteration by the court of directors, with approbation of the board, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 101.

352. All goods imported in private trade, as well raw materials as others, shall be secured in the Co.'s warehouses, and sold publicly by [inch of candle, semb. R.R. 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 22. or] public auction, and not otherwise, under order of the court of directors, on account of the owners; and the whole consignments bought in by the owners shall be delivered out to them with all convenient speed, after the sales, on payment of the freight duties, and other charges to which the same are liable, without actual payment of the sale-amount of the goods; which private trade and sales shall, in all respects, be conducted according to the bye-laws of the Co. for management of private trade, except as herein otherwise provided, id. s. 102.

353. All goods, &c. exported or imported under this act, by or on account of any private merchants, traders, or other persons, shall be subject to payment of the like customs and duties of import and export in India and G. B. to which goods of the same kinds belonging to the E. I. C. are liable, and to no other duties whatever, id. s. 101.

354. The Co. shall, by this act, be wholly exonerated from the claims of individuals to any compensation from them as carriers, of goods for any embezzlement, loss or damages of any goods, during their being on board the Co.'s ships, or in any of their warehouses in G. B. or India, or in their transit to or from such ship, id. s. 105.

355. All deeds of covenant and other securities given by any of the E. I. Co.'s officers and servants entrusted by them with the custody, care, or management of goods, &c. whether at sea or on shore, for due execution of their trust, shall extend to the property of individuals as well as of the Co., and such officers, and all other persons, through whose want of care any embezzlement, loss, or damage shall be sustained, shall be liable at law to answer for the same in damages and costs to the parties grieved, who, if they are desirous of availing themselves of the benefit of such deeds and covenant so given as above, and shall give the indemnity required by the directors for securing the Co. from all costs and damages, shall sue on any such deed, &c. in the name of the Co., and take the full benefit of any judgment obtained therein, and issue execution thereon, id. s. 106.

356. The several governments and presidencies in India may from time to time grant bills of exchange on the court of directors payable in G. B., at equitable rates of exchange, from time to time authorized by the latter, with approbation of the board of control, for the purposes of transferring and remitting the debts incurred by the Co. in defence of the British possessions in India, and now due by them in India to G. B. until reduced to 2,000,000*l.* sterling, and the said court shall be fully authorized to accept and discharge the same accordingly, besides such other bills as they might lawfully accept and pay if this act had not been made, id. s. 108.

357. If the creditors of the Co. in India shall decline to accept such bills in payment of their respective debts, or shall not accept the same to the amount of 500,000*l.* in any year, the gov.-gen. of Bengal, and the governors of Madras and Bombay respectively, by order of the former, may raise a sufficient sum whereby to make a remittance for such year to the amount by which the total of bills so accepted by the creditors shall fall short of 500,000*l.* by loans from any other persons willing to advance the same to the court of directors, at the equitable rates of exchange directed as above, and the money so raised in India shall forthwith, on payment thereof into the proper treasury there, be applied in liquidation of the debts of the said Co. in India, id. s. 109.

358. Nothing herein shall authorize any of the governments in India to grant bills of exchange for transferring such debts from E. I. to G. B. exceeding 500,000*l.* unless by special authority of the court of directors, id. s. 110.

359. Ss. 111—122. relating to the annual payment of 500,000*l.* by E. I. Co. into exchequer for the public service, and of their other surplus profits into the bank of Eng., in order to the formation of a GUARANTEE FUND of 12,000,000*l.* for better securing to the E. I. Co. their capital stock, or its value, (such value being computed at 200*l.* for every 100*l.* capital stock,) in case of their own funds and assets being insufficient to discharge their debts, and make good their capital stock, or its value as above, at the expiration of their title to the exclusive trade, as in s. 115, and which was to be augmented with the increase of such capital stock, 37 G. 3. c. 51. s. 8., are entirely R.R. by 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 61., and new regulations are made, id. s. 59. pl. 572. [It is said that no payment into exchequer of the 500,000*l.* per ann., as in s. 111., has been made since April, 1794. See Fairman on the Funds, 98.]

360. The rights of the public, or of the Co., respecting the clear profits of the territorial acquisitions and revenues in India, shall not be affected by their appropriation to the guarantee fund beyond the further term by this act granted, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 125.

361. [Recital, that on an account of the E. I. Co.'s profits to 1 Mar. 1781, there remained to them, after payment of 400,000*l.* to the public, a principal sum of 288,025*l.* 17*s.* 10*d.*, which by 21 G. 3. c. 65. s. 12, they were authorized to apply in the payment of a dividend of 12*l.* 10*s.* per cent. to the proprietors of their capital stock, and that they have not made such dividend, but employed the above sum in their trading capital, suffering the interest to accumulate, the same forming the distinct article in their annual accounts of "the Co.'s separate fund," and amounting on 1st Mar., 1793, to 467,896*l.* 7*s.* 4*d.*, over and above 9750*l.* capital stock of the Co.'s part thereof.] The said separate fund shall continue in the hands of the E. I. Co., bearing interest, and employed in their trade, subject [after paying 500,000*l.* to the public, due under s. 111. of this act, now R.R.] to a dividend of 10*s.* per cent. per ann. which may be declared on the present or future amount of their capital stock, above the usual dividend thereon, and at the expiration of their term they may dispose of the residue of such separate fund, and its annual proceeds, as they think fit, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 124, and see 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 62. continuing the provision and increasing the dividend on the capital stock to 10*l.* 10*s.* per cent. on the exhaustion of such separate fund, pl. 575.]

362. No grant or resolution of the E. I. Co., or the court of directors, whereby the Co.'s funds may be chargeable with any new salary, or increase of salary, or any new establishment of officers or servants, or any new provision or increase thereof to any one person, exceeding 200*l.* per ann., shall be available in law, unless approved by the board of control, attested by the hand of the president, id. s. 123.

363. It shall not be lawful for the E. I. Co., or court of directors, to charge the Co.'s funds with the payment of any gratuity to any officer, civil or military, or other person, exceeding 500*l.*, unless the grant thereof is sanctioned by the court of proprietors, and confirmed by the board of control; and copies of all warrants granting any salary, pension, or gratuity, shall be submitted to both houses in 1 month after such grant, or if they are not then sitting, in 1 month after their next meeting, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 23.

364. The court of directors shall annually make up to the 1st May, and present to both houses, within the 1st 14 sitting days after that period, in every year, [51 G. 3. c. 70. s. 5.] an account of the annual produce of the revenues of the British territories in India, distinguishing them under the respective heads thereof, at each presidency or settlement, with the amount of their sales of goods and stores within their limits, and of all their annual disbursements therein, distinguishing their respective heads, with the latest estimate thereof, and also the amount of their debts abroad, with the rates and annual amount of interest thereon, the state of their effects at each presidency or settlement, and in China, &c. of cash and bills in their treasuries, goods, stores, and debts owing to E. I. Co., and a list of their several establishments in India, and other parts within their limits, and their salaries, &c.; and on other account of the amount of the proceeds of the Co.'s sales, and of their commercial and other receipts, charges, and payments in G. B., under their several heads, with an estimate of the same for the current year, and a statement of their bond and single contract debts, with their rates and amount of interest, and the state of cash in their treasury, and other effects of the Co. in G. B., or abroad; and if any new or increased salaries, establishments, or pensions payable in G. B., have been granted within the preceding year, the particulars shall be specially stated at the foot of such account, 53 G. 3. c. 52. s. 120, as A.M. by 51 G. 3. c. 70 s. 55., and altering 28 G. 3. c. 8. s. 5.

365. If any H. M.'s subjects belonging to G. B., or Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or Faro, [46*l.* Inf.] or to any of H. M.'s colonies, islands, or plantations in America or the W. I., other than those licensed by the Co., or otherwise lawfully authorized, shall, at any times, before the determination of the Co.'s whole and sole trade, directly or indirectly, sail to visit, haunt, frequent, trade, traffic, or adventure to in or from the E. I., or parts within the said limits, contrary to this act, every such offender shall incur the forfeiture of all vessels belonging to or employed by him, with their guns and furniture, and all the goods, &c. laden thereon, or sent, acquired, or traded within the E. I., or parts aforesaid, and all the proceeds, and double the value thereof, to wit, 1-14th of such forfeiture to the party who shall seize, inform, or sue for the same, and the other 3-14ths to the use of the Co., they defraying thereout the charges of prosecution, id. s. 129.

366. Every such subject, as in s. 129., who shall go, sail, or repair to the E.I., or parts aforesaid, against the provisions of this act, shall be deemed to have unlawfully traded there, and incur the above forfeiture, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 130. [CON. 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 40., pl. 507.]

367. Any such subject, not licensed or authorized, who shall go, sail, or repair to, or be found in the E.I. or limits aforesaid, is guilty of a high crime and misdemeanor, and liable on conviction to such fine or imprisonment, or both, as the court shall think fit, and any fine so imposed shall go one moiety to H.M. and the other to the prosecutor, whether it be the Co. or other person, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 131., CON. as in last pl.

368. The Co. may arrest such subjects who shall go, sail, or repair to, or be found in E.I., or parts aforesaid, against the provisions of this act, and him send or bring to Eng. to answer for his offence according to law; and on his arrival, any one or more justices, shall commit him to the next county goal till sufficient security be given by natural born subjects or denizens for his appearance in the court in which he shall or may be prosecuted, and for his not going out of court, or of the kingdom, without leave of the court, id. s. 132.

369. The power hereby given to the E.I. Co. of arresting, remitting, or sending to Eng. any such persons, together with that of seizing any ships and effects, may be enforced in the name of the Co., by order of the gov.-gen. of Bengal, or governors of Fort St. George or Bombay respectively, or by any chief Co.'s officer resident at any other British settlement in E.I. respectively, or by order of the Co.'s council of supercargoes at Canton, within the factory and on the river of Canton or coast of China, and by such other persons as are specially authorized by the directors, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 133., CON. 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 40.

370. If any person dismissed from or having voluntarily resigned the service of E.I.C., or any free merchant, mariner or other person whose covenants with the E.I.C. have expired, or whose licence to trade or reside in the E.I. or parts aforesaid, has determined, shall be found in the E.I., or parts aforesaid, after the expiration of the time allowed [Qu. for removal] by the governments, he shall be taken to have unlawfully traded in the said parts, and shall be subject to the penalties of this act, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 134. CON. as in last pl.

371. All goods, treasure and effects, shipped on board any vessel bound from G.B. to the E.I. (except the goods of the Co. or others lawfully shipping the same under this act, and except necessities for such ship to perform the voyage, and also all goods taken out of any vessel in her homeward voyage before her arrival, shall be forfeited, with double value thereof, and the commander or other officers of such vessel knowingly suffering the same, shall forfeit 1000*l.*, and shall not be entitled to any wages soever from the Co.; but if such ship has been taken up by the Co. by charter-party or hire, they shall have an allowance in respect of such wages to their full amount out of the monies payable by them to the owners for the freight thereof; and every such officer convicted of such offence, shall be incapable of again acting in the Co.'s service, id. s. 135.

372. No such subject (as in s. 129.) shall procure, solicit for, obtain or act under any authority from any foreign prince or state soever to sail, go or trade in or to the E.I., or parts aforesaid, on penalty of 500*l.*, one half to the party suing, and the other to the Co., or if the latter prosecute, the whole shall belong to them, id. s. 136.

373. No gov.-gen. or gov. or member of council of the presidencies in India shall be concerned in any trade, except on the Co.'s account, nor shall any collector, supervisor or other person concerned in the collection of the revenues or administration of justice in Bengal, Bahar and Orissa, or their agents, servants or trustees, carry on or have any dealings by way of traffic within any of the provinces in India, or other parts, or shall buy any goods and sell the same or any part thereof again in that or any other such province, except on the Co.'s account, nor shall the judges of the supreme court of judicature [viz. at Calcutta] be concerned in any trade, nor shall any subjects in the provinces intermeddle or be concerned directly or indirectly in the inland trade in salt, betel-nut, tobacco, or rice, except on the account or with permission of the Co., on pain of forfeiture of all goods traded with, and treble their value in moieties to the Co. and party suing for the same, id. s. 137.

374. No such subject shall unduly send to Europe by way of Suez, or otherwise, the produce or manufactures of the E.I. or China, otherwise than by this act, on penalty of double the value thereof, id. s. 138. [Semb. Exp. since 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 6.]

375. The last mentioned restrictions shall not preclude any of the Co.'s servants (other than those specially prohibited by law or order of the Co., or their governments abroad, and other than the inland trade in salt, betel-nut, tobacco and rice), or any 5 merchants licensed by the Co. to reside in India, or elsewhere within their limits, from buying goods in India and selling them again to the subjects of any foreign state, or from acting as agents or factors in the import or export, purchase or sale of goods in India, on account bond fide of any foreign company or merchants, id. s. 139.

376. All penalties, services, causes of seizure, crimes, misdemeanors and other offences incurred or committed against this act, shall be recovered and prosecuted in any of H.M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or in the supreme court at Fort William in Bengal, or in one of the mayor's courts [semble supreme court at Madras since 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 4. pl. 431.] or Bombay respectively, as follows, viz. all pecuniary penalties and forfeitures of ships or goods shall be condemned and recovered by action, bill, suit or information, without essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance allowed; and all such seizures, whether of persons, ships or goods, shall be cognizable in suits which relate to the lawfulness or regularity of the seizure; and all offences punishable under this act by fine or imprisonment, or both, or hereby created without particular punishment, shall be prosecuted by indictment or information as misdemeanors, and punished by fine or imprisonment, or both, at discretion of the court; and if such prosecution be in any of the courts in E.I., the court may order such person to be conveyed to G.B. as part of or all his punishment, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 140.

377. Whenever any civil or criminal proceeding shall be had in any court at Westminster for any offence against this act, the offence shall be laid in London, or the county of Middlesex, at the option of the informer or prosecutor; and whether had in the above courts or in the supreme court of Calcutta [semble. or that of Madras, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 4.], or any mayor's court as aforesaid, shall be brought within 6 years next after the offence committed; a capias shall issue in the first process, and if it be for a penalty, it shall specify the sum; and the defendant shall, on such capias, give to the person to whom the same is directed, sufficient bail or security by natural born subjects or denizens for appearance in the court from which the capias issues, at the return thereof to answer such suit, and shall at such his appearance, give like bail or security to pay the penalties, &c. sued for on conviction, or to yield his body to prison; but if the prosecution be for a misdemeanor only, then the person against whom such capias issues, shall, on such arrest, be imprisoned and bailable as in other cases of misdemeanor, id. s. 141.

378. The attorney-general, either at relation of E.I.C. or by his own authority, may exhibit a bill in exchequer against any person for discovery of trading or adventuring to or from the E.I., and for recovering the duties due to the crown and damages to the Co. as hereinafter mentioned, so that such bill contain a waiver of the penalties incurred by such person for the matters contained therein; and such person shall answer and not plead or demur to the discovery sought, and shall pay to H.M. the customs and duties; and as a reparation in damages shall also pay the E.I.C. for the same at 30 per cent. on their value in Eng., on paying which duties and damages he shall not be prosecuted under any other provision of this act for the same offence; and if such bill is dismissed by the exchequer, the Co. shall pay defendant his costs; but if a decree be obtained against the latter, he shall pay costs to H.M. and the relators respectively, id. s. 142.

379. If before suit or prosecution commenced for any penalty under this act by the attorney-general or Co., any common informer shall go to the court of directors and make known to them the offence committed, and instead thereof they elect to file bills of complaint in chancery or exchequer (as in s. 142.), 1-3*d.* of the single value of the interest and concern when recovered shall be paid to the informer; but if they elect to proceed by information or action, the informer may proceed at law, and shall not discontinue the suit without consent of the Co. or court of directors, id. s. 143. [and see a somewhat similar enactment, 7 G. 1. st. 1. c. 21. s. 7. ante, pl. 100.]

380. If the Co. shall first sue, then the share of the penalties otherwise given to any other persons who shall sue shall devolve on the Co., though such suit be commenced after lapse of the time limited as in (s. 141.) for the suit of the common informer, id. s. 144.

381. If before the determination of the Co.'s term any action is brought against them or any of their servants or agents for recovery of costs or damages for the unlawful arresting, imprisoning, sending or bringing to Eng. of any person as found in the E.I. or other parts aforesaid, within the Co.'s limits, or as not authorized to reside or traffic there, the defendant may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence for his defence, and the proof shall lie on the plaintiff to prove at the trial that, at the times of arrest laid in the declaration, he was in H.M.'s military or marine service, or under covenant to serve the Co. in India, or that he was duly possessed of a licence in writing authorizing him to go to, reside and traffic, or to remain in India, &c. in failure of which proof the plaintiff shall be nonsuited, and in such or any other case of nonsuit, or in judgment against plaintiff on demurrer, or where verdict shall pass for defendant he shall have treble costs, id. s. 145.

382. So much of 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44. as inflicts any penalty for illegally trading to E.I., 5 G. 1. c. 21.; so much of any acts as continues 5 G. 1. c. 44.; and so much of 7 G. 1. c. 21., as relates to punishment of persons illegally trading to the E.I., 9 G. 1. c. 26.; so much of 3 G. 2. c. 14., and 27 G. 2. c. 17., as creates any penalty with reference to 7 G. 1. c. 1., for suing.

&c. for the same; and so much of 10 G. 3. c. 47., as subjects illicit traders to, in, or from the E. I. to any penalty; so much of 13 G. 3. c. 63. as provides for delivery of advices, to the secretaries of state, &c.; so much of 21 G. 3. c. 65., as prohibits lending money to foreign companies, &c., 24 G. 3. S. 2 c. 25., except such parts as relate to the debts of the nabob of Arcot, or to the establishment of a new court of judicature, for trial of offences committed in India, &c., and also 26 G. 3. c. 16., except so much as repeals former acts; and so much of 26 G. 3. c. 57. as makes offences against the law for securing the exclusive trade of the Co., &c. prosecutable in the E. I. are repealed, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 146.

383. But this repeal shall not extend to offences committed before passing this act; nor affect the powers given to the present board of commissioners, till a new board is appointed, id. s. 147, 148.; nor shall it affect the powers given by 28 G. 3. c. 8., and 31 G. 3. c. 10., concerning expenses of additional forces in the E. I., id. s. 149.

384. But no defendant in any suit now pending, or hereafter to be brought in any court in G. B. or E. I., shall plead or set up any act in the whole, or in part repealed by this act, in bar of such suit, id. s. 150.

385. The gov.-gen. in council of Bengal, by commission under the seal of the supreme court there, in the name of H. M., tested in the name of the C. J. of that court, may appoint such covenanted servants of the Co., or other British inhabitants, as the latter shall think properly qualified to act as justices, in and for the presidency and its dependencies, [REPEAL as to appointment of justices for Madras and Bombay, by 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 68. s. 6.]; and the said court, on requisition in writing from the gov.-gen. in council, shall supersede such commissions, and on like requisition issue new ones to other like persons, all of which shall be filed of record, in the courts of oyer and terminer of the province, &c. in which they are issued; but such justices shall not hold, or sit in any court of oyer and terminer and gaol-delivery, unless called upon by the justices thereof, in which case, they shall associate with them, and sit pro hac vice with a deliberate voice [being first specially authorized for that purpose, by order in council, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 151.; but see s. 155., omitting this latter condition,] id. s. 151. [see as to appointing justices of peace in Madras and Bombay, 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 68. s. 5. pl. 459.]

386. All persons so appointed justices, may act as such, according to the tenor of their commissions, on taking and subscribing in any civil or criminal court of justice, within the provinces for which their commissions are issued, before any other justice, the oaths appointed to be taken by justices in G. B., or as near to the tenor thereof, as the case will admit, which shall be approved by the said court, except the qualification-oath provided by 18 G. 2. c. 20.; and their subscriptions to such oaths shall be deposited with the records of the same courts in which they were administered, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 112., and 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 152.

387. All convictions, judgments, orders, and other proceedings, had, made, or pronounced by or before any justices in any British settlements or territories in India, out of the court of oyer and terminer within the same, shall be removable by certiorari into the court of oyer, terminer, and gaol-delivery of the presidency, by the party grieved thereby, at any time within 6 months next after making thereof; and any justice of the latter court may, at the instance of such party, grant his fiat to the keeper of the rolls of the peace, &c. to award a writ of certiorari under the seal of the supreme court, when the matter shall arise in Bengal, Bahar, or Orissa; or if in Madras or Bombay presidencies, then under seal of the mayor's courts thereof, [for supreme courts of Madras since 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. ss. 5, 6., pl. 432, 3.] for removal of such conviction, &c. into the said latter court, which shall have full power to hear and determine the matter thereof, and to quash or affirm the proceedings on the merits only, and to pronounce judgment thereon as the K. B. may do, on certioraries from quarter sessions, id. s. 153.

388. Before granting such certiorari, the like recognizances shall be entered into, and the applicant shall be put under the same terms, as by law is provided, in case of certioraries, awarded for the removal of any conviction, &c. had before any one or more justices in Eng. into K. B., id. s. 154.

389. The gov.-gen. in council of Bengal, and the govrs. in council of Madras and Bombay may, by order in their respective councils, call any such justices (s. 151.) to sit and associate with them in council, for more speedy determining appeals, and they shall have deliberate voices in such appeals, id. s. 155.

390. The power of the supreme court of Calcutta, as a court of admiralty within Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, given by the charter of justice of 26 Mar. 1774, is extended to the high-seas; and that court may hear, try, and determine by the oaths of British residents in Calcutta, of all treasons, murders, piracies, robberies, felonies, maimings, forestallings, extortions, trespasses, misdemeanors, offences, excesses, enormities, and maritime causes soever, according to the laws of admiralty of Eng. committed on any of the high seas, with like punishment as if they were committed within the limits of the charter, id. s. 156.

391. The gov.-gen. in council at Fort-William, and the govrs. in council at Fort St. George and Bombay, may, by orders in council, appoint so many coroners, being British subjects, as shall be limited by the court of directors, and may remove them in like manner; which coroners, on taking and subscribing in the supreme and mayor's courts aforesaid (as in s. 151.) the oaths of county coroners in Eng., shall have all the powers within the presidency or settlement for which they are appointed, with the fees prescribed by the said government respectively, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 157.

392. The justices of peace in the presidencies of Forts William, St. George, and Bombay, respectively, or the major part of them, from time to time assembled at their general or quarter sessions, may appoint scavengers for cleansing the streets of the towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and may order the watching and repairing the streets thereof; and for defraying the expenses thereof may make assessments on the owners and occupiers of houses, buildings, and grounds, not exceeding 1-20th of the gross annual value thereof, respectively, unless a higher assessment is necessary in the judgment of such gov.-gen. or govrs. in council, respectively, in which case the justices may make a further assessment, not exceeding one-half of the former, which assessments shall be levied in such manner as the justices shall direct; and when allowed under the hands and seals of 2 such justices, shall be levied by warrant of 2 of them, by distress and sale of the goods of the defaulter, in eight days after demand, rendering the overplus, deducting the necessary charges of making, keeping, and selling such distress, id. s. 158.

393. No person shall sell any arrack, or other spirits, within the town or factories of Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, respectively, without a licence, under the hands and seals of 2 or more justices of the jurisdiction, and the powers vested by any laws now in force in Eng., in any justices of peace for restraining the inordinate sale of spirituous liquors, shall extend to all unlicensed traders in spirits or spirituous liquors within those towns, by justices having jurisdiction therein; and if any questions shall arise as to the limits of Calcutta, they shall be inquired into by the gov.-gen. in council; and as to those of Madras and Bombay, by their govrs. in council, respectively; and such limits as they shall by order in council declare, shall be deemed the true limits, id. s. 159.

394. The gov.-gen. in council of Bengal, may, from time to time, extend the limits of the town of Calcutta, and the govrs. in council of Fort St. George and Bombay, those of Madras and Bombay, respectively; which extended limits shall be held the true limits thereof, and all the powers, by statute, charter, or usage, regulated by the limits of the said towns, shall thenceforth be so regulated by the limits so extended, as above; but no orders for such extension shall be valid, till sanctioned by the court of directors, with approbation of the board of control, 55 G. 3. c. 84. s. 1.

395. Every person hereafter elected director of the E. I. Co., shall in 10 days after his election, and before taking that office on him (save the administering the oath), instead of all other oaths, shall take the following oath, to be signed by the person taking it, and administered by any 2 directors, who shall also sign and attest it; and if the same is not taken within the time aforesaid, his office as director is void, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 160., [AMD. 55 G. 3. c. 155. s. 76.]

I A. B. do swear that the sum of 2000*l.* now standing in my name of the stock of the United Co. of Merchants of Eng. trading to the E. I., whereof I am elected to be a director, doth at this time belong to me in my own right, and not in trust for any other person or persons whomsoever; and I do further swear, that in case I shall at any time or times, whilst I shall continue to be a director of the said Co., have any dealings or business with the said Co. upon my own account separately, or in conjunction with any other person or persons, for or in any respect of buying for, or selling to, the said Co. any bullion or other goods soever, or in making any other bargain or contract soever by, to, or with the said Co., then and in every such case previous to any treaty or negotiation upon such business or businesses, I will declare and record the same upon the proceedings of the court or committee, where the same is to be transacted, and that I will withdraw from such court or committee during the discussion thereof, and will not return thereto, until after such business or businesses shall be decided upon; and that I do further swear, that I am not directly or indirectly interested, or concerned as an owner or part-owner of, or in any ship or vessel, which at this time is hired or freighted, or is expected to be hired or freighted to or for the use of the said Co., and that during the time I shall continue to be a director of the said Co., I will not become an owner or part-owner of any ship or vessel, which is or shall be so freighted, except such ships, or shares of ships, as shall come to me by bequest, or marriage, or as next of kin of any person who shall die intestate; and that in all such cases I will forthwith give notice in writing to the court of directors of the said Co. of my being so interested; and I do hereby promise, that I will sell and dispose of my interest in such shipping within 12 months next after my interest shall accrue, or in default thereof, shall and will vacate my place and office of a director of the said Co.; and further do I swear, that I will not directly or indirectly accept or take any perquisite, emolument, fee, present, or reward whatsoever, for or in respect of the appointment or nomination of any person or persons to any place or office in the gift or appointment of the said Co., or of me as a director thereof, or for, or on account of stationing or appointing the voyage or voyages of any ship or ships in the said Co.'s employ, or for or on account of, or any ways relating to any other business or affairs of the said Co.; and I do further swear, that I will be faithful to the said Co., and, according to the best of my skill and understanding, give my best advice, counsel, and assistance, for the support of the good government of the said Co., and during my continuance in the said Co., will not at any time or times ship, lade, send, or direct, or cause to be sent from Eng., or any other country to the E.I., or other parts within the limits wherein the said Co. may lawfully trade by virtue of their charter of incorporation, or bring from thence for my private account any goods, coins, or other merchandizes, contrary to an act of parliament made in the 53d year of the reign of his [late] majesty, K. Geo. the 3d. [here insert title of the act as infra, pl. 462. 53 G. 3. c. 155.]; and I do further faithfully promise and swear, that in the office of a director of the said Co., I will be indifferent and equal to all manner of persons, and will in all things faithfully and honestly demean myself according to the best of my skill and understanding.—So help me God.

396. All suits for any thing done under this act, shall be commenced within 5 years after the cause of action has arisen, or if done in G. B. within 3 years after the return thither of the party grieved, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 162.

397. Those parts of this act, in respect whereof no particular commencement is appointed, shall commence in G. B. from the time of the royal assent, and in E. I. from 1 Feb., 1794, id. s. 163.

398. FOR BETTER ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE AT Calcutta [Madras, s. emb. altered 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 72. s. 2. and s. 5.] and Bombay, and for preventing British subjects from being concerned in loans to the native princes in India, 37 G. 3. c. 142. [AMD. 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. ss. 1—10, (see rest of this act, pl. 428, &c.) and 55 G. 3. c. 84. s. 8]

399. Immediately after the death, resignation, or removal, of any of the [three, 13 G. 3. c. 65. s. 13.] puisne judges of the supreme court of judicature at Fort William in Bengal, his office shall be suppressed, and the court shall then consist of a chief justice and 2 other judges only, who may exercise all the powers vested in the supreme court by 13 G. 3. c. 65., or any other statute, or by the charter of justice granted by H. M. under authority of the same, 37 G. 3. c. 142. s. 1.

400. After such suppression H. M. may authorize the payment of a competent yearly sum out of the territorial revenues in India, to be applied for the use of any chief justice, or other judge, who from age, infirmity, or other cause approved by H. M., shall return to Europe, id. s. 2.

401. H. M. shall not authorise the payment of any larger sum for the use of any chief justice so returning, than 2000*l.* per ann., or of any other judge than 1500*l.* per ann., nor unless such person has resided in India as judge of the said supreme court for 7 years, nor shall authorize the payment of any sum, which, with the sums already authorized to be paid at the date of such grant, shall, in the whole, exceed the salary of 1 of the above puisne judges, id. s. 5.

402. If the chief justice, or either of the puisne judges of such supreme court at Madras, shall return to Europe from age, infirmity, or other cause approved by H. M., the latter may, by warrant under the sign manual, authorize an allowance, not exceeding 1000*l.* per ann., to the chief justice, and 1200*l.* per ann. to any puisne judge so returning; nor shall such allowance be made to any person who has not resided for 7 years as chief justice or puisne judge at Fort William nor Madras, nor shall any sum be paid, which with those already directed to be paid at the date of the grant, shall exceed the amount of the salary of 1 such puisne judge, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 8.

403. "To make provision respecting the above allowances in case of the promotion or removal of any such person from any such court to any other thereof, and in case of resignation with approbation of H. M., though the person resigning does not return to Europe," it is enacted, that where any person shall have resided in India 7 years, either as chief justice or judge of the supreme courts of Fort William, or Madras, or as recorder of Bombay, and shall from age, infirmity, or other cause approved by H. M., resign such office, H. M. may direct payment out of the territorial revenue to such person, of a yearly sum not exceeding the highest allowance limited by 37 G. 3. c. 142. ss. 2, 3 (21 pl. 421.) and 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 8., to such one of the said offices as he has filled, provided he has filled the same for 4 years at least, and it shall be payable to him, though he shall not return to Europe, but shall cease on his re-appointment to any such office, 55 G. 3. c. 84. s. 8.

404. The supreme court at Fort William, in any case where the value of the matter in dispute does not exceed 1000 pagodas, may either direct the depositions of witnesses to be reduced into writing, and filed of record or not, as they shall think fit in the particular case, 37 G. 3. c. 142. s. 4.

405. The court of directors may direct the chief justice of the supreme court of Fort William, to issue a precept directed to all and each of the officers, clerk, and ministers of the supreme court of judicature at Fort William, calling on them to make a return on oath (administered by such chief justice or other judge of the above court,) of the amount of the salary received by them respectively, and a list of the fees to which they are entitled, with the amount thereof received by each officer for the 3 years next before date of precept, 37 G. 3. c. 142. s. 5.

406. Every clerk, &c. of the said supreme court shall pay due obedience to the said precept, and make a true return thereto within 20 days from the date; and if he makes a false return, or does not set forth therein the full amount of the emoluments received by him as in s. 5., he shall on conviction forfeit the same, and be incapable of holding office in such supreme court, or E. I. Co.'s service, id. s. 6.

407. The chief justice and other judges of the said supreme court shall, as soon as convenient after receipt of the returns, take them into consideration, and report to the gov.-gen. in council, under their hands and seals, which of the said offices are in their opinion fit to be continued, the proper salary of each, and what proper retrenchment can be made therein, with their reasons for the same; and if they shall not agree respecting the report, then such of them as dissent from the majority, shall also report their opinion, and the reasons thereof; and in case the gov.-gen. in council shall agree with the majority of the supreme court concerning the extent of any retrenchment, they may alter or abolish such of the said offices and salaries, as they shall think fit, subject to the orders of the court of directors; but if such gov.-gen. and council disagree with the said report from the majority of the court, or from any part thereof, then such parts thereof as are the subjects of difference between them, shall be suspended from execution, but transmitted home for the ultimate decision of the court of directors; provided that all vacancies, which occur before the report made, shall be filled up provisionally only, until the report made, id. s. 7.

408. All regulations issued by the gov.-gen. in council at Fort William, affecting the rights, persons, or property of the natives, or others amenable to the provincial courts of justice, shall be registered in the judicial department, and formed into a regular code, and printed with translations in the country languages, with the grounds of each regulation prefixed to it, and all the provincial courts shall be bound to regulate their decisions by the rules and ordinances contained in those regulations, and the gov.-gen. in council shall annually transmit to the court of directors and board of control respectively, 10 copies of each regulation annually passed, id. s. 8.

409. H. M. may establish by charter a court of judicature at Bombay, [repealed as to Madras on establishment of a supreme court there. 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5.] consisting of the mayor and 5 of the aldermen resident at the settlement, to be selected as prescribed by the charter, together with 1 other person named by H. M., and being a barrister of Eng. or Ire. of not less than 5 year standing, to be the president of the court, and styled the recorder of Bombay, which court shall exercise all civil, criminal, ecclesiastical, and admiralty jurisdiction, and appoint all necessary ministerial officers, and establish such rules of practice, and for process of the court, and do all things necessary for the administration of justice, and the execution of the powers committed to such court by the charter, which court shall also be at all times a court of over and terminer and goal-delivery for the town, island, limits, and factories, subordinate to Bombay, id. s. 9.

410. On a vacancy in the office of recorder at Bombay, if no person shall be on the spot appointed by H. M. to succeed thereto, as soon as the supreme court of Madras shall know it, the junior puisne judge of the latter shall proceed to Bombay, and take on himself and exercise the recordership in as ample a manner, and with the like allowances, and proportion of the recorder's salary [37 G. 3. c. 142. s. 25.] as if appointed recorder thereof by H. M., till a recorder appointed by H. M. arrives at the settlement, [by which acting as such recorder, he shall not vacate his appointment as judge, id. s. 24.]; but if the establishment of the supreme court at Madras is not full, and that of Fort William is full, the puisne judge of the latter shall proceed as above, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 10. and 37 G. 3. c. 142. s. 22, 23, 24.

411. The rights and authorities of fathers and masters of families, as the same may be exercised under the Gentoo or Mahomedan law, shall be preserved to them within their families respectively, nor shall the same be interrupted by any of the proceedings of the said courts, nor shall any act done in consequence of the rule of law, or cast, as far as respects members of the same family only, be deemed a crime, though not justifiable by the laws of Eng., 37 G. 3. c. 142. s. 12. and 21 G. 3. c. 70. s. 18. a similar provision as to Bengal.

412. The court so erected shall have full power to hear and determine all actions against the inhabitants of [Madras, s. emb. altered 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5. pl. 432.] Bombay, as provided by the charter; nevertheless their inheritance and succession to lands, rents, and goods, and all matters of contract between party and party shall be determined in the case of Mahomedans by the Mahomedan laws, and where *Gentoo*s by the Gentoo laws; and where 1 of the parties is a Mahomedan or Gentoo, by the laws of the defendant; and in all suits so to be determined by the laws of the natives, the court shall make such rules and orders for the conduct thereof, and frame such process for execution of their judgments, as shall be most consonant to the religions and manners of the natives, to the said laws and usages, and the easy attainment of the ends of justice, and such means as are consistent with such usages, &c. shall be adopted to compel the appearance of witnesses, 37 G. 3. c. 142. s. 13.

413. Such court may hear, try, and determine, all suits and actions, civil and criminal, which, by statute, may now be heard and determined by the mayor's court [a supreme court erected, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5. at Madras,] and Bombay, or by the courts of oyer and terminer and gaol-delivery there, and shall exercise all the powers of those courts; but nothing in this act shall subject the persons of the govr. or of any of the council, or of the recorder, to be arrested, or imprisoned in any action, or proceeding in such court: nor shall it exercise jurisdiction in any action against the govr. or any of the council of either settlement, on account of any act or order by them done or given in their public capacity, or acting as govr. and council; nor shall it exercise any jurisdiction in any matter of revenue under management of the govr. and council, either within or beyond the limits of the said towns, forts, and factories, or concerning any act done according to the usage of the country, and regulations of the govr. and council; and no person shall be subject to such jurisdiction for being a land-owner, landholder, or farmer of land, or land rent, or for receiving a pension in lieu of any title to the same, or for receiving any compensation, or share of profits for collecting rents payable to the public out of the lands actually farmed by himself or his under-tenants, or for exercising within them any local authority commonly annexed to the possession thereof, or for becoming security for payment of the rents reserved, or otherwise payable out of any lands or farms, or farms of lands within the dominion subject to the governments of Madras and Bombay respectively; and no person, by reason of his employment by the Co., govr., and council, or any person deriving authority under them, or by a native, or descendant of a native of G. 2., shall become subject to their jurisdiction in any matter of inheritance of goods, or lands, or of contract, except in actions for wrongs or trespasses only, id. s. 11.

414. The charter to be granted (under s. 9.), and the jurisdiction thereby established, shall extend to all British subjects resident within any of the factories dependant on the governments of Madras and Bombay, [comb. Rev. as to Madras, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5. pl. 432.], and the court thereby established shall hear and determine all complaints against H.M.'s subjects for any crimes, misdemeanors, and oppressions, and all actions against them, arising in territories subject to, or within any of the dominions of the native princes in alliance with above governments, or against any person who, when the cause of action arose, shall have been directly or indirectly in the service or employ of the Co., or of any of such subjects; but shall not be competent to hear or determine any indictment or information against the govr. or any of the council, not being for treason or felony, with the commission whereof within its jurisdiction they may be charged, id. s. 10.

415. No action for wrong or injury shall lie against any person exercising a judicial office in any county court, for any judgment, decree, or order thereof, or against any person for any act done by virtue of such order, and all informations against any such person shall be brought (according to 21 G. 3. c. 70. s. 25.) id. s. 11.

416. A registry of the natives employed in the service of the Co., or of British subjects, or their partners, shall be established in the settlements of Madras and Bombay respectively, in the same manner, and to the like effect, extent, and purpose, and subject to the like penalties as the register established at Calcutta (by 21 G. 3. c. 70. s. 11.) id. s. 15.

417. It shall be directed in the charter to be granted under this act, that any person aggrieved by any judgment of either of the courts of judicature at Madras or Bombay [Qu. if this is in force, as extending to the supreme court established at Madras by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. which provides (s. 5.) for a transfer of all the powers of the court by this act erected at Madras to the new court there] may appeal to H. M. in council, in such time, manner, and cases, as appointed by the charter, id. s. 16.

418. All the records and muniments of the mayor's courts, and courts of oyer and terminer and gaol-delivery at Madras and Bombay respectively, shall be delivered over for safe custody in the new courts of judicature to be erected under this act; and all parties concerned shall have resort to them, on application to the court, 37 G. 3. c. 142. s. 17. [The Madras records, &c. here directed to be delivered over to the above courts, are to be transferred by the latter to the supreme court there, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 4. pl. 431.]

419. So much of the charter of 8th Jan. 21 G. 2. as confers any civil, criminal, or ecclesiastical jurisdiction on the mayor's courts of [Madras and] Bombay, or on the president and council as a court of appeal from the said courts, or on the courts of oyer and terminer and gaol-delivery at the said settlements, or their subordinates; and all the powers and authorities granted to them by statute shall, after publication of the charter herein mentioned, cease and determine, but the same may be exercised by the new courts erected by virtue of this act, 37 G. 3. c. 142. s. 18. [The powers of the court, by this act erected at Madras, are transferred to that erected by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5. pl. 432.]

420. Whilst the settlements of Madras and Bombay remain in possession of the Co., the court of directors shall cause to be paid to the recorder of the said court of judicature at Bombay the yearly sum of 5000*l.* out of the [territorial omitted here, but inserted in 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 6. in settling the salaries of the supreme court of judicature at Madras] revenues of the settlement, at 2*s.* 6*d.* the Bombay rupees at Bombay, id. s. 19.

421. If the recorder of Bombay return to Europe from age, infirmity, or other cause, approved by H. M., after 5 years' service, he may, by warrant under sign-manual, direct an allowance, not exceeding 1200*l.* per ann. to be made him out of the territorial revenues, after 5 years' service in India; but H. M. shall not direct the allowance of any sum to him, which, with the allowance already authorized at the date of such grant to be paid, either to such recorder, or any chief justice, or other judge of the supreme court at Calcutta, shall exceed the salary of one of the latter judges, id. s. 21.

422. The person so appointed recorder of Bombay shall not carry on, or be concerned in, any commercial transactions for his own use, or for that of any other person soever, id. s. 25.

423. All offences committed by, or charged on, such recorder shall be tried and determined, as in the case of any of the judges of the supreme court at Calcutta, id. s. 26.

424. All new forms of process, or rules and orders for execution thereof, shall be transmitted to the president of the board of control, to be laid before H. M. for his royal approbation, correction, &c.; and such process shall be used and rules observed till repeated or varied, and in the last case with the variation thereon, id. s. 27.

425. No British subject shall, (after 1st Dec. 1797,) by himself or any other, directly or indirectly employed for him, lend any money or valuable thing to any native prince in India, of any description, or be concerned therein, either in raising any money for such prince, or as being security for the same; nor shall lend any money, &c. to any other person, for the purpose of being lent as above; nor shall, by himself or other, directly or indirectly, for his use and benefit, take, receive, hold, enjoy, or be concerned in any bond, note, or other security or assignment granted by such native prince, for the loan or repayment of money, &c. without consent of the directors or of the govr. of one of the Co.'s governments in India, first obtained in writing; and every person acting or concerned in any transactions contrary to this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor at law, and may be tried and punished as such under this act, by any court of competent jurisdiction; and all bonds, &c. or other securities, taken or held for the use of any British subject are void, id. s. 28.

426. When any information shall be given to any of the E. I. Co.'s governments in the E. I. of any person having acted against this act, such government shall forthwith lay the case before the Co.'s law officers at the settlement where it arises, who shall consider and report their opinion thereon, whether it is a proper case for prosecution (with their reasons), which report shall be transmitted home to the court of directors by the first opportunity, id. s. 29.

427. The jurisdictions of the courts of requests, created by charter, 21 G. 2. for the towns of Patnam and Bombay, [comb. altered as to Madras and Calcutta, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 17. pl. 438.] are extended to the recovery of all debts and demands not exceeding 50 current rupees value respectively, for which purpose the commissioners of those courts shall have full power to hear and determine, and award execution in all such actions brought before them, id. s. 30.

428. FOR ESTABLISHING FURTHER REGULATIONS FOR government of the British territories in India, and for better administration of justice therein, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. ss. 2—6., 13—17., 23—25. [see s. 1., supra, pl. 283.]

429. H. M., by charter or patent under the great seal of G. B. may erect a supreme court of judicature at Madras, to consist of such and the like number of persons, to be named by H. M., with full power to exercise such civil, criminal, admiralty, and ecclesiastical jurisdictions, both as to natives and British subjects, and to be invested with such powers for the better administration of the same and subject to the same restrictions within Fort St. George and Madras, and the limits thereof, and the factories subordinate and territories subject thereto, as the supreme court of judicature at Fort William in Bengal, within Fort William or the provinces of Bengal, Bihar, and Orissa, id. s. 2.

430. The governor and council of Madras and the gov.-gen. of Fort William, shall enjoy the same exemption from the authority of the supreme court of judicature to be there erected as is enjoyed by the gov.-gen. and council at Fort William, from the supreme court there established, id. s. 3.

431. When such supreme court at Madras is erected, all the records and proceedings soever, belonging to the late mayor's court there, or to the late court of oyer and terminer and gaol-delivery, which were directed by 37 G.3. c.142., to be delivered over to the new courts erected by that act, and all the records of the latter shall be delivered over to be deposited for safe custody in the said new court of judicature, and all parties concerned may resort to the same on application to the court, 39 & 40 G.3. c.79. s.1.

432. So much of the charter of Geo.3. as relates to the appointment of a recorder, and to erecting new courts of judicature at Madras, shall be null and void, on the open publication at Madras of a new charter; and the powers granted by 37 G.3. c.142. ss.9—18. to the courts of the recorder at Madras, shall no longer be exercised by them but by the supreme court of judicature, to be erected under this act, id. s.5.

433. The court of directors of E. I. C. shall cause to be paid certain salaries to the chief justice, and each judge of such supreme court of judicature at Madras, viz. 6000*l.* per ann. to the chief justice; 5000*l.* per ann. to each of the judges; payable out of the territorial revenues of the Madras settlement at exchange of 8*s.* per Madras pagoda, id. s.6. [When salaries commence, see 53 G.3. c.155. s.89. pl.143., and as to pensions on retirement after 7 years' service, see s.8., ante, pl.403, &c.]

434. When either of the judges of the supreme courts at Fort William or Madras, or the recorder of Bombay, shall respectively leave India, the salary payable to such judge or recorder shall cease, id. s.9.

435. The governor and council of Fort St. George may frame regulations for the provincial courts and councils within the provinces subject to the presidency in like manner, and subject to all the provisions touching the same, as the gov.-gen. and council at Fort William, by any statute, are authorised to do for the administration of justice in the provinces of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, id. s.11.

436. Where any person is convicted at any session of oyer and terminer or gaol-delivery, or any session of the peace holden for any of the presidencies of Fort William or St. George, or Bombay, of the crimes of perjury, grand or petit larceny, or of any other offence for which any person, before passing this act, would have been liable to be transported, the court before which any such person shall be so convicted, or any subsequent court of like authority, holden at any of the above presidencies respectively, may sentence such person to be transported to the eastern coast of New South Wales, or elsewhere, and for such term of years as they shall direct; and, where any person is convicted of any offence which by the laws of this realm, as extending to British India is excluded from the benefit of clergy, may, as they see fit, instead of awarding sentence of execution, order the offender to be transported for life or term of years at discretion; and the governor and council of the presidency shall take order for the due performance of all such sentences, but no such court shall order the transportation to New South Wales, of natives of India, not born of European parents, id. s.13. [Such natives shall not be transported to any part beyond the seas more than 30 deg. N. or 20 deg. S. of the line, 53 G.3. c.155. s.121. pl.569.]

437. If any offender so sentenced to transportation for life or years, shall return into any of the Co.'s territories, or come into any part of the U. K. before the end of such term, he shall be punished as a person attainted of felony, without clergy, and execution may be awarded against him accordingly, id. s.15.; but H. M. may extend his royal mercy to such offender, and allow of such return, id. s.16.

438. The gov.-gen. in council of Fort William, and the gov. in council of Fort St. George, may appoint in what manner the courts of requests in their settlements shall be formed, and to what amount in value not exceeding 400 Sicca rupees their jurisdiction shall extend; and may frame such new rules and orders, and establish such new modes of proceeding, as appear necessary for reforming the present constitution and practice of the said courts respectively, notifying the same by due proclamation, and after the time so notified for that purpose, the present court of requests, [see 37 G.3. c.142. s.30. pl.427.] as well as the proceedings now used therein, shall be abolished; and the new court and rules of proceeding, made by virtue hereof, shall be in force, 39 & 40 G.3. c.79. s.17. [semble superseding as to Madras and Calcutta, 37 G.3. c.142. s.30., extending the jurisdiction of the courts of requests at Madras, Patnam, Bombay, and Calcutta, from 5 pagodas to 80 current rupees.]

439. The authority of the supreme court of judicature of Fort William, as by this act established, and all regulations framed according to the powers and restrictions before provided, shall extend to the province of Benares, and to all the places now or hereafter subordinate thereto, or annexed to the presidency of Fort William, id. s.20.

440. The judge of the supreme courts of Fort William and Madras, respectively, and the court of the recorder at Bombay, may make such rules and orders as they think meet, for extending to the insolvent debtors in execution under process of their courts, or of any court previously established at such presidency, respectively, for sums under the amount prescribed by such orders, the relief intended by 32 G.2. c.28., (the Lords' act.) and may order what weekly sum the creditor, at whose suit the debtor stands charged in execution, shall allow him, in case he shall insist on detaining him in custody; and shall proportion such allowance, as well as the amount of the debt above-mentioned, to the general state of such debtors, whether natives or Europeans; and such courts of request shall proceed to act on the said orders, as such cases require, and shall make orders in the latter to carry them fully into effect, provided that such orders for prescribing the mode of administering such relief, shall be transmitted to the president of the board of control, to be laid before H. M. for his royal approbation, correction, or revision, and shall be observed till varied, and then with the last variation, 39 & 40 G.3. c.79. s.23.

441. All rules and orders hereafter to be made, previous to the notification of this act, in such presidencies, respectively, by any of the above-mentioned courts, or any court previously established, for the relief of such insolvent debtors, and all acts by them done, &c., in pursuance thereof, are confirmed, and all prosecutions for any thing done in obedience thereto, are void, id. s.24.

442. H. M. may appoint all or any of the judges of the supreme courts at Fort William, or Madras, or the court of the recorder at Bombay, either alone or jointly with other commissioners, to be commissioners for carrying into execution any commission for trial and adjudication of prize causes and maritime questions arising in India, id. s.25.

443. TO REGULATE THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE EFFECTS OF PERSONS DYING IN THE E. I. [Framed to shew the object of these sections.] 39 & 40 G.3. c.79. ss.21, 22., AMB. 55 G.3. c.84. ss.2—5.

444. Whenever any British subject shall die intestate, in either of the presidencies of Fort William, St. George, or Bombay, or the territories subordinate thereto, and on return of the citation to be issued from the proper ecclesiastical court, no next of kin or creditor shall appear, and satisfactorily make out their claim to administration of the intestate's effects, the registrar of the court shall apply for, and the court shall grant, letters ad colligenda or of administration at discretion; by virtue whereof, such registrar shall collect the assets of the deceased, and bring them for safe custody into such court, and account for the same as in cases where assets are vested in the hands of any officer of the court under its equitable jurisdiction, id. s.21.

445. When any next of kin or creditor, who at the time of return of the above citation, shall have been absent in Europe or elsewhere, shall establish their claim to administration of the intestate's goods, the letters ad colligenda, or of administration granted to the registrar, as in s.21., shall be recalled, and administration in due form granted to such next of kin or creditor, respectively, id. s.22.

446. When the executor or administrator lawfully appointed, or the person entitled to administration as next of kin, or residuary legatee, with the will annexed of any person deceased, whose effects are subject to the jurisdiction of any of the said courts, as to granting administration and not being resident within its jurisdiction, shall, by power of attorney, under seal or other sufficient authority shewn to the satisfaction of the court, appoint any person or persons resident within such jurisdiction to act for him, in collecting or administering the effects of the deceased, such appointee shall be entitled to obtain letters ad colligenda, or of administration, either general or special, as tenor of the authority or the case may require, in preference to the registrar, and all other persons to whom such executor or administrator, or persons entitled as aforesaid, would have had a preferable claim, if personally resident in the jurisdiction of the court, 55 G.3. c.84. s.2.

447. Where any such letters ad colligenda, or of administration, have been granted to such registrar, and application for their revocation is afterwards made, by any person so appointed as aforesaid, in order to grant other letters to such person; the letters so granted shall be revoked, unless it appear to the court that there has been unreasonable delay, either in transmission of the authority under which such application is made, or in making the same, provided that where such letters have been actually granted to the registrar, and shall be so revoked, the court may direct that the whole or part of any commission for administration of the assets, due by any reasonable custom obtaining within the jurisdiction, shall be allowed to the registrar out of the assets in his hands, regard being had to the trouble incurred, and the service rendered by the registrar in collecting the same; and provided that nothing in this act shall render necessary the taking out of letters ad colligenda, or of administration from any such court, by any such attorney, otherwise than before this act, and no claim to any such commission in respect of administration of effects shall be deemed to accrue to such attorney by reason of such letters, nor any other commission than that payable to him as agent, according to the usual rates of such an agency, or by special agreement, id. s.3.

448. Nothing herein shall affect the rights, actions, or appeals, of persons entitled as principals or attorneys to the probate of any will, codicil, or letters ad colligenda, or of administration of the goods, chattels, and effects, of any person who shall have died before this act passed; nor the rights of any persons, claiming the revocation of any such letters granted as to the effects of persons who have so died to such registrar, nor the rights of any persons claiming as executors, legatees, or next of kin to such persons, in any way relating to the property, &c., of such deceased, or to any acts of the registrar respecting such property, or under any letters ad colligenda, or of administration granted to him, nor to entitle such registrar to any other commission for acts done by him in relation to the effects, &c. of such deceased, which he would not have been entitled to, if this act had not passed; but every claimant of any such probate or letters, or of any revocation of the latter, shall be entitled thereto, as if this act had not passed, 55 G.3. c.84. s.4.

449. When the registrar is appointed administrator under 39 & 40 G.3. c.79., then besides filing an inventory and account current, according to the tenor of the administration bond, and usual course of the ecclesiastical court, he shall enter in a book, kept for the purpose, separate accounts of each estate, and of all such monies, bonds, and securities, as shall come to his hands, or to those of any persons employed by or in trust for him, by virtue of any letters ad colligenda, or of administration granted to him under the above act, and of all payments made by him of the said estates on account, and of all debts due by or to the same, specifying the dates of such receipts and payments respectively, which book shall be kept in the registrar's office, and shall be open for inspection at office hours, on paying the reasonable fee fixed by the said courts; and such registrars shall, twice a year, on 1st Mar., and 22d Oct., or on the first day of the courts sitting after those days, exhibit in open court a schedule of all money, bonds, or other securities, received on account of each estate under their charge, with the payments thereout, and the balances, and of all administrations of which the balances have been paid over to the parties entitled, since the period of exhibiting the last schedule, specifying the amount and receivers of such balances; which schedule shall be filed of record in such courts, and in 14 days after shall be published in the gazettes of the presidencies, by the registrar, who shall transmit copies in triplicate to the chief secretary at such presidency, to be transmitted by the respective governments there to the court of directors, who, on receipt thereof, shall publish the same in the London Gazette, id. s.5.

450. TO AUTHORIZE THE E. I. C. TO MAKE THEIR SETTLEMENT at Fort Marlborough (Bencoolen), in the E. I., a factory subordinate to the presidency of Fort William in Bengal, under direction of the board of control, (s.1.) and to transfer the servants who shall be supernumerary at the reduction of the establishment to the presidency of Fort St. George, 42 G.3. c.29., title and ss. 1, 2. (PUBLIC clause, id. s.6.)

451. The court of directors subject to the above control, may order that all or any of the Co.'s civil servants, subject to the settlement at Fort Marlborough at the time of such reduction, and having become supernumeraries there, shall be transferred to the presidency at Fort St. George, with the rank they held at Fort Marlborough; but all the senior merchants so removed shall be youngest of the senior merchants at Madras, and so of the junior merchants, factors, and writers, to rise in the service till they attain the above fixed rank, provided that such servants who decline to accept such appointments, may retire on the salary of their respective ranks, exclusive of their official salary, id. s.3.

452. The Co.'s servants so transferred shall take rank and precedence and rise in the presidency of Fort St. George, according to the true intent of such orders, and shall be capable of being appointed to supply any offices there, as if they had originally belonged to the presidency, id. s.4.

453. But the civil servants not so transferred to Madras shall hold their offices in Fort Marlborough, in like manner as if it had not been reduced, id. s.5.

454. FOR BETTER GOVERNMENT OF THE SETTLEMENTS OF Fort St. George and Bombay, and for the regulation of public banks, 47 G.3. S.2. c.68.

455. The respective governors in council of Fort St. George and Bombay, may, from time to time, make such regulations for the civil government of the towns of Madras and Bombay, and of the Co.'s settlements at Fort St. George and Bombay, and other places subordinate thereto, and may set and levy such reasonable fines, and order such reasonable corporal punishments for the breach or nonobservance thereof, as the gov.-gen. in council of Fort William in Bengal, may make for that settlement and its dependencies; but no such regulations shall be valid at Madras till registered and published in the supreme court of judicature there, in like manner and time as in the supreme court at Fort William; nor at Bombay, till so registered in the recorder's court there, id. s.1.

456. All regulations so made shall be subject to the power of appeal given by and the provisions of 15 G.3. c.63. and 39 & 40 G.3. c.79., id. s.2.

457. The gov. and council at Bombay may, from time to time, frame regulations for the provincial courts and councils within the territories, &c. subject to that presidency in like manner and subject to all the regulations therein as the gov.-gen. and council at Fort William are authorised to do for the better administration of justice in that government, id. s.3.

458. The governor and members of the councils of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, may act as justices of peace for the towns of Madras, Bombay, and their subordinate settlements and factories, and the said governors and councils shall respectively hold quarter-sessions four times in every year, which shall be courts of record, 47 G.3. S.2. c.68. s.1.

459. The governors in council of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, by commissions under the seal of the supreme court of the former, tested by the chief justice, and under seal of the recorder's court of the latter, tested by the recorder in the name of H. M., (which commissions those courts shall issue when required by warrant from the above governors in council respectively,) may appoint such and so many of the covenanted servants of the E. I. Co., or other British inhabitants as they respectively shall think qualified, to act as justices of peace within the said provinces and presidencies, and places subordinate thereto, and the latter shall act as such according to the tenor of their commissions; which may be suspended and new ones issued by the above courts, to the same or such other persons as above, on requisition from the respective governors in council; and shall be filed of record in the respective courts of oyer and terminer of the province, presidency, or place for which issued; and all such justices and their proceedings shall be subject to all the statute regulations to which those appointed by the gov.-gen., &c. of Fort William are subject, id. s.5.

460. The several governments in the E. I. may establish such public banks with perpetual succession, and the rights, franchises, and immunities incidental or usually granted to corporations, legally erected in Eng., and subject to such conditions as they think fit; which incorporated persons and their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, shall have and be entitled to all such rights, &c. as well within as beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the above courts, according to the true intent of the acts by which such banks are established; but the establishment of such banks is not valid till approved by the court of directors, subject to approbation of the board of control, id. s.8.

461. All persons in the Co.'s service, and judges of the several courts of justice in India, may subscribe to and become members of any such bank, and the former may be elected directors thereof, id. s.9., but no judge of any of the courts in India established by H. M.'s charter, shall be capable of holding that office, id. s.10.

462. FOR CONTINUING IN THE E. I. Co., FOR A FARTHER TERM the possession of the British territories in India, together with certain exclusive privileges; for establishing further regulations for the government of the said territories, and the better administration of justice within the same; and for regulating the trade to and from the places within the limits of the Co.'s charter, 55 G.3. c.155. [COMMENCING (10th April, 1814.) s.125. AMD. 54 G.3. cc.34, 35, 134., 55 G.3. c.64., and c.84. ss.6—7.9., 1 & 2 G.4. c.65.]

463. The territorial acquisitions mentioned in 35 G.3. c.52., together with those since made on the continent of Asia, or in any islands situate north of the equator, now in possession and under the government of the E. I. Co., with the revenues thereof, shall continue in possession and under government of the Co., subject to such superintendence and control over the civil and military government or revenues of such territories, and to such further regulations as are provided by statute, for a further term, to be computed from 10th April, 1814, until determined under the proviso in s.3., 53 G.3. c.155. s.1.

464. The exclusive right of trading to China, and in tea in, and from all places between the Cape of Good Hope and Straights of Magellan as lawfully enjoyed by the Co. under any act or charter now in force, [viz. under Statute 9 & 10 W.3. c.44. s.61., and Charter 5 Sept. 10 W.3.] and all powers and rights, &c. soever granted to or vested in the said Co., by 33 G.3. c.52. and c.31. (I.) or in any other act soever, shall continue during the further term granted, so far as not Rep. or altered by, or repugnant to this act, id. s.2.

465. Provided that at any time, on 3 years' notice given by parliament after 10 April, 1851, and on payment to the Co. of what shall or may be due to them from the public on the expiration of the 3 years, according to the intent of 35 G.3. c.47. s.7., pl. 53. the term hereby granted to the Co., and all their right, title, and interest to an exclusive trade, under this act, shall cease, id. s.3.

466. Nothing in the proviso in s.3., or in any proviso in 9 & 10 W.3. c.44., or in the charter of 5 Sept. 10 W.3. or in any other act or charter contained, shall determine the corporation of the Co., or preclude them from carrying on at all times, after determination of their exclusive trade as aforesaid, a free trade to and from the E. I., and limits in the last-mentioned act or charter contained, with all or any part of their joint stock, in common with other subjects trading to or from the same, id. s.4.

467. Any notice in writing signified by the speaker of the commons by order of the house, shall be deemed a sufficient notice for the purposes of this act (as in s.3.), id. s.5.

468. Any of H. M.'s subjects, after 10th April, 1814, may, in common with the Co. export in ships navigated according to law from any ports in U. K., to all places within the limits above referred to (except China), any goods, &c. which may be legally exported and may in like manner import into U.K. any goods the produce of the countries within the said limits, which may be legally imported subject to the restrictions of this act, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 6.

469. The E. I. Co. and any other H. M.'s subjects may, after 10th April, 1814, carry on trade (in ships navigated according to law, and proceeding on any voyage from the U. K. to any places within the limits of the Co.'s charter,) to any intermediate places between U. K. and the said limits situate in North and South America, (except H. M.'s American colonies;) and to and at Madeira, the Canaries, Cape de Verd Islands, the Island of St. Helena, and Cape of Good Hope, and for that purpose may discharge the whole or any part of the cargo at any of the aforesaid places, and in the prosecution of any such circuitous voyage, may take on board any other goods which can be legally carried from any such intermediate places to places within the said limits; and in like manner may trade in any such circuitous voyage, from any place within the said limits to the U. K.; and H. M.'s subjects may trade in ships navigated according to law, directly and circuitously between all places within the said limits except China; but nothing herein authorizes any other such subjects, except the Co., to import any tea into U. K. or traffic in tea between any such places, 54 G. 3. c. 34. s. 1.

470. From 2d July, 1821, the E. I. Co. and any other of H. M.'s subjects may trade (in ships navigated according to law, or registered or trading under 55 G. 3. c. 116, and proceeding under authority of those acts, or any of them, on any voyage between the U. K. and any ports or places within the limits of the Co.'s charter,) to and at any intermediate ports or places situate between the U. K. and limits of the charter, and belonging to any state in amity with H. M., and in prosecution of such circuitous voyage out or homeward respectively, may discharge the whole or any part of the cargo thereof, at any such intermediate places, and take on board any other merchandise, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 65. s. 1.

471. The E. I. Co. and any other of H. M.'s subjects, may carry on (in ships navigated according to law, or registered as trading as in s. 1.) trade in any merchandise soever directly and circuitously between all ports or places within limits of the Co.'s charter, and any ports, &c. belonging to states in amity with H. M., any thing to the contrary in the Co.'s charter, or other statute notwithstanding; but nothing herein shall authorize any subjects other than the E. I. Co., or their licences, to carry on trade with the Chinese dominions, or to export or import from or to any such ports within or without such limits, or to import into U. K. any tea, or in any manner to trade in tea, between any of such ports as above, id. s. 2.

472. Nothing herein shall repeal or affect the provisions in 53 G. 3. c. 155. as to the size of vessels allowed to clear out from or enter in at any port of U. K. or as to any licences, certificates, or lists by that act required, [or any provisions in that or any other act as to resort and residence of any persons in E. I., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 65. s. 3.] provided that all trade with all ports and places on the continent of Asia from the Indus to the town of Malacca inclusive, or any island under the Co.'s government lying north of the equator, or the Co.'s factory at Bencoolen, or its dependencies, shall remain subject to all the regulations of trade from time to time in force at any such ports, &c. under authority of any government of the Co. at their several presidencies in India, 54 G. 3. c. 34. s. 2, and 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 65. s. 5. S. P.

473. The Cape of Good Hope shall, as to all trade allowed by this act to be carried on between ports and places within the said limits, be taken to be within the same, but this shall not affect any other trade now or hereafter allowed to be had between that settlement, and any other places whatever, 54 G. 3. c. 34. s. 3. and 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 65. s. 6. [Nothing in this act shall affect the power of H. M. in council given by 57 G. 3. c. 1. as Cons. 1 G. 4. c. 11. to regulate the trade eastward of Cape of Good Hope, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 65. s. 7.]

474. No ship, other than those of the E. I. Co. engaged in trade under authority of this act, shall clear out from any port or place belonging to any state in amity with H. M. where any consul or vice-consul of H. M. is resident for any place under H. M.'s or the E. I. Co.'s government, situate more north than 11 degrees S. Lat. and between the 64th and 150th degree E. Long. from London, till the master or other person having command of such ship, shall have made out and exhibited to H. M.'s consul, &c. resident at such port of clearance, on oath to be administered by the latter, a true and perfect list in form from time to time settled by the court of directors, with approbation of board of control, specifying the names, capacities, and description of all persons embarked, or intended to be embarked on board such ship, and all arms on board, or intended to be put on board; and as soon as any such ship has been admitted to entry at any such port, &c. belonging to any state in amity with H. M. the commander shall, in like manner, make out and exhibit to H. M.'s consul, &c. then resident, on oath administered by latter, a like list of all persons on board, or having been on board such ship, from her sailing to her arrival, and of all arms then or which during that time have been on board her, and the several times and places at which such persons as have died or left such ship, or such arms as have been disposed of, have been so disposed of; provided that every such consul, &c. shall cause every such list so received at such port, &c. to be transmitted with reasonable dispatch to the court of directors, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 65. s. 4.

475. No ship engaged in any voyage under authority of this act, from any port or place in E. I. to any port, &c. belonging to any state in amity with H. M. and not destined to any port in U. K. may have on board any Asiatic seamen or lascars, but any government of E. I. Co. in India, or any governor or lieut.-governor of any colony, territory, or island belonging to H. M. within limits of the charter, shall, within 10 days after application made by the owner or commander of any ship, and on having ascertained by due inquiry that sufficient British seamen cannot be procured for the crew of any ship sailing from India, certify the same, and licence her to sail with the proportion of lascars specified in the certificate and licence, and the gov.-gen. in council shall make regulations that all such Asiatics shall be duly supplied with provisions and clothing, and other necessary accommodation while absent from and till carried back to their respective countries, and for conveyance back of such Asiatics, within a reasonable time to be ascertained by such regulations; and no ship so licensed to take on board Asiatic seamen shall be permitted to clear out from any port or place within limits of E. I. Co.'s charter, unless and until the owner or captain of such ship has first given security as directed by, and subject to 54 G. 3. c. 134. s. 2, 3. (see post, this title, V. SHIPPING, &c.) for their maintenance and conveyance back to India, id. s. 5.

476. H. M.'s subjects may import under this act, in ships navigated according to law, into U. K. from all places within the said limits (except China), any produce or manufacture of any country within the said limits, except tea, although the commodities be not of the produce or manufacture of the place from whence shipped, or have been brought from the usual port of shipping the same to such port, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 7.

477. No person, except the Co., or such as obtain their special licence in writing, or under their authority for that purpose, shall ship within the said limits or import into U. K. or from any place soever, any tea, id. s. 8.

478. No person shall carry any military stores to any place on the continent of Asia, between the Indus and town of Malacca on the peninsula of Malacca inclusive, or to any island under the Co.'s government north of the equator, or to their factory of Bencoolen, in Sumatra, or its dependencies; except the Co. or such as have their special licence in writing, or under their authority for that purpose, id. s. 9.

479. No private person may export any goods to any place within the said limits, except in some ship to be cleared out from some port of U. K. or import goods from any place within the said limits, except only to such ports of U. K. as are provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or other securities as shall, in the judgment of the treasury, be proper for the safe custody of all such goods, as well as for collection of the duties thereon, and duly declared so to be by order of H. M. in council in G. B., or lord-lieutenant in council in Ire.; provided that copies of such orders in council shall have been published at least 3 times in the London or Dublin Gazette; and copies thereof shall be laid before both houses in the session, after issuing the same respectively, id. s. 10.

480. No vessel engaged in private trade, under this act, shall proceed to any place within the said limits situate on the continent of Asia, from the Indus to the town of Malacca inclusive, or in any island under the Co.'s government north of the equator, or to the Co.'s factory at Bencoolen or its dependencies, without a licence from the court of directors; and no such vessel, unless specially authorised, as hereinafter mentioned, shall proceed to any place within those limits, except to some or one of the principal settlements of Forts William or St. George, Bombay, or Prince of Wales's Island; and when any application shall be made to the court of directors for a licence on behalf of any such vessel about to proceed from U. K., to any such principal settlements, the same shall be issued in the form settled by the directors, and approved by the board of control, id. s. 11.

481. When any application is made to the court of directors for a licence, specially authorising such vessel to proceed to any place or places on the continent of Asia, from the Indus to the town of Malacca inclusive, or in any island under government of the Co. north of the equator, except such principal settlements, or the factory at Bencoolen, &c., the court of directors, within 14 days from its receipt, (unless they comply therewith,) shall transmit the same to the board of control, with any representation on the subject thereof; and if the board thinks fit to direct any such licence to be issued, the directors shall issue the same, on conditions approved by the board; provided that the special circumstances inducing the board to give such direction shall be recorded in their books, id. s. 11.

482. No vessel engaged in private trade, under this act, clearing out from any port in U. K., shall proceed to any place situate more north than 11 deg. S. Lat. and between 64th and 150th deg. E. Long. from Lon- don, (except places on the continent of Asia, from the Indus to the town of Malacca inclusive, or in any island under Co.'s government, north of the equator, and the factory of Bencoolen, &c.), without a licence from the board of control, who shall, from time to time, publish regulations for granting the same; and where granted, otherwise than according to such regulations, the special circumstances under which such licence was granted shall be recorded in the books of the said board, and communicated to the directors, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 12.

483. No vessel, the registered measurement whereof is less than 350 tons, other than the Co.'s packets, shall clear out from any port in U.K. for any place within the said limits, or be admitted to entry at any port of U.K. from any such place, id. s. 13.

484. No vessel engaged in private trade, under this act, shall clear out, or be admitted to entry at any place within U.K. or the above limits, till the commander has exhibited a true and perfect manifest of the cargo thereof to such person, subject to such form and regulations as may be prescribed by any act passed for that purpose, id. s. 14.

485. No vessel engaged in private trade, under this act, shall clear out from any port of U.K., or any place under the government of H.M. or the Co., situate more north than 11 deg. N. lat., and between the 64th and 150th deg. of E. long. from London, till the commander shall have exhibited to the principal officer of customs, or other person authorized by government, at such port of clearance, on oath, (administered by the latter), a true and perfect list (in form settled by the directors, and approved by the board of control) of the descriptions of all persons and arms embarked or intended to be embarked therein; nor shall any such vessel be admitted to entry at any port in U.K., or within the said limits, until the commander shall have made out such list, specifying the descriptions, &c. of all persons on board, or who shall have been on board thereof, from her sailing to her arrival, and all arms on board then or during that time, and the several times and places at which any persons have died or left the vessel, and where any such arms have been disposed of, id. s. 15.

486. Copies of all such lists received in Eng. shall be transmitted to the secretary of the court of directors, and copies of those received in any port or place within the said limits, to the chief secretary of the government to which such port, &c. is subject, id. s. 16.

487. No articles of silk, hair, or cotton wool, or any mixture thereof, imported, under this act, from any place within the above limits, shall be entered or taken out of any warehouse, except for exportation, unless brought into the port of London, and deposited in the Co.'s warehouses; and in order to ascertain the duties payable on all articles so deposited, the same shall be publicly sold by inch of candle or auction, by order of the directors, on account of the proper owners, and when bought in by the owners, the same shall be delivered to them with all convenient speed after the sales, on payment of the duties and other charges, but without payment of the gross prices or sale-amount thereof; and all such articles so imported, deposited, and sold, shall be subject to the bye-laws of the Co., and the regulations of 35 G. 3. c. 52., id. s. 17.

488. The treasury may permit any such articles (as in s. 17.) imported under this act into any part of U.K. other than the port of London to be removed to London for sale for home consumption, under the regulations of removing warehoused goods from port to port under 50 G. 3. c. 64. s. 1. and all articles so removed shall be deposited in the Co.'s warehouses, and sold as if originally imported into London and deposited therein, id. s. 18.

489. All such articles (as in s. 17.) imported under this act from any place within the said limits, and entered and taken out of any warehouse for exportation, shall be charged with duties according to their value under the regulations and penalties of 27 G. 3. c. 13., id. s. 19.

490. Nothing herein shall prevent the making, during the further term by this act granted to the Co., any further necessary provisions by statute for authorizing private trade as well between places without and within the said limits, (except China,) as between the said U.K. and the last mentioned places, except as above, but without prejudice to any provisions in this act as to the resort to or residence of any persons in the E.I. and parts aforesaid, id. s. 20.

491. So much of 31 G. 3. c. 42. (s. 7. and s. 11—12.) as requires the Co. to put up certain quantities of malmsey at their sales, or to deliver the same into H.M.'s stores at certain rates, is Rev. id. s. 21.

492. So much of 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44. (viz. s. 69.) as requires that all goods belonging to private traders to the E.I. imported into Eng. or Wa. shall be sold publicly by inch of candle, is Rev. (s. 22.) and the several restrictions contained in 53 G. 3. c. 62. ss. 85. 86. 87. 89. 92. 93. and 103. are Rev. id. s. 23.

493. All goods and merchandize of the Co. exported or imported from or into any ports or places under their government in the E.I., or elsewhere within the said limits, shall be subject to payment of the like duties of import and export as those of the same kinds or sorts exported or imported in private trade under this act, id. s. 24.

494. No new duties imposed in India on the export, import, or trans-sit of any goods soever made by authority of the gov.-gen., or gov. in council of any of the Co.'s residencies in the E.I., or parts aforesaid, shall be valid, until sanctioned by the court of directors, with approbation of the board of control, to be signified to the said governments respectively by some public dispatch from the court of directors describing each regulation for the said purposes, which shall be sanctioned by its title at full length, and expressing that the same is so sanctioned; and all such regulations, when promulgated in the E.I., shall contain express mention of the sanction of the court of directors, and approbation of the board of control, which mention shall be conclusive evidence thereof, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 25.

495. The duty of 3 per cent. to the Co. on goods imported in private trade imposed by 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 99. ante, pl. 350, is Rev. id. s. 26.

496. But nothing herein extends to release the payment of the duty of 3l. per cent. on any articles of silk, hair, cotton, wool, or any mixture thereof, which being brought into the port of London by private traders, may be deposited in the Co.'s warehouses, id. s. 27. [nor like payment to E.I.C. of the 5l. or 2l. per cent. duty imposed, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44. s. 76. and Rev. ante, pl. 350.] on any goods imported in any of the Co.'s ships, or in their service from China; nor shall affect any of the Co.'s engagements now or hereafter to be made by them with the commanders of their ships, or any other their servants, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 100. Cont. 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 27.

497. The rates and duties granted to the E.I. dock company by 43 G. 3. c. cxxvi. s. 91., and 46 G. 3. c. cxlii. s. 36. shall be paid before the goods are delivered to the owners or consignees, id. s. 28.

498. If the cargo is cleared from any vessel before the E.I. (dock) Co.'s rates are discharged, the latter may cause it to be deposited in their warehouses, and sold under authority of the directors on account of the owners, and the said rates and reasonable expenses of deposit thereof shall be deducted and paid to the E.I. (dock) Co. under (45 G. 3. c. cxxvi.) id. s. 29.

499. Vessels fitted and clearing out conformably to the Southern Whale Fishery act (35 G. 3. c. 92.) may sail for that purpose in all the seas east of the Cape Good Hope, and west of the straits of Magellan, but not further north than 11 deg. S. Lat., and between 64th and 150th deg. E. Long. from London, without licence from the board of control; and no such vessel of less than 350 tons registered measurement, shall sail in any of the seas east of Cape Good Hope, or west of the straits of Magellan, without such licence, nor shall go to touch or stay at any place on the continent of Asia from the Indus to the town of Malacca, inclusive, or at any island under the Co.'s government north of the equator, nor their factory at Bencoolen, &c. nor at China, without a licence from the court of directors, id. s. 32.

500. When application is made to the court of directors for permission to go to the E.I., they shall (unless they comply therewith) transmit every such application within one month to the board of control, who, if they do not see a sufficient objection, may direct the applicant to be permitted at his own expense to proceed to any of the Co.'s principal settlements, and to be furnished by the court of directors with a certificate, signifying the directors sanction of his so proceeding, and all such certificates shall entitle the parties to the countenance and protection, &c. of the Co.'s governments in their respective pursuits, subject to all restrictions on persons residing in India, id. s. 33.

501. Nothing herein shall restrict the directors from making any representations to the board of control respecting such applicants, id. s. 34.

502. All persons proceeding to the E.I. shall, on their arrival at any place within the said limits, be subject to all regulations in force within the same, id. s. 35.

503. If any person having obtained a certificate or licence from the directors to proceed to the E.I., shall at any time so conduct himself as in the judgment of the gov.-gen. or gov. of the presidency within which he is found, to have forfeited his claim to the countenance, &c. of the government thereof, such gov. may, by order, declare such certificate, &c. void, from a day named in such order, after which day such person shall be taken to be resident in the E.I. without licence, and may be sent forthwith to the U.K.; but no person whose certificate or licence has been so vacated by order of any of the Co.'s governments, shall be liable to any prosecution for residing in the E.I. without licence, &c. until two months after notice to such person of the order, either served on him personally, or at his dwelling-house, or by publication in the Presidency Gazette, id. s. 36.

504. None of the Co.'s governments shall sanction the residence at any place within the limits of any such government of any subject of H.M. who shall go thereto after 10th April, 1814, unless previously furnished with a licence or certificate from the court of directors, or otherwise authorised by law to reside therein, provided that any gov.-gen. or gov. of any presidency for extraordinary reasons entered on council minutes, may by special licence authorise his residence in any place under his government, until the pleasure of the court of directors is known; and if such pleasure is to the contrary, notice thereof shall be served formally on such person, or by leaving it at his dwelling-house, or published as in s. 36., provided that a copy of such licence, and of the reasons for granting it, with an application for a licence from such court of directors, shall be transmitted to them forthwith after the granting thereof, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 37.

505. The board of control may, by licence in writing for that purpose, on such terms as they think fit, authorize any persons to proceed to and reside at any place situate more north than 11° S. Lat., and between 64° and 150° E. Long. from London, and not being on the continent of Asia, between the Indus and town of Malacca inclusive, nor in any island under the Co.'s government lying north of the equator, nor at their factory at Bencoolen, or its dependencies, nor in China, id. s. 38.

506. Any subjects of H. M. may proceed to and reside at any place situate more south than 11° S. Lat., or more west than 61°, or more east than 150° E. Long. from London, for any lawful purposes, without any licence soever, id. s. 39.

507. Every subject of any of H. M.'s dominions, situate without the E. I., and limits of the Co.'s charter, other than those licensed by the Co., or otherwise lawfully authorized, who shall, during the further term by this act granted, directly or indirectly sail to, visit, haunt, frequent, or trade to, in, or from the E. I., or parts aforesaid, or go, sail, or repair thereto, or be found therein, any otherwise than allowed by this act, or by the conditions of any licence granted by virtue thereof, shall be taken to have unlawfully traded thither; and they, and all vessels found in their custody, or engaged in such unlawful trade, shall be subject to the like penalties, disabilities, and methods of suit as are contained in 55 G. 3. c. 52. (ss. 129, 130.) or 55 G. 3. c. 31. (I. s. 25, 26., all the powers of which acts shall be in force, and apply to such unlawful trade as aforesaid, id. s. 40.

508. Where the governments in India do not think proper to prosecute unlicensed persons resident in India for a misdemeanour, or to send them to the U. K., then, on information by the advocate-gen. at any of the presidencies in the courts, in s. 99., respectively enumerated, that any subjects of H. M.'s has been found in any part of the E. I. or parts aforesaid, within the jurisdiction of the court, without due licence or authority for his residence, &c. there; the court shall cause such person to be arrested and brought before them, and on due proof there, of the substance of the information, he shall produce his licence, or other authority, for his residence, resort to, or being in the E. I., or place where he is proved to have been; and on such production of such licence, &c. or failure to account for the same, or if the court decide that his residence, &c. is not within the meaning of such licence, &c. the court may convict and order him to pay a fine, at discretion, not exceeding 2000 rupees, and imprison him for not exceeding 2 months, unless it be sooner paid; and if he is a second time convicted of a like offence before the same, or any other court, they may impose a fine not exceeding 4000 rupees, and commit the offender to gaol for not more than 4 months, unless sooner paid; but nothing in this act shall prevent unlicensed residents from being prosecuted for misdemeanours, or sent home under former acts; provided that no person, convicted as above, shall be prosecuted for a misdemeanour, in respect of any such residence previous to the date of his conviction, id. s. 101. [As to British subject residing in India by licence changing his residence, &c. see s. 108. &c. infra, pl. 357.]

509. The gov.-gen., or in his absence the vice-president, the gov. of any of the Co.'s presidencies, the chief Co.'s officer resident at any British settlement in the E. I. or limits aforesaid; the council of supercargoes at Canton, and on the river of Canton, or other part of the coast of China, and other persons specially authorized by the court of directors, may respectively arrest and send to the U. K., on board any ship in the Co.'s service bound thither, all persons found in the E. I. or limits aforesaid, without licence or lawful authority; and the commanders shall safely keep them till landed in U. K.; provided that any such person may be discharged in such port therein, where the ship is safely moored, as they think fit, id. s. 104.

510. The gov.-gen. in council, and the gov. in council, or chief officer of any presidency or place not subordinate to any presidency under government of the E. I. Co., may cause notice in writing to be given to any person not being a native of the British territories in India, or within the limits of the Co.'s charter, (other than natural born subjects lawfully resorting to, or residing in the E. I.,) to remove himself from such presidency, or from all or any part of the British territories in the E. I., and if he disobeys the same, may cause him to be apprehended and brought before the court of civil or criminal judicature, having the local jurisdiction; and on proof on oath to satisfaction of such court by any credible witness swearing to his knowledge or belief, stating grounds of his belief that such person is an alien, and that such notice has been served as above, either personally, or by leaving it at his dwelling-house, unless he shall prove himself within the above exceptions, (for which proof reasonable time shall be given by the court,) such person shall be remanded into the custody of the gov.-gen. &c. who shall cause him to be removed, in a manner suitable to his rank, by the first convenient opportunity, to his own country, if willing, or, if not, to any other country at discretion of the above authorities, having regard to his convenience, and to the security of the British E. I. territories, of the allies of H. M., of the E. I. Co., and of the neighbouring princes or states; and he may be detained in any custody which such authority shall deem necessary, with as little inconvenience to him as possible; and if, after such removal, he shall again wilfully return without consent of the government of the place, the above authorities may apprehend and detain him till he be discharged out of custody on such terms as they shall deem sufficient for the above objects, 55 G. 3. c. 34. s. 6.

511. It shall be lawful to execute any warrant for the apprehension, detention, or removal of any such person as aforesaid, notwithstanding their delivery to bail, or in execution on any civil process, and notwithstanding any licence or privilege soever; but no British subject, or native of the British territories in India, or within the limits of the Co.'s charter, shall be apprehended, detained, or removed by virtue of any provisions herein, nor shall this act affect any statute by which a British subject may resort, or is restrained from resorting to the E. I., nor extend to the apprehension, &c. of the subject of any foreign state, under this act, in any way inconsistent with any treaty with H. M. or the E. I. Co., id. s. 7.

512. No action or suit shall be commenced against the Co., or any person soever, for any thing done under colour of this act, till after 20 days notice thereof given, or after sufficient satisfaction or tender thereof made to the party grieved, nor after 5 years next after the cause of complaint arisen; and defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act, and the special matter in evidence, and that it was done in pursuance of this act; and if it appear to be so done, or that such tender has been made before commencement of the action, or that it hath been commenced after the time of limitation, or any otherwise than above directed, plaintiff shall be nonsuited; and in that or any other case of nonsuit, or if plaintiff discontinue after appearance, or have judgment against him on demurrer, or where a verdict or judgment shall pass for defendant, he shall have treble costs, id. s. 9.

513. If any vessel shall, by stress of weather, or inevitable accident, be driven more north than 11° S. Lat., and between 64° and 150° E. Long. from London, and being driven or so forced, shall return within the said limits as speedily as the ship's safety will admit, such vessel shall not, nor shall any of the effects on board, nor shall the owners, master, or crew thereof, be liable to the forfeitures (in s. 40. pl. 507.) but the proof of the above circumstances shall lie on the party claiming the benefit of the exemption, 55 G. 3. c. 155. s. 41.

514. The board of control have full power to superintend, direct, and control all orders soever, relating to any regulations of the Co.'s colleges at Calcutta or Fort St. George, or of any other seminaries established under their authority, id. s. 42.

515. The gov.-gen. in council may direct that out of any surplus remaining of the rents, revenues, and profits arising from the territorial acquisitions, after paying the expences of the military, civil, and commercial establishments, and the interest of the debt, not less than 1 lack of rupees, shall be yearly applied to the revival of literature and encouragement of the learned natives of India, and for promoting a knowledge of the sciences among the inhabitants of British India, and any institutions for such purposes, founded in India under this act, shall be governed by the regulations of such gov.-gen. in council, subject to the board of control; provided that all appointments in such institutions shall be made by the governments within which they are situate, id. s. 43.

516. The civil college and military seminary in Eng. shall be maintained by them during their further term, and the court of directors shall, from time to time, frame regulations for their good government, to be revised and altered at discretion by the board of control, which shall then be effectual in all matters relating to the same; but the directors may make any representation which they think fit respecting alterations or additions by the board, id. s. 44.

517. The bishop of London shall exercise such visitatorial power and jurisdiction over all such persons and things as relate to the said college, and are established by the regulations thereof, id. s. 45.

518. The court of directors shall not appoint or send to the presidencies of Forts William, or St. George, or Bombay, any person as a writer, unless he be duly entered and resident for 4 terms at such college, and shall produce to the court of directors a certificate, by the principal, of such his residence and conformity to the rules thereof, id. s. 46.

519. No order for the establishment of any office or appointment of any person to be principal of the college, or head-master of the military seminary shall be valid, until approved by the board of control, id. s. 47.

520. Every spiritual person holding the situation of principal or professor in the said college, and actually performing the duties thereof, is exempted from parochial residence, id. s. 48.

521. If a bishopric shall be founded for the whole of the British territories in E.I., with 1 archdeaconry for the presidency of Fort William, a 2d for that of Fort St. George, and a 3d for that of Bombay, and a bishop and archdeacons shall be appointed thereto, the court of directors shall cause to be paid, out of the Fort William revenues, to the bishop 5000*l.* per ann., at exchange of 8*s.* for the Bengal current rupee, to the archdeacon of Fort William 2000*l.* per ann., at a like exchange, and 2000*l.* to the archdeacon of Fort St. George, out of the Fort St. George revenues, at an exchange of 8*s.* per pagoda at Madras, and 2000*l.* to the archdeacon of Bombay out of the Bombay revenues, at 2*s.* 3*d.* the Bombay rupee, 53 G.3. c. 155. s. 49.

522. These salaries shall commence on such persons taking office, [Qu. see s. 89. of this act, pl. 144, "from taking on them the execution of their offices;" but this is applied to the "officers therein before mentioned," which does not include the bishop and archdeacon, &c., but outfit is allowed them with the officers there alluded to, id. ibid.] and continue while their functions continue to be exercised, and shall be in lieu of all fees and emoluments of office soever, which are forbidden to be taken by any such persons, id. s. 50.

523. Such bishop shall not have any jurisdiction, or exercise any episcopal functions soever, either in E.I. or elsewhere, except as limited to him by H.M.'s letters patent, id. s. 51.

524. H.M. may by patent grant to such bishop such ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and the exercise of such episcopal functions within the E.I. and limits aforesaid, as are necessary for administering holy ceremonies, and superintending the church establishment there, id. s. 52.

525. H.M.'s warrant for the letters patent respecting such bishopric, or archdeaconries, or any appointments thereto, shall be countersigned by the president of the board of control, id. s. 53.

526. H.M. by warrant under sign manual, countersigned by the chancellor of exchequer, may grant to any such bishop and archdeacons, who shall have exercised their offices in the E.I., &c. for 15 years, these pensions, viz. 1500*l.* per ann. to such bishop, 800*l.* per ann. to each such archdeacon, payable quarterly by the Co. as part of their political charges, id. s. 54.

527. During the possession of the said territorial possessions and revenues in the Co., the revenues thereof after defraying the expenses of collection, shall be applied in the following order of preference; 1*st*, in defraying all the expenses of the forces, European and native, military, artillery, and marine, garrisons, warlike and naval stores on the establishments in the E.I.; 2*ndly*, in paying interest on the Indian debt, including that part of it for which bills shall be demanded payable in Eng., and for which provision shall be made by consignments or remittances to Eng., as the court of directors with approbation of the board of control, shall direct; 3*rdly*, in defraying the civil and commercial establishments of the Co. at their several settlements there; 4*thly*, towards liquidating the territorial debts of the Co., or of the bond-debt at home, or as the directors, with approbation of the board of control, shall direct, id. s. 55.

528. A sum equal to the actual payments made from the commercial funds at home, on account of territorial charges for the preceding year, after deducting the charges of the commercial establishments, and charges in India paid from the territorial revenues in the same year, shall in every year be issued in India, for the purpose of the Co.'s India or China investment, or of remittance to Eng. on the Co.'s account at the option of the court of directors; provided that any excess so issued in any year for investment beyond the Co.'s actual payments in Europe, for territorial charges, shall go in diminution of the sum so applied in the year following, id. s. 56.

529. During the term granted as in s. 3., the net proceeds of their sales of goods at home, with the duties and allowances of private trade, and all their commercial profits and receipts in G.B., shall be applied thus, viz. 1*st*, in paying bills of exchange accepted by the Co.; 2*ndly*, in providing for the current payment of other debts, (the principal of the bond-debt in Eng. always excepted) as well as interest and the commercial expenses of the Co.; 3*rdly*, in paying a dividend at 10 per cent. per ann. on the amount of their capital stock, for such time as the Co.'s separate fund shall be sufficient to pay a dividend of 10*s.* for every 100*l.* per ann. on the amount thereof, and after its exhaustion, then in payment of a dividend of 10*l.* 10*s.* per cent. per ann. on the capital stock, than which no larger dividend shall be paid; 4*thly*, in reduction of the principal of the debt in the E.I., or parts aforesaid, or to the bond-debt at home, as the said court of directors, with approbation of the board of control, shall direct, id. s. 57.

530. The net proceeds of sales of goods and other commercial profits of the Co. in G.B., shall not be liable to the liquidation of any charge on account of the territorial or political government of India payable in Eng., or of any bills or certificates drawn on account thereof, till after the dividend on the Co.'s capital stock is first provided for, (except bills, &c. paid in India from the territorial funds and consignments made thereof to Eng. for liquidation of such bills, &c. (and except the interest and sinking fund on the loan advanced to the Co. under 52 G.3. c. 155. ss. 7—8.) which shall be accounted for as a territorial charge, 53 G.3. c. 155. s. 58.

531. If the above home-fund is insufficient, after paying such dividend, to discharge all such bills as shall be drawn for the interest of any loan in India, contracted for before 10th April, 1814, they shall be paid as parliament shall direct; provided that monies received by the Co. at home on the credit of bills drawn on territorial funds, or for advances made in India, shall be applied to defray the territorial, &c. charges of the Co. in Europe, the excess thereof being subject to the further appropriations to which territorial revenues are liable under this act; but a deficiency of commercial profits at home in any year to pay the dividend, shall be made good out of the surplus territorial revenues, id. s. 58.

532. When the principal debt of the Co. bearing interest in India is reduced to 10,000,000*l.*, calculated at the exchange of 2*s.* for the Bengal current rupee, 8*s.* for the Madras pagoda, and 2*s.* 3*d.* for the Bombay rupee, and the bonded debt in G.B. is reduced to 3,000,000*l.*, then shall the surplus proceeds of territorial revenues and home-profits be applied to the more speedy repayment of the capital of any public funds or securities created for the Co.'s use, the charges of which have been borne by the Co. under statute, and any further surplus shall be paid into exchequer, to be applied by parliament without interest to the Co.; but all such sums so paid, and not exceeding 12,000,000*l.*, shall be a guarantee fund for the capital stock, and dividend of 10*l.* 10*s.* per cent. per ann. on the same; and of any excess above 12,000,000*l.* 1-6th shall remain to the Co., and the remaining 5-6ths shall belong to the public at disposal of parliament, id. s. 59.

533. If the Co.'s debts in India shall, after such reduction, be again increased beyond that amount, or if their bond-debt in G.B. after its reduction to 3,000,000*l.*, shall be again increased beyond that sum, the surplus proceeds in (s. 59.) shall be appropriated to the reduction of the new debts respectively, until the whole Indian debt is again reduced to 10,000,000*l.*, and the English bonded debt to 3,000,000*l.*, id. s. 60.

534. So much of 33 G.3. c. 52. (viz. s. 111.) as relates to the payment of a sum not exceeding 500,000*l.* in every year, into the receipt of H.M.'s exchequer, at disposal of parliament or to the recovery thereof, (viz. s. 119.) from the E.I.C. or their successors, by action or otherwise, in case of failure of payment, or to payment (viz. s. 111.) to the bank of Eng. of money to be placed to the account of the commissioners of national debt, under 26 G.3. c. 31, or to the account to be raised by the bank, to be entitled "The account of the guarantee fund of the E.I.C." or to the said guarantee fund, (viz. ss. 113—118., 120—121.) or to an account to be made by the bank relating thereto, (viz. s. 116.) are repealed, id. s. 61.

535. A dividend of 10*s.* per cent. on the present or future amount of the capital stock of the Co. shall be paid out of the separate fund till its exhaustion, and the residue of any dividend, to the entire payment of which it may be unequal, shall be paid out of the net proceeds of the Co.'s profits arising as in s. 59., id. s. 62. [s. 63. repeals so much of 37 G.3. c. 31. s. 9., as directs the 10*s.* dividend on the stock created by that act, to be paid out of the annual profits.]

536. The court of directors shall order the Co.'s accounts abroad and at home, to be so kept as to exhibit the receipts, disbursements, debts, and assets connected with the territorial and political departments separately from those connected with their commercial affairs, and a plan for such an arrangement of the Co.'s accounts prepared by the directors, and approved by the board of control, who may, from time to time alter the same, shall be carried into execution, id. s. 64.

537. The accounts required to be laid before parliament by 33 G.3. c. 52. s. 126. pl. shall be arranged conformably to this principle of separation, id. s. 65.

538. The court of directors shall annually lay before both houses, with the accounts by 33 G.3. c. 52. s. 126. pl. 364. required, one copy of all the regulations of their several Indian governments transmitted to them under 37 G.3. c. 142. s. 8., 39 & 40 G.3. c. 79. s. 23. pl. 440., and 47 G.3. S.2. c. 68. s. 1. pl. 445., id. s. 66.

539. All export and import duties charged in E.I. or elsewhere, under the Co.'s government, shall in the Co.'s accounts be debited to the commercial branch, and all customs duties so charged on the Co.'s goods, or received by them in the E.I. or parts aforesaid, on the goods of any private trader, shall be credited to, and deemed part of the territorial revenues, and subject as such to the board of control, id. s. 67.

540. The board of control has full power to direct and control all orders soever, relating to the amount of appropriation to any investment or other commercial purposes of any part of the territorial revenues, except the sums issued in India under s. 56., for making good home-payments on account of territorial charges, or the proceeds of any loan raised in the E.I., or of any securities issued by any of the Co.'s governments, id. s. 68.

541. The court of directors of the Co. shall deliver to the said board copies of all minutes, orders, resolutions, and proceedings of all courts of proprietors and directors within 8 days of holding them, and of dispatches received by the directors or any committee of them from the E. I., or any settlements or factories within the said limits, or from any of their servants at St. Helena, Bussora, Suez, Aleppo, or elsewhere, relating to the commercial investment of any part of such territorial revenue; or of any monies raised by loan, or securities issued by any of the Co.'s governments immediately after their receipt, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 69.

542. No orders relating to the investment of the last enumerated monies, shall be sent to India by the court or committee of directors, until approved by the said board, and copies thereof shall be laid before the board for that purpose; and after receipt thereof, the latter shall, in not exceeding 2 months, return the same to such directors, certified by order of the board under the hand of their chief or assistant-secretary; or if they disapprove the same, shall return their reasons at large for such alteration with their instructions to the directors therein, who shall dispatch the same in the form approved by the board, unless on any representation by the directors, the board shall alter the same, and the directors shall be bound by the instructions they receive from the latter touching such appropriation, id. s. 70.

543. No question in any general court, or court of directors, shall be carried, but by a majority of votes, and an equality of votes shall be a rejection of the proposition on which the question is put; but in cases of such equality, in favour of 2 or more candidates, the election may be determined by lot, as in the charter of 5 Sept. 10 W. 3. c. 44., id. s. 77.

544. The board of control shall not order to be allowed out of the territorial revenues, in respect of H. M.'s forces in the E. I., or parts aforesaid, for security of the said territories, any sum of money, for more than 20,000 men, including officers, unless sent out at requisition of the directors, id. s. 87.

545. The court of directors may make allowances, superannuations, &c. to the servants of the Co. in Eng., subject to the following restrictions: if such servant, being under 60, shall be incapable by infirmity of mind or body, to discharge his office, and has faithfully served the Co. for 10 years, the court may grant him an annuity, not exceeding 1-3d. of his official salary and emoluments; if above 10, and less than 20 years, not exceeding one-half; if above 20, not exceeding 2-3ds.; and if he be above 60 years old, having served 15 years or upwards, he may be allowed (without proof of infirmity) not exceeding 2-3ds.; if 65 years of age, or upwards, and having served 50 years or more, not exceeding the whole of such salary, &c. to be charged in the Co.'s accounts, to that branch of their affairs to which such servants belong, id. s. 93.; and an account of all such allowances, &c. shall be annually laid before parliament, in 15 days from its next meeting, id. s. 94.

546. Nothing herein shall affect the sovereignty of the crown of H. M. over the said territorial acquisitions, or preclude the Co. at the determination of the term, from the enjoyment of any immunities, &c. to which they may be entitled, id. s. 95.

547. The gov.-gen. and govrs. in council, at Fort-William, Port St. George, Bombay, and Prince of Wales's Island, in the towns of Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Prince of Wales's Island, may impose such customs and other taxes, and on all residents and property within the jurisdiction of courts established by the king's charter, as are within the authority of the said respective governments; but no such duty, or tax, in the above-mentioned towns, shall be valid till sanctioned by the directors, id. s. 98.

548. The gov.-gen. and govrs. in council shall respectively make laws and regulations, respecting such duties and taxes, and impose penalties for breach or nonpayment; all which laws shall be recognized, without being specially pleaded in all the courts in the British territories, and all indictments, &c. or suits whatever, to enforce, or arising from the same, may be maintained in the supreme courts and recorder's court at Bombay, and court of judicature at Prince of Wales's Island respectively, id. s. 99.

549. The advocate-gen. or other principal law officer of the Co., at the several presidencies of Fort William, St. George, Bombay, and Prince of Wales's Island, may exhibit to the 4 courts recited in s. 99., against any person in their jurisdiction, any information for any breach of the revenue-laws of any of the said governments, or for any penalty or debt incurred or due by such person, in respect of any such regulation, the proceedings in which suit, shall as much as possible resemble those in exchequer informations; and all penalties and debts recovered shall belong to the E. I. Co., and be credited in their accounts to their territorial revenues, id. s. 100.

550. All H. M.'s courts of criminal jurisdiction, within the Co.'s presidencies, shall 4 times, at least, in every year, hold their sessions for the taking cognizance of all matters relating to pleas of the crown, id. s. 102.

551. The advocate-gen. or other principal law officers of the Co., at their several presidencies, in all cases of misdemeanor, alleged to have been committed by any British subject, at more than 100 miles distance from the presidency, within the limits whereof the offence is laid, may file an information ex officio in either of the supreme courts, at Fort-William, Madras, or Bombay, as the case may be, and prosecute the same, as in K. B. in Eng., 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 103.

552. "Recital, that H. M.'s British subjects resident in India, without the towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, are subject only to the jurisdiction of the courts at those towns, respectively, and not to the courts established by the Co. in India, to which all other inhabitants without the towns aforesaid are subject." Any native of India, resident in the E. I., or parts aforesaid, and without the said towns, in case of any assault, forcible entry or injury accompanied with force, alleged to have been done against his person or property by a British subject, not amounting to felony, may complain thereof to the magistrate of the Zillah or district where the offender is resident, or in which the offence is committed, who shall have power to take cognizance of the complaint, to hear parties, examine witnesses, and having taken in writing the substance of the complaint, defence, and evidence, to acquit or convict the accused; and in case of conviction, to inflict a suitable punishment by fine, not exceeding 500 rupees, to be levied in case of non-payment, by his warrant, on any property of the party convicted, found within the district; and if no such property is found, commit him by his warrant, to some fit confinement in the district, or in default thereof, to the gaol of the presidency, for not exceeding 3 months, unless it is sooner paid, and the magistrate may award the whole, or a portion of such fine to the party grieved, as a satisfaction for the injury, id. s. 105.

553. Provided, that in all such convictions, the magistrate shall transmit copies of the conviction, depositions, and proceedings, to the government to which the place is subordinate, and all such fines shall be paid in the first instance to the convicting magistrate, and the amount (after making such satisfaction to the party grieved) if any, shall be transmitted by such magistrate to the clerk of the crown, or other officer, who may receive fines in H. M.'s court of oyer and terminer and gaol-delivery for the province, and shall be disposed of as other fines imposed by the latter court; provided, that such conviction may be removed by certiorari into the said courts, subject to 33 G. 3. c. 52, s. 153, 154.; and nothing herein shall prevent any magistrate from committing or holding to bail any British subject charged before him with any such offence, as if this act had not been passed, where the offence shall appear to him so aggravated as to deserve prosecution in any of H. M.'s courts to which the offender is amenable, id. ibid.

554. In all cases of debt, not exceeding 50 rupees, alleged to be due from any British subject to any native of India, resident in the E. I., or parts aforesaid, and without the jurisdiction of the courts of request at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, the magistrate of the district where the defendant is resident, or the debt contracted, may take cognizance of such debts, and examine witnesses on oath, and in a summary way decide between the parties with all the powers of levy and commitment in default of payment, in s. 105. provided as to fines, id. s. 106.

555. All British subjects, who shall reside or carry on trade, or be in possession of any immovable property, in any part of the British territories in India, at more than 10 miles distance from the several presidencies, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of all courts having cognizance of civil suits or matters of revenue, either originally or by way of appeal, within the districts in which they shall so reside, &c. in all civil actions and matters of revenue, in like manner as the natives of India, and other persons not British subjects are subject to such courts; but no British subject shall be sued in any such court, in respect of residence, unless he reside within the jurisdiction at the time the proceeding commenced, or unless the cause of action has arisen within such jurisdiction, and the suit be commenced within 2 years after it has so arisen, and within 6 months after the defendant ceased to reside in the jurisdiction; nor in respect of immovable property, unless it be situate within the jurisdiction of the court, and such suit shall be brought to recover the possession thereof, or for rent, or other demand arising out of the possession thereof, by him, id. s. 107.

556. Provided, that where by the laws in force within the provinces respectively, subject to the governments of Fort William, or St. George, and Bombay, appeal would be from a final judgment of any subordinate court of judicature, to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, or other court of highest appellate jurisdiction, in civil suits, it shall be competent for British subjects, in suits commenced against them under this act, to appeal to the supreme courts at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay instead, according as the suit may have been commenced within the provinces of either presidency; which court shall have the same power to suspend or allow execution of the judgment appealed against, and as to taking security for costs, or for performances of such judgment, as such Sudder court would have had, and shall make rules of practice for the same; but all British subjects may still be sued in the supreme courts of judicature, at Fort William, or St. George, and Bombay, instead of suing in the above provincial courts; but nothing herein, shall authorize the holding land or other immovable property beyond the limits of the presidencies, by any British subject, otherwise than under the permission of their governments, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 107.

557. Every British subject of H. M., not in H. M. or Co.'s service, who shall go to and reside in any part of the British territories in India more than 10 miles distant from its presidency with permission of the government thereof, or who shall change his residence from one part thereof to another, distant as aforesaid, with such permission, shall procure from the chief secretary or other officer duly authorized a certificate signed by him expressing that he has the government's permission for residence, and specifying whether at their pleasure or for a limited time; which shall be deposited by the resident in the civil court of the district within 1 month of taking up his residence there, and shall be kept among the records of the court; of which certificate so deposited a true copy attested by the judge or other authorized officer shall be given to the depositor, and shall be deemed good evidence thereof; and no British subject not in either service as above, going to to reside in any such part of the E. I., or changing his residence as above shall be allowed, while he so resides, to maintain any civil action (other than an appeal) in any court of civil jurisdiction in British India, till he have filed therein a copy of such certificate signed as above, or a satisfactory affidavit to account for not filing the same; and if it be proved to the court that such person is so resident without such certificate, or after its revocation or expiration, or otherwise than according to the provisions contained therein, he shall be nonsuited, id. s. 108.

558. All natives of India employed in the service of H. M., E. I. C., or any of H. M.'s subjects, are subject to all provincial courts of competent jurisdiction for all crimes and misdemeanors, actions and suits soever within their cognizance, [as, not in the statute] if they had not been in the above service; but this does not oust the supreme courts of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay of their lawful jurisdiction over the natives of India, but they shall have a concurrent jurisdiction in the above cases, id. s. 109.

559. H. M.'s courts at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay exercising admiralty jurisdiction, may take cognizance of all crimes perpetrated on the high seas by any persons soever in as ample a manner as any other court of admiralty established in any colony or settlement of the crown, id. s. 110.

560. The advocate general or other principal law-officer of the Co. at each of their presidencies respectively, shall for and on behalf of H. M. exhibit to the respective supreme courts at Calcutta and Madras, the recorder's court at Bombay, and court of judicature at Prince of Wales's Island, any information in the nature of an action at law or bill in equity against any person resident within or amenable to their respective jurisdictions for any cause of action, debts, demands, stores, goods, or other things soever, as fully as the attorney-general may exhibit the same in courts of law or equity in this realm, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon, id. s. 111.

561. The courts of Sudder Dewanny and Nizamat Adawlut, or other provincial courts of the highest jurisdiction, may execute on all persons subject thereto all lawful process of arrest in the same manner within as without the respective limits of the towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, provided that all process executed within the limits aforesaid shall be in writing, and have annexed a translation thereof in the English language, signed by a judge of the court, id. s. 113.

562. Every person within the local limits of the criminal jurisdiction of any of H. M.'s courts at Fort William, St. George, Bombay, or Prince of Wales's Island, or personally subject to the jurisdiction of any of them, at any place in E. I. or between Cape of Good Hope and the Streights of Magellan, where the company have any establishment, who shall steal or take by robbery any bond, bill of exchange, promissory, treasury, or banker's note, order, acknowledgment, or other security or warrant for payment of money, or entitling any person to the payment of money, being the property of any other person or corporation, though deemed in law a chose in action, shall be guilty of felony of the same nature and with like punishments, and with or without benefit of clergy, as if he had stolen or taken by robbery any other goods of like value with the money due on such bond, &c., or secured thereby and remaining unsatisfied, id. s. 114. [and see 12 G. 1. c. 32. s. 9. tit. FORGERY.]

563. If any person within the local limits of, or personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above courts, at any of the above places in s. 114. mentioned, shall falsely make, forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cause to be so made, &c. or aid and assist in the false making, &c. any deed or written instrument for conveyance of any property or interest in any land, house, or goods, or for securing the payment of money, or any will, bond, writing, obligatory bill of exchange, promissory note, for payment of money, or any acceptance of any bill, or any receipt either for money or goods, or any accountable receipt of any note, bill, or security for payment of money, or any warrant or order for payment of money, or delivery of goods with intent to defraud any person of corporation soever, or shall utter or publish as true, or sell, offer, dispose of, or put away within the limits aforesaid, any false, &c. deed, &c. (enumerated as above), the court may order him to be transported beyond the seas, and for such term of years as they shall direct, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 115.

564. Every person within the local limits of, or personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above courts, at any of the places in s. 114. mentioned, who shall counterfeit or procure or assist in counterfeiting any of the gold or silver coins of the British government in India, or usually current in any part thereof, the court may, on his conviction, adjudge him such term and place of transportation beyond the seas, as they think fit, id. s. 116.

565. Every person within the local limits of, or personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above courts, at any of the places in s. 114. mentioned, who shall knowingly utter or tender in payment, or sell or give in exchange, or pay or put off to any persons any such counterfeit coin as aforesaid, shall suffer 6 months imprisonment, and hard labour during the term, at discretion of the court, and find sureties for his good behaviour for 6 months more; for a 2nd offence shall suffer 2 years imprisonment with hard labour during the term, and find sureties for his good behaviour for 2 years more; and for a 3rd offence shall be transported for life to such place beyond the seas as the court shall direct, id. s. 117.

566. If any person convicted of any offence by virtue hereof shall again be prosecuted in any court other than that wherein he has been before convicted, whereby he would be liable to increased punishment, the clerk of the crown, or keeper of records of the court where the conviction is had, shall, at the request of any person on H. M.'s behalf, certify the same by writing under his hand in a few words, containing the substance and effect thereof, with a fee of one rupee, which certificate shall be good proof of such conviction, id. s. 118.

567. If any person within the local limits of or personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above courts, at any of the places in s. 114. mentioned, shall have in his custody, without lawful excuse, (the proof whereof shall lie on the accused,) any more than 5 pieces of such counterfeit coin, he shall, on conviction on the oath of one or more witnesses before a justice, or (if no justice is qualified to act) before one of the judges of H. M.'s court there, forfeit the same, which shall be destroyed by order of the justice, and forfeit for every offence not more than 40 nor less than 20 sicca rupees local currency, for every piece of counterfeit coin so found in moieties to the informer and poor of the presidency, &c. or place, and if not forthwith paid, such justice or judge may commit him to the common goal or house of correction to hard labour for 3 calendar months, or until payment, id. s. 119.

568. Every person within the local limits of, or personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above courts at any of the places in s. 114. mentioned, who shall counterfeit, erase, alter, or falsify any licence authorising any vessel to proceed to any place in the E. I., or parts aforesaid, or any licence or certificate authorizing any person to reside there, or any attested copy thereof, or who shall knowingly utter as true any such counterfeited, &c. licence, certificate, or attested copy, shall, on conviction, suffer not exceeding one year's imprisonment, and pay such fine not exceeding 1000 sicca rupees local currency, as the court shall direct, id. s. 120.

569. The governments of the said presidencies and settlements respectively, shall take order for the due performance of all sentences of transportation pronounced by any of the said courts under this act, but no native of India not born of European parents, shall be transported to any part beyond the seas situate more than 30 deg. N., and 25 deg. S. of the line, id. s. 121.

570. Any person convicted of making a false oath in matters by this act required to be testified on oath, shall be deemed guilty of perjury and liable to the penalties thereof, by any law in force in Eng., and the same of subornation of perjury in such matters, id. s. 122.

571. In any action against the Co. or their servants, or any person acting by their authority for recovery of any costs or damages for the unlawful arresting, imprisoning, sending, or bringing into U.K., of any person found in the E. I. or other parts within the said limits, or as unauthorized to receive or traffic there, defendant may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and the proof shall lie on the plaintiff on trial of the issue to show that at the time of the arrest laid in the declaration, the person so arrested was in his H. M.'s military or marine service, or under covenant to serve the Co. in India, or the parts aforesaid, duly possessed of a licence or certificate for their residence, &c.; or that such person not being in H. M.'s service, was at the time of the arrest authorized by stipulations of the licence, &c. to remain in India, &c.; in failure of which proof plaintiff shall be nonsuited, and in case of such or any other nonsuit, or of judgment against plaintiff on demurrer, or where a verdict shall pass for defendant, he shall have treble costs from the plaintiff, id. s. 123. 26 G. 3. c. 57. s. 37. S. P.

572. Prosecutions for any thing done under this act shall be commenced within 3 years from the cause of complaint, or if done in U.K. in the absence of any person beyond sea aggrieved thereby, then within 3 years after his return to the U.K., id. s. 124.

573. To REMOVE DOUBTS AS TO THE DUTIES AND TAXES heretofore imposed and levied under authority of the several governments in the E. I., 54 G. 3. c. 105.

574. All duties of customs and other taxes heretofore imposed as well on British subjects as foreigners, and other persons whomsoever, by the orders or under authority of the gov.-gen. in council of Fort William in Bengal, the govrs. in council of Fort St. George, of Bombay, and Prince of Wales's Island, within the respective towns of Calcutta and Madras, the town and island of Bombay and Prince of Wales Island, and on all residents therein, and in respect to all goods, soever being therein, and on all persons soever, whether British or foreigners resident in any place within the authority of the said governments, and in respect of all goods, &c. and property soever, being in such country or place, and all orders for levying the same, and all fines and penalties levied by authority of such gov.-gen. and governors in council respectively, are hereby confirmed, and shall be deemed valid according to the true intent of the several orders and usages under which levied, as fully as if imposed under 53 G. 3. c. 155., and all arrears of duties so imposed, and regulations relating thereto, shall be recovered under that act, as fully as if imposed, &c. after the passing thereof, id. s. 1.

575. All such orders, regulations, usages, duties, taxes, fines, and penalties shall remain in force till varied by any regulations made and passed under 53 G. 3. c. 155., and all persons concerned are indemnified for any acts done according to the true intent and meaning of such customs, &c. but nothing shall confirm any proceeding or indemnify any person in respect of any act done without the authority or contrary to the true intent of any such order, &c. id. s. 2.

576. TO REGULATE THE TRADE TO AND FROM THE PLACES WITHIN THE LIMITS OF THE E. I. C.'s charter, and certain possessions of H. M. in the Mediterranean, 57 G. 3. c. 36.

577. The said Co., and any other H.M.'s subjects, may carry on trade, in ships navigated according to law, directly and circuitously between Malta and its dependencies, or Gibraltar, and all ports and places within the limits of the said Co.'s charter, except China; but the latter shall not trade to or at any port or place without the limits of the said Co.'s charter, other than those with which trade is permitted by 54 G. 3. c. 34.; but nothing herein shall authorize any subjects, other than the Co., or persons licensed by them, to export or import from or to any such places, within or without such limits, or to import into U. K. any tea, or in any manner to trade or traffic in tea between any such places, id. s. 1.

578. The Cape of Good Hope shall be deemed within the limits of the Co.'s charter for the purposes of this act: but this shall not prevent any other trade which now may, or may hereafter be allowed to be carried on between the said settlement and any other places, id. s. 2.

579. No vessel, under the provisions of this act, shall clear out, the registered measurement of which is under the burden prescribed by 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 13. pl. 483, within the limits of the E. I. C.'s charter, id. s. 3.

580. The governors and lieutenant-governors of Malta and Gibraltar shall grant licences to vessels so proceeding from the said island or port, under the same regulations as are under 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 11. pl. 483, applicable to licences granted by the court of directors and board of commissioners: but shall not grant any licence authorizing any ship to proceed to any place on the continent of Asia from the Indus to the town of Malacca, except the Co.'s principal settlement, and shall conform to the rules of the board of control in regard to the licences granted by that board, id. s. 4.

581. Such governor or lieutenant-governor shall transmit to one of the secretaries of state annual lists of all such licences, and of all licences refused, with his reasons for refusal, id. s. 5.

582. No ship, other than ships of the Co., shall be permitted to clear out from Malta or Gibraltar for any place under government of H. M. or the Co., situate more to the northward than 11 deg. S. Lat. and between 64th and 150th deg. E. Long. from London, until the master shall have made out and exhibited to the officer of customs at the port of clearance, upon oath, a true list, in form settled by the court of directors, setting forth the names, capacities, and descriptions of all persons embarked, and all arms on board; nor shall any such vessel be admitted to entry till the master has in like manner made out and exhibited to the officer of customs, on oath, a true list, in form to be settled as aforesaid, specifying the names, capacities, and descriptions of all persons on board, or who have been on board, from the time of the sailing to that of arrival, and of all arms on board during that time, and the several times and places at which such persons as may have died or left the ship, or such of the said arms as have been disposed of have been so disposed of, id. s. 6.

583. Such governors or lieutenant-governors shall cause every such list to be transmitted with all dispatch to the court of directors; and all such ships shall, on arrival at any port, under government of the Co., be subject to all the regulations prescribed by 53 G. 3. c. 155., and all trade with all ports upon the continent of Asia, from the river Indus to the town of Malacca, or any island under the government of the Co. lying to the north of the equator, or their factory at Bencoolen, shall remain subject to all such regulations as shall be in force in relation to trade, at any such ports under the authority of any of the governments of the Co. at their several presidencies, 57 G. 3. c. 36. s. 7.

584. The Co., and any other H. M.'s subjects, may trade (in ships navigated according to law) to the island of Malta and port of Gibraltar, and may discharge the whole or any part of the cargo at such island or port, and in prosecution of such circuitous voyage may take on board any other goods, which can be legally carried from such ports within the limits aforesaid, to such island or port; and in like manner may trade in any such ship, in any voyage from the U. K. to any ports within the limits aforesaid, to the said island of Malta and port of Gibraltar; but all such ships shall be subject to all the regulations to which ships carrying on trade circuitously, between U. K. and the limits of the Co.'s charter, are by 53 G. 3. c. 155. and 54 G. 3. c. 34. liable, id. s. 8.

585. All goods so imported into Malta or Gibraltar, from any ports within the limits of the Co.'s charter, may be re-exported to the U. K., and imported at any of the ports where they may lawfully be imported, id. s. 9.; and for the purposes of this act, Malta shall be deemed to be in Europe, id. s. 10.

586. Nothing in this or any other act shall prevent the introduction (under the provisions of this act) into Malta or Gibraltar, of any articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of any of the countries between which and the said island and port trade is allowed to be carried on by this act, which may now be imported into U. K. id. s. 11.

587. No ship engaged in any voyage under this act, from any port in the E. I. to Malta or Gibraltar, and not destined to any port in the U. K., shall take on board any Lascars, or other Asiatic seamen: but any of the governments in India, or any governor of any colony or island belonging to H. M., within the limits of the charter, on application made by the owner or commander of any ship, and after having ascertained that a sufficient number of British seamen cannot be procured for the crew, may within 10 days from such application, certify the same, and license such ship to sail with such proportion of Lascars or Asiatic seamen as may be specified in such licence; and the gov.-gen. in council at Fort William shall make rules, that all such sailors shall be duly supplied with provisions and clothing, and other necessary accommodation, while employed, until they shall be carried back, and for their conveyance back within a reasonable time, to be specified in the bond, or ascertained by such rules, id. s. 12.

588. And no ship so licensed shall be permitted to clear out from any port within the limits of the charter until the owner or captain shall have first given security by bond, as directed by 54 G. 3. c. 134. (this tit. V. SHIPPING, &c., pl. 659, &c.) for the maintenance and conveyance back to India, or for the conveyance to Eng., and maintenance while in Eng. and return to India of such Lascars or Asiatic seamen, id. s. 13.

589. TO EXEMPT THE TERRITORIES WITHIN THE LIMITS OF THE E. I. C.'s charter, from certain of the navigation laws, 57 G. 3. c. 95.

590. Nothing in 12 C. 2. c. 18., 15 C. 2. c. 7., 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 26., 25 C. 2. c. 7., 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 21., 4 & 5 A. c. 5., and 8 G. 1. c. 18., shall extend to, or in any way affect, the importation or exportation by the Co., or by any other subjects in British-registered vessels navigated according to law or in vessels registered for trading under 53 G. 3. c. 116. (infra this tit. V. pl. 662, &c.) of any goods ~~to~~ into, or from any port within the limits of the charter of the Co., or to affect the importation or exportation at, into, or from any place soever in such vessels as aforesaid, of any goods of the growth, produce, or manufacture of any place within the limits aforesaid, or to require that any bond for the exportation or importation shall be given, in respect of any such vessels, bound to or from any place situate within the limits aforesaid, id. s. 1.; and no person shall be liable to be sued for any penalty, nor any ship, vessel, goods, wares, or merchandise liable to be seized by reason of any trading contrary to such prohibition as aforesaid, id. s. 2.

591. But nothing herein shall extend to alter or affect the provisions of 53 G. 3. c. 155., 54 G. 3. c. 34., 55 G. 3. c. 116, or 57 G. 3. c. 56., or to alter or affect the laws now in being relative to the trade of foreign nations in amity with H. M., with the said British territories under government of the Co. in the E. I., id. s. 3.

592. The Cape of Good Hope shall, for the purposes of this act, be deemed to be within the limits of the charter of the Co., id. s. 4.

593. It shall be lawful to import into any island or territory within the limits of the Co.'s charter, not under government of the Co., in vessels belonging to any state in amity with H. M. (not being an European state), and lying within the said limits, any articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of any such state, and to export in any such vessel any goods legally imported into such islands or territories, id. s. 5.

IV. Army.

594. FOR PUNISHING MUTINY AND DESERTION OF OFFICERS and soldiers in the service of the E. I. Co., 27 G. 2. c. 9. [Am. by 1 G. 3. c. 14., 50 G. 3. c. 87., 52 G. 3. c. 122. See 27 G. 2. c. 9. s. 13., and 1 G. 3. c. 14. s. 2., supra, pl. 157, and see 21 G. 3. c. 65. s. 32., and 39 G. 3. c. 109., infra, pl. 613.]

595. If any person mustered, or in pay as an officer, or listed, or in the Co.'s pay as a soldier, in any of their settlements, or in St. Helena, shall, in their principal settlements, and in the said island of St. Helena, and within his term of service, excite or join in any meeting or sedition in any company, troop, or regiment in the Co.'s service, or shall not use his utmost endeavours to suppress the same, or give information to his commander of any meeting begun or intended, or shall desert the Co.'s service, or being listed in any regiment, troop, or company, shall list himself in any other regiment, &c., without a discharge in writing from the commander-in-chief of the regiment in which he last served, or shall be found sleeping on his post, or leave it before relieved, or hold correspondence, at land or sea, with any rebel or enemy of H. M. or the Co., or give them intelligence in any manner soever, or treat or enter into any condition with them, without licence of the Co. or the Co.'s president and council at any of their principal settlements, or of their govr. and council at St. Helena, or of the chief commander of the Co.'s forces, or shall strike, use violence against, or disobey the lawful command of his superior officer, he shall suffer death, or such other punishment as a court martial shall inflict, 27 G. 2. c. 9. s. 1.

596. H. M. may grant a commission or warrant under his sign manual to the court of directors, who, by virtue thereof, may by seal of the Co. authorize their president and council at their principal settlements, or a majority of them, and their govr. and council at St. Helena, or the majority of them from time to time to appoint courts martial, and to empower the commander-in-chief of any detachment of any of the Co.'s troops to appoint courts martial for trial, under this act, of any soldiers under their commands, id. s. 2. [Ext. to Bencoolen, 1 G. 3. c. 14. s. 1. infra, pl. 607.]

597. As long as any of H. M.'s forces are employed to act in defence of any of the Co.'s settlements, or to assist against any of their enemies in the E. I., the commander-in-chief of H. M.'s forces, shall appoint courts martial, or authorize their appointment over such of the Co.'s soldiers, as belong to the principal settlement, where or from whence such persons are employed, id. s. 3.

598. Such courts martial, may by their sentence inflict corporal punishment on any soldier for immoralities, misbehaviour or neglect of duty, id. s. 1.

599. No such general court martial having power to sit under any provisions of this act, viz. s. 2., &c., shall consist of less than 9 commissioned officers; and the president shall neither be the commander-in-chief of the garrison where the offender is tried, nor under the degree of a captain; and no general court martial so appointed by the govr., &c. at St. Helena (as in s. 2.) shall consist of less than 5 commissioned officers; and the president shall neither be the commander-in-chief as above, nor under the degree of lieutenant; and such courts martial shall take and administer such oaths, and proceed as H. M. shall direct by orders under his sign manual; and no sentence of death shall be pronounced, unless two-thirds of the officers present concur; and no trial shall be had, but between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., except where immediate example is required, id. s. 5.

600. The officiating judge-advocate, at any such general court martial, shall transmit with all reasonable expedition the original proceedings and sentence thereof to H. M.'s commander-in-chief, if held by his warrant, or to the president and council of such of the Co.'s principal settlements, by whose warrant the same is held, or to the govr. and council at St. Helena, if held within their jurisdiction to be carefully preserved, in order that the persons entitled thereto, may obtain copies. [Qu. if expressly enacted?] id. s. 6.

601. No officer or soldier, being acquitted or convicted of any offence, shall be tried for the same a second time, by that or any other court martial, and no sentence by a court martial signed by the president, shall be revised more than once, id. s. 7.

602. H. M. may make articles of war for the better government of the Co.'s forces, and for bringing offenders against the same to justice, and may erect courts martial, with powers to try and determine offences, and inflict penalties by judgment of the same, as well within the Co.'s limits of trade as in St. Helena, id. s. 8. [Ext. to Bencoolen, 1 G. 3. c. 14. s. 1. infra, pl. 607.]

603. No person shall suffer punishment extending to life or limb, by the said articles in time of peace, except for the crimes so punishable by this act, id. s. 9.

604. No person acquitted or convicted of any capital crime or offences by the civil magistrate, shall be punished by court martial, except by cashiering, id. s. 10.

605. If any officer, non-commissioned officer or soldier shall be accused of any capital crime, or of any offence against the person, estate, or property of any of H. M.'s subjects, which is punishable by the known laws of the land, the commanding officer of every regiment, &c. (as in s. 1.) or party, shall use his utmost endeavour to deliver over the accused to the civil magistrate, and shall aid the officers of justice in apprehending him in order to trial; and if he neglect or refuse so to do, and is convicted thereof before two or more justices of the settlement or place where the fact is committed, by the oath of two credible witnesses, he shall be cashiered, and disabled to hold military employment in the Co.'s service in E. I.; provided that the conviction is affirmed at the next quarter sessions for the settlement, and a certificate thereof transmitted to the president and council of such principal settlement, who shall certify the same to the next court martial, 27 G. 2. c. 9. s. 11.

606. Officers and soldiers of artillery are included herein, id. s. 12.

607. The powers of 27 G. 2. c. 9. s. 2. are extended to authorize the Co.'s govr. and council at their settlement of Fort Marlborough, near Bencoolen, in Sumatra, or a majority of them, and their govr. and council at every other principal settlement of which they are possessed, within the Co.'s limits of trade, and wherein the holding of courts of judicature shall be authorized by any charter, &c. hereafter granted by H. M., from time to time to appoint courts martial, in which all the offences in 27 G. 2. c. 9., or in the articles of war made pursuant to this act, committed within Fort Marlborough, or its districts, or within any other such principal settlement may be tried, and the sentences passed on such offenders executed, with all the powers, and subject to all the regulations of that act, and articles of war, 1 G. 3. c. 14. s. 1. [27 G. 2. c. 9. s. 13., and 1 G. 3. c. 14. s. 2., which are in pari materia with 13 G. 3. c. 63. s. 39., are on that account placed ante, pl. 157.]

608. FOR RECRUITING THE MILITARY FORCES OF THE E. I. Co., 21 G. 3. c. 65. s. 17. [Altered in part, 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 128.]

609. The Co. shall pay to H. M. in the E. I. 2 lacks of current rupees per annum, for each regiment of 1000 men, to be sent by H. M. to the E. I. on the Co.'s requisition, above the extraordinaries now borne by them, such payment being computed from the time of embarkation of such forces, and shall be paid until the return of the said regiments to G. B., or for so long as the Co. is possessed of the territorial revenues in Bengul, Bahar, and Orissa, which payment shall be thus made; viz. The subsistence of such forces there shall be paid to the orders of the officers commanding each regiment, [and the remainder of such allowances according to the regulations settled between the paymaster-general, secretary at war, and directors; quære, see next placitum], id. ibid.

610. All sums issued by the paymaster general of H. M.'s forces on account of such forces serving in India, or for raising recruits for the same, shall be repaid by the Co., and the actual expences only of their support and maintenance shall be borne by the Co., notwithstanding 21 G. 3. c. 65. s. 17., 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 128.

611. FOR REMOVING DOUBTS RESPECTING THE POWERS OF THE board of control under 24 G. 3. s. 2. c. 25. s. 6. to direct that the expence of raising, transporting and maintaining such troops as shall be necessary for security of the British possessions in E. I. should be defrayed out of the revenues arising therefrom, and for limiting their application, 28 G. 3. c. 8. title and s. 1. [Am. 31 G. 3. c. 10., BOTH ACTS CONF. 33 G. 3. c. 52. s. 129.]

612. Such direction shall not be made for payment of more of H. M.'s forces than 8045 men, including officers, [increased to 30,000, 53 G. 3. c. 155. s. 87. ante, pl. 544.] or of more of the European forces of the E. I. Co. than 12,200 men, including officers, 28 G. 3. c. 8. s. 1. 2. [2682 additional men sent to India before 25th March, 1792, to be paid as above, 31 G. 3. c. 10. s. 1.]

613. FOR BETTER RECRUITING THE FORCES OF THE E. I. Co., 21 G. 3. c. 65. s. 32. [Am. 39 G. 3. c. 109., (Public clause, s. 29.) 50 G. 3. c. 87., 52 G. 3. c. 129., and see 27 G. 2. c. 9., 1 G. 3. c. 14. ante, pl. 157.]

614. The Co. may, by licence from H. M. for that purpose, enlist such number of his subjects, and of such ages, and for such time as shall be therein expressed to serve them as soldiers in the E. I., and may keep such men, not exceeding 2000 in war and 1000 in peace [see 39 G. 3. c. 109. s. 8. pl. 622.], at any place in H. M.'s European dominions, approved by H. M. till they can be sent to India; and in case any person so enlisting, after signing an agreement for service, and declaring before a magistrate 24 hours at least from his first enlistment, that he freely signed the same, and is willing to serve the Co. as a soldier in the E. I., shall desert from the place of residence appointed for him till his embarkation, or shall refuse to perform such agreement, he may be apprehended and taken before a magistrate, who shall, on proof of the case, commit him to goal for safe custody and maintenance as the Co.'s expense till sent to India, and he may be conveyed on board for that purpose in custody, 21 G. 3. c. 65. s. 32.

615. H. M. may order any of his officers to send such number of men as from time to time he shall think fit for the special purpose of serving in the E.I., either in H.M.'s troops, or in the Co's forces, and the recruits so specially raised, instead of the usual oath of fidelity, shall swear faithfully to serve and obey H.M. and his officers, and the company and their officers if appointed to serve the latter, 39 G.3. c.109. s.1. [The form of oath prescribed by this section is repealed, and another substituted by 50 G.3. c.87. s.1.]

616. On such recruits being carried before a justice in pursuance of the mutiny act, he shall administer such oath, and the same, if taken by them, shall be so expressed in the justice's certificate given under that act, id. s.2.

617. H.M., on petition of the court of directors, may cause any number of such soldiers so raised as above to be transferred to their service by delivery of them by H.M.'s commander, at a place appointed by H.M. to the person appointed by the Co. to receive them, id. s.3.

618. The Co. shall not be obliged to receive into their service any recruit or soldier being an invalid, or afflicted with bodily infirmity, id. s.4.

619. The Co. shall pay to the person appointed for that purpose by the treasury, such sums of money as shall from time to time be agreed on between one of H.M.'s principal secretaries of state and the court of directors, to reimburse the expence of raising such soldiers as shall be so transferred into their service as above, as well as the expence of their subsistence from their enlistment to their delivery to the Co., id. s.5.

620. The Co. may pay, maintain and exercise in the use of arms the men engaged in their service under 21 G.3. c.65. s.32. or transferred as above in any of H.M.'s garrisons, or at any other place in G.B., Guernsey or Jersey, approved by H.M., and may draft abroad noncommissioned officers and soldiers from them id. s.6.

621. The court of directors, with H.M.'s approbation, signified by hand-writing of a principal secretary of state, may appoint from amongst the Co's officers in Eng. on furlough or leave of absence from India, or who have retired from the Co's service, and hold commissions from H.M. as well as the Co. one commanding officer and other commissioned officers necessary for training the men till they are sent abroad; and they may appoint from the latter the necessary sergeants, corporals, drummers and fliers, id. s.7.

622. The Co. shall not enlist, have in pay or train at any one time by virtue of this act any more than 2000 noncommissioned officers and privates, nor shall the court of directors appoint a larger number of commissioned officers than that force requires, nor shall the latter continue in such command longer than they hold a commission from H.M., and no greater number than 3000 men so specially enlisted as above, and not transferred by H.M. to the service of the Co. shall be maintained at one time in this realm; nor a greater number maintained than are specially included by the mutiny act, id. s.8.

623. The Co., with H.M.'s approbation signified (as in s.7.) may appoint the quarter and paymasters, and other persons necessary for training and taking care of the men so enlisted and transferred, above the number of commissioned officers in ss.7—8., whether the former are in their service or not, id. s.9.

624. The Co. shall not allow greater pay to the commissioned, non-commissioned and staff-officers appointed to raise, receive and train the said men than 10s. per day to each captain, 5s. per day to each subaltern above their pay during their being in this country on furlough, leave or retirement; nor than 5s. per day to each quarter-master, 120l. per ann. to each paymaster, 2s. per day to each serjeant, 1s. 6d. to each corporal, 7s. per day to each surgeon, and 100l. per ann. to one chaplain, to be the full allowance to such officers, except regimental pay and barrack allowances usually given to officers in H.M.'s service, id. s.10.

625. Such pay shall be in full of all emoluments; and the clothing and all other necessities for the men, or for the place of keeping the latter, shall be provided by the Co. as appears best to the court of directors, id. s.11.

626. In case the men so enlisted or transferred into the Co's service shall be kept at any of H.M.'s garrisons or barracks, they and the commissioned and non-commissioned officers commanding or employed in training them, shall be subject to the orders of the officer commanding such garrison or barracks, and shall partake in the duties to be performed therein, id. s.12.

627. All orders by the Co. or their court of directors to their officers so stationed (as in s.12.) shall be given through such commanding officer, id. s.13.

628. If any person enlisted under 21 G.3. c.65. s.32. or transferred into the Co's service under s.3. pl. 617., shall afterwards desert, or be found wandering, or otherwise illegally absenting himself from the Co's service, any constable, headborough or tythingman of the place where such suspected deserter is found may apprehend him; and every constable, &c. justice, magistrate and gaoler shall proceed and confine him as in cases of deserters from H.M.'s service, which gaoler shall receive his full subsistence while he remains in his custody, id. s.14.

629. Nothing herein shall entitle any person to any other reward for apprehending deserters from the E.I.C.'s service than is voluntarily offered by the latter, 39 G.3. c.109. s.15.

630. All officers and soldiers raised by virtue hereof shall, till embarkation, be subject to the mutiny-act then in force in G.B., and after their embarkation for the places whither they are sent in the Co's service, shall be adjudged to be in the actual service of the Co. within 27 G.2. c.9. [E.I. mutiny-act.] and be subject to all the regulations of that act, and of the Co's settlement to which they are sent, id. s.16. and see 50 G.3. c.87. s.2. pl. 44.

631. H.M. may from time to time grant a commission for holding general courts martial, for the trial of offences by officers or soldiers in the E.I.C.'s service, during the time of their employ, training, and exercising under this act; which courts martial may either consist of officers appointed to train such men, or of such other officers in the Co's service, holding commissions from H.M., as may be in G.B. on furlough, or by leave of absence, or officers in H.M.'s service in G.B., in such proportions as H.M. shall think fit, with the powers of court martials respecting H.M.'s forces, id. s.18.

632. Regimental courts martial, or courts martial composed of officers of different corps, with powers of the former, may be convened for enquiring into any disputes or criminal matters, touching any non-commissioned officers or soldiers in the Co's service, whilst so employed and trained as aforesaid, and for awarding corporal or other punishments for small offences, with powers as in s.13., id. s.19.

633. Every such officer or soldier, at his arrival at his destination abroad, may be tried and punished under 27 G.2. c.9. for every offence committed after his embarkation, and before his arrival, id. s.20.

634. The court of directors shall, twice a year, make out a report of the number of men levied and subsisted, and of all the orders and proceedings issued and had under this act, and shall transmit one copy thereof to a principal secretary of state, and another to the commander in chief of the forces, id. s.21.

635. TO AMEND 39 G.3. c.109. and 27 G.3. c.9., 50 G.3. c.87. [AMD. 52 G.3. c.122. EXT. to Ire. 52 G.3. c.122.]

636. H.M. may order and cause any of his officers to raise such a number of men, either for life or limited service as, from time to time, he shall think fit, not exceeding the 3000 men, in 39 G.3. c.109. (s.8. pl. 622.) for the special purpose of serving in the E.I. Co's forces only, who instead of taking the oath of fidelity appointed by 39 G.3. c.109. &c. shall take that in sched. (A.) and instead of the oath of service prescribed in the mutiny act, that in sched. (B.) of this act; which oaths shall be administered by all justices, &c. attesting such recruits, and the certificate given thereon shall be drawn as in sched. (C.) 50 G.3. c.87. s.1.

637. All soldiers enlisted into the service of the Co. shall be trained and disciplined and subject to such command and regulations, and shall at all times and until embarkation, be subject to all the provisions of any mutiny act, and after their embarkation to those of 27 G.2. c.9. as prescribed by 39 G.3. c.109. (see s.16. pl. 630.) all the powers of which are extended to the soldiers enlisted under this act, id. s.2.

638. The provisions, regulations, and penalties in any act in force for the time being, relating to the quartering, billeting, and provisioning of, and allowances in respect of such quartering, &c. of soldiers and officers in H.M.'s service, and so providing carriages for the latter, shall extend to all soldiers enlisted for or transferred into the Co's service, id. s.3. altering 39 G.3. c.109. s.17.

639. Any person enlisting for limited service in the Co's service may enlist for 12 years, if he be 18 years of age at the time of enlistment, and if under 18 years of age, then for a further period beyond 12 years, equal to the difference between his age and 18 years, id. s.4.

640. All persons, on expiration of their term of service, may re-enlist for a further period appointed by any order of the gov. gen. in council in Bengal, id. s.5.

641. Any local militiaman may enter into the Co's service, in such time and manner as into H.M.'s forces, id. s.6.

642. All courts martial for trial of offences by the Co's troops, shall take and administer such oaths, and try offences in such manner as H.M. shall from time to time direct, id. s.7.

643. The three governments of Fort William, St. George, and Bombay, shall be taken to have authority to make such laws, regulations, and articles of war, as they think fit for the discipline of all native Indian soldiers in their services, and for the administration of justice by courts martial on them, which shall be made and promulgated in like manner as other regulations affecting the rights of natives or other persons amenable to the provincial courts are directed to be made by 37 G.3. c.142. s.8. 55 G.3. c.155. s.96.

644. All former laws, regulations, and articles of war made by any of the said governments, and all established usages respecting native troops, their discipline, and courts martial are confirmed, id. s.97.

645. TO REGULATE THE APPROPRIATION OF THE UNCLAIMED SHARES of prize-money belonging to soldiers or seamen in the E.I. Co.'s service, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 61. [For the provisions of this act see Index, E.I.C. tit. PRIZE.]

V. Shipping and Seamen.

646. FORMORE EFFECTUALLY SECURING A QUANTITY OF OAKTIMBER for use of the Royal Navy, 12 G. 3. c. 54. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 6.

647. After 18th March, 1772, the E.I.C., or any person employed by the said Co. or any of their directors, or any of them, shall not build, or begin to build, or cause any person to build, &c. any new ship, (except those now building) for the service of the said Co. until the tonnage of all the ships employed in their trade on freight to and from the E.I. shall be reduced to 45,000 tons builders' measurement, on pain that the said Co. and every other person so offending, shall for every ship forfeit 5000*l.* one moiety to H.M. and the other with costs for the use of such person who shall sue by action of debt or information in any court of record at Westminster, in which action no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 1.

648. Until the tonnage is reduced to 45,000 tons, builders' measurement, the said Co. &c. shall not in any manner soever, charter, contract for, or hire any ship for their use, unless the same has been built or begun to be built before 18th March, 1772, on pain that they and every other such offender shall, for every ship chartered, &c. forfeit 5000*l.*, one moiety to H.M., and the other with costs to the person who shall sue, as in s. 1. id. s. 2.

649. Nothing herein shall prohibit the said Co. from building, contracting for, or hiring, during the continuance of this act, any ships in India or in America, or from building, contracting for, or hiring within this kingdom any ships not exceeding 6 in number in the whole, nor in burthen 300 tons respectively to be employed as packets or advice boats in their service, and all such ships so built in India, or in H.M.'s colonies in America shall be deemed British built ships, id. s. 3. [on condition of registry, 55 G. 3. c. 116. s. 1.]

650. Where any person is sued for any penalty hereby imposed, it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff to declare that the defendant is indebted to him in 5000*l.* being forfeited by an act passed in 12 G. 3. (reciting the title,) id. s. 4.

651. Actions against persons for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 6 months, and laid in the county where the cause arises, and such persons may plead the general issue, and if upon trial a verdict shall pass for debt, he shall have treble costs, id. s. 5.

652. REGULATIONS AFFECTING H.M.'s SHIPS AND SEAMEN employed in E.I.C.'s service, 21 G. 3. c. 65. ss. 19, 23. & 25.

653. RESPECTING E.I.C.'s ships, id. s. 23.

654. After the close of the present war the Co. shall provide and supply all victualling for H.M.'s ships in India, and for the sick and hurt seamen at their own expence, id. s. 19.

655. The Co., so long as they remain in possession of the territorial acquisitions and revenues in the provinces of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, shall furnish at their own costs such naval and military stores as shall be necessary and required for the use of such of H.M.'s ships, as shall, at their request remain on service in the E.I. in the time of peace with the European powers, for which certificates shall be granted by the officers commanding such ships; and all certificates so granted for such stores, shall be sent to the court of directors, and shall be by them transmitted to the commissioners of treasury: and such certificates so transmitted, shall be sent to the commissioners of the navy and office of ordnance, who shall put the same in charge against the officers receiving such stores, id. s. 23.

656. The commissioners of the navy, of victualling, and of sick and wounded seamen, and office of ordnance, and the court of directors shall establish rules for providing stores, and paying the expences thereof; which shall be observed, as well by the servants of the Co. as by the officers of the navy; and the accounts of such supplies and expences shall be returned, examined, checked, and passed, as by the rules established; and if it appears on the examination of such accounts, that any monies or stores, received by any of H.M.'s officers, shall not be accounted for, the amount thereof shall be recovered from such officers, by ways agreeable to the usage of the navy, which money so recovered shall be paid to the Co., id. s. 24.

657. All rights now vested in the Co., not hereby expressly taken away, or varied, shall continue, id. s. 25.

658. All ships belonging to the Co. whether built or purchased by them, shall be deemed British ships within 13 C. 2. c. 18. id. s. 33. [and see 57 G. 3. c. 95. s. 2. ante, pl. 590.]

659. FOR BETTER MAINTENANCE AND CARE OF Lascars and other Asiatic seamen arriving in this kingdom, 54 G. 3. c. 134. ss. 2, 3. [see as to Asiatic seamen engaged in circuitous and intermediate voyages, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 65. s. 3. ante, pl. 475.]

660. No vessel having on board any Asiatic sailors, Lascars, or natives of any places within the said limits, shall clear out from any port or place in any country, island, &c. under government of E.I.C. or belonging to H.M. within the said limits, on any voyage to the U.K. or to any place beyond the said limits, or shall be admitted to entry in any port, &c. within U.K. until the owner or captain shall have first given security, by bond, to the person and in the sum and form appointed by the directors, and approved by the board of control, that all such Asiatic sailors, &c. shall be supplied with provisions, clothing, and other necessary accommodation, while absent from, and till carried back to the country from which they are brought, which reconveyance shall be made within a reasonable time specified in the bond, or ascertained by such regulation, and every such bond executed by either the captain or any owner, shall be taken to be the joint and several bond of all the owners, and may be stated as such, and shall bind each of them jointly and severally, as if duly executed by all, 54 G. 3. c. 134. s. 2.

661. If any Asiatic sailors, &c. (as in s. 2.) having been brought to the U.K. on board any vessel not being a king's ship of war, shall be found within U.K. in distress, for want of food, clothing, &c. (as in s. 2.) the Co. may relieve and maintain them till sent on board some ship bound for some place within the said limits; and all sums paid for such relief or maintenance, shall constitute a debt due to the Co. from the owners of the ship on board which such person was brought into U.K. and shall be recoverable with costs of suit as money paid for the use of the former, in any courts of U.K. or in the E.I. (if the owners are resident there) which debts may be recovered by action, id. s. 3.

662. TO MAKE FURTHER REGULATIONS FOR THE REGISTRY of ships built in India, 55 G. 3. c. 116.

663. Any collector of duties to E.I.C. at any port, or any other person in their service of the rank of senior merchant, or of 6 years standing in the same, being appointed to act in execution of this act by any of the governments of the Co. in India in any ports where there is no collector of customs, may register and grant certificates of the registry of all vessels built in any places under the Co.'s government, or belonging, to such ports respectively, and by 26 G. 3. c. 60., 27 G. 3. c. 19. and 34 G. 3. c. 68. required to be registered; and shall do every thing in relation to such registry, certificates and transfers of property of such vessels, and all other British registered ships, by those statutes required to be done by any customs officers in G. B. and the governments of the E.I.C., and all governors of places belonging to H.M. within the limits of their charter shall do all things and make all orders in relation to registry of such vessels, to the ports at which registered, the transfer of property therein, and all other matters relating to such registry as the commissioners of customs are by those acts authorized to do; and their powers, and those of the revenue officers under those acts as to penalties or their application, and as to seizing any vessels forfeited for want of certificates of registry, shall be put in execution in relation to all vessels built within the above limits; which ships shall, when so registered, be taken to be British built ships lawfully registered and entitled to privileges of ships built in U. K. and registered as such, except as in ss. 4, 5, id. s. 1.

664. No vessel trading between India and the U.K., or within limits of the E.I.C.'s charter, shall be forfeit for want of registry until after 1st July, 1816, unless she shall after 1st Jan., 1816, and before 1st July, 1816 have returned to the port where she shall belong, and afterward departed from thence without due registry, id. s. 2.

665. Nothing in this or any other act shall subject any vessel built within the limits of the Co.'s charter, and not being of 350 tons burthen, nor any vessel built within those limits, and now the property of any H.M.'s subjects within the same, and employed in trade solely within the same, including the Cape of Good Hope, or any vessel building before 1st Jan., 1816 solely for the latter trade, to forfeiture for want of registry, and not being British built, or affect the property or any transfer thereof in any such vessel, id. s. 3.

666. No vessels India built (as in s. 1.), and registered under this act as British built, and owned by subjects of H. M. and navigated according to law, shall be entitled to the privileges of British built ships owned, registered and navigated according to law, in any voyages or trade beyond the limits of the Co.'s charter, except those specified in 53 G. 3. c. 155. and 54 G. 3. c. 34. id. s. 4.

667. Nothing in this act shall affect the privileges of any vessel already registered as British built, or affect the right of any vessel now built or building to registry as British built, id. s. 5.

668. No Asiatic sailors, Lascars or natives of places within the limits of the E. I. C.'s charter, shall be deemed British sailors within 34 G. 3. c. 68. nor any other act of navigation for the purpose of entitling any vessel to be deemed a British ship legally navigated, with the privileges of British ships, having the master and 3-4ths of the mariners British subjects; Provided that H.M. by proclamation on commencement of hostilities may permit all trading vessels and privateers to be manned wholly or in specified proportions with such Asiatic sailors, id. s. 6.

669. Every vessel duly registered, and carrying on trade to and from India and the U.K. as aforesaid, and manned in part with Lascars, or natives of India commanded by a British master, navigated by 7

British seamen as part of the crew for every 100 tons, and so in proportion for less, shall be deemed navigated according to law, although such number be not equal to  $\frac{3}{4}$ th of the whole crew of the vessel, 58 G. 3. c. 116. s. 7. [reciting the inferior strength of Asiatic seamen, which would oblige ships either to carry more British seamen or fewer Asiatics, if  $\frac{3}{4}$ th were to be British.]

670. Any of the E.I.C. governors in India, or any governor of any place belonging to H. M. within the limits aforesaid, on application by the owner or commander of any vessel, and after ascertaining that a sufficient number of British seamen cannot be procured for the crew of any vessel sailing from India, may, within 10 days, certify the same, and license her to sail with less proportion of British seamen than required by law; and such ship having such licence aboard, shall be deemed legally navigated notwithstanding such deficiency; but on her voyage back from U. K. shall have full 7 British seamen to every 100 tons, id. s. 8.

671. Nothing in this or any other act shall extend to require any number of British seamen to be on board as part of the crew of any vessel employed in trade only between ports and places within the limits of the Co.'s charter including Cape of Good Hope, or to prevent the same while so employed being navigated wholly or in any proportion as to Asiatic or other Indian sailors, id. s. 9.

672. TO AUTHORISE THE COURT OF DIRECTORS OF THE E.I.C. to make extraordinary allowances in certain cases therein mentioned to the owners of certain ships in their service named in s. 1., 57 G. 3. c. 120. [A like provision, id. s. 16. These enactments are not given at length, as being personal in their nature.]

673. TO AMEND AND REDUCE INTO ONE ACT THE SEVERAL LAWS relating to the manner in which the E.I. Co. are required to hire ships, 58 G. 3. c. 83.

674. The 39 G. 3. c. 89., 50 G. 3. c. 86., and 51 G. 3. c. 75. s. 6. relating to the hiring of ships, are hereby repealed; but the repeal shall in no wise affect any contract made under the said acts, but the same shall be carried into execution, id. s. 1.

675. After the passing of this act, the Co. shall not hire on freight any ship or ships, other than such as are contracted for thus; viz. whenever the Co. has occasion to contract for the hire of any ships to be built for their service, the court of directors shall give notice thereof by public advertisement, and therein state the burthen, the dimensions or scantlings of timbers and planks, number of guns, manner of building, providing, furnishing and storing such ships, the time to be allowed for building (which shall be as long as reasonably may be), and other particulars necessary to enable persons to judge of the expence, and proper rate of freight for such ships, or shall refer to printed terms to be delivered by their proper officer; and such advertisement shall fix a time, not less than four weeks from the publication thereof, for receiving proposals in writing, sealed up, for building and freighting the same to the company, such proposals to specify the lowest rates of freight for each voyage in time of peace required for such ships, for such number of voyages, not less than six, as the said court shall see fit from time to time to fix, to and from India or China, or elsewhere, within the limits of the charter, to be employed in trade and warfare, or otherwise, as thought proper by the Co., if the said ships shall so long be fit for service; and all tenders or proposals shall be put into a box, locked and sealed, which shall not be opened except publicly in a court of directors, and the contents thereof shall be entered in a book, and those offering the lowest peace freight shall be accepted without favour, subject to the provisions of this act; and if more ships than shall be wanted at the time of considering such proposals, are tendered to be built at the same low freight, then the court shall determine by lot which proposals shall be accepted, and they shall be accepted accordingly, subject to the provisions in this act, id. s. 2.

676. The court of directors may advertise for proposals for any such ships which have performed the contracts by which they were built, again to be tendered for the service; and may again take up any such ships for an additional voyage, or such number of additional voyages, to and from India or China, or elsewhere, as the said court shall see fit, after performance of the voyages for which such ships have been engaged by any prior contract; provided that all such ships shall be capable of being repaired and made fit to serve for such additional voyage or voyages; but the peace freight and additional allowance to be paid for any such ships to be taken up for any additional voyage or voyages shall not exceed the rate of peace freight under the last contract, together with such additional allowance as she might eventually be entitled to under this act, in respect of any voyage for which she might be afloat to proceed upon in time of peace, id. s. 3.

677. Besides the peace freight, the court of directors shall be at liberty to make such allowances to the owners, in respect of additional charges arising in time of war, or preparations for war, as the court shall think right, id. s. 4.

678. The court shall cause to be prepared, once in every year, by the master attendant, or other proper officer, tables of the average current prices for the building and outfit of ships, and tables of the probable costs of such building and outfit, distinguishing the probable expence of each voyage of ships of the different sizes engaged, which tables, when signed by the master attendant, or other proper officer, and when approved by the court of directors, shall be fairly transcribed and signed by the secretary or assistant secretary of the Co. by order of the court, and shall be left or hung up in some public office in the E.I. house, for the perusal of all persons, with liberty for them to take copies thereof; and such tables shall be made from time to time between 1st June and 1st Oct. in every year, 58 G. 3. c. 83. s. 5.

679. After the conclusion of any war, when any ship shall come afloat, to proceed on any voyage in execution of any such contract in time of peace, then the court shall cause, as to all ships now in the service, the tables first to be allowed as before mentioned; and as to all ships which hereafter shall be contracted for in time of peace, the tables allowed before such ships have been contracted for; and as to all ships which hereafter shall be contracted for in time of war, or preparations for war, the tables allowed next before the commencement of war, or such preparations for war, to be compared with the tables next before such ships shall come afloat in time of peace to proceed on such voyage; and if it appears on such comparison that the probable cost of the outfit exceeds the amount estimated by the tables by one-tenth part of such amount, then the owners shall be entitled, for that voyage, to an additional allowance upon the chartered tonnage equal to such probable excess, to be determined finally by order of the court; but if on such comparison the probable cost of outfit shall be found to fall below the amount estimated by the tables by one-tenth, then the court shall be at liberty to make an abatement from the freight at a rate which, calculated upon the chartered tonnage, shall be equal to such diminution of cost of outfit, to be in like manner determined finally by the court; but the owners of ships already in the service of the Co., under contracts made since 20th Nov. 1815, shall not be entitled to any such additional allowance, nor subject to any such abatement, until after a war has taken place and been concluded; also the owners of ships hereafter to be contracted for in time of peace shall not be entitled to any such allowance, nor subject to any such abatement, in respect of any voyage to be performed during the peace; also owners of ships hereafter to be contracted for in time of war shall be entitled to a comparison of the costs of outfits, and to any additional allowance for every voyage which they shall come afloat to proceed upon in time of peace; provided that no additional allowance shall be payable in time of peace to the owners for any voyage, in respect of which they shall be entitled, under this or any former act, to any payment in respect of additional charges arising in time of war, or preparations for war or hostilities; also any time when owners shall not be so entitled shall be deemed a time of peace within this act; also the additional charges (if any) incurred by reason of any ship being built during a time of war, or preparations for war, shall be paid to the owners, although she may come afloat to proceed on her first voyage in time of peace, id. s. 6.

680. In cases of unforeseen exigency the court of directors, or any one of their governments abroad, may hire any ship or ships which can be procured to answer such exigency; provided that public notice shall be given by advertisement 14 days previous to the taking up the same; and the proposals to be made shall be put into a box, locked and sealed, which shall not be opened except publicly in a court of directors, or by the governor and council or chief agents of the company; and then the lowest tender shall be accepted, without favour, if reasonable, and if on survey the ships tendered appear fit for the service required; but their employment shall not extend beyond the duration of the particular service, id. s. 7.

681. The court or their said governments, in cases of unforeseen and pressing exigency may take up by private contract, with or without advertising, any ships soever for any particular purpose, provided that no such ship shall be taken up for more than one voyage, and the reasons be stated in the minutes of the court, and reported to the court of proprietors next after such taking up; and the reasons for taking up any such ships abroad be stated in the minutes of the proceedings of the government, and communicated to the court of directors as soon as conveniently may be, id. s. 8.

782. The court of directors may take up by private contract, without advertising, any ships engaged in H. M.'s transport or other service, to carry convicts or stores to New South Wales, the Cape of Good Hope, or Ceylon, or elsewhere within the limits of the charter of the company, for the purpose of bringing cargoes from China or India, at such rate of freight and demurrage as they shall judge reasonable, so as no such ship shall be taken up for more than one voyage, id. s. 9.

683. The court of directors may advertise for and take up for trade and warfare, and any other service, or for trade only, or any specific service, any ships, whether built expressly for the service of the Co. or any other service, and whether new ships or ships before employed, so as the registered measurement is not more than 800 tons for one voyage, or for a voyage out, or a voyage home, as the court shall think proper, to and from any port or place, except China, 58 G.3. c.83. s.10.

684. Nothing in this act shall authorize the employment of any vessel, the registered measurement of which shall be under that prescribed by 53 G.3. c.155. or by any act hereafter to be passed, for vessels carrying on trade between the U.K. and places within the limits of the Co.'s charter, id. s.11.

685. In case any ship engaged in the service of the Co. under a contract for 6 voyages, hath been or shall be lost or captured before completion of her 5th voyage; if, on investigation, the commander and owners are acquitted from all imputation of neglect or misconduct, in the opinion of 18 directors at a court specially assembled, (so that such resolution be reported to a general court of proprietors, and confirmed by ballot by 3 parts in 4 of the proprietors assembled in court specially convened for that purpose, whereof 8 days' previous notice shall be given in the London Gazette.) then, if such commander shall be then living, or if dead, then if the chief officer shall be living (having already performed one voyage at least as chief or second officer), and should have exerted himself honourably for the defence and safety of the lost ship, either in fight or distress at sea, and shall be acquitted as above, the court of directors may enter into an agreement with the owners, or their representatives; or if the latter should omit or decline for 3 calendar months after the vote of acquittal to enter into such agreement, then the court may enter into an agreement with any persons of sufficient responsibility, who shall be nominated in writing under the hand of the commander of such lost ship, if living and able to serve, and if not, then with any person of sufficient responsibility, and able to give security, who shall be nominated in writing under the hand of the chief officer, if living and able to serve, to build another ship of such size as the Co. shall have occasion for, to be employed by them for 6 or more voyages, at the lowest rate of peace freight, with such other allowances as are permitted by this act to be paid, which shall be payable in respect of the ship of a similar size, or as near as may be of a similar size, to the ship about to be built, which shall have been contracted for, for 6 voyages at least, last before the contract for the ship instead of such lost ship shall be entered into: Provided that such ship so to be built instead of such lost ship shall be commanded in the first instance by the captain of the lost ship, if living and able to serve, and failing him, by the chief officer living and able to serve; and unless the commander or chief officer shall be living and able to serve when the contract shall be entered into, it shall not be lawful for the Co. to enter into any agreement for building a ship instead of such lost ship, otherwise than by public competition as before mentioned, id. s.12.

686. Nothing herein shall oblige the court of directors, or any of the governments abroad, to accept any tenders which they deem unreasonable, and for performance of which reasonable security shall not be given; or to enter into any agreement therein, although such tenders may be the lowest; nor shall this act vest in the owners of any ships, or persons offering any tenders, any right which they would not have had, if this act had not passed, id. s.13.

687. Nothing herein shall extend to any of the ships belonging to the marine war establishment of the Co.; but the Co. and their servants abroad may hire vessels for those purposes only, as they shall see fit; nor shall this act prevent the Co. or any of their officers or servants, from causing goods to be carried on their account on board any private ship or vessel, though not in the service of the Co. id. s.14.

688. All the bye-laws, rules, and regulations of the Co. and court of directors now in force and hereafter to be made, not repugnant to the provisions hereby enacted, shall remain of force and effect, id. s.15.

ELECTIONS (ECCLESIASTICAL).

(STATUTE repealed.)

TO AUTHORIZE H. M. TO MAKE BISHOPS BY HIS LETTERS PATENT, 31 H.8. c.9. [REP. 1 & 2 P.&M. c.8. s.18. semble not REV. 8 EL. c.1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. NO GREAT MAN, NOR OTHER, SHALL BY FORCE OF ARMS, OR threats, disturb any free election to be made, on pain of great forfeiture, 7 E. 11 c.5. (West. Prim.)

2. IF ANY DIGNITY BE VACANT WHERE ELECTION IS TO BE MADE, the latter shall be freely made according to the statutes. 9 E.2. c.14. Art. Cler.

3. ELECTIONS OF ARCHBISHOPS, BISHOPS, DEANERIES, &c. shall be free, saving to H. M. his prerogatives, 9 H.4. c.9. [see as to bishops, 25 H.8. c.20. tit. Bishop, pl.21—24.]

4. AGAINST ABUSES IN THE ELECTION OF SCHOLARS, AND presentation to benefices, 31 EL. c.6. and recited in s.1.

5. If any person, bodies politic or corporate, which have election, presentation or nomination, or voice or assent in the election, &c. of any fellow, scholar, or other person to have room or place in any cathedral or collegiate churches, colleges, schools, hospitals, halls, or societies, shall receive or take any money, fee, or other reward, or any promise, agreement, covenant, bond, or other assurance, to receive any money, &c. either to themselves, or their friends, for their voices in such election, &c. the place or office which such offender shall then have in any such church, &c. shall be void, and may be filled up by H. M., or the person to whom the presentation, donation, gift, election, or disposition thereof belongs, as if such offender were dead, 31 EL. c.6. s.2.

6. If any fellow, officer, or scholar, of any such church, college, &c. or other person having place therein, shall receive, contract, or agree to receive any money or profit for resigning his place for another to be put in the same, he shall forfeit double the value of money, or thing taken or agreed to be taken, and every person by or for whom any money, &c. shall be given, or agreed to be paid, shall be incapable of such place for that turn, and shall not be taken to be a lawful fellow, &c. of any such churches, &c. or to have place there, and they to whom it appertains may elect, present, and nominate another, as if such person by or for whom such money, &c. was received or agreed to be, was dead or had resigned, id. s.3.

7. At the time of such election, (as in pl. 5.) this act, and the orders and statutes of the same place concerning such election, &c. shall be publicly read, on pain, in case of default to forfeit 40l.; all which forfeitures may be recovered in any court of record by any person that will sue for the same, by action of debt, wherein no essoin, &c. the one moiety to the informer, and the other to the use of the college, &c. where the offence was committed, id. s.4.

8. And to avoid simony, if any persons, bodies politic or corporate, shall for money, reward, gift, or profit, or for any promise, agreement, grant, bond, covenant, or other assurance of or for any money, &c. present, or collate any person to any benefice with cure of souls, dignity, prebend, or living ecclesiastical, or bestow the same for such corrupt consideration, such presentation, collation, gift, and bestowing, and every admission, institution, investiture, and induction thereof shall be void, and H. M. may present or collate unto or bestow such benefice, dignity, &c. for that turn only, and every person or body, giving or taking such money, &c. or taking or making such promise, &c. shall forfeit double the annual value of such benefice, &c. and the person corruptly taking, &c. such benefice, shall be incapable to enjoy the same, id. s.5.

9. If any person shall, for any money or profit, (or other than the lawful fees,) or by reason of any promise, &c. of any money, &c. admit, institute, instal, induct, invest, or place any person to any benefice, with cure, dignity, prebend, or other living ecclesiastical, he shall forfeit double the annual value thereof; and after such investing, &c. such benefice, &c. shall be merely void, and the patron or person to whom the advowson, gift, presentation, or collation appertains, shall dispose of the same as if such party so installed, &c. were dead, id. s.6.

10. Provided no title to confer or present by lapse shall accrue upon any voidance under this act, but after 6 months notice thereof by the ordinary to the patron, id. s.7.

11. If the incumbent of any benefice, with cure of souls, shall corruptly resign or exchange the same, or corruptly take for such resignation or exchange any pension or benefit, then the giver and taker thereof shall lose double the value of the sum so given; one moiety thereof, as well as one moiety of such annual value shall go to H. M. and the other to him that will sue for same by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record, in which no essoin, &c. id. s.8.

12. This act shall not take away or restrain any punishment prescribed by the law ecclesiastical for such offences, id. s.9.

13. Every person who shall receive or take any money or profit, or any promise, agreement, &c. (as in pl. 5.) to take money, &c. either to himself or his friends (lawful fees excepted) to procure the ordaining of any minister, or the giving of any licence to preach, shall forfeit 40l., and the party so ordained 10l.; and if the party so ordained shall within 7 years afterwards accept any promotion ecclesiastical, then after induction, &c. the same shall be merely void; and the patron or person to whom the advowson, &c. (as in s.6.) belongs, shall present and collate, and dispose of the same, as if such party so inducted were dead; one moiety of all which forfeitures shall go to H. M. and the other to the party suing by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record, wherein no essoin, &c. id. s.10.

EMBEZZLEMENT.

1. TO PROTECT MASTERS AGAINST EMBEZZLEMENTS BY THEIR clerks or servants, 39 G.3. c.85. [See as to fre., 51 G.3. c.38.]

2. If any servant or clerk, or any person employed for the purpose in the capacity of servant or clerk to any person or body corporate or politic soever, shall, by virtue of such employment, receive or take into his possession any money, goods, bond, bill, note, banker's draft, or other valuable security or effects for, or in the name, or on the account of his master or employer, for whose use, or in whose name, or for whose account the same was delivered to, or taken into possession of such servant, &c. although such money, &c. were no otherwise received into such his possession, and every such offender, his procurer, aider, or abettor, being convicted or attainted thereof, shall be liable to transportation to such place beyond the seas, as H.M., by advice of privy council, shall appoint, for not exceeding 14 years, in the discretion of the court before whom such offender shall be convicted or adjudged, 39 G. 3. c. 85. s. 1.

3. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING THE embezzlement of money or securities for money belonging to the public by any collector, receiver, or other person entrusted with the receipt, care, or management thereof, 50 G. 3. c. 59.

4. If any person to whom any money, or securities for money, shall be issued for public services, shall embezzle, or in any manner fraudulently apply the same to his own use or benefit, or for any purpose except for public services, then on conviction in any part of the U.K., he shall be adjudged guilty of misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced to transportation beyond sea, or to receive other legal punishment at discretion of the court, id. s. 1.

5. If any such officer, collector, or receiver so entrusted with the receipt, custody, or management of any part of the public revenues, shall knowingly furnish false statements of the sums of money collected by him, or entrusted to his care, he shall on conviction be adjudged guilty of misdemeanor, shall be punished by fine and imprisonment at discretion of the court, and shall be disabled from holding office under the crown, id. s. 2.

6. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING THE embezzlement of securities for money, and other effects left or deposited for safe custody, or other special purpose, in the hands of bankers, merchants, brokers, attorneys, or other agents, 52 G. 3. c. 63.

7. If any person with whom (as banker, merchant, broker, attorney, or agent of any description,) any ordnance debenture, exchequer, navy, victualling, transport, or other bill, warrant, or order for payment of money, state-lottery ticket or certificate, seaman's ticket, bank receipt for payment of any loan, India or other bond, or any deed, note, or other security for money, or for any share or interest in the national stocks of this or any other country, or in the stock or fund of any corporation, company, or society established by statute or royal charter, or any power of attorney for the sale or transfer of such stock, or fund, or share therein, or any plate, jewels, or other personal effects shall have been deposited or shall remain for safe custody, or other special purpose, without any authority, general, special, conditional, or discretionary, to sell or pledge the same, shall sell, negotiate, transfer, assign, pledge, embezzle, or in any manner apply to his or their own use or benefit, any such debenture, &c. (enumerating as above) in violation of good faith, and contrary to the special purpose for which the same were deposited, or remained with such person, with intent to defraud the owners, he shall, if offending within the U.K., be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be transported for not exceeding 14 years, or shall receive such other legal punishment as the court shall adjudge, id. s. 1.

8. Any banker, &c. (enumerating as in s. 1.) or other agent, in whose hands any sum of money, bill, note, draft, cheque, or order for payment of any sum of money is placed with any order in writing, and signed by the party so placing the same, to invest such sum of money, or the sum of money to which such bill, &c. shall relate in the purchase of any stock or fund, or on government or other securities, or in any other way or purpose specified in such order, who shall (within U.K.) apply to his own use and benefit any such sum of money or bill, &c. contrary to good faith, and to the special purpose specified in the above order in writing, with intent to defraud the owner of such money or order for payment thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished (as in s. 1.), id. s. 2.

9. Nothing herein shall prevent any persons hereinbefore mentioned from receiving any money actually due and payable on, or by virtue of any of the above instruments or securities herein before mentioned, id. s. 3.

10. The penalty by s. 1. annexed to the commission of any offence intended to be guarded against by it, shall not extend to any partner or other person belonging to any partnership, society, or firm, except only such partner or person as shall actually commit or be privy to the commission of such offence, id. s. 4.

11. Nothing herein, and no conviction or proceeding hereon, shall hinder or impeach any remedy at law, or in equity, which any party grieved, by any offence against this act, would have been entitled to, had it not been made, nor any proceeding had thereon; but nevertheless the conviction of any offender against this act shall not be received in evidence in any action at law, or suit in equity against him; and no person shall be liable to conviction under this act, if (previous to his indictment) he shall have disclosed such matter on oath, under any compulsory process of any court of law or equity in any action, suit, or proceeding in, or to which he has been a party, and bona fide instituted by the party grieved by the act committed by such offender, 52 G. 3. c. 63. s. 5.

12. Nothing herein shall extend to or affect trustees under a marriage settlement, will, deed, or other instrument, or mortgages of any property soever, whether real or personal, in respect of any acts done by them in relation to the trust or mortgaged property, id. s. 6.

13. Every person who shall commit in Scot. any offence against this act thereby made a misdemeanor, shall be punished by fine and imprisonment, or either of them, or by transportation, for not exceeding 14 years, at discretion of the court which shall convict, id. s. 7.

14. Nothing herein shall restrain any banker, &c. (enumerated as in s. 1.) from selling, negotiating, transferring, or otherwise disposing of any securities, property, or other effects in his custody, on which he has any lien or demand by law entitling him to dispose thereof, unless such sale, transfer, or other disposal shall extend, to a greater number or part of such securities, property, or other effects than is necessary to satisfy such lien or demand, id. s. 8.

EMIGRATION.

(STATUTES repealed.)

1. AT DOVER AND OTHER PASSAGES men shall pay no more for their fare than they had wont to do, 4 E. 3. c. 8. [Rep. 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 1.]

2. PILGRIMS SHALL PASS AT DOVER ONLY, 9 E. 3. st. 2. c. 8. [Rep. 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 9.]

3. AT WHAT PORTS PERSONS going beyond sea, shall embark, 15 R. 2. st. 1. c. 20. [Rep. 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 9.]

4. FOR COMPELLING PERSONS to take passage and land at Dover in Kent, 4 E. 4. c. 10. [Rep. 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR SETTLING THE RATES FOR THE CARRIAGE OF PASSENGERS and goods for hire to and from the Isle of Wight, 21 G. 3. S. 1. c. 19. [This act will be found analyzed in the index.]

2. FOR REGULATING THE VESSELS CARRYING PASSENGERS from the U.K. to H.M.'s plantations and settlements abroad, or to foreign parts, with respect to the number of such passengers, 43 G. 3. c. 56. [Vessels carrying passengers to and from the fishery at Newfoundland, EXEMPTED 44 G. 3. c. 44. (but see 56 G. 3. c. 83. post, pl. 31.)] AMD. as to ascertaining the tonnage of foreign passage vessels. Vessels in the Hudson's Bay company's service are EXEMPTED under certain conditions, 53 G. 3. c. 56. pl. 27. British passage vessels put on the same footing as foreign vessels with respect to passengers to and from the United States, 56 G. 3. c. 114. Rep. as to so much (s. 4.) as requires the attendance of immigrants on board passage vessels, 58 G. 3. c. 89. AMD. as to s. 7. with respect to surgeons, 59 G. 3. c. 124. and Rep. as to the bonds in s. 10. required, 1 G. 4. c. 7. Passage vessels going to North America exempted from 43 G. 3. c. 56. by 57 G. 3. c. 10.]

3. No master or other person having the command of any British ship or vessel, which shall clear out from any port or place in U.K., shall have on board, at or after being cleared out, at any one time, or convey, carry, or transport, from any place in such kingdom to any parts beyond sea, a greater number of persons, whether adults or children, including the crew, than in the proportion of one person for every 2 tons of the burthen of such vessel; and every such vessel shall be deemed to be of such tonnage as is described in the certificate of its registry, granted in pursuance of the several acts in force relating to such certificates; and if any such vessel shall be partly laden with goods, then such master or other person shall not receive on board a greater number of persons, including the crew, than in the proportion of one person for every 2 tons of that part of such vessel remaining unladen; and such goods, &c. with which such vessel may be partly laden, shall, at the sight and under the direction of the collector or other officer of customs, at the port where such goods shall be taken on board, be stowed in such manner as to leave wholesome accommodation for the proportion of persons hereby allowed in such case to be received on board, 43 G. 3. c. 56. s. 1.

4. If any such master or other person shall take on board, or if he, or the owners of any such vessel, shall engage to take on board a greater number of persons than in the proportion allowed by this act, such master or other person shall forfeit 50*l.* for each person exceeding such proportion; and moreover every such vessel so having on board, conveying, &c. one or more persons beyond such proportion, shall be seized and detained by the collector, &c. or officer of the customs, until such penalty is paid, or until such master or other person, or the owners of such vessel, shall give good bail for the payment thereof, id. s. 2.

5. Every such vessel bound to any port or place in North America, shall be stored and furnished with at least 12 weeks provisions and wholesome water, sufficient to afford an allowance per day during the voyage, of not less than half a pound of meat, 1 pound and a half of bread, biscuit, or oatmeal, with half a pint of molasses, and 1 gallon of water, to each person on board, whether adult or child; and the master or other person having the command of such vessel, shall give out to each person on board at least the allowance herein directed each day of the voyage, under the pain of 20*l.* for each neglect; and any person demanding a clearance for any such vessel which shall not be so stored with provisions and water, shall forfeit 50*l.* for each person for whom there shall not be a quantity of provisions and water sufficient to afford such allowance, 43 G.3. c.56. s.3. [but see as to Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward's Island, 57 G.3. c.10. post, pl.43.]

6. Before receiving a clearance or sufferance for any such vessel, such master or other person shall deliver to the officer of the customs from whom such clearance, &c. is demanded, a muster roll, distinguishing the passengers from the crew, and specifying the names, age, and sex of the persons to be received on board, and the conditions upon which such persons severally are to be so received, and the places to which they have severally contracted to be conveyed; and every person delivering a false muster roll, shall forfeit 50*l.* for each person omitted, or falsely stated or described therein; and the collector, &c. of customs of the place at which any such vessel shall be cleared out, or in the absence of such collector, &c. the resident officer of the customs at the port, together with any justice of the peace or other magistrate, if such justice or magistrate can be found at such place, or within a convenient distance thereof, and such collector, or resident officer, [R*EF.* 58 G.3. c.89. pl.7.] shall muster the passengers and crew on board every such vessel immediately before sailing, and compare the persons found on board with the persons specified and described in such muster roll delivered by such master or other person, and search and inspect every such vessel; and if it appear that a false muster roll has been delivered, or if more persons be found on board than in the proportion in s.1. allowed, or if the vessel shall not be stored and provided with provisions and water sufficient to afford the allowance in s.1. directed, then such collector, &c. or the principal officer of the customs, may seize and detain such vessel, and such master or other person, until he or the owners find good bail for the penalties hereby imposed for exceeding the proportion of persons to be received on board, and for demanding a clearance for such vessel without being stored with provisions and water, as in s.1. directed, and for delivering a false muster roll; and no clearance shall be given by any officer of the customs, until such collector, &c. shall have mustered the persons on board, and searched and inspected the vessel, and provisions and water; and if, upon such inspection, the regulations of this act have been complied with, a copy of such muster roll so delivered shall be certified by such collector or principal officer of the customs, to be delivered to such master or other person, and shall be preserved by him on board such vessel; and the original muster roll delivered by such master, or other person, shall remain and be preserved at the custom-house where the clearance or sufferance is granted, id. s.4.

7. So much of 43 G.3. c.56. s.4. as requires the attendance of a justice of the peace, or other magistrate, to muster the passengers and crew on board of such vessels, or any other thing to be done by them in regard to such vessels and the passengers and crew on board, shall be R*EF.*, and the collector or other proper officer of customs may execute all things required by such act to be done by such justice, &c. 58 G.3. c.89.

8. If upon any such muster, or otherwise, any passenger, or person who has entered into any contract for such voyage (other than the crew) shall signify to such collector or other officer of the customs, that he is desirous of being relanded, or of not proceeding on any such voyage, such collector or other officer of the customs, shall take such person out of the vessel, and set him free from his engagement, reserving to either party any legal claim which may arise in consequence thereof, 43 G.3. c.56. s.5.

9. No passenger shall be received on board of any such vessel, unless at a port or place where a custom-house is established, or officers of customs stationed; and if any passengers be taken on board at any other port, the master or other person having the command of such vessel, shall forfeit 500*l.*; and such vessel shall be seized and detained by any officer of customs, until such penalty is paid, or such master or other person, or the owners of such vessel, shall find good bail for the same, id. s.6.

10. No such vessel carrying 50 persons or upwards, including the crew, shall be cleared out, unless provided with a surgeon, who shall produce to the officer of the customs required to give the clearance or sufferance, a certificate of his having passed his examination at surgeons hall, in London, or at the royal college of surgeons of Edinburgh or Dublin, [or before the medical faculty at Glasgow, 39 G.3. c.124.] 43 G.3. c.56. s.12., 59 G.3. c.124. s.1. See pl.30.

11. Such surgeon shall have a medicine chest properly stored with medicines, in proportion to the number of persons on board, of the kind and according to the assortment used for such voyages on board of H.M.'s ships of war; and before any such vessel is allowed to be cleared out, shall specify upon oath, before the collector or other chief officer of the customs, at the place from whence such vessel is to clear out, the contents of such medicine chest, and further make oath that the medicines are of good quality, to the best of his belief, which oath such collector, or other chief officer shall administer; and the affidavit of such surgeon shall be deposited and preserved in the custom-house where the clearance or sufferance of such vessel shall be granted, and the master or owner of every such vessel failing to provide a medicine chest of such description, and such surgeon neglecting to make such oath, shall forfeit 50*l.*, 43 G.3. c.56. s.8.

12. The bedding of every passenger on board any such vessel shall be aired by exposure upon deck, when the weather will permit, once a day during the voyage, and such ship shall be fumigated with vinegar at least twice a week during the voyage; and such master or other person, shall forfeit 20*l.* for each failure herein, id. s.9.

13. No clearance or sufferance shall be granted to any such vessel, unless such master or other person, as in s.1., and also the surgeon thereof, where a surgeon is hereby required, shall have given bond to H.M., such bond to be taken by and left with the collector or other principal officer of customs at the port whence such vessel shall clear out, in 100*l.*, with condition as therein mentioned, [but R*EF.* as to giving bond, 1 G.4. c.7. s.1.] viz. to keep a journal of the number of persons on board at one time, and of the provisions and water on board; of the daily allowance thereof; the airing of the bedding, and of the deaths of any of the passengers, and the cause thereof; and such master or other person, and such surgeon, shall deliver their journals to the collector or other officer at the first port of the U.K. where such vessel shall arrive after returning from such port of destination, and shall severally make oath to the truth thereof, before such collector or other officer, who shall administer such oath; and such collector or other officer shall deliver to such master or other person, and to such surgeon, copies of such oaths, and also of such journals, which copies shall be attested as true under the hand of such collector or other officer; and duplicates of such copies so attested, shall be transmitted by such collector or other officer to the commissioners of H.M.'s customs in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, according as such journal shall be delivered and such oath made, in Eng. Scot. or Ire.; and if such master or other person, or surgeon, shall act contrary hereto, they shall, for each such offence, severally forfeit 100*l.*, id. s.10. [See post, s.17. pl.22.]

14. No master or other person, having the command of any vessel, other than a British vessel, owned, navigated, and registered according to law, clearing out from any place in the U.K., shall have or take on board a greater number of persons, including the crew, than in the proportion of 1 person for every 5 tons of the burthen of such vessel; and every such vessel shall be deemed to be of such tonnage as shall be ascertained by the oath of such master or other person, taken before the collector or other chief officer of the customs, at the port whence such vessel is cleared out, which oath such collector or chief officer shall administer; and such collector or chief officer may muster the passengers and crew, and search and inspect every such vessel, and if more persons be found on board than in such proportion, such master or other person shall forfeit 50*l.* for every person so taken on board beyond such proportion, 1 moiety whereof shall go to H.M., and the other to such collector or other officer who shall seize and detain such vessel, until such penalties be paid, id. s.11.

15. If the collector or other chief officer of customs at the port of clearance shall have any doubt as to the tonnage of such vessel as sworn to by such master or other person, or is required by any person having such doubt, such collector, &c. may cause such vessel to be admeasured in the manner a British ship is for the purpose of registry, and such vessel shall be deemed to be of the tonnage thereby ascertained notwithstanding such oath, 53 G.3. c.36. s.1.

16. All the regulations and penalties in the 43 G.3. c.56. s.11., contained with respect to foreign vessels carrying passengers, and no other, shall be applied to British vessels carrying passengers from the U.K. to the United States of America, as fully as it here repeated, 56 G.3. c.114.

17. Nothing in this act shall extend to vessels in the service of H.M. or the postmaster-general, or of the customs and excise in G.B. and Ire. respectively, or of the E. I. Co., 43 G.3. c.56. s.12.

18. If, after any such vessel shall have been cleared out, any master or other person having the command thereof shall permit or suffer to be unshipped or relanded, any provisions or water, he shall forfeit 500*l.*, id. s.13.

19. If any passengers who may be desirous not to proceed on such voyage shall be relanded, or shall not proceed as before (s.5. pl.8.) directed, then such master or other person may unship or reland under the inspection of the officer of the customs at the place from whence such vessel cleared out, a quantity of provisions and water, not exceeding the proportion sufficient for the allowance of such passengers so relanded, 43 G. 3. c. 56. s. 14.

20. An abstract of this act shall be prepared by direction of the commissioners of customs in Eng., Scot., and Ire., and a copy thereof hung up in the custom-house of every port of the U. K., and another copy, and a copy of such muster roll, as in s. 4., affixed to the most public place of every vessel carrying passengers under this act; and the master or other person, as in s. 13. pl. 18., shall cause such copies to be renewed, so that they may be at all times accessible to every person on board, upon pain that every such master or other person, who shall neglect to affix or renew the same, shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 15.

21. All captains and officers commanding H.M.'s ships of war or revenue cutters, who shall meet any such vessels at sea, may call for such muster-roll as in s. 6. pl. 9. and search such vessel; and if any more or other persons shall be found on board than are specified in such roll, or if provisions shall not be found on board sufficient to afford to each person the daily allowances in s. 3. pl. 5. directed during the remainder of the voyage, unless it shall appear that such vessel has been detained on her passage, after leaving the place at which the passengers embarked, beyond the time for which the quantity of provisions hereby required are directed to be provided, or if such allowances shall not have been dealt out in the preceding part of the voyage as herein directed, may seize and detain such vessel, until good bail be given at the place to which such vessel may be carried by their order, who may put hands on board to take charge of her for that purpose; and if the state of such vessel and the provisions on board will permit, may send back such vessel to the port from whence she was cleared out, or otherwise carry her into such port as the state of the provisions on board, or the supply which such captains or officers can afford, will permit, id. s. 16.

22. No such vessel shall be cleared out, unless the owners, or the master or other person having the command thereof, shall have given bond to H.M., to be taken by and left in the hands of the collector, or other proper officer of the customs in the port from whence such vessel cleared out, in an amount equal to 20*l.* for each passenger on board such vessel, with condition that such vessel is sea-worthy, and that every such passenger, if alive, shall be landed at the port to which they have contracted to be conveyed, id. s. 17. [See ante, s. 10. pl. 15.]

23. If any officers of the customs shall knowingly sign or give out any clearance or sufferance for any such vessel, contrary to this act, he shall forfeit his employment and 50*l.*, id. s. 18.

24. All money, penalties, and forfeitures in this act mentioned, shall be calculated and paid within G. B., in lawful money of G. B., and within Ire. in Irish currency; and any penalty, &c. inflicted by this act may be sued for, and recovered by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court of record at Westminster or Dublin, or in the court of exchequer, or in the court of session in Scot., in the name of H.M.'s attorney-gen. for Eng. or Ire., or H.M.'s advocate for Scot., or in the name of any person whatsoever, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed; and in every action or suit, the person against whom judgment shall be given for any penalty under this act, shall pay double costs; and such action or suit may be brought at any time within 3 years after the offence committed, and one moiety of every such penalty shall go to H.M., and the other to such person as shall first sue for the same, after deducting the charges of prosecution for the whole, id. s. 19.

25. Every person taking any oath by this act authorized to be taken who shall thereby commit wilful perjury, or shall unlawfully procure or suborn any person to take any such oath, whereby such person shall commit wilful perjury, shall suffer the like pains as are by law inflicted upon persons committing wilful perjury, or subornation of perjury, in G. B. and Ire., id. s. 20.

26. Every action or suit for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 3 calendar months after the fact committed, and shall be brought in the county or place where the cause of action shall arise; and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it appear to be so done, or if any such action or suit is brought after the time limited, or in the wrong county, or place, the jury shall find for the defendant; and upon such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, or has a verdict or judgment upon demurrer against him, the defendant shall recover double costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 21.

27. The 43 G. 3. c. 56. shall not extend to any vessel in the Hudson's Bay Co.'s service, provided such vessel shall not carry more than 20 passengers, besides the crew; and if such vessel shall carry more, provided a licence shall be granted by H.M. in council, as herein directed, to carry more than 20, specifying the number and description of such passengers. But any such vessel may sail without such licence, subject in the provisions of 43 G. 3. c. 56.; 53 G. 3. c. 56. s. 2.

28. When it is intended that any such vessel shall carry a greater number than 20 passengers, that Co. shall lay before H.M. in council, a plan of the interior of such vessel, with a statement of the dimensions of that part of the vessel which is to be allotted to the passengers, and the manner in which it is fitted up, as also the number and description of passengers to be received on board; and thereupon a licence by H.M. in council shall be granted, to put on board and convey to the settlements of the Co. the number of passengers so described; provided that such passengers being full grown men, do not exceed the number of infantry usually conveyed by transports for a similar voyage, on board of a vessel having similar accommodation, or if not full grown men, are of such description, that the number may be equally well accommodated in the space required by such number of infantry; and on such licence granted, such number may be put on board such Co.'s vessels, without being subject to such act, 53 G. 3. c. 56. s. 3.

29. Nothing in this act shall extend to repeal, alter, or affect any law now in force in the U. K. for the restriction or regulation of artificers and others, going to parts beyond the seas, or to regulate vessels conveying them, or the masters or persons having the charge of such vessels, but all such laws, &c. shall remain in force as before this act, 43 G. 3. c. 56. s. 22.

30. The powers, provisions, penalties, &c. of 43 G. 3. c. 56. shall extend to this act, 59 G. 3. c. 124. s. 2.

31. FOR REGULATING THE CARRYING OF PASSENGERS to and from the island of Newfoundland, and the coast of Labrador, 56 G. 3. c. 87 [Rep. as to the bond hereby required, 1 G. 4. c. 7.]

32. Before the sailing of any vessel from any port or place in the U. K. to Newfoundland, or the coast of Labrador, with passengers, the master or other person commanding such vessel and the owner, shall give bond to H.M. Rep. 1 G. 4. c. 7. s. 1.] previous to leaving such port, deliver to the principal officer of customs there, a list of his passengers, with their names, ages, and descriptions, to be registered at such port, together with a copy of the same, which copy shall be certified by such officer to be a true one, and be delivered to such master or person, to be kept on board his vessel, and subject to the inspection of any of H.M.'s ships of war, or vessels in the service of the excise or customs during his voyage; and on the arrival of such ship at either of such places, such master or other person shall deliver such copy to the gov. or person acting for him, or the naval officer, or chief officer of the customs at the port of arrival, or to the nearest justice of peace, who shall examine the passengers within 24 hours afterwards, and no passenger shall be allowed to land until such list is compared with the passengers by the governor, or other person acting for him, or some person authorized by either of them, 56 G. 3. c. 83. s. 1.

33. Every such master or person who shall take or have on board his vessel, and every owner thereof who shall engage to take on board any more persons than the number allowed, shall forfeit 10*l.* for each person so taken or engaged to be taken, id. s. 2.

34. No ship or vessel from any place in the U. K. or from Guernsey and Jersey, shall carry to Newfoundland or the coast of Labrador, more passengers than in the proportion following, viz. any British ship, having a second deck, may take passengers at the rate of one for every unoccupied space of 6 feet by 2 feet, and being of the full height between the 2 decks; or having only one deck over her hold, may take passengers at the rate of one for every space between the cargo stowed in the hold and the deck, being 6 feet by 2, and of the height of 5 feet perpendicular, above the cargo, and being independent, in either case, of the space requisite for the stowage of the water, provisions, and baggage, and the full space aforesaid shall be allotted for each passenger taken on board, id. s. 3.

35. Every such vessel shall be furnished, at the time of her departure to commence the voyage, with 10 weeks supply of good water, so as to furnish 5 pints per day to each passenger, exclusive of the crew, and such water shall be stowed below the deck; and further shall be supplied with so much provisions as will afford to each passenger, exclusive of the crew, for 10 weeks, 1*lb.* of bread or biscuit, 1*lb.* of beef, and 1*lb.* of pork per day, and also 2*lbs.* of flour, 3*lbs.* of oatmeal, or 3*lbs.* of peas, or pearl barley, and half a pound of butter weekly, the weekly allowance to commence the day the vessel puts to sea, id. s. 4.

36. Every such master or person (as in s. 1.) failing to give such allowance of provisions and water, shall forfeit 10*l.* for each neglect, id. s. 5.

37. An abstract of this act, stating the number of passengers allowed, and the daily and weekly allowance of water and provisions, shall be exposed in some conspicuous part of the vessel to which the passengers have access, in failure of which such master or person shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 6.

38. The master or person having the command of any such vessel, engaging to take on board passengers from Newfoundland, or the coast of Labrador for the purpose of returning thence to the U. K., shall conform to the regulations aforesaid as to the number of passengers, and be liable to the like penalties in case of breach thereof, as in the case of vessels proceeding from hence to Newfoundland or the coast of Labrador, 56 G. 3. c. 85. s. 7.

39. Every such vessel so returning to the U. K. with passengers, shall be furnished, at the time of her departure to commence the voyage, with the like supply of water and provisions, and make such allowance to each passenger as in s. 4., but calculated for 7 weeks instead of 10 weeks, id. s. 8.

40. And such master or person, who shall fail to give out such allowance of provisions and water, shall forfeit 10*l.* for each neglect, id. s. 9.

41. All penalties and forfeitures incurred under this act shall be recovered in a summary way, on oath of 1 witness, before 1 justice of peace for any county, city, or place in the U. K. where such vessel shall depart from or come into during such voyage, or in a summary way in any surrogate court or courts of session, having jurisdiction in Newfoundland; and such penalties as shall be recovered in Newfoundland shall be paid to the governor, or the person acting for him, to be applied under his direction, for defraying the passage home of such person as ought to be sent to his own country, id. s. 10.

42. This act shall not extend to the conveyance of any person on board of any such vessel, whether fishermen, youngsters, or others, being hired servants to be employed on the establishment of their respective hirers in the Newfoundland or coast of Labrador fisheries, id. s. 11.

43. TO REGULATE THE VESSELS CARRYING PASSENGERS FROM THE U. K. to certain of H. M.'s colonies in North America, 57 G. 3. c. 10. [REPEALED as to so much as requires bond to be given, 1 G. 4. c. 7. s. 1.]

44. The 43 G. 3. c. 56. shall not apply to any British vessel carrying passengers to the provinces of Upper or Lower Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Cape Breton, or Prince Edward's Island, 57 G. 3. c. 10. s. 1.

45. No vessel shall sail with passengers from any port in the U. K. to any port in Upper or Lower Canada, &c., unless the master or other person having the command thereof, shall, before sailing, enter into security by bond to H. M., in the penalty of 500*l.*, with condition not to take on board any more passengers than herein permitted, and that every passenger shall be landed at the port to which he contracted to be conveyed; which bond shall be taken by and deposited with the collector or principal officer of customs at the port from whence such vessel shall sail; and the master, previous to his leaving such port, shall deliver to such collector, &c. a list containing the number of passengers, with their names, ages, and descriptions, and the places to which they are to be conveyed, for the purpose of being registered at such port, together with a copy of the same, which copy shall be certified by such officers as being true, and delivered to the master, to be by him kept on board, and subject to the inspection of any of H. M.'s ships of war or vessels in the service of the customs or excise during his voyage; and upon arrival at either of such colonies, such master shall deliver such copy to the governor or person acting for him, or to the naval officer or chief officer of customs at the port of arrival, or to the nearest justice of the peace, who shall be required to examine the passengers within 24 hours after their arrival; and no such passenger shall be allowed to land until such list is compared with the passengers by such governor, &c. id. s. 2. [REPEALED as to taking bond, 1 G. 4. c. 7. s. 1.]

46. If such master, &c. take or have on board, or if the owner of such vessel shall engage to take on board more persons than the number allowed, they shall respectively forfeit 50*l.* for each person, id. s. 3.

47. No vessel from any place in the U. K., or from Guernsey and Jersey, shall carry to any port in Upper or Lower Canada, &c. a greater number of passengers than in the proportion of 1 adult or of 3 children under 14 years of age for every ton and a half burthen of such vessel; and every such vessel shall be taken to be of such tonnage as is described in the certificate of registry. And if any such vessel shall be partly laden with goods, &c., then the master shall not receive a greater number of persons than in the proportion of 1 adult or 3 children under 14 years of age for every one ton and a half remaining unladen, id. s. 4.

48. Every such vessel shall be furnished, at the time of her departure, with at least 12 weeks supply of good water, so as to furnish 5 pints of water per day for every passenger, exclusive of the crew; and such supply shall be stowed below the deck; and every such vessel shall also be furnished with such a supply of provisions as will afford an allowance for every such passenger, exclusive of the crew, during such 12 weeks, of 1 pound of bread or biscuit, and 1 pound of beef or three quarters of a pound of pork per day, and also 2 pounds of flour, 3 pounds of oatmeal, or 3 pounds of pease or pearl barley, and half a pound of butter weekly; the weekly allowance to commence on the day the vessel puts to sea, id. s. 5.

49. The master failing to give out the allowance of provisions and water before specified, shall forfeit 10*l.* for each neglect, id. s. 6.

50. An abstract of this act, stating the number of passengers allowed to be taken, and the daily and weekly allowance of water and provisions, shall be exposed in some conspicuous part of the vessel to which the passengers have recourse; in failure of which the master shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 7.

51. All penalties incurred under this act shall be recovered in a summary way, on the oath of one witness before one justice of any county or place in the U. K. where such vessel shall depart from or come to; or in a summary way in any court of session having jurisdiction in the port at which such vessel shall arrive; and one moiety shall go to H. M., and the other to the use of such person as shall first sue for the same, 57 G. 3. c. 10. s. 8.

52. Nothing in this act shall extend to repeal, alter, or affect, any law now in force for the restriction or regulation of artificers and others from going from any part of the U. K. to parts beyond sea, or to regulate the vessels carrying such artificers, or the masters having charge of such vessels; but all such laws shall remain in full force, id. s. 9.

ENTRY. (See DISSEISIN.)

1. THE PENALTY WHERE ANY DOTH ENTER INTO LANDS where it is not lawful, or with force, 5 R. 2. stat. 1. c. 8. [CON. and AMP. 15 R. 2. c. 2., 8 H. 6. c. 9. (and recital in s. 1.) EXPL. 31 EL. c. 11. and recital in ss. 1—2. and AMP., and giving power of restitution for copyhold and other tenants, 21 J. 1. c. 15.]

2. None shall enter on lands but where entry is given by law, and in such cases not by force, but in a peaceable manner; and persons doing contrary hereto shall be imprisoned at H. M.'s will, 5 R. 2. stat. 1. c. 8.

3. At all times that forcible entries be made, and complaint thereof comes before the justices of peace, one justice may take the power of the county and go to the place where such force is made, and if he find any that hold such place forcibly after such entry made, they shall be put to gaol, there to abide convict by the record of such justice, until they make fine to H. M.; and all they of the county, as well the sheriff as others, shall be attendant upon the same justices, and assist them to arrest such offenders on pain of imprisonment, and to make fine to H. M. And so it shall be done concerning those who make such forcible entries in benefices and offices of holy church, 15 R. 2. c. 5.

4. If any make forcible entry into lands, or do hold them forcibly after complaint made to a justice or justices for the county, by the party grieved, such justice shall execute 15 R. 2. c. 2. at the costs of the party grieved, 8 H. 6. c. 9. s. 2.

5. Though such persons making such forcible entry be present, or else departed, the justices, &c. (as in last pl.) nevertheless may, in some convenient place, enquire by the people of the county, as well of them that make such forcible entries into lands and tenements, as of them which the same hold with force; and if it be found before them that any do contrary hereto, the justices, &c. shall cause the tenements so entered or holden to be re-seized, and put the party so put out in full possession; and if any person, after such entry, make a feoffment or other discontinuance to any lord or other person, to have maintenance, to defraud the possessor of his recovery, and if afterwards in assize or other action thereof, by due enquiry thereof, such feoffments and discontinuances may be duly proved to be made for maintenance, the same shall be void, id. s. 3.

6. When such justice or justices shall make such inquiries, he or they shall make warrant and precepts to the sheriff of the county, to cause to come before them sufficient men dwelling about the tenements so entered, to inquire thereof, whereof every man so impanelled shall have lands of 40*s.* yearly value; and the sheriff shall return issues upon them for every day of the first precept returnable, 20*s.*; second day, 40*s.*; third time, 100*s.*; and every day after, double; and if any sheriff or bailiff within a franchise, having return of H. M.'s writ, make not execution of such precepts, he shall forfeit to H. M. 20*l.* and make fine and ransom to H. M., id. s. 4.

7. As well the justices aforesaid as the justices of assize, at their coming to take assizes in any county, may hear and determine such defaults of such sheriffs and bailiffs, as well by bill at the suit of the party grieved, for himself, as by indictment for H. M.; and if the sheriff or bailiff be attainted by indictment or by bill, he which sueth shall have one moiety of the 20*l.* with his costs, and the same process shall be made against such persons indicted, or sued by bill, as against persons indicted, or sued by writ of trespass with force and arms, id. s. 5.

8. If any person be disseised of lands, &c. by force, or put out peaceably, and afterwards holden out with a strong hand, or after such entry any feoffment or discontinuance thereof be made to defraud the right of the possessor, the party grieved shall have an assize of novel disseisin or writ of trespass against such disseisor, and if the party grieved recover, and if it be found by verdict or otherwise that the defendant entered by force, or after entry withheld by force, the plaintiff shall recover treble damages, and the defendant shall make fine and ransom to H. M.; and mayors or justices of peace, sheriffs, and bailiffs of cities, towns, and boroughs, having franchise, shall have therein like powers to remove such entries as justices and sheriffs in counties, id. s. 6.

9. Provided that they which keep possession with force in any lands, &c., whereof they or their ancestors, or they whose estate they have in such lands, &c., have continued in possession for 3 years, be not hereby damaged, id. s. 7.

10. No restitution upon any indictment for forcible entry, or holding with force, shall be made, if the person indicted hath had the occupation, or been in quiet possession for 3 years together, next before the day of such indictment found, and his estate therein not determined, which the party indicted may allege for stay or restitution, and restitution to stay until that he tried, and restitution shall stay until that he tried, if the other will traverse the same; and, if after such allegation he tried [or found] against the person so indicted, then he shall pay such costs and damages to the other party as shall be assessed by the judges or justices before whom tried, the same to be recovered and levied as is usual in other actions, 31 El. c. 11. s. 3.

11. Such judges and justices of peace as are by any act authorized or required to give restitution of possession to tenants of any estate of freehold of their lands, &c., entered upon or withholden by force, shall (upon indictment of forcible entry, and withholdings found) give like restitution to tenants for years, by copy of court roll, guardians by knights service, tenants by cognit, statute merchants, and staple of lands or tenements, by them so holden, which shall be entered upon or holden from them by force, 21 J. 1. c. 15.

12. A SPECIAL ASSIZE SHALL BE MAINTAINABLE AGAINST A DISSEISOR WITH FORCE, 4 H. 4. c. 8.

13. If any man shall make any forcible entry in his own or another's right, to his own or another's use, by way of maintenance, or do, take, or carry away any goods, after such forcible entry, from the possessor of the freehold, if the party grieved, or another in his name, will make affiance [Qu. affidavit] that the entry was made in such forcible manner, the chancellor shall grant a special assize without suing to H. M.; and if the disseisor shall be attainted thereof, he shall be imprisoned one year, and restore double damages to the party grieved; and if he be convict by the assize, that he had taken such goods, the justices shall award damages: and in every such assize, one of the justices of either bench, or the chief baron of exchequer, if he be a man of law, shall be named, and no writ of superseatas shall be granted contrary to such special assize, id. ibid.

ERROR.

1. HOW ERRONEOUS JUDGMENTS IN EXCHEQUER SHALL BE EXAMINED, 31 El. s. c. 12. [AMD. 31 El. c. 1. s. 1., 16 C. 2. c. 2., and 20 C. 2. c. 4.]

2. In all cases touching H. M. or other persons, where a man complains of error in process in exchequer, the [lords, as to the addition lords, see 4 Inst. 105. chancellor and treasurer, see their attendance dispensed with, by 31 El. c. 1. s. 1.] shall cause to come before them in any chamber of council near the exchequer, the record of the process, taking to them justices and other sage and fit persons, and shall call before them the barons of exchequer to hear the causes of their judgments, and thereupon shall duly examine the business; and if any error be found therein, shall correct and amend the rolls, and send them into exchequer to make proper execution thereof, id. ibid.

3. AGAINST DISCONTINUANCES OF WRITS OF ERROR IN EXCHEQUER AND K. B., 31 El. c. 1. and recital in s. 1.

4. FOR PREVENTING ABATEMENTS OF WRITS OF ERROR ON JUDGMENTS IN EXCHEQUER, 16 C. 2. c. 2., (and recital in s. 1.)

5. FOR PROCEEDING TO JUDGMENT ON WRITS OF ERROR BROUGHT IN EXCHEQUER, 20 C. 2. c. 4.

6. The not coming of the lord chancellor or lord treasurer, or of either of them, at the adjournment day, [or return day, 16 C. 2. c. 2. s. 2.] in any suit or writ of error, brought under 31 El. 3. s. 1. c. 12., shall not cause abatement or discontinuance thereof; but if both the chief justices, or either of the above great officers, shall come to the exchequer chamber, and there be present at such adjournment day, it shall be no abatement or discontinuance, and the suit shall proceed, 31 El. c. 1. s. 1., 16 C. 2. c. 2. s. 2.

7. But no judgment shall be given in any such writ of error, unless both the lords chancellor [and treasurer, RE. in case of the vacancy of that office, 20 C. 2. c. 4.] are present, 16 C. 2. c. 2. s. 3.

8. Judgment may be given in any writ of error brought in exchequer in presence of the lord keeper of the great seal, [or lord chancellor, see 5 El. c. 18.] notwithstanding the vacancy of the lord treasurer's office, 20 C. 2. c. 4. s. 1.

9. HOW A WRIT OF ERROR OR ATTAINT MAY BE MAINTAINED BY A REVERSIONER, 9 R. 2. c. 3.

10. If tenant for life, in dower, by the curtesy, or in tail after possibility of issue extinct be impleaded, and plead to an inquest, and lose by the oath [verdict] of 12 men, or by default, or in any other manner, the person having the reversion at the time of judgment given, shall have an attaint, if the verdict is false, and also a writ of error, if error be found as well in the life as after the death of the particular tenant; and if such false oath be found, or erroneous judgment reversed, the tenant that lost by the first judgment, if alive, shall be restored to his possession, with the issues in the mean time; and the party suing to any arrears of rent due for the same; and if such tenant be dead, possession of the tenements, with their issues, after his death, and any arrears of rents due in his lifetime, shall be restored to the party suing, 9 R. 2. c. 3. s. 1.

11. But though such tenant is alive, yet if the party suing will allege that he was of covin and assent with the demandant, who recovered, that such tenements should be lost, then restitution shall be made to the party suing with the issues and arrears as above, saving to such tenant his scire facias on such judgment of reversal, or judgment given on the writ of attaint, if he will traverse the covin and assent as aforesaid, and not otherwise, id. s. 2.

12. AGAINST DELAY OF EXECUTION UPON WRITS OF ERROR, and to give costs, 3 H. 7. c. 10. [CONF. 19 H. 7. c. 20.]

13. If any defendant or tenant, or other that shall be bound by a judgment, sue, before execution had, any writ of error to reverse the same error in delay of execution; if judgment be affirmed, or writ of error discontinued in default of the party, or if the person that sueth any writ of error be nonsuited, the person against whom such writ of error is sued shall recover his costs, and damages for his delay, at discretion of the justices afore whom such writ is sued, 3 H. 7. c. 10.

14. FOR REDRESS OF ERRONEOUS JUDGMENTS IN K. B. 27 El. c. 8. and recital in s. 1. [AMD. 31 El. c. 1. s. 2.]

15. Where any judgment shall be given in K. B. in any action of debt, detinue, covenant, account, action on the case, ejectione firmæ, or trespass, first commenced there, (except where H. M. is party), the plaintiff or defendant against whom judgment is given, may, at election, sue forth out of chancery a special writ of error, to be devised therein, directed to the chief justice of K. B., commanding him to cause the said record, and all things concerning the said judgment, to be brought before the justices of C. P. and barons of exchequer, into the exchequer chamber, there to be by them examined; which justices and such barons as are of the coif, or 6 of them at least, [5 justices or barons sufficient, 31 El. c. 1. s. 2.] shall examine the errors assigned in such judgment, and shall reverse or affirm the same, other than for errors concerning the jurisdiction of K. B., or for want of form in any writ, return, plaint, bill, declaration, or other pleading, process, verdict, or proceeding soever; and after affirmance, or reversal, the said record, &c. shall be brought back into K. B. for further proceedings thereon, for execution or otherwise, as shall appertain, 27 El. c. 8. s. 2.

16. Such reversal or affirmance shall not be so final but that the party grieved therewith may sue in parliament for further examination of the judgment, as is now used on erroneous judgments in K. B. id. s. 3.

17. If the full number of justices and barons by 27 El. c. 8. s. 2. authorized, come not at the day or time of return or continuance of any such writ of error, any 3 of them, at every of the said days and times, may receive writs of error, award process thereupon, and make and prefix days, from time to time, for the continuance of all writs of error there returned, certified, or depending, 31 El. c. 1. s. 2.

18. No judgment shall be given in such suit or error, unless by such full number of the said justices and barons, as in s. 15. appointed, id. s. 3.

19. The plaintiff or defendant against whom judgment is given in K. B. may, at his election, sue in parliament for removal thereof, as heretofore used, [see 27 El. c. 8. s. 3. pl. 16.] id. s. 4.

20. No execution, in any personal action, shall be stayed in any court of record at Westminster, or in the counties palatine, or court of great sessions, by writ of error, or superseatas thereupon, after verdict and judgment thereupon, unless a recognizance, conditioned under 3 J. 1. c. 8., be first acknowledged in the court where the judgment is given; and in writs of error on any judgment after verdict in dower, or ejectione firmæ, unless plaintiff in error shall be bound to such plaintiff in dower, &c. in the sum assessed by the court of error, with condition to pay costs, if the judgment is affirmed, or the writ of error discontinued by plaintiff in error, or that the plaintiff be nonsuit in such writs of error, that then such plaintiff shall pay such costs, damages, and sums of money as shall be awarded on such judgment affirmed, or discontinuance, or nonsuit had, id. s. 3.

21. The court wherein such execution ought to be granted on such affirmation, discontinuance, or nonsuit, shall issue a writ to enquire as well of the mesne profits as of the damages by any waste committed after the first judgment in dower, or ejectione firmæ, on the return whereof judgment shall be given, and execution awarded for such mesne profits and damages, and also for costs, id. s. 4.

22. But this act shall not extend to any writ of error to be brought by any executor or administrator, nor to any action popular, or other action on any penal law, (except for not setting forth tithes,) nor to any indictment, presentment, information, or appeal, id. s. 5.

23. ON QUASHING WRIT OF ERROR sued for variance from the original record, or other defect, the defendant in error shall recover his costs, as if the judgment had been affirmed, 4 J. 5. c. 16. s. 25.

24. FOR AMENDMENT OF WRITS OF ERROR, and for further preventing the arrest or reversal of judgments after verdict, 4 G. 1. c. 15.

25. All writs of error wherein there shall be any variance from the original record or other defect, may and shall be amended and made agreeable to such record, by the respective courts where they are returnable; and where any verdict is given in any action, &c. in any court of record at Westminster, or in any other court of record in Eng. or Wa., the judgment thereon shall not be staid or reversed for any defect in form or substance, in any bill, writ, original or judicial, or for any variance in such writs, from the declaration or other proceedings, 5 G. 1. c. 13. s. 1.

26. Nothing herein shall extend to any [appeal of felony or murder, REP. 59 G. 3. c. 46. s. 1.] process on any indictment, presentment, or information, of or for any offence or misdemeanor, id. s. 2.

ESCHEAT AND ESCHEATOR.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. IN WHAT CASE AN amoveas manum cum exitibus, or ouster le main, shall be granted, 29 E. 1. [semb. RLP. virtually by 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 2. see 2 Bla. Comm. 68.]

2. HOW FAR ESCHEATORS SHALL ANSWER TO H. M. FOR MESNE PROFITS, in case of ouster le main, 28 E. 3. c. 4. [semb. Exp. and virtually REP. by 12 C. 2. c. 24. ss. 1—2.]

3. PARTIES SHALL BE ADMITTED TO TRAVERSE OFFICES OF ESCHEATORS, in case of alienation, without leave of H. M., or death of tenant, by knight's service, his heir being within age, 34 E. 3. c. 14. [REP. virtually, 12 C. 2. c. 24. ss. 1 & 2.]

4. CONCERNING OFFICES AND INQUISITION FOUND within the counties palatine, 18 E. 1. c. 13. [semb. Exp. since 12 C. 2. c. 24. ss. 1—2.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. WHERE THE ESCHEATOR OR SHERIFF HAVE SEIZED OTHER MEN'S LANDS INTO H. M.'S HANDS, and it is after found that there was no cause of seiser, the profits taken in the mean time before H. M. has removed his hand [ouster le main] shall be fully restored to him to whom the land ought to remain, and who has sustained the damage, 28 E. 1. c. 19. [QU. if not virtually REP. 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 1. which repeals charges arising by reason of ouster le main, or by s. 2., which repeals wardships incident to tenure by knight's service?]

2. H. M. SHALL HAVE ESCHEATS OF LANDS of the freeholders of archbishops and bishops, when attainted for felony, committed in time of vacation, while their temporalities were in H. M.'s hands, to be given at his pleasure, for ever, saving the service therefore belonging to such prelates, 17 E. 2. st. 2. c. 14.

3. OF THE APPOINTMENT OF ESCHEATORS AND CORONERS, 14 E. 3. s. 1. c. 8.

4. There shall be as many escheators assigned, as were when H. M. did take the governance upon him; to be chosen by the chancellor, treasurer, and chief baron of exchequer, taking to them the chief justices, if they be present, in manner as the sheriffs; and no escheator shall tarry in his office above a year. And no coroner shall be chosen, unless he have land in fee sufficient in the county, 14 E. 3. s. 1. c. 8. [see CORONER. pl. 1.]

5. Every escheator shall take his inquests of his office of people which be sufficiently inherited, and of good fame, and of the same county where the inquiry shall be, which inquests so taken shall be indented betwixt the escheators and jurors; and if otherwise done, shall be void; and such inquests shall be taken in good towns, openly and not privily, 34 E. 3. c. 13., 23 H. 6. c. 16. s. 1., 1 H. 8. c. 8. s. 3.

6. LANDS SEIZED INTO H. M.'S HANDS SHALL BE SAFELY KEPT WITH-OUT WASTE. And the escheator shall have no fee of wood, fish, venison, nor other thing, but shall answer to H. M. of the issues and profits yearly; and if he do otherwise, and be attainted thereof, he shall be ransomed at H. M.'s will, and yield treble damages. And if any man will claim the lands seized, the escheator shall send the inquest into the chancery within one month after the lands seized; and a writ shall be delivered to him, to certify the cause of his seizure into the chancery; and there the party shall be heard without delay to traverse the office, or otherwise shew his right, and from thence be sent before H. M. to make a final discussion. And in case any come before the chancellor and shew his right by good evidences, the chancellor shall let the lands in debate to the tenant, yielding thereof to H. M. the value, if it pertain to H. M., so that he find surety that he shall do no waste nor destruction till it be judged. And the escheators shall take such inquests in the good towns, and of good people, and that openly and by indentures, to be made betwixt the escheators and them of the inquest; and if any escheator do the contrary, he shall have 2 years imprisonment, and be ransomed at H. M.'s will, 36 E. 3. c. 13.

7. QUALIFICATION AND DUTY OF ESCHEATORS, 42 E. 3. c. 3. [CONF. and AMD. 12 E. 4. c. 9. 1 H. 8. c. 8. s. 1.]

8. No man made escheator shall take on him the office, unless he have [20l. of land in fee, at the least, or more, 42 E. 3. c. 3. semb. altered; viz., lands or rents, in fee-simple, fee-tail, or for life, of the yearly value of 20l.,

12 E. 4. c. 9., also semb. altered] lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the yearly value of 40 marks, [viz. 26l. 13s. 4d., on pain of 20l., 1 H. 8. c. 8. s. 1., see infra, pl. 16.], within the counties whereof he is escheator; and shall not sell or set to farm such office, nor make any deputy, but such for whom he will answer, 12 E. 4. c. 4. [altering 42 E. 3. c. 3., which obliged them to do their offices in person.] The names of the deputies shall be certified by the escheator by his letters patent to the treasury and barons of the exchequer, within 20 days after such deputation made. And no such deputy shall take on him to occupy in the office of escheatorship, except he have lands or rents to the aforesaid value. And any person doing contrary to the premises, shall forfeit 40l., one-half to H. M., the other to any person who will sue for the same by action of debt, &c. wherein like process, costs, and damages, shall be had as in other actions of debt. And the justices of peace shall have power to enquire, hear, and determine every such forfeiture on presentment in their sessions; in which like process shall be had, as on indictments of trespass with force and arms against H. M.'s peace; but this does not extend to the escheator of any city, borough, or town, having authority to make, or be escheator within itself, by letters patent, 12 E. 4. c. 9. amending 42 E. 3. c. 3.

9. FOR REGULATING INQUESTS OF OFFICE BY ESCHEATORS AND OTHERS, and grants of lands seized thereon, 8 H. 6. c. 16. [AMD. 1 H. 8. c. 10. 18 H. 6. c. 6. & c. 7.]

10. No escheator nor commissioner shall take inquests but of people returned and impanelled by the sheriffs; and if he take inquests of men not returned by the sheriff, and thereof, at suit of the party, be convicted, for every inquest so taken he shall incur the pain of 40l., one half to H. M., and the other to the party grieved, at whose suit convicted; and no tenements seized into H. M.'s hands upon such inquests shall be let to farm, till the inquests and verdicts be returned into chancery or exchequer, but shall remain in the hands of H. M. [3 months, 1 H. 8. c. 10.] until the inquests and verdicts be returned, and a month after the return. If the parties grieved by such inquests, or put out of their lands, come into chancery and proffer to traverse their inquests, and offer to take the lands to farm; then the lands shall be committed to them, as under 36 E. 3. c. 13. by the chancellor, [and the treasurer, 18 H. 6. c. 7.] if they shew good evidence, proving the traverse to hold until the issue taken upon the traverse be discussed, and to render to H. M. the yearly value, if it be discussed for H. M. And if any letters patent of the lands be made to the contrary to any other person, [or be made before inquest taken, 18 H. 6. c. 6. & c. 7.] or let to farm within the month after the return, they shall be void. And the escheators and commissioners, on pain of 20l., half to H. M. and half to the party at whose suit he shall be convicted, [with damages to H. M., 18 H. 6. c. 7. and see 1 H. 8. c. 8.] shall return the inquests into the chancery or exchequer within a month after taking the same; and every man which will sue for H. M. shall have the suit in his behalf, 8 H. 6. c. 16.

11. AFTER OFFICE FOUND BEFORE ANY ESCHEATOR OR COMMISSIONER put into chancery or exchequer, if any person will traverse the said office, and desires to have the lands to farm and find surety, and sheweth evidence to the chancellor, according to 8 H. 6. c. 16., and comes into chancery within 3 months after the office so put into chancery or exchequer, he shall be by the chancellor thereto admitted, and all other grants thereof be void, 1 H. 8. c. 10. s. 3.

12. In case any escheator take any office, and return not the same in chancery or exchequer, in the month after the taking, he shall incur the pain of 40l. forfeit by 8 H. 6. c. 16., and shall be bound to pay H. M. as much as he is damaged, because of not returning of such office, 18 H. 6. c. 7.

13. WHEN AND WHERE AN ESCHEATOR SHALL TAKE INQUEST OF office, and his fee, 23 H. 6. c. 16.

14. Every escheator shall take his inquests of office, by virtue of any writs, whether of diem clausit extremum, or other within the month, [another month given, 1 H. 8. c. 8. s. 4.] after their delivery, and in good towns and open places [viz. according to 34 E. 3. c. 13. 1 H. 8. c. 8. s. 3., &c.]; and none of them shall take for execution of such writs in one county, above 6s. 8d., or 13s. 4d., or above, where his labour and costs require the same, so that the sum taken, do not exceed in all 40s. for execution of any such writ in one county; and if he do contrary, he shall forfeit 40l., one half to H. M. and the other to him that will sue, [and see 1 H. 8. c. 8. s. 3. infra, pl. 18.]; and if a man traverse any office, taken before any escheator or commissioner, and hath scire facias thereof against any patentee, no protection shall be allowed, and as to any lease to be made to any person, which shall traverse any such office, the statutes, viz. 36 E. 3. c. 13. 8 H. 6. c. 16. 18 H. 6. c. 6., shall be observed, id. ibid.

15. AGAINST ESCHEATORS AND COMMISSIONERS, for making false returns of offices and commissions, 1 H. 8. c. 8. [MADE PERP. 3 H. 8. c. 2.]

16. If any escheator or commissioner return into any H. M.'s courts any inquisitions or offices concerning hereditaments, not found by the oaths of 12 men, and indented and sealed, he shall forfeit for every such office, &c. 100*l.* to the party grieved; and no man shall sit by virtue of any commission to enquire of hereditaments, except he have lands, tenements, and hereditaments of 40 marks per ann. [viz. 2*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*] above reprises, on pain of 20*l.*; and all persons not sufficient of freehold at the time of any such commission to them delivered, may refuse to sit and enquire by virtue of the same, 1*H.* 8. c. 8. s. 1.

17. Upon process against them out of exchequer by virtue of such commission, they shall be discharged on their oaths, for their non-sufficiency, without fine or fee, id. s. 2.

18. Every escheator and commissioner shall sit in open places, according to the statutes, [25*H.* 6. c. 16. s. 1., 34*E.* 3. c. 13.] and shall suffer every person to give evidence openly to such inquests as shall be taken before them, upon pain of 40*l.*, id. s. 3.

19. No person, who ought to return writs or precepts, shall return before escheators or such commissioners, any person to enquire of any lands, except every of the jury so returned have lands of the yearly value of 40*s.* within the shire, on pain of forfeiture for every person 100*s.*; and the jury, sworn before any escheator or such commissioners to enquire of lands, shall receive the counterpain [for counterpart] of the inquisition sealed by the escheator or by such commissioner, to rest in the possession of the first person sworn in the jury, on pain of every of the said persons that shall be sworn 20*s.*; and after a jury sworn is ready to give their verdict, the escheators or commissioners shall receive the same without delay, upon pain of 100*l.* and deliver the counterpain of the indenture to the jury, upon like pain; and if the clerk of the petty-bag will not receive such inquisition, and put it on the files within 5 days after it is returned or offered to him, he shall forfeit 40*l.*, and the commissioners or escheators shall be discharged of the penalty of 40*l.*, limited by 25*H.* 6. c. 16. pl. 14. for non-returning the same within the month; and the like law to charge the officers of exchequer, who ought to receive inquisitions; and the commissioners or escheators shall be discharged of the penalty for non-returning of the inquisitions, so that they after the month, within another month return the said inquisition; and the clerk of the petty-bag shall certify the transcript of every such inquisition to the exchequer in the term following the receipt thereof, upon pain of forfeiture of 100*s.*; and no man shall be compelled to exercise the office of an escheator by any one patent over one year; and he that is once escheator shall not be made escheator again within 3 years; and if any be made escheator to exercise his office by one patent over the time of one year, or be made escheator within 3 years after, then after the said year ended, his patent shall be void; and the party grieved may recover the said forfeitures of 100*l.* by action of debt; and of the residue of the other forfeitures in this act, H. M. shall have 1 moiety, and the party that will sue the other, id. s. 4.

20. Provided that this act concerning escheators for exercising their offices over a year, and letters patent made to any escheator, extend not to any escheator in any city or town corporate, or in the duchies of Lancaster, Cornwall, and the counties palatine of Lancaster, Chester, Durham, or Ely, or to any other county palatine, or to any escheator made by any persons having authority by reason of any franchises to make such escheator, id. s. 5.

21. Provided that this act, as to any penalty concerning the sufficiency of the escheator and jurors, extend not to any escheator in city or town corporate, nor to any other escheator made by any persons having privilege to make escheators, nor to any sheriff or bailiff for returning any person before any of the said escheators of less value; the escheators of the counties palatine of Lancaster and Chester in this proviso only excepted, id. s. 6.

22. Provided that this act extend not to any justices of peace, for any thing concerning the commission of the peace, id. s. 7.

23. TOUCHING FINDING OF OFFICES BEFORE THE ESCHEATOR, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 8. (and recital in ss. 1—2.)

24. Where any office or inquisition is found, omitting any title for term of years by copy of court roll, or other interest, every lessee or copyholder, and every person having any interest to any rent, common, or profits appender out of any lands contained in such office or inquisition, shall enjoy their leases and interests, rents, &c. as they might have done in case there had been no such office or inquisition found, and as they ought to have done in case such lease, &c. had been found in such office, &c. id. s. 3.

25. If any person be untrue found lunatic, idiot, or dead, every person grieved by such office, &c. shall have his traverse as in other cases of traverse on untrue inquisition or office, id. s. 6.

26. Where it is untrue found, that any person attainted of treason, felony, or præmunire, is seized of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, at the time of such treason, &c. committed, or after, whereunto any other person hath just title, every person grieved thereby shall have his traverse, or monstrans de droit, without petition of right, with like remedy and restitution, as in other cases of traverse, though H. M. is entitled to any such lands, &c. by double matter of record, id. s. 7.

27. In all traverses pursued under this act, writs of scire facias may be issued against all such as have interest by H. M. or his patentees, as in traverses heretofore pursued, and the same pleas may be had as in any other writs of scire facias heretofore awarded against any patentee, and on every traverse pursued by virtue of this act, in a case where by the common law the party should have been put to sue by petition to H. M., two writs of search shall be granted as usual on such petitions, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 8. s. 13.

28. If, after judgment given on any traverse made under this act, it appears that H. M. hath any other title, the same shall be saved to him, notwithstanding such traverse and judgment, id. s. 14.

29. CONCERNING THE DISPOSITION OF ESCHEATS TO THE CROWN, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 88. (s. 12. only.) [Amo. 47 G. 3. s. 2. c. 24. 59 G. 3. c. 94.]

30. H. M. by warrant under the sign manual, or under seal of duchy of Lancaster, may direct the execution of trusts of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, escheated to him in right of the crown or duchy, either for want of heirs, or by forfeiture, or purchase by, or for the use of, or in trust for, any aliens, and may grant the same, or any parts thereof, or any rents due to him in respect thereof, to any trustees for execution of any such trusts, or for restoring the same to the family, or for carrying into effect any intended grant or devise thereof, or for rewarding or making grants of such lands, &c. to the discoverers of such escheat, or of H. M.'s right thereto, or being of the family of any alien, or to any person whose property the same lands, &c. have been; or to any other persons unconditionally, or in consideration of money either paid at the time of the grant, or charged on the lands, &c. granted, or to a trustee to sell; and H. M. may direct the rents, and money arising by sales, &c. thereof, to be applied in payment of costs for finding the title of H. M., and in rewarding discoverers, or in discharging the whole or any part of any debts due from persons, whose property any such hereditaments have been 59 G. 3. c. 94. s. 1. 47 G. 3. s. 2. c. 24. s. 1. 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 88. s. 12.

31. Purchasers, or persons paying sums of money under this act, are not answerable for application of the purchase-money, 59 G. 3. c. 94. s. 2.

32. The surplus shall be paid to the commissioners of the land-revenue for application by them, as the produce of the sale of any of H. M.'s lands or hereditaments, is to be applied by the several acts, [viz. 57 G. 3. c. 97., &c. CROWN PROPERTY, pl. 160., &c.] 59 G. 3. c. 94. s. 3.

ESSOIN.

1. AFTER ANY ONE PUTS HIMSELF ON ANY INQUEST, [or when issue is joined, 2 Inst. 126.] he shall have 1 at one essoin or one default, so that if he come not at the day given to him by the essoin, or make default the 2d day, the inquest (issue) shall be taken by his default; but if such inquest be taken in the county before the sheriff or coroners, it shall be remitted to H. M.'s justices at a certain day, and if defendant come not on that day, upon his default, another day shall be assigned him; and it shall be commanded to the sheriff, that at that day he cause him to come to hear the judgment, if he will, according to the inquest (issue), and on his default, they shall proceed to judgment; and so if he come not at a day given to him by his essoin, 52 (or 54) H. 3. c. 13, Stat. Marb. [Amo. virtually, 13 E. 1. c. 27. West. Sec.]

2. AFTER SUCH TIME AS ANY HATH PUT HIMSELF ON AN INQUEST, [or when issue is joined, 2 Inst. 126.] one essoin shall be allowed at the next day, but at the other days the taking the inquest shall not be delayed by essoins, whether he were essoined before or no, nor shall any essoin be allowed after day given prece partium, or where the parties consent to come without essoin, 13 E. 1. c. 27. West. Sec.

3. IN COUNTIES, HUNDREDS, COURTS BARON, OR OTHER COURTS, [this extends to superior courts, 2 Inst. 137.] none shall need to swear to warrant his essoin, 52 H. 3. c. 19. Stat. Marb.

4. FOR RELIEF OF JURIES IN WRITS OF assize, attainments, and juris ultimum, after the tenant hath once appeared, he shall be no more essoined, but shall make his attorney to sue for him, if he will, and if not, the assize or jury shall be taken through his default, 3 E. 1. c. 42. [Ext. to defendant in assizes, 13 E. 1. c. 28.]

5. Parceners, or many jointly enfeofed, shall not have essoin but at one day, and no more than one sole tenant should have; so that from henceforth they shall no more fourch, but have only one essoin, 3 E. 1. c. 43. [Ext. to husband and wife, 6 E. 1. c. 10., and see Termes de la Ley, Fourcher.]

6. ESSOIN OF ultra mare shall not be wholly allowed, if demandant challenge it, and is ready to aver that the tenant was in Eng. the day of summons and 3 weeks after, but shall be adjourned in this form; that if the demandant be ready at a certain day by averment of the country or otherwise, as the court shall award, to prove that the tenant was within the 4 seas the day he was summoned and 3 weeks after, so that he might be reasonably warned by the summons, the essoin shall be turned into a default, and this is to be understood only before justices [of the king, 2 Inst. 251.] 3 E. 1. c. 44.

7. IN THE JUSTICES' CIRCUIT AN ESSOIN de malo lecti shall not be henceforth allowed for lands in the same shire, unless the tenant be sick indeed; for if the demandant except that he is not sick nor unable to come before the justices, his exception shall be admitted, and if it can be proved by inquest, the essoin shall be turned to a default; and no such essoin shall lie in a writ of right between 2 claiming by one descent, 13 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 17.

8. STATUTE OF ESSOIN, 12 E. 2. st. 2. 1. 8vo ed. 350: [semb. AMD. Stat. de visu terre et essoino de servitio domini regis, Incert. temp. Stat. No. xxiv.]

9. Here it is declared, how many ways essoins may be challenged, and in what cases they lie and what not; viz. essoin lies not where the land is taken into H.M.'s hand, nor where the party is distrained by his lands or chattels, nor where any judgment is given thereupon if the jurors do come, nor where the party was seen in court; essoin of ultra mare lies not where another time the party has been essoined de malo veniendi, nor where the party hath essoined himself another day, nor where the sheriff was commanded to make the party appear; essoin de servitio regis lies not where the party is a woman, unless she be a nurse, a midwife, or commanded by writ of ad ventrem inspiciendum, nor in a writ of dower, nor where the plaintiff has not found pledges to prosecute, nor where the attorney was essoined, nor where the party has an attorney in his suit, nor where the essoinor confesses he is not in H.M.'s service, nor where the summons is not returned or the party not attached, because of non est inventus returned, nor where the party was essoined another time de servitio regis, to wit, such day, and puts not the same in his warrant, [nor in writ of novel disseisin, or of dower, or of darrein presentment, and appeal of death of a man (taken away, 59 G. 3. c. 46. s. 1.) Stat. de visu terre et essoino de servitio domini regis, incert. temp. No. xxiv. 8vo, ed. Stat. i. 414.] nor where he was re-summoned in assize of mort d'auceator or darrein presentment, nor because he is not named in the writ, nor where the sheriff has a precept to distrain the party to come by his lands and goods, nor where the bishop was commanded to cause the party to appear, nor after the term is passed; an essoin de servitio regis is allowed after the grand and petty cape, and after distresses taken on lands and goods, id. ibid.

ESTATES (LIFE).

1. FOR REDRESS OF INCONVENIENCES BY WANT OF PROOF OF the deceases of persons beyond the seas, or absenting themselves on whose lives estates do depend, 19 C. 2. c. 6., and recital in s. 1.

2. If persons for whose lives any estates are granted shall absent themselves 7 years, and no proof be made of their lives, then in any action commenced for recovery of such tenements by the lessors or reversioners, the persons on whose lives such estates depended shall be accounted as dead, and the judges shall direct the jury to give their verdict as if the person absenting himself were dead, id. s. 2.

3. In any action wherein the life or death of such person shall come in question between the reversioner and the tenant in possession, the former may except to any of the jurors that the greatest part of his real estate is held by lease or copy for lives who on proof thereof shall be set aside, id. s. 3.

4. If any person is evicted out of any lands by virtue of this act, and afterwards such person upon whose life such estates depend shall return again, or shall, on proof in any action to be brought for recovery of the same, be made appear to have been living, the lessee may re-enter and enjoy the lands in his former estate so long as the said person lives, and also shall recover for damages the profits of the land, with interest for the time that they were ousted of the same, id. s. 5.

5. ANY ESTATE PUR AUTER VIE SHALL BE DEVISABLE BY WILL in writing, signed by the devisor, or by some other person in his presence and by his express directions, attested and subscribed in his presence by 3 or more witnesses; and if no such devise be made, the same shall be chargeable in the hands of the heir, if it shall come to him by reason of a special occupancy, as assets by descent, or in case of lands in fee simple, and in case there be no special occupants, it shall go to the executors of the party having the same by grant, and shall be assets in their hands, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 12.

6. Estates pur auter vie, in case there be no special occupant thereof, in which no devise shall have been made as above, or so much thereof as shall not have been so devised, shall be distributed in the same manner as the personalty of the testator or intestate, 14 G. 2. c. 20. s. 9.

7. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL DISCOVERY OF THE DEATH OF PERSONS pretended to be alive to the prejudice of those who claim estates after their death, 6 A. c. 18.

8. Any person having any claim to any remainder, reversion, or expectancy, in any estate after the death of any person within age, married woman, or other person, on affidavit made in chancery by the persons claiming such estate, of his title, and that he hath cause to believe that such minor, married woman, or other person is dead, and that the death is concealed, may once a year move the lord chancellor to order such guardian, trustee, husband, or other person, suspected to conceal such person, to produce to such persons (not exceeding 2) as shall in such order be named by the party prosecuting, such minor, married woman, or other person; and if they neglect to produce such minor, &c. on whose life such estate doth depend, according to the directions of the order, the court of chancery is required to order such guardian, &c. to produce such minor, &c. in court or before commissioners, as the court shall direct, 2 of which commissioners shall be nominated by the party prosecuting; and in case such guardian, &c. shall neglect to produce such minor, &c. in court or before such commissioners, whereof return shall be made by the latter, and filed in the petty bag office, the said minor, &c. so concealed shall be taken to be dead; and any person claiming title after the death of such minor, &c. may enter upon such lands as if such minor, &c. were dead, 6 A. c. 18. s. 1.

9. If it appears to the court by affidavit that such minor, &c. for whose life such estate is holden, is at some certain place beyond seas, the party prosecuting such order may send over the persons appointed by the said order to view such minor, &c. and in case such guardian, &c. shall neglect to produce to them a personal view of such minor, &c. they shall make return of such neglect, which return shall be filed in the petty bag, and thereupon such minor, &c. shall be taken to be dead, id. s. 2.

10. But if it afterwards appears on proof in any action, that such minor, &c. were alive at the time of such order made; such minor, &c. or other person having any estate determinable upon such life, may re-enter upon the said lands, and maintain an action against those who received the profits, or their executors or administrators, and therein recover damages for the profits received, id. s. 3.

11. If any such guardian, &c. having any estate determinable on the life of any other person, shall to the satisfaction of the court make appear, that they have used their utmost endeavours to procure such minor, &c. to appear in court or elsewhere, according to the order; and that they cannot procure such minor, &c. to appear, and that such minor, &c. were living at the time of such return made and filed; such person may continue in possession of such estate, id. s. 4.

12. Every person who as guardian or trustee of any infant, and every husband seized in right of his wife, and every other person having any estate determinable upon any life, who after the determination of such particular estates, without the express consent of those next entitled thereto shall hold over and continue in possession of any lands, shall be adjudged trespassers; and every person, his executors and administrators, who shall be entitled to such lands upon the determination of such particular estates, shall recover in damages against every person so holding over, and his executors and administrators, the value of the profits received during such wrongful possession, id. s. 5.

ESTATES (TAIL).

1. OF GIFTS UPON CONDITION, 13 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 1.

2. Where any giveth his land to any man and his wife, and the heirs together of the bodies of the same, with such condition expressed, that if such man and wife die without heirs of their bodies between them begotten, the land shall revert to the giver or his heir; also where one giveth lands in free marriage with a condition annexed, though not expressed in the deed of gift, viz. that if the husband and wife die without heirs of their bodies begotten, the land so given shall revert to the giver or his heir; also where one giveth lands to another, and the heirs of his body issuing, yet the will of the giver was not observed; wherefore it is provided, that the will of the giver, according as in the deed of gift expressed, shall be observed, so that they, to whom the land was so given, shall not aliene the same, whereby it shall fail to remain with the issue after their death, or revert in case of failure of issue to the giver. Neither shall the second husband of such woman have any thing in the land so given after the death of his wife by the law of Eng., nor shall the issue of such second husband succeed in the inheritance; but on the death of the husband and wife it shall revert to their issue, or the giver or his heir, id. s. 1, 2.

3. This manner of writ shall be granted to the party that will purchase it.

Præcipe A. quod juste, &c. red. B. manerium de F. cum suis pertinentiis, quod C. dedit tali viro et tali mulieri, et hereditibus de ipsius viro et muliere euentibus; or thus, quod C. dedit tali viro in liberum maritægium cum tali muliere, &c. et quod post mortem prædictorum viri et mulieris prædicto B. filio eorundem viri et mulieris descendere debeat per formam donationis prædictæ, ut dicitur, &c. or quod C. dedit tali et hereditibus de corpore suo euentibus, et quod post mortem illius talis prædicto B. filio prædicti talis descendere debeat per formam, &c. id. s. 3.

4. The writ whereby the giver shall have his recovery, when issue fails, is common in chancery, and is to wit, that this statute shall hold touching alienation of land, contrary to the gift hereafter to be made; and if a fine be levied hereafter upon such lands, it shall be void; neither shall heirs or reversioners, though they be of full age, or within king, and out of prison, need to make their claim, 13 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 1. s. 4.

5. FOR RELIEF OF PERSONS ENTITLED TO ENTAILED ESTATES to be purchased with trust monies, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 56. [See similar act for Inc., 58 G. 3. c. 56.]

6. Where money, under the control of any court of equity or of or to which any individuals as trustees are possessed or entitled, shall be subject to be invested in the purchase of freehold or copyhold hereditaments, or both, to be settled in such manner, that it would be competent in case such money had been invested in the purchase of real estates, for the person who would be tenant of the first estate in tail, either alone or together with the person who would be owner of the particular preceding estate therein, if any, by deed, fine, or common recovery, or other lawful act, in case of freehold hereditaments or by surrender and recovery, or other lawful act, in case of copyhold hereditaments, to bar the first estate tail, and the rights and interests of all in remainder, such money need not be actually invested in lands, &c. in order to bar such estates tail and remainders over; but the court of chancery, or other court of equity, having control over such money; and in the case of trustees the court of chancery may, in a summary way, upon the petition of the person who would be the first tenant in tail, and of the person who would be owner of the antecedent particular estate, if any, in the lands, &c. in case the same were purchased, such petitioners being adults, and if femes covert, they being first separately examined in court, or on a commission, and consenting, order the monies subjected to such trusts to be paid to the petitioners, or to be paid and applied as such petitioners shall appoint, and the court approve, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 56. s. 1.

7. In all cases where monies subjected to be laid out in the purchase of hereditaments, to be settled as aforesaid, shall be invested in government, real, or other securities, such securities shall, for the purposes of this act, be considered as money, and shall be accordingly assigned and disposed of under an order of such courts, made in a summary [way] on such petition, and with such examination and consent where necessary as aforesaid, in the same manner as money subjected to be laid out in the purchase of such hereditaments, to be so settled, are herein before authorized to be paid, applied, and disposed of, id. s. 2.

8. TO RESTRAIN ALL TRUSTS AND DIRECTIONS IN DEEDS OR WILLS, whereby the profits or produce of real or personal estate shall be accumulated, and the beneficial enjoyment thereof postponed beyond the time therein limited, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 98.

9. No person or persons shall, by any deed, surrender, will, codicil, or otherwise settle or dispose of any real or personal property, in such manner that the rents, issues, profits, or produce thereof shall be wholly or partially accumulated for any longer term than the life or lives of such grantor or grantors, settlor or settlers, or the term of 21 years from the death of such grantor, settler, deviser, or testator, or during the minority of any person who shall be living, or in rente sa mère at the time of the death of such grantor, deviser, or testator, or during the minority only of any person who under the uses or trusts of the deed, surrender, will, or other assurances directing such accumulations, would for the time being, if of full age, be entitled unto the rents, profits, or annual produce so directed to accumulate; and all directions of accumulation, other than as aforesaid, shall be void; and such rents, &c. shall go and be received by such person as would have been entitled thereto, if such accumulations had not been directed, id. s. 1.

10. This act shall not extend to any provision for payment of debts of any grantor, settler, or deviser, or other person, or to any provision for raising portions for any child or children of any grantor, &c., or of any person taking any interest under such conveyance, settlement or devise, or to any direction touching the produce of timber, or wood, upon any lands, &c., but the same may be made as before this act, id. s. 2.

11. This act shall not extend to any disposition respecting heritable property in Scot., id. s. 3.

12. This act shall take effect with respect to wills and testaments made before the passing hereof, in such cases only where the deviser or testator shall be living, and of sound and disposing mind, after 12 calendar months after the passing this act, id. s. 6.

ESTREATS.

1. A STATUTE OF ESTREATS. Stat. incert. Temp. No. XII. Stat. 8vo. ed. i. 402. [semb. circa 10 Ed. 1.]

2. Estreats into exchequer shall be made as follows: first shall be entered the common fines: viz. for issuing writs, and wherein the sum of money is expressed; and all these fines of every county, for the year, shall be written by themselves in regular order of priority, as entered, and the date of making the fine shall be entered on the estreat delivered into exchequer, id. ibid.

3. After those fines, shall be entered by counties severally, charters, letters, patents, or commissions, for which any farm or yearly rent is due to H. M., or whereof any accounts are to be made, id. s. 2.

4. After these, the homages and fealties whereof reliefs are to be demanded, [QU. REP. 12 Car. 2. c. 24. ss. 1, 2.] and the writs of Dicem clausit extremum, and other things whereof the sum is not expressed, nor yearly demand made, and in the same estreat (s. 3.) shall then be entered the other charters of [crown] gifts from which H. M. is entitled to service, id. ss. 4, 5.

5. Then in the same estreat shall be entered the names of those assigned to inquire, or do any thing whereby fine or amerciamment or other profit appertaining to the king might arise, id. s. 5.

6. In the end of the estreat the redisscissins and surcharging of pastures, id. s. 6.

7. The ordinance of the exchequer shall be kept, and by writ commanded to the justices of both benches, and the warden of the forest on this side of Trent, and beyond, id. s. 7.

8. The steward of H. M.'s house shall be commanded to deliver yearly to the treasurer of the exchequer his estreats of the fines, amerciamments, issues, forfeitures, and other profits arising to H. M., by reason of the pleas holden before the steward and marshal, twice in the year, viz. Easter and Michaelmas, id. s. 8.

9. Charge shall be given to the clerk of the market and of measures, that he deliver his estreats in form abovesaid, id. s. 9.

10. "WHERE IN THE GREEN WAX IT IS SENT TO THE SHERIFFS to levy H. M.'s debts, and they levy the same by rolls and other remembrances, and do not shew the estreats under the seal of the exchequer, so that that which is once levied cometh another time in demand, because that they do not charge themselves fully of that that is levied;" it is ordained that men shall see the estreats sealed, and that the same which is paid be totted and the estreats sent to the sheriffs upon the receipt. And if any sheriffs or their ministers do to the contrary, they shall answer to the party which will complain, and yield him treble damages, and make fine to H. M.: and he shall have his suit as well before justices of peace as before other justices. And the sheriffs shall account by the same estreats so totted and by none other; and the same estreats shall not be copied out by them, but the copy of the estreats in how much they touch the franchises of lords, shall be delivered to the bailiffs of the franchises under seal of the sheriffs: and the same bailiffs shall yield their account to the exchequer by the copies so delivered, 42 E. 3. c. 9.

11. CLERKS OF THE COURTS OF K. B. AND C. P., OF ASSIZE, and of the peace, town-clerks, clerks of sewer, clerks of the market, and others to whom it belongeth to make returns of the estreats into the exchequer, shall upon delivery of such estreats take this oath following, administered by any baron, or all the barons of exchequer, 4 W. & M. c. 24. s. 5.

"You shall swear, that these estreats, now by you delivered, are truly and carefully made up and examined, and that all fines, issues, amerciamments, recognizances and forfeitures, which were set, lost, imposed or forfeited, and in right and due course of law ought to be estreated in the court of exchequer, are, to the best of your knowledge and understanding, therein contained; and that in the same estreats are also contained and expressed all such fines as have been paid into the court from which the said estreats are made, without any wilful or fraudulent discharge, omission, misnomer, or defect whatsoever. So help you God."

12. Besides the penalties of 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 22. (tit. FINES AND AMERCIAMMENTS,) and 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. s. 5. (last pl.) the barons of exchequer may from time to time amerce the officers, (in 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 21. s. 5. mentioned) for neglect of duty in returning the said estreats according to those acts, and shall cause such amerciamments to be levied as other amerciamments set in that court have been used to be done, 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 12.

EVIDENCE. (See WITNESSES.)

1. EXEMPLIFICATIONS OF INSTRUMENTS OF DEEDS DESTROYED IN the late insurrection shall be of like force as the original deeds, 6 R. 2. st. 1. c. 4., and 5 R. 2. st. 1. c. 9.

2. TO AVOID THE DOUBLE PAYMENT OF DEBTS, 7 J. 1. c. 12. [CON. indefinitely, 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 22., 16 C. 1. c. 4.]

3. No tradesman or handicraftsman keeping a shop-book, his executors or administrators shall be admitted to give the same in evidence in any action for money due for wares delivered or work done above one year before such action brought, except they have gotten a bill of debt, or brought some action for such debt, wares, or work done, within one year after the same was due, id. s. 1.

4. This act shall not extend to any intercourse of trading between merchants and tradesmen for any thing directly falling within the compass of their mutual trades, id. s. 2.

5. TO AMEND THE LAWS RESPECTING THE ATTESTATION OF INSTRUMENTS of appointment and revocation made in exercise of certain powers in deeds, wills, or other instruments, 54 G. 3. c. 168.

6. Every deed or other instrument already made with intention to exercise any power, authority, or trust, or to signify the consent or direction of any person whose consent, &c. may be necessary to be so signified shall, (if duly signed, executed, and otherwise duly attested,) be from the date thereof; and so as to establish derivative titles, if any, of the same and no other validity and effect at law and in equity, and proveable in like manner as if a memorandum of attestation of signature, or being under hand had been subscribed by the witness thereto, which attestation, expressing the fact of sealing, or of sealing and delivery, without expressing the fact of signing, or other form of attestation, shall not exclude the proof or presumption of signature, id. s. 1.

7. This act extends to all deeds and other instruments already made in exercise of powers and trusts of sale, exchange, partition, selection, nomination, discretion, leasing, jointuring, raising portions, and other charges, and for appointing new trustees, and to all other powers and trusts soever, or made for evidencing assent, request, direction or other like circumstance in reference to the execution thereof, id. s. 2.

8. The act has no retrospective operation on any appointment, revocation, or assurance heretofore made, as far as avoided by entry or claim, by suit at law or equity, or by other legal or equitable means, nor shall it affect any suit now pending for avoiding any appointment, &c., id. s. 3.

9. If any person who has made any such entry or claim, or who has brought or defended any suit for avoiding any such appointment, &c. should release the benefit of such entry, &c. within 6 months after passing this act, such entry, &c. shall not avoid any such appointment, &c. but the same shall remain in force as if no such entry or claim had been made, or suit brought or defended, id. s. 4.

10. The act shall not affect the validity of or respecting any instrument not within the above provisions, and which may want any formality in the attestation of any witness thereto, id. s. 5.

EXCEPTIONS (BILL OF).

1. OF A BILL OF EXCEPTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS THEREIN, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) s. 31.

2. When one impleaded before any of the justices doth allege an exception and prayeth its allowance, which is denied, if he who alleges such exception do write it and require the justices to put their seals to it in testimony thereof, the justices shall so do, and if one will not let another of the company do so [apponat alius de societate, associated], and if H. M. on complaint of justices cause the record to come before him, and such exception be not in the roll, and the plaintiff shew the exception written with the seal of the justice thereto, the latter shall be commanded to appear at a certain day, either to acknowledge or deny his seal, and if he cannot deny it, they shall proceed thereon to determine whether it ought to be allowed or not, id. ibid.

EXCOMMUNICATION.

1. ALL THOSE WHO MALICIOUSLY DEPRIVE THE CHURCH OF HER right, or violate the church liberties, or old approved customs of the realm, and chiefly the liberties and free customs contained in Magna Carta and Carta de Foresta, by deed or counsel, and all those who make or observe statutes, or bring in or observe customs brought in against the same; and the writers of such statutes, with their counsellors and executors, and all persons judging according, or wittingly committing any of the above offences shall incur the sentence of excommunication on the deed done, and those who commit the same ignorantly, and are admonished thereof, except they reform themselves within 15 days, and make satisfaction at will of the ordinary, shall be joined in the same sentence, as well as all those who perturb the peace of H. M. and the realm, 37 H. 3. Sententia lata super Cartas. [Translated from Ruffhead's Edit.: sed QU. if not virtually REV., 53 G. 3. c. 127. s. 1. taking away all excommunication, except as in s. 3.]

2. H. M.'s LETTER DIRECTED TO ORDINARIES WHO HAVE WRAPPED their subjects in the sentence of excommunication, that they should assai them by a certain day, or else appear and shew the causes of such excommunication, shall not go forth but where it is found that H. M.'s liberty is prejudiced by the excommunication, 9 E. 2. c. 7. Art. Cler. [excommunication taken away, 53 G. 3. c. 127. s. 1. except as in s. 3.]

3. IF ANY OF H. M.'s TENURE [see 2 Inst. 631.] BE CALLED BEFORE their ordinaries out of the parish where they dwell, if they be excommunicate for contumacy, and after 40 days the ordinary writes that they may be taken, and they pretend privilege that they ought not to be cited out of the town and parish where their dwelling is, H. M.'s writ for taking them never was nor shall be denied, 19 Ed. 2. c. 12. [see note to last pl.]

4. FOR DUE EXECUTION OF THE WRIT OF excommunicato capiendo, 5 El. c. 23. and s. 1. [excommunication is taken away by 53 G. 3. c. 127. s. 1. supra Courts (Ecclesiastical), pl. 33. except in definitive sentences, or interlocutory decrees having the effect of them when pronounced as spiritual censures for offences of ecclesiastical cognizance, id. s. 2. and the writ de contumace capiendo, appears substituted in all other cases for that of excommunicato capiendo, but subject to the provisions of 5 El. c. 23. affecting the latter.]

5. All writs of excommunicato [see the last pl.] capiendo awarded out of chancery against any person within the realm of Eng. shall be made in the term, and returnable in K. B. in the term next after teste thereof, and shall contain at least 20 days between the teste and return: and after such writ is sealed, it shall be delivered of record in presence of the justices of K. B. to the sheriff or his deputy, to be executed: and if it be not duly returned, or any default be made in its non-execution, such justices may amerce the sheriff at discretion, and estreat the same into exchequer, id. s. 2.

6. The sheriff shall not be compelled to bring up the body of the excommunicate into court on the return day, but shall only return the writ into K. B. with declaration briefly how he hath served and executed the same in order that the justices may proceed according to this act, id. s. 3.

7. If the sheriff returns non est inventus, K. B. shall award one capias against the person named in the excommunicato capiendo, returnable in term time, 2 months at least after the teste, with a proclamation to be contained within the writ, that the sheriff in the full county court, or else at the assize, or gaol-delivery, or at a quarter sessions, shall make proclamation at least 10 days before the return, that the party shall within 6 days next after yield his body to the gaol of the sheriff, on pain of forfeiture of 10*l.* after which proclamation had, and 6 days expired, the sheriff shall make return into K. B. of all that he hath done, and whether the party have yielded his body to prison or not, id. s. 4.

8. If it appear on his return that the party has not yielded his body as in the proclamation, he shall forfeit 10*l.* to H. M. to be estreated into exchequer, id. s. 5.

9. A second writ of capias shall then be issued, with a like proclamation, and a penalty of 20*l.* mentioned therein, and the sheriff shall execute same, as in s. 4. and if he return on the second capias that he hath made the proclamation, and that the party hath not yielded his body to prison, the party shall forfeit 20*l.* as in s. 5. id. s. 6.

10. A third writ of capias shall then be awarded, with proclamation, and on pain of forfeiture, as contained in the second capias, and shall be executed as in s. 4.; if like return be made to the third writ the party shall forfeit other 20*l.* to be estreated as in s. 5.: and therefore the justices of K. B. shall award one writ of capias, with like proclamation, and like pain of forfeiture of 20*l.*, and shall have authority infinitely to award such process of capias, with like proclamation, and pain of forfeiture of 20*l.*, until such time as by return of some of the said writs it appears that the party has yielded himself to the sheriff, id. s. 7.

11. Every person yielding his body to the sheriff, on any of the said writs of capias, shall remain in prison, as if he had been apprehended on the excommunicato capiendo, id. s. 8.

12. Every sheriff or other officer making an untrue return on any of the said writs, that the party hath not yielded his body on the proclamations, shall forfeit 40*l.*, which the party grieved shall recover by action in any of H. M.'s courts of record, without essoin allowed to defendant, id. s. 9.

13. Saving to all archbishops and bi-shops, and others having authority to certify any person excommunicated, like authority to receive the submission of the person excommunicated, and him to absolve, and the same to signify to H. M. into chancery, and thereupon to have such writs for deliverance of the person absolved as heretofore, id. s. 10.

14. Provided that in Warr the counties palatine, and county of Ely, and in the cinque ports, after any significavit being of record in chancery, the tenor of such significavit, shall be sent by mittimus to the head officers of the county in Wa., counties palatine, and places exempt, within whose jurisdiction the offender shall be resident, viz. to the chancellor or chamberlain for the counties of Lancaster and Cheshire; and for the cinque ports to the lord warden; and for Wa. and Ely, and the county of Durham, to the chief justice or justices there, and the said officers may make like process returnable before the justices there, at their next sessions or courts, two months at least after the teste of such process, so as they shall proceed in their session and courts as the justices of K. B. are limited in terms to do, id. s. 11.

15. No person, at the time of any such capias awarded, being in prison, or beyond the seas, or within age, or non sana memoria, or feme covert shall incur the above forfeitures, and the party grieved may plead every such matter in bar, upon the distress or other process that shall be made for levying the said forfeitures, 5 El. c. 23. s. 12.

16. If the offender against whom such writ of excommunicato capiendi shall be awarded, shall not, in the same writ, have a sufficient addition according to the statute of 1 H. 5. c. 5., or if in the significavit it be not contained that the excommunication doth proceed upon some cause or contempt of some original matter of heresy, or refusing to have his child baptized, or to receive the communion, or to come to divine service, or error in matters of religion or doctrine, incontinency, usury, simony, perjury in the ecclesiastical court, or idolatry, then all forfeitures limited against such persons shall be void, and by way of plea to be allowed to the party grieved, id. s. 15.

17. And if the addition is with a nuper of the place, then one writ of proclamation, without any pain expressed, shall be awarded into the county where the offender shall be most commonly resident at the time of awarding of the first capias, with pain, returnable the day of the return of the first capias; and if such proclamation be not made in the county where the offender shall be most commonly resident, he shall sustain no forfeiture for not yielding his body, id. s. 14.

EXECUTION.

1. OF EXECUTION IN PERSONAL ACTIONS (Flegit Statute), 13 E. 1. c. 18. (West Sec.)

2. When a debt is recovered or knowledged in H. M.'s court, or damages awarded, it shall be in the election of the plaintiff to have a fi. facias to the sheriff to levy the debt on the lands and chattels of the debtor, or that the sheriff shall deliver to him all the debtor's chattels, except his oxen and beasts of plough, and the one half of his land, till the debt be levied according to a reasonable price or extent; and if he be put out of that estate, he shall recover by a writ of novel disseisin, and after by a writ of redisseisin if necessary, id. ibid.

3. PROCESS OF EXECUTION ON MATTERS OF RECORD, 13 E. 1. c. 45. (West Sec.)

4. The things found enrolled before the chancellor and justices that have record, or contained in fines, whether they be contracts, covenants, obligations, services, or customs knowledged, or other things soever enrolled, whereunto H. M.'s court may give authority, shall have such force that it shall not be needful to plead for them, but when the plaintiff comes to the court, if the recognizance or fine levied be fresh, viz. levied within the year, he shall forthwith have execution; and if the recognizance were made, or the fine levied of a further time passed, the sheriff shall be commanded to give knowledge to the party, that he be before the justices at a certain day, to shew cause against the execution of the matters enrolled or contained in the fine; and if he do not come at the day, or comes but can say nothing, the sheriff shall be commanded to cause the thing enrolled in the fine to be executed; in like manner shall the ordinary [see 2 Inst. 472] be commanded in his case, observing, nevertheless, what is before said of a mesne, [see 13 E. 1. West Sec. c. 9. tit. MESNE] which by recognizance or judgment is bound to acquit, id. West Sec. c. 45.

5. FOR CONTENTATION OF DEBTS UPON EXECUTION, 32 H. 8. c. 5.

6. If any lands, tenements, and hereditaments delivered in execution, are lawfully diverted and evicted out of the possession of the person holding same by such execution, without fraud or default of such tenants, before he has levied the whole debt and damages, then such recoverer, obligee, and recognizee shall have a writ of scire facias out of the same court from whence the former execution proceeded, against such persons as such execution was first pursued against, their heirs, executors, or assigns of such lands, &c. as were then charged with the execution, returnable 40 days after the date; at which day, if defendant, being lawfully warned makes default, or appears and does not shew sufficient cause, (other than acceptance of such lands, &c. by former execution,) the lord chancellor or justices before whom such scire facias is returnable, shall make new writs out of the former record of judgment, statute merchant, or staple, or recognizance of the like effect with the former writ, to levy the residue of such debt and damage, id. ibid.

7. FOR AVOIDING UNNECESSARY DELAYS OF EXECUTIONS, 3 J. 1. c. 8. and 13 C. 2. S. 2. c. 2. s. 8. [MADE PERP. 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 4. and AMB. VIRTUALLY AMD. 13 C. 2. S. 2. c. 2. s. 9—11.]

8. No execution shall be staid or delayed by any writ of error or supersedeas to be sued thereupon, for reversing any judgment in any action of debt on any single bond for debt, or on any obligation conditioned for payment of money only, or on action of debt for rent or on any contract sued in any court at Westminster, or in the counties palatine, or of great sessions in Wa., unless plaintiff in error shall, with two sufficient surties, be bound by recognizance to the defendant in error, in double the sum recovered by him, to prosecute such writ of error with effect, and also (if judgment is affirmed) to pay all the debt, damages and costs to be adjudged on the former judgment, and the costs and damages to be awarded for delay of execution, (viz. double costs, 13 C. 2. S. 2. c. 2. s. 9. next pl.) 3 J. 1. c. 8.

9. No execution shall be stayed in any of the courts aforesaid by any writs of error, or supersedeas thereon, after verdict and judgment thereon obtained in any action of debt for not setting out tithes on 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 13., nor in any action of assumpsit to pay money, or of trover, covenant, detinue, and trespass, unless the recognizance under 3 J. 1. c. 8. is first acknowledged in the court where such judgment is given, 13 C. 2. S. 2. c. 2. s. 9.

10. Defendant in error shall have double costs for delay of execution, where judgment is affirmed after verdict in any such court, id. s. 10.

11. Nothing herein extends to actions popular or penal, (except debt for not setting out tithes,) or to any indictment, presentment, inquisition, information, or appeal, id. s. 11.

12. FOR RELIEF OF CREDITORS AGAINST PERSONS DYING IN EXECUTION, 21 J. 1. c. 24., and recital in s. 1. 2.

13. The party at whose suit or to whom any person stands charged in execution for any debt or damages recovered, his executors or administrators, may, after the latter's death, have new execution against the lands and tenements, goods or chattels, or any of them of the deceased, as if he had never been taken in execution, id. s. 2.

14. This act shall not give liberty to any party, their executors or administrators, at whose suit such deceased was, and died in execution, to have new execution against any lands, tenements or hereditaments of such deceased, which at any time after such judgment have been boni fide sold by him for payment of any of his creditors, and the money produced by such sale paid or secured to any of the latter, with their privity and consent, in discharge of due debts, or part thereof, id. s. 3.

15. TO PREVENT DELAYS IN EXTENDING JUDGMENTS, statutes-merchant and staple, and recognizances, 16 & 17 C. 2. c. 5. [MADE PERP. 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 2. AMB. 29 C. 2. c. 5. s. 16.]

16. When any such judgment, &c. is extended, the same shall not be avoided or delayed because any part of the lands extendible are omitted out of such extent; saving always to the parties whose lands shall be extended, and their heirs, executors or assigns, their remedy for contribution against such persons whose lands are omitted, id. s. 2.

17. This act shall not give any extent or contribution against any heir within age during his minority in respect of any lands descended, id. s. 3. and extends only to statutes-merchant, &c. for payment of monies; and to extents made within 20 years after the statute, recognizance or judgment had, id. s. 4.

18. No fi. fa., or other writ of execution, shall bind the property of goods but from the time of delivery of such writ to the sheriff to be executed, and the sheriff shall, on such receipt, without fee, indorse on the back thereof the day of the month whereon he received the same, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 16.

19. TO REGULATE THE SALE OF FARMING STOCK taken in execution, 56 G. 3. c. 50.

20. No sheriff or other officer in Eng. or Wa. shall, by virtue of any process, carry off or sell, or dispose of, for the purpose of being carried off from any lands let to farm, any straw threshed or unthreshed, or any straw of crops growing, or any chaff, corder, or any turnips, manure, compost, ashes or sea-weed in any case soever; nor any hay, grass or grasses, whether natural or artificial, nor any tares or vetches, roots or vegetables, being the produce of such lands, in any case where, according to any covenant or written agreement entered into for the benefit of the landlord, such hay, grass or grasses, tares and vetches, roots or vegetables, ought not to be taken off from such lands, or which, by the tenor of such covenants ought to be used thereon, and of which such sheriff or officer shall have received a written notice before the same, id. s. 1.

21. The tenant, on having knowledge of such process, shall give a written notice to the sheriff or officer of such covenants, and also of the name and residence of the landlord; who shall forthwith, and before sale, send a notice by the general post to the landlord, and also to his known steward or agent, stating the fact of possession having been taken; and such sheriff or officer shall, in all cases of the absence or silence of such landlord or his agent, postpone the sale until the latest day he lawfully can, id. s. 2.

22. But the sheriff or officer may dispose of any crops hereinbefore mentioned to any person who shall agree in writing with them to use the same on such lands, in such manner as accords with the custom of the country; and in cases where any covenant or agreement is shewn, then according to the same; and after such sale, so qualified, such persons may use all such necessary barns, stables, buildings, outhouses, yards and fields, for the purpose of consuming the crops, as such sheriff or officer shall allot to them for that purpose, and which such tenant would have been entitled to have used for the like purpose, id. s. 3.

23. And such sheriff or officer shall, on request of any landlord grieved by any breach of such agreement, permit him to bring any action in the name of the former for the recovery of damages, such landlord having indemnified such sheriff, &c. against costs, 56 G. 5. c. 30. s. 4.

24. Such sheriff or officer shall, before sale, make due enquiry within the parish, as to the name and residence of the landlord, id. s. 5.

25. In all cases where any purchaser shall have entered into any agreement with such sheriff or officer, the landlord shall not distrain for rent, on any corn, hay, straw, or other produce severed from the soil, and sold, subject to such agreement by such sheriff or officer; nor on any turnips, whether drawn or growing, if sold according to this act; nor on any horses, sheep, or other cattle, nor on any beasts soever, nor on any waggons, carts, or other implements of husbandry which any person shall employ or use for the purpose of threshing out, carrying or consuming any such produce under this act, and the agreement between the sheriff or officer and the purchasers of such produce, id. s. 6.

26. No sheriff or officer shall sell any clover, ryegrass, or artificial grass soever, newly sown, and growing under any crop of standing corn, id. s. 7.

27. But this act shall not extend to any straw, turnips or other articles which the tenant may remove from the farm consistently with some contract in writing, id. s. 8.

28. Where an action is brought against such sheriff or officer, no plaintiff shall recover any damages, unless it be proved that the breach or omission was wilful, id. s. 9.

29. No sheriff or under-sheriff, nor any of their deputies, agents, bailiffs or servants, nor persons purchasing any hay, straw, chaff, turnips, grasses or other produce before mentioned under this act, shall be deemed a trespasser by reason of coming upon or remaining in possession of any barns or other buildings, yards or fields, for the purpose of threshing out or consuming any straw, hay, turnips or other produce under this act, or for doing any thing necessary, though done after the return of the process, id. s. 10.

30. No assignee of any bankrupt, or of any insolvent debtor's estate, nor any assignee under any bill of sale, nor any purchaser of the goods, chattels, stock or crop of any person engaged in husbandry on any lands let to farm, shall take, use or dispose of any hay, &c. (as in s. 10.) in any other manner than such bankrupt, insolvent debtor, or person engaged in husbandry, ought to have taken, used or disposed of the same, id. s. 11.

EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. THE EXECUTORS OF THOSE SLAIN [that were of the same quarrel] shall have action to recover their testator's goods; all assurances made to certain rebels by duress shall be void, 1 Ed. 3. st. 1. c. 5. [Semb. Exp. and personal in part.]

2. FOR REGULATING THE EXPENSE OF PROVING TESTAMENTS, 3 H. 5. c. 8. [REC. 21 H. 8. c. 5. s. 1., but Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. THE ORDINARY SHALL BE BOUND TO PAY THE DEBTS of the intestate, as his executors would have been if he had made a will, 13 Ed. 1. c. 19. West. Sec. [but see 31 Ed. 3. c. 11. s. 1. pl. 7. by which the ordinary is bound to appoint administrators.]

2. EXECUTORS SHALL HENCEFORTH HAVE A WRIT OF ACCOUNT, and the same action and process thereby as their testator might have had, 13 Ed. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 25.

3. EXECUTORS FOR TRESPASSES TO THEIR TESTATORS, as of their goods and chattels carried away in their life, shall have action against the trespassers, and recover damages as their testators might have done, 4 Ed. 5. c. 7.

4. IN WRIT OF DEBT AGAINST DIVERS EXECUTORS, they shall have but one esoin before appearance, viz. at the summons or attachment, and the same after appearance, so that they shall never, in either case, fourch [see Termes de la Ley] by esoin; and though the sheriff answer at the summons that any one of them has nought wherewith to be summoned, yet there shall be an attachment awarded upon him; and if the sheriff answer nulla bona, the great distress shall be awarded, so that at its return they that first appear shall answer to plaintiff; and though some have appeared and make default at the day that the great distress is returned upon the others, yet they that first appeared as above shall answer; and if judgment pass for plaintiff, he shall have judgment and execution against those who have pleaded, and against all the others named in the writ of the testator's goods, as if they had all pleaded; and if any in such case will sue after the law heretofore used, he may do it, 9 Ed. 5. st. 1. c. 5.

5. EXECUTORS OF EXECUTORS SHALL HAVE ACTIONS OF DEBTS, accounts, and goods of the first testator's carried away, and execution of his statutes merchant, and recognisances in court of record made to the first testator in the same manner as he would have had if alive; and the said executors of executors shall answer to others for as much as they have recovered of the goods of the first testator, as the first executors should do if living, 25 E. 3. S. 5. c. 5. [and see 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. s. 12. pl. 41.]

6. TO WHOM THE ORDINARY MAY COMMIT THE ADMINISTRATION of the goods of him that dieth intestate, 31 E. 3. c. 11.

7. Where a man dies intestate the ordinary shall depute of his next and most lawful friends to administer his goods, and they shall have action to demand and recover his debts in H. M.'s court, and shall answer therein to others to whom he was holden and bound in like manner, and shall be accountable to the ordinaries as executors, id. s. 1. [and see now 23 & 23 C. 2. c. 10. pl. 27. &c.]

8. FOR REDRESSING EXTORTION IN BISHOPS' OFFICERS in proving wills 31 E. 3. c. 4. [RECITED 21 H. 8. c. 5. s. 1. and Amd. by that act.]

9. H. M. shall cause his justices to enquire of such oppressions and extortions, and to hear and determine them as well at suit of H. M. as of the party, 31 E. 3. c. 4.

10. CONCERNING FINES [FEES] AND SUMS OF MONEY to be taken by the ministers of bishops and other ordinaries for probate of testaments, 21 H. 8. c. 5. and recital in s. 1.

11. Nothing shall be taken by any bishop, archdeacon, chancellor, or other person having power to take probate of wills by themselves or registers, apparitors, or other ministers for the probate of any will, or for writing, sealing, appraising, or registering fines, making inventories, and giving acquittances, or for other cause concerning the same, where the goods of the testator, or person dying, do not clearly amount above the value of 100s. sterling, except 6d. only to the scribe for writing the probate in the latter case; and 6d. for commission of administration to a person dying intestate in like case: and such bishop, &c. shall not refuse to prove such will lawfully tendered to them in writing for that purpose, whereof the goods of testator amount not above 100s., being ready to be sealed, with wax thereunto affixed, and the same being lawfully proved before such ordinary, before the sealing, to be true, whole, and the last will of the testator, in the usual form in that behalf, id. s. 2.

12. Where the testator's goods amount to more than 100s. clear value, but do not exceed 40l., no bishop, &c. (as in s. 2.) shall take for the probate of any will, &c. (as in s. 2.) above 3s. 6d.; 2s. 6d. of which shall go to the bishop or ordinary for him and his ministers, and 12d. residue to the scribe for the registering the same; and where the goods of the testator, or person so dying, amount above that value, then 5s.; 2s. 6d. of which shall go to the bishop, &c. as above, and 2s. 6d. to the scribe for registering the same, or else the latter to refuse the 2s. 6d. and have 12d. for writing of every 10 lines thereof, each line being 10 inches long; and every such bishop or ordinary shall approve, seal, and register such bills, and deliver them sealed with the official seal to the executors named in the will for the above sum without delay (id. s. 3.); and where any person dies intestate, or where executors refuse to prove a will, the ordinary shall grant administration to the widow of the deceased, or to his next of kin, or both at discretion, taking surety of them for true administration of the goods, chattels, and debts which he shall be authorized to administer; and where diverse persons, equal in degree to the testator or deceased, claim administration as next of kin, or where only one person claims administration as next of kin, where many have equality of kindred, the ordinary shall be at his election to accept any one or more making request; so where but one or more of them, and not all equal in degree, do make request, the ordinary shall admit the widow, and him or them only making request, or any one at his pleasure, taking nothing for it, unless the goods of the deceased amount to 100s.: and if they amount to more, and not above 40l., the bishop, &c. (as in s. 2.) and his officers shall only take 2s. 6d., id. s. 3.

13. The executors, or such person to whom administration is committed, taking to them 2 persons at least to whom the deceased was indebted or made any legacy, and on their absence 2 other persons next of kin to the deceased, and on their default 2 other honest persons, and in their presence, and by their discretions, shall make a true inventory of all the goods, moveable and immoveable, of the deceased, and shall cause the same to be indented, whereof one part shall by such executors or administrators upon their oath taken before the bishop, &c. that it is good and true, be delivered to the keeping of such bishop, &c. and the other shall be kept by themselves; and no bishop, &c. (as in s. 2.) shall, under the penalty (in s. 7.) refuse to take such inventory to him delivered or tendered as above, id. s. 4.

14. If the deceased will any lands or hereditaments to be sold, the money thereof arising, or the profits of the lands for any time to be taken, shall not be accounted as any of the goods of the deceased, and such bishop or ordinary shall, on delivery of the seal and sign of the testator, cause the same to be defaced and redeliver it to the executors without claim therefore: and if any person require a copy of the will proved, or inventories made, the ordinary, or his minister, shall without delay, and with all convenient speed, deliver a true copy thereof to the person demanding it, taking for the search and for making the copy only the fee allowed for registering the will (s. 2, 3.), or the scribe may take 1d. for every 10 lines, of 10 inches long each, at his election, 21 H. 8. c. 5. s. 5.

15. Where any person having power to grant probates or administration as above, has used to take less than the above sums, he shall continue to take the same, and not above, id. s. 6.

16. Every bishop, ordinary, and other person having authority to take probate of testaments, their registers, and other ministers, shall forfeit for every time they do, or attempt, or cause to be done, &c. any thing against this act, to the party grieved, so much money as he shall take contrary to this act, and 10*l.* besides, to go in moieties to H. M. and party grieved, who will sue for the same by action of debt or information, without essoin, &c. allowed; and every bishop, and other such person, who shall incur such penalty, shall be charged only separately for his own act, id. s. 7.

17. This act shall not prejudice any ordinary or other person having authority to grant probates, but he may convene before him all persons named executors of any will, and do every thing therein as before this act for the fees limited herein, id. s. 8.

18. A REMEDY FOR EXECUTORS AGAINST SERVANTS who embezzle their master's goods after his death, 33 H. 6. c. 1.

19. After full information to the chancellor by the executors of any such lord or person, or 2 of them, of any such riot, taking, and spoil made by the household servants of testator after his death, the chancellor, by advice of the chief justices of both benches, and of C. B. of exchequer, or 2 of them, may make so many and such writs, to be directed to such sheriffs, by their discretion, as to them seems necessary in that behalf, to make open proclamation in such places 2 market days within 12 days next after delivery thereof, as to the chancellor, with the above advice, shall seem reasonable that the offenders shall appear before H. M., or his heirs, in his bench at a day limited by the said writ, so that the last proclamation be made by 15 days before such appearance day, and if any such writ be returned at the day therein contained, and be executed so that proclamation be thereupon had according to the above ordinance; and then if the parties summoned by such proclamation make default at the day specified in such writ, and do not appear, they shall be attainted of felony, id. s. 1.

20. And if they do appear, the judges of K. B. may commit them to prison, there to remain at discretion of the bench until they answer to the executors in action by bill or writ, for the riot, taking, and spoiling aforesaid, which action must be pursued with effect, and not slackly, with intent to keep the parties in prison, id. s. 2.

21. If such persons be set at liberty by the justices then they must find sufficient sureties to be bound with them in recognizances to the executors at discretion of the justices, to keep such days as they shall have by the same court; and if the keeper of the prison to which they are committed suffer them to go at large, without order of such justices, he shall forfeit 40*l.* to the executors; and no protection shall be allowed in any action on the said ordinance, id. s. 3.

22. CONCERNING EXECUTORS OF LAST WILLS AND TESTAMENTS, 21 H. 8. c. 4.

23. Where part of the executors named in any will of lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, to be sold by them after testator's death, refuse to administer, and the residue of them take on them the charge of the will, then all bargains and sales of such lands, &c. made by the latter only, shall be as effectual, as if all had joined in making the bargain and sale, id. s. 1.

24. But this act shall not empower any executors to bargain, or put to sale, any hereditaments, otherwise than by common law, id. s. 2.

25. AGAINST FRAUDULENT ADMINISTRATION OF INTESTATE'S goods, 45 El. c. 8.

"Forasmuch as for defrauding creditors, the intended administrators of persons dying intestate, will not accept administration, but procure it to be granted to some stranger of small estate, who grants them deeds of gift, and authorizes by letters of attorney, to obtain intestate's property into their hands, without their being subject to pay his debts; whereupon the creditors either cannot find the administrator, in order to arrest him, or if they find him, he hath no goods to satisfy them," id. s. 1.

26. Every person who shall reserve any goods or debts of any intestate, or a release of any debt that belonged to him, on any such fraud as above, or without such valuable consideration as amounts to the value of the same goods or debts, (except in satisfaction of some principal debt of like value owing to him by intestate,) shall be chargeable, as executor de son tort, only so far as such goods and debts will satisfy, deducting allowance of all just principal debts owing to him by intestate, and of all other payments which executors, &c. ought by law to make, id. s. 2.

27. FOR BETTER SETTLING OF INTESTATE'S ESTATES, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 10. [Statute of Distributions, Con. 30 C. 2. S. 1. c. 6. 1 J. 2. c. 17. s. 5. Ann. 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 25. 1 J. 2. c. 17. ss. 6—8.]

28. All ordinaries and ecclesiastical judges shall, on granting administration of intestate's goods, take bonds, with 2 or more able sureties, respect being had to the value of the estate, in the name of the ordinary, with condition, "That the administrator shall make a true and perfect inventory of all goods, chattels; and credits of the deceased, and exhibit the same, into the registry of — before —; and such of them as shall come to his, or to the hands and possession of any other person for him, shall truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his administration, at or before —; and the rest of the goods, &c. found remaining on the account, the same being first examined and allowed by the court, shall deliver and pay to such person, as the judge by decree, pursuant to the intent of this act shall appoint;" and if it after appears, that any will was made, and the executor therein made exhibits the same in court, requesting that it should be allowed and approved, and being so approved, the administrator being thereunto required, shall deliver up the said letters of administration in court, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 10. s. 1.

29. Such ordinaries, &c., may call such administrators to account, and order distribution of what remains (after debts, funerals, and just expences of all sorts first deducted) according to the laws in such case, and the rules and limitations hereafter set down, saving to parties grieved the right of appeal, id. s. 3.

30. NO ADMINISTRATOR SHALL BE CITED TO ANY OF THE COURTS in 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 10. s. 1. pl. 28. to render account of the personal estate of his intestate, otherwise than by inventory thereof, unless at instance of some person in behalf of a minor, a creditor, or next of kin; nor shall be compellable to account before any ordinaries or judges empowered by s. 1.—3. of that act to take the same, otherwise than as above, 1 J. 2. c. 17. s. 6.

31. Nothing in this act shall prejudice the customs of the city of London and [province of York, but see, as to the latter, WILLS] 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 10. s. 4.; but this provision does not extend to such part of intestate's estate, as any administrator, by virtue only of being such, by pretence of any custom, may claim to exempt from distribution; but such part in his hands shall be liable to distribution, as in other cases within that act, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 10. s. 6.

32. The surplusage shall be thus distributed: one-third thereof to the wife; all the residue equally among his children and their legal representatives, if any be dead, other than such children, not heirs at law, who shall have any estate by intestate's settlement, or who have been advanced by intestate in his life-time, by portion equal to the share allotted to the other children under such distribution; and children, other than heirs at law, advanced by settlements, or portions not equal to the other children's shares, by such distribution, shall have so much of the surplusage, as shall make the estate of all to be equal; but the heir at law shall have equal share in distribution with the other children, notwithstanding any land had by descent or otherwise from intestate, id. s. 5.

33. If there are no children or representatives of them, then one moiety shall go to the wife, and the residue, equally to next of kin in equal degree, and their representatives, id. s. 6.

34. No representation shall be admitted among collaterals, after brothers' and sisters' children; and if there is no wife, all shall be distributed equally among the children; and if no child, then to the next of kin, as in s. 6. id. s. 7.

35. If after death of a father, any of his children die intestate without wife or children, in life-time of the mother, every brother and sister and their representatives shall have an equal share with her, 1 J. 2. c. 17. s. 7.

36. For having due regard to creditors, no distribution shall take place, till one year fully expired after intestate's death; and every person, to whom any share, &c. shall be allotted, shall give bond with sureties in the said courts, that if debts afterwards appear, he shall refund to the administrator his rateable part thereof; and of the administrator's costs of suit by reason of such debts, out of the share so allotted to him, in order to enable the administrator to pay the debts so discovered, after distribution made, as above, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 10. s. 8.

37. The ordinary shall continue to grant administration, cum testamento annexo, where it is usual so to do; and the will of the deceased shall be observed, as if this act had not been made, id. s. 9.

38. 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 10. does not extend to the estate of feme covert dying intestate; but their husbands may have administration of their personal estates, and recover and enjoy the same as before that act, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 25.

39. TO ENABLE CREDITORS TO RECOVER THEIR DEBTS OF THE EXECUTORS, and administrators of executors in their own wrong, 30 C. 2. S. 1. c. 7, and recital in s. 1. [Con. 1 J. 2. c. 17. s. 14. MADE PERE. and ANN. 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. s. 12.]

40. All executors and administrators of any person, who, as executor in his own wrong or administrator, shall waste or convert any goods, chattels, estate, or assets of any person deceased, to their own use, shall be liable in the same manner as their testator or intestate would have been if living, 30 C. 2. S. 1. c. 7. s. 2.

41. Every executor or administrator of such executor or administrator of right who shall waste or convert to his own use goods, chat-test, or estate of his testator or intestate, shall be liable in the same manner as his testator or intestate should have been, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. s. 12.

42. EVERY PERSON WHO SHALL ADMINISTER THE PERSONAL ESTATE of any person, without proving the will of the deceased, or taking out letters of administration within 6 calendar months after the death of the party dying, shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be recovered in the court of exchequer at Westminster, or in Scot. by action, bill, plaint, or information, and one moiety shall, if sued for within 6 calendar months, be to H. M., and the other to the person who shall sue, 37 G. 3. c. 90. s. 10. [And see further penalty of 100*l.*, and 10*l.* per cent. on the stamp-duty payable on such probate, 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 27., STAMPS.]

43. FOR ADMINISTRATION OF ASSETS WHERE THE EXECUTOR to whom probate has been granted is out of the realm, 38 G. 3. c. 87. [Ext. as to ss. 6, 7, to Ire. by 58 G. 3. c. 81. ss. 1, 2.]

44. At the end of 12 calendar months from testator's death, if the executor to whom probate of the will has been granted, is then residing out of the jurisdiction of the courts of law and equity, the ecclesiastical court having granted probate thereof, shall, on application of any creditor, next of kin, or legatee, grounded on the affidavit mentioned in s. 2., grant special administration on paper or parchment only, stamped with one 5*s.* stamp, [but this duty appears R.E.P. by 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 1., and lastly by 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 1.]

45. The party applying to the said court to grant such administration, shall make an affidavit in the following words, or to the effect following, viz.

I A. B. of — do swear that there is due and owing to me on bond or simple contract, (or, on account unsettled, as the case may happen to be, (in which latter case he shall swear to the best of his belief only,)) from the estate and effects of — deceased, the sum of —, and that C. D., the only executor capable of acting, and to whom probate hath been granted, hath departed this kingdom, and is now out of the jurisdiction of H. M.'s courts of law and equity, and that this deponent is desirous of exhibiting a bill in equity in H. M.'s court of — for the purpose of being paid his demand out of the assets of the said testator, id. s. 2.

46. And the administration to be granted pursuant to this act shall be in the form annexed to this section, id. s. 3.

47. And the court of equity in which the suit is depending may, if needful, appoint any person to collect in any outstanding debts or effects due to such estate, and to give discharges for the same, such persons giving security in the usual manner, duly to account for the same, id. s. 4.

48. The accountant-general of chancery, or the secretary or deputy-secretary of the bank of Eng. may transfer, and the bank may suffer a transfer to be made of any stock belonging to the estate of such deceased person into the name of the accountant-general in trust for such purposes as the court shall direct in any suit in which the person to whom such administration hath been granted, shall be a party, but if the executors capable of acting as such shall return to and reside within the jurisdiction of any of the said courts pending such suit, they shall be made parties to the suit, and the costs incurred by granting such administration and proceeding in such suit against such administrator, shall be paid by such person, or out of such fund as the court shall direct, id. s. 5.

49. Where an infant is sole executor, administration with the will annexed shall be granted to his guardian, or to such other person as the spiritual court shall think fit, until such infant has attained the full age of 21 years, at which period, and not before, probate shall be granted to him, id. s. 6. [Ext. to Ire., 58 G. 3. c. 81. s. 1.]

50. And the person to whom administration shall be granted, shall have the same powers vested in him as an administrator durante minore etate of the next of kin, id. s. 7. [Ext. to Ire., 58 G. 3. c. 81. s. 2.]

EXTENT.

1. TO MAKE THE LANDS, TENEMENTS, GOODS, AND CHATELS of tellers, receivers, &c. liable to the payment of their debts, 15 El. c. 4. [Ext. to under-collectors of tenths, 14 El. c. 7. pl. 13., &c. EXP. as to the sale of lands, and liability of heirs after the death of the accountant, 27 El. c. 3. pl. 15.; these two last acts R.E.P. 39 El. c. 7., (which is EXP.) and Rev. 1 J. 1. c. 25. ss. 30, 31., and these acts further AND. as to the sale of such lands, 25 G. 3. c. 35. pl. 22—23.]

2. All lands, tenements, profits, and hereditaments which any treasurer or receiver in the court of exchequer or duchy of Lancaster, treasurer of the chamber, cofferer of the household, treasurer for the war, treasurer of any fort, town, or castle where any garrison is kept, treasurer of the admiralty or navy, treasurer or other person accountable of the mint, treasurer or receiver of any money imprest, or otherwise, for the use of H. M., or for provisions of victual for the fortifications or works, or for any other provisions to be used in the offices of ordnance, artillery, armory, wardrobe, tents and pavilions, or revels, customer, collector, farmer of customs or other duties within any port, collector of the tenths, collector of any subsidy or subsidium, receiver-general of the revenues of any county answerable in the receipt of the exchequer or the duchy of Lancaster, or clerk of the hamper, shall have, whilst they remain accountable, shall, for satisfaction to H. M., of their arrears determined upon their account, be liable to the payment thereof, and be put in execution for such arrears or debts, in as large manner as if the same treasurer, &c. had, the day he became officer or accountant, stood bound by writing obligatory, having the effect of a statute staple to H. M., for the same arrears or debts, 13 El. c. 4. s. 1.

3. If any treasurer or other accountant before-mentioned, chargeable with money or treasure of H. M., shall, upon his account, or by reason of any farm as aforesaid, be found in arrear unto H. M., and shall not within 6 months after his accounts finished or debt known pay such money, H. M. may make sale by letter patent of so much of the lands of such accountant or debtor as may suffice for their debt or arrearages, all due petitions being allowed, id. s. 2. [Such sale is good after the death of the accountant, 27 El. c. 3. s. 2. pl. 15.]

4. If any overplus be had upon such sale, the same shall be paid to the accountant or his heirs, by the officer that shall receive the money, id. s. 3.

5. The sales made by H. M. shall be good against the debtor and his heirs, and against H. M.; notwithstanding any former charge or incumbrance to H. M., by the persons for whose debt the same was sold, id. s. 1.

6. If any person accountant or indebted as aforesaid, purchase lands, and cause the assurance to be made in the name of any other, where the same is intended to the use or behoof of such person accountant or indebted, or of any other, and the manner of purchasing and secret uses shall be found by office or inquisition, all lands so purchased shall be taken for satisfaction of the arrearages and debt, as though the person indebted were thereof seized, and all sales thereof shall be of like effect as in last pl., id. s. 5.

7. No bishop having the collection of any subsidy or tenths, or his lands in right of his bishoprick, shall be charged in any other manner than he might lawfully have been before this act, id. s. 9.

8. This act shall not charge any treasurer, receiver, teller, customer, collector, or accountant aforesaid, having any yearly receipt, nor their lands, whose yearly receipt, or whose whole receipt from the beginning of his charge, shall not be above 300*l.*, otherwise than he might lawfully have been charged before, id. s. 10.

9. "Forasmuch as sundry accountants are by order of their offices, after their accounts ended, to disburse the debt remaining, in such charges as are necessarily to be provided in their offices;" this act shall not give power to make sale of any lands for any such debt, unless H. M. on the ending of their accounts require present payment, or a new account of the same debt, which, or any part whereof is found owing and unexpended, and remains unpaid 6 months after such request, id. ss. 11—12.

10. This act shall not charge any sheriff, escheator, or bailiff of liberties, nor their lands, &c. for any thing touching their office, otherwise than they might have been charged before, id. s. 13.

11. Every person, whose lands shall by any office or inquisition be found to be fraudulently conveyed as in s. 5., pl. 6. shall have his traverse to such office or inquisition; and if it be found with the party that tendereth the traverse, he shall have the lands out of H. M.'s hands, without any petition, livery, [or ouster le main, taken away 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 1.] or any other suit, id. s. 14.

12. If H. M. shall by sale of lands be satisfied of the debt or arrear of such accountant or debtor, the sureties of such accountant or debtor shall be discharged of so much, id. s. 15.

13. The statute 13 El. c. 4. shall extend to all under-collectors of tenths and subsidies of the clergy, and to their lands, &c. and goods, &c. of what yearly sum soever the charge of their collection shall be, 14 El. c. 7. s. 1.

14. Every such under-collector shall, on process out of the court of exchequer, be chargeable to account for his receipt of such tenths and subsidies, as any receiver immediately accountable to H. M. ought to be; and every archbishop and bishop, and dean and chapter (sede vacante), to whose charge the collection of such tenths or subsidies shall appertain, shall be discharged of so much as shall be satisfied by the lands or goods of such under-collector, without any other warrant, id. s. 2.

15. The act 13 El. c. 4. touching the power to make sale of lands, shall be expounded as well in case where the sale is made after the death of such accountant or debtor, as where it is made in his life-time; and also as well where the account is made, or the debt known, within 8 years after the death of such accountant or debtor, as where the same account is made, or the debt known in his life-time, 27 El. c. 3. s. 2.

16. Provided, that after the death of such accountant and debtor, and before any lands descended unto the heir shall be sold, a seire facias shall be awarded out of the court of exchequer unto the sheriff of the county where such lands lie, to garnish the heir, to shew cause why the lands should not be put to sale; whereupon, if the heir do not within a convenient time, upon a garnishment or two nichils returned, shew to such court that the executor or administrators of such accountant or debtor have sufficient ought to answer for the debt or farm, then after 10 months after 2 nights, &c. returned, the lands shall be sold by H. M., 27 Ed. c. 3. s. 3.

17. The said recited act, and this statute of explanation also, shall not extend to any lands, which any person before any scire facias awarded shall purchase bond fide, and upon good consideration, id. s. 4.

18. This act of explanation shall extend only unto tellers, receivers, treasurers, customers, officers of the household, farmers of impost, collectors, bailiffs, victuallers, and other officers of receipts and accounts to H. M., id. s. 5.

19. In cases where any account ought to be made, or any debt shall be owing, in the court of the duchy of Lancaster, after the death of such accountant or debtor, and before any of the lands descended unto the heir be sold, process shall be awarded, viz. first a privy seal commanding the heir to make personal appearance, to shew cause as in the writ of scire facias to be awarded out of the exchequer is appointed; and if the heir shall make default at the return of the privy seal, upon affidavit that the privy seal was duly served either upon the person of the heir, or left at the place of his abode, an attachment with proclamation shall be awarded, and shall be proclaimed in some market-town in the county where the heir was last dwelling, 20 days before the return; and if upon return the heir make default, all things shall be done for sale of the lands, as is appointed where default is made upon a garnishment, or 2 nights, returned upon a scire facias out of the exchequer, vis. pl. 16. id. s. 6.

20. If the heir of any accountant or debtor before-mentioned shall be within the age of 21 years when such process shall be awarded, then during his nonage this act shall not be executed, as touching the selling of the lands; and after such heir shall accomplish the age of 21 years, the lands shall, during 3 years then next ensuing, be liable to be sold for the payment of H. M., id. s. 7.

21. This act shall not extend to the sale of the lands of any such heir for any account, debt, or farm, whereof such debtor or accountant shall have a quittance or discharge in his life-time, id. s. 8.

22. The court of exchequer, on application of H. M.'s attorney-general in a summary way, by motion, may order that the right and title, estate and interest, of any debtor to H. M., and the right, title, estate, and interest of the heirs and assigns of such debtor, in any lands, tenements, or hereditaments which shall be extended under a writ of extent, or dem. cleavit extremum, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy the debt for which the same shall have been extended, shall be sold in such manner as the court shall direct; and when a purchaser shall be found, the conveyance of the lands, &c. decreed to be sold, shall be made to the purchaser, by the remembrancer in such court, or his deputy, under the direction of the court, by a deed of bargain and sale, to be inrolled in the same court; and after such conveyance, and the inrolment thereof, the bargainee shall have and enjoy the lands, &c. therein comprised, for his own use, not only against the extent of the crown, but also against such debtor of the crown, or the sureties for such debtor, and all persons claiming under such debtor, or the sureties, unless by a title paramount to, and available in law against such extent; and all monies payable from such purchaser, shall be paid, accounted for, and applied towards the discharge of the debt due to the crown, and of all costs incurred by the crown in enforcing the payment of such debt, in such manner as such court shall order; and if, after payment of the whole debt to the crown, and of all costs, there shall be any surplus of the monies arising from such sale, the same shall belong to the same person as would be entitled to the lands, if there had not been a sale thereof, and shall accordingly be paid to such person, under the order of such court, upon motion or petition to such court, to be made upon such notice to the crown, and to be supported by such affidavits or proofs, as to the said court shall seem reasonable, 25 G. 3. c. 35. s. 1.

23. The court of exchequer may make order touching the production, delivery, and custody of title-deeds and writings, in the same manner as if a decree had been made by the said court for a sale of the lands of a crown debtor, in execution of a trust created for payment of debts by such crown debtor himself, id. s. 2.

24. To annulate the issuing of EXTENTS IN AID, 27 G. 3. c. 117.

25. On the issuing of every extent in aid on behalf of any debtor to

H. M., the court, the chancellor or chief or other baron of exchequer at Westminster, granting this act for issuing the same, shall cause the amount of the debt due to H. M. to be stated therein; and where the debt found due to the debtor to H. M. shall be equal to or exceed the debt so stated, the amount of debt so stated in the writ shall be indorsed on the writ, which being so indorsed, shall be the authority to the sheriff or other officer who shall execute such writ, in making his levy and executing the same, as to the amount to be levied under the same; and where the debt found due to the debtor to H. M. shall be of less amount than that stated in the writ, the amount of such debt so found due shall be indorsed on the writ, which being so indorsed, shall be authority to the sheriff as to the amount to be levied under the writ; and the money levied under every such extent in aid shall, by order of court, be paid over to H. M.'s use towards satisfaction of the debt so due to him as above, 27 G. 3. c. 117. s. 1.

26. Where the sum produced by sale of any lands, goods, or chattels, or by the receipt of any money by a sheriff under any such extent, shall be more than sufficient to satisfy the sum so indorsed on the writ, the overplus shall be paid into exchequer, with the sum so indorsed, and the court shall, on any summary application, make such order for the return, disposal, or distribution thereof, as they think proper, id. s. 2.

27. But nothing herein shall affect, either at law or in equity, any demand of the person to whom such debt shall have been due when seized into H. M.'s hands, or his assignees, executors, or administrators, as to the remaining part thereof, or as to suing any person against whom such writ shall have issued, or whose lands or goods shall have been seized under any such writ for the residue of such debt, or as to the recovery of the residue of any debt so seized or in part levied, or any other debt seized or sued for under such extent, but still unpaid either in the whole or in part; but any person, or his assignee, executor, &c. may demand, sue for, and recover the remainder, or any other debts, by the like process as if no such extent in aid had issued, id. s. 3.

28. No persons indebted to H. M. by simple contract only, or by bond, for answering any particular duties or sums of money becoming due to H. M. in the course of their particular trades or businesses; nor any subdistributor of stamps having given bond to H. M.; nor any person having given bond to H. M. either jointly or separately, as a surety only for some other debtor, until such surety shall have proved a demand made on him on H. M.'s behalf, for nonperformance, by the principal, of the conditions of the bond, and then only to the amount of that demand, may sue out any extent in aid on account of such debt to H. M., for recovery of any debt due to such persons, or subdistributor of stamps, or surety as aforesaid; and all commissions to find debts, extents in aid, and other proceedings so issued at the instance of or for such simple contract or bond debtors; and all proceedings thereon shall be void; but nothing herein shall prevent any persons becoming debtors to H. M. by simple contract only by the collection or receipt of any money arising from H. M.'s revenue, from applying for and suing out any commission or extents in aid, in case one or more of such persons shall be bound to H. M. by bond or specialty of record in exchequer, for answering or accounting to H. M. for the particular duties or sums which shall constitute the debt so due from such persons to H. M., id. s. 4.

29. No extent in aid shall be issued on any bond given by any persons, as sureties for paying any duties which may become due to H. M. from any society incorporated, or otherwise carrying on the business of insurance against any risks of fire, or of any other kind, id. s. 5.

30. Any persons now or hereafter imprisoned under extents in aid, may apply to the barons of exchequer, or to any baron in vacation, for their discharge, on giving one month's previous notice in writing to the persons to whom they owed the debt, stating the ground of such application, and an enumeration of all the property, debts, and effects soever in their own possession, or in that of other persons, for their use; and the said court or baron may order such persons to be brought before them, to be examined on oath; and if a full discharge of all their property and effects is then made, to the satisfaction of the said court, &c., or it shall otherwise appear reasonable that they should be no longer imprisoned, the latter may order a superdudum writ to be issued for their liberation from imprisonment, but which shall not be deemed to satisfy such extent in aid, except as to such imprisonment, or the debt seized by virtue of such extent, id. s. 6.

FALSE JUDGMENT. (See ERROR.)

1. None but H. M. shall file in his court any plea of false judgment given in the court of his tenants, for such pleas specially belong to his crown and dignity 23 (or 24) Ed. 3. c. 30.

2. An averment of the good country, and of those who were present when record was made, if they come with the others of the country by the sheriff's return, shall be received against a record of court-coming into H. M.'s court by writ of false judgment, 23 Ed. 3. c. 30.

3. Against a record in which such country and those who were present at the record is otherwise than the court records the same, an averment shall he received of the good country, and of those present in the court when the record was made, if such come with others of the country by the sheriff's return; and if not, the inquest shall be taken by the good country, 1 E. 3. s. 1. c. 4.

FEES.

1. THE FEES of marshals and chamberlains in fee, 13 Ed. 1. West. Sec. c. 42.

2. The marshal of every earl and baron, holding an entire barony, shall be contented with one palfrey, or the price of it, so that if he took such fee when doing homage, he shall take nothing when he is made a knight; and if he took nothing at doing his homage, when he is made a knight, he shall take. Of abbots holding an entire barony, when they do homage or fealty, he shall have one palfrey, or the price of it, and this shall be observed of archbishops or bishops; of such as hold a part of a barony, whether religious or secular, he shall take in proportion to the part held; and of religious men, that hold in free alms, and not by a barony, or part of one, the marshal shall take nothing, but may demand more, if he can show right. H. M.'s chamberlain shall have, of archbishops, bishops, and other persons spiritual, of earls and barons holding an entire barony, a reasonable fine when they do homage or fealty; and if they hold part of a barony, a fine in proportion; other persons spiritual or temporal shall not be distrained to make fine, but the chamberlain shall have the upper garment, or the price thereof, id. ibid.

3. THE FEES of porters bearing verges before the justices, and of cyrographers, clerks, &c., 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 44.

4. Porters bearing verge before justices of the bench in the circuit, shall take for every assize and jury they keep 10d.; and for cyrographs nothing; of such as recover their demands by default, confession, or otherwise, by judgment without assize and jury, nothing; of such as go without day, nothing. If any recover his demand against many by one writ and by recognizance of jury, 4d.; and if many named in one writ do recover by recognizance of assize or jury, 4d.; of such as do homage to the bench, they shall take their upper garments. Of great assizes, attainments, prizes, and battle waged, they shall take 12d. only; of such as be called before justices to sue or defend their plaints, they shall take nothing; at pleas of the crown, for every dozen [Qu. jury], 12d. shall be taken; of every prisoner delivered, 4d.; of every one whose peace is proclaimed, 12d. only; of finders of men slain, and others of a town attached, 4d.; of tithingmen, nothing; cyrographers, [see 2 H. 4. c. 8. Fines] for making a cyrograph, shall have 4s.; clerks writing writs original and judicial, shall have 12d., id. s. 1.

5. All justices, if such officers offend herein, on complaint made, shall punish them; for a second offence, a greater punishment; and for a third, they shall lose their fee in their offices, or avoid H. M.'s court, id. s. 2.

6. FOR TAKING AWAY DAMAGE CLEAR, 17 C. 2. c. 6. (and recital in s. 1.)

7. No damage clear shall be taken in any action sued in any court in Eng. or Wa. but the same shall wholly cease and be abolished; and if any prothonotary, or other officer of such courts, shall exact any sum in the name of damage clear, or any thing in lieu thereof, or shall refuse or delay to sign judgment until damage clear be paid, such officer shall forfeit treble the sum so taken, to be recovered by bill, plaint, or information in any of such courts, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 2.

16. FOR THE APPREHENSION AND PUNISHMENT of fugitive felons, 2 H. 5. S. 1. c. 9. [MADE PERP. and AMD. 8 H. 6. c. 14. and recital in s. 1.]

17. If any do come into chancery and complain that any offender by murder, manslaughter, robbery, battery, assemblies of the people in manner of insurrection, and of other rebellions and riots, hath fled into secret places, a bill shall be made for the king; and chancellor, on the bill delivered to him duly verified, shall award a capias at the suit of H. M., directed to the sheriff of the county where such murders, &c. were supposed by the bill to be done, returnable in chancery at a day certain; and if such offenders be taken by the sheriff, or yield themselves to the chancery, they shall be put to prison or mainprize in the discretion of the chancellor, and it shall be commanded to enquire of such offences as the law requires; and if the sheriff return that he cannot take such offenders, and they do not yield themselves, then the chancellor shall make a writ of proclamation, directed to the same sheriff, returnable in K. B. at a certain day, that he make proclamation in two county courts that such offenders come at such day into K. B. to answer such bill, on pain to be convict of the matters therein comprized; and in such writ of proclamation the substance of such bill shall be contained; and if they come not at such day, they shall be deemed convict or attainted, and if they do come, it shall be enquired of and done as aforesaid, id. s. 1.

18. Provided that the suggestions of such riots be certified to the chancellor by letters under the seals of two justices of peace, and the sheriff of the county before such capias granted, in which capias the matter comprised in such bill shall be expressed; and if a case happen in the county palatine of Lancaster, or elsewhere, in franchises, where there is a chancellor and seal, then the chancellor of Eng. shall cause to be written by H. M.'s writ to the chancellor of such county or franchise all such suggestions in such bill, commanding him to do execution, as in s. 1., so as H. M.'s writ out of chancery run not in such county or franchise, save as in times past, 2 H. 5. S. 1. c. 9. s. 2.

19. Provided it be certified by two justices of the peace of the counties where such riots happen, that the common fame and voice runneth thereof before capias granted; provided that if a case happen in the county palatine of Lancaster, or elsewhere, in a place enfranchised, where there is a chancellor and seal, then such chancellor, after complaint made, and duly certified by a justice or lieutenant of a justice, and the sheriff of such county palatine or place enfranchised as aforesaid, shall award a capias and writ of proclamation, as the chancellor of Eng. might, 8 H. 6. c. 14. s. 2.

20. CONCERNING FELONS AND MURDERERS, 6 H. 8. c. 6.

21. The justices of K. B. may remand, as well the bodies of all felons and murderers removed before H. M. in his bench, as their indictments into counties where such offences were done, and may command the justices of gaol delivery, justices of peace, and other justices and commissioners, to proceed and determine the same, as if it had never been brought into K. B., id. ibid.

22. FOR RESTITUTION TO BE MADE OF GOODS OF SUCH AS shall be robbed by felons, 21 H. 8. c. 11.

23. If any felons do rob any money, goods or chattels from H. M.'s subjects, from their person, or otherwise, and thereof be indicted, and after arraigned and found guilty thereof, or otherwise attainted by evidence given by the party robbed, or owner of such money, &c. or by any other by their procurement, then the party robbed, or owner, shall be restored to his money, &c.; and the justices of gaol delivery, and other justices afore whom such felon is so found guilty, or otherwise attainted, shall award writs of restitution for such money, &c. as though felons were attainted at suit of the party in appeal, id. ibid.

24. CONCERNING POWDIKE in Marshland, 22 H. 8. c. 11. [REP. 1 E. 6. c. 12. ss. 4—8. but REV. 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 19.]

B. at Westminster, there to remain of record within 40 days after such attainder, &c. had, if it be term, and if not, then within 20 days after the beginning of the then next term, and shall also deliver a like transcript to the ordinary to whom the body of such person shall be so committed, such ordinary paying for the same 12d., upon pain that every such clerk, who shall neglect so to do, shall forfeit 40s., one moiety to H. M. and the other to him that will sue for the same by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record wherein no esoin, &c.; and the clerk of the crown in K. B. shall receive such transcripts and certificates, without taking any thing for the same, on pain of 40s., id. s. 2. [See note to last pl.]

31. If there be any more persons contained and named in such indictment, other than those attainted, convicted, or outlawed, such clerks shall certify the transcript of such indictment, &c. only concerning such persons so indicted, attainted, outlawed, or convicted into K. B., which transcript, so certified, shall be as good against such persons as if the very record itself were then present, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 14. s. 3.

32. The clerk of the crown in K. B., at such times as the justices of gaol delivery, and the justices of peace within Eng. write unto him for the names of all persons so attainted by outlawry, or clerks attainted or convicted and certified into K. B., shall certify such names, with the cause why they were convicted or attainted, on pain to forfeit 40s. for each name omitted, id. s. 4.

33. Nothing herein shall extend to such clerks or prenotaries within Waa., Chester, Lancaster, and Durham, to make any such transcript, but the records shall remain in their keeping as at this day, id. s. 5.

34. REPEALING CERTAIN FELONIES AND PRÆMURIE, 1 E. 6. c. 12. ss. 4, 8., 1 M. S. 1. c. 1. s. 5.

35. All offences made felony [or limited within the case of præmure, 1 M. S. 1. c. 1.] by any act made since 1 H. 8. not being felony before, [nor within the case of præmure, 1 M. S. 1. c. 1.] and all pains and forfeitures concerning the same shall be REP., 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 4., 1 M. S. 1. c. 1. s. 5.

36. This act shall not extend to repeal any act concerning the counterfeiting or forging of coin, or the bringing of bad coin into the realm, nor to 27 H. 8. c. 2. for counterfeiting H. M.'s sign manual, 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 8.

37. FOR THE TRIAL OF MURDERS AND FELONIES in several counties, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 24. and recital in s. 1. [See 5 E. 3. c. 31., ante, pl. 12, 13., and 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 10. tit. BENEFIT OF CLERGY, pl. 12., whereby clergy is taken away from offenders robbing in one county and flying into another: and as to the trial of felonies committed on the boundaries of counties, and in stage coaches, waggons, &c. 59 G. 3. c. 96. s. 1., post, pl. 107.]

38. Where any person shall be feloniously stricken or poisoned in one county, and die of such stroke or poisoning in another county, an indictment found by jurors of the county where the death shall happen, shall be as effectual as if the stroke or poisoning had been committed in the same county, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 24. s. 2.

39. The justices of gaol delivery, and oyer and terminer, in the county where such indictment shall be taken, and also the justices of K. B., after the indictment shall be removed before them, may proceed upon the same, as they should in case such felonious stroke and death, &c. had grown all in one county: and such party, to whom appeal of murder shall be given may sue such appeal in the same county where the party shall die, as well against the principal as against every accessory, in whatsoever county the accessory shall be guilty; and the justices before whom such appeal commenced within the year and a day after the murder and manslaughter done, shall proceed against all such accessories in the same county where the appeal shall be taken, as if they had committed such offence in such county, as well concerning the trial by the jurors of such county as otherwise, id. s. 3. [but appeals of death taken away, 59 G. 3. c. 46.]

40. Where any murder or felony shall be committed in one county, and another shall be accessory in any other county, an indictment found against such accessory in the county where such offence of the accessory is committed, shall be as effectual as if the principal offence had been committed within the same county; and the justices of gaol delivery, or oyer and terminer, or 2 of them, in such county where the offence of such accessory shall be committed, shall write to the custos rotulorum where such principal shall be convicted, to certify them whether such principal be convicted or discharged of such principal felony; who, upon such writing, shall make certificate, under his seal, whether such principal be convicted or discharged; and the justices of gaol delivery, &c. shall proceed upon such accessory in such manner, as if both the principal offence and accessory had been committed in the county where the offence of the accessory was done; and such accessory, and other such offender, shall answer on their arraignment, and receive such trial and judgment, and execution, and suffer such forfeitures, &c. as in other cases of felony, id. s. 4.

41. TO TAKE EXAMINATION OF PRISONERS SUSPECTED OF manslaughter or felony, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 10. s. 1. [See also 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 13. BAIL, pl. 7.]

42. Every justice of peace before whom any person is brought for manslaughter or felony, or for suspicion thereof, shall before he commits such prisoner, take his examination, and the information of those that brought him, of the fact; and so much thereof as is material to prove the felony shall be put in writing within 3 days after such examination; and shall certify the same in such manner as if such prisoner had been bailed, upon the pain in 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 13. [see BAIL, pl. 7., &c.] limited; and such justice may bind, by recognizance or obligation, all such as do declare any thing material to prove such manslaughter or felony against such prisoner so committed, to appear at the next general gaol delivery holden within the county, city, &c. where the trial is had, to give evidenance against the party, and shall certify such bonds in like manner, and upon like penalty, as in 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 13. (s. 3.) mentioned, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 10. s. 1.

43. TO BRING CERTAIN OFFENDERS [viz. lodgers: stealing furniture from their lodgings] to punishment, 3 W. & M. c. 9. (s. 4, 5. See the rest of this act, SHIPPING.) [AND, as to receivers of stolen goods, and to punish accessories to felonies, 1 A. S. 2. c. 9. (s. 1, 2. and as to receivers of stolen goods, 5 & 6 A. c. 31. s. 5, 6. pl. 46, 47.) as to receiving stolen jewels, and gold and silver plate, in the case of burglary and highway robbery, 10 G. 3. c. 48, and as to the punishment of accessories before the fact, 43 G. 3. c. 113. s. 5. (Eng.) and c. 79. s. 5. (Ire.) See as to taking money for helping to stolen goods, 4 G. 1. c. 11. s. 4, and as to advertising with no questions asked, 25 G. 2. c. 36. s. 1, and buying or receiving stolen goods declared in some cases a misdemeanor, 22 G. 3. c. 58. OFFENCES.]

44. Every person who shall buy or receive any stolen goods, knowing the same to be stolen, shall be deemed accessory to such felony after the fact, and incur the same punishment as such accessory, 3 W. & M. c. 9. s. 4.

45. Any person may be prosecuted and punished who buys or receives stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen, as for a misdemeanor to be punished by fine and imprisonment, although the principal felon be not before convicted of such felony, which shall exempt the offender from being punished as an accessory if the principal is afterwards convicted, 1 A. S. 2. c. 9. s. 2. [see 5 & 6 A. c. 31. s. 6. post, pl. 47.]

46. If any person shall receive or buy any goods or chattels that shall be feloniously stolen, knowing the same to have been stolen, or shall receive, harbour, or conceal any burglars, felons, or thieves, knowing them to be so, he shall be taken as accessory to such felonies, and on conviction, by one or more witnesses, shall suffer death as a felon convict, 5 & 6 A. c. 31. s. 5.

47. If any such principal felon cannot be taken, so as to be prosecuted and convicted for any such offence, yet, nevertheless, such person buying or receiving the goods stolen by such principal, knowing the same to be so stolen, may be prosecuted as for a misdemeanor, to be punished by fine and imprisonment, or other corporal punishment, as the court shall think fit, although the principal is not convict of such felony, and which shall exempt such accessory from punishment, if such principal felon is afterwards taken, ut s. 6. [see 1 A. S. 2. c. 9. s. 2. pl. 45.]

48. Every person who shall take away, with intent to steal, embezzle or purloin, any chattel, bedding, or furniture, which by agreement he is to use, or which shall be let to him to use in any lodging, such taking away shall be adjudged larceny and felony, and offender shall suffer as in case of felony, 3 W. & M. c. 9. s. 5.

49. If any principal offender shall be convicted of any felony, or shall stand mute, or peremptorily challenge above 20 persons, any accessory, either before or after the fact, may be proceeded against in the same manner as if such principal had been attainted thereof, notwithstanding such principal is admitted to his clergy, pardoned, or otherwise delivered before attainder; and such accessory shall suffer the same punishment, if he be convicted, or shall stand mute, or peremptorily challenge above 20 jurymen, as if the principal was attainted, 1 A. S. 2. c. 9. s. 1.

50. In all cases in which any person shall hereafter procure, direct, counsel, or command any other person to commit, or shall abet another in committing any felony, or shall in any wise become an accessory before the fact to any felony, whether committed within the body of any county in the realm, [within Ire. 43 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5.] or on the high seas, and whether such procuring, &c. and abetting, or otherwise becoming accessory before the fact is committed within the body of any county, within this realm, [in Ire. 43 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5.] or on the high seas; then the offence of the person so procuring, &c. or abetting such felony, or so becoming accessory before the fact to such felony, shall be tried and adjudged (in case such principal felony was committed within the body of any such county) by the course of common law of Eng. [of Ire., 43 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5.] either within the county wherein such principal felony was committed or within that wherein the offence of becoming accessory before the fact, was committed; and if the principal felony was committed on the high seas, then the offence of becoming an accessory before the fact, shall be inquired of by such court, and as in 28 H. 8. c. 15. appointed, [for in Ire. as in 11, 12 & 13 J. 1. c. 2. (Ire.) and 23 & 24 G. 3. c. 4. s. 4. (Ire.) directed,] provided that no person so once tried and acquitted, or convicted of such offence of becoming accessory before the fact to such felony, whether at common law or under 28 H. 8. c. 15. [or in Ire. at common law, or under the above Irish acts,] shall be liable to further prosecution for the same offence, 43 G. 3. c. 113. s. 5. and 43 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5. Ire.

51. Every person who shall buy or receive any stolen jewels, gold or silver plate, or watches, knowing the same to have been stolen, shall, where such jewels, or plate shall have been feloniously stolen, accompanied with a burglary actually committed in the stealing the same, or shall have been feloniously taken by a robbery on the highway, be liable, as well before conviction of the principal felon, whether he be in or out of custody, as after; and if convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and be transported for 14 years, 10 G. 3. c. 48.

52. FOR BETTER APPREHENDING, PROSECUTING, AND PUNISHING of felons that commit burglary, housebreaking, or robbery in shops, warehouses, coach-houses, or stables, or that steal horses, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 23. [AND, and Rsp. as to so much (viz. s. 6.) which directs persons allowed their clergy to be burnt on the left cheek, by 5 & 6 A. c. 6. s. 1. and AND, as to certificates granted under such act, 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 2. Rsp. as to so much (viz. s. 1.) as takes away the benefit of clergy from certain offenders, 1 G. 4. c. 117. s. 2. pl. 55.]

53. All persons that shall, at any times, by night or day, in any shop, warehouse, coach-house, or stable, privately and feloniously steal any goods, wares or merchandizes, being of the value of 5s. or more, (although such shop, &c. be not actually broke open by such offenders, and although the owners of such goods, or other persons be not in such shop, &c. to be put in fear,) or shall assist, hire, or command any person to commit such offence and being thereof convicted or attainted by verdict, or confession, or being indicted thereof, shall stand mute, or not answer to the indictment, or peremptorily challenge above 23 persons returned to be of jury, shall be debarred their clergy, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 23. s. 1. [but see pl. 55.]

54. The 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 23. s. 1. shall be Rsp. as to privately and feloniously stealing any goods, &c. under the value of 15*l.*, 1 G. 4. c. 117. s. 1.

55. Every person who shall privately and feloniously steal any goods, &c. of the value of 5s. or more, but under the value of 15*l.* in any shop, warehouse, coach-house, or stable, or who shall assist any person to commit such offence, shall be transported for life, or for such term not less than 7 years as the court trying the offender shall adjudge; or shall in the discretion of such court be imprisoned only, or imprisoned and kept to hard labour in the common gaol, house of correction, or penitentiary, for not exceeding 7 years, id. s. 2.

56. All persons who shall apprehend any persons guilty of such felonies and prosecute them to conviction, shall for their reward forthwith have upon such conviction, without fee, a certificate under the hand of the judge or justices before whom such conviction had, certifying such conviction, and also within what parish or place such felony was committed, and also that such felon was discovered and taken, or discovered or taken by the person so doing; and in case of disputes between such apprehenders touching their right or title to such certificates, then such judge or justice shall in the certificate direct it to be divided into so many shares as he thinks fit, which certificate may be once assigned over and the original proprietor of such certificate [or the assignee of the same, but see next pl.] shall by virtue thereof and of this act, be discharged from all manner of parish and ward offices within the parish wherein such felony was committed; which certificate shall be enrolled with clerk of peace of the county in which granted, on payment of 1*l.* and no more, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 23. s. 2.

57. No certificate granted, pursuant to 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 23. to any person who shall apprehend and prosecute to conviction any person guilty of any of the felonies therein mentioned, to discharge such person from parish and ward offices, shall be assignable over; nor shall it exempt from parish or ward offices any other than the person to whom originally granted, 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 2.

58. Such certificate shall not be assigned, after being once made use of by the person to whom originally granted, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 23. s. 3. [semb. Exp. since last pl.]

59. If any person is slain by any such house-breaker, horse-stealers, or other such felon, by endeavouring to apprehend, or in pursuing him, then the executors or administrators of the party slain shall have such certificate without fee, id. s. 4.

60. If any person shall commit any burglary, house-breaking, or felony, in stealing any horse, or money, wares, or goods, from whom the benefit of clergy is hereby taken away, and being out of prison, shall discover, or cause to be discovered and apprehended 2 or more persons, who have committed any such felonies, who shall be convicted, he shall have 11 M.'s pardon for all such felonies which he has committed before such discovery made, and which pardon shall bar all appeals for the same, id. s. 5.

61. No clerk of assize, or of the peace, or other person, shall take any fee of any person who is bound by a justice to appear to give evidence against any traitor or felon for the discharge of any recognizance for such appearance, nor shall take more than 2*s.* for drawing any bill of indictment against such felon, on pain to forfeit 5*l.* to the party grieved with full costs, id. s. 7.

62. If any clerk of assize, of the crown, of the peace, or of the indictments, or other officer, shall draw any defective bill [of indictment,] they shall draw new bills without any fee, or forfeit 5*l.* with full costs; such forfeitures shall be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 8.

63. In all cases where any person is convicted of any theft or larceny, and shall have the benefit of this act, [which repeals the punishment of burning in the cheek, inflicted by 10 & 11 W.3. c. 23. s. 6.] or ought by the laws in force before that act to be burned in the hand for such offence, he shall be burnt in the hand, and the judge or justices before whom he is tried and convicted, shall also in their discretion give judgment, that he shall be committed to some house of correction or public workhouse within the county, city, or place, where conviction had, for not less than 6 months nor more than 2 years, and an entry thereof shall be made of record, pursuant to such judgment; and he shall there be kept to hard labour, and duly corrected if he refuses to work, 5 & 6 A. c. 6. s. 2.

64. In case any such offender shall, after such judgment, escape out of prison, he shall, on being retaken, be brought before a judge, or 2 justices of peace, (whereof one to be of the quorum) of the county, &c. where offender was retaken, who shall commit him to the house of correction or public workhouse within such county, city, or place, where so retaken, for not less than one year nor more than 4 years, counting from the time of such retaking, there to be kept to hard labour and receive due correction; and in case any master or keeper of any house of correction or public workhouse shall neglect his duty herein, any judge or justice of assize or gaol-delivery shall, on complaint and proof on oath of one witness, remove such person from his office, id. s. 3.

65. FOR THE ENCOURAGING THE DISCOVERY AND APPREHENDING OF HOUSE-BREAKERS, 5 & 6 A. c. 31. [AMD. G. 1. c. 23. ss. 10, 11. REP. as to rewards for convicting offenders against this act, 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 1. and AMD. 58 G. 3. c. 70. see FELONY, pl. 96, &c. EXT. to the county palatine of Durham, 14 G. 3. c. 46. See COUNTIES PALATINE (Durham).]

66. Every person who shall apprehend any person guilty of burglary, or the felonious breaking and entering of any house in the day-time, and prosecute him to conviction, shall besides the rewards by 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 23. given, receive 40*l.* within one month after such conviction, to be paid by the sheriff of the county where such felony was done without fee, such person rendering a certificate to such sheriff under the hands of the judge or justices before whom such felon shall be convicted, certifying such conviction, and in what parish the offence was committed, and also that such felon was taken by the party claiming the reward; and in case any dispute shall arise between the parties apprehending such felons, touching their right to such reward, such judge or justices shall in such certificate direct it to be paid in such proportion as they deem proper; and if such sheriff shall die or be removed before the expiration of one month after such conviction, and demand made of such reward, the succeeding sheriff of the same county shall pay the same within one month after demand and certificate brought, and sheriffs making default herein, shall forfeit to the persons claiming such money double the money due, to be recovered by him, his executors, or administrators, in any courts of record at Westminster, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, with treble costs, 5 & 6 A. c. 31. s. 1.

67. So much of 5 & 6 A. c. 31. s. 1. as gives such rewards to persons apprehending such felons, REP. 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 1. [but see where the court trying such offenders may assign a reward to such parties, 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 4—5. pl. 98—99.]

68. The 40*l.* for apprehending and convicting burglars shall be paid without deduction for every offender apprehended and convicted of such crime, 6 G. 1. c. 23. s. 10. [but see last pl.]

69. In case any watchman or other person shall be killed by any such burglar or house-breaker, endeavouring to apprehend, or in making pursuit after him, then his executors or administrators, or such person to whom the right of administration of his personal estate shall belong, upon certificate delivered under the hands and seals of the judge or justices of assize of the county where the fact was committed, or the 2 next justices, of such person being so killed, which certificate such judge or justices, on proof before them made, shall grant without fee, shall receive 40*l.* from the sheriff of such county; and on failure of payment by the sheriff, double the sum, to be recovered against him with treble costs, as in s. 1., pl. 66., 5 & 6 A. c. 31. s. 2.

70. All sheriffs, their executors or administrators, on producing such certificates and receipts for the money paid by them in pursuance of this act, may deduct upon their accounts all monies, other than double the sums and treble costs, which they shall so disburse; and if on account of any sheriff, there shall not be money sufficient in his hands so to reimburse him the money paid under this act, such sheriff shall be repaid the same by the treasury out of the crown-revenues on certificate of the clerk of the pipe to that effect, 5 & 6 A. c. 31. s. 3. [The sheriff may apply immediately to the treasury, 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 1. see SHERIFF.]

71. If any person being out of prison shall commit any such burglary or felony, as in pl. 66. and shall afterwards discover 2 or more persons, who shall commit any such burglary or felony, so as 2 such persons may be convicted, such discoverer shall himself have the like reward of 40*l.* hereby promised, and all other advantages given to such taker and prosecutor, and be entitled to H. M.'s pardon for all burglaries, robberies, and felonies, (except murder and treason) by him committed before such discovery made; and such pardon shall be a good bar to any appeal for the same, 5 & 6 A. c. 31. s. 4. [see ss. 5—6. ante, pl. 46—47.]

72. The judge or justices (before whom such felons and house-breakers are convicted,) shall determine the rights and shares of persons to the certificate herein directed to be given, and shall, on request, cause to be made out and deliver such certificate without fee to the persons entitled to the same, before the end of the assizes or sessions wherein such conviction had, 5 & 6 A. c. 31. s. 7.

72 (a). No sheriff of London or Middlesex shall take gratuity, &c. of his under-sheriff for execution of his place, or force him to be at any expence in that his office, which has been usually paid by the high-sheriff, except the above rewards, and the fees of passing the sheriff's accounts in exchequer, and the other disbursements usually made by the under-sheriff, id. s. 8.

73. EVERY PERSON WHO SHALL WILFULLY AND MALICIOUSLY assault any person in the public streets or highways, with intent to tear, spoil, cut, burn, or deface the garments or clothes of any person, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and suffer as in case of felony, and the court trying such offenders, may transport them for 7 years, as in this act and 4 G. 1. c. 11. directed, 6 G. 1. c. 23. s. 11.

74. TO MAKE IT FELONY TO STEAL BONDS, NOTES, OR OTHER SECURITIES for the payment of money, 2 G. 2. c. 25. s. 3. [REV. and MADE PERF., 9 G. 2. c. 18. Not to extend to Scot. s. 4.; for the rest of this act, see FORGERY, PERJURY.]

75. If any person shall steal, or take by robbery, any exchequer orders or tallies, or other orders, entitling any other person to any annuity or share in the parliamentary funds or any exchequer bills, South Sea bonds, bank notes, East India bonds, dividend warrants of the bank, South Sea or East India company, or any other company, society, or corporation, bills of exchange, navy bills, or debentures, goldsmiths' notes, for payment of money, or other bonds, or warrants, bills, or promissory notes, for the payment of any money, being the property of any other person or corporation, notwithstanding any of such particulars are termed in law a chose in action, it shall be deemed felony of the same degree, and with or without clergy, in the same manner as if the offender had stolen, or taken by robbery, any other goods of like value, with the money due on such orders, tallies, &c. or secured thereby, and remaining unsatisfied; and such offender shall suffer such punishment, as he might have done if he had stolen other goods of the like value, with the money due on such orders, tallies, &c. or secured thereby and remaining unsatisfied, 2 G. 2. c. 25. s. 3.

76. No attainer for any offence hereby made felony, shall work any corruption of blood, loss of dower, or disherison of heirs, id. s. 5.

77. FOR ALLOWING THE COSTS AND EXPENCES OF PERSONS prosecuting another for grand or petit larceny or other felony, in case of conviction, 25 G. 2. c. 36. s. 11., [This title is framed from the preambles to these sections.] [EXT. to witnesses bound to give evidence against felon, 27 G. 2. c. 3. s. 3., AMD. and EXT. to cases not followed by conviction, 18 G. 3. c. 19. s. 7—9. See further, 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 4. post, pl. 98.]

78. The court before whom any person is convicted of any grand or petit larceny, or other felony, at the prayer of the prosecutor, and on consideration of his circumstances, may order the treasurer of the county where the offence was committed, to pay such prosecutor such sum as to them seems fit, not exceeding the expences he was put to in carrying on such prosecution, making an allowance for his time, which order, the clerk of assize or of the peace shall make out and deliver to him on payment of 1*s.*, and such treasurer shall pay the same at sight, and be allowed it in his accounts, 25 G. 2. c. 36. s. 11. [See 18 G. 3. c. 19. ss. 7—9.]

79. When any poor person shall appear on recognizance in any court to give evidence against another accused of any grand or petit larceny, or other felony, the court, at the prayer and on the oath of such person, and on consideration of his circumstances, may, in open court, order the treasurer of the county or place where the offence was committed, to pay to such person, such sum as to the court shall seem reasonable, for his time, trouble, and expence; which order the proper officer shall make out and deliver to such person on being paid 6*d.*, and such treasurer shall, on delivery of such order, forthwith pay the same, and be allowed it in his accounts, 27 G. 2. c. 3. s. 3. [but see s. 4. of this act, as to persons appearing on recognizance to give evidence in Middlesex, tit. PRISON, &c.]

80. The court before whom any person shall be tried and convicted, or acquitted of any grand or petit larceny, or other felony, if in cases of acquittal there appears a reasonable ground of prosecution, and that the prosecutor has bonâ fide prosecuted, may order on the prayer of such prosecutor, the treasurer of the county, riding, or division, wherein the offence was committed, or supposed so to be, to pay him such sum as such court shall deem reasonable, not exceeding the expences such prosecutor was bonâ fide put to in such prosecution, making to the prosecutor, in case he shall appear to be in poor circumstances, a reasonable allowance for loss of time; which order the clerk of assize, or of the peace, shall make out and deliver to such prosecutor, on payment of 1*s.*, and such treasurer, upon sight hereof, shall forthwith pay the same, and be allowed it in his accounts, 18 G. 3. c. 19. s. 7.

81. And the court, where any person shall appear on recognizance or subpoena to give evidence as to any grand or petit larceny, or other felony, whether any bill of indictment be preferred or not to any grand jury, provided such person shall in the opinion of such court bona fide have attended in obedience to such recognizance or subpoena, may order the treasurer of the county, &c. in which the offence was committed, to pay to such person, a sum not exceeding the expenses he was bona fide put to by reason thereof, making him, in case he is in poor circumstances, a reasonable allowance for loss of time, which order shall be made out and delivered to him on payment of 6d., and shall be paid in manner hereinbefore (s. 7.) directed, 18 G. 3. c. 19. s. 8. Quarter sessions shall make regulations for allowing expenses to be approved by judges at assizes, &c. id. s. 9. [See the section at length, tit. JUSTICES OF PEACE; and see forms of awarding costs, APPENDIX.]

82. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PROCEEDING against persons standing mute on their arraignment for felony or piracy, 12 G. 3. c. 20.

83. Every person who, on being arraigned on any indictment for felony or piracy, shall stand mute, or will not answer directly to such felony or piracy, shall be convicted of the felony or piracy therein charged, and the court shall thereupon award judgment and execution, and such judgment shall have the same consequences as if such person had been so convicted by verdict or confession, id. s. 1.

84. This act shall extend to H.M.'s colonies and plantations in America, id. s. 2.

85. FOR FURTHER PREVENTION OF MALICIOUS SHOOTING and attempting to discharge loaded fire-arms, stabbing, cutting, wounding, and poisoning, and the malicious using means to procure the miscarriage of women; and also the malicious setting fire to buildings, and also for repealing 21 Jac. 1. c. 27. and 6 A.C. 4. (Ir.) (s. 1. for preventing the destroying of bastard children) and for making other provisions in lieu thereof, 43 G. 3. c. 58.

86. Every person in Eng. or Ire. who shall wilfully, maliciously, and unlawfully shoot at any of H.M.'s subjects, or present, point, or level any kind of loaded fire-arms at such subjects, and attempt by drawing a trigger, or in any other manner to discharge the same at them; or shall wilfully, &c. stab or cut any such subjects with intent to murder, rob, maim, disfigure, or disable them, or to do them some other grievous bodily harm, or with intent to obstruct, resist, or prevent the lawful apprehension and detainer of persons so stabbing or cutting, or of their accomplices, for any offences for which they may be lawfully apprehended, imprisoned, or detained; or who shall wilfully, &c. administer, or cause to be administered to, or taken by such subjects, any deadly poison, or other noxious or destructive substance or thing, with intent to murder, or thereby to cause the miscarriage of any woman then quick with child; or who shall wilfully, &c. set fire to any house, barn, granary, hop oast, malt-house, stable, coach-house, out-house, mill, warehouse, or shop, whether such house, &c. is then in the possession of the persons setting fire to the same, or of any other person, or body corporate, with intent thereby to injure or defraud any of H.M.'s subjects, or any body corporate, they and their counsellors, aiders, and abettors, knowing of, and privy to such offence, shall be felons and suffer death, without clergy, id. s. 1. [see as to destroying or burning houses, &c., 52 G. 3. c. 120.]

87. Provided, that in case it appears on the trial of such offenders, for wilfully, &c. shooting at any of H.M.'s subjects, or for presenting, pointing, or levelling any fire-arms at them, and attempting to discharge the same, or with wilfully, &c. stabbing or cutting them, with intent as aforesaid, that such act of cutting or stabbing was committed under such circumstances, that if death had ensued therefrom, the same would not in law have amounted to murder, then such persons shall not be deemed guilty of the felonies whereof they are indicted, but shall be acquitted, id. ibid.

88. Every person who shall wilfully and maliciously administer or cause to be administered to, or taken by any woman, any medicines, drug, or other substance or thing, or shall use, or employ, or cause to be used, &c. any instrument or other means, with intent to procure the miscarriage of any woman, not being, or not being proved to be quick with child, at the time when the same were administered or employed, than they and their counsellors, aiders, and abettors, knowing of, and privy to such offence, shall be deemed felons, and shall be punished by fine and imprisonment, set in the pillory, publicly or privately whipped, or be transported for any term not exceeding 14 years, in the discretion of the court, id. s. 2. [see the punishment of the pillory, abolished in all cases except perjury, &c., 56 G. 3. c. 138. PILLORY.]

89. The 21 J. 1. c. 27., and 6 A.C. 4. (Ir.) shall be REP., and the trials in Eng. and Ire. of women charged with the murder of any issue of their bodies, male or female, which being born alive, would by law be bastards, shall proceed by the like rules of evidence and presumption as in other trials for murder, id. s. 3.

90. Provided, that the jury by whose verdict any prisoner charged with such murder shall be acquitted may, if it so appears in evidence, that the prisoner was delivered of issue of her body, male or female, which, if born alive, would have been bastard; and that she did by secret burying or otherwise endeavour to conceal the birth thereof, and thereupon the court may order such prisoner to be committed to the common gaol or house of correction, for not exceeding 2 years, 43 G. 3. c. 58. s. 4.

91. TO REPEAL SO MUCH OF 8 EL. c. 4. viz. ss. 1, 2. [which see, BENEFIT OF CLERGY, pl. 16—17.] as takes away the benefit of clergy from persons stealing privily from the person of another; and for more effectually preventing the crime of larceny from the person, 48 G. 3. c. 129. [see similar act for Ire. 58 G. 3. c. 68.]

92. The 8 EL. c. 4. ss. 1, 2. taking away clergy in cases of theft privily from the person, shall be REP. (s. 1.); and every person who shall feloniously steal, take, and carry away any money, goods, or chattels, from the person of another, whether without his knowledge or not, but without force or putting in fear sufficient to constitute a robbery, or who shall be present, aiding therein, shall be transported for life, or for not less than 7 years, in discretion of the judge or court trying the offender; or shall, if such judge or court shall think fit, be imprisoned only, or imprisoned and kept to hard labour, in the common-gaol, house of correction, or penitentiary, for not exceeding 3 years, id. ss. 1, 2.

93. TO REPEAL A CERTAIN PROVISION RESPECTING PERSONS convicted of felony without benefit of clergy, contained in 52 G. 3. c. 44. s. 47. for the erection of a penitentiary-house; and for making other provisions in lieu thereof, 53 G. 3. c. 162.

94. So much of 52 G. 3. c. 44. s. 47., as enacts 'that in all cases, where any courts shall think fit to sentence any persons convicted before them of felony, without benefit of clergy, to imprisonment, as or for the punishment or part thereof for such offence, such court may direct, that such convicted persons shall be kept to hard labour during such imprisonment,' shall be REP.; and henceforth, any court may pass on persons convicted before them of felony with clergy, or of grand or petit-larceny, the sentence of imprisonment to hard labour, either alone, or in addition to any other sentence which such court may lawfully pass on such persons; and such persons shall suffer the same accordingly, and be imprisoned and kept to hard labour, or simply imprisoned and kept to hard labour, in such place and for such time as the court shall direct, not exceeding the time for which courts may now imprison for such offences, id. ibid.

95. FOR REPEALING CERTAIN PARTS OF SEVERAL ACTS as allow pecuniary and other rewards on the conviction of persons for highway robbery, and other crimes and offences, and for facilitating the means of prosecuting persons accused of felony and other offences, 58 G. 3. c. 70.

96. So much of 4 W. & M. c. 8. (s. 2.) as directs the payment of 40l. to every person who shall apprehend and prosecute to conviction one or more thieves, or robbers, for any robbery in a highway, &c. [see ROBBERY; and also so much of 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 17. (s. 9.) as directs the payment of 40l. to every person who shall apprehend any person who has counterfeited the coin of this realm, or who has clipped, washed, filed, or otherwise diminished the same, or who shall bring into this kingdom, or Wa., or Ber., any clipped, false, or counterfeit coin, and prosecute him to conviction [see COIN, pl. 65.]; and also so much of 5 & 6 A. c. 31. (s. 1.) as directs the receipt and payment of 40l. to any person who shall apprehend and prosecute to conviction any person guilty of burglary in the day time [see BURGLARY, pl. 66.]; and also so much of 14 G. 2. c. 6. s. 2. CATTLE, pl. 16.] as directs the receipt and payment of 10l. to any person who shall apprehend and prosecute to conviction any person who shall feloniously drive away, or otherwise steal one or more sheep with intent to steal the whole or part of the carcass of such sheep or other cattle, or who shall aid therein; and also so much of 15 G. 2. c. 28. (s. 7.) as directs the receipt and payment of 40l. to any person who shall apprehend and prosecute to conviction any person for any offences by that act made high treason or felony, and 10l. to any person who shall apprehend and prosecute to conviction any person who shall counterfeit any of the copper money therein mentioned [see COIN, pl. 91.]; and also so much of all such acts as directs the allowance of such reward to sheriffs in their accounts, shall be REP., id. s. 1.

97. But this act shall not take away from the executors or administrators of any person killed by any robber in endeavouring to apprehend or in making pursuit after him, any reward to which they would be entitled by 4 W. & M. c. 8. s. 3. [ROBBERY; nor to deprive any person of the horse, furniture, arms, money, or other goods of any robber, and which by s. 6. of the same statute, are directed to become the property of any person who shall apprehend, prosecute, or convict any such robber as therein mentioned; nor shall any thing herein deprive the executors or administrators of any watchman or other person who shall happen to be killed by any burglar or housebreaker, endeavouring to apprehend or in making pursuit after him, of any reward to which such executors or administrators would be entitled by virtue of 5 & 6 A. c. 31. s. 2. pl. 69., id. s. 3.

98. The court before whom any person is tried for grand or petit larceny or other felony, shall, at the request of the prosecutor, or any person who shall become bound in any recognizance to prosecute or give evidence, or who shall be subpoenaed to give evidence against any person accused of such larceny or felony, and who shall appear to prosecute and give evidence, or who has been active in the apprehension of any person accused of offences against 4 W. & M. c. 8., 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 17., 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 23., 5 A. c. 31., 14 G. 2. c. 6., and 15 G. 2. c. 28., may order the sheriff or treasurer of the county to pay unto such prosecutor and witnesses, and persons concerned in such apprehension, as well the costs and expences which such prosecutor shall be put to in preferring the indictment, as also such sum as shall seem reasonable and sufficient to reimburse such prosecutor and witnesses, and persons, for the expences they shall have been put to in attending before the grand jury, and in otherwise carrying on such prosecution, and also to compensate them for their loss of time and trouble in such apprehension and prosecution, 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 4. [See 25 G. 2. c. 36. s. 11. pl. 77—78., 27 G. 2. c. 3. s. 3. pl. 79., 18 G. 3. c. 19. s. 7. 8. pl. 80—81.]

99. In case the court shall make any order for payment of any such money to persons concerned in the apprehension of persons accused of any offence against the said acts, the same shall be paid by the sheriff of the county in which the offence was committed; and in the like manner, upon the like certificate, and at the same period as the rewards are directed to be paid by such acts; and every such certificate shall be made out by the clerk of assize or clerk of the peace, and be forthwith delivered to the person entitled to the same, upon payment of 5*s.*; and the sheriff, upon payment of the money specified in such certificate, shall be reimbursed the same in like manner as is directed by the such acts, id. s. 5.

100. Every such order for costs (as in s. 4.) shall be made out by the clerk of assize or clerk of the peace, which order he is forthwith to make out and deliver unto such prosecutor, upon being paid 1*s.*; and the treasurer of the county shall upon sight of such order pay such money, and shall be allowed the same in his account, id. s. 6. [See s. 7. DISORDERLY HOUSE, pl. 4.]

101. But no person shall be entitled to any such costs for attending the court, unless he shall have been bound by recognizance, or have previously received a subpoena to attend the same, or a written notice for that purpose from the prosecutor, his agent, or attorney, id. s. 8.

102. In all cities, towns corporate, and places which do not contribute to the payment of any county rate, and have no town rate or public stock, such costs, charges, expences, and money, and compensations shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid within such cities, towns corporate, and places, by a separate rate to be made by the churchwardens and overseers of the several parishes thereof, and by such ways as the rates for the relief of poor are raised in such places, id. s. 9.

103. Where sums to be raised in such cities, &c. are so small, that it may not be convenient to make an equal separate rate upon the parishes within such places, then such costs and compensations shall, by order of the court before whom any such person may be tried, be paid out of the poor's rates of such cities, &c.; and persons having the management thereof, shall pay the same when ordered; but if there are more parishes than one in the same district, payments shall be made in same proportion as the poor-rates are paid, id. s. 10.

104. TO FACILITATE THE TRIAL OF FELONIES COMMITTED ON BOARD VESSELS employed on canals, navigable rivers, and inland navigations, 59 G. 3. c. 27. [See as to the trial of felonies begun in one county and completed in another, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 21. ante, pl. 37—40.]

105. In any indictment for any felony committed on board of any barge, boat, barge, or other vessel employed in carrying goods, wares, and merchandize, or in which any such goods, &c. shall be, upon any canal, navigable river, or inland navigation, in any part of G. B. or Ire., it shall be sufficient to allege that such felony was committed within any county or city, through any part whereof such barge, boat, &c. passed in the course of the voyage during which the felony was committed; and in cases where the sides or banks or any navigable river, canal, or inland navigation, or the centre thereof, shall form the boundaries of any 2 counties or cities, such felony may be alleged to have been committed in either of them, through which, or any part thereof, such barge, &c. passed in the course of the voyage during which such felony was committed; and such felony may be enquired of and determined within the county or city it was alleged to have been committed in, and persons so convicted thereof, shall be subject and liable to all such pains of death, and other pains, forfeitures, and penalties, as they would have been in case the felony was tried in the county where actually committed; but nothing herein shall affect the jurisdiction of the high court of admiralty, or any commission for the trial of offences under the 28 H. 8. c. 13. PIRACY, 59 G. 3. c. 27.

106. TO FACILITATE THE TRIALS OF FELONIES COMMITTED ON STAGE COACHES and stage waggons, and other such carriage, and of felonies committed on the boundaries of counties, 59 G. 3. c. 28.

107. In indictments for felony committed on any stage coach, wagon, cart, or other such carriage whatever, employed in carrying goods, wares, and merchandize, or in which any such goods, &c. shall be, in or on any highway, in any part of G. B. or Ire.; it shall be sufficient to allege that such felony was committed within any county or city through any part whereof such stage coach, &c. shall have passed in the course of the journey, during which such felony was committed; and in all cases where any highway shall form the boundary of 2 counties, it shall be sufficient to allege that such felony, so committed, was committed in either of the counties through which, or any part whereof, such stage coach, &c. shall have passed in the course of the journey, during which such felony was committed; and every such felony may be enquired of, tried, and determined in the county or city, within which it is so alleged to have been committed; and every person convicted of any felony so to be enquired of, &c. shall be subject to all such pains of death and other penalties and forfeitures, as if such felony had been tried and determined in the county where it was actually committed, 59 G. 3. c. 28. s. 1.

108. In indictments for felony committed on the boundary of 2 or more counties, or within 500 yards of such boundary, it shall be sufficient to allege that such felony was committed in either or any of such counties, and the same may be tried, &c. in the county, within which it is so alleged to have been committed; and every person convicted of any such felony, so to be tried, shall be liable to the punishment of death, and to all other penalties and forfeitures, as if he had been tried in the county where it was actually committed, id. s. 2.

FEUDAL SERVICES AND TENURES. (See TENURES.)

FINES. (See RECOVERIES.)

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR PROCLAMATIONS ON FINES LEVIED, 1 R. 3. c. 7. [Virtually Rep. 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 24. NOTE, The 1 R. 3. c. 7. is not expressly repealed by 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 24., but the provisions of the former are incorporated in and extended by the latter act, and the 1 R. 3. c. 7. may therefore be deemed Rep.]

2. FOR RE-INGROSSING OF THE RECORDS OF FINES, burnt or lost in the late fire in the Temple, 31 C. 2. c. 3. EXP. [NOTE. Every fine, the records of which were new engrossed under this act, is to be deemed as effectual as if the old record had not been burnt or destroyed.]

(STATUTE in force.)

1. THE MANNER OF LEVYING FINES 18 E. 1. S. 4. [AMD. as to plea of non-claim, 34 E. 3. c. 16. which is virtually Rep. by 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 24. post pl. 11., and as to the personal appearance of the cognizor. Stat. Incert. Temp. XI. 1 8vo. ed. 401. False personating persons levying fines declared felony without clergy, 21 J. 1. c. 26. OFFENCES, pl. 1.]

2. When the writ original is read in presence of the parties before the justices, a pleader shall say this, "Sir justice, leave to agree," and the justice shall say to him, "What saith Sir R.," and shall name one of the parties; and when they are agreed of the sum to be given to the king, then the justice shall say, "Cry the peace" (see pl. 6.); and then the pleader shall say, "The peace licensed unto you is such, that W. S. and A. his wife, that here be, do acknowledge the manor of B., with the appurtenances contained in the writ, to be the right of R., as that which he hath of their gift, to have and to hold, to him and his heirs, of the said W. and A., and the heirs of A., as in demean, with the rents, seignories, courts, pleas, purchases, wards, marriages, reliefs, escheats, wills, advowsons of churches, and all other franchises and free customs to the said manor belonging, paying yearly to N. and his heirs, chief lords of the fee, the services due and accustomed for all services." And the law will not suffer a final accord to be levied in H. M.'s courts without a writ original, and that before 4 justices in the bench or in eyre, and in the presence of the parties, who must be of full age, of whole memory, and out of prison; and if a woman covert be one of the parties, she must be examined by such 4 justices, and if she does not assent, the fine shall not be levied; and the cause of such solemnity is, that a fine is so high a bar, of so great force, and of so strong nature, that it includes all parties and privies thereto, and their heirs and all others being of full age, out of prison, of whole memory, and within the 4 seas, the day the fine is levied, if they make not their claim of their action within a year and a day by the country, 18 E. 1. St. 4. [but see next pl. and pl. 12., but see pl. 39.]

3. The plea of non-claim of fines shall be no bar, 34 E. 3. c. 16. [See now, as to the plea of non-claim to be made on fines, 4 H. 7. c. 24., 32 H. 8. c. 36.]

4. The demandants or tenants, who will acknowledge their right of tenements unto others in pleas of warrantia charte, covenant, and other, whereupon fines are to be levied shall, before such fines pass, appear personally before you, [viz. the justices of the bench]; provided, that if any person, by age, or impotence, or casualty, is withholden and cannot come, then 2 or one of the said justices, with consent of the rest, shall go and receive his cognizance; and if one go he shall take with him a knight of good fame, and shall certify thereof by his record. Stats. Incert. Temp. XI. 1 8vo. ed. i. 401.

5. No EXCEPTION TO A FINE THAT THE DEMANDANT WAS SEIZED. Fines shall be openly read, 27 E. 1. s. 1. c. 1.

6. The parties to fines and their heirs shall not be admitted to except, and thereby annul such fines, that the demandants or their ancestors were always seized of the lands contained in the fines, or of some parcel thereof; and notes and fines shall be openly read, and in the meantime all pleas shall cease, and this shall be at 2 certain days in the week, in the discretion of the justices, id. ibid. [Such note must also be enrolled of record, 5 H. 4. c. 14. post pl. 10.]

7. THE FEE OF THE CYROGRAPHER OF THE C. P. for a fine levied, 2 H. 1. c. 8.

8. The cyrographer, nor his farmer, deputy, or lieutenant, shall take no more than 4s. for any fine levied in the court; and if such farmer, &c. does, he shall lose his office, be prejudged of the court, have one year's imprisonment, and pay treble damages to the party grieved, who shall sue before C. P., id. ibid.

9. FOR RECORDING PROCEEDINGS ON FINES IN THE C. P., 5 H. 1. c. 14. [see 23 E. 1. c. 3. post, pl. 26.]

10. All writs of covenant and other writs, wherein fines shall be levied, with the writs of dedimus potestatem [as to which, see 2 Bla. Comm. 351.], with all the acknowledgments and notes of the same, before they are taken out of the C. P. by the cyrographer [see 2 H. 4. c. 8. FEES, as to his fee] shall be enrolled of record to remain in the custody of the chief clerk of the C. P. for the old fee of 22d. for entering the record of every fine, id. ibid.

11. FOR PROCLAMATIONS TO BE MADE UPON FINES, 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 24. (the Statute of Fines.) [EXPL. 32 H. 8. c. 36. AND, as to the proclamations, 1 Mar. S. 2. c. 7. and recital in s. 1., and such proclamations abridged, 31 E. 1. c. 2.]

12. After the ingrossing of every fine levied in H. M.'s court afore his justices of C. P. of any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, the same fine shall be openly read and proclaimed in court the same term, and in 3 terms next following the ingrossing, 4 days in every term, [but see pl. 14.] and in the time when read all pleas shall cease; and such proclamations being so made, such fine shall be final, and conclude as well privies as strangers to same, except women covert, (other than parties to such fine, and every person then within age of 21 years, in prison, or out of this realm, or not of whole mind at the time of such fine levied, not parties to such fine.) Saving to every person and to their heirs, other than such parties, such right as they have to such lands, &c., at the time of such fine ingrossed; so that they pursue their claim by action or entry within 5 years after such proclamations made; and saving to all other persons such action, right, &c. to such lands as shall come to them after the fine ingrossed and proclamation made, by force of any gift in tail, or other cause had before such fine levied; so that they take their action, or pursue their right, &c. according to law within 5 years after such action, right, &c. accrued. And such persons and their heirs may have their action against the pignor of the profits of such lands, &c. at the time of action taken. And if the same persons, at the time of such action, right, &c. accrued be covert de baron, within age, in prison, out of this land, or not of whole mind, their action, right, &c. shall be saved to them and to their heirs, unto the time they are at full age, out of prison, within this land, uncovert and of whole mind; so that they or their heirs take their actions or entry within 5 years after they are at their full age, &c. or take other lawful entry, 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 24. s. 1.

13. All fines to be levied before the justices of C. P. of any manors, lands, &c., whereon the proclamations shall not, by reason of adjournment of any term by writ, be duly made, shall be as good as if any term so adjourned had been holden from the beginning to the end, without adjournment and proclamations made according to 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 24., 1 Mar. S. 2. c. 7.

14. All fines with proclamations to be levied in C. P. shall be proclaimed only 4 times, once in the term wherein engrossed, and once in every of the 3 terms next following; and fines so proclaimed shall be of the same force as if they had been proclaimed 16 times according to 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 24., 31 E. 1. c. 2.

15. And all such persons as be covert de baron, not party to the fine, and every person being within the age of 21 years, in prison, out of this land, or not of whole mind, at the time of such fines levied and ingrossed, having any title, or their heirs shall take their actions or entry within 5 years after they be of full age, &c.; and if they take not their actions and entry as aforesaid, they and their heirs shall be concluded by the fines as they that be parties or privies to such fines; saving to every person not party or privy to the fine, their exception to avoid the fine, by this, that those who were parties to the fine, and persons to their use, had nothing in the lands, &c. comprised in the fine at the time of the fine levied, 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 24. s. 2. [Parties to fines cannot avoid the same by exception that the demandant was seized, 27 E. 1. c. 1. ante, pl. 5.]

16. And every fine levied in H. M.'s courts after the manner that fines have been levied before this act, shall be of like force as fines so levied were before this act; and every person shall be at liberty to levy any fine after the form in this act, or after the manner aforesaid used, 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 24. s. 3.

17. All fines levied before the justices of C. P., with proclamations according to the statute 4 H. 7. c. 24., by persons of full age, of any lands, &c. before the fine levied entailed to the persons levying the same, or to any ancestor of the same person, in possession, remainder, reversion, or in use, shall, after such fine levied, ingrossed, and proclamation made, be a bar against such person and their heirs claiming such lands by force of such entail, and against all other persons claiming such lands to their use, or to the use of any heir of the bodies of them, 32 H. 8. c. 36. s. 1.

18. This act shall not bar the lawful entry, title, or interest, of any heir or person in or to any manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, by reason of any fines levied by any woman after the death of her husband, contrary to 11 H. 7. c. 20. [see DOWER] of any manors, lands, &c. of the inheritance or purchase of such husband, or of any his ancestors, given to such woman in dower, term of life or in tail, in use or in possession, but 11 H. 7. c. 20. shall be in force, id. s. 2.

19. This act shall not extend to any fines levied of any lordships, manors, lands, &c. the possessors or owners whereof, by reason of an express word in any special act of parliament made since 1 H. 7. be restrained from making any alienations; discontinuances, or other alteration of any such lordships, manors, lands, contained in such fines, but such fines shall be of like force as if this act had not been made, id. s. 3.

20. This act shall not extend to any fines hereafter to be levied by any person of any manors, lands, &c. before the time of levying of such fine granted to the person so levying the same, or to any of his ancestors, in tail, by virtue of H. M.'s letters patent, or by virtue of any act of parliament, the reversion thereof at the time of such fine levied, being in H. M.; but the same shall be of like force as if this act had not been made, id. s. 4.

21. FOR SETTLING THE METHOD OF LEVYING FINES and suffering common recoveries in Wa. 34 & 55 H. 8. c. 26. (ss. 40—43.) [This title is framed from the purport of these sections. See rest of this act, tit. WALES; and as to reforming errors in fines and recoveries, 27 E. 1. c. 9. post, pl. 27.]

22. Recoveries and fines of records and warrants of attorney for the same, shall be taken before the justices in ss. 5—10. mentioned, of lands, tenements, and hereditaments within their authority, by force of their general commission, and without writ of dedimus potestatem, as before the justices of C. P. in Eng., id. s. 40.

23. All fines hereafter to be levied with proclamations made the same sessions as the fines, shall be engrossed, and in two other great sessions next holden for the same county, shall be of like force as fines levied before the justices of C. P. in Eng., id. s. 41.

24. Every person suing writs of entry in the post, or writs of covenant, or any other writs, for any recovery to be had by assent of parties, or otherwise, for any fine to be levied, shall pay such fines to H. M., as well fines pro licentia concordande as all other fines as is used in the courts in Eng., which fines shall be paid to such persons as shall seal the original writ, who shall account for the same as they do for the profits of such original seal, id. s. 42.

25. H. M.'s silver, on every fine, shall be levied as is used in the C. P. in Eng., viz. 2s., which shall be paid to the justice before whom levied, whereof H. M. shall have 20d.; and the prenotary entering the same 2d.; and such justice 2d., who shall account for the same as he does of H. M.'s judicial fee (see s. 25.) intrusted to him, id. s. 43.

26. FOR THE REFORMATION OF ERRORS IN FINES and recoveries, 27 E. 1. c. 3. [EXPL. to Wales, town and county of Haverfordwest, with the counties palatine, 27 E. 1. c. 9. See ante, 5 H. 4. c. 14. pl. 9.]

27. Every writ of covenant, and other writ whereon any fine shall be levied, the return thereof, the writ of dedimus potestatem, made for the knowledge of such fines, the concord note, and foot of such fine, the proclamations made thereon, and H. M.'s silver, and every original writ of entry in the post, or other writ whereon any common recovery shall be suffered, the writs of summonas ad warrantizandum, the returns of such original, and writs of summonas, &c. and every warrant of attorney to be had, as well of every demandant and tenant, as voucher extant, (in the courts of assizes or great sessions within the 12 shires of Wa., town and county of Haverfordwest, and counties palatine, or in the custody of the proper officer, 27 E. 1. c. 9.) may at the request of any person be enrolled in parchment rolls by such persons, and for such consideration as herein mentioned, and such enrolment of the same shall be of as good force as the same being extant ought to be, 23 E. 1. c. 3. s. 1. 27 E. 1. c. 9. s. 1.

28. No fines, proclamations on fines, or common recoveries to be levied or suffered, (in such shires, town, and county and counties palatine, 27 E. 1. c. 9.) shall be reversible by any writ of error for false Latin, rasure, interlining, mis-entering of any warrant of attorney, or of any proclamation, mis-returning, or not returning of the sheriff, or other want of form in words and not in substance, 23 El. c. 3. s. 2. and 27 El. c. 9. s. 2.

29. Every person that shall take the knowledge of any fine or warrant of attorney of any tenant or vouchee for suffering any common recovery to be passed, [within such counties, &c. 27 El. c. 9. s. 5.] or shall certify them, shall, with the certificate of the concord, or warrant of attorney, certify also the day and year wherein the same was known; and no person that taketh any such knowledge of any fine or warrant for any recovery, shall be bound to certify any such knowledge or warrant, except it be within one year next after such knowledge taken, 23 El. c. 3. s. 5., 27 El. c. 9. s. 5.

30. And no officer, &c. of any such counties [27 El. c. 9. s. 6.] shall receive any writ of covenant or of entry, whereupon any fine or common recovery is to pass, unless the day of the knowledge of such fine, and warrant shall appear by such certificate; upon pain that every clerk that shall receive any such writ shall forfeit [5*l.*, 23 El. c. 52. s. 5.; 40*s.*, 27 El. c. 9. s. 6.] and no attornment upon any fine shall be entered upon record, except the party mentioned to attorn shall first appear in court in person, or by attorney warranted by the hand of one of the justices, of the one bench, or the other, or of one justice of assize, 23 El. c. 5. s. 5. [of same court, 27 El. c. 9. s. 6. upon a writ of Quid juris clamat, Quem reddunt reddid, or Per quod servit] and every entry of attornment where there shall be no appearance, shall be void, without writ of error or otherwise, 23 El. c. 3. s. 5., 27 El. c. 9. s. 6.

31. There shall be for ever one office for the inrolment aforesaid, which shall be called the office of inrolment of writs for fines and recoveries; and the justices of C. P. (other than the chief justice) shall have the care of the inrolments, and shall have such office and the disposition thereof; and shall have the sums of money hereafter following; viz. for the inrolment and examination of every fine 6*s. 8d.*; for the inrolment of every recovery, and the examination thereof, 6*s. 8d.*; for every exemplification of the inrolment of any fine, 5*s.*; for the exemplification and return of every writ of entry, summons ad warrantandum, and warrants, 5*s.*; for search of rolls of one year, 4*d.*; for the copy of one sheet containing 14 lines, 4*d.* And such justices, or one of them, shall examine the inrolments of every such fine and parts of recoveries, and write his name in such roll thereof; upon pain that such justice shall forfeit to H. M. 5*l.*; and such justices shall take order in all things needful for such inrolments, and on examination in such courts may assess such fine or amercement upon any clerk, sheriff-deputy, attorney and others for their negligence, &c. concerning such fines and recoveries as they deem fit; such fine or amercement to be estreated with the other fines, 23 El. c. 5. s. 6.

32. There shall be an office for the inrolments aforesaid in every of such counties, &c. which shall be called "The Office of the Inrolments of Fines and Recoveries;" and the justices of such shires, &c. every of them within the limits of their authorities, shall have the charge of such inrolments, and shall enjoy the disposition and see the execution thereof, and shall have for their pains the sums following, viz. for the inrolment and examination of every fine, and of every recovery, and parts thereof respectively, 5*s.*; for every exemplification of the inrolment of every fine and parts thereof, 5*s. 4d.*; of every recovery and parts thereof, 5*s. 4d.*; for the search of the rolls for one year, 4*d.*; and for the copy of one sheet of 14 lines, 4*d.*; and one of such justices within their limits shall examine the inrolments of every such fine and recovery, and afterwards write his name on the roll, upon pain to forfeit 40*s.* to H. M.; and such justices shall take order, assess such fines, and estreat them as in 27 El. c. 3. s. 6. directed, 27 El. c. 9. s. 7.

33. The cyrographer of fines of C. P. shall write for every county where H. M.'s writ runneth, one table, wherein shall be contained such contents of every fine that shall pass in any one term, as hereafter mentioned, viz. the name of the county wherein the tenements mentioned in any fine be, the name of every plaintiff and defendant, and of every manor named in the fine, and of the towns and places where such tenements lie; and the first day of the next term after the ingrossing of every such fine, shall fix such table upon some open place in the court of C. P., and so every day of the term, during the sitting of such court; and such cyrographer shall deliver to every sheriff written in parchment, a content of such table for that shire, in the term next before the assizes holden for such county, or else between that term and such assizes; and every such sheriff the first day of the next assizes, and every day during such assizes, shall fix same in some open place in the court where the justices of assize shall sit, and see the same to continue there during their sitting in person, that every cyrographer and sheriff offending against this act, shall forfeit to H. M. 5*l.*, one moiety whereof shall be to H. M. and the other to the party suing in any court of record, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, and such cyrographer shall be content with 4*d.* for every fine set down in such table, 23 El. c. 3. s. 7.

34. The exemplification of any such inrolment of any fine or recovery, or part thereof, within any such shires of Wales, or town and county of Essexford, under the judicial seal of such shire, &c. where such fine or recovery levied or passed, and the like exemplifications within such counties palatine under seal of that county palatine where such fine or recovery levied, shall be of as good force for so much as are so exemplified as the very original record itself being extant ought to be, 27 El. c. 9. s. 8.

35. Justices' clerks authorized by their warrants in such offices and places where such records remain, may write out or inrol the same, without fee, and such records for the writing out or making the rolls thereof by such clerks, otherwise than for examination of justices, shall not be carried out of such offices or places, 23 El. c. 5. s. 9., 27 El. c. 9. s. 9.

36. TO DECLARE ALL USES AND TRUSTS OF ANY FINES OR COMMON RECOVERIES manifested by deed made after such fines, &c. levied or suffered VALID, and to compel persons making claim or entry to avoid any fine, to commence and prosecute an action thereon, within 1 year and a day afterwards, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. (ss. 15, 16.) [This title is framed from the general effect of these sections.]

37. All declarations of uses or trusts of any fines or common recoveries of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments manifested by any deed made by the party who is by law enabled to declare such uses or trusts after the levying or suffering of any such fines or recoveries, shall be good, the 29 C. 2. c. 3. ss. 7, 8. (Uses and Trusts) notwithstanding, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 15.

38. No claim or entry to be made in any lands, &c. shall be of force to avoid any fine levied with proclamations according to 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 24. in the court of C. P. at Westminster, or in the courts of sessions in the counties palatine, or in the courts of great sessions in Wales, of any lands, &c. or shall be a sufficient entry or claim within 21 J. 1. c. 16. (LIMITATIONS), unless an action shall be commenced on such entry or claim within a year and a day afterwards, and prosecuted with effect, id. s. 16.

39. FOR THE MORE REGULAR AND EASY COLLECTING, ACCOUNTING, and paying of post-fines, which shall be due to the crown or grantees thereof under the crown, and for the ease of sheriffs in respect to the same, 32 G. 2. c. 14. [Public clause, s. 12. See, as to estreating the profits and post-fines into the exchequer, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 22. id. FINES AND AMERCEMENTS, pl. 14.]

40. On every writ of covenant which shall be sued out for the passing of fines in the C. P. at Westminster, the officer whose duty it is to set and indorse the prefine payable thereon, shall at the same time set the usual post-fine, and indorse the same on the back of such writ, together with his name or mark of office, in like manner as the same are now indorsed at H. M.'s silver office; which post-fine shall be forthwith paid to the receiver of prelines at the alienation office, with 4*d.* as his fee for receiving the same, instead of the fee of 4*d.* charged on lands and hereditaments, and payable to sheriffs, bailiffs, and others, on discharging the same, by 3 G. 1. c. 15. (s. 13.); which fee of 4*d.* by such act granted shall cease, and such receiver shall indorse upon the back of every such writ of covenant, one mark of office as is now used by him on the receipt of prelines at the alienation office, with the name of such receiver, and the sum received as the post-fine, which mark of such receiver shall discharge the manors, lands, and hereditaments, &c. comprised in such writ of covenant, and the cognizees named therein, 32 G. 2. c. 14. s. 1.

41. The officer or clerk of the king's silver office, or his deputy, shall continue to enter every such fine upon record in the way hitherto used in the passing of fines, and make thereof the same entries, and put thereon the same indorsements, with the same mark as has hitherto been the practice of the office in passing of fines; and no fine, until the same be marked with the sum to which the post-fine amounts, in the king's silver office shall be effectual, id. s. 2.

42. Where no prefine is payable on any writ of covenant, (viz. where the lands are under the yearly value of five marks), the officer at the alienation office whose duty it is to let and indorse the prefine, shall set on every writ of covenant brought to such alienation office, on which no prefine is payable, a post-fine of 6*s. 8d.* as was usually anciently put at the king's silver office on every writ of covenant on which no prefine was payable, and shall indorse such post-fine of 6*s. 8d.* on every such writ of covenant, with his name and mark of office, as it hath been usual; and every such post-fine of 6*s. 8d.* shall be paid to such receiver of such alienation office, before the writ of covenant on which no prefine is payable be passed at the alienation office; and such receiver, on payment of 6*s. 8d.*, shall indorse and mark every such writ of covenant, as other writs of covenant are by this act directed to be indorsed, id. s. 3.

43. The officer or clerk of H. M.'s silver office or his deputy, shall not receive any writ of covenant unless it appear by the mark and indorsement of such receiver, that the post-fine has been paid thereon, id. s. 4.

44. If after the payment of such post-fine, the writ of covenant by the death of any of the parties named therein, or other cause, be prevented from passing through the several other offices, so as such fine is not completed; then such receiver shall repay to the cognizees therein, or their attorney, on producing and filing with him such writ of covenant, every such sum as has been before by him received for the post-fine; and such writ of covenant so remaining filed with such receiver shall be a discharge to such receiver for the same, 32 G.2. c.14. s.5.

45. Every such receiver, before he takes upon him the execution of his office, shall enter into recognizance before one of the barons of the exchequer, to H.M., with one or more sureties, as thought proper by such baron, in the penal sum of 5000*l.* conditioned for the due execution of such office, and to pay unto every sheriff in Eng., or his under-sheriff, or lawful attorney, on producing to such receiver or his clerk at his office, the quietus of the sheriff for whom payment is required, the sum total of the post-fines contained in such quietus, wherewith such sheriff is charged in his account in the exchequer; and also to pay unto the lords of liberties, proprietors, or grantees of post-fines, or their bailiffs or attorney, upon producing unto such receiver or his clerk at his office, the respective schedules of the foreign apposer, or clerk of the estreats of the court of exchequer, the several sums in such schedules contained, and set over as post-fines to such lords, proprietors, or grantees, which surety shall justify himself, before the baron taking such recognizance, to be worth 2500*l.* besides all debts and incumbrances; and every such recognizance shall be transmitted by the baron who takes the same to H.M.'s remembrance of the court of exchequer, there to be filed on record; and such receiver and his sureties shall be respectively liable to the amount of such penal sum, to make satisfaction to each sheriff, and to the lords of liberties, proprietors, or grantees, for all post-fines received by such receiver, his deputy, or agent, on any fine levied of any lands or hereditaments within their respective sheriff-wicks or liberties; and in case of the death or insolvency of any such sureties, after the entering into such recognizance, then one or more sureties in the room of him so dying or becoming insolvent, shall within one month enter into such recognizance as such surety so dying or becoming insolvent had entered into, and justify as is before directed; in default of which, such office shall immediately cease and be void, id. s.6.

46. Every such receiver, his clerk or agent, shall daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) attend at the alienation-office from 9 till 1 in the afternoon, and shall deliver back every such writ of covenant as aforesaid, when called for during the office hours, within 2 days after every such post fine is paid, unless the last of such 2 days be a Sunday or holiday, and then on the next day, id. s.7.

47. Every such receiver shall pay unto every sheriff of Eng., his under-sheriff or lawful attorney, on producing his quietus, the several sums in such quietus mentioned to have been by him accounted for in the receipt of the exchequer, on the passing of his accounts for post-fines of the court of C.P. at Westminster; and also pay unto all lords of liberties, proprietors, or grantees of such post-fines, or their bailiff or attorney, upon producing the schedules of the foreign apposer or clerk of the estreats of the court of exchequer, the several sums in such schedules allowed to them as post-fines; such receiver deducting and retaining to himself, out of every 20*s.* which he so pays, the sum of 6*d.* only for his trouble; but neither the receiver, nor any other person for his attendance on such receiver, shall be allowed any fee for doing anything by this act directed, except the fees in pl. 41. 43., id. s.8.

48. If any person make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause to be made, forged, &c. the mark or hand of such receiver, whereby such receiver or any other person may be defrauded, every person convicted of such offence, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and shall suffer death, without benefit of clergy, id. s.9.

49. Every such receiver refusing or neglecting to pay such post-fines to such sheriff, lords of liberties, proprietors, or grantees, or their attorneys or bailiffs, shall be subject to such order as the barons of the exchequer shall make for the payment of the same; and such receiver, and every person guilty of any wilful default, extortion, or misdemeanor, contrary to this act, shall forfeit to the party grieved treble damages with full costs, which may be awarded by such barons, upon application and proof in such summary way as to them seems meet; provided every such application be made within 2 years after such offence; and such orders of the court of exchequer shall have the same force, and the observance thereof be enforced by such ways, as any other orders of such court, id. s.10.

50. This act shall not alter operation of any fine which after first day of Trinity term 1759, shall be levied in C.P. at Westminster, or the course of passing fines in that court, otherwise than as by this act directed, id. s.11.

3. Amerciaments of cities, towns, boroughs, or men, shall be reasonable, and according to offence, viz. a freeman, saving his freehold; a merchant, his merchandize; a villain, his wainage, and that by their peers, 3 E.1. c.6.

4. NO ESCHEATOR, COMMISSIONER, OR JUSTICE specially assigned to take any assizes, or to hear and determine any matters, shall amerce for default of common summons, but the chief justice or justices in eyre, in their circuits, 52 (or 54) H.3. c.18.

5. WHO SHALL ASSESS THE COMMON FINES of the county, 3 E.1. c.18., [AMD. as to presentments for Englsherie, 14 E.3. s.1. c.4. See 4 Bla. Comm. 195.]

6. The county fines for false judgments or other trespass, shall be assessed before the justices in eyre, afore their departure, by oath of the knights and other honest men, upon all who ought to pay; and such justices shall cause the parcels to be put into their estreats, which they shall deliver to the exchequer, and not the whole sum, 3 E.1. c.18.

7. Presentments for Englsherie shall be ousted for ever, 14 E.3. s.1. c.4.

8. FINES SHALL BE TAKEN IN THE PRESENCE of the pledges, 38 E.3. s.1. c.3.

9. All fines to be taken before any justices, shall be made in the presence of the pledges, that they may know the sum of their fine before departing, id. ibid.

10. FOR PREVENTING ABUSES IN THE LEVYING OF FINES, ISSUES, and amerciaments, 7 H.1. c.3.

11. Justices and judges before whom issues and amerciaments are forfeited, shall charge the clerks of the estreats in the courts where forfeited, by their oath, to make rolls of the estreats of such issues, &c. by express word of the cause of the loss, of the term, of the year, and nature of the writ, and betwixt what parties lost, as well in H.M.'s suit, as in suit of parties; and that 42 E.3. c.9. for gathering of green wax, be holden and kept, id. ibid.

12. ALL FINES FOR ALIENATIONS, seizures, and pardons for alienation, shall be taken away and discharged (s.1.); provided, that nothing herein shall take away any fines for alienation due by particular customs of particular manors and places, other than fines for alienations of lands or tenements holden immediately of H.M. in capite, 12 C.2. c.24. s.6.

13. FOR THE BETTER AND MORE CERTAIN RECOVERY of fines and forfeitures due to H.M., 22 & 23 C.2. c.22. and recital s.1. [CONF. 1 J.2. c.17. s.11. MARI. PERP. 1 H.8. M. c.24. s.4. AMD. 3 G.1. c.15. s.12. See the rest of this statute, SHURLEY.]

14. All fines, post-fines, [see 32 G.2. c.14., as to the collecting and paying of post fines, tit. FINES, pl. 59.] issues, amerciaments forfeited, recognizances, sums of money paid in satisfaction of them, and all other forfeitures hereafter to be imposed in K.B., C.P., or the exchequer, shall be certified and estreated into the exchequer twice in each year, viz. all such fines, &c. arising in such courts from the beginning of Hilary term, to the beginning of Trinity term, shall be estreated into the court of exchequer, the last day of Trinity term, 22 & 23 C.2. c.22. s.2.; and all such fines, &c. arising in such courts from the beginning of Trinity term, to the beginning of Hilary term, shall in like manner be estreated the last day of Hilary term, on pain that the officer of such courts, who ought to make such certificate and estreat, making default herein, shall forfeit 50*l.* for each default, to go, one moiety to H.M., and the other to the party who will sue for the same, in any court of record, by action of debt, &c., or information, wherein no es-oin, &c. allowed, id. s.3.

15. This act shall not alter the course now used in certifying and estreating of issues from the C.P., nor of post-fines, pro licentia conce- dendi, being termly certified and estreated into the court of exchequer, nor the termly estreating of issues certified out of office of pleas, of such court of exchequer, to the clerk of the estreats there, id. s.4.

16. All such fines, &c. (as in s.2.) imposed by, or before any judge of assize, clerk of the market, or commissioners of sewers, throughout Eng. shall be estreated and certified into court of exchequer twice in the year, (viz.) all such fines, &c. arising in such courts, or before any judge of the same, from Michaelmas to Easter, yearly, shall be certified and estreated before 1st day of Trinity term in each year (s.5.), and all such fines, &c. arising from Easter to Michaelmas, shall be certified and estreated before 1st day of Hilary term, or like penalty, and to go and be recovered in like manner, as (in s.3.) aforesaid, id. s.6.

17. Clerks of the peace and town clerks, within Eng. shall make and deliver to the sheriffs of the county, city, or town corporate, where the sessions of the peace are kept, within 21 days after the 29th Sept. yearly, a true extract or schedule of all fines, &c. that shall be imposed in such sessions which shall be held before Michaelmas, upon any persons, due to H.M., 22 & 23 C.2. c.22. s.7.

18. And such clerks shall yearly, on or before the 2d Monday after the morrow of All souls, make and deliver into such court of exchequer, a true duplicate, certificate and estreat, of all such estreats and schedules so delivered to such sheriffs, so that such sheriffs, or their assistants in the court of exchequer, may be charged with the monies levied and received by them thereon, on like penalty, to go, and be recovered in like manner, as (in s.3.) aforesaid, id. s.8.

19. No officer of K.B., C.P., or exchequer, nor the clerk of assize, or of the peace, or town clerk, nor any officer under them, nor other person, shall spare, discharge, or wittingly conceal any indictment, fine, post-fine, issue, amerciaiment, forfeited recognizance, or other forfeiture, exhibited or imposed in any such courts, or before any judge thereof, or any sum of money paid to any officer in satisfaction of any fine, unless it be by rule or order in court where such indictment, fine, &c. is imposed; nor shall such officers wittingly miscertify, or estreat into the court of exchequer, any fine, post-fine, &c. whereby process of the exchequer to levy same, may be invalid; but such officers and persons offending herein shall forfeit treble the value of the fine, &c. so spared, discharged, concealed, not certified, or estreated, or miscertified, or estreated, to go in moieties to H.M., and the party that will sue in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. or information wherein no essoin, &c., and shall for ever lose his office, and be incapable of any office where H.M.'s revenue is managed, id. s.9.

20. Where any fines, money, or other forfeitures due to H.M. shall be paid to any sheriff, clerk of assize, or of the peace, or other officer of any court, and be certified and estreated into the court of exchequer, according to this act, then the summons or process of the green wax, shall go forth to the sheriffs against such officer or person to whom such fine, &c. was paid, for the levying and receiving of same, id. s.10.

21. The barons of the court of exchequer, may amerce any clerk of assize, of the peace, of the commissioners of sewers, of the market, town-clerk, or other person to whom it belongs to make estreats into the court of exchequer, for omitting to perform their duty in returning such estreats, according to the direction of 22 & 23 C.2. c.22., and 1 H. & M. c.24. s.1., and may cause such amerciaiments to be levied as other amerciaiments set in the said court may be, 3 G.1. c.15. s.12.

22. This act shall not affect the rights and privileges of any body politic or corporate, or of any lords of any manor, liberty, or franchise, 22 & 23 C.2. c.22. s.11.

23. Nor the rights, customs, privileges, liberties, or charters, of the city of London, but the same may be enjoyed as they were before this act, id. s.12.

24. FOR TAKING AWAY THE PROCESS OF THE *capiatu*r fine in the several courts at Westminster, 5 & 6 W. & M. c.12. (and recital in s.1.)

25. No capias pro fine in any action of trespass, ejectment, assault, and false imprisonment, shall be sued out against the defendant therein, but the same shall be discharged for ever; but the plaintiff therein shall, on signing judgment, besides the usual fees, pay to the proper officer, 6s. 8d., in lieu of such fine, and all fees due for the same, to be distributed as such fines usually have been; and such officer shall make an increase to the plaintiff of so much in their costs, to be taxed against the defendant, id. s.2.

26. FOR THE BETTER PAYMENT OF FINES AND FORFEITURES imposed by justices out of session in Eng., 41 G.3. c. U. K. c.85.

27. Every justice of peace acting out of sessions, for any county, riding, city, borough, division, or place, in Eng., shall receive all fines, forfeitures, and penalties imposed by him or any other justice acting out of sessions, and not made payable to any body corporate, or commissioners of any public boards, or any other persons, and may give receipts for the same, which shall be a good discharge to the party paying such fines, &c.; and such justice shall keep a book of the amount of every fine, &c. imposed by any adjudication or order made by him, specifying the place, time, and manner of the same; the nature of the offence; the act under which adjudged, and the name of the party on whom imposed, distinguishing whether the same was paid or levied, and what part was payable to any such body, commissioners, or persons, with their names and descriptions, and the authority under which such share was claimed; and shall annually, previous to the Michaelmas session, pay into the hands of the sheriff of the county or city, or town and county, having a separate sheriff, for which such justice acted in imposing such fines, all such fines, &c., or such parts thereof, as are due to H.M.; and the sheriff or under sheriff shall give an acquittance for the same, which shall be a good discharge to such justice, his heirs, executors, and administrators, for such fines, id. s.1.

28. Every justice, shall, previous to the Michaelmas sessions, annually transmit to the clerk of the peace of the county, city, or town, or clerk of the town, within which such fines, &c. have been imposed, an account in writing, stating the several fines, &c. imposed by him, and shewing which have been received by him, and from whom, and for what offences; which account such clerk shall enter in his estreats, with the names of the justice, that such sheriff may be charged with the same, in his appeal before the foreign apposer, that the same may be answered to the crown in the same way as fines, &c. imposed at any session of the peace, 41 G.3. U. K. c.85. s.2.

29. As often as two justices or more act together in imposing any fine, &c., then such account shall be kept, and a copy transmitted, and payment made by such one of them, as reside at, or near the place where such adjudication or order was made, or at, or nearest the place where such quarter sessions were held, id. s.3.

30. The clerks of the peace, or town clerks, or their deputies, shall within 10 days after such quarter sessions, in which such justice has returned any conviction, deliver to the bailiff or chief constable of the district where any person entitled to a share of any fines, &c. received by such justice, resides, an account of such fines, &c. which such bailiff, &c. shall transmit to the petty constable of the parish, &c. where such person resides, that notice may be given to him to apply to such justice for his share, id. s.4.

31. This act shall not prevent the officers of the crown from allowing any fines, &c. levied by justices of peace for justices' wages, in same way as other fines are allowed; provided, that sheriffs or other persons empowered to allow the same, may have an allowance of the same poundage, on the balance of such fines, charged on them after an allowance for justices' wages, in like manner as fines at the assizes, id. s.5.

32. This act shall not prevent the payment to the receiver of fines, &c. by the justices or their clerks, in any of the seven public offices, by 32 G.3. c.53. [this act was R. r. by 42 G.3. c.76. s.1.; but see now 1 & 2 G.4. c.118. POLICE] established, id. s.6.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING MISCHIEFS that may happen by fire, 14 G.3. c.78. (ss. 74—86.) [See rest of this act, BUILDINGS.]

2. The churchwardens of every parish, and the overseers of the poor of every precinct, not having any churchwarden within such weekly bills of mortality, the parishes of St. Mary le Bone, Paddington, St. Pancras, and St. Luke, Chelsea, in Middlesex, shall make, place, and fix, at the charge of such parish, precinct, or place, upon the mains and pipes belonging to any waterwork whatsoever, so many stopblocks of wood, with a wood plug, or so many firecocks to go into each main or pipe, and to be placed at such distances in every street, as such churchwardens or overseers shall direct; and the top of every stopblock or firecock shall be even with the pavement, to the intent such plugs or firecocks may, upon any fire, be opened to let out the water without digging down to the pipes; and such churchwardens or overseers shall fix any mark on the front of any house, over against or nearest to the place where such stopblocks, plugs, or firecocks, shewing where the same lie, and for making the same known; and shall also keep an instrument in every such house where such mark shall be, to open the plug; and shall keep in such house a pipe for the water to come thereout, to be made use of as occasion may require; and such stopblocks and firecocks shall be kept in repair at the charge of the parish; and such plugs shall be kept in repair by the owners of the mains and pipes; and whenever the owners of waterworks shall afterwards remove, change, or alter the said mains or pipes, then the owner of such main or pipe shall, at his own costs, fix the same, or the like stopblocks, plugs, and firecocks upon every new main or pipe, where the churchwardens or overseers shall direct; and in such case, the instrument or key, and pipe, shall be removed to the house opposite or nearest to the place to which such stopblock, &c. is removed; and such churchwarden or overseer shall cause a like mark to be fixed against such house, 14 G.3. c.78. s.74.

3. Every parish within the limits aforesaid shall have and keep in good repair, in some public place within each parish, a large engine, and also a hand engine, to throw up water for extinguishing fires; and also shall keep one leather pipe at least, with a socket of same size as the plug or firecock, and a stand-cock or suction-pipe, to the intent the socket may be put into the pipe, to convey the water without loss, and without the help of buckets, into the engine; and shall also keep in some public place within each parish three or more ladders of one, two and three stories high, for assisting persons in houses on fire to escape therefrom; and in default of making, placing, fixing, and continuing such stopblocks or firecocks on the mains, as also in default of having and keeping in good repair such large engine, hand engine and leather pipe, socket and stand-cock, and suction-pipe, and such ladders as aforesaid, every churchwarden, and every overseer of a place not having a churchwarden, making default in any of the premises, and being convicted thereof before two justices, shall forfeit 10*l.*, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the surveyor for the district, to be recovered by distress and sale of their goods, 14 G. 3. c. 78. s. 75.

4. The turncock belonging to the waterwork, whose water shall be found on, or shall first come into the main where any plug shall be opened, at any fire within the limits aforesaid, shall be paid not exceeding 10*s.* by the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of the parish where the fire happens; and the engine-keeper which first brings a parish or other large engine to help to extinguish any fire, if in good order and complete, with a socket, hose, leather pipe, stand-cock and suction-pipe, shall be paid not exceeding 30*s.*; the keeper of the second engine brought not exceeding 20*s.*; and the keeper of the third engine brought not exceeding 10*s.*; every such payment to be made by the churchwardens or overseers where such fire shall happen; and in default of payment thereof, such reward shall be recovered by distress and sale of their goods, in the same manner as the penalty of 10*l.* is, id. s. 76.

5. But no such reward shall be paid to any turncock or engine-keeper by the churchwarden or overseer, without the approbation and direction of the alderman of the ward, or his deputy, or of two of the common councilmen of the ward, if such fire happens within London, or the liberties thereof, or without the approbation and consent of one justice residing within the parish or place where such fire happens; and if there be not any justice in such parish, then of such justice residing in the parish next adjoining, if such fire happens within the limits of this act out of London, id. s. 77.

6. Where any reward by this act payable shall be paid by any churchwarden or overseer for any fire in a chimney only, or first beginning in and occasioned by the taking fire of any chimney only, the inhabitant or occupier of apartment to which such chimney belongs, being a lodger with any tenant of any building of which such room is part, or if such chimney belong not to such lodger, then the tenant or occupier wherein such fire as last mentioned first begins, shall repay to the churchwarden or overseer the reward by him made pursuant to this act, or such part thereof as the mayor, or other justice of London, or justice for Middlesex, &c. upon the application and complaint of such churchwarden or overseer, and hearing the party complained against shall, under his hand and seal, award; and such mayor and justice shall summon before him, after such complaint made, the parties complained against, and all persons fit to give evidence, and shall examine them upon oath, which shall be administered without fee; and if the party complained against, being summoned, do not appear, such mayor and justice shall examine the matter of complaint, and such evidence as is produced, and make such award as shall be just, and as if the party had been present and heard in his defence; and if any money awarded to be repaid to such churchwarden or overseer, be not repaid within 14 days after demand, such churchwarden or overseer, by warrant under the hand seal of such mayor, or other justice, may levy such reward by distress and sale of the goods of the party making default, or of any goods found in the room to which such chimney where such fire began belongs, or in any other part of any building whereof such room is part, id. s. 78.

7. Parishes within the city of London, united, shall, for the purposes of this act, be deemed one parish only, id. s. 79.

8. In case the vestries of any such united parishes, or of any other parish within the limits, conceive it necessary to have more than one great engine, or hand engine, they may provide two or more at the parish charge; and the same shall be under the like regulations and encouragements as the other engines directed to be provided by this act, id. s. 80.

9. The churchwardens and overseers of such parishes within the limits of this act, or the major part of them, with the consent of the majority of inhabitants as shall be at any vestry, or other public meeting of the parish assembled, may (as often as there may be occasion), out of the poor rates, or by any special rate to be made for the purposes of this act, pay such money as may be requisite for providing engines, stopblocks, ladders, and paying rewards, in like manner as they may do for the relief of the poor; and such especial rate being allowed and confirmed as the poor rates are, shall be levied as the poor rates, and subject to the like appeal; and the officers shall be accountable for the same, and liable to the like pains for not accounting, and to the like distress and penalties for not paying the monies collected and remaining in their hands, as in case of not accounting for rates collected for the relief of the poor, id. s. 81.

10. The watermen retained by and belonging to any insurance office within the limits aforesaid, not exceeding thirty for each office, shall be free from being impressed, or liable to be compelled to go to sea, or serve as mariners, or as soldiers on land, their names and places of abode being registered and entered with the secretary, or other officer of the admiralty office, 14 G. 3. c. 78. s. 82.

11. The governors or directors of insurance offices for insuring buildings against loss by fire, upon the request of any person interested in, or entitled unto, any buildings burnt down, demolished or damaged by fire, or upon any grounds of suspicion that the owner or occupier, or other person, who shall have insured such buildings, have been guilty of fraud, or of wilfully setting their buildings on fire, may cause the insurance money to be laid out as far as the same will go towards rebuilding, reinstating, or repairing such buildings; unless the party claiming such insurance money shall, within 60 days next after his claim is adjusted, give security to the governors or directors that the same shall be laid out as aforesaid; or unless the said insurance money shall be, in that time, settled amongst all the contending parties to the satisfaction of such governors or directors, id. s. 83.

12. If any menial, or other servant, through negligence or carelessness, shall fire, or cause to be fired, any dwelling-house or out-house, or houses or other buildings, whether within the limits or elsewhere within G. B. such servant being thereof convicted by the oath of one witness before two justices, shall forfeit 100*l.* unto the churchwardens or overseers, to be distributed amongst the sufferers by such fire, in such proportions as to them shall seem just; and in case of default to pay the same immediately after conviction, the same being demanded by such churchwardens, then such servant shall, by warrant under the hands and seals of two justices, be committed to the common gaol or house of correction, as the justices think fit, for 18 months, there to be kept to hard labour, id. s. 84.

13. Upon breaking out of any fire within such limits, all constables and beables, upon notice thereof, shall immediately repair to the place where the fire shall happen with their staves and other badges of authority, and shall be aiding as well in extinguishing the fires, and causing people to work at the engines, as also in preventing goods being stolen; and shall apprehend all ill-disposed persons that they shall find stealing from the inhabitants; and give their utmost assistance to help the inhabitants to remove their goods, id. s. 85.

14. No action shall be prosecuted against any person in whose house, chamber, stable, barn or other building, or on whose estate any fire shall accidentally begin, nor shall any recompence be made by such person for any damage suffered thereby; and in such case if any action be brought, the defendant may plead the general issue; and in case the plaintiff become nonsuited, discontinues, or if verdict pass against him, defendant shall recover treble costs; but no contract or agreement made between landlord and tenant shall be hereby defeated, id. s. 86.

15. Party making distress under this act shall not be deemed a trespasser, though the distress is irregular; party aggrieved in such case may proceed by action on the case (s. 87.); tender of amends in such case (s. 88.); proceedings not removable by certiorari (s. 95.); appeal from conviction by justices to the quarter sessions (ss. 96, 97.); inhabitants of the parishes to be deemed competent witnesses (s. 98.); limitation for prosecutions under this act (s. 99.); and for actions for things done under this act; general issue, venue and treble costs (s. 100.); 14 G. 3. c. 78. ss. 87, 88, 95—100. [See these sections at length, BUILDINGS.]

FIRE ARMS.

1. TO INSURE THE PROPER AND CAREFUL MANUFACTURING OF fire arms in Eng., and for making provision for proving the barrels of such fire arms, 55 G. 3. c. 115. [PUBLIC clause, s. 16.] AMD. 55 G. 3. c. 59. [PUBLIC clause, s. 18.]

2. No barrel shall be used in the manufacturing of any gun, fowling-piece, blunderbuss, pistol, or other description of fire arms, usually called small arms, unless the same shall have been duly proved at the proof house of the gunmakers' company in London, or at the proof house established under this act, or some other proof house of H. M., or other proof house established as a public proof house by law, and which public proof houses H. M. may establish in such places, and under such regulations as he deems fit, 55 G. 3. c. 115. s. 1.

3. Every person who shall use any barrel in the making or finishing of any gun, &c. or who shall sell any barrel for making any gun, &c., which has not been duly proved and marked at one of such proof houses (as in s. 1.) shall forfeit 20*l.*, to be recovered and applied as in s. 12. pl. 21. directed, id. s. 2. [See 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 6. post. pl. 15.]

4. Nothing herein shall extend to Scot. or Ire., (except as to forging marks, as herein mentioned,) or to the proving any barrels used in the manufacturing of any musket, pistol, or other fire arms for the use of H. M.'s forces, or for the East India Company, for to any of the barrels of the description following, viz. any barrels in the forged, ground, finished or in any other state of manufacture, made of stub, or twisted stub, iron, or other barrels usually termed best barrels, (which last mentioned barrels may be sent, bought, or received, for the purposes aforesaid, in any number not exceeding 20, without being subject to any penalty under this act, or the 53 G. 3. c. 115. except to the penalty for using barrels not duly proved or marked, and nothing herein shall exempt such barrels from being duly proved and marked, 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 5.] 53 G. 3. c. 115. s. 3. 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 5.

5. The lords lieutenants of the counties of Warwick, Worcester, and Stafford, and certain others herein named, and their successors to be chosen, (as in s. 5.) shall be called "the guardians, trustees, and wardens of the gun-barrel proof house of the town of Birmingham," for the purpose of proving, as herein directed, all barrels for guns, &c. (as in s. 1.) brought to such proof house; and the members of such company resident in Birmingham, or within 20 miles thereof, shall meet on 1st Aug. next, and the majority, not being less than 10, shall choose 3 of such persons to be wardens of such proof house, and to superintend the provings of all barrels sent to be proved, and to have the sole management thereof for one year only, unless re-elected, 53 G. 3. c. 115. s. 4.; [but see next pl.]

6. So much of 53 G. 3. c. 115. s. 4. as appoints certain persons to be "the guardians, trustees, and wardens of the gun-barrel proof house of the town of Birmingham," shall be REV., and the lords lieutenants of the counties of Warwick, Worcester, and Stafford, and the members of parliament for such counties for the time being, and certain persons therein named; and the high and low bailiff of Birmingham for the time being, and all acting magistrates residing within 7 miles of Birmingham, and their successors, chosen as in 53 G. 3. c. 115. directed, shall be a body corporate and called "such guardians, &c." 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 17.

7. Such guardians, &c. shall meet annually on 16th March, (unless it is a Sunday, and then on the following day,) in Birmingham, and there shall elect, as aforesaid, fit persons resident in Birmingham, or within 20 miles thereof, in the place of those (other than such lords lieutenants and members) who have died, or removed without such distance, or declined to act, so as by reason of such choice there shall not be, when such guardians, &c. are complete, more than 15, in addition to such lords and members; and immediately after the full number is filled up, they shall elect 3 persons, by the majority present, to be wardens for the ensuing year; and if any of such wardens die or remove without such distance, then at a meeting at Birmingham, within one calendar month after such death or removal, of which meeting 7 days' notice shall be given, they shall choose another of such guardians, &c. to be warden for residue of the year, 53 G. 3. c. 115. s. 5.

8. Such guardians, &c. shall enter in a book all subscriptions made for the establishment of a public proof house, and call for such subscriptions as they deem fit, and which sums such guardians, &c. may demand and receive; and in case of refusal bring actions in the name of the treasurer for the time being, wherein it shall be sufficient to state, that the subscriber is indebted to the treasurer, under this act; and such guardians, &c. out of such money, shall first pay all expenses incurred by passing this act, and in the next erect such proof house, and provide all things necessary for proving barrels of fire arms, and always keep the same in proper condition, id. s. 6.

9. All barrels brought to the proof house so to be erected shall be proved with powder of equal quality as that used by the board of ordnance, and according to the scale following.

which scale is equal to the proofs of the board of ordnance; and when so proved, such barrels shall be marked with the annexed marks and no other, viz. [see margin.] and such guardians, &c. may establish rules for the receiving of barrels for proof, and for proving and marking the same, and fix the sums to be paid for the same, 53 G. 3. c. 115. s. 7.

10. All barrels proper for making guns, &c., which shall be taken to the proof house of the company of gun-makers of the city of London, for proof, shall be proved by their proof master with powder of equal quality to that used by the board of ordnance; and, according to the scale in 53 G. 3. c. 115. s. 7. set forth, and the person having the charge of such proof house, shall receive all barrels sent to such proof house, and prove the same; and after they are proved and marked, shall, if found proof, deliver the same to the persons to whom directed, on payment of all charges for proof, carriage, and delivery; and if any barrel so sent shall not be received and proved, or shall be delivered or parted with before duly proved and marked, according to the regulations of such company, the person having the charge of such proof house shall forfeit for each barrel, not received and proved, or delivered or parted with before duly proved and marked, 10s., 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 4.

11. So much of 53 G. 3. c. 115. (s. 7.) as authorizes such company to fix the price for proving barrels REV. s. 7., id. s. 8.

12. But such company may fix such prices for proving, provided they do not exceed the sums following:—viz. 1. For common birding Spanish, Dutch, Carolina musket, carbine, or other barrel, not made of twisted or stub iron, nor above the calibre of six-eighths and an half, 1s. 6d.; 2. for every pair of plain iron or brass holster or saddle pistol barrels, 6d.; 3. for every barrel made of twisted or stub iron, 9d.; and for every pair of twisted or stub iron pistol barrels, 9d.; 4. and for every barrel above the calibre of six-eighths and an half, 1s.; id. s. 9.

13. Such guardians, &c. shall, on the 16th Mar., annually, (unless it is Sunday, and then on the day following) meet in Birmingham, and choose by a majority of voices, a person experienced in proving gun barrels, who shall continue in office for one year, (if the wardens think fit,) and who, with assistants appointed by such wardens, shall prove all barrels brought to him according to such scale, and mark them when proved with such mark according to the regulations in that behalf established; and such person, on election, shall take the oath here set down before a justice of peace for the county of Warwick, 53 G. 3. c. 115. s. 8.

14. Every proof master, or assistant proof master, appointed under 53 G. 3. c. 115., or other person in the U. K., who shall put, place or strike, or cause to be put, &c., or who shall willingly act in putting, &c., any mark used, or which may be used, at any proof house for proving and marking barrels under the said act, or this act, on any barrel finished, welded, or forged, or in any other progressive state of manufacture, proper for the making of any gun, &c., which shall not have been duly proved any of such proof houses, shall forfeit for each barrel not exceeding 20l., 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 7.

15. Every person who, in any part of the U. K., shall forge or counterfeit, or cause to be forged, &c., [or assist in the forging, &c.], 55 G. 3. c. 59.] any mark or stamp used in any such proof house for proving or marking barrels under this act [under 53 G. 3. c. 115., 55 G. 3. c. 59.], or who shall wilfully and knowingly offer for sale, or use in the making of any gun, &c., (as in s. 1.) any barrel [finished, welded, or forged, or in any other progressive state of manufacture, 55 G. 3. c. 59.] whereon shall be any mark forged, &c. in imitation of any mark used at such proof house, shall forfeit not exceeding 20l. for each barrel, whereon any such forged mark shall be, 53 G. 3. c. 115. s. 9., 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 6.

16. Such guardians, &c., at their annual meetings, shall elect a treasurer, who shall keep in a book an account of all sums received and disbursed by him under the orders of such guardians, &c., and also the rules, &c. of such proof house, and such book may be inspected by any guardian, &c. thereof; and such accounts shall be audited annually at a general meeting of such guardians, &c., and such treasurer shall give security to them in their corporate name for the due execution of his trust, and to account for all money as aforesaid; and such guardians, &c. may allow such treasurer, and the proof master, and assistants, such salaries as they, at any general meeting may think fit, and may alter same, 53 G. 3. c. 115. s. 10.

17. The sums to be received for proofs of barrels shall be applied first in making such proofs, and in paying expenses arising therefrom, and in maintaining such proof house, afterwards in payment of such salaries and other expenses arising from the trust, and then the surplus shall be applied in payment of interest at 5l. per cent. of the sums subscribed; and after payment of such interest, then in the repayment of the principal; and such guardians, &c. shall regulate the sums to be paid for proofs, (not exceeding 1s. per barrel), so as to pay 5l. per cent. for each 100l. so advanced, and so in proportion for any greater or less sum in each year on the principal sum so advanced, until the same is wholly paid off, and thereafter to regulate the sums to be received for such proofs, so as to insure the maintenance of such proof house, and payment of such incidental expenses and salaries, 55 G. 3. c. 115. s. 11.

18. Every person who shall use either by ribbing, break off fitting, rough stocking, or other process in any progressive state of manufacture, in the manufacturing or finishing of any gun, fowling-piece, blunderbuss, pistol, or other description of fire-arms, usually called small arms, any barrel, not duly proved, and marked as proved, at the proof house of the company of gun-makers of the city of London, or at the proof house established under 55 G. 3. c. 115., so long as such proof houses shall be maintained; or at some proof house of H. M., or other proof house to be established by H. M., and which public proof houses H. M. may establish under such regulations as to their management as he shall think fit, shall forfeit for each barrel so used, not exceeding 20l., to be recovered and applied as in s. 10. directed, 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 1. [see 55 G. 3. c. 115. s. 2. ante, pl. 3.]

19. Every barrel proper for the making of any gun, &c., shall be sent immediately from the manufacturers to one of such proof houses, as in s. 1., before the same shall be delivered, or caused or permitted to be delivered, or sent for sale, or to be removed or consigned for sale, on pain that every person so delivering, or sending, &c., any such barrel from the place where manufactured, which has not been duly proved, shall forfeit for each barrel so delivered, &c., not exceeding 20l., to be recovered and applied as in s. 10., id. s. 2.

20. Every person who shall receive or permit to be received, on his behalf, any barrel proper for making such fire-arms, as in s. 1., from the manufacturer or other person on his behalf, except from or through one of such proof houses, or unless the same has been duly proved, and marked as proved, at one of such houses, as in s. 1., shall forfeit for each such barrel so received, not exceeding 20l., id. s. 3.

21. Any offence against this act may be determined in a summary way before two justices of peace for the county, city, or place where committed, and the conviction for the same may be by oath of one witness, and the amount of the forfeiture shall be determined by such justices, not exceeding the sums herein-before mentioned, and one moiety thereof shall go to the informer, and the other to the overseer of the poor of the parish; and in case such forfeiture is not forthwith paid, and the person convicted does not signify his intention to appeal against such conviction, and forthwith enter into recognizance before such justice, himself in 40l., and two sureties in 20l. each, [himself in the penalty of a sum equal to double the amount of the penalty so fixed, and two sureties, each in the penalty of a sum equal to such penalty, 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 10.] with condition personally to appear and prosecute such appeal at the next general or quarter sessions, for the county, city, or place; such justices shall, by warrant under hand and seal, levy such forfeiture by distress, and sale of goods, together with the costs of such distress, &c.; and in case no distress can be found, shall, by like warrant, commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction within their jurisdiction, without bail, for 6 calendar months, 55 G. 3. c. 115. s. 12., 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 10.

22. The conviction shall be drawn up on parchment or paper, in the form or to the effect herein set forth, and shall be transmitted by such justices to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, to be filed of record.

Form of conviction.

“ ——— { Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — to wit. } is convicted before us [naming the justices] — of H. M.'s justices of peace for the county of — [or riding, city, liberty, division, town, or place,] for that the said — [here state the offence] contrary to the statute made in the fifty-third year of the reign of king George the Third, entitled an act [here set forth the title of 55 G. 3. c. 115.] and contrary to the provisions of any act passed in the 55th year of the same reign, intituled an act [here set forth the title of 55 G. 3. c. 59.] and we do hereby adjudge and determine the said — for the said offence, to forfeit and pay the sum of — of lawful money of G. B. and do order one — thereof to be forthwith paid by him the said — to [the informer] and the other thereof to the overseers of the poor of the parish of — [where the offence was committed]; and we the said justices do also award and direct the said — forthwith to pay to — the sum of — for costs. Given under our hands and seals the day and year above written, 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 12. [NOTE, the form of conviction given by the 55 G. 3. c. 115. s. 13. is similar to the above, omitting the reference to the 55 G. 3. c. 59. and the award of costs.]

23. Every person convicted of any offence punishable by this act, aggrieved by the judgment of such justices, may appeal to the quarter sessions for the county, city, or place, wherein the offence was committed, and such sessions shall hear and determine such appeal, and award costs to either party, which decision shall be final; and if on hearing such appeal the judgment of the convicting justices shall be confirmed, such appellant shall forthwith pay the forfeiture and costs awarded, and in default thereof shall be committed by such sessions to the common gaol or house of correction, for not exceeding 6 calendar months, unless the penalty and costs be sooner paid, 55 G. 3. c. 115. s. 14., 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 13.

24. No action shall be commenced for any thing done under these acts until 30 days notice in writing shall be given [to the treasurer to such guardians, &c. 55 G. 3. c. 115. s. 15.] to the guardians, &c. of the gun-barrel proof house at Birmingham, or their solicitor, or to the master or warden of the company of gun-makers of the city of London, 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 15.] or after sufficient satisfaction made or tendered, or after 6 calendar months after the fact done for which such action shall be brought; and all such actions shall be laid in [Warwickshire, 55 G. 3. c. 115. s. 15.] in the county, &c. where they arose, 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 15.] and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it so appear, or if such action is brought before such notice given, or if sufficient satisfaction was made, tendered, or paid into court, or if such action was not commenced within the time limited, or is laid in the wrong county, the jury shall find for the defendant; and on such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, or has judgment against him on demurrer, the defendant shall have treble costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, 55 G. 3. c. 115. s. 15., 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 15.

25. The respective companies of gun-makers, their officers, servants, or agents, shall not be subject to any prosecution or information under this act, or 55 G. 3. c. 115. for any offence against this act, unless the same is commenced within 6 calendar months after the offence committed, 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 11.

26. Every person aggrieved by any acts, orders, or proceedings of such trustees, guardians, and wardens, in pursuance of this act, may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county of Warwick, giving (if sufficient time after the cause of such complaint arose) 8 days notice in writing, of his intention to appeal, and of the matter thereof, to the clerk or treasurer of such trustees, and within 4 days after such notice, entering into recognizance before some justice for such county, with two sureties, conditioned to try such appeal, and abide the order thereon, and pay costs awarded by such sessions; and for want of time to give such notice, such appeal, after such notice, and under such recognizance, may be made to second quarter sessions, for such county, and such sessions shall finally hear and determine such appeal in a summary way, and award such costs to either party as they deem proper, and their determination shall be binding and final; and such sessions may, by their warrant, levy the costs awarded, by distress and sale of goods, of the party neglecting to pay, and for want of such distress may commit them to the common gaol or house of correction for the county, 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 14.

27. The accounts of such proof-house (scnb. at Birmingham) and of all sums expended in the management thereof, and of all sums paid in respect of interest or principal on the sums advanced and expended under this act or the 55 G. 3. c. 115., in the building and completing of the same, and of all sums received under this or the said act, shall be audited by some justice of peace acting for Birmingham, or within 7 miles thereof, id. s. 16.

FIRE WORKS.

1. TO PREVENT THE THROWING OR FIRING OF SQUIBS, serpent, and other fire-works, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 7.

2. No person shall make, sell, utter, or expose to sale, any squibs, rockets, serpents, or other fire-works, or any cases, moulds, or other instruments for making the same; nor shall any person permit any squibs, &c. to be thrown or fired from his house or lodgings, or from any place thereto adjoining, into any public street, highway or passage; nor shall any person throw or fire, or be assisting in the throwing or firing of squibs, &c. in or into any public street, house, shop, river, highway, road, or passage, and such offence shall be deemed a common nuisance, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 7. s. 1.

3. Every person who shall make, sell, give, or utter or expose to sale, any squibs, &c. or any cases, moulds, &c. for making the same, shall, on conviction before one justice for the county, city, or place, either by confession or on oath of 2 witnesses, forfeit 5l.; and every person who shall permit any squibs, &c. to be thrown or fired from his house, lodgings, or shop, or from any part thereof, into any public street, road, or passage, or any other house or place, shall, on like conviction, forfeit 20s., the same to be levied by distress and sale of goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of the convicting justice; the one half of which shall go to use of the poor of the parish, and the other to the party prosecuting, id. s. 2.

4. If any person shall throw or fire, or be assisting in throwing or firing of any squibs, &c. in or into any public street, house, shop, river, highway or passage, every such person being thereof convicted, as in s. 2., shall forfeit 20s. to the uses aforesaid; and if he shall not immediately pay such forfeiture to such justice, such justice shall, by like warrant, commit such person to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one month, unless he shall sooner pay such forfeiture to such justice, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 7. s. 3.

5. Provided that the master, lieutenant or commissioners of H.M.'s ordnance, or any other persons by any of them authorized, may give orders for the making any fire-works, to be used and fired according to their orders to be made for that purpose, id. s. 4.

6. The artillery company of the city of London, or any other artillery company or society of persons lawfully met for the use and exercise of arms, the trained bands, the militia, may make and use any fire-works in the exercise of arms and warlike exploits, as they might have done before this act made, id. s. 5.

7. Any person sued for executing this act, may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff therein is nonsuited, discontinued, or has a verdict, or judgment, or demurrer against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 6.

FIRST FRUITS AND TENTHS. (See QUEEN ANNE'S BOUNTY.)

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. NO FARMERS OF SPIRITUAL PERSONS SHALL BE COMPELLED OR charged to pay for their lessor's first-fruits, or year's pension of the tenth granted to H.M. 26 H. 8. c. 17. [Exp.: but REP. 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 4. REV. 1 EL. c. 4. ss. 4, 22, 24.]

2. THE ERECTION OF THE COURT OF FIRST-FRUITS AND TENTHS, 52 H. 8. c. 45. [Such court dissolved, and the business annexed to the court of exchequer by letters patent, dated 23d Jan. 1 M. issued under 1 M. 5. 2. c. 10., and expressly exempted from revival by 1 EL. c. 4. ss. 8, 24.]

3. THAT THE BISHOP OF NORWICH SHALL BE CHARGED with the collection of H.M.'s tenth in his diocese, 52 H. 8. c. 47. [This act is founded on the private act, 27 H. 8. c. 17. which exempted the bishop of Norwich from the collection of the tenth, REP. 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 4. which is REP. 1 EL. c. 4. s. 9. 24. and again virtually REP. 3 J. 1. c. 10. s. 1. see post, pl. 17.]

4. FOR THE EXTINGUISHMENT OF THE FIRST-FRUITS, and touching order and disposition of the tenths of spiritual and ecclesiastical promotions, and of rectories and parsonages impropriate remaining in H.M.'s hands, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 4. [REP. 1 EL. c. 1. ss. 17—21.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR PREVENTING THE PAYMENT TO THE COURT OF Rome of excessive sums for first-fruits of archbishoprics or bishoprics, 6 H. 4. c. 1.

2. Those who shall pay to the pope's chamber, or otherwise, for first-fruits, and services of archbishoprics or bishoprics a greater sum than accustomed of old time, shall incur the forfeiture of as much as they can forfeit to H.M., id. ibid. [such payments made to cease, 25 H. 8. c. 20. s. 3. BISHOPS, pl. 17.]

3. CONCERNING THE PAYMENT OF FIRST FRUITS of all dignities, benefices, and promotions spiritual, AND ALSO CONCERNING ONE ANNUAL PENSION OF THE TENTH PART OF ALL THE POSSESSIONS of the church spiritual and temporal, 26 H. 8. c. 5. (and recital in s. 1.) [Called the Statute of Recusants. See 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 20. AND as to the payment of the tenth, in the year of payment of the first fruits, 27 H. 8. c. 8.; and as to the accounts of collectors, 52 H. 8. c. 22. (and recital in ss. 1—4.); and as to the forfeiture of benefice in case of default of payment, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 20., and recitals in ss. 1, 2.; and as to the collector's bond, 7 E. 6. c. 4. and recital in s. 1. All these acts REP. 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 4. and REP., and the first fruits, and tenths, and rents reserved nomine decimæ, and parsonages impropriate restored to the crown, 1 EL. c. 4., and as to collecting the tenths, 3 G. 1. c. 10. pl. 17. See further, 2 A. c. 11. 1 G. 1. c. 10. 45 G. 3. c. 107. 45 G. 3. c. 81. QUEEN ANNE'S BOUNTY.]

4. The 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 4. shall be repealed, and the first-fruits revived, and shall have continuance again, and be adjudged in H.M., and united to the crown of this realm, in the same way as they were in queen Mary before the extinguishment thereof, 1 EL. c. 4. s. 22.

5. Also the tenth granted by 26 H. 8. c. 5., and rents reserved nomine decimæ, on letters patent made by H. 8. prior to 26 H. 8., and by E. 6., and also so many of the rectories, parsonages, and benefices impropriate, and the profits thereof as were in the hands of queen Mary, at such 8th August, 1554, shall be vested in H.M., and as well such first-fruits and tenths, and the order thereof, as also such rents, rectories, parsonages, &c. and the reversions of them, and the rents and profits thereof shall be within the order, survey, &c. of the court of exchequer, in such sort as they were before such 8th August, id. s. 23.

6. The statutes 26 H. 8. c. 17., 28 H. 8. c. 11., 52 H. 8. cc. 45—47., 54 & 55 H. 8. cc. 2—17., and 57 H. 8. c. 21., and so much of every other statute touching the levying of first-fruits and tenths, and of rectories, parsonages, and benefices impropriate, and the profits thereof, which were standing in force on 8th Aug. 1554, (except only the acts for the erection of the courts of augmentations, and first fruits, and tenths,) shall be in full force, 1 EL. c. 4. s. 24.

7. H.M. shall enjoy for ever, of every person nominated, elected, or by other means appointed to have any archbishopric, bishopric, abbacy, &c., college, hospital, archdeaconry, deanery, provostship, prebend, parsonage, vicarage, chauntry, free chapel, or other dignity, benefice, office, or promotion spiritual, within this realm, or other H.M.'s dominions, the first-fruits and profits thereof for one year, and every such person, before actual possession, or meddling with such profits, shall pay, or agree or compound to pay, to H.M.'s use, upon good securities, at reasonable days, such first fruits and profits, 26 H. 8. c. 5. s. 2. [The year for the payment of first fruits, shall commence from the time of avoidance, see 28 H. 8. c. 11. s. 5., BENEFICE, pl. 19.]

8. The chancellor of Eng., and master of the rolls, jointly and severally, or such persons as H.M. shall appoint by commission under the great seal, shall examine and search for the true value of such first-fruits and profits, and compound for the rate, and limit days for payment upon good security, by writings obligatory, by their discretions; and if such composition be made before such chancellor, or master of the rolls, then the writings obligatory, or money taken for the same, shall remain in the hanaper of the chancery; and the money to be due by such writings, or received under such compositions, shall be paid to the clerk of the hanaper, who shall make a just account thereof, as in case of money received as profits of the great seal; and if such composition be made before other persons appointed by H.M.'s commission, then such writings and money shall be delivered to the treasurer of H.M.'s chamber, id. s. 5. [Only one bond to be taken, 2 & 3 J. 1. c. 11. s. 6. See QUEEN ANNE'S BOUNTY.]

9. Every acquittance subscribed with the hand and name of the clerk of the hanaper, and treasurer of the chamber, or other such commissioners, witnessing the receipt of such first-fruits, shall be as good against H.M. as if the same were had under the great seal, and so shall be admitted in all H.M.'s courts; and all writings obligatory taken for payment of first-fruits by such chancellor, or master of the rolls, or other persons deputed so to compound, shall be as good as writings obligatory, made by laymen under the statute of the staple; and on certificate to chancery of such writings taken, like process and execution shall be made against spiritual persons thereon, as in case of statutes staple; and no person shall pay for any such writing, for first-fruits, above 8d., or for any acquittance, above 4d.; and such commissioners so deputed to compound for first-fruits, shall, at the end of every 6 months, deliver to the treasurer of the hanaper, as well all such money, as all such bonds as they have taken for payment of first-fruits, by indenture between them and such treasurer, containing the certainty and number of such sums and bonds by them taken; and if any person to whom any deputation shall be made so to compound, his heir, executors, or administrators, conceal or embezzle any such bonds, and do not deliver them according to this act, he shall forfeit the deputation, and make fine at H.M.'s will, id. s. 4.

10. If any person appointed to any such promotions spiritual (as in s. 1.) enter into the actual possessions, or meddle with the profits thereof, before they have paid the first-fruits for one year, or compounded for the same, such person being convict by presentment, verdict, confession or witness, before the lord chancellor, or such as have authority so to compound, shall be taken as an intruder upon H.M.'s possession; and they, their executors or administrators shall pay to H.M. double value of such first-fruits, id. s. 5.

11. The first-fruits accustomed to be paid to the bishop of Norwich, and to the archdeacon of Richmond, or to any other person, shall cease, and no longer be paid but only to H.M., id. s. 6.

12. Provided that archbishops and bishops, and all others having jurisdiction ordinary, may give letters of institution and induction as before this act, id. s. 7.

13. H.M. shall yearly take, for ever, one yearly rent of the tenth part of all the revenues, rents, farms, tythes, offerings, emoluments, and other profits, as well spiritual as temporal, that belong to any archbishopric, bishopric, abbacy, &c., archdeaconry, deanery, hospital, college, house collegiate, prebend, cathedral, collegiate or conventual church, parsonage, vicarage, chauntry, free chapel, or other benefice, or promotion spiritual, within this realm and H.M.'s, the same to be paid yearly at the Nativity of Christ, and by the collectors on 1st April next following, id. s. 9. [See as to the allowance of the tenth on first promotion, 27 H. 8. c. 8. s. 1., post, pl. 42.]

14. The chancellor shall direct into every diocese of this realm and H.M., commissions as well to the archbishop or bishop, as to such other persons as H.M. shall appoint, commanding the commissioners or 3 of them, [who may act in execution of the commission, s. 11.] to enquire of the yearly values of all manors, lands, &c. and of all such rents, forms, &c., and other profits appertaining to any archbishopric, &c. or other benefice spiritual; with a clause that the commissioners shall allow, in making such values, these deductions; viz. all annual rents which any spiritual persons are bound yearly to pay, or to give yearly in alms, by reason of any foundation or ordinance; and all fees for stewards, receivers, bailiffs and auditors, and synods and proxies: with another clause, that the commissioners shall certify under their seals, as well the value as the deductions aforesaid, 26 H. 8. c. 5. s. 10. and s. 11.

15. The said commissioners shall take oath before the lord chancellor, or before such other as is appointed by him by dedimus, faithfully to execute their duty, id. s. 11.

16. After such certificate made, the yearly rent of the tenth shall be rated by the treasurer, chancellor, chamberlain, and barons of exchequer, out of such clear yearly value; and every archbishopric, &c. or other benefice spiritual, shall be severally charged in the proper diocese for payment of such portion of such tenth as shall be set upon them, and none of them shall be chargeable for the payment of the other's portion, id. s. 12.

17. The ARCHBISHOPS AND BISHOPS OF Eng. appointed by 26 H. 8. c. 5. s. 13. collectors of the yearly tenths in their respective dioceses, shall be discharged from receiving or accounting for the same, 3 G. 1. c. 10. s. 1.

18. There shall be one collector of such yearly tenths granted to the corporation of the governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, by 2 A. c. 11., who shall collect all such sums, and pay the same yearly into the exchequer; and such collector, and his lands and tenements, shall be chargeable for the payment of such sums as he shall so receive, and shall be appointed by H. M. by letters patent, and before he enters on his office, shall take oath for the due execution thereof, before 7 of such governors, (who may administer such oath;) and shall likewise give security to such corporation, or to such person, as they, in a general court shall appoint, for the just accounting for and payment of all monies he shall receive by virtue of his office, and for the due execution of his office; and such collector shall receive such tenths, and give acquittances to all persons paying the same, which acquittances shall discharge such persons; (and for each such acquittance 6d. shall be paid;) and shall keep his office in London or Westminster, and attend for the receipt of such tenths, at such times as such governors shall direct, between Christmas and the last day of April, of which times and places such governors shall give one week's notice in the London Gazette, yearly, whereof every archbishop, bishop, and incumbent, shall take notice, without any further notice by summons, demand, or otherwise, and in default thereof, to forfeit to H. M. double the value of such tenths, and such collector shall pay such tenths, and pass his accounts in the same time and manner as by 26 H. 8. c. 5., 32 H. 8. c. 47., and 7 E. 6. c. 4. directed, in case of bishops, 3 G. 1. c. 10. s. 2. [See as to banding collectors, 7 E. 6. c. 4. s. 2., post, pl. 46.]

19. If any archbishop, incumbent, or other person or body chargeable with the payment of tenths, shall not duly pay or tender the same yearly, before the last day of April succeeding the Christmas the same became due, then on certificate by such collector, made before 1 June following, he shall be allowed in his account all such sums as any bishop or other incumbent, against whom such certificate is made, ought to have paid; and the treasurer, chancellor, and barons of exchequer shall issue proper process against such defaulters, their executors, or administrators, whereby such yearly tenth shall be levied and paid to such collector, who shall charge himself therewith in his next account, id. s. 5.

20. The 26 H. 8. c. 3., and all other acts relating to the levying of first fruits and tenths, or the charge, discharge, or alteration of them, shall be put in force, except hereby altered, id. s. 4.

21. This act shall not affect any grant or incumbency on such revenues, id. s. 5.

22. The treasurer, chancellor, chamberlain and barons of the exchequer, shall yearly cause process to be made for non-payment of such yearly rent, against every archbishop and bishop, 26 H. 8. c. 3. s. 14. [but see pl. 28. and pl. 18.]

23. Every archbishop and bishop shall levy by censures of the church, or by distress or otherwise, all such money as shall be rated out of any benefice spiritual within their diocese, towards the payment of such yearly rent; and no replevin, prohibition, or superseas, upon any excommunication, nor other impediment, shall be sued or obeyed for any persons making default of payment, till they have satisfied their portion of the said yearly pension, id. s. 15. [but see pl. 28. and pl. 18.]

24. If any money being due by any incumbents be reasonably demanded after the feast of the Nativity, at their churches or houses, by persons charged with the collection of such pension, or by any other their servants or officers, and same be not paid within 40 days after such request; every incumbent after such default certified into the exchequer under the seals of such as be charged to the collection of the said pension, shall be deprived ipso facto of their benefices and promotions, [but see pl. 28. and pl. 18.], id. s. 17. [26 H. 8. c. 5. ss. 14—16. seem in force, notwithstanding 3 G. 1. c. 10. s. 1. pl. 17. See id. s. 3. pl. 19.]

25. IF THE ARCHBISHOPS AND BISHOPS, THEIR DEPUTIES or accountants that shall be chargeable with the collection of the tenth, [but see pl. 17.] allege by oath before the treasurer, chancellor, and barons of the exchequer, or such persons as H. M. may appoint, that they, for some good cause in the preamble recited, or some other by them alleged, cannot levy such particular sums of money of the tenth as they shall be charged with, and no matter shewed to the contrary; the treasurer, chancellor, and barons, &c. shall have power to discharge the accountant, or else to direct H. M.'s writ unto any of H. M.'s courts to certify the truth; and thereupon such treasurer, &c. shall further hear and examine the matter by witness or other ways; and if need require shall award commissions to certain persons in every diocese, where any such cause shall be alleged, without charge for the same; and such commissioners shall examine such matters by oath of such persons as have notice thereof, and thereupon make certificate thereof to such treasurer, 32 H. 8. c. 22 s. 5.

26. Upon certificate so made, or if it shall otherwise appear that the allegations be true, such treasurer, &c. shall make discharge to such archbishops, bishops, and other accountants, and the same cause to be entered of record, id. s. 6.

27. In case it be certified by sufficient witnesses before such treasurer, &c. that any benefice is omitted in the former certificate; upon proof or certificate of any sums of money so omitted, such treasurer, &c. shall make entry thereof, to be annexed to the original of the tenth, and thereupon charge the accountant yearly, id. s. 7.

28. If any sum of such annual pension as in 26 H. 8. c. 5. mentioned being once due and demanded, as by that act directed, is not paid to the collectors at the time in such act expressed, and certificate be made into the court of first fruits, [now the exchequer, see 1 EL. c. 4. s. 8. and s. 24. pl. 6.] the incumbent shall be adjudged deprived of that only dignity, or ecclesiastical promotion, whereof such certificate is made, so that the same be judged void, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 20. s. 3. [See now 3 G. 1. c. 10. s. 2. ante, pl. 18.]

29. No incumbent making such default shall be thereby unable to take or enjoy any other benefice or promotion spiritual, or incur any other penalty by him his executors or assigns than in this act expressed, id. s. 4., [see now pl. 18.]

30. In all respects, except where hereby altered, 28 H. 8. c. 3. shall remain in force, id. s. 5.

31. If any person charged to the collection and payment of such pension, make a certificate into exchequer before such 1 April, or at any time within 24 days after, they have demanded any incumbents to pay such part of such pension as they be assessed unto, and such incumbent hath not paid, such person having the charge for such collection and payment shall be discharged against H. M.; and the treasurer, chancellor, chamberlain, and barons of exchequer, shall direct upon every such certificate such process against all such incumbents, their executors, and administrators, or for insufficiency of them, against their successors, whereby H. M. may be answered of such part, 26 H. 8. c. 3. s. 18.

32. Archbishops and bishops shall yearly make payment of the tenths unto H. M., at some place appointed by him, on or before the last day of May; and certificate of recusants made before or at such last day of May yearly, shall be as good as if made at the times by 26 H. 8. c. 3. s. 18. appointed, 7 E. 6. c. 4. s. 3. [but see now pl. 18.]

33. All acquittances made by the treasurer of H. M.'s chamber, or such commissioners of receipt as aforesaid, and subscribed by them for payment to such collectors, shall be as good as if they were in H. M.'s name, and under his great seal, and so shall be admitted in all courts; and such treasurer, chancellor, chamberlain, and barons of exchequer, shall allow as well such acquittances as certificates of non-payment [see pl. 31.] in the account of such collector, without any writ, bill, or warrant in that behalf, 26 H. 8. c. 3. s. 19.

34. No officer of the exchequer shall take of any person having charge with the collection and payment of such pension, any reward for making their account or quietus est, or for any thing appertaining to the same concerning such pension; upon pain to lose his office and make fine to H. M. at his will, id. s. 20.

35. When incumbents pay any pension to their predecessors out of their livings, they may retain the tenth thereof, and shall by virtue hereof be acquitted of such tenth, and may plead this act in discharge thereof, id. s. 21.

36. No person shall be assigned by the ordinary, or by any other agreement or otherwise, upon resignation of any promotion spiritual, above the value of the third part thereof; and if any pension, amounting above the value of the third part thereof, shall be assigned to any person spiritual, the incumbent shall not be compelled to pay above such third part, but shall be acquitted of the same, id. s. 22.

37. Abbots or priors paying pensions to their predecessors above 40l., may deduct one-half, id. s. 23.

38. The prior of St. John's of Jerusalem shall pay first-fruits and tenths as archbishops and bishops, id. s. 24. [Abolished; see RELIGIOUS HOUSES.]

39. Where the dean, provost, master, or other chief governor of cathedral churches, colleges, and hospitals, hath a certain portion of the possessions, and every prebendary, brother, vicar, petty canon, and other ministers spiritual in such churches, &c. hath another, the dean,

&c. shall pay for their first fruits, but after the rate of the yearly value of the possessions belonging to their office and dignity (s. 25.); and every other person who shall be appointed to have any prebend, brotherhood, or fellowship, or to be any vicar or petty canon, or to have any other dignity or office spiritual in such churches, &c. shall pay for their first-fruits after the yearly value of the possessions belonging to their dignities, 26 H. 8. c. 5. s. 26.

40. Persons presented and collated to any parsonage or vicarage, whereof the yearly value shall not exceed 8 marks, shall not pay first-fruits, except the incumbent live 3 years after institution, induction or collation; and if such incumbent live after such 3 years, then he shall pay at days to be limited on sureties, the first-fruits of such parsonage or vicarage; and in every obligation to be made by any incumbent of such parsonage, &c. there shall be a proviso, that if such incumbent die within 3 years after the date of institution, &c. the obligation shall be void, id. s. 27. [but see 1 El. c. 4. s. 29., 5 & 6 A. c. 24. post, pl. 52. 66.]

41. All fees which any archbishop or other prelate is bound yearly to pay to any chancellor, master of the rolls, justices, sheriffs, or other officers or ministers of record, for temporal justice to be done within their jurisdiction, shall be deducted by the commissioners in making their values, id. s. 30.

42. ANY PERSON PRESENTED OR OTHERWISE APPOINTED to any archbishopric, bishopric, college, parsonage, &c. or other promotion spiritual, whereof he shall be chargeable as well for the payment of the tenth as of the first-fruits of the same, shall at his composition for such first-fruits have allowance of such tenth out of such first-fruits for the year wherein he was first so presented, &c. 27 H. 8. c. 8. s. 1.

43. Every commissioner or other person deputed by act of parliament, or commission under the great seal, to compound and receive bonds for the payment of first-fruits under this act shall allow to every person so presented, &c. the tenth part of the whole out of such first-fruits for such first year, without suit to H. M. or other charge demanded of the person so preferred, id. s. 2.

44. Every person who, on his composition for first-fruits, shall have the tenth so deducted for the year wherein he is appointed, shall pay it to H. M. in like form as in 26 H. 8. c. 5. s. 9. pl. 15. limited, id. s. 3.

45. In cases where the successor of any incumbent is chargeable to the payment of any sum due for such tenth that shall be unpaid in the time of his predecessor, such successor may distrain such goods of his predecessor as are on such promotion spiritual, of which the tenth was so unpaid, and retain the same till the predecessor, if alive, or his executors, administrators, or other person to whom such goods belong, if dead, have paid such sums of the tenth so unpaid; and in case such sums are not paid within 12 days after distress made, such successor may have such goods appraised by two or three indifferent persons sworn for the same, and sell sufficient to satisfy such sums and costs; and in case no goods be found, such successor may recover such sums against such predecessor or his executors, &c. by bill in chancery or by action of debt, id. s. 4.

46. Patentees of collectorships of tenths shall be bound, 7 E. 6. c. 4. s. 2. [seeb. Exr. See 5 G. 1. c. 10. s. 2., ante, pl. 18.]

47. If any spiritual promotion shall be in such sort void, that no incumbent can be provided for the same, then the archbishops and bishops shall certify yearly, before the last day of May, the same vacations specially in the courts where the tenths are answerable, [viz. the exchequer in 1 El. c. 4. s. 15.] on which certificate they shall be discharged against H. M., as they are on certificate of recusant, [see ante, 26 H. 8. c. 5. s. 18., pl. 31.] and H. M. may levy all the glebe-lands or profits of the benefice, until he is paid all arrears of such tenth, id. s. 4.

48. Patents of collection of the tenths shall remain in force only during the time that the grantor is archbishop or bishop of the same see, id. s. 5. [Virtually R.E. by 5 G. 1. c. 10. s. 2. ante, pl. 18.]

49. H. M. shall have, hold, possess, and enjoy advowsons, gifts, and patronages of vicarages, incident to any of the rectories, and parsonages inappropriate, which were in the hands of Queen Mary on 24 Jan. 1553, as the same were in Queen Mary at and before such 8 Aug., 1 El. c. 4. s. 25.

50. Saving to all persons and bodies, their heirs, executors, successors, and assigns, all such right, title, interest, &c. as they ought to have had by reason of such parsonages and rectories, in case 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 4. and this act had not been made, id. s. 26.

51. All such pensions, annuities, rents, corodies, and other yearly payments, shall be paid by H. M. at the exchequer, to the persons who ought to enjoy the same as before 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 4. made, id. s. 27.

52. All vicarages not exceeding the yearly value of 10*l.* after rate and value in the book in the exchequer, and all parsonages not exceeding the yearly value of 10 marks, after the like rate and valuation, and the incumbents thereof, their executors, administrators, successors, and sureties, shall be discharged against H. M. of first fruits, id. s. 29. [See further 5 & 6 A. c. 24. s. 1. post, pl. 67.]

53. If any incumbent of any such promotion spiritual, charged to the first-fruits, shall live to the end of one half-year after the last avoidance of such promotion spiritual, so as he might have received the rents and profits for that half-year, and before the end of next half-year, shall die, or be removed, or evicted by judgment in any action, then such incumbent, his heirs, executors, administrators and sureties, shall be charged only with the fourth part of the first-fruits due, any bond or writing to the contrary notwithstanding, 1 El. c. 4. s. 30. [See as to archbishops; bishops, deans, &c. 6 A. c. 27. s. 5, 6. post, pl. 71—72.]

54. If any such incumbent shall live for one year after the last avoidance of such promotion spiritual, and before the end of one half-year following shall die, or be so evicted or removed, such incumbent, his heirs, executors, &c. shall be charged with one half of the first-fruits due, notwithstanding any bond, &c. to the contrary, id. s. 31.

55. If any such incumbent shall live for one year and an half after the last avoidance of such promotion, and before the end of 6 months shall die, or be so evicted, or removed, then such incumbent, his heirs, executors, &c. shall be charged with 3 parts in 4 parts to be divided of the first-fruits due, notwithstanding any bond, &c. to the contrary, id. s. 32.

56. If any such incumbent shall live for 2 years after the last avoidance of the same promotion, and not be so evicted or removed, then such incumbent, his heirs, and executors, &c. shall pay the whole first-fruits due, id. s. 33.

57. All grants and annuities given to the universities of Oxford and Cambridge, or to any college or hall thereof, or to the colleges of Eton and Winchester, touching the release of such first-fruits and tenths, shall remain in full force; and all conveyances made to such universities and colleges, &c. of any of such parsonages or benefices inappropriate, or of any patronages for the maintenance of students, shall be as good as if this act had not been made, id. s. 34.

58. The deans and canons of the free chapel of St. George the Martyr in Windsor Castle, and all the possessions of the same, shall be exonerated from tenths and first-fruits, id. s. 35.

59. All grants of parsonages inappropriate, heretofore belonging to the archdeaconry of Wells, shall be as good as if this act had not been made, id. s. 36.

60. The archdeaconry of Wells in Somersetshire, and all rectories and spiritual promotions given, assigned, &c. to the same, and every incumbent presented or collated thereto, shall be charged with the first-fruits and tenths in like manner as other incumbents, id. s. 37.

61. All rectories, parsonages, and benefices inappropriate, glebe lands, tithes, oblations, and other profits as were in the hands of Queen Mary before 8th Aug. 1554, and within the survey, rule, and order of the court of the duchy of Lancaster, shall be within such survey, &c. again in the same manner as before such 8th August, id. s. 38.

62. This act shall not charge any hospital founded and used, and the possessions thereof employed for the relief of the poor, or any schools, or the possessions of them with the payment of first-fruits and tenths, id. s. 40.

63. FOR THE NEW ERECTED BISHOPS, [viz. Chester, Gloucester, Peterborough, Bristol, and Oxford,] to pay their tenths into the court of first-fruits, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 17. [R.E. 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 4., and Qu. not R.E. by 1 El. c. 4. s. 11. 24., since the court of first-fruits was abolished and the business annexed to the exchequer. See 34 H. 8. c. 45., ante, STATUTES REP., &c., pl. 2.]

64. Such new bishops shall pay their tenths into the court of first-fruits, [now exchequer, see 1 El. c. 4. s. 15.] 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 17. s. 1. [See 5 G. 1. c. 10. s. 2. pl. 18.]

65. FOR DISCHARGING SMALL LIVINGS FROM THEIR first-fruits and tenths, and all arrears thereof, 5 & 6 A. c. 24. (PUBLIC clause, s. 5.) [AND. 6 A. c. 27. (PUBLIC clause, s. 4.) 1 G. 1. s. 2. c. 10. s. 17, 18.]

66. All ecclesiastical benefices, with cure of souls, not exceeding the clear annual value of 50*l.* by the improved valuations of the same, the tenths whereof are or are not (6 A. c. 27. s. 1.) [The effect of this "not" is to exempt all livings of such value from first-fruits and tenths.] by the charter of Queen Anne, vested in the governors of H. M.'s bounty, shall be discharged from first-fruits and tenths, [such valuation to be ascertained as by 5 & 6 A. c. 24. directed, 6 A. c. 27. s. 1.] 5 & 6 A. c. 24. s. 1., 6 A. c. 27. s. 1. [see ante, 1 El. c. 4. s. 29. pl. 52.]

67. The bishops and ordinaries of peculiars shall inform themselves of the improved yearly value of every benefice with cure within their jurisdictions, the clear yearly value whereof doth not exceed 50*l.*; and shall on or before 25th March, 1708, [extended to the 24th Dec. 1708, 6 A. c. 27. s. 2, 3.] under their hands and seals, certify into the exchequer the clear yearly value of every such benefice; which certificate being filed in the court shall ascertain the value, 5 & 6 A. c. 24. s. 2. [But see valuation directed to be made, 45 G. 3. c. 84. s. 1., QUEEN ANNE'S BOUNTY.]

68. Provided this act shall not discharge any benefice with cure, the tenths whereof were granted in perpetuity before 3d Nov., 3 A. id. s. 3.

69. When any portion of the first-fruits or tenths shall be applied towards the maintenance of any minister officiating in any church or chapel, such portion shall for ever be continued to the minister so officiating in the same church or chapel, id. s. 4.

70. This act shall not avoid or diminish any actual sum, pension, or annuity heretofore granted and charged on the first-fruits and tenths, but in case by discharging small livings of first-fruits and tenths, such revenues shall not be sufficient to satisfy such annual sums, then the whole revenues of first-fruits and tenths in Eng., Wa., and Ber., shall be liable to make good such deficiencies during the continuance of such grants, 5 & 6 A. c. 24. s. 6.

71. Every archbishop and bishop shall have 4 years allowed him, when he shall compound, for the payment of his first-fruits, to commence for the time of restitution of his temporalities; he in every year paying 1-4th part; and if he die, or is removed before 4 years be expired, he shall be discharged of so much as did not become payable, in like manner as the heirs, &c. of rectors and vicars may do under 1 El. c. 4. s. 30—33. pl. 53—56., 6 A. c. 27. s. 5.

72. Deans, archdeacons, prebendaries and other dignitaries, shall compound for the first-fruits, as rectors and vicars do; and in case of death or removal within the time usually allowed to the latter for payment, they shall have the same benefit as is allowed to rectors, &c. [see last pl.] id. s. 6.

73. THE CERTIFICATE MADE UNDER 5 & 6 A. c. 24. and 6 A. c. 27. for the diocese of Chichester, dated 24 Dec. 1708, now in the exchequer, shall be as good as if the same had been sealed and returned within the time by such acts limited, and all churches, vicarages, and livings, in and by such certificates, or in and by any certificate made and returned in due time, certified to be under 50*l.* per ann., and each mediety therein shall be entitled to the said discharges by such acts, as if the precise yearly value had been stated, and the medieties therein distinguished; and such governors under their common seal, to be affixed at a court of such governors, and under their hands may certify to the court of exchequer the names of such prebends in cathedral churches under the yearly value of 50*l.*, the prebendaries whereof have the immediate cure of souls of the parishes whereof denominated, although the same were not named in any former certificate, and such certificate of such governors so returned, shall be as effectual as the prebends therein named had been duly certified as by such act directed, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 10. s. 17.

74. Certain livings herein named certified by the bishops of the respective dioceses into the exchequer, shall have the benefit of the said acts, id. s. 18.

Specific sums were given by these acts for the above purposes, and it would therefore seem that (such sums having been applied and expended) the acts are no longer in force, and may be deemed EXP.]

(STATUTES in force.)

11. THE ORDINANCE of fish, 31 E. 3. S. 3. [This act is of a local nature, and relates to the taking and sale of fish in the haven of Blakeney, and appears to be the first instance of acts of a local nature being entered on the roll, and printed distinct from the general statutes of the session, QU. whether in force or not.]

12. NO MAN SHALL FASTEN NETS to any thing over rivers, 2 H. 6. c. 15.

13. The standing of nets and engines called trinks, and all other nets fastened day and night to posts, boats, and anchors, over the Thames and other rivers, shall be wholly defended; and every person that setteth them, shall forfeit to H.M. 100*s.*; provided that the possessors of trinks, if they be of assize, may fish with them in all seasonable times, drawing them by hand, as other nets; saving to every of H.M.'s people their right in fishing, id. ibid.

14. FOR THE PACKING of barrelled fish, 22 E. 4. c. 2. [AMD. 11 H. 7. c. 23.]

15. No merchant, stranger, or denizen, shall sell, or set to sale any salmon, by butt, barrel, or half-barrel, or any other vessel, before it be seen, except the butt contain 84 gallons, the barrel 42, the half-barrel 21 gallons, well packed, upon pain of forfeiture for every butt, &c. so failing 6*s.* 8*d.*; also no such merchant shall sell any salmon by butt or other vessel, except it be well packed, viz. the greater salmon by himself, without mingling with them any grills or broken-bellied salmon; all small fish called grills shall be packed by themselves, upon pain of 6*s.* 8*d.* for every butt, &c. mingled and set to sale contrary to this act, id. s. 1.

16. No person shall set herring to sale by barrel, half-barrel, or firkin, except the barrel contain 32 gallons, the half-barrel and firkin after the same rate; and the herrings shall be well packed, and of one taking and salting; and as good and well packed in the midst and every part of the vessel, as in the ends; upon pain to forfeit 3*s.* 4*d.* for every barrel, &c. failing their measure, and 3*s.* 4*d.* for every barrel, &c. packed contrary to this act; also no such merchant nor piling-man shall set to sale any eels by barrel, half-barrel, or firkin, except the barrel contain 42 gallons, the half-barrel, and firkin, after the same rate; nor mingle any gall-beaten, starved, or pulled eels with good eels; nor mingle with the good eels, or put to sale, any red eels; upon pain of 20*s.* for every barrel, &c. failing their measure; and 10*s.* for every barrel, &c. mixt contrary to this act; also no such merchant shall set to sale any barrelled fish, except the same be well packed, viz. the tale-fish by itself, and the small fish called grills by themselves, and without mixing thokes or fish with broken bellies with the tale-fish or small fish; and the tale-fish or small fish shall not be laid double in the packing; and every tale-fish shall contain in length from the bone in the fin to the 3d joint of the neck 26 inches; and the rapes of barrelled fish shall be no longer than the little bone that sitteth upon the great fin; and the bone of every salt fish shall be taken away to the navel; and such fish shall be splatted or opened down to an handful of the tail, upon pain of 3*s.* 4*d.* for every barrel of fish not splatted, &c. according to this act, id. s. 2.

17. All mayors and governors of cities, towns, markets, and other places, shall have power to chuse expert persons, duly to search and gauge all such vessels; the one-half of all such forfeitures to be to H.M., and the other half to subjects that shall pursue for same, by action of debt at common law, or plaint after the custom of the city or town, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 3.

18. Provided that this act be not prejudicial to any having the forfeiture of the goods of felons, fugitives, and condemned persons; every such person shall have like forfeitures in the premises within their franchises, as H.M. hath in other places, id. s. 4.

19. Every gauger, packer, or searcher, appointed according to 22 E. 4. c. 2. shall take no more for gauging a barrel of salmon, herring, fish, or eels, half barrel and firkin, for every piece gauged, but a farthing; and for his labour for searching and packing a barrel of salmon from head to head, 1*d.*; and for boning, naping, and packing of a barrel of fish 1*d.*; and for searching and packing a barrel of herrings from head to head, 2*d.*; a barrel of eels, 2*d.*; an half barrel of herrings, from head to head, 1*d.*; and an half barrel of eels, 1*d.*; and a firkin of herrings, a half-penny; and every gauger, &c. offending herein, and the same proved before the mayors or governors of any city, town, market, or other place, shall forfeit his office, and be imprisoned 40 days; but such searcher and packer shall nothing recover of such fees, but only for such butts, barrels, &c. as by them shall be sufficiently packed and searched, and be not afore sufficiently packed, 11 H. 7. c. 23.

20. THE MAYOR of London shall have the rule of the river Thames from Staines to Yendall, 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 15.

21. The mayor of London shall have the like rule and conservation of the breaches, issues, creeks, and grounds of other persons, overflowed by the river Thames, as far as the water ebbleth and floweth; as touching the munition for using unlawful nets and other unlawful engines, in fishing, as he hath, within Staines Bridge unto the waters of the Yendall and Medway; provided such mayor shall not have such rule in any of such breaches, &c. within H.M.'s grounds, or within any franchises of any person, as touching any munition for such offences, id. ibid.

22. FOR PRESERVATION OF THE SPAWN AND FRY OF FISH, 1 El. c. 17. [CON. 45 El. c. 9. s. 4., 1 J. 1. c. 25., 21 J. 1. c. 28. MADE PERP. 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 1. But see as to the forfeiture in s. 3. of this act, in cases of the Severn and other rivers, 1 G. 1. stat. 2. c. 18. s. 14., 30 C. 2. stat. 1. c. 9.; and as to the Severn and Ferniew, 18 G. 3. c. 33.; and as to the rivers in Carmarthenshire, 45 G. 3. c. xxxiii., all which acts are local, and therefore omitted. See also as to the preservation of the small fry and brood of fish, 35 G. 2. c. 27. FISH MARKETS, pl. 142.]

23. No person shall, by net, line, or other means, kill any spawn or fry of eels, salmon, pike, pickerel or other fish, in any floodgate, pipe, tail of mill, wear, or in any straits, streams, brooks, rivers salt or fresh, within Eng., Wa., and Ber., or kill any salmon or trout not in season, being kepper or shedder salmon or trout 1 El. c. 17. s. 1.

24. No person shall kill any pike or pickerel not being in length 10 inches, or more, nor any salmon not in length 16 inches, nor any trout not in length 8 inches, nor any barbel not in length 12 inches, 1 El. c. 17. s. 2.

25. No person shall fish or take fish with nets, trammel, keep, wore, creel or other device, but only with net or trammel, whereof every mesh or mask shall be 2 inches and an half broad, angling excepted, id. s. 3.

26. In all places where smelts, loches, minnies, bullheads, gudgeons, or eels, have been used to be taken, it shall be lawful only for the taking of smelts, &c. to use such nets, lepes, and other devices as have been used, so that such persons using such nets, &c. do not take or destroy any other fish with them contrary to this statute, id. s. 4.

27. If any person offend contrary to this act, such person shall forfeit 20s., and the fish so taken, and also the unlawful nets and instruments wherewith such offences shall be done, id. s. 5.

28. The lord admiral and the mayor of London, and all other persons or corporations which have conservation of any river or waters, shall inquire of all offences committed contrary to this act, by the oaths of 12 men or more, and shall hear and determine the same, id. s. 6.

29. Forfeitures by reason of such conviction shall be to the use of every of such persons, being no body politic or corporate, nor head of any body politic or corporate, before whom such conviction shall be had; and to the use of every such body politic or corporate, as have had any forfeitures for any offence committed in their conservancies upon conviction had before the head of any such body politic or corporate, id. s. 7.

30. The lord of every leet shall enquire of offences contrary to this statute, by the usual methods in such leets, id. s. 8.

31. Upon presentment in any court or leet, by oath of 12 men, of any offences contrary to this statute, all forfeitures above limited shall be unto the lord of the leet, and shall be levied as amerciaments for affrays committed within such leet, id. s. 9.

32. If the steward of the leet do not charge the jury sworn to enquire of offences done within the leet contrary to this statute, he shall forfeit 40s., one moiety of which shall be to H. M., and the other to him that will sue for same. And if any jury charged to enquire of offences committed within the precinct of that leet, do willingly conceal and make default in presentment, the steward or bailiff may impanel one other jury, and enquire of such concealment; and upon every default found and presented, every of the jurors which so did conceal, shall forfeit 20s. to the lord of the leet, to be levied as in s. 1. pl. 23. s. 10.

33. If the offences touching the destroying of fish or spawn, be not presented at the leet within one year after the offence committed, the justices of peace in their sessions, justices of oyer and terminer, and justices of assizes, shall have power to enquire thereof, and to hear and determine the offences contrary to this statute, id. s. 11.

34. Saving to all persons all right and conservation, &c. id. s. 12.

35. No person in any port, city, town, market, or other place, shall set price, make any restraint, or take toll of any sea-fish taken by such subjects in their vessels, on pain to forfeit the value of the fish, 5 El. c. 5. s. 2.

36. This act shall not be prejudicial to the mayor and burgesses of Kingston upon Hull, but they may take all such toll as is granted by 35 H. 8. c. 33.; and neither such mayor or burgesses, nor any inhabitant there, shall take any advantage of this act for the carriage of any herrings or salted fish beyond the sea, id. s. 3.

37. No purveyor shall take any sea fish of any that shall take the same in any subjects' ship, id. s. 4. [Purveyance abolished, 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 12.]

38. The fish called composition granted to H. M. shall be taken by H. M.'s officers as heretofore, saving to H. M. and all other persons such fishes as be called regal fishes, for the usual recompence, id. s. 5.

39. No person shall buy of any stranger born, out of any stranger's bottom, any herrings being not sufficiently salted, packed, and casked, on pain to forfeit the same, or the value thereof, id. s. 6.

40. But s. 6. shall not extend to any herrings to be brought by reason of shipwreck into the realm, but the same may be brought as before this act, id. s. 7.

41. No person shall load in any bottom whereof any stranger born is the owner, any kind of fish, victual, wares, or things, to be carried coastwise, on pain to forfeit all such goods, or the value thereof, id. s. 8.

42. No person shall bring into this realm any cod or lings, in barrels or other casks, but loose in bulk, and by tale to be sold, on pain to forfeit the same or the value thereof, id. s. 10.

43. How offences to be determined and penalties applied, id. ss. 30—35. [See HOLYDAYS, &c.]

44. FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF THE NAVIGATION, 13 El. c. 11. [Exp. as to ss. 1—3.]

45. No person using any ship, boat or vessel called catchmonger, or picard, or other vessel of like use, shall, in the time of common fishing upon the coasts of Norfolk or Suffolk, between the 14th Sept. and the 14th Nov., from sun-setting to sun-rising, anchor on the main sea, or in the common stream or trade of fishing where the fishermen used to drive, upon pain to forfeit their catch, &c. with the tackle and all fish in it, or the value thereof, to go in moieties to H. M. and the bailiffs of Great Yarmouth, to be employed in recompensing the damages to the party whose nets be thereby cut, and to the building and repairing of the haven, there to be taken by seizure, or recovered by action or information in any court of record, 13 El. c. 11. s. 4.

46. The assize of 32 gallons of wine measure, which is about 28 gallons of the old standard, well packed, and containing 1000 herrings, shall be the good assize of herring-barrels throughout Great Yarmouth, and elsewhere, id. s. 5. [virtually Rep. by 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 36.]

47. No fish brought into this realm by a stranger, nor any Scottish fish or Flemish fish shall be dried within Eng. to be sold: upon pain to forfeit the same, or the value thereof, to go to such person dwelling at any town where there is any port, pier or haven as will seize the same, or sue for the value in any court of record, to be employed in the maintenance of such port, &c. as is next to the place where the offence was committed, id. s. 6.

48. FOR THE INCREASE OF MARINERS, and for the maintenance of navigation, 39 El. c. 10. and recital in s. 1. [Con. 43 El. c. 9. s. 21., 1 J. 1. c. 25., 21 J. 1. c. 28., 3 C. 1. c. 4., and indefinitely 16 C. 1. c. 4., Rep. as to s. 6., 43 El. c. 9. s. 33.]

49. All H. M.'s subjects being owners of any ships or vessels sailing with cross sails, may receive therein any herrings or other fish which any alien shall buy of any of H. M.'s subjects, and the same transport to parts beyond the seas, so as such aliens pay the duty for the same, 39 El. c. 10. s. 3.

50. All aliens shall pay to H. M. for all salted fish and herrings imported, the customs imposed on H. M.'s subjects in those countries from whence such fish was shipped for the like fish, besides the ordinary customs, id. s. 4. [See further as to the importation of foreign taken fish, 18 C. 2. c. 2. s. 2. pl. 58., 32 C. 2. c. 2. s. 7. pl. 59., 1 G. 1. s. 2. c. 18. s. 29.]

51. If any alien or natural born subject shall bring into this realm any salt fish or herrings not good and seasonable, and shall offer the same for sale, and shall be warned thereof by any officer of the port, then if he shall after that offer any such fish for sale, or being an alien, and no denizen, shall not depart with such fish, he shall forfeit all such fish to H. M., id. s. 5.

52. All ordinances of the fishmongers of London, or any other corporation company made in restraint of any person to buy or sell fish, shall be void, id. s. 6. [Rep. 43 El. c. 9. s. 33.]

53. And no such ordinance shall be put in execution during the continuance of 39 El. c. 10. to restrain the bringing in, selling or buying of salt fish and herrings, being wholesome and sweet, under the pains in 39 El. c. 10. mentioned, 43 El. c. 9. s. 34.

54. FOR THE BETTER PRESERVATION OF SEA FISH, 3 J. 1. c. 12. and recital in s. 1. [not to extend to the isle of Anglesea, s. 4.]

55. Every person that shall erect any new wear along the sea-shore, or in any haven or creek, or within five miles of the mouth thereof, or shall willingly take or spoil any spawn, fry or brood of sea-fish in any wear or other device, shall forfeit 10*l.*, the one half to H. M. and the other to him that will sue for the same; and every person which in any haven or creek, or within five miles of the mouth thereof, shall fish with any draw-net or drag-net, under an inch and an half from knot to knot (except for the taking of smoulds in Norfolk only), or with any net with canvas or other device, whereby the spawn, fry or brood of sea-fish may be destroyed, shall forfeit such net, and also 10*l.*, the one half to the poor of the city or parish where the offence was committed, and the other to the person that shall sue for the same; such forfeitures to be levied by the mayor or other head-officer of such city, &c. and by warrant of one justice of peace, by distress and sale of goods, id. s. 2.

56. This act shall not extend to using nets of lesser mesh for taking of herring, pilchards, sprats or lavidnian, id. s. 3. [See 1 G. 1. s. 2. c. 18. s. 4. post. pl. 69.]

57. TO PREVENT THE IMPORTATION OF FISH taken by foreigners, 18 C. 2. c. 2. s. 2. [Am. 32 C. 2. c. 2. s. 7. This title is framed from these sections.]

58. If any ling, herring, cod or pilchard, fresh or salted, dried or bloated, or any salmon, eels or congers taken by foreigners, shall be imported, uttered or exposed to sale in this kingdom, they may be seized and disposed of in moieties to the poor of the parish where found and to the person seizing, 18 C. 2. c. 2. s. 2.

59. Neither this nor any other act shall prevent the importation of stock fish and live eels, but the same may be imported into this kingdom, 32 C. 2. c. 2. s. 7.

60. FOR THE BETTER PREVENTING FRESH FISH taken by foreigners being imported into this kingdom, and for the preservation of the fry of fish, and for giving leave to import lobsters and turbot in foreign bottoms, 1 G. 1. s. 2. c. 18. ss. 1—9. [Am. and the 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 11. explained as to ships exporting fish to the Mediterranean, 9 G. 2. c. 33. ss. 1—3., further Am. as to selling unsizeable fish taken with an hook, 22 G.2. c.29. s.21., which is REF. 29 G.2. c.39. s.14., and REV. and AMD. 33 G.2. c.27. s.11., and further AMD. as to the recovery of the penalties, 26 G.3. c.81. ss.43—54.] [For the rest of 1 G.1. st.2. c.18. See FISHERY (Salmon), and of 26 G.3. c.81. &c. FISHERY (British).]

61. No herring, cod, pilchards, salmon, or ling, fresh or salted, dried or bloated, nor any grill, mackerell, whiting, haddock, sprats, cod fish, gull fish, congers, nor any sort of flat fish, nor any other sort of fresh fish, shall be imported into or exposed to sale in Eng. which was taken by, bought of, or received from any foreigner out of any stranger bottom, except protestants strangers inhabiting within this kingdom, nor shall any person give any thing in exchange for such fish, 1 G.1. S.2. c.18. s.1.

62. Every master of any smack, hoy, yager, boat, ship, or other vessel in which any fish is imported contrary to this act, shall on conviction, on his appearance or default, after summons before one justice for county, city, or place where the offender resides, or is found, by oath of 2 witnesses, forfeit 20*l.* to be levied by distress and sale of his goods by warrant under the hand and seal of such justice, rendering the overplus to the party, and in default of payment or distress, such justice shall commit such offender to the common gaol for the county, &c. for 12 months, id. s.2.

63. Every person offending against 1 G.1. S.2. c.18. s.1 & 2, shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered in the courts at Westminster, and to go in moiety to the informer, and the poor of parish where the offence was committed, and the master of any boat, &c. in which any fish shall be imported contrary to such act, shall forfeit 50*l.* to be recovered and applied as aforesaid, 9 G.2. c.33. s.1.

64. No person shall incur any penalty against this act, unless the prosecution shall be commenced within 12 months after offence done, id. s.2. [How these penalties may be recovered, see 26 G.3. c.81. s.46—54. FISHERIES (British).]

65. If on complaint on oath before 2 justices, it appears that any officer suspects that any fish hath been imported into London, contrary to 1 G.1. st.2. c.18. s.1 & 2. and 9 G.2. c.35. s.2. and this act, such justices may summon the party complained of to appear at a time specified in the summons, and if he does not appear, then on due proof of the service of the summons, either personally, or by leaving it at his place of abode, if the party is on shore, or if not on shore, by leaving it with some person of the vessel to which he belongs, may cause such party to be apprehended by warrant under their hands and seals, and to be brought before them, and shall then proceed to hear and determine the matter, 26 G.3. c.81. s.45.

66. Such justices may summon before them any seaman or other person who appears to be a necessary witness as to such matter, at a time and place specified in the summons, and in case such person shall not appear, then on due proof of the service of such summons in the manner in s.45., they may cause such person to be apprehended by like warrant, and on his appearance examine him on oath, as to the matter of such complaint, and in case he shall refuse to be examined, or shall forswear himself, or wilfully prevaricate, such justices by like warrant may commit him to the county gaol for one year without bail, id. s.44.

67. The examination of such witness shall be taken in writing by such justices, and if the party complained of does not attend at the time of such examination, and such witness cannot be made to attend when such party shall appear, then such written evidence shall have same effect as visa voce evidence, id. s.45.

68. Nothing herein shall prevent the importation or sale of eels, stockfish, anchovies, sturgeon, or botargo, or caviar, 1 G.1. S.2. c.18. s.3.

69. If any person shall use at sea, upon the coast of Eng. any trawl-net, drug-net, or sea-net for the catching of any fish, (except herrings, pilchards, sprats, and lavidnian) which hath a mesh of less than 3 inches and a half from knot to knot, or any false or double bottom, cod or pouch, or shall put any net, though of legal size, behind the others, to destroy the small fish, he shall forfeit such nets and 20*l.* for every offence, to be recovered as in s.2. pl. 62., and for want of payment or distress be imprisoned for 12 months, id. s.4. [see 5 J.1. c.12. s.3. pl. 56.]

70. All penalties in this act, except nets of illegal bottoms, (charges for recovery thereof being deducted) shall be distributed, one moiety to the informer, the other to the poor of the parish where the offence was done, id. s.5.

71. Where illegal nets shall be proved to be forfeited, they shall be publicly burnt by warrant of such justice, id. s.6.

72. If any person bring to shore in Eng. expose to sale, or exchange for goods, any unsizable fish, not of the lengths following, from the eyes to the extent of the tail, viz. bret or turbot, 16 inches; brill or pearl, 14 inches; codlin, 12 inches; whiting, 6 inches; bass and mullet, 14 inches; sole, plaice or dab, 8 inches; and flounder, 7 inches; he shall forfeit the fish to the poor of the parish where the offence is committed, and 20*l.*, one moiety to the informer, and the other to such poor, to be levied as in s.2. pl. 62.; and in default of payment or distress shall be sent to the house of correction (by warrant of a justice) or other common gaol of the county, &c. where the offence shall be committed, to be severely whipped and kept to hard labour six days, and not longer than fourteen, 1 G.1. S.2. c.18. s.7. [But see as to catching unsizable fish in the rivers Severn and Verne, 18 G.3. c.33. (LOCAL).]

73. Fish under the dimensions in 1 G.1. S.2. c.18. s.7. mentioned, may be sold or exchanged, provided such fish are taken with an hook, 22 G.2. c.49. s.21. [REF. 29 G.2. c.39. s.14.]

74. Bret or turbot, brill or pearl, although under the dimensions in 1 G.1. st.2. c.18. s.7. pl. 72. mentioned, may be exposed to sale in Eng., so as the same be not sold at a price exceeding 6*d.* per lb for every bret or turbot under 16 inches, or any such brill or pearl under 14 inches from the eyes to the extent of the tail; and if any person shall demand or take for any such bret, &c. under such dimensions any greater price than 6*d.* per lb, and so in proportion, or who shall neglect or refuse to weigh or measure any such bret, &c. which is exposed to sale, such bret, &c. shall be forfeited, and any person may seize the same and deliver it to a constable, and charge the constable with the custody of the offender, who shall carry him and such bret, &c. before some justice, and if such person is convicted thereof, either by confession or the oath of one witness, he shall forfeit 20*s.*, and such bret, &c. shall be given to the parties who prosecuted such offender to conviction, and the money paid for such bret, &c. shall be returned to the party who paid the same, 33 G.2. c.27. s.11.

75. Where any person shall suffer imprisonment for default of payment or distress, he shall not be liable afterwards to pay the penalty, id. s.8.

76. No person shall be punished for any offence against this act, unless the prosecution be commenced within one month after the offence, id. s.9. [The time extended to 12 months, 9 G.2. c.30. s.2. and 26 G.3. c.81. s.53., which see, FISHERIES (British).]

77. Foreigners and natives may import, in any ship and sell the same, any lobsters or turbot, whether of English catching or not, 10 & 11 W.3. c.26. s.13., notwithstanding 1 G.1. st.2. c.18. s.10.

78. No British ship or vessel trading to any port in the Mediterranean sea beyond Malaga, shall be entitled to the benefit of the exemption in 15 & 14 G.2. c.11. ss.55, 56. contained by reason that one moiety of her lading consists of fish, unless such moiety consists of fish taken and cured by H.M.'s subjects, 9 G.2. c.34. s.3.

79. TO REGULATE THE IMPORTATION OF COD, LING OR HAKE, and other fish into Eng. [This title is framed from these sections.] 2 & 3 A. c.16. ss.13—14 [AMD. 4 & 5 A. c.12. s.12. See similar provisions for fish caught in Chaleur Bay, or the Gulf of St. Lawrence, 13 G.3. c.72. FISHERY (Newfoundland).]

80. No herrings, pilchards, seals, codfish, ling, hake, salmon or dried red sprats, by whomsoever caught or cured, shall be imported into Eng., Wa., or Ber., unless the owner of such fish, or the master of the vessel, shall make oath before the officer of the salt duties in port of importation (who shall administer the same without fee), that all the salt wherewith such fish were cured was laden on board from some part of Eng., Wa., or Ber., and when and where the same was put on board, and that no drawback or allowance or debenture hath been obtained on the exportation of such salt, or is intended to be had, on pain to forfeit such fish so imported contrary hereto, and double the value thereof to be recovered of the importer, 2 & 3 A. c.14. s.13.

81. Nothing herein shall prohibit the importing and landing any cod, ling or hake caught at Newfoundland or Iceland, so as each be first made before the landing thereof by the owner of the fish, or master of the vessel bringing the same before the officer of the salt duties at the port of importation (who shall administer the same without fee), that all fish so imported came from Newfoundland or Iceland, and were caught and cured there, and so as before such fish is landed part of their tails are cut off by the officer of the port, that no allowance be made for the same on exportation; and in case any such fish be landed before their tails be so cut, all fish so imported shall be forfeited, and double the value thereof shall be recovered of the importer or proprietor thereof, to wit, one moiety to H.M. and the other to the party prosecuting for the same, id. s.14.

82. The 2 & 3 A. c.14. ss.13, 14. shall not prohibit the importing and landing any codfish, ling or hake caught and cured at or in the north sea upon making like oath, and being subject to penalties as by the said act prescribed, 4 & 5 A. c.12. s.12.

83. FOR THE BETTER SUPPLYING THE CITIES OF London and Westminster with fish, and to reduce the present exorbitant price thereof, and to protect and encourage fishermen, 2 G.3. c.15. [AMD. as to retail sales of fish in Billingsgate market, 36 G.3. c.118. SEW. as to impressing seamen, 38 G.3. c.46. EXP. and AMD. as to impressing persons employed in such fisheries, 50 G.3. c.108. See further, as to Billingsgate market, 10 & 11 W.3. c.24. pl. 131, &c. 55 G.2. c.27. pl. 166., &c.]

84. Any person, although not brought up a fishmonger, may buy at any market, sea-coast, creek, port, haven, bank of any river or place in G.R. any fish in season, not unsizable, or under the dimensions, by the laws now in force [viz. 1 G. 1. st. 2. c. 18., pl. 60.] allowed so be sent to the city of London, paying the usual dues at the places where purchased; and afterwards may sell again in public or fixed shops, stalls or houses in any other market where fish or flesh are usually sold, paying the stallage or market dues, without incurring any penalty, 2 G. 3. c. 15. s. 1.

85. Nothing herein shall extend to permit any person to sell fish in Covent Garden market, or the precincts thereof, id. s. 2.

86. No fish allowed to be so bought shall be sold again by the first purchaser before conveyed to the cities of London or Westminster, or such other places in G. B. as the proprietor shall think fit to consign the same, under pain of 20*l.* for every offence, id. s. 3.

87. All such fish shall be permitted to be conveyed to the place to which the proprietor shall think fit to consign the same, without being subject to be stopped in any place in order to be sold there under pretence of any usage, id. s. 4.

88. Every carriage used for the conveyance of such fish, shall only carry fish and implements belonging thereto, and shall be marked on the outside, fish machine only, and shall have the name and abode of the owner entered and registered at the office for licensing hackney coaches, and for every such entry only 1*s.* shall be paid; and afterwards the number of such carriage shall be marked on some part of the outside, in large figures, painted, or else put on lead or other metal, fixed on some conspicuous part; and no fish carriage shall be deemed a common stage waggon; and if any one shall neglect what is hereinbefore directed, touching the marking, registering, numbering, and keeping the number of such carriage on some part thereof, he shall forfeit for every neglect 40*s.* id. s. 5.

89. Every such fish carriage, so numbered and marked, shall be permitted to travel by horses in pairs not exceeding four, or by a single horse, or by horses at length not exceeding 3, although the fellicies of the wheels shall not be nine inches from side to side; and every such fish-carriage shall only pay toll as chaises drawn by a like number of horses, or by a single horse, id. s. 6.

90. Such fish-carriage may travel on Sundays and holydays, whether laden or returning empty, and the horses returning from drawing any such fish-carriage, although rode by any driver, or drawing an empty fish-machine, may pass on Sundays, &c. without incurring any penalty, id. s. 7.

91. No toll shall be paid for any such carriage returning without fish, or for any horses which shall draw the same back empty, or for any horses returning from drawing any such fish-carriage laden, although rode on by any driver, id. s. 8.

92. If any person shall put any game, or other thing except fish, and the necessary package and implements of such carriage, into any such fish-carriage to be conveyed thereby; every person, other than the driver, shall, on being convicted thereof, forfeit for every offence, 5*l.*; and if the driver take up, or suffer any passenger, game, or other thing except fish, to be at any time carried in or by any such fish-carriage, every driver thereof so offending, convicted, shall forfeit 40*s.*; and if, on the conviction of any driver, the sum forfeited shall not be forthwith paid, the convicting justice shall, by warrant under hand and seal, commit every such driver to the house of correction, there to remain and be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month, as any justice shall order, unless the money forfeited shall be sooner paid, id. s. 9.

93. If the owner or other person who shall have the care of any such fish-carriage loaded with fish, and consigned for London or Westminster, shall break bulk before brought within the bills of mortality, or sell, or expose to sale, any of the fish loaded in such carriage before brought to London or Westminster, or within the bills of mortality, and exposed there to sale as in s. 17. directed, he shall forfeit for every offence 10*l.*, id. s. 10.

94. All fish brought by land carriage to London or Westminster, or within the weekly bills of mortality, shall, with all convenient speed, after brought, be sorted, and the next morning shall be publicly exposed to sale in some public market within such weekly bills (except such next day shall be Sunday, and then on Monday), and until such fish shall be so exposed to sale, no part thereof shall be sold, or offered to sale, by retail; upon pain that every person thereof convicted shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 11.

95. Nothing in this act shall prohibit the selling any mackerell brought by such carriage, before or after divine service on a Sunday, id. s. 12.

96. If any person shall enter into any contract for buying up any fish, except salmon and lobsters, before brought to open market, or some usual place for the sale of fish, and before exposed to sale in the ordinary manner, and for the usual time, such contract shall be void, and every party thereto shall forfeit for every such contract 50*l.*, id. s. 13.

97. No contract for the buying of salmon or lobsters taken in G. B. shall be in force for longer than one year from the date of such contract, and if not entered into writing, then only for one year, from the time of making such parol contract, id. s. 14.

98. No person shall employ or be employed by any other person in buying, or to buy, at any market in London or Westminster, or elsewhere within the bills of mortality, any fish brought there to be sold, to be divided by lots amongst fishmongers or other persons, in order to be afterwards put to sale again, or sold by retail; nor shall any fishmonger or other person buy in any market within such limits, any fish but what shall be for his own sale or use only, upon pain of 20*l.* for every offence, 2 G. 3. c. 15. s. 15.

99. If any proprietor of fish, or any salesman, shall refuse to sell, or enter into any agreement or confederacy not to sell to any particular person, any fish which shall be exposed to sale in any public market, every such person shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 16.

100. All fish of the sorts after specified, brought for sale within such limits, shall be publicly exposed for sale at the first hand, and shall be sold in no greater number or quantity, or by any greater weight in any one lot, in Billingsgate market, or within 150 yards of Billingsgate dock, or in any other market within the weekly bills of mortality, than hereinafter directed, and every lot shall consist only of one sort of fish. [So much of ss. 17 & 18 as relates to the number of fish to be sold in one lot, REP. 42 G. 3. c. lxxxviii. s. 3.] id. s. 17.

101. And if any person shall sell or buy any such fish at the first hand, in any market in London, or within 150 yards of Billingsgate dock, or in any market in Westminster, or within such limits, in any lot contained a greater number or weight in such lot than herein directed; or if any, one shall sell, or offer for sale, in any such lot, more than one sort of fish, he shall for every such offence forfeit 5*l.*, id. s. 17.

102. But any person may expose to sale, and sell in Billingsgate market, or in any other market within such limits, any of such fish, where more than one is in any lot, in any smaller number, or any eels by any lesser weight than hereinbefore described, id. s. 18.

103. No person shall a second time sell or expose to sale, in Billingsgate market, or within 150 yards of the dock, or within any other market in London, or within such limits, any fish which in the same day have been before sold in the same market; but any buyer may sell the same again, whilst sound and wholesome, in any other place, upon pain that every one who shall offend shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 19.

104. So much of 2 G. 3. c. 15. s. 19. as restrains the sale of fish by retail in Billingsgate market, or within 150 yards of Billingsgate dock, in the same day on which it was sold in such market, &c. but no further or otherwise, shall be R.L.P. 36 G. 3. c. 181. s. 1.

105. Any person may, by retail (but in no other manner) sell a second time, and not oftener, within such market, or within 150 yards of such dock, any fish, although the same were there sold on the same day by wholesale once before, id. s. 2.

106. The common council of London shall appoint the time for the commencement of the sale of fish by retail in such market, or within 150 yards of such dock, and shall have the same control over such retail market as they have over other public markets of the same city, id. s. 3.

107. No person shall expose to sale, at the first hand, in any such markets, any of the sorts of fish before specified, before he shall have first placed in some conspicuous manner, on or over the place at which he shall expose for sale such fish, a true account, and in a large and legible character, either wrote or printed, distinguishing the several sorts of all such fish, and the quantity which he shall then have, or have been employed to sell, except as to the number of flounders, plaice, dabs, mackerell, maids, herrings, and pilchards: and if at any time of the morning or day in which such account shall have been placed up, and before the market shall be ended, any other fish shall be brought to such market to be sold, the person employed to sell the same, before he exposes to sale such other fish, shall add a true account thereof to the account before put up; and the party hereby directed to put up such account shall take care that such account shall continue up where first placed, until all the fish specified therein shall be sold, or the market ended, without being defaced, upon pain that every one who shall neglect to put up, or continue such account, shall forfeit 5*l.*; and every person wilfully taking down, defacing, or altering any such account, shall, for every last-mentioned offence, forfeit 40*s.*, id. s. 23.

108. No fisherman, mariner, or other person employed on board any fishing ship, sloop, smack, vessel, or boat, shall, after her arrival from fishing, wilfully destroy, or throw away fish, which any such vessel shall have brought from sea, or caught in any navigable river, that is not unwholesome, perished, or unmarketable, except sprats, which shall remain unsold when the market, to which the same are sent for sale, is ended; and such fisherman, &c. being thereof convicted, shall be committed to the house of correction, and be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 2 months, nor less than one week, as the convicting justice shall order, id. s. 21.

109. Every person herein specified, who shall be employed in the fisheries of this kingdom, shall be exempt from impressment into H. M.'s service, except in cases herein mentioned; (viz.) 1st, Every master who has the care or conduct of any fishing vessel or boat which shall be employed in such fisheries, or who, or some owner of which vessel, shall have, or within 6 calendar months before applying for the protection hereinafter allowed, had 3 or more apprentices under 16 years of age, bound to him for any term not less than 5 years, and who in pursuance of such binding have been in the service of such master or owner in the business of a fisherman: 2dly, every such apprentice to every master or owner of any fishing vessel not exceeding	{	8	}	to any master of any fishing vessel of the burthen of	{	50 tons and upwards

		7				35	} and under {	50
		6				30		35
		4				under	30

so long as such apprentice shall continue as such in the actual service of such master only, or his representatives or assigns, in the business of a fisherman, and in no other service, and until he shall attain 20 years: 3dly, one mariner to every such vessel or boat of 10 tons burthen and upwards, besides the master and his apprentices who shall be employed to navigate or fish in any such vessel during his actual employment therein: and, 4thly, any landman above 18, and under 50 years of age, entering on board of any such vessel of 10 tons burden, and being actually employed in navigating or fishing therein for 2 years, to be computed from the time of his first going to sea to the end of the voyage he may be then engaged in, if he continues so long employed in such service, 50 G.3. c. 108. s. 2.

110. The 2 G.3. c. 15. ss. 22 & 23. shall be REPEALED, 50 G.3. c. 108. s. 1.

111. On an affidavit sworn before some justice that the person described in such affidavit is within one of the descriptions before specified, and inserting therein the tonnage of every such vessel, and the port to which she belongs, and the name and description of every master, and the age of every apprentice, and the term for which bound, and the date of his indenture, and the name, age, and description of every such mariner and landman respectively, and the time of such landman's first going to sea, being offered to the commissioners of the admiralty, or any 3 of them, or left at the office of admiralty, the admiralty shall, with all convenient speed (unless they have cause to suspect the truth, in which case they shall cause inquiry to be made into the truth of such affidavit), from time to time, grant a separate protection to every such person without fee; and every person impressed contrary to this act, shall, on producing the protection to the commanding officer, be discharged, 50 G.3. c. 108. s. 3.

112. If, during any protection, any person shall be impressed other than in the case of an actual invasion or imminent danger of these kingdoms, signified by some order of H. M. or his privy council, to the admiralty, and if on producing such protection to, or if offering to produce the same for the inspection of the commanding officer of the press-gang, any such commanding officer shall neglect to examine such protection, or shall detain the same from the party entitled thereto, and shall not forthwith discharge the party; or if the party impressed shall be carried on board any vessel in the service of H. M., and the commander shall not, on any such protection being produced; or if such protection shall have been taken away after being impressed, then, if on an affidavit being made before some justice, that such protection was granted, and is in force, and was taken away from the party to whom granted, either at or after the impressment made; and being tendered to the officer so commanding such vessel, such officer shall not forthwith discharge the party impressed and brought on shipboard; or if any officer having command, or any of the crew under him shall take away or detain such protection, then every such person shall forfeit to the party impressed, if not an apprentice, and if an apprentice, then to the master, 20*l.*, 2 G.3. c. 15. s. 24., 50 G.3. c. 108. s. 4.

113. Every master or owner of any fishing vessel who shall knowingly harbour or employ any seaman or landman who shall have deserted from H. M.'s service, shall forfeit 20*l.*, 2 G.3. c. 15. s. 25.

114. All justices of the peace shall hear and determine all offences against these acts; and all pecuniary forfeitures whereof the time for payment is not hereby directed, shall be paid within 24 hours after the conviction of the offender either by confession, or by the oath of one witness; and any justice may issue a warrant under his hand and seal, directed to any peace officer, to levy the same by distress of the goods of the person convicted and found within the jurisdiction of such justice; and if, within 5 days from distress taken, the money shall not be paid with the costs, the goods shall be appraised and sold, rendering the overplus to the owner, after deducting the penalty and costs; which costs shall be ascertained by some justice of the county, &c. in which the offender was convicted; and if sufficient distress cannot be found, (other than the driver of any fish-currage as aforesaid, 2 G.3. c. 15. s. 26.) then on proof thereof upon oath before some justice, such justice shall, on the application of any prosecutor, issue a like warrant, directed to some peace officer, to apprehend such offender and convey and commit him to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding [one, 50 G.3. c. 108. s. 7.] two months, as such justice shall order, unless the money forfeited shall be sooner paid, 2 G.3. c. 15. s. 26., 50 G.3. c. 108. s. 7.

115. No person shall suffer punishment for any offence against this act, unless the prosecution be commenced within 3 calendar months after offence committed; and where any person shall suffer imprisonment, he shall not be liable afterwards to pay such penalty, 2 G.3. c. 15. s. 27., 50 G.3. c. 108. s. 8.

116. If any person who shall contract for fish contrary to this act, shall, before information made against him, inform against any other party who shall have entered into any such contract, and the party informed against shall afterwards, on such information, be convicted, then the person who shall have so informed against and prosecuted to conviction such other person, shall be released from all penalties and forfeitures incurred by him by having been a party to such contract, and shall be entitled to one moiety of the penalty, 2 G.3. c. 15. s. 28.

117. If it shall be made out by the oath of any credible person to the satisfaction of any justice, that any one within his jurisdiction is likely to give material evidence on behalf of the prosecutor, or the accused, and will not voluntarily appear and be examined, every such justice shall issue his summons, to convene every such witness at such time as in the summons is fixed; and if any person summoned shall neglect to appear, and no just cause is offered for such neglect, then, after proof by oath of such summons duly served upon the party summoned, every such justice shall issue his warrant under hand and seal to bring such witness before him; and on his appearance shall examine him upon oath; and if he refuse to be examined on oath concerning the premises, without just cause, may, by like warrant, commit him to prison, there to remain for not exceeding 14, nor less than 3 days, as such justice shall direct, 2 G.3. c. 15. s. 29., 50 G.3. c. 108. s. 9.

118. In case any person against whom a warrant shall be issued by any justice, for any offence against this act, shall go into any other county, city, or place, any justice of the county, &c. into which such offender shall go or be, may indorse his name on such warrant (proof being first made on oath of such warrant having been signed by such other justice), and every warrant so indorsed shall be sufficient authority to all persons to execute it out of the jurisdiction of the justice who first granted it; and every such justice, after indorsing such warrant, may, on the offender being apprehended, and brought before him, hear and determine the matter, in the same manner as if the complaint originally arose within his jurisdiction; or may direct the offender to be carried before a justice, within whose jurisdiction the offence was committed, 2 G.3. c. 15. s. 30., 50 G.3. c. 108. s. 10.

119. One moiety of all money forfeited for offences against this act (not appropriated) shall go to the person who shall prosecute to conviction any offender; and the other moiety shall go to the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital for the benefit of the hospital, 2 G.3. c. 15. s. 31., 50 G.3. c. 108. s. 11.

120. Persons aggrieved by the order of any justice on account of any offence committed against this act, may appeal to the general or quarter session of the peace next after conviction, first giving security before such justice, in double the sum forfeited, to prosecute such appeal with effect, and to abide by the order made on such appeal, and giving 8 days notice in writing of the intention to appeal, to the party on whose prosecution such conviction shall be made, if there shall be so many days within such conviction and sessions; and if not, then the party may appeal to the next general or quarter session but one after such conviction; and the justices in their sessions shall determine the appeal, and make such order therein, and award such costs, as shall appear just, and cause to be levied, under order of such sessions, the costs awarded, with such money as they shall adjudge to be forfeited, by distress and sale of the goods of the person who shall refuse to pay such costs and money forfeited; and if sufficient goods cannot be met with, then by distress and sale of the goods of the persons who shall have become sureties for the appellant, 2 G.3. c. 15. s. 32., 50 G.3. c. 108. s. 12.

121. No order or proceedings had before any justice, in relation to the premises, shall be quashed for want of form only; and the order made at such general or quarter sessions, shall be final; and no proceedings in pursuance of this act shall be removable by certiorari, letters of advocacy, suspension, or otherwise, 2 G.3. c. 15. s. 33., 50 G.3. c. 108. s. 14.

122. Actions for any thing done in pursuance of these acts shall be brought within 6 calendar months after the cause thereof accrued, and shall be laid in the county, city, or place in which the cause arose, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give these acts and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance thereof, and if it shall so appear, or if such action is brought after the time limited, or is so laid in the wrong county, &c. the jury shall find for the defendant; and upon such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues after appearance, or if on demurrer judgment shall be for defendant, then such defendant shall have treble costs, 2 G.3. c. 15. s. 34., 50 G.3. c. 108. s. 15.

123. All the provisions and regulations herein before contained with respect to the weekly bills of mortality, shall extend to the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, 2 G. 3. c. 15. s. 55.

124. Nothing in this act shall make void any contract, in regard to salt or dried fish, oysters, carp, or tench, id. s. 56.

125. No justice shall receive any information against any person, by reason of being a party to, or concerned in, any contract for buying up fish to be sold again contrary to this act; but all money forfeited by reason of such contract shall be recoverable only, with double costs, by the person who shall sue for the same in any courts of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c.; and one moiety of the money forfeited shall go to the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital for the benefit of the hospital, and the other to the person who shall inform, id. s. 37.

126. In case any seaman or mariner, who has entered into any agreement, or taken any earnest for the performance of any fishing voyage, or for any stipulated time of any fishing season, shall neglect to proceed on such voyages, he shall forfeit 5*l.*; and any justice, on complaint made by the master, owner, or person having charge of the vessel in which such seaman was engaged to go, shall issue his warrant to apprehend such seaman, and in case he shall not pay the penalty, or give good reason for his neglect, shall commit him to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour from 14 to 70 days, 50 G. 5. c. 108. s. 5.

127. If the master or owner of any vessel, &c. shall hire, entice, harbour, or employ any apprentice, seaman, or landman, knowing them to belong to any fishing vessel, or that they had engaged to go on a fishing voyage, or after notice thereof given, such master shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 6.

128. The justices before whom any conviction shall take place for offences against this act shall draw up the conviction in the form or to the effect following:

Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the — year of the reign of H. M. — is [or are] convicted before one or more of H. M.'s justices of the peace for — by virtue of an act passed in the 50th year of the reign of H. M. king George the Third, entitled [here insert the title of this act, specifying the offences, and the time and place when and where the same was committed as the case may be] contrary to the said act [or as the case shall be] for which offence we [or I] adjudge. Given under our [or my] hands and seals [or hand and seal] the day and year aforesaid. 50 G. 3. c. 108. s. 13.

129. THE COMMISSIONERS OF EXCISE MAY ALLOW PILCHARDS and other fish to be exported, for the purpose of obtaining the bounty from such port or place as they deem proper, though the same be not legal quays, 39 G. 3. c. 65. s. 4. [see as to importing fish and carrying the same coastwise, 26 G. 3. c. 81. s. 22, &c. FISHERIES (British).]

130. FISH OF EVERY KIND AND SORT, OF British taking and curing, caught in any part of the ocean by the crews of any ships or vessels built in G. B. or Ire., or the islands of Jersey, Guernsey, or Man, or in H. M.'s colonies or territories, and wholly owned by H. M.'s subjects, and navigated and registered according to law, shall be imported into G. B. in ships built, owned, navigated, and registered as aforesaid, customs free; provided, before such fish is admitted to entry, the master or other person having the command of the importing vessel, shall make oath before the chief officer of customs at the port of importation, (who shall administer such oath,) that such fish was taken by H. M.'s subjects, 59 G. 3. c. 52. s. 37.

FISH-MARKET (LONDON).

131. FOR MAKING Billingsgate a free market for the sale of fish, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 24. [see further as to this market, 53 G. 2. c. 27. ss. 12—14. pl. 170—172.; and 2 G. 5. c. 15. s. 108. pl. 109, &c.]

132. Billingsgate market shall be a free market every day in the week (except Sundays) for the sale of fish, and any person may buy and sell there without any disturbance, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 24. s. 1.

133. No person selling fish in such market shall pay any toll for coming with his boat or vessel, or landing, standing, or selling, in such market other than herein mentioned, id. s. 2.

For sund- age, each	per day, per voyage, vessel with salt fish,	-	-	id. s. 3.
	lobster boat,	-	-	id. s. 4.

	dogger-boat, or smack with sea fish,	-	-	id. s. 6.

and one halfpenny per bushel for metage, to be disposed of as the mayor and court of aldermen shall yearly order, according to the rights of the persons entitled thereto, id. ss. 3—7.

134. Any person who shall buy fish in such market, may sell the same again in any other place in London, or elsewhere, by retail; except that none but fishmongers shall sell in public or fixed shops or houses, id. s. 8.

135. This act shall not alter any law concerning fish caught by foreigners, id. s. 9.

136. Any person taking or demanding any toll or sample, or other imposition or set price of any sea fish of English catching, contrary to

FISH MARKET (WESTMINSTER).

5 H. c. 5. pl. 35., shall forfeit 10*l.*, one moiety to H. M., and the other moiety to such as shall sue for the same, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 24. s. 10.

137. Fishmongers shall not buy up all, or the greatest part of the fish which is brought to such market, and afterwards sell it out in lots to the other fishmongers, id. s. 11.

138. No person shall employ, or be employed by another, to buy at such market any fish to be divided by lots amongst fishmongers, in order to be put to sale by retail or otherwise, nor shall any fishmonger buy in such market any fish, but what is for his own sale, under the penalty of 20*l.*, to go in moieties to the informer, and the poor of the parish where the offence was committed; and no fisherman or other person shall bring to shore, or put to sale, lobsters that are not 8 inches from the peak of the nose to the end of the middle fin of the tail, under pain of forfeiting 1*s.* for each lobster, to be applied as aforesaid, and to be recovered before the chief magistrate of any city, or justice of peace for the county where the offence was committed, id. s. 12.

139. No fish [except stock-fish, or live eels, lobsters, and turbot, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 18. s. 10.] caught by foreigners (except protestant strangers inhabiting within this kingdom), shall be imported in any foreign ship not being wholly English property, and uttered and exposed to sale in this kingdom, upon pain to forfeit such vessel, &c. and her tackle; and the fish so imported and sold shall go in moieties to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, and the person seizing the same, id. s. 13. [see further as to the importation of fish, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 18. pl. 60, &c.]

140. This act shall not prohibit the importation of anchovies, sturgeon, botargo, or cavear, nor the selling of mackerel before or after divine service on Sundays, id. s. 16.

141. This act shall not take away the ancient duty on cod and ling, payable to the kings of this realm for service of their household by merchants trading to Westmoney and Iceland, but the same may be taken as heretofore, id. s. 18.

FISH-MARKET (WESTMINSTER).

142. FOR MAKING A FREE MARKET FOR THE SALE OF FISH IN THE city of Westminster, and for preventing the forestalling and monopolizing of fish, 22 G. 2. c. 49. [EXPL. and AMD. 29 G. 2. c. 59., which is REP. as to ss. 6—7.;] and the sale of fish at the first hand in the markets of London and Westminster regulated, and fish salesmen prevented from buying fish to sell again on their own account, and persons who shall take or sell any spawn, brood, or fry of fish, unsizable fish, or fish out of season, or smelts or sprats under the size of five inches, punished, 33 G. 2. c. 27., and by which the 22 G. 2. c. 49., 29 G. 2. c. 59. REP. as to s. 21. which allowed the sale of fish under the dimensions fixed in 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 18. s. 7., ante, pl. 72. in case they were taken with a hook, by 29 G. 2. c. 29. s. 14.; but see as to bret, turbot, brill, or pearl, 53 G. 2. c. 27. s. 11. pl. 169. AMD. 42 G. 5. c. 144. the property of the trustees of the Westminster fish-market vested in the Marine Society, and their powers discontinued, 70 G. 3. c. 54. (PUNISH clause, id. s. 4.)]

143. There shall be a free and open market for the sale of fish of all sorts in the city of Westminster, and any person may buy and sell fish therein without disturbance, 22 G. 2. c. 49. s. 1.

144. Certain persons appointed trustees for such market, tolls imposed for keeping up the same, and certain powers given to such trustees, id. ss. 2—8. 13—17. [SEMB. REP. by 50 G. 3. c. 54. which see, post, pl. 179, 180.]

145. Any contract for buying up fish to be sold again by retail, before such fish be brought to an open market, and there exposed to public sale, shall be void; and every party so contracting, as well the buyer as the seller, shall forfeit for every such offence 50*l.*, to be levied in manner after-mentioned; one moiety to be paid to the trustees appointed by this act, or their order, to be placed to the general account, and the other to such person as shall inform and sue for the same, 22 G. 2. c. 49. s. 9.

146. If either of the parties so contracting shall, before any information against him, inform against the other, such party so informing, so as such other party may be duly convicted, shall not only be acquitted from such penalty, but also be entitled to sue for in his own name and recover the whole forfeiture incurred by the other; one moiety to be paid to the trustee, and appropriated as aforesaid, and the other to such person who shall sue for same, id. s. 10.

147. Nothing in this act shall make void any contracts already made, or prevent any contracts to be made by any person in regard to fresh salmon or soles brought by land carriage, or to oysters, or salt, or dried fish, id. s. 11.

148. If any persons, natives or foreigners, keep any fish at Queenborough, Gravesend, or other place, in any well-boat, store-boat, or any other manner, so as not to sell off their whole cargo within 8 days from their arrival on the British coast, between North Yarmouth and Dover, every person so offending, and convicted by confession or the oath of one witness, shall forfeit the cargo and vessel with all her tackle, &c. to be levied by distress and sale, by warrant under hand and seal of a justice for the county where the offence was committed, and such produce shall be applied to the benefit of the poor of the parish and the informer, 22 G. 2. c. 49. s. 12. [but see the time enlarged, post, 29 G. 2. c. 39. ss. 1—2. pl. 151—152. and 42 G. 3. c. 19. pl. 153.]

149. All bonds or other securities to be entered into, for not suing for any penalty incurred under this act, shall be null and void, id. s. 18.

150. All penalties and forfeitures incurred under this act, if not hereby otherwise directed to be recovered, may be recovered by action of debt or information in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, and such penalties, &c. shall go, one moiety to the party informing, and the other to the poor of the parish where the cause of action arose, id. s. 19.

151. If any fisherman, master, or owner of any fishing vessel, coming from sea, or other person having the conduct of such fishing vessel, natives or foreigners, employed either in catching, bringing, or vending of fish, for the supply of London and Westminster, break bulk, or make sale of any part of their fish, between Harwich and the Nore, or between Margate and the Nore, to any person to sell again, [and shall not enter such fishing vessel as hereinafter provided, R.L.P. 53 G. 2. c. 27. s. 1.] or keep any shell fish or other fish in their fishing vessel, or in any well-boat or store-boat, after their arrival, so as not to sell off their whole cargo within 8 days from their arrival at the Nore, and is thereof convicted before a justice of peace for Kent or Essex, or before the mayor, recorder, or such aldermen who have power to act as justices within Queenborough or Gravesend, on his own confession under his hand, or on the oath of one witness (which conviction shall be final and without any appeal), such fishing vessel, store-boat, or other boat, into which such fish are unloaded, with all her furniture, &c. together with the whole cargo of fish, shall be forfeited by the owners; such forfeitures to be levied by distress and sale, by warrant of any such justice, or of such mayor, recorder, or aldermen acting as magistrates within the towns of Queenborough and Gravesend, or such mayor, recorder, or aldermen of any other corporate town, between Queenborough and Gravesend, and Westminster; which warrant such justice or mayor, &c. shall issue accordingly, directed to the high constable, petty constable, headborough or tythingman, of Queenborough or Gravesend, or any other such towns near unto where any such offences be committed, or where such fishing vessel, store-boat, or other boat then is, to seize and sell the same within 14 days; and one moiety of the produce of such sale, after charges deducted, shall be paid to the informer, as such justices appoint, and the other moiety to the trustees appointed to put the 22 G. 2. c. 49. and this act in execution [see pl. 144.] to be placed by them, or 5 of them, or their order, to the general account of surplus of profits arising from the fish market in such act mentioned, and to be appropriated as such, 29 G. 2. c. 39. s. 1.

152. In case any such fishing vessel is loaded with lobsters, or whose part-loading may be lobsters, and the fishermen, or other persons, natives or foreigners, who are owners of such lobsters, or have the power to sell the same, shall sell off her whole cargo of lobsters within 12 days after the arrival of such vessel at the place herein before appointed, and in all other respects conform to the directions of 22 G. 2. c. 49. and this act; then the sale of the whole cargo of lobsters shall be as good a sale as if such sale had been completed within 8 days, id. s. 2.

153. In case any fishing vessel shall be freighted in whole or in part with live eels, and the owners, natives or foreigners, shall sell off the same within 28 days after their arrival at the Nore, and shall in all respects comply with 29 G. 2. c. 39. and 22 G. 2. c. 49. then such sale shall be as good and valid as if completed within the 8 days, by 22 G. 2. c. 49. s. 12. pl. 148. limited, 42 G. 3. c. 19.

154. Every fisherman, master, or owner of any fishing vessel coming from sea, and every person having the conduct of such vessel, may, as often as need requires, during their voyages at sea, and before their arrival at the Nore, remove any part of their cargoes of fish into any other vessel, for the case of their wells, the preservation of their fish, and the separating such as are dead, dropt, or sickly, from those which are found; so that no part of such cargo of fish be sold until their arrival at or above the Nore, 29 G. 2. c. 39. s. 5.

155. Any fisherman or owner of any Peter-boat, or other small fishing vessel employed for serving the inhabitants of any city, town, or village, or the neighbourhood thereof, on or near the banks of the river Thames, between the mouth of the river and the towns of Queenborough or Gravesend, may sell their fish as hath been heretofore used, in case such boats or fishing vessels are only employed for the consumption of such fish within such city, towns, or villages, and the inhabitants thereof, or of the neighbourhood, id. s. 4.

156. The trustees for putting the said former and this act in execution, shall appoint inspectors of the fishing vessels, to search every fishing vessel between the Nore and Billinggate Dock; to take account, as well of the arrival of such vessel as of the time of selling the whole cargo of fish, and of the breaking bulk and unloading such vessel, and shifting the cargo or part into well-boats, and of the delivery or selling off such cargo in such manner as directed by 22 G. 2. c. 49. or this act; and remove such officers at their pleasure: which inspectors shall enter and examine such fishing vessels, well-boats, and store-boats; and every person on board shall give to such inspector such account thereof; and in case any person refuse to give such account, or molest such inspector, every one so offending, being convicted before a justice, by confession, or oath of one witness, shall forfeit 10*l.* to be recovered and applied as the other penalties in this act, 29 G. 2. c. 39. s. 6.

157. So much of 29 G. 2. c. 39. ss. 6, 7, as obliges fishermen and others, masters or owners, or having the conduct of any fishing vessel, to enter their vessels with the searcher at Gravesend, and to the payment of any fee to such searcher, and also to report the time of the arrival of such vessels at the Nore to such searcher, shall be R.L.P. 33 G. 2. c. 27. s. 1.

158. The high constable, petty constable, headborough, or tythingman of Queenborough, Gravesend, or any other towns being corporations, or of any county, city, or liberty, to whom warrant of distress is directed, may execute the same, in any part of the rivers Medway or Thames, or any creek thereof, between the Nore and the city of Westminster; and such warrant or other act of such mayors, recorders, aldermen, or justices, and the acts of the constable, &c. in obedience to such warrant, shall be as good in law as if the same were executed within the proper limits of their own jurisdiction, 29 G. 2. c. 39. s. 8. [ss. 9—15. inclusive seem to be R.L.P. by the effect of 50 G. 3. c. 54. See s. 14. ante, pl. 142.]

159. Such part of the penalties which by 22 G. 2. c. 49. are to be paid to the poor, shall be paid to the trustees mentioned in 22 G. 2. c. 49. pl. 144. to the increase of the surplus of the toll and profits thereby appropriated to the putting out apprentices to fishermen, masters of ships, or other persons employed in the sea-service. And all the trustees under such act shall execute this, 29 G. 2. c. 39. s. 15.

160. The master, owner, chief officer, or mariner, who shall have the care of any vessel made use of for the catching or importing fish (for the supply of London and Westminster) shall within 3 days after its arrival at the Nore with any such fish, report the time of such arrival to the person who shall act as deputy clerk in the coast office, under the collector outward in the port of London at the custom house in London; who shall enter the same in a book, and shall give a certificate thereof if required to such master, &c.; and there shall be paid to such deputy clerk for entering such report, and giving a certificate 2*s.*, to be applied in manner following; viz. 6*d.* shall be retained by such deputy clerk, and 1*s.* 6*d.* shall be paid by such deputy clerk to the trustees of the fish market in Westminster, or such person as they or 5 of them shall by writing appoint; and the receipt of such person shall be a discharge to such deputy clerk: and the money received by such person shall be applied by such trustees to the like uses, as the money by the 29 G. 2. c. 49. to be paid them by the searchers at Gravesend, was directed to be applied, 33 G. 2. c. 27. s. 2.

161. If the master, &c. of any such fishing vessel shall not within 3 days next after his arrival at the Nore enter such fishing vessel with such deputy clerk at such coast office, then on information on oath before any justice of the counties of Kent, Surrey, Essex, or Middlesex, or of the cities of London or Westminster, or before the mayor, recorder, or aldermen acting as magistrates within the towns of Queenborough and Gravesend, or before the mayor, recorder, or aldermen of any other corporate town between Queenborough and Gravesend, and the city of Westminster; and on such master, &c. being convicted of having neglected to make such entry, either on confession or by the oath of one witness, the owner of every such fishing vessel shall forfeit 50*l.*, pl. s. 7.

162. Every master, &c. shall, at the time of his making the report hereby required, give to such deputy clerk at such coast office, an account, either in writing or printed, of all fresh salmon, salmon trouts, turbot, and large fresh cod, and half fresh cod fish, haddock, skate fish, fresh ling, lobsters, soles, and whittings, brought alive to the Nore in such fishing vessel, upon pain that the owner of every such fishing vessel, whose master, &c. shall neglect to give such account, or shall give any false account, shall on such master, &c. being convicted either on confession or by the oath of one witness, before any such justice, forfeit 20*l.*; or if any such master, &c. or any person on board such fishing vessel, after her arrival at the Nore, shall wilfully destroy or throw away any fish, which such fishing vessel brought from the sea, that is not unwholesome or unmarketable, such master, &c. shall be committed to the house of correction to be kept to hard labour, for any time not exceeding 2 months, nor less than one month, id. s. 4.

163. All the above mentioned forfeitures shall be levied by warrant under hand and seal of any such justice of peace, by distress and sale of the goods of the owners of the fishing vessel, whose master, &c. shall be convicted of any such offence, or by distress and sale of the fishing vessel, or of any nets, tackle, or furniture belonging to such fishing vessel, with the costs of such distress and sale, id. s. 5.

164. The person who shall act as deputy clerk at such coast office, under the collector outward, shall receive at such office, every report of the time of the arrival of every such fishing vessel at the Nore, and enter the same in a book; and shall receive there every account of the fresh salmon, salmon trout, turbot, and large fresh cod, and half fresh cod fish, haddock, scate fish, fresh ling, lobsters, soles, and whittings, brought in any such fishing vessel to the Nore; and shall with all convenient speed cause the same to be entered in a book; which book shall be kept at such office, and may be in office hours inspected by any person, 33 G. 2. c. 27. s. 6.

165. Such deputed clerk shall on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday in every week, return unto the mayor of London in London, and to such person as the trustees of the fish market at Westm. shall appoint in Westm., and to the inspector at such place as such trustees shall by any writing appoint and give notice thereof to the deputed clerk, an account of the time when every fishing vessel shall have been entered at such coast office, as having arrived at the Nore, and also of the aforesaid fish entered there as brought to the Nore; upon pain that if such deputed clerk offend in the premises, and be convicted either on confession, or by the oath of one witness, before any such justice, he shall forfeit 5*l.*, id. s. 7.

166. No live salmon, salmon trout, turbot, large fresh cod, half fresh cod, haddock, scate, fresh ling, soles, or whittings, shall, after the arrival thereof at the Nore, be put into any well-boat or store-boat, out of any such fishing vessel in which brought to the Nore, upon pain that every person offending shall forfeit 20*l.*; and no such fish shall be unloaded out of any fishing vessel, unless by retail, into any other vessel after her arrival at the Nore, but into a vessel or boat employed to carry the fish directly to the market of Billingsgate or West.; and no such boat, after such fish put therein, shall loiter or keep from going on directly to the market to which such boat is appointed; and in case such boat remain above one tide with her fish in her way between the place of such taking in, and the market at Billingsgate or West., or remain without delivering her fish there, at or before the next market, (accidents of winds and weather excepted,) every person acting contrary to such prohibitions, shall be committed to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding two months, nor less than one, id. s. 8.

167. The inspector appointed under 29 G. 2. c. 59. s. 5. pl. 156. shall employ himself as such trustees shall direct, in examining whether the entries made at such coast office (and whereof copies shall be transmitted to him) were made within the time the same ought to have been, and according to the account transmitted from such coast office to such inspector, so as the better to discover and prevent the frauds designed to be remedied by that act and this act; and see that no fish be put in any store or well boats contrary to this act; and if any such inspector be negligent or wilfully misbehave himself, he shall, on conviction, either by confession, or on oath of one witness before any such justice, forfeit for such neglect or misbehaviour 20*l.*, id. s. 9.

168. No person who shall sell or be concerned in the sale of any fresh fish by commission, shall directly or indirectly buy any fresh fish to sell again for his own separate account or for the joint account of himself and any other person; and if any person offend herein and be convicted either by confession or by oath of one witness by any such justice, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 10.

169. Bret, turbot, brill, or pearl, although under the dimensions in 1 G. 1. c. 18. s. 7. pl. 73. mentioned, may be exposed to sale in Eng. at 8*d.* per lb., id. s. 11. [See this section at length, ante, pl. 74.]

170. No person shall sell or expose to sale, at first hand, at any fish-market within the weekly bills of mortality, or within 150 yards of any such fish-market, during market hours, any fresh salmon, salmon trout, turbot, large fresh cod-fish or half fresh cod-fish, haddock, scate-fish, ling, lobsters, soles, or whittings, before he has first placed up over the bench at which he exposes his fish to sale, a true account, either wrote or printed, of all fresh salmon, &c. which he has to sell, distinguishing the several sorts of all such fish, and the quantity thereof. And if, before the fish-market is ended, any other fresh salmon, &c. is brought to such salesman to sell, he shall add the same to such account, and shall take care that such account shall continue up where first placed, until all the fish specified therein is sold, or the market is over, without being defaced, on pain that every one who shall offend in the premises, or who shall wilfully take down or deface any such account, and shall be convicted of any such offences (other than the taking down or defacing such account), either by confession or on the oath of one witness, before any such justice, shall forfeit 10*l.* And every person who shall be so convicted of taking down or defacing such account, shall forfeit 40*l.*, id. s. 12.

171. No person shall take or destroy, or knowingly have in his possession, either on the water or on shore, or bring to shore, or cry, carry about, or expose to sale, or exchange for any goods, any spawn, fry, or brood of fish, or any unsizable fish, or fish out of season, or any smelt not full 5 inches in length from the nose to the utmost extent of the tail; and if any offend, any person may seize all such spawn or unsizable fish, &c. wherever found, with all baskets and package in which found, and charge a constable or other peace officer with such offender; and after seizure made, the spawn or fish with the baskets shall be delivered to some constable or peace officer, who shall carry such offender, and such spawn or fish, with the baskets, &c. before some justice, to be dealt with according to law; and on conviction such offender shall forfeit all such spawn, fry, or brood of fish, unsizable fish, and fish out of season, and every smelt of less size than 5 inches so seized, with all baskets or package in which seized; and all such spawn, or unsizable fish, &c. with the package, shall, by order of the justice, be delivered to the person who seized the same; and every offender convicted shall besides forfeit for every such offence 20*s.*, 33 G. 2. c. 27. s. 13. [See as to the preservation of the small fry, 1 El. c. 17. pl. 22. &c.]

172. The under water-bailiff and the officers of the city of London called the yeomen of the waterside, shall take care that the provisions hereby made concerning the sale of fresh fish at Billingsgate, and for punishing persons who shall have there any spawn, brood, or fry of fish, or unsizable fish, or fish out of season, or smelts of less size than 5 inches, be carried into execution; and shall take care that the provisions made by 9 A. c. 20. (local) against regrating of fish at the market of Billingsgate, or within 150 yards of Billingsgate dock be observed; and lay information from time to time before some justice of peace of the city of London, against every person whom such under-bailiff, or any yeoman of the waterside at any time finds to offend: and the persons appointed by the trustees to supervise the fish-market of the city of Westm. shall take care that the provisions hereby made concerning the sale of fresh fish in the fish-market at Westm., and for punishing persons who have there any spawn, brood, or fry of fish, or unsizable fish, &c., be carried into execution: and if the under water-bailiff, or any yeoman of the waterside of the city of London, or person appointed to supervise the fish-market of Westm., be negligent, or offend in the premises, and be convicted, either on confession or by the oath of one witness, before any justice within whose jurisdiction any such neglect or offence is committed, every such offender shall forfeit 5*l.* id. s. 14. [See as to Billingsgate market ante, pl. 151, &c.]

173. Any such justice of peace within his jurisdiction shall on application grant his warrant, under hand and seal, to levy any money forfeited by this act, on the conviction of any offender, by distress and sale of his goods, with the costs of distress and sale (except in the cases before provided to charge the owners of such fishing vessels), and one moiety of all the money forfeited for any offence against this act (the application whereof is not before appropriated) shall be paid to the person who prosecutes, and the other, except where the conviction is for any offence in the city of Westm., or for not making the entry at the coast office at the time of the arrival of any such fishing vessel at the Nore, shall be paid to the use of the poor of the parish in which the offence is committed; and where any conviction is for any offence in the city of Westm., or for not reporting the time of the arrival of any such fishing vessel, the other moiety of the money forfeited shall be paid to the trustees appointed to put the recited acts in execution, to be placed to the general account of surplus of profits arising from the fish-market in Westm., and to be appropriated as the said surplus in the 22 G. 2. c. 49. s. 7., is directed: and if sufficient distress cannot be found, every such offender shall by warrant of one justice, directed to some peace officer, be committed to some house of correction of the county or place where apprehended, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding three months, unless the money forfeited be sooner paid, id. s. 15.

174. No person shall be punished for any offence against this act, unless a prosecution be commenced within two months after such offence, or who has been punished for such offence under any other law; and where any person is committed to any house of correction for default of payment, or for want of sufficient distress, and remains there during the time for which he is committed, no such person shall be liable afterwards to be prosecuted again for non-payment of such money forfeited. And any person inhabiting any parish in which any offence against this act is committed shall be a competent witness, id. s. 16.

175. Any justice before whom any offender is convicted may mitigate any of such penalties under 5*l.* not above one half; and such mitigation shall be a discharge to the person offending in so much, id. s. 17.

176. The justice shall cause such conviction to be drawn up in the form following:

‘ ——— { Be it remembered, that on this — day of — in the — year of the to wit, } reign of — A. B. is convicted before — of his Majesty’s justices of the peace for the county of — or city of — or corporation of — [as the case shall be] for — and — do adjudge him, her, or them, [as the case shall be] to pay and forfeit the sum of —.’ Given under our hands and seals [or my hand and seal] the day and year abovesaid, ut. s. 18.

177. Any person aggrieved by the conviction of any justice against this act, or 29 G. 2. c. 39., may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions, first entering into a recognizance of double the sum forfeited before such justice, to prosecute such appeal with effect, and abide by the order made thereon, and giving 8 days notice in writing of intention to appeal to the party on whose prosecution such conviction was made; and the justices in their next general or quarter sessions after such appeal made, shall determine such appeal, and make such order, and award such costs as seems reasonable; and levy by their order or warrant the costs, with such money as they adjudge forfeited, by distress and sale of goods of the party refusing to pay the same; and for want of distress may commit the party to the common goal of the county, city, or place, in which he is apprehended, to be kept to hard labour for six months, unless the money adjudged forfeited, as well as the costs, be sooner paid; and such order of such sessions shall be final. And no proceedings of any justices out of or in session shall be removable by certiorari, or otherwise, 35 G. 2. c. 27. s. 19.

178. All actions against any person for any thing done under these acts shall be commenced within 6 months after the fact committed, and shall be laid in the county or place where the offence was done, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give these acts and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it appear to have been so done, or that such action was brought after the time limited, the jury shall find for the defendants; and on such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after appearance, or has judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same. 22 G. 2. c. 49. s. 20., 29 G. 9. c. 59. s. 16., 35 G. 2. c. 27. s. 20.

179. "Whereas certain trustees were appointed by 22 G. 2. c. 49. pl. 144. to establish a free fish-market in Westm., and certain duties were granted to them, and a piece of ground conveyed to them to build a market on: and whereas by 35 G. 2. c. 27. certain duties were granted upon all fishing vessels coming to the Norre; and whereas the trustees were not able to establish such market, and the trustees are now possessed of 4200*l.* 3 per cent. consols," IT IS ENACTED, that such trustees shall, before 9th Sept. 1790, cause such stock to be transferred to the Marine Society, and pay to such society all money in the hands of their treasurer, or to which they are entitled; and after such transfer made, all the estate, &c. of such, in ground belonging to such trustees, situate near Westm. bridge, and which was conveyed to them by the commissioners for building such bridge, under 22 G. 2. c. 49. s. 15., and such duties, shall be vested in such society, which money and other property shall be transferred to such society for the purposes following, viz. such 4200*l.* and the dividends thereof, and rent reserved in the lease of such ground, and other money, except the produce of such duties, shall be applied to the purposes of such society; and such duties shall be applied in binding apprentices to fishermen, or in time of war towards fitting out boys for the navy; and such society shall have like powers for appointing an inspector of the fishing vessels coming to the Norre, and of obtaining payment of such duties as such trustees had, 50 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1. [See the ground applied to a corn market, 51 G. 2. c. 25. s. 22.]

180. After such transfer the powers of such trustees shall cease, and all penalties &c. payable to them shall belong to such society and be paid to persons by them appointed, id. s. 2.

FISHERY (BRITISH).

1. FOR ALLOWING UNTIL 15th Oct. 1801, THE USE OF SALT DUTY free in preserving fish in bulk or barrels: for protecting persons engaged in such fisheries from being impressed: for discontinuing the bounty on herrings exported, and allowing a bounty on pilchards now cured, whether exported, or sold for home consumption, 41 G. 3. (G. B.) c. 21. 42 G. 3. c. 5., 45 G. 3. c. 29., 44 G. 3. c. 35. s. 4. ALL EXP. [See us to the impressment of fishermen, 50 G. 3. c. 108. FISH, &c. pl. 109.]

2. FOR THE REGULATION OF THE FISHERIES, 15 G. 2. c. 16.

3. No vessel shall proceed on a fishing voyage to Island [QU. Iceland?] and Westmoney, out of any port in Eng., or Wa., or Ber. until 10th March in each year, on pain to forfeit such vessel, with all her tackle, &c. and the fish caught in such vessel, id. s. 1. [See the rest of this act, FISHERIES (HERRING), pl. 74—75., and (Newfoundland), pl. 202.]

4. FOR ALLOWING A DRAWBACK ON THE EXPORTATION OF salt to be made use of for the curing of fish to be taken at the North Seas or Iceland, 12 A. S. 2. c. 2. [QU. REF. since the repeal of all excise drawbacks by 45 G. 3. c. 69. s. 1.; see also schedule of that act, tit. DRAWBACK (Salt); and see also, as to exporting salt to the Iceland and North Sea fishery, 25 G. 3. c. 65., post, pl. 51, &c.]

5. The master of any boat or vessel bound on a fishing voyage to the North Seas or Iceland, may take on board, in any port in G. B., any quantities of British salt, he paying or giving security to pay the duties, which money shall be repaid, or the security discharged, as follows, 12 A. S. 2. c. 2. s. 1.

6. The officer of the place where such salt was made, and duties thereof paid or secured, shall, on demand, deliver gratis to such master a certificate, under his hand and seal, of the quantity of salt shipped on board his vessel for the North Seas or Iceland, and that the duties have been paid or secured, id. s. 2.

7. Cod-fish, ling, or hake, which have been caught and cured at the North Seas or Iceland, may be imported and landed, so as oath be first made by the owner thereof, or the master of the vessel, before the officer of the duties at the port of importation, (who shall administer the same without fee,) that all fish so imported came from the North Seas or Iceland, and were caught and cured there, and so as such fish be when landed, and before removed from the shore, tendered to such officer, to have part of the tail cut off, that no allowance may be made on exportation, and such officer shall cut off the tail accordingly; and in case any such fish is landed and removed before the tail is so cut off, the same shall be forfeited, and double the value thereof, to be recovered of the importers or proprietor thereof, 12 A. S. 2. c. 2. s. 3.

8. If any of the salt so used in drying fish shall remain, such foul salt shall be thrown overboard in the presence of the salt-duty officer, before the collector shall sign his certificate, id. s. 4.

9. If it happens that any salt so taken on board shall not be used, the master may land the same, so as entry be made thereof within 10 days after his coming into any port in G. B. he shall first arrive at, and the duties paid down before such salt or any part thereof is landed; and if such master shall neglect to enter such salt, and pay down the duties within such 10 days, (except in case of stress of weather, or contrary winds, or other unavoidable necessity,) such salt, and double the value thereof, shall be forfeited, and be recovered of the owner of such fish or the master for that voyage, id. s. 5.

10. The master of such boat or vessel, on producing to the collector of the salt duties for the port of importation such certificate, as in s. 2., pl. 6. and making oath before him of the quantity of the salt in the certificate mentioned that was used in curing of cod-fish, ling, or hake, caught and cured at the North Seas or Iceland, and that such fish have been marked as in s. 3. pl. 7. (which oath such collector shall administer without fee,) shall receive gratis from such collector a certificate of the same, which together with a certificate of the payment of the duty on the residue of such salt, if any, (which certificate shall also be given gratis,) being produced to the collector of salt duties for the place where the duties were paid or secured, such security shall be discharged, and all sums paid for such duty be repaid by such collector without fee, id. s. 6.

11. If the master of any such vessel has taken any quantity of British salt for curing fish as aforesaid, the duties whereon have been paid or secured, and if the vessel in which such salt was shipped shall either perish at sea or be taken by the enemy, with such salt on board, the owner thereof shall, on proof made before the justices at quarter sessions for the county or town wherein he inhabits, of the loss of such salt, receive from such sessions a certificate that such proof was made, and on producing the same to the officer of the place where the duties were paid or secured, such security shall be discharged, and the money actually paid for the duty repaid on demand by such officer, without fee, provided such proof is made within 9 months after such loss or taking, id. s. 7.

12. All penalties given by this or any former act relating to the duties of excise on salt, shall be distributed as follows, viz. one moiety to H. M. and the other to the seizing officer, to be sued for, recovered and levied, and mitigated as any fine or penalty may be by any law of excise, or by action of debt, &c. or information, in the courts of record at Westminster, and all officers of such duties on salt may seize all salt or other things, which by this or any former law relating to salt are declared to be forfeited, id. s. 8.

13. Every person sued for any thing done under this act, or any other statute relating to the excise duties upon salt, or the powers thereby given, may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and if a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, or forbears prosecuting such actions, defendant shall have double costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 9.

14. FOR RECOVERING THE CREDIT OF THE BRITISH FISHERIES in foreign parts, 5 G. 1. c. 18. ss. 6—10. 12—16. [AMD. 26 G. 3. c. 81. s. 16.]

15. Certain bounties on fish exported granted, [but all bounties payable out of the excise REF., 45 G. 3. c. 69. s. 1., and others granted by sched. C. of the same act, and see now 1 G. 4. c. 103., post, pl. 64.] the same to be paid by the officer of the salt duties in the port whence such fish are exported, within 30 days after demand on a debenture, to be prepared by the collector of the customs in such port, and verified by the searcher there, as to the quantity actually shipped, and the oath of the exporter or agent shall be first taken before the principal officers of such port before the debenture is allowed, (who shall give such oath,) that the fish in the debenture mentioned were British taken, and really exported to or for parts beyond the seas, and not reloaded or intended so to be in G. B., and for which debenture no fee shall be taken; and in case such officer has no money in his hands to pay the same, then on a certificate thereof by him made, which shall be granted gratis, the commissioners of excise shall pay such debenture out of the money arising by salt duties, and such debentures for fish exported from Scot. shall be paid by the commissioners of customs or excise there, at the option of the merchant, in the same way as fish debentures now are, and any officer neglecting to pay such money, or give such certificate, shall forfeit double the sum to the party grieved, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, and the officers of the salt duties upon the exportation of any cod, ling, or hake, and before the same is laid on board for exportation, shall cut off part of the tail of such cod, &c. that the same may be known to have been exported, and also on the exportation of pilchards, seals, white or red herrings, salmon, or dried red sprats, and before the same is laid on board for exportation, shall mark the cask containing the same for the like purpose, and in case any such fish shall, after exportation, be fraudulently relanded in G. B., or reimported, the same shall be forfeited, with double the value, to be recovered of the importer or proprietor thereof, and no allowance shall be paid on the exportation of fish not well cured, or which is unmerchantable, 5 G. 1. c. 18. s. 6. [haberdine and dried cod to have the same bounty, 26 G. 3. c. 81. s. 16., which is Exp. with the bounty hereby granted.]

16. The officers for the duties on salt, at all times when the fish are curing, bulking, or packing, and all other times by day, (or by night in the presence of a peace officer,) may enter into the cellars and warehouses of curers of fish and gauge the salt, and mark the casks wherein the fish are put up for exportation, and see them exported, and all persons obstructing such officers in performance of their duties shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 7.

17. Where any fish entitled to any premium upon exportation shall be laden for exportation, and duly entered and past by the proper officer, and such fish shall be lost or spoiled before the ship's proceeding on her voyage, then the proper officer at the port where such fish was so spoiled or entered, shall, on due proof made on oath before the chief officers of such port, who shall administer the same, by the proprietors thereof or their agents, make out a debenture for the bounty as if such fish had been actually exported; provided such fish was sunk in the sea or port where the ship was lost or destroyed, in the sight of such officer where any of such fish came ashore, and that no use be made thereof, and such officer shall cause such fish to be burnt or destroyed, id. s. 8.

18. If any red herrings or sprats shall, during the time of drying or curing be burnt, by which means the same are rendered unfit for use, in such case, the quantity thereof shall be computed by the proprietors in conjunction with the proper salt officer of the port, which computation so made and added to the account given in of the quantity of herrings or sprats exported or shipped for exportation, shall be accepted by the salt officer in the same way as if such herrings had been really exported, id. s. 10.

19. The contents of an herring and salmon barrel shall be the same throughout G. B., viz. the herring barrel shall contain 32 and the salmon barrel 42 gallons, and all exportation of salmon or herrings in barrels of a different size, shall be deemed unlawful, and not entitle the exporter to any premium in respect thereof, id. s. 15.

20. Herrings and salmon may be exported in half-barrels, according to the proportions in s. 15. mentioned, but in no others; and the exporters thereof shall be entitled to a proportionable premium or drawback for every such half-barrel, id. s. 16.

21. SUCH BOUNTIES AS SHALL BE PAYABLE FOR FISH CURED IN and exported from Eng., W., or Ber., shall be payable out of the salt duties in the hands of the collectors at the port from whence such fish are exported, or in default thereof, out of the money in the hands of the collector of customs out of which the corn bounties are payable; and in case such officers have no money in their hands, whereby to answer such bounties, such collector shall give to the exporter without fee, a certificate under his hand, attested by the comptroller of the same port, of what is due for fish so exported, certifying to the commissioners of customs in London that he has not money sufficient to pay the same, which certificate being affixed to the debenture, and being produced to the commissioners at London, they shall cause the money to be paid within 3 months by the receiver-general or cashier of the customs without fee, out of the duties on foreign salt, or out of the money chargeable with the payment of the bounty on the exportation of corn; and as to the bounties payable on fish cured in and exported from Scot., the same shall continue payable as heretofore, 3 G. 2. c. 20. s. 9.

22. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE British fisheries, 26 G. 3. c. 81. [Ext. 27 G. 3. c. 10. (which is Exp.) CON. and AMD. 35 G. 3. c. 56. ss. 7—12., which is CON. 38 G. 3. c. 58., 39 G. 3. c. 100. s. 1., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 85., (which is in part Rev. and these acts CON. 41 G. 3. c. 97. s. 7.), and further CON. 42 G. 3. c. 79. ss. 1—5., 44 G. 3. c. 86., 46 G. 3. c. 34., 47 G. 3. s. 2. c. 51., 48 G. 3. c. 86. and until 25th Mar. 1811, 50 G. 3. c. 54.; all which continuing acts are now Exp. The 26 G. 3. c. 81. ss. 1—14. 16. are also Exp.] [NOTE. There is much doubt whether any part of these acts are in force or expired; but the bounties granted by them are expired, as they have not been continued since the 50 G. 3. c. 54. There is no clause providing for the expiration of these acts, other than that wherein the bounties are granted for a limited term; it would therefore seem, that all these acts are expired, as far as they relate to such bounties, and in force as to the residue, on which principle they here follow analyzed and digested.]

23. All duties now payable in respect of such herrings, cod, ling, hake, and salmon, and other white fish, caught and cured by British subjects, as shall be removed for home consumption, (except such equalizing duties as are hereby granted on salmon, &c. cured with salt, for which the duty has been paid) shall cease, 26 G. 3. c. 81. s. 15. [all fish of British taking may be imported duty free, see 59 G. 3. c. 52. s. 37. FISH, &c. pl. 37.]

24. On all barrels or casks in which any fish, except fresh fish, shall be packed, for exportation or home consumption, the names of the owners shall be branded, on pain that every such barrel, &c. not so branded, may be seized by any officer of customs, and on due proof of the fact, on oath, before one justice of peace, such barrel, &c. and the fish therein shall be forfeited, 26 G. 3. c. 81. s. 17.

25. The staves of every barrel in which any white herrings or wet white fish shall be packed for exportation, shall be not less than half an inch thick at the bulge, and such barrels shall be full bound, on like pain in case of neglect, as in s. 17. aforesaid, id. s. 18.

26. Every person who shall for 7 successive years follow the occupation of a seaman or fisherman, on board any vessel employed in the British fisheries, (being a married man,) may set up and exercise such trade as he is apt for, in any town within G. B. without any hindrance for the same, under the like regulations, and with like exception in favour of the two universities, as any marine or soldier under 22 G. 2. c. 44. s. 4. (Poon) may do, id. s. 19.

27. Any person may carry from one port of G. B. to another port of the same, for home consumption, any red herrings, or white herrings, or any salmon, cod, ling, tusk, or other white fish cured with British salt, id. s. 20.

28. Duties laid on importation of salmon, &c. cured with Scotch salt, into Eng. from Scot. by 29 G. 2. c. 25. shall be continued and extended to fish cured with salt made in any part of G. B., id. s. 21. [Duties made to CEASE, 27 G. 3. c. 17., 43 G. 3. c. 68., 49 G. 3. c. 98., and 59 G. 3. c. 52.] and all fish of British taking may be imported duty free, 59 G. 3. c. 52. s. 37. FISH, &c. pl.

29. Any person may carry from one port of G. B. to another for exportation to foreign parts any red or white herrings, or any salmon, cod, or other white fish, the owner of the fish or master of the vessel making oath that the fish was caught in or on the coast of G. B., and cured with salt delivered duty free, from some port of G. B., and when, where, and to whom the same was so delivered, id. s. 22.

30. All such fish so brought coastwise, as in s. 22., shall be entitled to the same allowances as by 5 G. 1. c. 18. s. 6. granted on fish cured in G. B. on exportation, such fish and the owners thereof being subject to such rules and penalties, to prevent any relanding thereof, as by such act prescribed, for fish cured and exported from G. B., id. s. 23. [The allowances by 5 G. 1. c. 18. s. 6. granted, are now Rev. and others given by 43 G. 3. c. 69. s. 1. and s. 6.; see also as to cod, ling, and hake, 1 G. 4. c. 103. s. 1. post. pl. 65.]

31. The curers of herrings residing in G. B. may, during each season of the British fishery, carry coastwise in bulk, duty free, herrings, or cod, ling, hake, and salmon, actually taken in the herring fishery, that have been landed and deposited in any warehouse or store under the care of the salt officers, at any place of fishery on the British coasts, and there sprinkled with salt taken out of any warehouse under the revenue locks, for the uses of the British fishery, which salt was deposited during such fishery, in any store, &c. for the purpose only of sprinkling fish to preserve them until carried coastwise to that place in G. B. where they are to be entirely cured, provided it shall be expressed in the acquit or other coast dispatch, that no bounty was paid or claimed on such fish previous to shipping the same to be carried coastwise, and such fish shall be subject to all the regulations and forfeitures now in force, for the security of the duties on salt, 35 G. 3. c. 56. s. 4.

32. No bounty on such exportation to foreign parts, as in s. 22. & 23. pl. 29—30., of any red or white herrings, salmon, cod, ling, tusk, or other white fish, so brought coastwise from any port in Eng. to any port in Scot. shall be paid in Scot., but the chief officer of customs, or his deputy at the port of exportation to foreign parts, shall, on request of the persons exporting the same, and on oath made before such officer, (who shall administer the same,) of the shipping of such fish, and its not being re-landed in G. B. give a debenture under his hand, without delay or fee, for the payment of such bounties, which debenture being produced to the commissioners of customs in Eng. shall entitle such exporter or his assigns to the payment of the bounties by 5 G. 1. c. 18. s. 6. pl. 15. [and see now pl. 67.] granted, and such commissioners shall pay the same, regard being had to the priority of the dates of such debentures, 26 G. 3. c. 81. s. 24.

33. No bounty on such re-exportation, as of any red or white herrings, &c. so carried coastwise from any port in Scot. to any port in Eng. shall be paid in Eng., but the chief officer of customs, or his deputy at the port of exportation to foreign parts, shall, on the request of the exporter, and on oath made before him (who shall administer the same) of the shipping of the same, and its not being relanded in

G. B., give a debenture under his hand, without delay or fee, for the payment of such bounties, which debenture being produced to the commissioners of customs or excise (at the option of the importer or his assigns) in Scot., shall entitle the exporter or his assigns to the bounties by 5 G. 1. c. 18. s. 6. [pl. 13., see now pl. 67.] granted, and such commissioners shall pay the same, due regard being had to the priority of dates of the such debentures, 26 G. 3. c. 81. s. 25.

51. The proprietor of such red or white herrings, salmon, cod, &c. (as in s. 24.) as shall be put on board any vessel in any port in G. B., to be transported to any other port in G. B., whether for home consumption or exportation to foreign parts, or his agents, shall, before such vessel shall depart from the port where shipped, make a full entry with the collector or other principal officer of customs there, of the fish so shipped, expressing the number of barrels of wet fish, with the marks and numbers thereof, and the number and weight of each species of dry fish; and declare on oath, that such fish were cured in G. B., or on the coast thereof; and whether cured with salt, delivered duty free, or with salt, for which the duty payable has been paid or secured, and that the salt used in curing such fish was taken on board from some port in G. B., and when and where it was so taken, and that no drawback for the same hath been had, or is intended to be had on the exportation of such salt; which oath such collector or other principal officer of the customs or his deputy shall administer, and shall grant to the master of such vessel, without delay or fee, a certificate or coquet under his hand, that such entry and oaths have been made; and the master of the vessel wherein such fish were shipped to be carried coastwise, or the proprietor of such fish or his agent, shall, before landing such fish or putting it on board of any other ship in any port of G. B., deliver such certificate or coquet to the proper officer of customs at the port of importation, or where put on board any other ship, on pain, to forfeit all such fish so imported contrary to this act, and also double the value thereof, together with the casks in which found; the same to be recovered of the importer or proprietor of the fish, or the master of the importing vessel; and all officers of the customs and salt duties may seize all such herrings, cod, &c. imported or put on board any other ship contrary hereto, id. s. 26.

55. No officer of customs shall demand or accept any fee or perquisite for any transaction relative to any boat employed in the fisheries, or in the transportation from one place to another of fish or salt for the use of the fisheries, or on account of the payment of any bounty or debenture on fish, on pain, on being convicted, to forfeit treble the value of the sum received, and to be forthwith discharged from his office in H. M.'s customs, id. s. 52.

56. The commissioners of customs may add to the salaries of the customs officers in recompence of the fees by s. 32. abolished, id. s. 53.

57. Every person who shall presume to counterfeit, erase, or alter any certificate debenture, or coquet by this act directed to be made, or shall use the same, knowing it to be so counterfeited, erased, or altered, shall be liable to the same punishment as in cases of forgery, id. s. 59.

58. Every person who, in making any oath thereby required, shall wilfully swear any thing, which if sworn in any court would amount to perjury, shall suffer as a person guilty of wilful perjury, id. s. 40.

59. All penalties and forfeitures hereby given shall be distributed as follows: viz., one moiety to H. M., and the other to any person who shall seize, inform, or sue for the same; and shall be sued for, recovered, levied, prosecuted, and determined by bill or information in any court of record at Westminster, or in the court of exchequer in Scot., wherein no esoin, &c., or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 11.

40. All persons sued for any thing done under this act may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the defendant gets a verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues or forbears prosecution, the defendant shall have double costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 42.

41. The penalties by 9 G. 2. c. 33. (Fish, &c. pl. 63—64.) imposed, may be recovered before any 2 justices of any county or place, on due proof of the offence, by oath of one witness, or by confession; and such penalties shall go to the informer, and if not paid, the same, with the incidental charges shall be levied by distress and sale of goods, by warrant under hand and seal of the convicting justices; and for want of such distress, the offender may be sent to the county gaol for one year, without bail, unless the penalty be sooner paid, 26 G. 3. c. 81. s. 46. [QU. if the following sections relate to 9 G. 2 c. 33. only, or to the 26 G. 3. c. 81. also?]

42. The justices before whom such offender is convicted shall, immediately on such conviction, order the offender into custody, (if the penalty is not paid) during such time, not exceeding 48 hours, as such justices shall allow for the return of the warrant of distress, id. s. 47.

43. If it appears to the justice, before whom any offender is convicted either by confession or witness, that such party hath no goods to answer the penalty by him incurred, such justice may, without issuing any warrant of distress, commit such party, as if such had issued, and nulla bona was returned thereon, 26 G. 3. c. 81. s. 48.

44. If such offender shall, before his actual commitment, procure security to be given by 2 sureties, to satisfaction of the convicting justices, for payment of the penalty incurred and costs within 14 days, exclusive of the day of conviction, such justices may accept the same, and on non-payment thereof at the time stipulated, they may cause such offender and his sureties to be apprehended by warrant, and commit them to prison for the county, for the time that such offender would have been liable to in case no security had been given, unless such penalty is sooner paid, id. s. 49.

45. Parties aggrieved by judgment of such justices may, within 7 calendar months next ensuing, appeal to the general or quarter sessions for the county or place, on giving six days' notice to the informer of such his intention and of the matter thereof, and shall with 2 sureties enter into recognizance before some justice of the same county, &c. to appear and prosecute such appeal, and abide the order of the court, and to pay the costs awarded, and such court shall finally determine the matter; and if the conviction appealed against is confirmed, the appellant shall pay double costs to the informer, to be ascertained by order of such court, id. s. 50.

46. Provided, that if the appellant shall pay the penalty into the hands of such justices by way of deposit, or shall be then imprisoned, such appeal may be had within such time, on his entering into such recognizances (without such sureties) and remaining in prison in the mean time, or depositing such penalty with such justices, until the merits of the appeal is determined, id. s. 51.

47. No such conviction or judgment shall be set aside by such sessions for want of form, or through mis-stating of any fact therein alleged, provided the material facts alleged, and on which the same is grounded, are proved; nor shall such conviction or judgment, or any proceeding of such court be removeable by certiorari or otherwise into the courts at Westminster, id. s. 52.

48. Every prosecution under this act for any offence against 1 G. 1. st. 2. c. 18. and 9 G. 2. c. 33., (Fish, &c. pl. 60—64.) shall be commenced within 12 calendar months after the offence done, id. s. 53.

49. This act shall not alter, repeal, or affect any act now in force, or take away any of the authorities, &c. by them given for settling or regulating the fitting out any fishery, or the busses employed therein, or in cellaring, &c. any salt, or curing fish, or paying bounties, save only where hereby expressly altered; but the same and all the rules, penalties, &c. therein contained, shall continue in force, 26 G. 3. c. 81. s. 54.

50. The inhabitants of the United Provinces, during the continuance of this act, employed in the herring fishery, &c. coming to reside in this kingdom, may import fish duty free, 35 G. 3. c. 56. ss. 7—12. [encl. Exr.]

51. FOR THE FURTHER ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE British fisheries, 25 G. 3. c. 65. [ss. 1—3. 6. Exr. See the drawback allowed on salt exported to the Iceland and North Sea fisheries, 12 A. S. 2. c. 2. ante, pl. i.]

52. In case the crew of any buss employed in the white herring fishery, shall catch any cod, ling, or hake, the same may be cured with the salt on board such vessel, for which they shall be entitled to the same allowance, [the allowance here mentioned being Exr. QU. is this section Exr. also?] as if it had been consumed in curing herrings, but no bounty shall be allowed on the exportation of such cod, &c.; and to that intent the same shall, before removed from the shore, have part of the tail cut off in the presence of the collector, and such collector shall cut off part of the tail; and if any cod is landed or removed from the shore before the same is so marked, it shall be forfeited with double the value of the fish, to be recovered of the importer, or the proprietor, or master of the vessel, 25 G. 3. c. 65. s. 4. [see 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 7. post, pl. FISHERY (Herring).]

53. The owners or chief officers of any decked busses or vessels employed in such fishery, may purchase in any part of the seas, any quantity of fresh herrings, cod, ling, or hake, from any boat belonging to British subjects, and ship what they catch, as well as what they so buy on board any other British vessel, and the same may be landed at any port in G. B. from out of such last mentioned vessels, in the same way as out of the vessels from which so shipped, oath being made by the owner or chief officer of such vessel before the collector, specifying the sorts and the quantities of each sort of fish, with the name of the vessel from which shipped, and the chief officer thereof, and of the port from whence such vessel was cleared, and also that such fish were according to the best of his knowledge caught and salted, or caught and cured, as the case may be, by British subjects; and the collector, &c. of the port where such fish are entered and landed, shall on demand deliver gratis to the owners of such fish a certificate under his hand and seal, specifying the particulars of the same, and the salting and curing thereof, which certificate shall be proof of the consumption of the salt used in the salting or curing of such fish, 25 G. 3. c. 65. s. 5. [see the preceding section.]

54. The master of any boat or vessel bound on a fishing voyage to the North Seas and Iceland, may take from any salt works or pits any quantity of British salt for curing fish, without paying any duty for the same, such salt being weighed at such works in the presence of an officer of salt duties, and lodged in a warehouse under the key of such officer and the proprietor, there to remain in their joint custody until put on board such vessel, and on the return of such vessel the salt not used shall be again lodged under like custody, the proprietor or his agent making entry at the next office for salt duties of the quantity so lodged, and such officer keeping an account of each quantity of salt so entered and lodged in his custody; and previous to such voyage the proprietors of such salt, or their agent, shall make oath in writing before such officer, declaring the quantity of the salt so lodged, and that it is intended to be used in curing fish caught at the North Seas or Iceland, and shall not by his connivance be sold, given away, or any way delivered but for such purpose; and after such oath so made, such officer shall deliver to such proprietors all such salt for curing fish to be taken during such voyage, and at the end of every fishing voyage such officer shall take an account of the quantity of salt remaining on hand, which shall then be locked up in the joint custody of such officer and the proprietor or agent, who shall deliver an account in writing into the office for salt duties, specifying the quantity of fish entered at the port where the same was landed, in the curing of which any of such salt has been used, together with a certificate (to be given gratis) from the officer of such port verifying such account, and such account shall be affirmed by the oath of such proprietor or agent, and shall remain in such office; and if any of such salt is delivered to another person to cure fish, the quantity so delivered shall be expressed in such account, and such person or his agent shall make another like account thereof on oath, which, together with such certificates, shall be transmitted to such office; and if any such proprietor or person shall neglect to deliver within 6 months after the end of each fishing voyage, such account so attested on oath, he shall forfeit 100*l.*, 25 G. 5. c. 65. s. 7.

55. No part of such salt so shipped shall be afterwards re-shipped or delivered out at sea to any person, save only in the North Seas or Iceland, and to British subjects belonging to fishing vessels regularly cleared out of a British port; and so often as any salt is so delivered, the owner or master of the vessel from which the same is re-shipped, shall make and subscribe an oath before the comptroller of the port of outfit, specifying the quantity delivered, and the names of the vessels on board of which the same was shipped, and of the owners or masters thereof, and the place of her outfit, to the intent that if both vessels did not clear out from the same port, the comptroller of the one shall inform the comptroller of the other of the circumstances, and also that the masters and owners, through whose hands any of such salt passed, may be made to account on oath for the due consumption of the same in the salting and curing of fish, and the like rule shall be established for the due accounting for such salt, through whosoever hands the same may pass at sea, id. s. 8.

56. No bounty shall be paid on the exportation of any cod, ling, hake, or other fish imported into G. B. from Iceland or the North Seas, and all such cod, &c. so imported shall, on the landing thereof, and before the same is removed from the shore, have part of the tail cut off in the presence of the collector or comptroller, to shew that it is not entitled to bounty on exportation, id. s. 9. [see pl. 52.]

57. When any salt has been so reshipped as in pl. 55. at sea, and the consumption thereof accounted for, the collector before whom the account was taken, shall grant a certificate of the same under his hand gratis, directed to the collector of the port at which such salt was originally shipped, which certificate being produced by the shipper, shall be admitted as proof of such consumption, and entitle him to credit for the same on his account; but it shall not be available for any salt pretended to have been reshipped or delivered over at sea, unless delivered to the comptroller of the port where originally shipped within 6 calendar months after the return of the vessel on board of which it was originally shipped, id. s. 10.

58. For every bushel of salt taken out of the salt works or warehouse which shall not be accounted for as in ss. 7, 8. or 10. pl. 54, 55, 57., or by certificate of the justices at quarter sessions, that proof was there made that such salt was shipped for curing fish and was taken by enemies, or perished at sea, or shall not be returned into or found remaining at the end of each voyage in such warehouses, the proprietors thereof, or their agent who took out the same, shall, according to the quantities for which they are accountable, forfeit 20*s.*, and every person selling, giving away or using such salt, shall suffer these penalties, viz. every proprietor of such salt, or his agent, for every bushel thereof so sold, &c. shall forfeit 20*s.*; and every person buying, taking or using such salt, otherwise than for such purposes, shall forfeit 20*s.* for every bushel, and after that rate for a less quantity, id. s. 11.

59. For every bushel of salt so lodged as in s. 7. pl. 54. which shall be carried away or found wanting at the re-delivery into the sole custody of the proprietor, after allowance for waste made, such proprietor shall forfeit 20*s.*, 25 G. 5. c. 65. s. 12.

60. All persons who shall misapply or embezzle any British salt after weighed and carried from the salt works to be locked up, and before it is brought and locked up under such joint custody as in s. 7. pl. 54. shall forfeit 20*s.* for each bushel so misapplied, &c. reckoning 56*lbs.* to the bushel, and so in proportion for a less quantity, id. s. 13.

61. All penalties hereby given shall go in moieties to H.M. and the informer, and shall be sued for, recovered, levied and mitigated as excise penalties may be, or by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts at Westminster, id. s. 14.

62. If any person shall be sued for any thing done under this act, he may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if a verdict shall pass against the plaintiff, or if he is nonsuited, or discontinues, or forbears to prosecute, the defendant shall have double costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 15.

63. All the powers of former acts made for regulating the fitting out of vessels for any fishery, or the clearance outwards or entry inwards, or the discharge of any fishing vessel, or in cellaring, securing, shipping, re-shipping or re-landing any salt to be used in salting, curing, landing, removing, marking or exporting any fish, or the payment of bounties, except where hereby expressly altered, shall be in force, id. s. 16.

64. FOR THE FURTHER ENCOURAGEMENT AND IMPROVEMENT of the British fisheries, 1 G. 4. c. 103. [LAST CON. to the first session of parliament after 24th July, 1824. See s. 7. pl. 71.]

65. All bounties and allowances, and all drawbacks which, under any act in force before this act passed, were paid on dried or wet codfish, ling or hake cured in G. B., shall cease, id. s. 1.

66. A bounty of 50*s.* per ton shall be annually paid out of the excise in Eng. and Scot. to the owners of all decked or half-decked vessels of not less than 15 tons burden, or to the persons chartering such vessels, which shall be fitted out from any port in G. B. for fishing and curing fish in the British fisheries under the conditions hereafter mentioned, id. s. 2.

67. No more than 20*s.* of such bounty shall be paid for any such vessel, unless it appear to the commissioners of the herring fishery [see 48 G. 5. c. 110. part, pl. 76.] that the fish was actually taken or bought by such vessel on the voyage for which she claims such bounty, and that the same was landed, well cured, in sound merchantable order in some port in G. B., in which case, out of the residue of such 50*s.* bounty, the owner or master shall receive for every cwt. of well cured dried codfish, ling or hake, 4*s.* only, and for every barrel of such codfish, &c. cured with pickle, 2*s.* 6*d.* only: provided that no greater bounty shall be paid on any vessel than for 60 tons, let her admeasurements be what it may, nor shall there be paid on any vessel a greater bounty in the whole than 50*s.* per ton, including the before mentioned bounty of 20*s.* per ton, id. s. 3.

68. There shall be paid to all persons residing in G. B., who shall cure and dry codfish, ling or hake taken on the coasts of G. B., Irr. or the Isle of Man, according to such rules as the commissioners of the herring fishery shall appoint, a bounty of 4*s.* per cwt. of all such dried codfish, &c. and to all such persons so residing, who shall cure codfish, &c. with pickle, a bounty of 2*s.* 6*d.* per barrel thereof: provided that such bounties shall not be paid on any fish in respect whereof any part of the tonnage bounty of 50*s.* has been paid, or is payable to the owner or master of any vessel fitted out for such bounty: provided also that such bounties of 4*s.* and 2*s.* 6*d.* shall not be paid, unless the inspector or other proper officer had inspected all such codfish, &c. and marked all such dried fish, and branded the casks of such pickled fish, and shall certify to such commissioners in writing that such cod, &c. are properly dried, pickled and packed, and made up for the home or foreign markets, id. s. 4.

69. There shall be paid out of the excise in Eng. and Scot. a bounty of 3*l.* per ton for every ton of oil extracted from whales, and the like sum for every ton of oil extracted from other fish taken on the coast of G. B. and the Isle of Man, and manufactured therein; and a bounty of 4*l.* for every cwt. of whalefins, commonly called whalebone, taken on such coasts, and manufactured there, id. s. 5.

70. The commissioners of the British herring fishery may make such rules for the payment of the bounties hereby granted in respect of such vessels, and of such cod, ling or hake, so cured and dried or pickled, and with respect to shipping salt for the fisheries and the exportation of such fish, as they think fit; and such regulations shall be as valid as if herein enacted, and be obeyed by the officers of such herring fishery, and all other persons concerned; and no bounty granted by this act shall be paid to any person, unless the same are complied with by the party claiming the bounty, and such commissioners where such rules, &c. have been complied with, may grant certificates under their hands, or the hands of three of them, of the bounty payable, either for the tonnage or the quantity of fish cured and dried or pickled, and thereupon the commissioners of excise may direct such bounties to be paid, id. s. 6.

FISHERY (HERRING).

71. THE STATUTE OF HERRING, 31 E. 3. S. 2. [AMD. 55 E. 3. The provisions of these acts are entirely superseded by the modern acts, particularly 23 G. 2. c. 24. next pl., and 48 G. 3. c. 110. which see post, pl. 76.]

72. FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE WHITE HERRING FISHERY, 11 G. 5. c. 31. [CON. and AMD. 19 G. 5. c. 26., which is AMD. and REP. as to s. 3. by 25 G. 3. c. 65. s. 1—5. and all EXP. See further, as to 25 G. 3. c. 65. FISHERIES (British), pl. 51. &c.]

73. FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE British white herring fishery, 25 G. 2. c. 24. [EXPL. and AMD. 26 G. 2. c. 9., 28 G. 2. c. 14., 50 G. 2. c. 50., 5 G. 3. c. 22. [NOTE under these acts the corporation called "THE SOCIETY OF THE FREE BRITISH FISHERY" was erected, but which was to endure only for 21 years; a sum of 800,000*l.* was subscribed, and 5 per cent. per ann. paid out of the customs upon the sum employed in the fishery (which was last continued for four years by 5 G. 3. c. 22.), by way of interest; a bounty of 50*s.* per ton was also granted on certain descriptions of vessels proceeding on the fishery; all these acts appear to be EXP. See post, 48 G. 3. c. 110. pl. 76.]

74. FOR REGULATING THE HERRING FISHERIES, 15 C. 2. c. 16.

75. No white or red herrings of English catching shall be put to sale in Eng., W., or I., but what shall be packed in lawful barrels, and which shall be well packed, and shall be of one taking, salting or drying, and equally well packed throughout, and by a sworn packer; and the vessel marked by him denoting the gauge of the vessel, and the quantity, quality and condition of the herrings therein, and the town where they were packed; and the bailiffs of Yarmouth, and the mayor or other head officer of every port whence any vessels proceed to fish for herrings, shall yearly, before 1st July, appoint a number of packers to view and pack all white and red herrings, and administer an oath to them for the well doing thereof; and in case no such appointment is made, they shall forfeit 100*l.*, one moiety to H. M. and the other to the party suing in any court of record by action, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 1.

76. FOR THE FURTHER ENCOURAGEMENT and better regulation of the British white herring fishery, 48 G. 3. c. 110. [AMD. 51 G. 3. c. 101. the mistake in that act rectified, 52 G. 3. c. 155. all these acts CON. 54 G. 5. c. 102. and further AMD. and MADE PERF. together with all letters patent, appointments, rules and orders granted or made under such acts, and now in force, but subject nevertheless to the alterations hereby made 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 1.; and further AMD. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 79. (Q. are the bounties granted by these acts any way affected by 1 G. 4. c. 105. FISHERIES (British), ante, pl. 61—65.)]

77. A bounty of 3*l.* per ton shall be paid annually as in s. 20., pl. 109. &c. directed to the owners of any whole-decked buss or vessel of not less than 60 tons burthen, being British-built, and owned in G. B. and manned, navigated, and registered according to law, fitted out and actually employed in the deep sea British white herring fisheries on the coasts of G. B. or I. under the regulations hereby prescribed; but such bounty shall not be paid for more than 100 tons, although such buss may be of greater burden. Provided that if any such buss properly fitted up for such fishery as hereby required, shall be hired for carrying on such fishery, the party hiring shall be entitled to the bounty, although he is not the owner thereof, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 1. [This bounty to cease, from and after 1st June 1822, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 79. s. 1.]

78. The bounty of 7*l.* per ton shall be granted by 48 G. 3. c. 110. to the owners of busses of not less than 45 tons, being British built and owned, &c. which shall be fitted out and employed in such fisheries under regulations of such act, 51 G. 3. c. 101. s. 1.

79. "Whereas an error was made in 51 G. 3. c. 101. in relation to the bounty on fishing busses;" IT IS ENACTED, that the bounty of 3*l.* per ton granted by 48 G. 3. c. 110. to the owners of any buss of not less than 60 tons burden, shall be paid to the owners of any whole-decked buss or vessel of not less than 45 tons burden, being British built, owned in G. B., and manned, navigated, and registered according to law, which shall be actually fitted out and employed in the deep sea British white herring fishery, on the coasts of G. B. and I. under the regulation in 48 G. 3. c. 110. prescribed, 52 G. 3. c. 155. s. 1.

80. No vessel shall be deemed to be employed in the deep sea herring fishery, unless the nets shall be attached to the vessel while they are set, and shall be shot from and hauled into the same without the intervention of a small boat, the vessel not being at anchor whilst the nets are shooting, nor whilst they are set or being hauled in, nor unless the herrings caught shall receive their first cure on board such vessels in barrels, and not in bulk, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 2. [see post, s. 13. pl. 100.]

81. For each barrel containing 32 gallons of white herrings caught in the British fishery, and landed in G. B., and cured and packed according to this act, a bounty of 2*s.* shall be paid, id. s. 3. [REP. 51 G. 3. c. 94. s. 6.]

82. The bounty of 2*s.* 8*d.* for every 32 gallon barrel of white herrings exported, granted by 47 G. 3. c. 69. sch. (C.) tit. Bounties, shall be REP., 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 5.

83. The bounty by 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 3. granted, shall CLASS, and in lieu thereof a bounty of 4*s.* per barrel shall be granted, to be paid for each barrel of herrings caught, landed, cured, and packed according to 48 G. 3. c. 110., and which shall be produced to and inspected by proper officer of the fishery, id. s. 6.

84. A like bounty of 4*s.* shall be paid for every barrel of herring caught in the fisheries of the Isle of Man, or other British fisheries in vessels fitted out from such isle, landed there and cured and packed according to 48 G. 3. c. 110., and 55 G. 3. c. 94. and this act, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 79. s. 6.

85. All the powers, rules, restrictions, fines, or forfeitures in the 48 G. 3. c. 110., or the 55 G. 3. c. 94. contained, as far as the same are applicable, shall extend to the Isle of Man, provided the bounty hereby extended to the Isle of Man, shall be paid by order of the Scott commissioners of excise in the same way as the bounty of 1*s.* per barrel of white herrings caught in the British fisheries and landed in G. B.; and any such fine or forfeiture may be sued for, recovered, levied, mitigated, and applied as any fine, &c. may be by the law of customs or excise in G. B., and of customs in the Isle of Man, id. s. 7.

86. The 21 trustees appointed for the linen and hempen manufactures in Scot. under 13 G. 1. c. 26. (s. 18.) and c. 30. (s. 2.) shall be increased to 23 for the purposes of this act, by H. M.'s letters patent under the great seal appointed by the treaty of union to be kept in Scot., 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 1.

87. H. M. by letters patent under the great seal appointed by the treaty of union to be kept in Scot., may appoint any number of such trustees not exceeding 7, to be commissioners specially for overseeing, directing, and improving the white herring fishery, with power to them or any number of them, by such letters to be determined, to execute this act, and for that purpose to appoint a secretary, and such clerks and officers under them (their number being approved by the treasury) as they think fit, and the treasury may direct such salaries and allowances, and such expenses incurred under this act to be paid to such secretary, &c. as the treasury shall approve, provided that no person shall be appointed a commissioner under this act, who is in any way concerned in such white herring fishery, id. s. 5.

88. H. M. may appoint the advocate and solicitor-general for Scot. to be commissioners in addition to the number by 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 4. pl. 86. authorized, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 2.

89. Such commissioners before they proceed to execute the powers of this act shall take and subscribe the oath here set down, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 6.

90. Every person appointed one of the commissioners for the herring fishery, by virtue of 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 5. pl. 87. or of this act, shall before he proceeds to execute any powers thereby vested in him (save only in administering this oath) take and subscribe the oath here set down, which may be administered by one to the others, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 3. [The only difference between the oath required by 48 G. 3. c. 110., and that required by 55 G. 3. c. 94. is in the reference to the acts under which the commissioners act. Both forms are omitted as not being of any general utility.]

91. Such commissioners shall yearly [on 1st June, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 7. or on or before 1st Nov., 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 4.] deliver to the board of trustees or commissioners for fisheries and manufactures in Scot. appointed under any acts of parliament, [see 15 G. 1. c. 26. s. 18. and c. 30. s. 2.] an accurate report of their proceedings for the year preceding, and shall also lay a copy of such report, signed by them before each house of parliament, 14 days after the commencement of every session, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 7., 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 1.

92. The admiralty may appoint an officer of the navy to be superintendent of the fishery herein described as the deep sea fishery, who shall annually proceed to Brassay Sound in Shetland, which is hereby appointed the place of rendezvous of such deep sea fishery, so as to arrive before 15th June, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 8., [his oath, id. s. 9., further duty assigned him, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 8., as to the appointment of a superintendent of the lock and coast fishery, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 9.]

93. So much of 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 8., or of any other act as relates to the appointment of a superintendent of the deep sea fishery, shall be REP. but nothing herein shall repeal any provision made for the employment of a superintendent of the British herring fishery, other than the deep sea fishery, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 79. s. 2.

94. The treasury may appoint persons at all places on the coast of G. B., where herrings are caught or cured, and at ports or places where the vessels are fitted out for the British herring fishery, and where they discharge their cargoes, and also at the ports of exportation, to overlook the curing of all herrings caught, to take an account of, and clear out all salt, nets, barrels, and other stores shipped for such fishery, and to inspect and take account of all herrings landed or exported, and to certify whether the fish are properly piled, cured, and packed, so as to be entitled to the bounty of 2*s.* [now 1*s.*, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 6.] hereby granted, or fit to be exported, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 10.

95. But no person shall be appointed to perform such duties, unless he has exercised the trade of a cooper, and has been employed in packing and curing herrings, and is fully qualified to execute the duties hereby required; certificates of which qualifications shall be transmitted to the treasury by such persons, and in such manner as shall be satisfactory to the treasury; and such officers, so appointed, shall obey the orders of the commissioners of the herring-fishery, signified under their hands, or the hand of their secretary, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 10.

96. The secretary, and every clerk or officer of the fishery, appointed under this act, shall be liable to be suspended by such commissioners, either for incompetency or neglect; and before they enter on their offices, shall take and subscribe the oath here set down, the same to be administered by one of such commissioners, id. s. 11.

97. No person shall use in any river, or loch, or at sea, in or on the coast of G. B., any herring net, or any trawl net, drag net or other sea net, for taking herrings, having a mesh less than one inch from knot to knot, or any false bottom, cod or pouch, or shall put any net, though of legal size, behind the other, on pain to forfeit 40*l.*; and such commissioners shall cause all such nets to be burnt, id. s. 12.

98. All nets forfeited by 48 G. 3. c. 110., may be seized by any superintendent of the herring fishery, or any person acting under his orders, or by any officer of the fishery, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 10.

99. If any herring net shall be set or hauled in any river, or loch, in Scot., or on any place on the coast thereof, or within 2 leagues of the same, after 12 o'clock at night on Saturday, and before the same hour on Sunday, or having been set before 12 o'clock at night on Saturday, shall not be hauled before the same hour, such net shall be forfeited, and may be seized by the superintendent of the fishery, or any person employed under him, or by any officer of the fishery, id. s. 11.

100. No buss or vessel shall be deemed properly fitted out, and to be duly employed in the British deep sea white herring fishery, so as to entitle the owner to the tonnage bounty under this act, unless there shall be on board thereof (put up in new barrels) 16 bushels of salt, for each last of herrings such buss, &c. can contain, and also as many more new barrels as she can carry, and likewise 300 square yards of netting for every ton of her admeasurement, with the customary quantity of other materials for the equipment and mounting of such netting, nor unless such buss or vessel is manned with, if not exceeding 60 tons, 10 men; and exceeding 60 tons, and not exceeding 70, with 11 men; and, if of 70 tons or upwards, then with one man for every 10 tons exceeding 70 tons, 2 of which number may be foreign seamen experienced in the deep sea herring fishery; provided no buss, &c. exceeding 100 tons burden, shall be required to have on board any greater quantity of salt, netting, or materials, or any greater number of men than a vessel of 100 tons is to have, or any more than 500 barrels, and no buss or vessel need have her full number of men till her arrival at the rendezvous of such deep sea fishery, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 13. [See ante, pl. 79—80.]

101. No such vessel of less than 60 tons, and not less than 45 tons burden, shall be deemed to be properly fitted, and to be duly employed in the British deep sea white herring fishery, so as to entitle the owner to any bounty on the tonnage thereof, unless the same be manned with 10 men, or 8 men and two boys, not under 13 years of age, 51 G. 3. c. 101. s. 2., 52 G. 3. c. 153. s. 2.

102. In order to entitle the owners of any vessels, who claim any bounty on the tonnage thereof, to receive the same, such buss, &c. shall be cleared out from the port of G. B., where she was bond fide fitted for her intended voyage, and shall proceed direct to Brassey Sound in Shetland, where she shall arrive on or before 22d June, yearly; and the crew shall not shoot or wet the nets before the 24th, from which day they shall continue to fish as herein described on the coasts of G. B. or Ire., until 15th Sept. following, unless before then the quantity of herrings taken in such buss, and cured and packed on board thereof, shall amount to 4 barrels, not repacked, or in the state called sea sticks, for each ton not exceeding 100 tons of her admeasurement; and no fish, except herrings, shall be taken or cured by the crew of such buss; nor shall any fish not taken by the crew, be received on board thereof, save only for their sustenance; and all herrings taken by such crew, and cured and packed on board thereof, shall be landed in G. B., 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 14.

103. The owners, or one of them, of any buss or vessel, or their agent, who intend to fit out the same for such deep sea fishery, and to claim the tonnage bounty thereon, shall give notice thereof in writing under his hand to the officer of the fishery at the port where such buss is to be fitted out, and shall therein specify the name of the buss, and her port, whether actually British-built, or taken and condemned as prize, her names of her owners and master, the register, tonnage, and date of the registry; and declare therein that such buss is fit for such voyage and fishery, also the quantity of salt, the whole number of barrels, distinguishing those filled with salt from those that are empty, the quantity of netting, with materials for mounting the same, and the quantities and sorts of provisions for the crew during the voyage intended to be put on board; and the officer to whom such notice is given, or some other duly appointed, shall go on board such buss and view the condition thereof, and shall examine the register, and examine and take account of the quantity of salt, and the several sorts of provisions intended to be put on board such buss, and see the same shipped accordingly; and if it appear to him that such buss is sufficient for the voyage, and is stored, victualled, and fitted out in the terms of such notice, and according to this act, he shall certify the same on the back of the notice, and one or more of the owners, or the agent of the owners and master of such buss, shall make oath before an officer of the fishery, that he intends that such buss as then furnished, shall forthwith proceed, after licence granted, to Brassey Sound, and be there on 22d June, and have on board not less than such a number of men, (to be mentioned in the oath,) as such buss is hereby (s. 13. pl. 100.) required to have, and shall not shoot or wet her nets before 24th June, and shall fish for herrings in the deep sea fishery as follows, (viz.) the crew shall shoot and haul the nets directly from and into such buss without the intervention of a small boat, the nets being attached to the vessel while they are set, and the vessel not being at anchor when the nets are shooting, during the time the nets are set, or while the nets are hauling in: and shall cure all the herrings caught in barrels, and not in bulk on board; the crew shall so continue fishing in the deep sea British white herring fishery, upon the coasts of G. B. or Ire., in an orderly manner, and without impeding the crew of any other vessel, from 24th June, to 15th September yearly, unless before then they have caught and cured such quantity as in s. 14. and that no fish other than herrings [see now 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 7. post, next pl.] shall be taken or cured by the crew of such buss, nor any fish not caught by them received on board, except only for the sustenance of the crew during the voyage, and that all herrings taken by such buss, and cured and packed on board thereof, shall be landed in G. B.; which oath subscribed by the parties making the same, and also such notice, with such certificate indorsed, shall be transmitted by such officer to such commissioners of the fishery, appointed hereunder, and the master of such buss, or such owner or agent shall, with one or more sureties, enter into a bond to H. M. in a sum equal to treble the tonnage bounty of such buss, (which bond any such officer shall take, and which shall be exempt from stamps,) for the faithful dealing of such master and crew in respect of such voyage and fishing; all which requisites being duly performed, such officer, by instrument in writing under his hand, setting forth the particulars which appear by such notice and certificate, and that such bond was given, shall give the master of such buss a licence to proceed on his voyage to the rendezvous of such deep sea British white herring fishery, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 15. [See as to vessels of 4 tons burden, carrying salt and herrings to and from the fishery exempted from these regulations, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 16., post, pl. 173.]

104. The master and crew of any buss or vessel fitted out for the British white herring fishery, in the deep sea, under the regulations of 48 G. 3. c. 110. may take cod or ling, and cure the same with salt, to be taken on board for that purpose, and to be stowed in bulk; and where cod or ling shall be so taken, cured and stowed, the same shall be saved and excepted out of that part of the oath prescribed (48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 22. pl. 111.) to be taken by the master of such buss or vessel on his return from such fishery, wherein such master is required to swear that no fish, other than herrings, were taken by the crew of such buss or vessel, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 7. (see 25 G. 3. c. 65. ante, pl. 51, &c. FISHERY (British).)

105. Upon arrival at Brassey Sound, the rendezvous, the master shall enter such buss with the superintendent, and produce to him his licence, and also if required the registry, or a certificate of the registry of such buss, and deliver him a statement in writing on what day he sailed from the port where he cleared out, and what quantities of salt, barrels, nets, with materials for mounting the same and provisions shall be then on board such buss, and to what port of G. B. he intends to return for the discharge of such buss; and such superintendent shall then go on board of such buss, and inform himself whether such stores and provisions are actually on board, and shall muster and take an account in writing of the number, names, and descriptions of the crew thereof, which shall be entered on the licence, and if satisfied that such buss is completely stored, and manned as in s. 13. pl. 100. required, he shall, by certificate under his hand, declare such buss entitled to commence the deep sea fishery for the tonnage bounty, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 16.

106. The herrings taken, cured, and packed on each day by the crew of such buss, shall be distinguished from others, by marks to be placed on the barrels of such description, and in such manner as shall be prescribed by the commissioners for the fishery, and shall denote on what day they were taken, cured, and packed, and whether the same were cured and packed, gutted or ungutted; and herrings gutted after the day when taken shall be packed separately, and be distinguished from others by a mark, which marks shall not be effaced or altered, id. s. 17.

107. Such superintendent, or persons acting under his orders, may either at sea, during the fishery, or after the return from the same, go on board any of the vessels employed in the fishery to inspect the licence and certificate of registry, and the journal kept by the master, as by s. 21. pl. 110. directed, (all which the master shall produce and deliver to him, or in default, such superintendent may detain his buss till delivery is made,) and to ascertain whether the fishery is carried on as hereby required; and if any person shall attempt to impede others in the prosecution of such fishery, such superintendent shall require him to desist from so doing, and in case of refusal may use force to preserve order; and if it appear to him that the number of men, by s. 13. pl. 100. required, were not on board of any buss when they ought to be, or that the fishery was not carried on as hereby required, or that any persons had attempted to impede others, such superintendent shall report the same to the commissioners of the herring fishery, and deliver one copy of such report to the master of such buss, and transmit another to such commissioners by the first opportunity; and if any person shall obstruct such superintendent, or any persons acting under him in execution of this act, he shall forfeit 100*l.*; provided that the master of any buss licensed and cleared out for such deep sea fishery, may at any time during the continuance of the fishing tranship into any other vessel not licensed pursuant to this act, any quantity of herrings taken by the crew, and packed and cured in barrels on board of such buss, to be conveyed to and landed in such port of G. B. where the buss is intended to be cleared inwards, and the same shall be deemed part of the cargo of such buss; provided that the master of such vessel shall bring with him a copy of the licence of such buss, out of which such herrings were received, with a declaration under the master's hand indorsed on the same, of the number of barrels so transhipped, and that the same were taken and cured as in s. 15. pl. 103. specifying the date when the herrings in each barrel were taken, cured, and packed, and whether the same were cured and packed gutted, or not, and distinguishing each barrel by the marks (to be specified in such declaration), set on the same, as also the name of the vessel into which transhipped, the name of the master thereof, and the port for which they were put on board; which declaration shall be produced to the officer of the fishery before such herrings are landed, and such master shall make oath at the port of such declaration before such officer, that the herring on board are the same which were transhipped; and such officer shall attend the landing, and take an account thereof, together with the marks on the barrels, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 18. [See post, s. 29. pl. 117.]

108. If any buss shall not arrive at the rendezvous till after the 22d June, and shall not begin to fish till after the 24th June, and it is made appear to the commissioners of the fishery that such buss did bonâ fide depart for the rendezvous five days before such 22d; or if any buss licensed for such fishery, and for which a certificate has been obtained at the rendezvous, to entitle the crew to commence the fishery, shall at any time before 15th Sept. be compelled to discontinue fishing by stress of weather, loss of nets, or stores, or other unavoidable cause, before the quantity hereby required shall have been taken and cured, and shall come to any port or anchorage on the coast of G. B. or Ire., the owner shall not thereby lose his tonnage bounty, provided the master thereof shall, in the last case, give notice of his arrival, and of the necessity which forced him to take shelter, and shall make proof thereof by the oaths of himself and his mate, before any officer of the fishery at such port, which oaths such officer may administer; and if there is no such officer, the oaths shall then be administered by any justice of peace, and be written on the licence, and subscribed by the deponents; but such master shall use his endeavours to refit such buss, and take on board such supplies and men as may be necessary to enable him to continue his fishing voyage, and shall return and continue fishing as herein directed; and shall in either such cases continue to fish after 15th Sept. till the expiration of such time as when added to the time during which such buss has fished before that day, shall be equal to the period which extends from 24th June to 15th Sept., unless before then the crew shall have taken, cured, and packed the quantity of herrings by s. 14. pl. 102. required, id. s. 19.

109. The bounty hereby granted shall not be paid on any buss which shall not be manned as in s. 13. pl. 100. required, from the time when the crew was mustered by the superintendent at the rendezvous during the continuance of the fishing, and until such buss shall return to port in G. B., and the crew shall be there mustered by the proper officer of the fishery, before whom the master and mate shall make their oaths, that such buss was manned as hereby required during the whole of such time, unless the number is decreased by reason of sickness, death, or desertion, and in such events, that the master used his best endeavours to keep up his number, from the day when the crew were mustered at the rendezvous, till again mustered on return to port, which oaths may be administered by such officer, and shall be written on the licence, and subscribed by the deponent, and such officer shall also certify the number of names and description of men on board, when mustered by him, id. s. 20.

110. The master of every buss on which any tonnage bounty is claimed, shall keep a journal, in which all transactions and occurrences shall be inserted every day during the voyage, from the time of beginning to ship her stores, to the time of returning to port for the discharge of her cargo, specifying the quantity of stores of each sort put on board before the departure of the vessel from the port where fitted out, the time of arrival at the rendezvous, and of there being permitted to commence fishing; number of men taken on board, at what places; the winds and weather; the station of the vessel each day at noon, and the place where she put in, and the causes thereof; the number of barrels of herrings taken, and cured, and packed every day, distinguishing herrings cured, &c., gutted from those not gutted, and those gutted on the day taken, from those gutted afterwards; specifying the marks set on each barrel of herrings so taken, cured, &c. pursuant to this act, and also the number of barrels of herrings, with the marks on the same transhipped as in s. 18. pl. 107., with the name of the vessel, and master thereof, and whither bound; the death, disability, or desertion of any of the crew, and the endeavours used to supply their places, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 21.

111. On the return of any such buss to the port where the cargo is to be landed, the officer of the fishery shall go on board and view the condition of the vessel and her lading, and the master shall then deliver up his licence to such officer, with the certificates and oaths hereby required to be taken, written on the same, and also his journal, signed by himself, and verified on oath before such officer, and shall make the oath here set down before such officer, id. s. 22. [The form is annexed to this section.]

112. In all cases where the superintendent of the fishery is of opinion, that there has been any misconduct on the part of the master or crew of any buss claiming the tonnage bounty, or that they have failed in complying with the provisions of this act, which would prevent the bounty being paid, and he shall have made a special report of the same to the commissioners of the fishery, such commissioners shall forthwith make enquiry thereinto, giving notice to the master and owner of such buss, or his agent, that they may attend such enquiry if they see fit, and such commissioners shall make such order thereon as they deem proper, id. s. 23.

113. The officer of the fishery at each port, shall attend the landing of the herrings, and of the salt and barrels not used, and of the nets out of each buss arriving from the deep sea fishery, and shall take an account thereof, specifying the marks on the barrels containing herrings, and shall examine the master's journal, with the other documents delivered by him, and the account of the cargo landed; and shall certify such examination, together with his observations thereon, with the quantity of each description of herrings gutted and ungutted landed from such buss; and in case any herrings have been landed at that port out of any other vessel, the master whereof brought such declaration, and made such oath, as in s. 18. pl. 107. such officer shall in that case certify also the quantity of herrings of each description landed from such other vessel, mentioning her name, and the master thereof, and shall also certify the tonnage of such buss by admeasurement, id. s. 24.

114. Such officer shall transmit without delay to such commissioners, as in s. 5. pl. 87. the licence, with the oaths and certificate written on it, in s. 22. pl. 111. required to be delivered to him, together with the master's oath on his return to his port of discharge, and the certificate in s. 24. directed to be made by such officer, at such port; also the declaration produced and oath made by the master of the vessel out of which herrings were landed, as having been transhipped out of any buss during the fishing; and if the commissioners are satisfied that this act has been observed, they shall give a debenture, or certificate for payment of such tonnage bounty to the owner of such buss, or his assigns, mentioning the amount thereof, and they shall transmit the licence, oaths, certificates, and declaration, with notice of such debenture being granted, to the commissioners of excise, in Eng. or Scot., who, on receiving such documents, shall, without delay, give an order to their cashier, or transmit one to the excise collector at the nearest port where the buss discharged her cargo, (at the option of the party entitled to the same,) which cashier or collector, on receiving such order, shall, on demand, pay the sum expressed in such debenture, out of any money in his hands arising from the excise duties; provided, that in case the master of any such buss shall have neglected to enter any transaction, occurrence, or thing, by s. 21. pl. 110. required to be entered in his journal, such commissioners may abate so much from the bounty claimed as they see fit, id. s. 25.

115. No tonnage bounty shall be paid on any buss which is fitted out, or which discharges her cargo at any port or place other than one where an officer of the fishery is stationed, id. s. 26.

116. The mariners employed in every buss in the deep sea white herring fishery, not being more than the complement by s. 13. pl. 100. required, shall be protected from impressment into H. M.'s service during so long as such buss is actually carrying on such fishery, until her voyage home to her port of discharge is completed, id. s. 27.

117. The owners or hirers of any buss employed in such fishery, entitled to receive the tonnage bounty, shall pay to the master, mate, and crew, besides their wages, an allowance equal to 2*s.* for every full packed barrel of herrings in the cargo taken by them; two-eighths thereof to go to the master, one to the mate, and the remainder equally amongst the crew, to be paid whenever such cargo of herrings is full packed, id. s. 28.

117. (a) In the absence of the superintendent, from illness or other unavoidable cause, any officer of the fishery authorized by the commissioner for the herring fishery may perform all things required of the superintendent at the rendezvous, or while the fishery is going on, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 29. [See ante, s. 8. pl. 92. s. 18. pl. 107.]

118. The first 30 busses fitted out for the deep sea white herring fishery under this act, and entitled to 5*l.* per ton bounty hereby granted, shall be entitled to 20*s.* per ton additional for one year, id. s. 30. [Exp.]

119. Whenever any vessel or boat for which the tonnage bounty is not meant to be claimed, shall be fitted out for the British white herring fishery, at any place in G. B. where an officer of such fishery is stationed, the party fitting out the same shall give notice thereof in writing to such officer, specifying the quantity of salt, netting, and stores, and number of barrels he intends to put on board, and which he shall not ship without the presence of such officer; and such officer shall examine such stores, and see them shipped, and give the master a certificate that such stores, specifying the quantities and sorts thereof, were shipped in his presence, mentioning the name of such vessel, and of the master thereof; and if any salt, &c. or other fishing stores, are shipped at such port for such fishery, before such notice given, or without the presence of such officer, or are removed in such vessel without such certificate, they shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of the fishery, or of the customs or excise, id. s. 31.

120. Whenever any vessel or boat for which it is not meant to claim the tonnage bounty, shall be fitted out for the British herring fishery, at any port of G. B. where an officer of the fishery is stationed, salt, netting, barrels, and other stores, may be shipped on board thereof without the presence of such officer, provided the shipper shall first give notice thereof in writing to such officer, specifying the particulars required by 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 15. pl. 100.; and thereupon such officer shall give permission to ship such goods under his hand, to be written at foot of such notice; and when shipped, the shipper shall make a declaration thereof under his hand, to be subjoined to such permission, and return the same to such officer, who, being satisfied as to the truth thereof, shall give the master of such vessel a certificate that such stores, specifying the quantities and sorts thereof, were entered and declared to be shipped, mentioning the name of such vessel and of the master thereof; and such certificate shall be of the same effect as if such shipment had been made in the presence of such officer, and a certificate granted to the effect in 48 G. 3. c. 110. (s. 31. last pl.) prescribed, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 14.

121. But if any net, which, according to 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 12. pl. 97., may not be used in taking herrings, shall be shipped on board any such vessel, the same shall be forfeited, id. s. 15. [See certain vessels exempted from these regulations, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 16. post, pl. 173.]

122. The master of every vessel or boat which shall proceed to the British herring fishery, having on board any salt to be used in curing herrings, shall keep an account of the quantity of herrings he shall cure every day [and the quantity of salt used in the curing thereof, Repealed 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 17. pl. 125.], and shall mention therein the name of the loch, bay, or other place on the coast where such herrings were cured, and the manner of curing, viz. whether in barrels or in bulk, gutted or ungutted, and whether on board or on shore, and whether by the crew of such vessel or by persons on shore; and by a mark to be set on the barrels wherein cured according to the regulations made by virtue of this act, the quantity of herrings cured in barrels every day shall be distinguished from all others; and those cured gutted, from those ungutted, in which account shall be specified such marks set on the barrels, and the number of barrels so cured, and the marks set thereon, which shall be shipped in any such vessel or boat every day; and if any quantity of herrings shall be shipped on board any other vessel or boat, to be carried to any port of G. B., the number of barrels of herrings, with the marks set thereon, shall be specified in such account, with the name of such other vessel and the port whither bound; which account, signed by such master, together with such certificate by the officer of the fishery in whose presence such salt was shipped, such master shall bring with the herrings on board thereof, to any port in G. B. to which the same shall return for her discharge; and if any officer of the fishery is stationed at such port, the master shall (before he unships any article, deliver such account and certificate to such officer, and verify such account on oath before him, who shall attend the landing of the herrings, salt, and stores, and take account thereof; and if there is no such officer, then he shall verify such account on oath before the chief officer of customs or excise there, or any magistrate, and transmit the same so verified to the nearest officer of the fishery, who shall, on demand, [deliver to such master a copy thereof, and of his oath certified to be true, under his hand, but see 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 21. pl. 129.] 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 32.

123. So much of 48 G. 3. c. 110. (s. 32.) as requires the quantity of salt used every day to be specified in the account thereby required, and as relates to any penalty or forfeiture for the omission thereof, shall be Repealed; and the master of such vessel shall, before the same officer in whose presence he shall, according to that act, verify such account of the particulars by 48 G. 3. c. 110. (s. 32.) required, and not hereby dispensed with, make oath what quantity of salt has been used in the curing of the herrings (mentioning the number of barrels, or if cured in bulk, the number of herrings) specified in such account; and that no part of such salt was embezzled or sold, or disposed of otherwise than is expressed in such account; which oath shall be made before any herrings, salt, or other fishing stores shall be unshipped, to be landed under like penalty as by 48 G. 3. c. 110. provided, in case such account is not verified on oath as thereby required, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 17.

124. The master of every vessel or boat arriving from the British herring fishery at any port of G. B., with herrings cured with salt which had been carried from any port of G. B. to such fishery in a different vessel, shall bring with such herrings a declaration signed by the master of the vessel, &c. in which such salt was carried to such fishery (with a copy indorsed thereon of the certificate by the officer of the fishery in whose presence such salt was shipped), which declaration shall express the name of the vessel in which herrings are shipped, and of the master thereof, the number of barrels of herrings shipped thereon, with their marks, the day on which each barrel of herrings was cured, and the manner in which cured, as before (in s. 32. pl. 136.) directed, and how much of such salt was used in the curing thereof; which declaration shall be verified on oath of the party making the same before the officer, at the place where such herrings shall be shipped; and if no such officer there, then before any officer of the fishery, customs, or excise, at or near such place, or before a justice of peace, sheriff depute, or substitute, which declaration so verified (if any part of cargo is unshipped) such master shall deliver to such officer of the fishery at such port of discharge, who shall attend the landing of the cargo and take account thereof; and if no officer of the fishery is stationed at such port, then such master shall transmit such declaration so verified to the nearest officer of the fishery, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 33.

125. Where the master of any vessel or boat arriving from the British herring fishery in any port in G. B., with herrings cured with salt carried from any port in G. B. to such fishery in a different vessel, shall bring therewith a declaration signed by the master of the vessel in which such salt was so carried, (with a copy indorsed thereon of the certificate by the officer of the fishery in whose presence, or by whose permission, the salt was shipped,) expressing what is by 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 33., required, such declaration, although not verified by such master as thereby required, shall be of the same effect as if it had been so verified, provided the master of the vessel so arriving with such herrings shall make oath at the port thereof, before an officer of the fishery at the port where he shall arrive, that there was no officer of the fishery at the place where such herrings were shipped before whom such declaration could be verified, and that he verily believes it to be true, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 19.

126. If any herrings or salt, or other fishing stores, shall be landed or unshipped with intent to be landed out of any vessel or boat arriving from the British herring fishery, other than a buss or vessel licensed for the deep sea fishery, at any port where an officer of the fishery is stationed, before such certificate as in s. 31. pl. 119., and account as in s. 32. pl. 122., to be kept by the master respecting the herrings cured, or such declaration so verified as in s. 33. pl. 124. expressed is delivered to, and such account is verified on oath before such officer as in s. 32. pl. 122. directed, or without the presence of such officer, or shall be landed or unshipped with intent to be landed at any port where no officer of the fishery is stationed, before such certificate and account, or such declaration so verified is produced to, and such account verified on oath before such officer of customs or excise, or such justice or other magistrate, and transmitted to the officer of the fishery nearest to such port, or without the presence of the proper officer of customs, all such herrings or salt, or other fishing stores, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any such officers: provided, that if any such herrings, &c. shall be seized for any error or omission of any thing hereby required to be done, which shall appear to the commissioners of the fishery not to be wilful, they may waive the forfeiture or levy a penalty in lieu thereof, not exceeding 10*l.*, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 34.

127. Where any person has any salt stored on shore at any place where the herring fishery is carried on, and intends to cure herrings therewith, he shall first give notice thereof to an officer of the fishery at or nearest to such place, and shall keep an account of the quantity of herrings cured each day, and of the quantity of salt used, and mention therein whether the same were cured in bulk or in barrels, or gutted or ungutted, and by a mark to be set on each barrel in which packed, according to the regulations made under s. 48. pl. 153. of this act, shall distinguish the herrings cured every day from all others, and which marks shall be specified in such account, and before such herrings are removed or shipped, or produced to any officer to be certified for the bounty of 2*s.* per barrel hereby granted, the curer shall deliver such account to such officer of the fishery, and verify the same on oath before him; and such officer shall give a copy of such account, and the oath thereon certified by him as a true copy, to the party delivering it to him, 48 G.3. c.110. s.35.

128. If any person having any salt stored in any place on shore, where the herring fishery is carried on, shall begin to cure herrings therewith, before having given notice of his intention, as by 48 G.3. c.110. s.35. required, or if he shall not keep such account thereof as thereby and by this act required, or if such curer shall not deliver such account to the proper officer of the fishery, and verify the same on oath before him, as in that act and this act required, he shall not only not be entitled to the bounty in respect of such herrings, but shall also (unless the quantity of salt stored shall not exceed 50 bushels,) forfeit sl., 55 G.3. c.94. s.20.

129. So much of 48 G.3. c.110. s.32. pl. 122. as requires a copy of the account there mentioned, to be delivered to the party who delivered such account, shall be Rev., and such officer in lieu thereof shall deliver to such person so much only of such account as relates to herrings cured and gutted; and in case the curer shall produce the whole or any part of the herrings comprised in such copy to such officer at the place where cured, in order to obtain the bounty thereon, such curer shall deliver up such copy to such officer, and in case he produces a part only of such herrings, such officer shall give him a copy as far as relates to the residue; and like proceedings shall be had as often as any part of such herrings shall be so produced at the place where cured, and such copy shall be certified by such officer to be a true copy of or extract from such account of such curer, verified by him on oath, specifying time and place when and where it was so verified, id. s.21.

130. The bounty hereby granted of 2s. per barrel on white herrings, shall not be paid for any herrings of an indifferent quality, or for broken herrings, or those not originally gutted, or which were cured in bulk, or otherwise than in barrels, or which though cured in barrels are afterwards laid in bulk, or which shall not be repacked, or being packed, and in all respects properly cured and packed, or of which the barrel shall not contain of fish, exclusive of salt and brine, 224lbs., except those for exportation out of Europe, which shall be repacked with great salt, the barrel of which shall contain 200lbs. of net fish, nor for herrings not contained in strong barrels, or not containing 32 gallons of English wine measure, or on which the name of the curer, and the port where and year when cured is not branded in large characters, or on which such mark has not been set at the fishery as hereby directed, or shall not remain distinctly legible, denoting the day on which cured, and that the same were cured, gutted, [see exception when they cannot be repacked in the same barrels, 55 G.3. c.94. s.22, post, pl. 132.] nor for any barrel of herrings on which when produced to the proper officer to be branded for the bounty, according to s.37. pl. 137. of this act, any such mark shall be found to have been formerly branded under this or any other act, or any mark formerly branded is found to be effaced or altered, nor until the bounty mark is branded thereon by his order, and in the presence of such officer after the same has been produced to and inspected by him, 48 G.3. c.110. s.36. [See s.58. post, pl. 158.]

131. No herrings shall be deemed to be gutted within 48 G.3. c.110., or this act, unless they were gutted, cured, and packed within 24 hours after taken, 55 G.3. c.94. s.18. [as to gutting herrings with a knife, see 55 G.3. c.94. s.35. post, pl. 181.]

132. "Whereas it was enacted by 48 G.3. c.110. s.36., pl. 130. that the bounty thereby granted on white herrings, should not be paid for herrings in any barrel on which such marks had not have been set at the fishery as thereby directed, and farther (s.38.), that if any herrings packed in any such barrels shall be produced to any officer of the fishery to be branded for the bounty, all such herrings and barrels should be forfeited; and whereas herrings unpacked out of barrels, cannot be repacked into the same number of barrels, and in such cases additional barrels must be provided," IT IS ENACTED, that so much of such act shall not extend to such additional number of barrels in which such surplus herrings shall be packed, or to any barrel, or the herrings therein which shall be different from that in which the same herrings were originally cured and packed, in case such last-mentioned barrel has been rendered unfit to contain such herrings, by accidental damage, but such additional barrels of surplus herrings, or of herrings repacked from such damaged barrels, shall, on oath of the curer thereof verifying the fact, before the proper officer of the fishery, be deemed in the same plight within meaning of that and this act, as if the barrel were the same in which the herrings were originally cured and like marks were set at the fishery as by that act directed, id. s.22.

133. If the curer or proprietor of any number of barrels of herrings being packed, on which the bounty by this act and by 48 G.3. c.10. granted has been allowed, shall intend to repack the same with great salt, in the same barrels, and such additional ones as the same may require in a repacked state, he shall give 24 hours' notice in writing under his hand of his intention to the proper officer of the fishery, and if on production of the same so repacked, such curer or proprietor shall, on the request note, [which according to the regulations made under 48 G.3. c.110. s.48. pl. 153. by the commissioners, he shall have delivered to such officer,] make oath before him that the herrings contained in the barrels produced, (stating the number,) in a repacked state are the very same, without any addition whatever, which were originally in a bung-packed state, contained in that part of such barrels, (stating number,) whereof each is branded with marks denoting that such bounty was paid, and if on examination such herrings are found to be properly cured and packed, and such as white herrings on which the bounty is claimed ought to be, he shall cause all the barrels in which such herring were originally cured, and in which the greater part are now repacked, to be branded with such marks, in addition to those already branded, and the commissioners shall direct, and which shall denote that the same were repacked, and by what officer they were afterwards examined, which officer shall cause such additional barrels to be branded with the bounty mark, if the same are produced for such purpose and deemed entitled thereto, with such addition as such commissioners think fit, for denoting that it was done under this act; provided no bounty shall be paid, or certificate granted, for such additional number of barrels of herrings, but that the same shall nevertheless be liable to forfeiture in all cases where any barrels of herrings on which such bounty has been allowed, would have been, 55 G.3. c.94. s.23.

134. No barrel of herrings repacked or bung-packed, shall be deemed entitled to the bounty of 4s. per barrel hereby granted, unless 15 days shall have intervened from the day when such repacked herrings were originally cured and packed, and before the day when they were begun to be repacked, or unless a like space has intervened from and after the day when such bung-packed herrings were originally cured and packed, and before the day when the same were completely bung-packed, and if any barrel of herrings repacked or bung-packed shall be produced to any officer of the fishery to obtain such bounty, not being entitled thereto, the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any such officer, id. s.30.

135. The bounty of 4s. per barrel hereby granted, shall not be paid for any barrels of herrings bung-packed or repacked with small salt, which shall not contain, exclusive of salt and brine, 235lbs. of fish; or if bung-packed or repacked with great salt, which shall not contain, exclusive of salt and brine, 212lbs. of fish; and if any such barrels not containing such quantities, shall be tendered to any officer of the fishery to obtain such bounty, the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by such officer, id. s.31.

136. Such bounty shall not be paid in respect of any barrels of herrings unless the same is produced and branded in the presence of the proper officer of the fishery in manner directed by 48 G.3. c.110. s.56., pl. at such port as herein directed, viz. if such herrings were cured with salt stored on shore at a place where the herring fishery is carried on, then they shall be produced and branded at such place, or at some other place within such port, or at the next place without such port to which the same shall be removed; or if cured with salt carried out in a vessel fitted out for the British herring fishery, and brought thence in the same or another vessel according to 48 G.3. c.110. s.18., pl. 107. and this act, the barrels shall be branded at the port to which brought from such fishery; nor shall such bounty be paid for any barrel of herrings, unless the curer thereof, who shall produce the same to the proper officer for that purpose, shall, after the same have been so produced and inspected by such officer, make oath before him (which oath he may administer,) and which shall be written at the foot of the request note delivered by the curer to such officer for his attendance to inspect such herrings, pursuant to any regulations of the commissioners made under 48 G.3. c.110. s.48. pl. 153.) that such herrings, to the best of his knowledge and belief, were gutted and packed within 24 hours after taken, and that the same have not been before either in the same or different barrels, produced to any officer of the fishery in order to obtain the said bounty, id. s.32.

137. Such bounty of 2s. per barrel hereby granted on white herrings shall be paid to the curer on production of the fish to the proper officer of the fishery, in order to be branded and certified for the bounty, who shall examine the herrings contained in all such barrels, to ascertain whether the herrings produced will entitle the curer to such bounty, and the curer shall, on request, place the barrels in such manner as such officer shall direct, (the outsides being free from dirt or tar,) and open them and remove the herrings therein, and furnish such officer with scales and weights, and assist him in weighing the same, and on every barrel found entitled to such bounty, shall be branded by order and in the presence of the officer, such mark as the commissioners of the fishery shall direct, denoting that they are deemed proper, and whether the same are bung-packed or repacked, and the year when branded, and by order and in presence of what officer; all which being done, such officer shall give such curer a debenture for payment of such bounty, on the number of barrels so branded, which on being allowed by such commissioners, their allowance being stated in writing under their hands at the port of the debenture, such curer or his assigns shall be entitled to such bounty of 2s. per barrel, and the commissioners of ex-of the deep sea fishery, or any officer of the fishery, in execution of the powers given him by that act, shall extend to persons resisting the superintendent of the loch fishery, or any person acting under him, or any officer of the fishery, in execution of the powers hereby given to preserve order in the loch and bay herring fishery, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 9.

170. No white herrings shall be cured, packed, or put up in G. B., or on board of any vessel or boat employed in the British herring fishery, in any barrel made in whole or part of fir, or which shall not be half an inch in thickness throughout of made work, or which shall not contain 32 gallons English wine measure, on pain that all herrings packed, &c. in such barrels so made, shall with the barrels be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of the fishery, customs or excise, id. s. 12. [See on this point s. 28. post, pl. 178—179, and 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 40. ante, pl. 142. and 29 G. 2. c. 23. s. 4.]

171. The commissioners of the herring fishery shall fix by rules to be made by them, the content of every measure commonly called a cran, by which fresh herrings taken in the British herring fishery shall be bought or sold, and also the form and dimensions thereof, the wood of which to be made the thickness of each part, the number and dimensions of the hoops with which it shall be bound, and whether same shall be iron, and shall also determine what marks shall be set, and upon what parts of such measures, and appoint persons at proper places to examine the same, and upon finding such measure conformable to such rules, &c. to brand such marks upon them; and if any cran or measure not so marked, shall be used in buying, selling, or delivering of fresh herrings in the British herring fishery, or on any part of the coast of G. B., the persons using the same, shall forfeit it and 10*l.*, and the commissioners shall destroy such cran, and the provisions of 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 30. pl. 158. for the fraudulent branding of barrels shall extend to this provision, and be put in execution against any person fraudulently branding such crans with such marks, or with any marks counterfeiting the same, id. s. 13.

172. Every person buying or receiving fresh herrings, who shall, in order to ascertain the quantity thereof, use any cran or measure which, whether the same is or is not branded as by 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 13. directed, is of greater content than required by the rules of the commissioners of the herring fishery, shall forfeit the same, and also 10*l.*, to be recovered and applied as other forfeitures may be under such act; and such commissioners shall cause such cran to be burnt, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 79. s. 5.

173. Nothing in 48 G. 3. c. 110., or this act, relative to any vessels or boats fitted out for the British herring fishery with salt, netting, barrels, or other stores, or which shall proceed thereto with salt to be used in curing herrings, or on board of which herrings shall be cured, or which shall return to a port of G. B. with herrings so cured, so far as relates to the requisites directed by such act or this act to be performed by persons fitting them out, or the masters thereof, or to any penalty, &c. inflicted for the contravention of such requisites, shall extend to any boat in which salt is shipped for such fishery, or which shall return with herrings cured with such salt to any such port, provided such boat does not exceed 4 tons burthen, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 16.

174. No herrings cured otherwise than in bulk shall be mixed with those cured in bulk, whether packed or not; nor shall any herrings cured in bulk, or cured otherwise and afterwards laid in bulk, be packed in any barrel or cask, unless the same is branded with the word "Bulk," on pain that all such herrings, with the barrels containing the same, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of the fishery or customs, id. s. 24. [see post, s. 27. pl. 177.]

175. When any herrings in bulk shall be imported into any port in G. B. from the British herring fishery, or from any other port in G. B. or any of H.M.'s dominions, such herrings, on the landing thereof, shall be conveyed to a place proper for packing the same, and there shall be without delay, or within 24 hours afterwards, packed in barrels branded with the word "Bulk;" and shall not be afterwards laid in bulk, on pain that such herrings, and the barrels in which contained, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of the fishery, provided no herrings cured or laid in bulk, intended to be made into red herrings, and which, on the landing thereof, shall be conveyed to a manufactory of red herrings, shall be required to be packed in barrels so marked; nor shall any herrings cured or laid in bulk, which on landing thereof were packed in barrels branded with the word "Bulk," be forfeited for being afterwards taken out of such barrels at a manufactory of red herrings, provided the same are immediately put in process for being made into red herrings, id. s. 25.

176. All herrings, being the refuse of the manufactory of red herrings, shall be packed in barrels branded with the word "Refuse;" and all such herrings so packed in barrels, on which such word shall not remain legible, as well as all herrings whatever mixed with herrings of such description, whether packed or not, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of the fishery or customs, id. s. 26.

177. So much of this act (viz. s. 24. pl. 174.) as relates to herrings cured in bulk, shall not extend to herrings cured originally in bulk in tight vats, pite, cisterns, hogsheads, or casks of larger size, and therein preserved in the pickle produced by their original cure till the same have been packed in barrels, and having been so packed, shall not afterwards be laid in bulk; or to any herrings cured otherwise than in bulk, mixed with the herrings in s. 26. described, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 27.

178. When any white herrings, packed in barrels or casks, are imported into any port of G. B. from Ire. or the Isle of Man, or from any island or colony in H.M.'s dominions, all such barrels, &c. shall be, within 24 hours after landed, and before same warehoused, be branded with the word "Irish" if from Ire., or "Mans" if from Isle of Man; or if any other of H.M.'s dominions, a word descriptive of its name in a legible manner; nor shall they be afterwards packed in any other barrels or casks, unless they are so branded; nor shall such herrings be laid in bulk or mixed with others, unless the same be so laid or mixed in a manufactory of red herrings, for the purpose of being made into red herrings, see pl. 175. and if any white herrings so imported shall be found in bulk, or mixed with others unless as aforesaid, or packed in barrels or casks not so branded, or on which such word is not distinct, the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of the fishery or customs; provided nothing in 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 40. pl. 142. or this act (s. 12. pl. 170.) relative to the size and thickness of the barrel or half-barrel in which white herrings are packed, or against their being made of fir, or relative to the exportation of white herrings, shall extend to white herrings imported in barrels, &c. from Ire., the Isle of Man, or other H.M.'s dominions, such barrels being branded as herein directed, id. s. 28. [but see next pl.]

179. The 55 G. 3. c. 94. (s. 26.), and the regulations therein contained, so far as it relates to the white herrings contained in barrels imported into G. B., shall be Rev., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 79. s. 8.

180. Where any word is hereby directed to be branded on any barrel or cask, it shall be done on the bulge in letters of one inch and one half in length, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 29.

181. Herrings on which the bounty hereby granted is to be claimed shall be gutted with a knife in the manner practised by Dutch fishermen; and the commissioners of the herring fishery may make rules to carry this act into execution; and every person who is required by 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 35. pl. 127. to keep an account or journal of herrings cured, or to give a declaration thereof, shall besides mention therein whether the herrings taken, cured, and gutted every day, or what part thereof, were gutted wholly with a knife, and shall verify the same on oath as by such act (s. 36. pl. 130.) directed; and if any barrels or half-barrels of herrings which have been gutted otherwise than with a knife as hereby directed, shall be produced to any officer of the fishery, in order to be branded and certified for the bounty, such officer shall, in the certificate to be granted by him, distinguish such of them as have been gutted otherwise than as hereby directed, and the commissioners may disallow and withhold a part of such bounty, not exceeding 6*d.* per barrel, or 3*d.* per half barrel, id. s. 37.

182. Any vessel or boat laden at any port of G. B. with salt, in bulk or barrels, intended to be used in curing herrings in bulk or barrels by the master or crew thereof, such herrings having been taken by them on the coasts of G. B., Ire., and Isle of Man, or purchased fresh by them on any of such coasts, from the crews of other British boats by whom the same were taken, shall be deemed vessels fitted out for the British herring fishery within 48 G. 3. c. 110. and this act; and where any such vessel having been so fitted out, and having proceeded to any part of such coasts where fishing of herrings is carried on, and of which the master and crew shall have taken or purchased herrings fresh, and cured the same in bulk or barrels, shall arrive laden therewith in G. B.; or where any herrings taken or purchased and cured, have been transhipped out of any such vessel into any other vessel which shall so arrive, they shall in either case be deemed herrings brought from the British herring fishery within this and the said act, id. s. 38.

183. In case any herrings, barrels, or casks, salt, nets, or boats shall be seized as forfeited under 48 G. 3. c. 110. or this act, 3 commissioners of the herring fishery, on evidence given to their satisfaction that no fraud was intended, may order the same to be restored to the proprietors or claimants, in such manner and on such conditions as to them appear reasonable, and on compliance therewith by such proprietors, &c. the herrings, &c. shall not be proceeded against for condemnation; but if such proprietors, &c. do not comply, such condemnation shall be proceeded with, provided that if such proprietors, &c. do not comply they shall not be entitled to any recompence or damage on account of the seizure or detention of such herrings, &c. id. s. 39.

184. Any fine, penalty, or forfeiture, by 48 G. 3. c. 110., or this act imposed, except where other provision is hereby made, shall be sued for, recovered, and levied, [and mitigated 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 42.] as any fine, &c. may be sued for, &c. by the laws of customs or excise, or by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record at Westm. or in the court of exchequer in Scot., one moiety to the use of H.M. and the other to the party suing, 48 G. 3. c. 110. s. 57., 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 62.

FISHERIES (ISLE OF MAN).

185. All rules and provisions contained in 48 G. 3. c. 110., and all penalties, &c. hereby imposed, shall remain in force except, where hereby altered, 55 G. 3. c. 94. s. 45.

FISHERIES (ISLE OF MAN).

186. FOR GRANTING CERTAIN BOUNTIES IN RESPECT OF THE herring fishery carried on in the Isle of Man, 7 G. 3. c. 45. ss. 17—21. [REPEALED except as to the bounties following, and the money applied to the improvement of the harbours of such island, 11 G. 3. c. 52. s. 4. (This title is framed from these sections.) Regulations of 48 G. 3. c. 110., and the 55 G. 3. c. 94. EXT. to Isle of Man, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 79. s. 7.] The following bounties shall be paid, viz. to the admiral of the herring fishery in the Isle of Man, for each season, 5*l.*; to the vice-admiral 3*l.*; to the water-bailiff or his deputy, of the island, 20*l.*, 7 G. 3. c. 45. s. 17.

187. FOR THE FURTHER ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE HERRING FISHERY on the coasts of the Isle of Man, [and for obviating a doubt respecting bounties on the British white herring fishery in the year 1771, [EXP.] 12 G. 3. c. 58. [AMD. 25 G. 3. c. 63. s. 9., 26 G. 3. c. 81. ss. 33—37.]

188. Any sort of herrings caught on the coasts of the Isle of Man, and cured there, may be imported into G. B. on payment of the duties hereinafter imposed 12 G. 3. c. 58. s. 1. [REPEALED as to the duties, 26 G. 3. c. 81. s. 35., 49 G. 3. c. 98. s. 1., and 59 G. 3. c. 52. s. 1.; and all fish of any kind caught by the crews of ships built in the Isle of Man may be imported into G. B. duty free, 59 G. 3. c. 52. s. 37. pl. 130. Fish, &c.]

189. The master or other person having the command of any vessel importing such herrings, shall bring with him a certificate from the governor, lieutenant-governor, commander-in-chief, or chief magistrates, that oath has been made before them, in the presence of the officer of customs for the port where such herrings shall be put on board, that the same were bona fide taken on the coasts of the Isle of Man, and cured there, which certificate shall be attested by such officer of customs, and shall express the number of barrels and quantity of such herrings, and the marks of the package expressed in the bill of lading, with the name and place of abode of such deponent, and where and to whom such herrings are consigned in G. B.; and such master or person, so importing the same, shall also make oath before the collector or principal officer of the salt duties at the port of importation, that such herrings are the same that were taken on board by virtue of such certificate so to be produced, on failure whereof the herrings shall be liable to the same duty, penalties, and forfeitures, as such herrings would have been if this act had not been made, 12 G. 3. c. 58. s. 3.

190. No herrings caught on the coasts of the Isle of Man and cured there, shall be shipped or exported thence till such certificate is obtained as by 12 G. 3. c. 58. s. 3., required under the penalty of 40*s.* a barrel, and so in proportion, to be recovered of the owner or master of the vessel, or of the exporter, and also giving bond to H. M. in double the amount of duty to be taken by the chief officer of customs at the port of exportation for the due landing thereof at the port for which shipped, and if for G. B., on paying the duty and making oath on the importation thereof, which bond shall be discharged without fee, upon certificate returned or produced to such officer within 12 months from the date of such bond; or otherwise such officer may put the bond in suit; which certificate the chief officer of salt duties, or if none, the chief officer of customs at the port of importation in G. B., or other H. M.'s dominions, shall grant without fee, and if exported to any place out of H. M.'s dominions, then on certificate under the common seal of the chief magistrate there, or of 2 British merchants being there, or on proof by 2 persons that such herrings were taken by enemies, perished in the sea, or were otherwise lost by accident, the examination and proof thereof being left to the governor, commander-in-chief, or chief magistrates of the Isle of Man, 25 G. 3. c. 63. s. 9.

191. The oath required by 12 G. 3. c. 58. to be taken before the governor, &c. of the Isle of Man, may be taken before the chief officer of the revenue at the port where such herrings are shipped, who shall administer the same, and grant a certificate thereof under his hand and seal of office, 26 G. 3. c. 81. s. 37.

192. Any of H. M.'s subjects inhabiting in the Isle of Man, may export from thence, and import into any of the British colonies in America in British ships, manned and navigated according to 12 C. 2. c. 18. herrings caught and cured by them, in the same way as victuals of and from Ire. may be imported into the colonies or plantations by the 15 C. 2. c. 7., 12 G. 3. c. 58. s. 4.

193. Any fishermen inhabiting the Isle of Man, may load there on board any vessel or boat employed in the fishery on the coasts of such island, any quantity of salt, which shall be sufficient for curing the cargo of herrings taken by such boat, bond being first given to H. M. with one surety, besides the master, to be approved of by the collector or other principal officer of the revenue, at the port from whence such vessel shall depart, in the penalty of 50*l.* for every ton of salt so taken on board, with condition that the same shall be used only in curing herrings, and shall not be landed in G. B., or transhipped into any other vessel, and on the return of such vessel from the fishery into any port of the Isle of Man, the master, and one of such vessel's crew shall make oath before the collector or other principal officer of the revenue at the nearest port where they arrive, (which oath such officer shall administer,) that the salt so laden (excepting such as may remain unused on board) has been really expended in curing herrings caught by them, and that no part thereof had been landed in G. B. or transhipped; which bond shall continue in force for one year from after the completion of the voyage, and in case no fraud appears within that time, the receiver general of H. M.'s revenue in the Isle of Man, or his deputy shall cancel and deliver up the same, 12 G. 3. c. 58. s. 5.

194. A bounty of 1*s.* per barrel shall be paid for all herrings caught by the inhabitants of the Isle of Man, and landed thereat, which bounty shall be exclusive of all bounties payable on the exportation of herrings to foreign parts, and shall be paid out of the surplussage of the annual customs of such island by the receiver general of the customs on the owners of such herrings complying with the rules, and being subject to the like penalties in case of re-landing, or any other fraudulent practice to obtain such bounty as by this act directed with regard to British caught herrings landed in G. B., 26 G. 3. c. 81. s. 33.

195. All such herrings as shall be caught and cured by the inhabitants of the Isle of Man, and exported thence, or from G. B. to foreign parts, shall, on exportation thereof, be entitled to the bounty of 2*s.* 8*d.* per barrel on white herrings, and 1*s.* 9*d.* per barrel on red herrings so exported as by 5 G. 1. c. 18. s. 6. pl. 15. FISHERIES (British), are granted; which bounty shall, on such white or red herrings exported directly from the Isle of Man to foreign parts, be payable out of the same funds and in the same manner as by s. 33. directed, and on such herrings exported from G. B. to foreign parts, shall, on the owners thereof producing proper certificates, (signed by the chief officer of H. M.'s revenues in such island,) of such owners having taken the like oaths, and conformed to ss. 24—25. FISHERIES (British), pl. 32, 33, of this act, be payable from the same funds, and paid under the like conditions and penalties in case of re-landing such herrings, or of any other fraudulent practice to obtain such bounty as by 5 G. 1. c. 18. and this act directed with regard to such herrings cured and exported from G. B., id. s. 54. [the bounty c. 18. s. 6. are REPEALED as being payable out of the excise, by 45 G.]

196. The like penalties as in s. 32, ante, FISHERIES (British), pl. 35., provided with respect to officers taking fees for any transaction relative to the fisheries shall extend to the fisheries of the Isle of Man, id. s. 36.

FISHERIES (NEWFOUNDLAND).

(STATUTES in force.)

202. No person shall collect in Newfoundland any toll or duty for cod, or other fish of English catching, under pain to forfeit double the value thereof, and no person shall cast or lay any seine or other net in or near any harbour in Newfoundland, whereby the young fry of the poor-john may be destroyed, except for taking bait, upon pain to lose the same, and the fish taken with them, or the value thereof, to be recovered in any court in Newfoundland, or any court of record in Eng. or W.a., wherein no essoin, &c., 15 C. 2. c. 16. s. 1.

203. No person shall destroy or steal any boat, cask, salt, nets, or utensils for fishing, or making oil or other goods left in any harbour in Newfoundland, or Greenland, by English, or burn or destroy any house built there by English to live in during the fishing season, or stage built by them for saving or ordering of fish, or making of oil, upon pain of the loss of double the value to be recovered in the courts at Newfoundland, or Greenland, or in any court of record in Eng., by action, wherein no essoin, &c. id. s. 2.

204. TO ENCOURAGE THE TRADE TO Newfoundland, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 25. [AMD. as to importing blubber, 59 G. 3. c. 52. ss. 58, 59.]

205. All H. M.'s subjects residing in Eng., or the dominions thereunto belonging, that shall trade to Newfoundland, or any of the islands adjoining, shall have the free trade and fishery to and from Newfoundland, and the freedom of taking bait and fishing in any of the rivers, lakes, creeks, harbours or roads, in or about Newfoundland, or the islands adjacent, and liberty to go on shore on any part of Newfoundland, or such islands, for the curing, salting, drying and husbanding of their fish, and for making of oil, and to cut wood and trees there for building and making of stages, ship-rooms, train-fats, hurdles, ships boats and other necessities, as fully as at any time heretofore; and no stranger (not residing in Eng., W.a., or Ber.) shall take bait, or use any trade or fishing in Newfoundland, or in any of such islands, id. s. 1.

206. No ballast, prest-stones, or any thing hurtful to the harbours there, shall be thrown out of any ship or otherwise, to the prejudice of the harbours, but all such ballast and other things shall be carried on shore, and laid where they may do no annoyance, id. s. 2.

207. No person shall destroy or do any detriment to any such stage or cook-room, or to the flakes, spikes, nails, or any other thing thereto belonging, as he shall fall into at his coming into the country; but shall content himself with such stages as are needful; and shall at his departure leave all such stages without doing any wilful damage; and the repairing of such stages, during his abode there, shall be done with timber fetched out of the woods there, and not by ruining or injuring the stages of any other persons, id. s. 3.

208. According to ancient custom, every such fishing ship from Eng., &c., or such fishermen as shall first enter any harbour or creek in Newfoundland in behalf of his ship, shall be admiral of such harbour or creek during that season, and shall reserve to himself so much beech or flakes as are needful for the number of such boats as he shall use, with an overplus only for one boat more; and the master of every such second fishing ship shall be vice-admiral; and the master of such fishing ship next coming shall be rear-admiral; and the master of every fishing ship there, shall content himself with such beech or flakes as he shall have necessary use for, without keeping any more to the prejudice of any other ship; and persons possessed of several places in several harbours or creeks shall make their election of such place as they shall choose to abide in; and within 48 hours after any after-comer shall demand their resolution touching such election, (or so soon after as the weather will permit,) give their resolution to such after-comer touching such election; and in case any difference arise touching such matters, the admirals of the harbours, or two of them, shall proportion the place to the ships in the harbours they fish in, according to the number of boats which each ship shall keep, id. s. 4.

209. No person shall take up or possess any of the stages, cook-rooms, beeches, or other places, which since 1685 did, or at any time hereafter shall, belong to any fishing ship for taking bait or fishing, or for drying, curing, or husbanding of fish, before the arrival of the fishing ships out of Eng., &c., and until such ships shall be provided with stages, &c., id. s. 6.

210. Provided that such persons as shall build, cut out or make any houses, stages, cook-rooms, train-fats, or other conveniences for fishing there, may enjoy the same to their own use, id. s. 7.

211. Persons that shall go with their servants to Newfoundland to keep boats on a fishing voyage, called by-boat-keepers, shall not meddle with any house, stage, cook-room, train-fat, or other convenience that did belong to fishing ships since the year 1685, or shall be cut out or made by ships since 1700, id. s. 8.

212. Every master of a by-boat shall carry at least two fresh men in six; viz. one man that hath made no more than one voyage, and one man who hath never been at sea before; and every inhabitant shall employ two such fresh men for every boat kept by them; and all masters of fishing ships shall carry in their ship's company at least one such fresh man, that never was at sea before, in every five men they carry; and the master of each by-boat and fishing ship, shall make oath before the collector, or principal officer of the customs of the port from whence such ship intends to sail, that each ship and by-boat's company have such fresh men therein; and such officers shall administer such oath, and give a certificate thereof without fee, id. s. 9.

213. Every master or owner of any fishing ship going to Newfound- land, shall have in his ship's company every fifth man a green-man; viz. not a seaman or having been at sea before, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 25. s. 10.

214. No person shall obliterate or alter the mark of any boats or train-fats belonging to any other persons to prejudice the right owners, nor convert to his own use any boats or train-fats belonging to other persons, without their consent, nor remove the same from the place where they were left by the owners, except in case of necessity, and upon giving notice to the admiral of the harbour where left, id. s. 11.

215. No person shall rind any trees there growing, nor set on fire any of the woods of the country, or do any damage to the same, except for necessary fuel, and for the building and repairs of houses, ships, boats and train-fats, and of the stages, cook-rooms, beeches and other places, for taking bait and fishing, and for drying, curing and husbanding fish there; and no person shall cast anchor, or do any other thing, to the hindering of the haling of sayns in the accustomed baiting places, or shoot their sayns within or upon the sayns of any other persons; and no person shall take out of the nets of any other persons lying adrift, or drover, for bait by night, nor take away any bait out of any fishing boat or any nets belonging to any other person, id. s. 12.

216. All robberies, murders, felonies, and other capital crimes, committed upon land in Newfoundland, or any of the islands thereunto belonging, may be inquired of, tried, heard and determined, in any country of Eng., by commission of oyer and terminer and gaol-delivery, according to the laws of this land for punishment of such crimes committed within this realm, id. s. 13.

217. The admirals of every harbour in Newfoundland shall see the orders in this act, concerning the regulation of the fishery there, duly put in execution; and each of such admirals shall yearly keep a journal of the number of all ships, boats, stages and train-fats, and of all the seamen belonging to each of their harbours, and shall at their return to Eng. deliver a copy thereof to H. M.'s privy council, id. s. 14.

218. In case any difference shall arise in Newfoundland, or the islands adjoining, between the masters of fishing ships and the inhabitants, or any by-boat-keeper, concerning the right of fishing rooms, stages, flakes, or other building or conveniency for fishing or curing of fish, in the harbours or coves, the same shall be determined by the fishing admirals in the several harbours and coves; and in case any masters of fishing ships, by-boat-keepers or inhabitants shall appeal to the commanders of any of H. M.'s ships of war, appointed as convoys for Newfoundland, such commander shall determine the same, id. s. 15.

219. All the inhabitants of Newfoundland, or the islands adjacent, shall strictly observe every Lord's day; and none who keep any public house for entertainment shall entertain or utter upon any Sunday, any wine, beer, ale, cyder, strong waters or tobe-co, or any other liquor, id. s. 16.

220. Whale fins, oil and blubber, imported by Greenland merchants, and may be imported duty free, id. s. 17. [But see now 59 G. 3. c. 52. schedule A. Inwards, tit. WHALE OIL.]

221. Before any blubber, train oil, spermaceti oil, head matter, or whale fins, the produce of fish or marine creatures imported into G.B., as being taken and caught on the banks and shores of the island of Newfoundland, and parts adjacent wholly by H. M.'s subjects carrying on such fishery from that island, or as being taken and caught wholly by H. M.'s subjects usually residing in any of the Bahama or Bermuda islands, or as being caught in the gulf of St Lawrence, or on the shores of any British colony or plantation in America, or the parts adjacent, wholly by H. M.'s subjects usually residing there, and carrying on such fishery from thence, shall be admitted to entry on payment of the duty imposed thereon by this act, the master or person having the command of the vessel importing the same, shall deliver to the chief officer of customs at the port of importation a certificate under the hand and seal of the governor or deputy-governor of Newfoundland, or such other British colony, or of the chief officer of customs of the port in Newfoundland, or in such other British colony where such train oil, &c. was taken on board, or if no such officers, then under the hand and seal of the naval officer or other principal officer of such port, or of a justice of peace for the district, testifying that oath was made before him (who shall administer such oath and grant such certificate) by the shipper thereof, that the same was really and bonâ fide the produce of fish or marine creatures actually caught and taken wholly by H. M.'s subjects carrying on such fishery, and usually residing in such island of Newfoundland, or in H. M.'s European dominions, or in such other British colony, &c. and carrying on such fishery from thence; and such master or person commanding such importing vessel, shall make oath before the chief officer of customs at the port of importation (who shall administer the same,) that the blubber, train oil, &c. so imported is the same as that mentioned in such certificate, and the importers or consignees thereof shall also make oath before such officer, (who shall administer the same,) at the time of entry, that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the blubber, &c. so imported was actually caught by British subjects usually residing and carrying on such fishery as last aforesaid, and on failure of such certificate and proof made, such blubber, train oil, &c. shall be deemed foreign fishing, and be charged with duty as on such articles of foreign fishing, 59 G.3. c. 52. s. 38.

222. The payment of the duties hereby imposed on importation of train oil, &c. the produce of fish or marine creatures taken and caught on the banks and shores of Newfoundland, and parts adjacent, wholly by H. M.'s subjects carrying on such fishery from such island, shall be suspended until 5th July 1824, but the same shall be duly entered, 59 G.3. c. 52. s. 39.

223. TO PERMIT THE FREE IMPORTATION OF CODFISH, ling and hake caught and cured in Chaleur Bay, or any other part of the gulf of St. Lawrence, or on the coast of Labrador, 13 G.3. c. 72.

224. All codfish, ling and hake caught and cured in Chaleur Bay, or any part of the gulf of St. Lawrence, or on the coast of Labrador, may be imported in British built vessels navigated according to law, and subject to the rules, &c. of 10 & 11 W.3. c. 25. and be landed in G. B., so an oath be made before the landing thereof, by the owner of the fish, or master of the vessel bringing the same, before the officer of the salt duties at the port of importation, (who shall administer the same without fee,) that all fish so imported came from such gulf or coast, and were caught and cured there; and so as before such fish is landed, part of their tails are cut off by the officer of the port, that no allowance be made for the same on exportation; and in case any such fish be landed before their tails, &c. are so cut, all fish so imported and landed shall be forfeited, and double the value thereof; to be recovered of the importer, proprietor, or master of the vessel, id. s. 1.

225. Masters of vessels laden with such fish coming from Newfoundland, or such gulf or coast, into any port of G. B., shall throw overboard all the salt that shall fall off such fish or be in the vessel at the time of unloading or landing such fish in the presence of an officer of the salt duties, or in case of neglect, such officer shall throw it overboard, and the master shall forfeit 20*l.* and costs; and if any of it is landed, the same and treble the value thereof shall be forfeited, and all persons in whose custody the same is found and who shall aid, &c. in the landing thereof, shall forfeit 20*l.* and costs, one moiety of such forfeitures to go to H. M. and the other to the prosecutor, to be recovered, levied and mitigated as any excise forfeitures may be, or by action of debt, &c. or information in any court at Westminster, or the exchequer of Scot. wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 2.

226. TO ENABLE H. M. TO MAKE SUCH REGULATIONS as may be necessary to prevent the inconvenience which might arise from the competition of H. M.'s subjects, and those of the most Christian king, in carrying on the fishery on the coasts of the island of Newfoundland, 28 G.3. c. 35.

227. After reciting the treaties of Utrecht of 1713, of Paris of 1763, and of Versailles of 1783, and the declaration of the French king of 3d Sept. 1783, IT IS ENACTED, that H. M. may, by advice of council, give such orders and instructions to the governor of Newfoundland, or any officer on that station, as he shall deem proper, to fulfil the purposes of the treaty and declaration of 1783, and if necessary to that end, may give orders to such governor or officer to remove any stages, flakes, train-fits or other works for the purpose of carrying on such fishery erected by H. M.'s subjects on the coast of Newfoundland, between Cape St. John, passing to the north, and descending by the western coast to Cape Reger; and also all vessels of H. M.'s subjects found within such limits, and also in case of refusal to depart, to compel them so to do, id. s. 1.

228. Every person who shall refuse on request by such governor or officer, in pursuance of such order of H. M. to depart from such limits or otherwise to conform to such request, shall forfeit 200*l.*, to be recovered in the court of session, or court of vice-admiralty in such island of Newfoundland, or by bill, plaint or information in the courts of Westminster, one moiety to go to H. M., and the other to the party suing; provided that such suit, if commenced in Newfoundland, is commenced within 3 months, and if in the courts of Westminster within 12 months from the time when the offence was committed, id. s. 2.

229. NO FISH TAKEN OR CAUGHT BY ANY OF H. M.'s subjects, or other persons arriving at Newfoundland, or its dependencies, or on the banks of such island, except from G. B., or one of the British dominions in Europe, shall be permitted to be landed or dried on such island, always excepting the rights granted by treaty to the French king, beginning at Cape St. John, passing to the north, and descending by the western coast to Cape Reger (or Rage), 29 G.3. c. 53. s. 1. [This act has been continued only as to the Greenland fishery, but there is no clause of expiration attached to it. See the rest of the act, FISHERY (Whale).]

230. TO ENABLE H. M. TO MAKE REGULATIONS with respect to the taking and curing fish on certain parts of the coast of Newfoundland, Labrador, and H. M.'s other possessions in North America, according to a convention made between H. M. and the United States of America, 69 G.3. c. 38.

231. "Whereas a convention between H. M. and the United States of America, was made and signed at London, on the 20th Oct. 1818, and by the first article thereof, reciting that differences had arisen respecting the liberty claimed by the United States for the inhabitants thereof to take, dry, and cure fish in certain coasts, bays, harbours, and creeks of H. M.'s dominions in America, it is agreed that the inhabitants of the said United States shall have for ever, in common with the subjects of H. M., the liberty to take fish of every kind on that part of the southern coast of Newfoundland, which extends from Cape Ray to the Rameau islands on the western and northern coasts of Newfoundland, from the said Cape Ray to the Quirpon islands, on the shores of the Magdalen islands, and also on the coasts, bays, harbours, and creeks from Mount Joly on the southern coasts of Labrador, to and through the Straits of Belleisle, and thence northwardly indefinitely along the coast, without prejudice however to any of the exclusive rights of the Hudson's Bay company; and it was also by the said article of the said convention agreed, that the American fishermen should have liberty for ever to dry and cure fish in any of the unsettled bays, harbours, and creeks of the southern part of the coast of Newfoundland above described, and of the coast of Labrador, but that so soon as the same, or any portion thereof should be settled, it should not be lawful for the said fishermen to dry or cure fish at such portion so settled, without previous agreement for such purpose with the inhabitants, proprietors, or possessors of the ground; and whereas it is expedient to carry into execution so much of the said convention as is above recited," it is enacted, that H. M., with the advice of his privy council, by orders in council, may make such regulations, and give such directions, orders, and instructions to governor of Newfoundland, or to any officers on that station, or other persons, as shall be necessary for the carrying into effect the purposes of the said convention, 59 G.3. c. 38. s. 1.

232. No person, not being a natural born subject, in any foreign ship, vessel, or boat, nor any person in any ship, vessel, or boat, other than such as shall be navigated according to the laws of the U.K., shall fish for or take, dry or cure any fish of any kind whatever within 3 marine miles of any coasts, bays, creeks, or harbours whatever, in any part of H. M.'s dominions in America, not included within such limits above specified; upon pain that all such ships, vessels, and boats, together with their cargoes, and all guns, ammunition, tackle, apparel, furniture, and stores, shall be forfeited, and may be seized and prosecuted, and condemned as ships, vessels, or boats, for any offence against any laws of customs or trade and navigation; but nothing in this act shall apply to the ships or subjects of any prince, power, or state in amity, who are entitled by treaty to any privilege of taking, drying, or curing fish, within the limits in this act described, id. s. 2.

233. Any fishermen of such United States, may enter into such bays, &c. of H. M.'s dominions in America, as are last mentioned, for the purpose of shelter, and repairing damages therein, and of purchasing wood, and obtaining water, and for no other, subject to such restrictions as shall be made by any order in council under this act, and by any regulations which shall be issued by the governor in any such parts of America, under such orders in council, id. s. 3.

234. If any person upon the requisition of the governor of Newfoundland, or by any other governor in any other part of British America, or by any officer acting under their orders, in execution of any order of H. M. in council, shall refuse to depart from such bays, &c. or shall neglect to conform to regulations which shall be made under this act, he shall forfeit 200*l.* to be recovered in the superior court of judicature at Newfoundland, or at any settlement in which the offence was committed, or by bill or information in any court of record at Westminster, to go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party suing; provided that if such suit be brought in Newfoundland, or such other settlements, it shall be commenced within 3 calendar months, and if in the courts at Westminster within 12 calendar months from the time of the commission of the offence, id. s. 4.

FISHERY (OYSTER).

235. FOR THE BETTER PROTECTING THE SEVERAL OYSTER fisheries within this kingdom, 31 G.3. c. 51. (PUBLIC clause, s. 10.) [AMD. as to such fisheries within Eng., 48 G.3. c. 144.]

236. Any person who shall with any net, trawl, dredge, or other instrument or engine, take or catch any oysters, or oyster brood, or shall dredge for oysters, or oyster brood, or use any oyster-dredge, or net, &c. within the limits of any oyster fishery of this kingdom, for the purpose of taking or catching oysters or oyster-brood, though no oysters, &c. are actually taken, or shall with any net, &c. drag on the ground of such fishery, (not being lawfully entitled to take oysters therein,) shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be prosecuted by indictment, at the assizes or general quarter sessions for the county or division in which such fishery shall lie; and such sessions shall determine such offences, and on conviction by verdict, or confession, such offender may be punished by fine and imprisonment, or either of them, at the discretion of the court, such fine not to exceed 20*l.*, nor be less than 40*s.*, and such imprisonment not to be for more than 3, nor less than one month, 31 G.3. c.51. s.1. [Qu. how far repealed by 48 G.3. c.144. s.1. and 5.2.]

237. Every person who shall knowingly and wilfully steal, take, and carry away, any oysters, or oyster brood from any oyster bed, laying, or fishery, being the property of any person or body corporate, and sufficiently marked out as such, shall be guilty of felony, and may be transported for not exceeding 7 years or imprisoned and kept to hard labour in any gaol, house of correction, or penitentiary, or imprisoned only for not exceeding 3 years, as the court may adjudge, 48 G.3. c.144. s.1.

238. Nothing in this act shall subject to its penalties any person who shall take away any oysters or oyster brood from any bed, laying, or fishery, under a claim of right to the same, id. s.2.

239. Nothing in this act shall prevent any person from taking, or fishing for any floating fish in the waters or creeks within the limits of any oyster fishery, with any net or engine fitted for catching floating fish only, 31 G.3. c.51. s.2.

240. It shall be lawful for any justice, acting for any county or division wherein any offence shall be committed contrary to this act, on complaint and oath before him, that any person (except as in s.1. pl. 236.) hath within 30 days preceeding, taken any oysters or oyster brood within the limits of any oyster fishery, or dredged for the same, or used any oyster dredge, net, or engine, within such limits, for the purpose of catching the same, though none be actually taken; or with any net, &c. dragged on the ground of any oyster fishery, to issue his warrant for apprehending the offender, and bringing him before himself, or other such justice; who shall, if he see cause, commit him to the common gaol till the next assizes or quarter sessions, which ever shall first happen, unless such person enter into recognizance with two good sureties in 20*l.* each, to appear either at the next assizes or quarter sessions, to answer to any indictment preferred against him under this act, id. s.3.

241. Justices of peace for boroughs, towns corporate, or other places, not being counties, may act in all cases arising within their jurisdiction, as a justice for a county may in execution of 31 G.3. c.51., or any law made for protecting such fisheries, 48 G.3. c.144. s.4.

242. If any person (except as in s.1. pl. 236.) be found actually taking any oysters or oyster brood, or dredging for the same, or using any oyster dredge, net, or engine, within any oyster fishery, for the purpose of taking any oysters or oyster brood, though none be actually taken, or with any net or engine dragging on the ground of any such fishery, any person being owner, lessee, or occupier thereof, or otherwise lawfully entitled to catch oysters thereon, and his apprentice or servant (in case the offender shall, on being required so to do, refuse to discover his real name and place of abode) may seize and secure every such offender, and carry him before any such justice, as in s.3. pl. 240. who shall, on oath made before him of the offence against this act, for which he was seized, proceed against him as if apprehended under s.3. pl. 240. of this act, 31 G.3. c.51. s.4.

243. No justice shall commit any person under this act, or take security from him for his appearance, as in s.3. pl. 240. unless one householder being an owner, lessee of, or otherwise entitled to catch oysters in the oyster fishery wherein the offence was committed, (and whose oath that he is such owner, &c. shall be sufficient evidence thereof before such justice) shall enter into recognizance before such justice in 20*l.* for his appearance either at the next assizes or quarter sessions for the county, &c. and there preferring an indictment against the person so bound to appear by recognizance (as in s.3.), id. s.5.

244. If at any time after any person shall have been committed in pursuance of this act, two good sureties shall, before the justice by whom the commitment was made, or before any other such justice, as in s.3. pl. 240. enter into recognizance in penalty of 20*l.* each for the appearance of the person so committed, at the next assizes or quarter sessions which shall first happen, to answer to any indictment preferred against him under this act, such justice may, by warrant, discharge him from custody, id. s.6.

245. Nothing in this act shall repeal, alter, or affect any statutes relating to particular oyster fisheries, id. s.7.

246. Nothing in this act shall prevent any person from prosecuting at common law, for any offence herein-before described, as if this act had not been made; but when persons are punished under this act, they shall not be liable to other prosecution for the same offence, id. s.8.

247. No action shall be brought against any person for any arrest made, or other thing done by virtue of this act, until after 21 days notice thereof in writing given to the intended defendant, or left at his abode, setting forth the cause of action; and such action shall be brought within 6 calendar months after, and in the county where the cause of action arose; and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if either of these particulars are omitted, or if such action is brought after tender of amends to the party grieved, a verdict shall be entered for the defendant; and in all cases where a verdict is found or entered for the defendant, or if the plaintiff shall discontinue the same after appearance, or shall be nonsuited, or have judgment against him on demurrer, the defendant shall have double costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, 31 G.3. s.9.

248. It shall be sufficient, in any indictment under this act, or 31 G.3. c.51. to describe, either by name or otherwise, the bed, laying, or fishery, in which the offence was committed, without stating the same to be in any particular parish; and when the offence is committed on the border of any county, so as to make it difficult to ascertain the county, such offence may be stated to have been committed in the county where the indictment is preferred, being either the county in which the offence was committed, or the adjoining county, 48 G.3. c.144. s.3.

249. Nothing herein shall repeal any part of 31 G.3. c.51. except so far as the same respects the stealing and taking of oysters from any oyster bed, laying, or fishery, id. s.5.

FISHERY (PILCHARD).

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

250. FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE PILCHARD FISHERY, by allowing a further bounty on pilchards taken, cured, and exported, 31 G.3. c.45. [Con. 37 G.3. c.94. REP. 38 G.3. c.89. s.1. and new bounty granted, id. s.3., which is REP. 43 G.3. c.69. s.1. and revived by mistake, 45 G.3. c.102.; and see the mistake noticed 52 G.3. c.42.]

251. FOR REPEALING THE BOUNTIES BY 5 G.1. c.18. s.6. 3 G.2. c.20. s.7. and 31 G.3. c.45. granted on pilchards and sands exported, and granting others in lieu thereof, 38 G.3. c.89. ss. 1. 3. (this title is framed from these sections.) [additional bounty granted, 39 G.3. c.65. ss. 1—3. and all such bounties REP. 43 G.3. c.69. s.1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

252. FOR THE BETTER PRESERVATION OF FISHING IN THE COUNTIES OF Somerset, Devon, and Cornwall, and for the relief of bakers, conders, and fishermen, against malicious suits, 1 J.1. c.23. (and recital in ss. 1, 2.)

253. All watchmen, bakers, huors, conders, directors, and guidors, and all such fishermen as shall necessarily attend the seines or nets at the times of fishing for herrings, pilchards, and other seine fish, within such counties where such fish are taken, may enter upon any lands, &c. lying near such fishing places, fit to watch and balk in, and carry such fish on shore, and therein watch for such fish and balk the fishermen taking the same, id. s.3.

254. If any action is brought against any person for entering such lands for such purposes, or for landing fish there, the defendant may plead not guilty for any thing done under this act, and give the whole matter in evidence; and after issue tried for the defendants, or non-suit of the plaintiffs after appearance, such defendants may recover damages by reason of such vexation in that behalf, with costs, and that to be assessed by the same jury that shall try the issue, or else by writ of enquiry, for which costs and damages the defendant may sue forth execution as a defendant in replevin may, id. s.4.

255. FOR THE REGULATION OF THE PILCHARD FISHING in the counties of Devon and Cornwall, 13 & 14 C.2. c.28. and recital in s.1.

256. No person shall, from 1st June to the last day of Nov., take fish in the high sea, or in any bay, port, creek, or coast, belonging to Cornwall or Devon, with any draft net, trammel, or stream net, or other nets of that kind, unless it be at one league and an half from the shore, upon pain to forfeit such nets, or the value thereof, and one month's imprisonment without bail, &c., id. s.2.

257. If any persons, not being owners, partners, or adventurers in the craft of fishery, and in the boats or seines thereunto belonging, shall make any pilchards or sunthoes in cask, to be sold or transported, except they buy such fish of such owners, &c. or with their express allowance, they shall forfeit such pilchards, &c. and the cask thereof, or the value thereof, to go in moieties to H.M., and the party suing by bill or information, id. s.3.

258. Every person who shall fraudulently purloin, embezzle, hide, convey, carry away, or dispose of by sale or otherwise, or cause it to be done, out of the nets, boats, or cellars, any pilchard fish without the leave of the proper owner, shall forfeit treble the value to the party grieved, and be sent to the house of correction for 3 months, id. s.4.

259. If any idle or suspicious persons shall in the night flock about the boats, nets, or cellars, of any pilchard craft upon such coasts, and are warned to be gone, they shall, on complaint to one justice of their refusing to go, pay 5*s.* to the poor of the parish, where the offence was committed, and be set in the stocks for 5 hours, id. s.5.

260. FOR THE FURTHER ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE PILCHARD FISHERY by allowing a further bounty on pilchards taken, cured, and exported, 35 G.3. c.58. (PUBLIC clause, s.6.) [Con. 26 G.3. c.48. which, together with ss. 1—3. of 24 G.3. c.58., are EXP.]

361. ALL BOUNTIES ON EXPORTATION OF PILCHARDS REP. and a bounty of 7s. granted on every cask or vessel of pilchards or scads containing 50 gallons, duly exported to foreign parts, and an additional bounty of 1s. 6d. thereon until 24th June, 1805, and likewise a bounty on all pilchards exported directly to the British West Indies or the Mediterranean in casks of 32 gallons, proportional to that of pilchards exported in casks of 50 gallons, 43 G. 3. c. 69. s. 1. and sched. C. tit. SALT. [such additional bounty OMITTED by mistake to have been continued, and 51 G. 3. c. 45. continued instead by 45 G. 3. c. 102., but REV. and CON. 52 G. 3. c. 42., and until 24th June, 1826; and such additional bounty, and such other bounty by 43 G. 3. c. 69. granted on pilchards exported, EXT. in due proportion to and paid for all pilchards exported in casks of 32 gallons or upwards to foreign parts, 59 G. 3. c. 77.]

362. The same rules and regulations shall be in force with respect to pilchards heretofore exported, and to prevent the relanding of the same, and the owners thereof shall be subject to the like penalties, in case of fraud or fraudulent proceedings, as by 5 G. 1. c. 18. s. 6. pl. 15. inflicted and prescribed, 25 G. 3. c. 58. s. 2. [and see the provisions of former acts then in force, to be in force with regard to the bounties, &c. hereby granted, 43 G. 3. c. 69. s. 4. See these provisions, FISHERY (British), ante, pl. 15, &c.]

263. "Whereas boats of a peculiar construction are necessary to be employed in the pilchard fishery, and which boats, by 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 47. s. 4. are subject to be forfeited, unless licensed as thereby directed," IT IS ENACTED, that the officers of the salt duties in any port, harbour, or creek of this kingdom, may, on demand of the owners of such boats and on security given, grant to such owner a licence subscribed by him, specifying the tonnage of such boat, and describing the built thereof, with respect to length and breadth, and who is the owner, which licence such officer shall register and grant without fee; and such owner shall give such security by bond to H. M. in double the value of such boat to be approved of by such officer, and which bond such officer shall provide without other fee than the stamp duties thereon, with condition that such boat shall not be employed in the importation or landing of tea or foreign spirituous liquors, or any prohibited or other goods, contrary to the said or any other act, or in the exportation of any prohibited goods, or in the relanding of any goods contrary to law, which are entered outwards for exportation for any bounty or drawback, or which are or may be prohibited to be used or worn in G. R., on failure whereof such licence shall be void, and the boat liable to seizure, as if no licence had been granted, 25 G. 3. c. 58. s. 4.

264. Persons sued for any thing done under this act may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues, or forbears to prosecute such action, or if verdict passes against him, the defendant shall have double costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 5.

265. FOR EXTENDING THE BOUNTY NOW PAYABLE ON PILCHARDS exported to the West Indies or Mediterranean, to pilchards exported to any parts beyond seas, 48 G. 3. c. 68.

366. For every cask of pilchards or scads containing 32 gallons or upwards, exported from G. B. to any foreign parts, there shall be allowed the same bounty as is payable on the like exportation to the West Indies or the Mediterranean in casks of 32 gallons or upwards, and the same shall be allowed for the like period and under the like regulations, as the bounties payable on such exportation to the West Indies, &c. are, id. ibid.

FISHERY (SALMON).

267. A PENALTY FOR TAKING OF SALMONS at certain times of the year, 13 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 47. [CONF. and AMD. 13 R. 2. S. 1. c. 19. and 17 R. 2. c. 9.; as to the destruction of the small fry of fish in general, 1 E. 1. c. 17. ante, Fish, &c. pl. 22.; and see, as to the preservation of salmon in rivers within the counties of Hants. and Wills., 44 & 5 A. c. 17. which is AMD. 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 18. ss. 11—13. 37 G. 3. c. 95.; and in the rivers Severn, (and see also as to the Severn local act, 30 C. 2. S. 1. c. 9.) Dee, Wye, Teame, Werra, Tees, Ribble, (but altered as to the Ribble, by 25 G. 2. c. 26. ss. 7—9.), Mersey, Dun, Air, Ouse, Swale, Calder, Wharf, Eure, Darwent, and Trent, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 18. ss. 14—18., and as to certain rivers in Devonshire, 43 G. 3. c. lxi., all which acts are local, and therefore omitted, except 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 18., which see post, pl. 271.]

268. The waters of Humber, Ouse, Trent, Done, Arre, Derwent, Wharfedale, Nid, Yore, Swale, Tees, Tyne, Eden, and all other waters wherein salmon be taken, shall be in defence for taking salmon, from the Nativity of our Lady unto St. Martin's day, (viz. from 8 Sept. to 11 Nov., see 2 Inst. 478.); and the young salmon shall not be taken or destroyed by nets, nor other engines, at mill pools, from the midst of April unto the Nativity of St. John the Baptist; and in places where such rivers be, there shall be assigned overseers of this statute, which being sworn, shall oftentimes enquire of the offenders; and for the first trespass, they shall be punished by the burning of their nets and engines; and for the 2d shall be imprisoned a quarter of a year; and for the 3d offence for one year, and as the trespass increases so shall the punishment, 13 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 47.

269. The St. West. Sec. c. 47., shall be confirmed, and young salmon shall not be taken at mill-pools or elsewhere; and none shall put in the Thames, Humber, Ouse, Trent, nor other waters, any nets called stalkers, nor other engines, by which the fry or the breed of salmon, lampreys or other fish, may be taken; upon the pain in the act aforesaid. And the waters of Lyne, Wyre, Mersey, Ribble, but see ante pl. 267., and all other waters in the county of Lancaster shall be put in defence, as to the taking of salmon, from Michaelmas-day to the Purification, and in no other time; and where such rivers be, there shall be assigned and sworn conservators of this statute, as in the statute of Westminster; and they shall punish the offenders after the pain contained in such statute, 13 R. 2. S. 1. c. 19.

270. The justices of peace of all counties shall be conservators of the statutes West. Sec. c. 47., and 13 R. 2. c. 19., and survey offences against such acts, and they shall survey all the weirs in such rivers, that they be not too strait, for the destruction of fry, but after the old assize used. And the justices which shall find default against the statutes shall make true punishment, and shall put under-conservators under them, which shall be sworn to like surveying and punishment. And the same justices in their sessions shall inquire, as well of their office, as at the information of the under-conservators, of all trespasses and defaults against any of the points aforesaid, and shall cause them which be thereof indicted to come before them; and if they be convict, they shall have imprisonment, and make fine after the discretion of the justices. And if the same be at the information of any of the conservators, they shall have half the fine. The mayor and warden of London shall have the conservation of such statutes, and make punishment, as is ordained for justices of the peace, in the Thames from Staines Bridge, and in the Medway, as far as the same is granted to them, 17 R. 2. c. 9.

271. FOR BETTER PRESERVATION OF SALMON WITHIN SEVERAL RIVERS in Eng. 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 18. ss. 11—18. [AMD. 23 G. 2. c. 26. ss. 7—9. and in part REP. as to its operation within Hants. and Wills., but not elsewhere, 37 G. 3. c. 95. s. 1. This last act being confined to these counties is omitted.]

272. The clause in 4 & 5 A. c. 21. (s. 3.) relating to the catching of salmon, &c. from the 30th of June till after the 11th of Nov., so far as it relates to the owners of the fishery in the rivers, in that act mentioned, and other persons entitled to fish in the same, shall be REP. id. s. 11.

273. All such owners, &c. from the 11th of Nov. till the 1st of Aug. in every year, may take or kill any salmon, salmon-peel, or salmon-kind, or expose them to sale, id. s. 12.

274. But shall not after the 1st of Aug. till the 12th of Nov. in any year, take or wilfully hurt any salmon, &c. by hawks, rucks, gins, nets, angles, or other devices, or offer to sale any of such fish, on the pains mentioned in 4 & 5 A. c. 21. id. s. 13.

275. If any person shall lay or draw any nets, engines, &c. or do any other act in the Severn, Dee, Wye, Tyne, Werra, Tees, Ribble, Mersey, Dun, Air, Ouse, Swale, Calder, Wharf, Eure, Derwent, and Trent, whereby the small fry of salmon, or any keeper or shedder salmon, or any salmon not 18 inches long from the eye to the extent of the middle of the tail, shall be taken or killed; or shall set any bank, dam, hedge, or stake, or nets, cross such rivers, whereby the salmon may be taken, or hindered from going up the rivers to spawn; or shall between the last day of July and the 12th of Nov., by any net, or device, take or wilfully hurt any salmon in such rivers, or shall at any time after the 12th of Nov., fish there for salmon with any other net than is allowed of by 1 E. 1. c. 17. (s. 4. Fish, &c. pl. 26.), and 30 C. 2. c. 9., and shall be convicted thereof, before one justice of the peace of the county, either upon view, by confession, or by one witness, he shall forfeit 5l. for every offence, besides the fish and the nets, &c. one moiety to the informer, the other to the poor of the parish where the offence was done, to be levied by distress and sale of goods, by warrant of the justice; and for want of distress, the offender shall be committed to the house of correction, or other county-gaol, for not more than 3 months, nor less than one, there to be kept to hard labour, and suffer such other corporal punishment as the justice shall think fit; and the justice shall order such nets, &c. to be seized and cut in pieces, or destroyed in his presence; and shall cause such banks, &c. made cross the river, to be removed at the charges of the offender; such charges, if not paid on conviction, to be levied in the same manner as such sum of 5l., id. s. 14.

276. The owners of the fisheries in the river Ribble, and their lessees, tenants, servants, and agents, may, within 1st Jan. and 1st Sept. in each year, take and kill salmon, salmon-peel, or salmon kind, in their fisheries, in such river, and may sell the same notwithstanding 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 18. s. 14., 23 G. 2. c. 26. s. 7.

277. Every person taking salmon of any kind or size in such river, between 14 Sept. and 1 Jan., shall be subject to the like penalties as were inflicted by 1 G. 1. S. c. 18., on persons taking salmon within the periods there mentioned, and may be convicted in like manner as there specified, 23 G. 2. c. 26. s. 8.

278. The 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 18., to be in force, except when hereby altered as to such river, id. s. 9.

279. No salmon shall be sent to London from any such rivers that weigh less than 6lb each fish, and every person buying, selling, or sending a salmon of less weight shall, on conviction, forfeit 5*l.* besides the fish, to go in moieties to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, and to the informer, and if not paid, to be levied by distress and sale of goods by warrant under hand and seal of the convicting justice, and in default of distress, the offender shall be committed to the house of correction, or county gaol, to be kept to hard labour for 3 months, unless the forfeiture is sooner paid, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 18. s. 15.

280. Offenders punished under this act shall not incur any penalty under another law for the same offence, id. s. 16.

281. All parties aggrieved by any judgment of such justice may appeal to the next general quarter-sessions, and the justices there shall finally determine the same, id. s. 17.

282. This act shall not extend to any ancient weirs or locks, but the same shall remain and be taken down, altered, or rebuilt as before this act, id. s. 18.

283. FOR PREVENTING THE DESTRUCTION OF THE BREED OF salmon, and fish of salmon kind in the rivers in Eng., 58 G. 3. c. 43.

284. The justices of the peace, at any general or quarter-sessions, shall appoint conservators or overseers for the preservation of the salmon, and fish of the salmon kind, and the brood, spawn, and fry thereof, and preventing the destruction thereof, and enforcing for that purpose the provisions of this act within the jurisdiction of such justice, id. s. 1.

285. Where no provision is made by any act now in force, for limiting the times within which salmon, or fish of the salmon kind may be taken in any of the rivers in Eng. such justices, at their quarter-sessions, at the request of any person, such person having first given notice in some newspaper usually circulated within the county, of his intention to apply to such sessions in that behalf, may fix certain days, not exceeding 150 days in each year, for each river within their respective counties, to be fence days for the several rivers; during which time no person whatever shall attempt to take, kill, or destroy any salmon or salmon trout, or fish of the salmon kind, or any brood, spawn, or fry of such fish; and such justices may, at any general quarter-sessions, vary annually the number of such days, and the periods at which they shall commence, as they shall think fit, id. s. 2.

286. If any person shall at any time hereafter endeavour to take, kill, or destroy, pursue, hurt, or injure any salmon, or salmon kind, by laying or using any hot lime or filth, or material or drug pernicious to fish, or using any water in which any green lint or flax has been steeped, or letting off stagnated water, or any water impregnated with any material or drug pernicious to fish; or if any person shall use or employ any such means, or use any fire or light or white object, or lay down any kind of net, engine, or device, or wilfully do or commit, or cause to be done or committed, any act whatsoever in any river, water, rivulet, stream, mill-dam, mill-sludge, cut, pool, or pond communicating therewith, for the destruction of the brood, spawn, or small fry of salmon therein (angling excepted); or if any person shall hereafter make, erect, or set any bank, dam, hedge, or stank, or nets, or place any fires, lights, or any white objects, so that the young fry or young salmon be prevented from going down from such rivers, rivulets, or other waters so communicating therewith, every such person shall, for every such first offence, forfeit not exceeding 10*l.* nor less than 5*l.*, and for every second and subsequent offence, not exceeding 15*l.* nor less than 10*l.* at discretion of the convicting justice or justices, and shall also forfeit all the fish, spawn, brood, or fry so taken, and all the nets, weapons, lines, instruments, boats, devices, or things used in the taking thereof, id. s. 3.

287. No person shall take, kill, or destroy, or knowingly have in his possession, either on the water or on the shore, or shall bring to shore, or cry or carry about, sell, or expose to sale, or exchange for any goods any spawn, fry, or brood of fish, or any unsizable fish, or any kepper or shedder salmon, being unseasonable salmon, commonly called old salmon, or any salmon caught in any river during the periods when fishing for salmon is prohibited under any law now in force, or under such order of such justices (as in s. 2.) aforesaid; and any conservator or overseer thereof, or any other person, under the authority of this act, may take and seize all or any such spawn, fry, or brood of fish, or such other fish aforesaid, wherever found, together with all ba-kets and packages in which found, and deliver the person on whom the same was found to a peace officer, and after every such seizure shall be made, such spawn, &c. together with the baskets and packages in which the same shall be so seized, shall be delivered to some peace officer who shall take such offender into his custody, and also such spawn, &c. and all baskets and packages so seized, and carry such offender, and all such spawn, &c., together with such baskets and packages with all speed, before some justice for the county; and on conviction of any such offender, before any such justice, such offender shall forfeit all such spawn, fry, or brood of fish, unsizable fish, and fish out of season, together with all baskets or packages in which the same shall be seized; and all such spawn, &c. together with such baskets and package, shall, by order of convicting justice be delivered to the person who seized the same, and who shall prosecute to conviction such offender; and every offender so convicted shall besides forfeit not exceeding 10*l.* nor less than 5*l.*, 58 G. 3. c. 43. s. 4.

288. Provided that nothing herein shall extend to legalize, nor to demolish, take away, or destroy any net, fish lock, coop, hay, or other work lawfully erected, put, placed, fixed, or used in any arm of the sea, or estuary, or mouth of any river, or in or upon any bank, sand, or shore thereof, or near thereto, or in or near any river, rivulet, brook, stream, pond, pool, or other water, mill-lead, mill-dam, sluice, or cut, which runs into or otherwise communicates therewith, or to the present methods used for taking and killing fish therein, other than and as are in this act particularly prohibited, id. s. 5.

289. The pecuniary and other penalties by this act imposed may be recovered, and offences against same heard before any one or more justice or justices of peace, for the county, city, or place where the offenders shall reside or offence is committed, upon the oath or affirmation of one witness, or by confession: and in case any person so convicted shall not immediately pay the penalty, together with costs into the hands of such justice or other person authorized to receive the same, such justice may order any constable to keep in custody any such person so convicted, and immediately thereupon may grant his warrant under his hand and seal, and thereby commit such offender to the common gaol or house of correction for the time hereinafter mentioned, unless such penalty and costs be sooner paid, or otherwise such justice may grant a like warrant to levy such penalty and costs by distress and sale of offender's goods; and all such penalties shall be paid, one moiety to the informer, and the other, after defraying all costs attending the prosecution and the levying of such penalty, to the overseers of the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, and the overplus, after any penalty, and all costs attending the levying and recovering thereof are deducted, (which costs shall always be taxed by the convicting justice) shall, on demand, be returned to the owner; and in case sufficient distress shall not be found, or such penalty and costs shall not be immediately paid, then such justice, for the first offence may commit such offender to such gaol or house of correction for any time not exceeding 4 nor less than 2 months; for the second offence, not exceeding 8 nor less than 6 months; and for the third and every other offence, for not exceeding 12 nor less than 8 months, there to be kept at hard labour, and remain without bail or mainprize, id. s. 6.

290. Any such justice upon information on oath against any person who shall offend against this act, may grant his warrant to apprehend any person so offending, and cause such offender to be brought before him, or some other justice; and any such justice, upon any information without oath, may grant his summons against the party charged, or for any witnesses to prove such offence; and if any person duly summoned shall neglect or refuse to appear, such justice shall, upon oath being made of the person being duly summoned, grant a like warrant to apprehend the party so neglecting to appear; and such justice shall determine the matter of every such offence in a summary way, id. s. 7.

291. No owner, farmer, or occupier of, or any person otherwise interested in any fishery, or right of fishing in any arm of the sea, river, or other water aforesaid, shall be deemed an incompetent witness to prove any offence against this act, by reason of his being such owner, &c., id. s. 8.

291. Every pecuniary penalty imposed by this act may be recovered in a summary manner according to this act, or may be sued for, together with full costs, by and to the only proper use of any person who shall inform in any court of record at Westminster, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 9.

292. Every conviction under this act shall be certified by the convicting justice to the quarter-sessions for the county, city, or place, and be there filed of record, and such conviction shall be to the effect or in the form following, viz.

‘Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year —, A. B. was on the complaint of C. D. convicted before me [or us] E. F., one [or two] of H. M.’s justices of the peace, [as the case may be,] for — in pursuance of an act made in the 58th year of the reign of H. M. king George the third, [insert the title of the act,] for that the said — [state the offence,] [and if a case in which different penalties are imposed for repeated offences,] this being the first offence, [second or third offence, as the case may be,] and I [or we,] do hereby adjudge him [her or them,] to pay and forfeit for such offence the sum of — of lawful money of G. B., together with the farther sum of — for costs of suit or prosecution to the said C. D. Given under my hand and seal [or our hands and seals, as the case may be,] at — in the county of — the day and year above written.’

FISHERY (SOUTHERN WHALE).

Which conviction shall be good and not be quashed for want of form only, and shall not be removed by certiorari or otherwise, into K.B. or any other court of record at Westminster, but shall be final, 58 G.3. c.43. s.10.

293. Where any offender shall be punished for any offence by this act, he shall not again be prosecuted by virtue of any other law, id. s.11.

294. Every person aggrieved by the judgment of any such justice, may appeal to the justices at the then next or next but one general quarter-sessions; but no such appeal shall be received unless the appellant shall, within 10 days after such judgment, and 20 days before the holding of such sessions, leave notice in writing, as well at the public office of the clerk of the peace for the county where the offender was convicted, as to the person, or at the dwelling-house of the informer, of his intention to bring such appeal; and shall also enter into a recognizance before such justice in such sum as such justices shall think fit, not exceeding 20*l.*, conditioned to try such appeal, and likewise to pay costs of appeal, in case he has judgment against him, within 10 days next after the determination thereof; and such justices at their session, shall upon proof of such notice, hear and determine such appeal in a summary way, and award to the party in whose behalf such appeal is determined, such costs as they in their discretion shall think just, to be paid by the party against whom such appeal is determined: and in case such costs shall not be paid within 10 days next after the hearing of such appeal, they may be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the person ordered to pay the same, or his sureties, by the same means as distresses are ordered to be taken under s.6. pl. 289. id. s.12.

295. No action, for any thing by virtue hereof, shall be brought until one calendar month's notice thereof in writing has been given to, or left at place of abode of the intended defendant, setting forth the cause of action, and the name and place of abode of the plaintiff and his attorney, and such action shall be brought within 3 calendar months after the cause thereof arose, and shall be laid in the county, city, or place where the fact was committed, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act, and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done by virtue hereof, and the defendant may, before action brought, tender amends to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, and plead the same in bar if not accepted, together with not guilty, and any other plea by leave of the court, and if it shall appear that such action was commenced before the expiration of one calendar month after such notice, or after the end of such 3 calendar months, or that the same was not laid in the proper county, or after tender of sufficient amends, the jury shall find for the defendant, or if plaintiff discontinues after appearance, or is non-suited, or has judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall have double costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same; and no action, suit, information, or other proceeding shall be brought against any person for any offence against this act, unless the same shall be laid or commenced within 6 calendar months next after such offence committed, id. s.13.

296. Nothing in this act shall alter any act or any penalty in force for the regulation of any fishery, or the preservation thereof, or of the brood, spawn, or fry of fish, in any particular county or arm of the sea, estuary, or river, id. s.14.

297. Nothing herein shall affect the rights of any lords or ladies of any manor, and such lords and ladies may appoint conservators within their manors, id. s.15.

298. (a) Nothing in this act shall prejudice the rights, interests, privileges, franchises, or authority of any body politic, corporate, or collegiate, or defeat any power, &c. by them claimed over any river, id. s.16.

298. Nothing in this act shall prejudice the rights, authority, &c. of the mayor and citizens of London, or the lord mayor of such city, or defeat any power claimed by such mayor and citizens as conservators of the Thames or Medway, id. s.17.

FISHERY (SOUTHERN WHALE).

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

299. FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE FISHERIES CARRIED ON from *G. 305. The several premiums hereafter mentioned shall be paid for 3 years to 28 vessels employed in the fisheries carried on to the southward of the Greenland or Davis's Straits under the limitations herein expressed, viz. every such ship shall appear by her register to be British built, and shall be fitted or cleared out from some port of G. B. or Ire. or the islands of Jersey, Guernsey or Man, and shall be wholly owned by H.M.'s subjects usually residing in such dominions, and navigated as in s.7. directed, 35 G.3. c.92. s.2. [These premiums, which are given by ss.3, 4 & 5., seem EXP., and see new premiums granted till 1823, 59 G.3. c.113.]

306. The several premiums hereinafter mentioned shall be paid to certain ships employed in the southern whale fishery under the regulations in 55 G.3. c.45. [which act is verbatim with the 59 G.3. c.113., 35 G.3. c.92., 59 G.3. c.113. s.1.]

307. For 8 of such ships which shall be fitted and cleared out between the 1st Jan. and the 31st Dec. 1819, and in each of the four succeeding years, and shall sail to the southward of the Equator, and there carry on the fishery, and shall return before the 1st Dec. in the year subsequent, to some port in G. B., there shall be paid 300*l.* to each of the 8 such ships which shall so sail and first arrive within the times hereinafter mentioned, with the greatest quantity of oil or head-matter, taken together, being not less in the whole than 20 tons in each of such ships, and being the produce of one or more whales, or other creatures being in those seas, taken and killed by the crews of every such ship, id. s.2.

308. For 4 other such ships which shall be so fitted or cleared out, and shall sail within such time, and proceed to the southward of 36 south lat., and shall there bonâ fide carry on such fishery, and shall not return until after the expiration of 14 calendar months from the day on which they cleared out, but before 31st Dec. in the second year after their clearing out to some port in G. B., there shall be paid 400*l.* to each of such ships which shall so sail and arrive within such time with the greatest quantity of oil and head matter, taken together, being not less in the whole than 20 tons, and being such produce as in s.2. id. s.3.

309. For 10 other ships which shall be fitted and cleared out between 1st Jan. and 31st Dec. 1819, and in each of the four succeeding years, and shall double Cape Horn, or pass through the Straits of Magellan into the South Seas, and carry on such fishery during 4 months to westward of Cape Horn in those seas, or shall double the Cape of Good Hope, and carry on such fishery during 4 months to eastward of 105 degrees of east long. from London, and shall not return to G. B. until after the expiration of 16 calendar months from the day they cleared out, but before the 31st Dec. in the second year after their clearing out, there shall be paid or allowed 600*l.* to any one of such ships which shall so sail and arrive within times last-mentioned, with the greatest quantity of oil and head-matter, taken together, being not less in the whole than 30 tons; and there shall be paid 500*l.* to each of nine of such ships last-mentioned, which shall so sail and arrive within the times last-mentioned, with the next greatest quantity of oil and head matter, taken together, being not less in the whole than 30 tons, and being in both cases such produce (as in s.2.) aforesaid, and killed by the crew thereof in such voyage, either outward or homeward, id. s.4.

310. All ships which shall clear out for the southern whale fishery, and shall return to any point in Ire. with a cargo of oil, the produce of such fishery, within the period limited by this act, shall be entitled to the benefits arising from the bounties or remission of duties, or others wise, granted by 35 G.3. c.92. and 55 G.3. c.45., in like manner as if such ships had returned to any port in G. B., id. s.5. [See also similar provision, 48 G.3. c.124. s.6. EXP.]

311. The owners of any ship or vessel need not clear out specially for the latitudes specified in this act, but shall be entitled to such premiums on complying with the other conditions hereby imposed, 35 G.3. c.92. s.6.

312. Every such vessel shall be navigated by a master and at least 3-4ths of the crew H.M.'s subjects usually residing in G.B., Ire., Guernsey, Jersey or Man, or if such vessel cleared out from any port of G. B. then the same may be navigated by persons being protestants, and who, not being H.M.'s subjects, have been heretofore employed in carrying on such fishery, and who, at the time of clearing out such vessel, shall take the oath, or if Quakers make a declaration of allegiance to H.M., or make oath or affirmation before two principal officers of customs (of which the collector shall be one) at the port where such vessel shall clear out (which oath, &c. they may administer), if it is their first voyage from any port of G. B., that they have established or intend to establish themselves and families in G. B. as subjects of H.M., and if it is their second or any subsequent voyage that they have already done so, and have taken such oath and made such declaration, 35 G. 3. c. 92. s. 7.

313. No vessel employed in such fishery, the master of which shall have taken the oath or made the declaration of allegiance and fidelity to H.M. required by 35 G. 3. c. 92. s. 7., shall lose the benefit of any fishing voyage by reason that the master has not taken the oath or made the declaration of his having already established, or of its being his intention to establish himself and family in G. B., or by reason that all or any of the foreign protestants employed as mariners in navigating such vessel, have not taken any of the oaths or made any of the declarations by 35 G. 3. c. 92. s. 7. required, 53 G. 3. c. 111. s. 2.

314. No such premium shall be paid to any person on account of any such vessel unless there is on board thereof an apprentice indentured for 5 years for every 50 tons burthen of such vessel by admeasurement who was between 14 and 18 years of age at the time when indentured, and who continued the whole voyage out and home for which the premium is claimed, unless he died or deserted during the voyage, which facts shall be verified by the oath of the master, mate and two mariners belonging to such vessel: unless by reason of some unavoidable accident (proof whereof shall be made to the satisfaction of the officers herein mentioned) two mariners cannot be procured, and then by the oath of the master and mate taken before two principal officers of customs at the port to which such vessel shall return from such fishery (of which the collector shall be one); and in confirmation thereof the proper officers of such port shall, immediately after their return visit such vessel and muster the crew, and having satisfied themselves therein, certify the same to the commissioners of customs for Eng. and Scot. 35 G. 3. c. 92. s. 8.

315. Every master of any ship or any other person to whom an apprentice is indentured pursuant hereto who shall suffer him to quit his service (except as herein provided) before the expiration of his term, shall forfeit 50*l.* to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed; provided such penalty shall not be inflicted where any apprentice is legally discharged before a magistrate or justice, or is turned over to another person concerned in such fisheries to serve the remainder of his term, but no premium shall be paid under this act unless there is inserted in the indentures of apprentices, or of such as are so turned over, the name of the ship or vessel on board of which they are bound to serve, id. s. 9.

316. If the term of any such apprentice shall expire during the voyage, he shall be deemed an apprentice for the whole voyage, and shall, on such ship's return, be mustered accordingly, id. s. 10.

317. Any apprentice belonging to any vessel fitted out, on such fishery who has not completed 2 voyages, and whose age does not exceed 21 years, shall not be impressed from such service, and special protections shall be issued by the admiralty to protect them from impressment into H.M.'s service, 45 G. 3. c. 124. s. 5. 48 G. 3. c. 124. s. 5. 51 G. 3. c. 34. s. 6.

318. No such premiums shall be paid on account of any ship employed in such fishery unless a log-book has been regularly kept, in which the various situations and occurrences respecting such ship during the voyage shall be inserted every day, and particularly the times when such ship was in sight of land, distinguishing what land, and the bearings thereof, the distance therefrom, and the soundings, and also the time when and latitude where any whale or other marine creature was taken by such ship, which log-book shall be delivered by the master or person having charge of such ship, at the time of his reporting such vessel to the collector of customs at the port where she arrives on her return, for his inspection, and such master or person, and the mate of such vessel, shall jointly and severally verify such log-book on oath before such collector, 35 G. 3. c. 92. s. 11.

319. In case any such vessel shall, in the course of her voyage, fall in with any of H.M.'s vessels of war, the master or person having the command of her shall produce to the captain of such vessel of war such log-book, and such captain shall make a memorandum in such log-book of the day on which it was so produced, and subscribe his name thereto, and make an entry in his own log-book of the name of the vessel so producing her log-book to him; and if any vessel hereby required to keep a log-book shall put into any foreign port where there is a British consul or other chief British officer, such master shall produce his log-book to one or other of them, who shall make a memorandum therein of the day on which it was produced, and sign the same, 35 G. 3. c. 92. s. 12.

320. The master, mate and two mariners of every such ship, unless where by accident two mariners cannot be procured, proof of which shall be made to officers of customs hereinafter mentioned, then such master and mate shall on importation of any oil or head-matter as being taken on such fishery, declare on oath before the collector and another principal officer of customs at the port of arrival from what port and the time when such vessel cleared out, and that all such oil and head-matter is the produce of whales or other marine creatures bonâ fide taken by the crew of such ship, only at the times and in the latitudes in such log-book mentioned, id. s. 13.

321. In case the master or person taking charge of any ship fitted out as aforesaid for the purpose of obtaining some one of such premiums, shall knowingly receive or permit to be received on board such ship for purpose of obtaining any of such premiums, any oil or other produce of whales or other marine creatures, which whales, &c. shall not have been bonâ fide taken by his crew only, he shall forfeit 500*l.*, one moiety to go to the party discovering the same, provided he shall give information thereof within one month after such master, &c. shall have reported his ship inwards, which he shall do in the usual time and manner; and the owners of such ship shall, if any money is due to such master, &c. by them at the time of such information given, detain the same and pay it towards discharging such penalty to the collector or other principal officer of customs at such port of return; and if such owners shall pay any money, or otherwise account for such money with such master or person within one month after report so made, and such master or person shall be liable to such penalty; they shall make the same good and pay it to such collector, &c. towards discharging such penalty, id. s. 14.

322. In case any whale or other marine creature shall be taken north of the equator by the crew of any of the [15 vessels, 35 G. 3. c. 92. s. 3. Exp.] [8 vessels, 51 G. 3. c. 113. s. 2.], to which premiums are given as aforesaid, or to the northward of the 36 deg. of S. Lat. by the crew of any of the [5 vessels, 35 G. 3. c. 92. s. 4. Exp.] [4 vessels, 59 G. 3. c. 113. s. 3.], to which other premiums are also so given, or in any part of the Atlantic Ocean by the crew of the [8 vessels, 35 G. 3. c. 92. s. 5. Exp.] [10 vessels, 59 G. 3. c. 113. s. 4.], going round or doubling Cape Horn, either on the voyage out or return home of such ships, the oil or head-matter produced from such whales or creatures so caught shall be deemed to be part of the quantity hereby required to be taken and imported, to entitle the owners of such ships to some of the premiums hereby granted, provided it appear by the log-book that such ship hath actually sailed beyond, and been bonâ fide employed in the fishery either to the south of the equator, or of 36 deg. of S. Lat., or during four months to the west of Cape Horn, as the case may be, id. s. 15.

323. In case the rules, &c. hereby prescribed have been fully complied with, 4 of the commissioners of customs in Eng., or 3 in Scot., may order the receiver-general of customs to pay out of any money in his hands arising from customs any premiums to the persons legally entitled to them.

324. No premiums granted by any acts of parliament for encouragement of the southern whale fishery shall be allowed for any vessel employed therein, unless the same is claimed within 2 months from the time the crew is mustered inwards by the proper officer, and such claim shall be made in writing by application from the owners of every vessel to the commissioners of customs in Eng. and Scot., and also unless, within one month after such time for making such claim, it shall be made appear that the requisites of law have been complied with, id. s. 17.

325. Any vessel employed in the southern whale fishery may sail and pass for that purpose to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope and westward of Cape Horn, or through the straits of Magellan, id. s. 18.

326. Provided that any vessel sailing east of the Cape of Good Hope for such purpose, shall not pass to the northward of the equator, nor make more than 51 deg. E. Long. from London; nor shall any vessel passing to the west of Cape Horn, or through the straits of Magellan, for such purpose, make, either to the north or south of the equator, more than 180 deg. W. Long. from London, id. s. 19.

327. Any vessel fitted and cleared out, and licensed conformably to 35 G. 3. c. 92., and sailing to the east of the Cape of Good Hope for such purpose, may pass beyond 51 deg. of E. Long. from London, provided that such vessel, after passing such 51st deg., shall not pass to the northward of 15 deg. of S. Lat. until she shall have passed to the eastward of 180 deg. of E. Long., 38 G. 3. c. 57. s. 5.

328. And any such vessel passing to the westward of Cape Horn or through the Straits of Magellan for such purpose, may sail beyond 180 degrees of W. long. from London, provided that such vessel, when she has passed such 180th deg., does not pass to the northward of 15 deg. of S. lat. until they come within 51 deg. of E. long. from London, 38 G.3. c. 57. s. 6.

329. Any vessels fitted, cleared out, and licensed conformably to 35 G.3. c. 92, and sailing to the east of the Cape of Good Hope for such purpose, and having passed beyond 123 deg. of E. long. from London, may sail to the northward as far as 1 deg. of N. lat., but no farther, till such vessel has passed to the eastward of 180 deg. of E. long. from London, 42 G.3. c. 18. s. 4.

330. Such vessels so fitted out and licensed, and sailing to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope for purpose of carrying on such fishery, and having passed 51 deg. of E. long. from London, may sail to the northward as far as 10 deg. of S. lat., but not farther, until she has passed to the eastward of 115 deg. of E. long. from London, and having passed such 115th deg., may sail as far to the northward as by 42 G.3. c. 18. s. 4. allowed, 43 G.3. c. 90. s. 1.

331. Such vessels so fitted and cleared out and licensed, and sailing to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope for such purpose, and having passed beyond 115 deg. of E. long. from London, may sail to the northward as far 10 deg. of N. lat., but not farther, until she has passed to the east of 180 deg. of E. long. from London, 51 G.3. c. 34. s. 5.

332. Such vessels so fitted out and licensed, and sailing to the westward of Cape Horn or through the Straits of Magellan for such purpose, and having passed beyond 180 deg. of W. long. from London, may sail to the northward as far as 10 deg. of S. lat., but not farther, until she has passed within 51 deg. of E. long. from London, 43 G.3. c. 90. s. 2.

333. Every such vessel intending to sail to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope [or to the westward of Cape Horn, or through the Straits of Magellan, appears RER. 42 G.3. c. 77. see next pl.] shall, before she proceed on her voyage, take a licence for each voyage from the directors of the East India Company, in the name and under the seal of such company, specifying which of such voyages such ship is licensed to perform, and it shall be valid for the voyage expressed only, and such directors need not grant any licence to pass to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, to more than 10 vessels in one season, nor to any vessels whatever, unless the applicant shall produce a manifest or certificate under the hand of the collector or other chief officer of customs at the port from whence such vessel is to sail, verified by the oath of the owners or master thereof, taken before and attested by any person authorized to take affidavits, specifying the names and places of abode of such owners and master, and also the species, quantity, quality, and value of all goods then on board, or afterwards to be taken on board before her departure outwards, and also unless it appears by such manifest, &c. to such directors, that no goods or merchandize (save only the ship's stores, and the tackle, &c. necessary for purpose of such voyage) are taken or intended to be taken into such vessel, 35 G.3. c. 92. s. 20.

334. Any British built ship or vessel owned and navigated according to law, may pass through the Straits of Magellan, or round Cape Horn, and carry on the fisheries in the Pacific Ocean, from Cape Horn to 180 degrees of west longitude from London, and may trade within such limits, without having obtained any licence or authority from the East India or the South Sea Co., 42 G.3. c. 77.

335. The East India Company need not grant any licence for any vessel to pass within the limits of their exclusive trade round the Cape of Good Hope, until the major part of the owners of such vessel shall have executed a bond to such company in a penalty of 2000*l.*, conditioned for payment to such company of 1000*l.*, as a forfeiture to them, besides the penalties herein mentioned, in case any goods (except as in s. 20. pl. 333. excepted,) shall be taken into such vessel on her outward voyage; or in case such vessel has taken on board, on her homeward voyage, any goods, &c. of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the East Indies, or any islands, ports, or places, between the Straits of Magellan and Cape of Good Hope, to the value of 100*l.*, computing the same according to the value in Eng., except such stores, &c. as have become necessary for the crew to take on board, for the sole use of such crew, 35 G.3. c. 92. s. 21.

336. If any vessel employed in the southern whale fishery, to the east of the Cape of Good Hope, or west of Cape Horn, shall proceed beyond the limits in s. 19. expressed, unless driven there by stress of weather or other accident, or being so driven shall not return within such limits as soon as the safety of such vessel will admit, or if any ship shall depart from any port without such licence as in s. 20., and shall go beyond the Cape of Good Hope, or the Straits of Magellan, or in any other place within such company's exclusive trade, or if any ship so licensed to go to the fishery beyond the Cape of Good Hope, shall have or take on board before her return, any goods, &c. other than such as have been described by such manifest or certificate as in s. 20. pl. 333. and except the oil, head matter, or bone of whales or other creatures taken in such fishery, every such vessel and the goods, &c. on board of her and the owners, master and crew thereof shall be deemed to be subject to the several provisions, regulations and penalties by any act imposed on any persons or their ships, goods, &c. who shall repair to or trade in the East Indies, or other places within such company's limits, without such licence, and the offenders may be sued, and the penalties incurred may be recovered in any court of justice in G. B., or the East Indies where the offences against such acts may be instituted, 35 G.3. c. 92. s. 22.

337. In case any thing shall be done by any such licensed vessel, or by the owners, master or crew thereof in any way respecting the privileges of such company contrary to this act, such owners shall not be entitled to, and such company need not grant them any future licence for the same or another vessel to proceed within the limits of such company's exclusive trade, id. s. 23.

338. In case any such licensed ship shall touch at St. Helena, or shall be found within such limits, the governor of St. Helena, the commander of any ship belonging to or in the service of such company, or any person or agent specially authorized by them, and residing at any place within such limits may search such ship and see if any goods, &c. are on board her contrary to this act, and if any are found, the same shall be forfeited to such company, and the owners and master thereof shall be liable to all other penalties for trading contrary to such company's charters, and such company and persons aforesaid may seize such goods to their use and send them home or sell the same to the use of such company as they think fit, id. s. 24.

339. Within 30 days after the return of any vessel from a fishing voyage to the east of the Cape of Good Hope, the master thereof shall deliver to the company's secretary for the use of the court of directors, a certificate under the hand of the chief officer of customs at the port of arrival, verified by oath of such master, taken and attested as in s. 20. pl. 335., that no goods, &c. of the growth, produce or manufacture of the East Indies, China or elsewhere between the Cape of Good Hope and the Straits of Magellan, except oil, head-matter, or bone of whales, or the fish ambergris or seal skins have been taken on board of such vessel during such voyage, and in case any such goods, &c. have been so taken on board, such certificate shall specify the species, quantity, quality, and value thereof, and the cause why taken on board, and such owner shall not be entitled to any bounty under this act until such certificate has been so delivered, and such secretary's receipt for the same produced, id. s. 25.

340. Ships sailing within limits of the South Sea company shall have a licence, 35 G.3. c. 92. s. 26. [See RER. 42 G.3. c. 77. pl. 334., and see the South Sea company abolishing act, 47 G.3. S. 1. c. 23., 55 G.3. c. 57. SOUTH SEA COMPANY.]

341. Such vessels which shall be so fitted or cleared out for the purpose of doubling the Cape of Good Hope or Cape Horn, or passing through the Straits of Magellan, not being less than 200 tons burden, may be properly furnished with arms and ammunition, provided the owners thereof before clearing out shall obtain a licence from the admiralty, authorizing the same, id. s. 27.

342. The admiralty may grant such licence as in s. 27. when they deem fit, provided there has been exhibited to them a certificate under the hands and seals of the commissioners of customs (which they shall grant) testifying that such vessel is entered for the purpose of doubling such capes, or passing such straits, and provided the owners thereof have entered into a bond with two sureties in 1000*l.*, conditioned that such arms, &c. shall not be used for any unlawful purposes, but only for resistance or defence, in case of involuntary hostility, id. s. 28.

343. No vessel shall be entitled within the periods hereby limited for such vessel to sail and return from such voyage, to more than one premium, although such vessel shall make two voyages within any one of such periods, id. s. 29.

344. No such premium shall be paid to any owner of any vessel which shall clear out on such fishery, unless it appears by certificates from the proper officers of customs that such vessel was visited, and the crew by them mustered, as well before the clearing out of such vessel, as on her return to any port of G. B., id. s. 30.

345. No vessel fitted out for such fishery shall be entitled to any of such premiums, unless the same has been duly registered pursuant to 26 G.3. c. 60., id. s. 31.

346. On the return of every vessel from such fisheries in which any oil or head-matter shall be imported, and on account of which any of such premiums are claimed, if it is suspected that such oil, &c. is mixed with water or other thing to increase its quantity; the principal officer of customs at the port of such ship's return, shall appoint one or more skilful persons to examine the same, and ascertain whether it has been mixed with water or other materials (other than oil or head-matter so taken) whereby the quantity is increased, and if it has been so mixed no premium shall be paid to the owner, and besides the loss of premium, such oil or head-matter shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of customs; and if any dispute shall arise whether the same has been so mixed, the proof shall lie on the party claiming the premiums, and not the seizing or prosecuting officer, id. s. 32.

547. Before any such premiums shall be paid, the exact quantity of oil or head-matter taken together, imported in such vessel, shall be truly ascertained and certified to the commissioners of customs in Eng. and Scot. by the proper officer of customs, 35 G. 3. c. 92. s. 37.

548. No harpooner, line-manger or boat-steerer belonging to any vessel fitted out on such fishery shall be impressed from such service, but shall be privileged therefrom so long as he belongs to any vessel in such fishery, id. s. 54.

549. No boat used as and commonly called a whale boat belonging to any vessel employed in such fishery [or in the fishery carried on to the southward of the Greenland Seas or Davis's Straits; 55 G. 3. c. 45. s. 6. 59 G. 3. c. 115. s. 6.] shall be liable to be seized on account of her built, provided on the return of such vessel from such fisheries she is laid up in such place as the principal officer of customs at her port of arrival shall approve, and shall not be employed but in such fishery, id. s. 55. 55 G. 3. c. 45. s. 6. 56 G. 3. c. 115. s. 6.

550. Foreigners not exceeding 40 families who have heretofore been employed in carrying on such whale fishery, and being the owners of any ship, and intending to reside with their families in this kingdom, and to continue such fishing from thence, shall on or before 31st Dec. 1798, [enlarged to 31st Dec. 1805, by 38 G. 3. c. 57. s. 7. 42 G. 3. c. 114.] come to port of Milford in Pembrokeshire, and bring any number of ships not exceeding 20, and manned with not less than 12 seamen, and it shall appear by oath or otherwise to the commissioners of customs, that they have been so employed for 3 years before their arrival here, and that they and their families are residents here, and the same is by them certified to H. M., he may allow the cargoes of oil, goods, &c. arriving in such ships to be admitted to entry without duty, 35 G. 3. c. 92. s. 36. [Exp.]

551. If any persons not being subjects of H. M., and being the owners of ships so admitted to entry shall fit out such ships for a whaling voyage from such port, and shall go before a justice or the principal officer of customs in the port of Milford, and there take the oath of allegiance to H. M., and obtain a certificate thereof, and which they shall administer and give, on payment of 2s., H. M. may order such vessel to be registered and have a certificate of registry as a British ship; and such vessel shall be entitled to the benefits of such registry so long as the owner resides in this kingdom, or such vessel is owned by any natural born subject, and enjoy all the privileges, bounties, &c. hereby granted to any British ship employed in the whale fishery, subject nevertheless to the same rules and penalties; and such person shall enjoy the rights of natural born subjects, subject to the same disabilities, as the same are granted to aliens by act of parliament, provided that such owners, not being natural born subjects of H. M. shall prove in the manner by 26 G. 3. c. 60, directed by taking the oath, or making the declaration hereinafter mentioned if a quaker, instead of the oath by that act required, that they are the sole owners of such vessels and shall also conform to the other regulations respecting registry in 26 G. 3. c. 60. contained, id. s. 37.

552. Such oath or declaration shall be in force herein set down, as far as same is applicable, id. s. 38. [Q<sup>r</sup>. these sections Exp., see 55 G. 3. c. 111. and 52 G. 3. s. 102.]

553. If any person shall knowingly give false certificate for any purpose required by this act, such person shall forfeit 500*l.*, and be incapable to serve H. M. in any way; and every person who shall counterfeit, alter, erase, or falsify any certificate hereby required, or shall knowingly or wilfully make use of any false certificate, or certificate so counterfeited, &c. shall forfeit 500*l.*, and such certificates shall be void, id. s. 39.

554. One moiety of the penalties and forfeitures hereby inflicted (except where otherwise hereby directed) shall go to H. M., and the other to the officer of the customs prosecuting for the same in any court of record at Westminster, or in the court of exchequer in Scot., id. s. 40.

555. If any action is brought against persons for things done under this act, the defendant may plead the general issue, and give the special matter and this act in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance thereof; and if it shall so appear the jury shall find for the defendants, and if plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues after appearance, or if judgment is given on any verdict or demurrer against him, the defendants shall have treble costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 41.

559. FOR THE BETTER ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE Greenland trades, 25 G. 2. c. 7. s. 1. [The rest of this act relates to the plantation trade.]

560. All H. M.'s subjects of Eng., Wa., and Ber., and all other persons residing here, may freely trade into and from Greenland and those seas, and there take whales and all other sorts of fish, and import into this kingdom all sorts of oil, blubber and fins, and may exercise all trades to and from Greenland and those parts, id. ibid.

561. FOR REGAINING AND ENCOURAGING, AND SETTLING THE Greenland trade 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 17. Exp. all but ss. 8. & 28. (PUBLIC clause, s. 30.) [EXT. 1 Ann. S. 1. c. 16.]

562. The company of merchants of London trading to Greenland shall, during the continuance of the joint stock hereby created [since Exp.] enjoy the free trade and catching of whales by sea, or otherwise, to and from Greenland, the Greenland seas, and to and from the ports and places situated in such seas, and in all other seas and places, except in the seas belonging to the plantations in America, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 17. s. 8. [Company laid open, 1 Ann. S. 1. c. 16. s. 1.]

563. No ships belonging to Eng., Wa., or Ber., belonging to such company employed in catching whales in the Greenland seas, and other such places, and importing whale oil or blubber, or other fish oil, or whale fins, shall enjoy any benefit by this act, unless such ship shall proceed on her voyage for Greenland, from Eng., &c., and was victualled for the voyage in some of those places to be attested by the collector of the port, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 17. s. 28.

564. Any of H. M.'s subjects who will adventure to Greenland for fishing whales shall have all the privileges that were granted to the Greenland company by 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 17., and shall pay no other duty than members of such company, 1 Ann. S. 1. c. 16. s. 1.

565. No harpooner shall be impress for H. M.'s service, id. s. 2. [see further on this point, post, 26 G. 3. c. 41. s. 17. pl. 389., 32 G. 3. c. 22. s. 6. pl. 403., 42 G. 3. c. 22. s. 2. pl. 390.]

566. FOR THE FURTHER SUPPORT AND ENCOURAGEMENT OF the fisheries carried on in the Greenland seas and Davis's Straits, 26 G. 3. c. 41. [AMD. 26 G. 3. c. 53. CON. 32 G. 3. c. 22. (which is Cox. 42 G. 3. c. 22. but not since), and further CON. as to so much as relates to the fisheries carried on in the Greenland seas and Davis's Straits, 38 G. 3. c. 34. s. 4., 39 G. 3. c. 101. s. 1., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 45. s. 9., 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 97. s. 2., 42 G. 3. c. 22. s. 1.; and further CON. except as to so much which allows vessels to complete their number of men at certain ports, 44 G. 3. c. 55. s. 3. and further CON. 46 G. 3. c. 29. s. 5., 48 G. 3. c. 20. s. 1., 50 G. 3. c. 11., 55 G. 3. c. 79. s. 1., 60 G. 3. & 1 G. 4. c. 12., and until 31 Dec. 1825, 1 G. 4. c. 33. s. 1., without such exception; and AMD. 32 G. 3. c. 22. (Q<sup>r</sup>. Exp. see above), 42 G. 3. c. 22., and as to the oaths to be taken, 58 G. 3. c. 15.; and as to the accounts to be laid before parliament, 59 G. 3. c. 103. s. 2. As to the completing the number of men, 46 G. 3. c. 9. post, pl. 408.]

567. The bounties herein mentioned shall be paid under the restrictions herein expressed, viz. Every British-built ship, owned by British subjects usually residing in G. B. or Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, which shall proceed from any port of G. B., or the said islands, on the whale fishery, to the Greenland seas, or Davis's Straits, or to the seas adjacent, and which shall be manned and navigated with a master and three-fourths of the mariners, at least, British subjects, usually residing in G. B., Ireland, or such islands, shall, before she proceeds on such voyage, or be entitled to the benefits of this act, be visited by the officer of customs belonging to such port, who shall examine into such ship, and take an account of the tonnage thereof by admeasurement, and certify such visitation, examination, and admeasurement, to the commissioners of customs; and if it appears by the certificate of such officer that she hath on board such a number of men, provisions, boats, fishing-lines, and instruments to be used in such fishery, as after mentioned; that she is strongly built, and otherwise a proper ship for such voyage and fishery, and hath on board, among her crew, a sufficient number of harpooners, steersmen, and line managers, who have before been employed in such voyages (the names of such persons to be contained in such certificate), and if it further appears, by the oath herein required to be made by one owner, and by the master or chief officer of such ship, written at the foot of such certificate, and made before the principal officers of customs of such port, or two of them, whereof the collector shall be one, and if the master, after such certificate and oath do also become bound, with two securities, unto H. M., in treble the bounty granted by this act (which bond the collector, with the approbation of the comptroller, is, as far as relates to such bounties, authorized to take, and which is to be in force for 3 years against the master and sureties, for the faithful dealings of such master and ship's company in regard to the ship and voyage), then 3 commissioners of customs in Eng. and Scot., on receiving such certificates and oaths, and it being certified to them by the collector and comptroller that security hath been given, shall give to the master and owners licence to proceed on such voyage, 26 G. 3. c. 41. s. 1.

368. Three commissioners of customs in Eng. and Scot. may authorize the collector or comptroller, or chief officer of customs of the port where any ship for carrying on the fishery in the Greenland seas or Davis's Straits is fitting out to grant a full licence for such ship to proceed on her voyage as soon as the proper officer has visited her and reported to such collector, &c. that the number of men, provisions, boats, fishing-lines and instruments, and all other requisites required by 26 G. 3. c. 41. are on board and have been complied with, in such manner and as effectually as the commissioners would have done, on receiving reports by such act directed to be transmitted to them, 1 G. 4. c. 33. s. 3.

369. The owners of any such vessel shall not be obliged to clear out specially for the respective latitudes in 26 G. 3. c. 41. and 28 G. 3. c. 20. mentioned, but shall be entitled to the premiums thereby granted on complying with the other regulations of such acts, 29 G. 3. c. 52. s. 4. [The 28 G. 3. c. 20. is Rev. by 35 G. 3. c. 92. s. 1.]

370. The principal officers of the customs at the port from which any such vessel intends to proceed, may accept an affidavit of the illness or unavoidable absence of the owners of such vessel, sworn by such owner before a justice of the peace, in which such owner shall declare all things which by 26 G. 3. c. 41. s. 1. he is required to declare on oath before such principal officers; and such affidavit shall be as effectual as if such owners had conformed to the directions of such act, 42 G. 3. c. 22. s. 4.

371. Because the oaths required to be taken by 26 G. 3. c. 41. s. 1. by the owners and chief officer of any vessel going to the Greenland seas and Davis's Straits fishery, may preclude persons from applying for the rewards for discovering the longitude at sea, or for finding a northern passage between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, such act, so far as it relates to such oaths, shall be Rev. 58 G. c. 15. s. 1.

372. And previously to the licence specified in the said act being granted, one owner and the master or chief officer, shall make oath before the persons authorized by the said act to administer the same, that it is really and truly their firm purpose and intention that such ship shall, as soon as the licence is granted, forthwith proceed, manned, furnished, and accounted as directed by the said act, on a voyage to the Greenland seas and Davis's Straits, or the seas adjacent, and there, in the then approaching season, to use the utmost endeavours of themselves and their ship's company to take whales or other creatures living in the sea, and on no other design or view of profit in such voyage, except any reward offered by any act of parliament for discovering the longitude at sea, or encouraging attempts to find a northern passage between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, and to approach the northern pole, and to import the whale fins, oil, and blubber thereof into G. B. (naming the port thereof to which it is their intention to return); and on the return of any such vessel, the master and mate shall make oath (mentioning the day of their departure), proceed on a voyage directed to such places, and have not since been on any other voyage, or pursued any other design or view of profit, except as aforesaid, and that they did there (mentioning the time of their stay in those seas) use the utmost endeavours of themselves and their ship's company to take whales or other creatures living in the sea, and to import the whale fins, oil, and blubber (if any) imported bona fide caught and taken in such seas, or with the assistance of the crew of such vessel, or of any British built ship or vessel licensed for that voyage pursuant to the said act; and the taking of such oaths as hereby prescribed shall (all the other requisites of the said act being duly complied with) be sufficient to authorize the granting of the licences for the sailing of such ships and vessels, and the payment of the bounties granted by such act, id. s. 2.

373. Every ship of the burthen of 200 tons, designed for this fishery, shall have on board 40 fishing lines of 120 fathoms each, 40 harpoon irons, 4 boats, with 7 men at the least (including an harpooner, a steersman, and a line manager) to each boat, in the whole 28 men, besides the master and surgeon, with 6 months provisions at least for such men; and every ship of larger burthen, an increase of 6 men, 1 boat, 10 lines, and 10 harpoon irons more, for every 50 tons above the 200, together with provisions in proportion; and every ship employed in such fishery, shall have on board apprentices indentured for 3 years at least, who shall not exceed 18, nor be under 14 years of age at the time they be indentured, in the proportion of 1 for every 35 tons burthen, and 1 fresh or green man for every 50 tons burthen, which apprentices and fresh men shall be accounted in the number required to be on board such ship, 26 G. 3. c. 41. s. 2. [See 29 G. 3. c. 53. s. 5. post, pl. 396. and 32 G. 3. c. 22. s. 5. pl. 400.]

374. On the return of such ship to the port of G. B. to which the owners and master had declared on oath their intention to return, the officer of the customs shall repair on board and view the condition of such ship and her lading, and certify the same, together with their observations thereon, as also the real tonnage of the ship; and such officers shall also take an account of the names of the master, mate, and other persons on board, distinguishing therein the harpooners and persons more immediately employed in the fishery, and certify the same; and the master and mate shall make the oath herein required, [See as to such oath, and new one given, 58 G. 3. c. 15. ante. pl. 317.] before the principal officers of customs, or two of them, whereof the collector shall be one, which oath shall be indorsed on, or annexed to the licence, and the schedule, certificate, licence, or oath, shall be transmitted by the collector and comptroller of such port to the commissioners for that part of G. B. where such ship shall arrive; and such commissioners, being satisfied, shall cause payment to be made to the master or owners, by the receiver-general of the customs, a bounty of 30s. per ton, according to the admeasurement of such ship, so duly certified, id. s. 3.

375. No person shall be allowed such bounty for any ship, unless such ship sail from the port where she shall be surveyed and cleared, directly on her intended fishery, on or before the 10th April in each year, and shall continue with her crew in the Greenland seas, or Davis's Straits, or the adjacent seas, diligently endeavouring to catch whales, &c. and shall not depart from thence before 10th Aug. following, unless such ship, if of the burthen of 300 tons, shall be laden with 30 tons of oil, or blubber in proportion thereto, the blubber to be rated with respect to the oil as 3 to 2, and one ton and a half of whale fins; or if she be of greater or lesser burthen, with a quantity of oil or blubber, and whale fins, in like proportion to the tonnage for which such ship shall be entitled to bounty, being the produce of whales caught by the crew thereof, or with the assistance of the crew of some other licensed ship, before that time, or shall be forced by some accident or necessity to depart sooner from those seas; which accident, &c. shall be verified on the oaths of the master and mate, upon her return from the fishery, before the principal officers of customs, or two of them (whereof the collector shall be one), at the port where she shall arrive, who shall transmit the same, together with the schedule, licence, and other documents, to the commissioners of customs for that part of G. B. where such ship shall arrive, id. s. 4.

376. Any owners of any vessel shall be allowed the bounty by 26 G. 3. c. 41. granted for any ship which shall proceed on the whale fishery from any port of G. B., or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, and shall sail from the port where she was surveyed and cleared out, directly on her intended voyage, on or before the 10th April in each year, although she shall depart from the Greenland seas, or Davis's Straits, or the adjacent seas, before 10th Aug. then following, and although she shall not be laden as by 26 G. 3. c. 41. s. 4. last pl. required; in case it appear by the log-book that she had continued with her crew in such seas diligently endeavouring to catch whales, or other creatures living in those seas, and did not depart from thence till the expiration of 16 weeks from the time of sailing from the port where she cleared out, provided such ship shall not have touched at any other port during the voyage, and has complied with all other regulations by the said act imposed, 29 G. 3. c. 53. s. 2.

377. In case any ship shall not sail from the port where surveyed and cleared, directly on her fishery, on or before 10th April in any year, provided it be made appear to the satisfaction of the commissioners of customs, that such ship was properly qualified, and duly fitted out, according to this act, and surveyed, cleared, and ready for sailing before 10th April, but was prevented from sailing by unavoidable necessity, but shall actually have sailed on or before 25th April in such year, the commissioners, or 4 of them in Eng., or 3 in Scot., may pay the bounty, as if such ship had actually sailed on 10th April, 26 G. 3. c. 41. s. 5.

378. The commissioners may order the receivers-general to satisfy the bounty out of any monies in their hands, arising from any of the duties under their management, id. s. 6.

379. The owners of any ship of 150 tons burthen, employed in such fishery, who have conformed themselves, in proportion to their tonnage, to the directions before prescribed to the owners of ships of greater burthen, shall be entitled to the bounty, according to the admeasurement of such ship, provided such admeasurement be not less than 150 tons, id. s. 7.

380. No ship at this time employed in the fishery, although above

400 tons, shall be entitled to a larger bounty than a ship of 400 tons, and she shall enjoy the same for 5 years, from 25th Dec. 1786, in case such ship shall not be worn out, or have ceased to carry on the fishery; and no ship which shall not, before 25th Dec. 1786, have been employed in the fishery, although such ship be above 300 tons, shall be entitled to a larger bounty than a ship of 300 tons would, 26 G.3. c.41. s.8.

381. Nothing in this act shall oblige the owner of any ship above 400 or 300 tons respectively, to fit out such ship otherwise than as a ship of 400 or 300 tons, according to this act, in order to entitle him to the bounty, id. s.9.

382. No bounty shall be paid to any person, on account of any ship employed in the fishery, unless a log-book shall have been constantly kept on board, in which the various situations and occurrences, respecting such ship, during the whole voyage, shall be inserted every day, and particularly the times when such ship shall have been in sight of land, distinguishing what land, and the bearings thereof, and the supposed distances therefrom, and the soundings; as also when, and the latitude in which, any whale, or other creature living in the sea, shall have been killed, or caught by the crew, which log-book, so kept, shall be delivered by the master at the time of making report of such ship to the collector of customs at the port where such ship shall arrive on her return; and such master, together with the mate, shall jointly and severally verify on oath the contents of such log-book before such collector, id. s.10.

383. In case any ship shall, in the course of her voyage, meet with any of H.M.'s ships of war, the master shall produce to the captain or officer commanding such ship of war, such log-book, and such officer shall make a memorandum in such log-book, of the day on which it was produced to him, and subscribe his name to such memorandum, and shall also make an entry in the log-book of the ship of war, of the name and description of the vessel, on board of which the log-book was kept; and in case such ship, on board of which such log-book is to be kept, shall put into any foreign port, where there is a British consul, or British officer, the master shall produce such log-book to such consul, &c. who shall also make a memorandum therein, of the day on which was produced, and subscribe the same, id. s.11.

384. Every ship, owned by subjects residing in Ire., and fitted out from that kingdom, which shall comply with the conditions of this act, shall be entitled to the same bounties as the like ships fitted out from G.B., and the islands in s.1. pl. 367. shall be entitled by this act, id. s.12.

385. The owners of any ship employed, or designed to be employed in the fishery, may insure the bounty they would be entitled to upon the return of such ship to the port to which the master and owner shall have declared, on oath, their intention to return; and on the performance of all other matters directed by this act, id. s.13.

386. Any person may import into G.B. whale fins, oil, or blubber of whales, seal oil, or seal skins, or any other produce of seals, or other fish, or creatures caught in the Greenland seas, or Davis's Straits, or the seas adjacent, by British subjects in British-built ships owned and navigated as herein required for the bounty duty free, id. s.14.

387. Provided oath be first made before the principal officers of customs, or 2 of them, whereof the collector shall be one in the port of importation, that all such whale fins, &c. are bona fide the fins, &c. of whales or the skins, &c. of seals caught in such seas by the crews of such vessels only so fitted out and navigated, id. s.15. [but as to this point, 32 G.3. c.22. s.4. post. pl. 401.]

388. If any person shall grant any false certificate for any of the purposes required by this act, he shall forfeit 500*l.*; and if any person shall counterfeit, erase, alter, or falsify any certificate, or shall knowingly make use of any false certificate, or of any certificate counterfeited, &c. he shall forfeit 500*l.*, and such certificate shall be of no effect, id. s.16.

389. No harpooner, linc-manager, or boat-steerer, who shall be in or belong to, any ship in the Greenland fishery trade, and whose name (distinguishing the capacity in which the person so named is to act) shall be inserted in a list, which is hereby required to be delivered, on oath, by the owner of such ship to the collector of customs at the port from which such ship is intended to proceed upon the fishery, shall be impressed from such service; and such harpooner, &c. may during the time they are not employed in the fishery, sail in the colliery trade, upon giving security to the satisfaction of the commissioners of customs, that they will proceed in such ship to the Greenland seas, or Davis's Straits, on the whale fishery, the next season; and every seaman or common mariner who, after the 1st of Feb. in any year during the continuance of this act, shall be entered to serve on board any ship intended to proceed on the fishery in the following season, whose name shall be inserted in the list so to be delivered, and who shall have given security to the satisfaction of the commissioners of customs to proceed and shall proceed accordingly, shall be exempt from being impressed from such service from the 1st of Feb., till after the expiration of the then next season for such fishery, and until the voyage home from thence shall be fully ended, and no longer, 26 G.3. s.41. s.17.

390. In every ship of the burden of 300 tons, 6 harpooners, 6 linc-managers, and 6 steersmen, and so in proportion on every ship of smaller burthen, one harpooner, one linc-manager, and one steersman, for every 50 tons burden, shall be protected from being imprest, and shall enjoy the privilege of sailing in the colliery and coasting trade under the conditions and in the manner by 26 G.3. c.41. s.17. directed, 42 G.3. c.22. s.2.

391. The Greenland seas, and Davis's Straits, and seas adjacent, within the intent of this act, shall extend to the lat. of 59 degrees 30 minutes north, and no farther, 26 G.3. c.41. s.18.

392. The commissioners of customs for Eng. and Scot. shall, at the beginning of every session, lay before both houses of parliament an account in writing under their hands, of what number of ships have been employed in the whale fishery to Davis's Straits, &c. with their names and burthens, from whence they were fitted out, and at what port they were discharged; and also what quantity of oil or blubber, or whale fins, each ship imported, id. s.19.

393. So much of 26 G.3. c.41. s.19. as requires any account to be laid before parliament by the commissioners of customs, shall be Rev., and such account shall be presented by the officer who prepares the same, agreeable to such act, 59 G.3. c.103. s.2.

394. One moiety of the penalties hereby inflicted shall be to the use of H.M., and the other to such officer of customs as shall sue for the same in any court of record at Westminster, or the court of exchequer in Scot., 26 G.3. c.41. s.20.

395. In actions against any person for any thing done under this act, the defendants may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it shall so appear the jury shall find for the defendant, and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after the defendant has appeared, or has judgment against him on demurrer, the defendant shall have treble costs with the usual remedy to recover the same, id. s.21.

396. If the master of any vessel, or other person to whom any apprentice shall be indentured pursuant to 26 G.3. c.41., 26 G.3. c.50. and 28 G.3. c.20. [this act is Rev. 35 G.3. c.92. s.1.] shall permit such apprentice to depart his service, except as herein is provided, before the expiration of the term for which he was bound, such master, &c. shall forfeit for each offence 50*l.* to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record in which no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, 27 G.3. c.53. s.5. [see 32 G.3. c.22. pl. 399.]

397. Nothing herein shall extend to inflict such penalty, in case any apprentice is legally discharged before a magistrate or justice, or shall be turned over from one person to another concerned in such fisheries, to serve the remainder of his time pursuant to such acts, id. s.6.
